

Military Payroll Key Supporting Documents

The following tables list key supporting documents (KSDs) necessary to demonstrate audit-readiness for Military Pay. These KSDs include internal control KSDs and transactions KSDs, and include both Department-wide and service-specific documents. As reporting entities execute the FIAR Methodology, Discovery Phase, Key Task 1.4 “Evaluate Supporting Documentation,” they should use judgment in determining which of the KSDs identified are necessary to satisfy relevant financial statement assertions and whether additional service-specific KSDs are needed. For Transactions KSDs, the input factor “Eligibility” supports the validity of the transactions and the existence and rights/obligations financial statement assertions. The input factor “Amount” supports the accuracy of the transactions and the valuation financial statement assertion.

For Transactions KSDs, all of the following components of Military Pay may not be material to each reporting entity; therefore, in accordance with FIAR Methodology, Discovery Phase, Key Task 1.1 “Statement to Process Analysis,” reporting entities should perform a materiality analysis to determine which pays/entitlements are material prior to validating the existence of KSDs for all pays/entitlements. The following table is an example of entitlements/credits for Active Duty and Activated Reserve/Guard, depicting which entitlements/credits are material to each military service.
