CHAPTER 14

DEPOT MAINTENANCE REPORTING

1.0 GENERAL (1401)

1.1 Purpose (140101)

The DoD maintains a core depot-level maintenance and repair capability in support of mission-essential weapon systems and other military equipment needed to directly support operational requirements and enable the armed forces to execute the strategic and contingency plans prepared by the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff. This chapter prescribes Depot Maintenance Cost System (DMCS) requirements that are necessary to provide a comprehensive accounting of DoD depot maintenance workloads. The DoD Components must satisfy these requirements with regard to reporting the accomplishment and status of DoD depot maintenance workloads in:

1.1.1. DoD depot maintenance facilities;

1.1.2. Private-sector facilities;

1.1.3. Other DoD and Federal Government facilities; and

1.1.4. State, local, and foreign government facilities.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance (140102)

These requirements apply to DoD depot maintenance workloads the Components identify pursuant to Title 10, United States Code, section 2466, under which DoD reports to the Congress the respective depot maintenance workload levels in the public and private sectors.

2.0 COST DATA REQUIREMENTS (1402)

2.1 Scope (140201)

These requirements apply to all depot maintenance workloads, regardless of DoD funding source, e.g., Defense Working Capital Fund (DWCF), Research and Development, Procurement, General Purpose Forces, Special Operations Forces, Operation and Maintenance, or other appropriations; or non-DoD funding source, such as work done for private-sector customers or other federal, state, local, and foreign governments. Additional guidance is provided in:

2.1.1. Addendum 1 – DoD Major Depot Maintenance Activities;

2.1.2. Addendum 2 – Reporting Activity Identifying Codes;

2.1.3. Addendum 3 – DMCS Input File;
2.1.4. Addendum 4 – Work Breakdown Structure Codes; and

2.1.5. Addendum 5 – Work Performance Category (WPC) Codes.

2.2 Cost Data Collection (140202)

The uniform recording, accumulation, and reporting of costs incurred in depot maintenance operations is required to document the use of DoD resources and to assist management in the measurement of productivity and efficiency, development and use of performance measurement and cost standards, and identification of areas in need of increased management emphasis. In addition, the data will assist in the assessment of total DoD maintenance capability, duplication of capacity, and opportunities for areas of interservice support of maintenance workloads.

2.3 Managerial Use of Cost Data (140203)

Management requires depot maintenance information to assist in:

2.3.1. Developing inputs to meet Departmental and Congressionally-mandated requirements;

2.3.2. Comparing repair costs with replacement costs;

2.3.3. Overseeing the utilization of depot maintenance resources;

2.3.4. Evaluating budgets for customers and providers of depot maintenance;

2.3.5. Comparing cost trends among organic DoD depots and between organic and contract (private-sector) sources;

2.3.6. Formulating managerial direction and guidance for depot maintenance programs;

2.3.7. Evaluating depot maintenance activities for efficient use of resources;

2.3.8. Estimating depot maintenance requirements;

2.3.9. Monitoring DoD Component compliance with various Congressionally-mandated reporting requirements;

2.3.10. Examining the behavior of cost drivers over time; and

2.3.11. Identifying and evaluating total ownership costs.
2.4 Cost Definition (140204)

To ensure that all workloads are accounted for and reported in DMCS, regardless of funding source, reporting requirements have been stratified to facilitate reporting of total DoD costs, both funded and unfunded, for organic and contract depot maintenance. For DMCS reporting purposes:

2.4.1. Funded costs are those charged to the operating funds of the performing activity or the activity reporting contract depot maintenance. Funded costs are defined from the perspective of the activity performing the work or, in the case of contract maintenance, from the perspective of the program manager or administrator responsible for reporting contract costs. Costs incurred by a DWCF, or direct-funded organic activity in performance of reimbursable orders, are categorized as funded, as these costs are charged to the operating account of the performing activity. Funded costs at DoD organic activities normally include items such as payroll, operating materials, supplies, and services; and

2.4.2. Unfunded costs are costs financed by a DoD appropriation, activity, or entity other than that of the performing activity, or the reporting activity in the case of contract depot maintenance. In other words, financial responsibility resides with an entity other than the DMCS reporting unit. Material, such as a modification kit or other Government-furnished material financed by a procurement appropriation not available to the performing activity, is an unfunded cost. For a direct-funded activity, depreciation of plant and equipment financed by procurement appropriations, and facilities maintenance financed by a regional command, are examples of unfunded costs.

*3.1 General Reporting Requirements (140301)

The DMCS reporting requirements contained in this chapter, including any subsequent data and format revisions, are the responsibility of the Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Materiel Readiness (DASD (MR)), Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (OUSD) (Acquisition & Sustainment). The DASD (MR) must provide the data revisions and report format changes to the OUSD Comptroller (OUSD (C)), Financial Management Policy and Reporting (FMPR), for publication in subsequent revisions of this chapter. The senior official with responsibility for logistics in each DoD Component is responsible for timely reporting. The Assistant Secretary responsible for financial management in the Military Departments (or equivalent in other DoD Components) is responsible for providing complete and accurate financial data to the report preparer in sufficient time for report submission.
3.2 Applicability of Reporting Requirements (140302)

The depot maintenance cost report required by this chapter applies to all Military Services and other DoD activities that accomplish depot maintenance workloads or have depot maintenance workloads accomplished by contract. This includes all work performed by DoD depot maintenance activities, as well as all DoD depot-level maintenance accomplished by other Government activities and contractors.

3.2.1. Performing and Reporting Activities

3.2.1.1. Addendum 1 identifies the major DoD depots, shipyards, and other depot maintenance activities that historically have performed depot maintenance workloads. Report work performed at major depot maintenance activities listed in that addendum as specified in subparagraph 140401.B.1. Report work performed by DoD activities not listed in Addendum 1 in accordance with subparagraph 140401.B.2. Report all other work (i.e., that performed by contractors; other Federal Government activities; and state, local, and foreign governments) as stipulated in subparagraph 140401.B.3 by the program administering offices designated by the official in each DoD Component responsible for reporting DMCS data.

3.2.1.2. Addendum 2 is a list of reporting activity identifying codes. Activities performing depot maintenance not listed in Addendum 2, that are required to report, will request an appropriate identifying code from DASD (MR) or its designated agent.

3.2.2. Cost Reporting By DoD Performing Activities. Report records from DoD performing activities must reflect total costs incurred, including the cost of any subsidiary ordering from other Government activities or contracting with commercial firms incident to accomplishing workloads. The report accommodates separate reporting of direct labor hours, and costs of contract labor used to augment the workforce, when the hours and associated costs are obtainable from local cost accounting data.

