Explanation: Funds are required for the United States to continue to provide assistance to appropriately vetted elements of the Syrian opposition and other appropriately vetted Syrian groups and individuals for the remainder of FY 2016. The Department of Defense (DoD) will continue to supply and equip vetted Syrian opposition forces actively engaged in the campaign against the Islamic State of Iraq and the Levant (ISIL). The DoD will provide scalable, tailored training adapted to fit the threat and operational environment. The DoD will continue to provide specialized enabler and leadership training to those individuals with demonstrated aptitude, capability, and commitment to the campaign. Success in these efforts will allow vetted Syrian opposition groups to defend and secure territory, initiate offensive military actions in support of the broader campaign to defeat ISIL, and promote conditions for a negotiated settlement to end the conflict in Syria. This is a Title IX OCO budget requirement.
