This prior approval reprogramming action is submitted for approval because these actions use general or special transfer authority, exceed established reprogramming thresholds, affect special interest items, or initiate a new start. This reprogramming action provides funding in support of higher priority items, based on unforeseen military requirements, than those for which originally appropriated; and are determined to be necessary in the national interest. They meet all administrative and legal requirements, and none of the items have previously been denied by the Congress.

PART I realigns $22.811 million within the Aircraft Procurement, Army 23/25 appropriation and $13.37 million within the Procurement, Defense-Wide, 23/25 appropriation as a result of proceeds from sales.

PART II realigns $41.541 million within the Aircraft Procurement, Army 22/24, appropriation as a result of proceeds from sales.

Explanation: Funds are required to procure updated C-146A aircraft parts and components using the proceeds from sales collected in the amount of $13.37 million. The C-146 aircraft parts and components will maintain the performance and life expectancy of the USSOCOM Non-Standard Aviation (NSAv) aircraft fleet. This will better equip the NSAv program to provide flexible and rapid operational support for Special Operation Forces with short take-off and landing capabilities in austere and remote environments, as well as humanitarian assistance evolutions such as casualty and non-combatant evacuation operations.