3.2.3. Cost Reporting By Other Activities. Report records for DoD depot-level maintenance performed by contractors and DoD activities not listed on Addendum 1 must include all costs to DoD incurred in performing the work. These reports must:

3.2.3.1. Exclude intermediate-level, organizational-level, and other non-depot-level maintenance services (unless those maintenance services are an integral part of a depot-level task or contract);

3.2.3.2. Include the depot-level maintenance portion of Contractor Logistics Support (CLS), Interim Contractor Support (ICS), Performance-Based Logistics (PBL), and similar contracts. Report the direct costs of the depot maintenance performed, as well as associated overhead and other costs attributable to the depot-level maintenance portion of the contracts;

3.2.3.3. Include the cost of Government-furnished material and Government-furnished services consumed in producing a product or service, even though financed or provided by a source other than the primary reporting office or entity; and
3.2.3.4. Provide all appropriate categorization codes, including Item Identification, Weapon or Support System Code (WSSC), Work Breakdown Structure, WPC, and the average number of Shop Flow Days.

3.3 Work Performance Categories (140303)

Addendum 5 contains the WPC codes that identify the nature of work performed. In cases where there may be overlap between WPCs, report costs in the highest level of repair. For example, if manufacture is required to complete an overhaul because critical parts are not available, report costs as overhaul.

3.4 DMCS Data Submission Process (140304)

3.4.1. Frequency and Timing of Submittal. Annual DMCS data submissions must be provided to DASD (MR), or its designated agent, no later than December 31 following the end of the fiscal year. Reporting requirement symbol AP-MP(A)1397 is assigned to this reporting requirement. Paragraph 140301 lists the parties responsible for data submission.

3.4.2. Accompanying Documents

3.4.2.1. With each data submission to the DASD (MR), include a transmittal memorandum that includes a brief discussion of any anomalies in the data, significant changes from previous submissions, or other pertinent information to aid in processing the data. The transmittal memorandum for the report must identify a point of contact within the submitting activity for issues and questions related to the reported data.

3.4.2.2. Within 90 days after the initial submission due date, submit a brief narrative analysis (three to five pages) explaining trends in the data to the DASD (MR). The focus of the narrative analysis must be on the factors driving year-to-year changes in cost and direct labor hours. These factors include changes in workload; changes in contract support (both in level of effort and in price); changes in the prices paid for labor, material, and other resources; and, when applicable, significant changes in organic maintenance processes and financial policies. Express the impact of the factors in quantitative terms (for example, an average 3.2 percent material price change or a 2.1 percent improvement in direct labor productivity).

3.4.3. Quality Control and Editing of Data Prior to Submission. The AP-MP(A)1397 report serves as a principal database in support of DASD (MR) weapon systems depot maintenance cost and production analyses and external reporting, as well as the principal joint-service database on depot maintenance production operations. The DASD (MR) provides a data editing and submission file creation tool in the form of a relational database application. This tool, which provides Component-specific and general edits, facilitates accuracy and consistency of data submitted by the individual Components. The use of this tool is a required element of the submission process. Provide appropriate personnel within each reporting activity with training in tool usage. In addition, the DASD (MR) will provide each Component with tool updates on an annual basis prior to the end of the fiscal year.
3.4.4. Data Input to the Data Editing Tool. The format and content of DMCS data input to the Data Editing Tool must be in accordance with Addendum 3. The individual Military Services and the DASD (MR), or its designated agent, may agree upon alternative formatting of data.

3.4.5. Form and Method of DMCS Data Submissions. Annual AP-MP(A)1397 data must be submitted to DASD (MR), or to its designated agent, using the DMCS Data Editing Tool described in subparagraph 140304.D. The tool containing the data and associated documentation may be compressed and submitted in a variety of ways, for example, compact disk, file transfer protocol, email, or other medium agreed upon by the DASD (MR), or its designated agent, and the reporting activity.

3.4.6. DoD-Level Review Process. The review and update of annual AP-MP(A)1397 submissions must be accomplished as follows:

3.4.6.1. Within 15 days of receipt of each Component submission, the DASD (MR), or its designated agent, must perform an edit of the data and provide each reporting activity or Component data consolidation point with preliminary versions of summary tables and the applicable section of the “DoD Depot Data Highlights Report.” Review any data discrepancies, at this time, with the individual reporting activities or consolidation points;

3.4.6.2. Within an additional 30 days, the Component must review and make appropriate updates or provide explanations to support the data as initially submitted;

3.4.6.3. Within 30 days following receipt of all revised Component data, the DASD (MR), or its designated agent, must prepare and publish the final versions of summary tables and the “DoD Depot Data Highlights Report.” At that time, a final fiscal year database must be established as a historical file for subsequent analysis by the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Components, and other authorized activities; and

3.4.6.4. Within an additional 15 days, the Components must submit the narrative analyses described in subparagraph 140304.B.2.

3.4.7. Retention of Submitted Data by Reporting Facilities. Reporting activities must retain submission files for a minimum of 5 years.

3.5 DMCS Data Maintenance Requirements (140305)

The Components must ensure that cost and production reporting systems retain the capability to provide an audit trail back to individual job order cost records, or other data sources, when needed to support DMCS report records.
3.6 Report Record Data Requirements (140306)

A report record is required for each type of maintenance work (Field 14) performed for each different weapon system, or item identification number, as indicated by different data entries in Addendum 3. Consolidate data for similar job orders if the item repaired, services performed, and other report record fields are consistent. All fields in Addendum 3 are mandatory except for those identified as “Not Used.” “Not Used” fields may be employed by reporting activities for internal use or left blank. Where quantitative data are required, such as costs and man-hours, enter “0” (zero) if there are no data associated with the fields. Null mandatory fields are not acceptable.

3.6.1. The DASD (MR), or its designated agent, must maintain lookup tables of pertinent data elements and codes for use by the Military Departments in compiling the DMCS report. These tables will include Weapon or Support System Codes, Performing Activity Identification Codes, Reporting Activity Identification Codes, WPC Codes, Item Identification Codes and Nomenclature, Work Breakdown Structure Codes, and Customer Codes. Components will review the codes annually and notify the DASD (MR), or the designated representative, of any needed additions or deletions. Do not change codes at any other time, except by agreement between the DASD (MR), or its designated agent, and the individual Components.

