Explanation: The FY 2000 Defense Appropriations Act provided $15 million of Other Procurement, Army funds in the Information Systems Security Program (ISSP) line for assessment of biometrics systems. The reprogrammed funds will be used to support two study efforts. The repository study ($1.9 million) will consider the management, warehousing and distribution of biometrics templates. The global study ($3.1 million) will consider the socio-legal aspects of the biometrics effort and document the laws, processing and policies concerning world-wide use of biometrics. This reprogramming realigns funds for proper execution of these studies.