3.6.2. The Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) must work with the Components to ensure that DFAS financial systems (if used at depot level) retain the capability to provide cost detail to satisfy the reporting requirements of this chapter. Preparation of the DMCS report is the responsibility of the DoD Component performing the work or managing the contract.

3.6.3. Each depot maintenance reporting activity must implement quality assurance procedures to be applied to each DMCS record as it is created and populated. Such procedures must include validity checks to prevent errors, such as identifying an F/A-18A aircraft as a submarine or a High Mobility Multipurpose Wheeled Vehicle (HMMWV) as a tank. Each reporting activity that consolidates DMCS organic and contract records must also implement quality control procedures for all its performing facilities. Prior to data submission, reporting facilities must use the DMCS Data Editing Tool, or similar application, to validate the records.

3.7 Report Record Type (140307)

The data submission report must consist of two types of report records. For both types, the costs reported must be cumulative from inception.

3.7.1. The first record type is cumulative costs for financially completed work. Identify all reported transaction records with a “C” in Field 51 for financially completed customer orders. The reported amount for work completed by contractors must equal the total cost (funded and unfunded) incurred.

3.7.2. The second record type is cumulative costs for not financially complete work. Report these costs in order to form a complete picture of the work accomplished at each activity performing depot maintenance. Identify report records for financial work that is incomplete with a "W" in Field 51. When reporting contract costs (Field 36), enter the sum of the contract costs accumulated since inception of the contract that are attributable to the work accomplished.

3.8 Report Record Corrections (140308)

Once an annual DMCS report cycle is completed and the results published, the data should remain unchanged. Therefore, it is important to incorporate corrections and adjustments in the original report records. Exceptions must be for corrections or adjustments that materially change a total for an entire performing facility. If significant corrections to prior year data become necessary, contact the DASD (MR), or its designated agent, to coordinate processing the changes.

4.0 REPORTING CATEGORIES AND DATA REQUIREMENTS (1404)

4.1 Workload Reporting Activities (140401)

4.1.1. Depot maintenance is performed at DoD depots, at private-sector commercial contractor facilities, and at other DoD activities, such as intermediate maintenance facilities (IMF), arsenals, ordnance stations, or public works centers. The DoD depot maintenance activities that are funded by DWCF are required to follow the formal job order accounting requirements specified in Volume 11B, Chapter 13. Other DoD activities performing depot maintenance workloads may use other cost finding procedures to satisfy the reporting requirements specified in Section 1403.

4.1.2. All activities performing depot maintenance will report workload identification data, as required, in Fields 1-16. Cost and production data reporting requirements (Fields 17-54) vary, depending upon the category of activity performing the work. Reporting categories and data requirements must be as follows:

4.1.2.1. DoD Major Depot Maintenance Activities. Addendum 1 lists the major depot maintenance activities under the headings: Army Depots, Naval Shipyards, Fleet Readiness Centers, Marine Corps Depots, and Air Force Depots. Funded and unfunded DoD costs for these activities are reported in Fields 17 through 35, with an owner/operator code (Field 7) of “1.” The cost of work suballocated, in part, by a depot to another DoD facility or commercial firm must be reported as an “other direct-funded cost” (Field 30). These major maintenance activities must report all work accomplished by the activity;

4.1.2.2. DoD Activities Not Listed in Addendum 1. The program manager or DoD entity (as determined by each Component’s DMCS reporting official) responsible for program oversight must report funded and unfunded DoD costs for these activities in Fields 17 through 35, with an owner/operator code (Field 7) of “2.” If the cost finding procedures of the reporting facility are not sufficiently robust to adequately identify the detailed costs required in Fields 17 through 35, a waiver must be requested from DASD (MR) to permit reporting costs in Fields 36, 37, and 41; and

4.1.2.3. Non-DoD Facilities. Work performed at commercially-owned/commercially-operated (COCO) facilities; Government-owned/contractor-operated (GOCO) facilities; non-DoD Government activities; and state, local, and foreign government facilities must be reported by the DoD activity initiating the order (e.g., systems program offices, program managers, major commands, major subordinate commands, Fleet Forces Command, the Naval Inventory Control Points, and other activities that use DoD funds, regardless of source, to obtain depot maintenance from non-DoD entities). Reporting activities must ensure that data submissions for depot maintenance performed at non-DoD activities are complete and accurate and that report records reflect an owner/operator code of “3” in Field 7, non-DoD entity costs in Field 36, and Government-furnished materials and services costs in Fields 37 and 41. Government-furnished materials and services include goods and services funded or provided by a sponsor or contract other than administered by the primary reporting entity.

4.2 Primary Workload Reporting Data Fields (140402)

The DMCS reports from all activities must identify the item worked on, the WPC, and work breakdown structure classification to the extent economically feasible.

5.0 SPECIAL REPORTS (1405)

Any one-time or additional reports required must be as prescribed by the OUSD (C), FMPR or the DASD (MR).

ADDENDUM 3
SECTION B
EXPLANATION OF ENTRIES REQUIRED FOR DMCS REPORTING

1. Field 1—Not Used

2. Field 2—Not Used

3. Field 3—Fiscal Year. Enter the two terminal digits of the current fiscal year being reported.

4. Field 4—Reporting Component. In position 10, enter A (Army), F (Air Force), M (Marine Corps), N (Navy), or S (Defense Logistics Agency) to designate the DoD Component providing the report.

5. Field 5—Performing Activity Identifying Code

   a. Organic Activity Identifying Code. If the activity is Government-operated (Code 1 or 2 in Field 7), then enter the identifying code in positions 11 through 15 for the activity identified in Addendum 2.

   b. Contractor CAGE or Identifying Code. If the maintenance is contractor-performed (Code 3 in Field 7), then enter the contract activity’s CAGE code or other unique, approved 5-digit identifier as specified by the Defense Logistics Information Service (DLIS). Start in position 11 and leave positions 16 through 24 blank. Request a CAGE code if one has not been established for a contractor.

6. Field 6—Not Used

7. Field 7—Owner and/or Operator Code. Enter one of the following to indicate the type of activity performing the maintenance.

   Code 1—DoD Major Depot Maintenance Activities (DoD Component organic maintenance activities listed in Addendum 1). When Code 1 is entered in Field 7, report costs in Fields 17 through 35. Fields 36, 37, and 41 must be zero filled.

   Code 2—Other DoD Facilities (DoD Component in-house maintenance activities not listed in Addendum 1). When Code 2 is entered in Field 7, report costs in Fields 17 through 35. Fields 36, 37 and 41 must be zero filled.

   Code 3—COCO, GOCO, and other non-DoD entities (other Federal Government activities; state, local, and foreign governments). When Code 3 is entered, report costs in Fields 36, 37, and 41. Fields 17 through 28 and 30 through 35 must be zero filled.
8. Field 8—Reporting Activity Identifying Code. A code identifying the reporting activity, including activities contracting for depot maintenance work with commercial contractors. Enter the reporting activity’s identifying code as specified in Addendum 2. Depot maintenance activities performing in-house work for all other DoD activities, including other depot maintenance activities, must report their work by using their own identifying code in this field.

9. Field 9—Item Identification Code. A code to identify the specific item on which depot maintenance was or is being performed. Do not use punctuation or special characters such as dashes, slashes, or blank spaces between characters. Start in position 32 and enter left justified up to 13 characters; zero fill unused positions. Sample entries for this field are as follows:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>ITEMS</th>
<th>POSITIONS</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Basic (Standard) Mission Aircraft</td>
<td>F 1 6 C Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>Basic (Standard) Probe</td>
<td>P W N 1 2 A Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø Ø</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

   NOTE: Ø is numeric; O is alphabetic.

   b. If the item is an aerospace vehicle propulsion engine, equipment or aeronautical support equipment, or photographic item, then show the type designation according to Military Handbook 1812, “Type Designation, Assignment, and Method for Obtaining.”
c. If the item is a vessel, then show ship type and hull number in the first eight positions and zero fill the remaining five positions.

d. If ammunition rework or renovation is performed by a depot-level maintenance activity, then total cost must be recorded by work breakdown structure code H3 (Field 13) only, and this field must be zero filled.

e. If items “a” through “d” for Field 9 do not apply, and the job order is for repair of items with the same national stock number (NSN) identification, then enter that NSN, such as 6730001161618, in positions 32 through 44.

f. If items “a” through “e” for Field 9 do not apply, enter the letters or numbers used for the identification of the job order. The first 4 digits should identify the Federal Supply Class and, of the remaining nine positions, one must be alphabetic. Zero fill when WPC (Field 14) is “Other Work (T).”

10. Field 10—Item Nomenclature. A 20-digit field describing the specific item on which maintenance was performed, or the support service that was performed. Use common abbreviations if more than 20 positions would otherwise be required. Start in position 45 and leave blank unused positions to the right (left justify).

a. For aircraft and missiles, use popular names, if assigned, such as Patriot, Cobra, Phoenix, Falcon, Minuteman, and Harrier. If a popular name has not been assigned or is unknown, then use the basic mission of the aircraft or missile, such as Fighter Aircraft, Trainer Aircraft, Cargo Trans Aircraft, Util Helicopter, or Surface Attack Missile. DoD 4120.15-L, “Model Designation of Military Aerospace Vehicles,” includes a current complete listing.

b. For aircraft and rocket engines, use the name of the engine type. Examples are Turbofan Engine, and Rocket Motor.

c. For vessels, use the name of the ship. An example is the U.S. Ship (USS) Georgia.

d. For conventional ammunition, use “Ammunition.”

e. For items with an NSN, use the standard description maintained by DLIS in the Federal Logistics Information System (FLIS).

f. For all other items, use the noun and modifiers that adequately describe the item.

11. Field 11—Not Used

12. Field 12—Weapon or Support System Code. A code identifying a specific weapon or support system. Use code 997 if an item cannot be identified to a specific weapon or support system, but can be identified in Field 13 to a major commodity group (such as aircraft, and missiles) and to a category (such as fighters and bombers) within the major commodity group. Use code 998 if identification is possible only to the major commodity group and not to a category. Use code 999 if identification cannot be made to a major commodity group and the Work Breakdown Structure Code L11 is used in Field 13.

13. Field 13—Work Breakdown Structure Code. A code to identify the specific type of weapon or support system to which the item described by the Item Identification Code (Field 9) and Item Nomenclature (Field 10) applies. Use the Work Breakdown Structure Code established in Addendum 4 to this chapter. Use code L11 if the item, service, or investment cannot be identified with a specifically listed Work Breakdown Structure Code and Code 999 is used in Field 13.

14. Field 14—WPC. A code to categorize the type of maintenance work performed on the item identified in Field 9 or the type of maintenance service provided. Use the Codes in Addendum 5. Subcategorize basic alpha codes with a numerical designation by each Component as required for internal management and analysis, budget review, and justification. If the report record is “N” (Technical Assistance) or “T” (Other Work), then Fields 45 and 50 must be zero.

15. Field 15—Customer Code. A code identifying the DoD Program and Department or Agency billed for the maintenance cost (that is, “Sales code”). In Position 85, enter A (Army), N(Navy), F (Air Force), M (Marine Corps), or D (Defense Agency) to designate a DoD customer. Enter Y for other Federal agencies or a Z for all non-Federal customers. Leave position 86 blank.

Fields 17–42—Labor Hour and Cost Data. The direct labor hours and summary elements of reported costs are set forth in Addendum 3. The various elements of cost are explained in detail in the basic chapter. Some clarifying notations are included for certain fields. In addition:

a. “Funded” and “Unfunded” costs are defined in paragraph 140204.

b. Entries in direct labor hour’s fields must be the actual hours expended rather than standard (or “earned”) hours.

17. Field 17—Direct Civilian Labor—Funded Costs

18. Field 18—Direct Civilian Labor—Funded Hours

19. Field 19—Contract Labor Augmentation of Direct Workforce—Funded Costs. Funded costs for direct labor performed by contract personnel who augment the organic workforce, working side by side with Government personnel, and whose time is recorded in the local time and attendance system. This excludes contract personnel working at a Government depot under a contract for delivery of a specific product such as painting an aircraft for a fixed price per aircraft. Also excluded are contract personnel performing indirect or overhead support functions.

20. Field 20—Contract Labor Augmentation of Direct Workforce—Funded Hours. Funded hours for direct labor performed by contract personnel who augment the organic workforce, working side by side with Government personnel, and whose time is recorded in the local time and attendance system. This excludes contract personnel working at a Government depot under a contract for delivery of a specific product, such as painting an aircraft for a fixed price per aircraft. Also excluded are contract personnel performing indirect or overhead support functions.

21. Field 21—Direct Military Labor—Funded Costs. Since the majority of military personnel at depot maintenance activities are there for reasons other than business requirements, their cost is to be reported based upon civilian equivalent rates that are provided by the DoD Comptroller. These are the rates reflected in DWCF activity budgets.

22. Field 22—Direct Military Labor—Funded Hours

23. Field 23—Direct Military Labor—Unfunded Costs. The labor cost for military personnel not funded by the performing activity. The cost calculation is based upon civilian equivalent rates that are provided by the DoD Comptroller. This Field includes military personnel at a direct-funded activity or military personnel temporarily working under the supervision of a DWCF activity.

24. Field 24—Direct Military Labor—Unfunded Hours. The labor hours for military personnel not funded by the performing activity. This Field includes military personnel at a direct-funded activity or military personnel temporarily working under the supervision of a DWCF activity.

25. Field 25—Direct Material—Funded Costs

26. Field 26—Direct Material—Unfunded Costs. Includes material provided at no cost to the performing activity.

27. Field 27—Direct Civilian Labor—Unfunded Costs. The civilian labor cost for Government (Civil Service) employees not funded by the performing activity. This Field excludes contractor personnel used for workforce augmentation.

28. Field 28—Direct Civilian Labor—Unfunded Hours. The civilian labor hours for Government (Civil Service) employees not funded by the performing activity. This Field excludes contractor personnel used for workforce augmentation.

29. Field 29—Not Used

30. Field 30—Other Direct—Funded Costs. For example, contracted services.

31. Field 31—Other Direct—Unfunded Costs. For example, customer provided services.

32. Field 32—Operations Overhead—Funded Costs

33. Field 33—Operations Overhead—Unfunded Costs. For example, military personnel cost for indirect effort.

34. Field 34—General and Administrative—Funded Costs

35. Field 35—General and Administrative—Unfunded Costs
36. Field 36—Contract and/or Other Maintenance Activity—Funded and Unfunded Costs. When code 3 is entered in Field 7, this field must be the total cost of the contract. Report Government-furnished material or services consumed in the production of contract maintenance in Field 37 or Field 41 as applicable. When code 1 or 2 is entered in Field 7, this field must be zero filled.

37. Field 37—Government-Furnished Material—Funded and Unfunded Costs

38. Field 38—Not Used

39. Field 39—Not Used

40. Field 40—Not Used

41. Field 41—Government-Furnished Services—Funded and Unfunded Costs

42. Field 42—Not Used

43. Field 43—Not Used

44. Field 44—Not Used

45. Field 45—Total Production Quantity

a. If Field 51 is a “C,” then enter the total quantity of items for which work was completed and reported by this transaction record (including contractor-performed work reported with a “3” in Field 7). This field must be zero filled for WPCs “N” and “T.”

b. If Field 51 is a “W,” then enter the total quantity of items covered by job orders that are not yet financially complete at the end of the period covered by the report record. This field must be zero filled for WPCs “N” and “T.”

46. Field 46—Report Data Record Identifier. A unique DoD Component alpha and/or numeric code used to identify each individual report transaction record. Use the field to permit the unique identification of each report record. For DoD organic activities, it is recommended that the job order number, or similar production control number, be entered. In all cases, the numbering scheme should:

a. Uniquely identify each job order, consolidation of similar job orders, or similar production control number;

b. Support queries into the source of data appearing in DMCS report records; and

c. Support year-to-year tracking by job order number (or similar production control number).

47. Field 47—Not Used

48. Field 48—Not Used

49. Field 49—Not Used

50. Field 50—Shop Flow Days

a. If Field 51 is a “C,” then report the average number of days that the items being reported were in process; that is, from the date an item is physically inducted to the date the item is completed, passed its final inspection, and is ready for delivery to the customer. The field may be left blank for contractor-performed work or for work performed at another depot maintenance activity if the number of days in process cannot be determined. Make reasonable efforts to provide accurate data for all applicable records submitted.

b. If Field 51 is a “W,” then report the average number of days that each item was in process; that is, since the date of physical induction.

51. Field 51—Work Status Code. A single-digit alpha code that indicates if the transaction being reported has been financially completed, or is still in process at the time of the report.

a. Enter a “C” if the reported transaction is financially complete.

b. Enter a “W” if the transaction being reported is not financially complete as of the report date.

53. Field 53—Not Used

54. Field 54—Not Used

ADDENDUM 5 - Work Performance Category (WPC) Codes

ADDENDUM 5
WPC CODES
(Codes To Be Used in Field 14 of Addendum 3)

Code A—Overhaul. Returning an unserviceable item of equipment to serviceable condition by restoring most or all internal tolerances to “like new” specification. Overhaul is synonymous with “rework” and “rebuild.”

Code B—Progressive Maintenance. A predetermined amount of work that represents a partial overhaul under a program that permits the complete overhaul by means of two or more scheduled work efforts in the maintenance process. Progressive maintenance is synonymous with “cycle maintenance,” “restricted availability,” “preventive servicing,” “recondition,” and “phased” or “incremental maintenance.”

Code C—Conversion. The alteration of the basic characteristics of an item to such an extent as to change its mission, performance, or capability.

Code D—Activation. The process of returning an item from preservation, storage, or inactive status to an active, serviceable status by means of removal from storage and containers, stripping, inspection, servicing, testing, repair, replacement of components, assemblies, or subassemblies as required.

Code E—Inactivation. The servicing and preservation of an item prior to placement in storage or an inactive status.

Code F—Renovation. The proof and test, evaluation, inspection, and rework of ammunition or ordnance items as required for retaining their desired capability.

Code G—Analytical Inspection. The disassembly, inspection, data gathering, and engineering analysis of an equipment item to compare actual wear characteristics and failure patterns with predicted values. Data collected during analytical inspection is used to validate the adequacy of maintenance planning and execution. Analytical rework is synonymous with the “age exploration analysis” phase of reliability-centered maintenance.

Code H—Modification. A physical change made to weapon systems or equipment such that one or more measurable characteristic is altered. Modifications are often made to improve equipment performance, but may also be designed to increase reliability, improve supportability, or enhance safety. Synonymous with “upgrade.”

Code I—Repair. Returning an unserviceable item of equipment to serviceable condition by restoring failed structures or components to acceptable standards. “Acceptable” may mean “restore to ‘like new’ specification,” or it may be less stringent, depending upon the demands of the equipment user.

Code J—Inspection. The examination of an item to reveal information about its physical condition. Inspection results are typically compared with specifications, standards, or the results of other inspections to determine whether the item under inspection is acceptable for use. Inspections are also an important part of engineering investigations that seek to establish cause-and-effect relationships between observed characteristics and external influences.

Code K—Manufacture. The fabrication of a component or end item from raw materials or components. Can include engineering, design, test, and production. Does not include manufacturing that takes place as a part of the normal repair or overhaul processes.

Code L—Reclamation. The authorized processing of end items, assemblies, or subassemblies to obtain parts or components retained in operating materials and supplies prior to taking disposal action on the end item, assembly, or subassembly. Includes demilitarization actions on items prior to disposal when the demilitarization is incidental to the reclamation.

Code M—Storage. The inspection, preservation, periodic re-preservation, and maintenance in storage status of weapons, subsystems, and components in the supply system.

Code N—Technical Assistance. The use of qualified depot maintenance personnel to provide technical information, instructions, or guidance, or to perform specific work requiring special skills for operational activities or other maintenance organizations. Includes all demilitarization other than that incidental to reclamation when reporting is required.

Codes O, P, Q, R, and S—Not Used

Code T—Other Work. Used to complete the reporting of all maintenance workforce costs incurred. Any costs incurred at a depot maintenance activity funded by the Working Capital Fund that do not meet the criteria for reporting under the other WPCs must be reported in this category. This includes any maintenance support costs funded by a DWCF activity. Maintenance support includes centralized programming and planning support, technical and engineering services, preparation of maintenance publications and engineering data, and technical and administrative training.

Code U—Software Maintenance. Those software activities carried out following initial operating capability to include all events that maintain operational capability, correct faults, improve performance, and adapt the software to environmental changes or new requirements. Software maintenance must be reported regardless of location or funding source. For software or related hardware modifications/upgrades, includes the labor associated with the application of the modification.

Code V—Calibration. The comparison of a measurement system or device of unknown accuracy to a system or device of known and greater accuracy. The system or device of greater accuracy is a measurement standard.

Code W—CLS, ICS, PBL, and Similar Contracts. The CLS, ICS, PBL, and similar contracts provide commercial support for weapon systems and equipment that do not have an organic support base established. Contractors provide total logistics support, including depot maintenance for the equipment, end item, and components. Only those maintenance functions that would be classified as depot-level, if the equipment were maintained organically, will be included.

Codes X, Y, and Z—Not Used

SUMMARY OF MAJOR CHANGES

Changes are identified in this table and also denoted by blue font.

Substantive revisions are denoted by an asterisk (*) symbol preceding the section, paragraph, table, or figure that includes the revision.

Unless otherwise noted, chapters referenced are contained in this volume.

Hyperlinks are denoted by bold, italic, blue, and underlined font.

The previous version dated October 2011 is archived.

CHAPTER 15

DEFENSE WORKING CAPITAL FUND ACCOUNTING REPORT
[ACCOUNTING REPORT (MONTHLY) 1307]

1.0 GENERAL (1501)

1.1 Purpose (150101)

This chapter prescribes the reporting requirements and policies to follow when preparing the Defense Working Capital Fund (DWCF) Accounting Report [Accounting Report (Monthly) 1307] (AR(M) 1307) and is applicable to all DoD Working Capital Funds.

*1.2 Authoritative Guidance (150102)

The chapter addresses the basic internal reporting requirements identified in Title 10, United States Code, section 2208 (10 U.S.C. § 2208), which requires the Secretary of Defense, with respect to the working capital funds of each Defense Agency, and the Secretary of each military department, with respect to the working capital funds of the military department, to provide for separate accounting, reporting, and auditing of funds and activities managed through the working capital funds.

2.0 REPORTING (1502)

2.1 Report Content (150201)

2.1.1. The DWCF AR(M) 1307 consists of three principal internal accounting statements.

2.1.1.2. Statement of Cash Flow. The Statement of Cash Flow discloses the reporting entity’s cash flows from operations, adjustments, and appropriations and cash transfers with an explanation of the changes in cash or cash equivalents for the reporting period.

2.1.1.3. Statement of Operations. The Statement of Operations discloses the results of the reporting entity’s operations for the reporting period, including changes in the entity’s net position from the end of the prior reporting period.

2.1.2. Volume 1, Chapter 2 contains the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board hierarchy of accounting principles and standards used to prepare the DWCF AR(M) 1307.

* 2.1.3. Volume 1, Chapter 4 contains guidance on the Standard Financial Information Structure that supports requirements for budgeting, financial accounting, cost/performance, and external reporting needs across the DoD.
2.1.4. The DWCF AR(M) 1307 is the official internal management report document for financial accounting and is a source document for the annual financial statements. The United States Standard General Ledger (USSGL), on which the report is based, is updated at least annually and posted by the Bureau of the Fiscal Service (Fiscal Service). The DoD Standard Chart of Accounts provides normal account balance information. The DoD USSGL Transaction Library provides detailed general ledger transactions and posting business rules for accounting standardization that supports the preparation of financial statements.

2.1.5.1. The AR(M) 1307 provides accounting and inventory data for financial reporting and identifies the proprietary position of DWCF activities. The AR(M) 1307 complements information provided in the Standard Form (SF) 133, Report on Budget Execution and Budgetary Resources, which is prepared by using the activity’s budgetary trial balances. Although the AR(M) 1307 and SF 133 run independently of one another, they should reconcile at the summary level. Refer to Volume 3, Chapter 19 for additional guidance.

2.1.5.2. Use standard reconciliations, such as budgetary to proprietary relationships described in Volume 1, Chapter 7, to verify the integrity of reported data.

2.2 Reporting Requirement (150202)

2.2.1. Applicability. Table 15-1 contains a listing of DWCF financial reporting activities. Within Table 15-1, an asterisk (*) symbol indicates the lowest level for which individual AR(M) 1307 reports are required. DWCF activities may generate the AR(M) 1307 at different levels in order to manage their business effectively. Table 15-1 identifies the levels for which consolidated AR(M) 1307 reports are required with a pound (#) symbol. Each DoD Component DWCF activity must produce consolidated reports.

2.2.2. Report Formats. Use the financial report formats provided in Forms 15-1 through 15-8 to prepare reports. Reports produced by Automated Data Processing (ADP) equipment may be substituted for the formats illustrated. Submit the following reports:

2.2.2.1. Statement of Financial Position;

2.2.2.2. Statement of Cash Flow; and

2.2.2.3. Statement of Operations;

2.2.2.3.1. Part I - Statement of Operations identifies the cumulative year-to-date Net Operating Results (NOR) and the Recoverable NOR. Recoverable NOR is the amount that can be recovered in the activity’s rates;
2.2.2.3.2. Part II - Changes in Net Position identifies the arithmetic difference between the total assets and total liabilities recognized on a component entity’s balance sheet;

2.2.2.3.3. Part III - Cost of Goods Sold identifies the value of inventory sold or services provided. It does not provide a value for total obligations incurred;

2.2.2.3.4. Part IV - Expenses identifies detailed expense information by category. Not all expenses represent claims against budgetary resources;

2.2.2.3.5. Part V - Recoverable Operating Results reconciles NOR to the operating results that may be used for rate-setting purposes;

2.2.2.3.6. Part VI - Capital Program identifies the approved program, obligations, disbursements, and collections for the Capital Program by fiscal year (FY); and

2.2.2.3.7. Part VII - Inventory Management Report - Supply Management Activity reports inventory management data for the Supply Management and Commissary Resale DWCF activities.

2.2.3. Frequency of Reports. Unless otherwise specified by the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) (OUSD(C)), prepare and submit the AR(M) 1307 reports monthly. Submit regular reports in accordance with due dates established by the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) and consistent with the requirements of OUSD(C).

2.2.4. Distribution.

2.2.4.1. Consolidated DoD Component and DWCF Activity Reports. Submit a copy of consolidated DWCF activity reports to the:

2.2.4.1.1. Director for Operations, Office of the Deputy Comptroller (Program/Budget (P/B)), OUSD(C);

2.2.4.1.2. Offices of the Assistant Secretary of the Army, Navy, and Air Force (Financial Management and Comptroller); the Defense Commissary Agency (DeCA) Comptroller; and Comptrollers of Other Defense Activities (e.g. the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) Comptroller); and

2.2.4.1.3. Management Command responsible for the oversight of the DWCF activity, if requested by a DoD Component.
2.2.4.2. Activity Level Reports. Submit a copy of DWCF activity level reports to the:

2.2.4.2.1. Offices of the Assistant Secretary of the Army, Navy, and Air Force (Financial Management and Comptroller); the DeCA Comptroller; and Comptrollers of Other Defense Activities if requested by a DoD Component;

2.2.4.2.2. Management Command responsible for the oversight of the DWCF activity, if requested by a DoD Component; and

2.2.4.2.3. DWCF activity, disclosing any adjustments made to the financial data submitted by that activity.

2.3 Detailed Instructions (150203)

2.3.1. The instructions to the AR(M) 1307 identify the specific data, and appropriate source of that data, for amounts entered into each line of each report.

2.3.2. Report amounts in thousands of dollars ($000) for all parts of the report and related footnotes (i.e., $1,000 = $1; $10,000 = $10; and $100,000 = $100).

2.3.3. Include footnotes with each report for lines requiring identification of the nature of specific extraordinary amounts or abnormal balances.

2.3.4. Allocate or assign adjustments for amounts otherwise accounted for or reported at the DoD Component level to the applicable DWCF activities. Similarly, allocate or assign adjustments for amounts otherwise submitted for or reported at the DWCF activity level to the applicable individual activities. DFAS will make such allocations in accordance with the direction received from the DoD Components. Where reasonable, allocate all such adjustments to individual activities. Show adjustments made at the DWCF activity level separately as a DWCF activity adjustment. Recognize adjustments at the DWCF activity level (DWCF activity adjustment) until the transactions can be allocated to the individual activities. All DWCF activity adjustments must be zero at year-end. Enter adjustments allocated to the individual activity level into the activity’s installation level accounting records. Record the adjustments in accordance with the guidance contained in Chapter 2.

2.3.5. Do not retroactively implement policies that could have a significant adverse impact on the accuracy and integrity of financial reports without a clear offsetting benefit, or unless directed by an external authority such as Congress.

2.3.6. Base the report submissions on current FY data. All references to “year” apply to FY.

2.3.7. Entities are only required to report lines on the AR(M) 1307 in which there is current activity or activity from a prior period.
2.3.8. Use the USSGL accounts cited as general guidance to populate each line. DoD requires the use of the DoD Standard Reporting Chart of Accounts in all accounting systems for all appropriations and funds. Detailed account mapping is included in the Defense Departmental Reporting System (DDRS). Volume 1, Chapter 7 prescribes the requirements of the USSGL.

* 2.3.9. Base the report submissions on the bulk file format and attributes outlined in the Governmentwide Treasury Account Symbol Adjusted Trial Balance System (GTAS). The GTAS format includes both budgetary and proprietary USSGL accounts, however, the AR(M) 1307 is based upon proprietary USSGL accounts with few exceptions.

3.1 General (150301)

The Statement of Financial Position, Form 15-1, discloses the reporting entity’s assets, liabilities, and net position.

3.2 Heading (150302)

Complete the heading of the form to indicate: the reporting DoD Component, the reporting DWCF activity, the reporting period (month), and the calendar year.

3.3 Line Item Instructions (150303)

Instructions for the content of each line item are as follows:

3.3.1 Section Heading – ASSETS. The “Assets” section identifies items owned by the Federal Government which have probable (more likely than not) economic benefits that can be obtained or controlled by a Federal Government entity. Fiduciary activities that fall under the guidance of Statement of Federal Financial Accounting Standards (SFFAS) 31, “Accounting for Fiduciary Activities,” are not part of the net position.

3.3.2 Line 1 – Fund Balance with Treasury. Report the aggregate amount of the entity’s accounts with the Department of the Treasury (Treasury) for which the entity has the authority to make expenditures and pay liabilities. Establish accounts to identify disbursements and collections applicable to the operating and capital programs to comply with 10 U.S.C. § 2208, which requires DoD to establish a capital asset subaccount. Report the balance by the specified applicable categories.

3.3.3 Line 1.a – Funds Collected – Operating Program. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to funds collected for the operating program during the current FY:

101000 Fund Balance with Treasury (Funds Collected – Operating Program)

3.3.4 Line 1.b – Funds Collected – Capital Program. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to funds collected for the capital program during the current FY. Base the amount of collections allocated from the operating program to the capital program on the activity’s DWCF-funded depreciation expenses and capital surcharge. In all cases, at the end of the FY, the amount collected must be sufficient to ensure the ending Fund Balance with Treasury-Capital Program is not negative. See Volume 11B, Chapter 3 for additional guidance on transfers of budget authority. Line 1.b will agree with the collections reported in Column 11, “Collections - This Fiscal Year,” of Part VI, “Capital Program,” of the Statement of Operations.

101000 Fund Balance with Treasury (Funds Collected – Capital Program)
3.3.5. Line 1.c – Funds Disbursed - Operating Program. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to funds disbursed for the operating program during the current FY:

101000 Fund Balance with Treasury (Funds Disbursed – Operating Program)

3.3.6. Line 1.d – Funds Disbursed – Capital Program. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to funds disbursed for the capital program this FY. Line 1.d will agree with the disbursements reported in Column 8, “Disbursements - This Fiscal Year,” of Part VI, “Capital Program,” of the Statement of Operations.

101000 Fund Balance with Treasury (Funds Disbursed – Capital Program)

3.3.7. Line 1.e – Funds Transferred In (Out). Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to funds transferred in or out during the current FY:

101000 Fund Balance with Treasury (Current Year Transfers)

3.3.8. Line 1.f – Funds with Treasury – Operating Program. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to funds held by the Treasury for the operating program. Report the beginning FY balance of the operating program account, which is the net of prior year funds collected and disbursed related to operating programs.

101000 Fund Balance with Treasury (Funds with Treasury – Operating Program)

109000 Fund Balance with Treasury While Awaiting a Warrant (If applicable, under a continuing resolution authority)

3.3.9. Line 1.g – Funds with Treasury – Capital Program. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to funds held by the Treasury for the capital program. Report the beginning FY balance of the capital program account, which is the net of prior year funds collected and disbursed related to capital programs.

101000 Fund Balance with Treasury (Funds with Treasury – Capital Program)

*3.3.10. Line 2 – Cash on Hand and Other Monetary Assets. Cash on hand and other monetary assets consists of: (a) coins, paper currency, and readily negotiable instruments, such as money orders, checks, and bank drafts on hand or in transit for deposit; (b) amounts on demand deposit with banks or other financial institutions including nonconfirmed collections and disbursements; (c) investments held outside of Treasury; and (d) foreign currencies, which, for accounting purposes, will be translated into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate on the financial statement date. Report the balance of the following accounts:

111000 Undeposited Collections
3.3.11. Line 3 – Accounts Receivable, Net. Accounts receivable are amounts due from others when the right to receive funds accrues as a result of performance of services, delivery of goods, or court-ordered assessments. Line 3 is a summary line for Lines 3.a, “Accounts Receivable, Intragovernmental,” through 3.d, “Accounts Receivable, Non-Federal, Undistributed.”

3.3.12. Line 3.a – Accounts Receivable, Intragovernmental. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts due from other Federal Agencies:

- 131000 Accounts Receivable (except as reported on Line 3.b)
- 131900 Allowance for Loss on Accounts Receivable
- 134000 Interest Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified
- 136000 Penalties and Fines Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified
- 137000 Administrative Fees Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified

3.3.13. Line 3.b – Accounts Receivable, Intragovernmental, Undistributed. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to accounts receivable from other Federal Agencies recorded for undistributed collections. Undistributed collections represent the difference between the amount of collections reported to DFAS by the Treasury finance network and the amount of collections recorded by operating level activities.

- 131000 Accounts Receivable (except as reported on Line 3.a)

3.3.14. Line 3.c – Accounts Receivable, Non-Federal. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to accounts receivable from non-federal agencies and entities:

- 131000 Accounts Receivable (except as reported on Line 3.d)
- 131900 Allowance for Loss on Accounts Receivable
- 134000 Interest Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified
- 134700 Allowance for Loss on Interest Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified
- 136000 Penalties and Fines Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified
- 136700 Allowance for Loss on Penalties and Fines Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified
- 137000 Administrative Fees Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified
- 137700 Allowance for Loss on Administrative Fees Receivable – Not Otherwise Classified

3.3.15. Line 3.d – Accounts Receivable, Non-Federal, Undistributed. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to undistributed accounts receivable balances.
from non-federal agencies and entities. Undistributed collections represent the difference between the amount of collections reported to DFAS by the Treasury finance network and the amount of collections recorded by operating level activities.

131000 Accounts Receivable (except as reported on Line 3.c)

3.3.16. Line 4 – Advances Paid and Prepayments. The amount reported on this line will agree with the amount reported on Line 5, “Advances and Prepayments,” of the “Supplemental Budget Execution Information Report,” which is available in the Budgetary module of DDS. This report provides additional reporting line items to amounts reported on the SF 133. Report the balance of the following account:

141000 Advances and Prepayments

3.3.17. Line 5 – Inventories, Net. Inventory is tangible personal property that is: (a) held for sale; (b) in the process of production for sale; (c) consumed in the production of goods for sale or in the provision of services for a fee; (d) held for repair; or (e) excess, obsolete, and unserviceable.

3.3.17.1. SFFAS 3, “Accounting for Inventory and Related Property,” sets the accounting principles under which Federal entities account for and report inventory and related property balances.

3.3.17.2. Although Moving Average Cost (MAC) is the official DoD inventory valuation method, the Latest Acquisition Cost (LAC) valuation method is available to DeCA only. See Volume 4, Chapter 4 for additional guidance on inventory and related property. Line 5 is a summary line for Lines 5.a, “Inventory Items,” and 5.b, “Allowance for Gains (or Losses) on Inventories.”

3.3.18. Line 5.a – Inventory Items. Line 5.a is a summary line for Lines 5.a.(1), “Latest Acquisition Cost (LAC),” and 5.a.(2), “Moving Average Cost (MAC).”

3.3.19. Line 5.a.(1) – Latest Acquisition Cost (LAC). The amount reported on this line will equal Line 2.i, “Minus: Ending Inventory – LAC,” of Part III, “Cost of Goods Sold,” of the Statement of Operations. Report the amount of inventory maintained at LAC in the following accounts:

152100 Inventory Purchased for Resale
152200 Inventory Held in Reserve for Future Sale
152300 Inventory Held for Repair
152400 Inventory – Excess, Obsolete, and Unsuitable
152500 Inventory – Raw Materials
152700 Inventory – Finished Goods
3.3.20. Line 5.a.(2) – Moving Average Cost (MAC). Report the amount of inventory maintained at MAC in the following accounts:

- 152100 Inventory Purchased for Resale
- 152200 Inventory Held in Reserve for Future Sale
- 152300 Inventory Held for Repair
- 152400 Inventory – Excess, Obsolete, and Unserviceable
- 152500 Inventory – Raw Materials
- 152700 Inventory – Finished Goods

3.3.21. Line 5.b – Allowance for Gains (or Losses) on Inventories. Report the portion of the balance in the following account as it relates to the estimated cost to repair damage, and to gains (or losses), on inventories. Report a credit balance as a negative amount (deduct) and debit balance as a positive amount (add).

- 152900 Inventory – Allowance

* 3.3.22. Line 6 – Work-in-Process. DWCF work-in-process is the amount of direct, indirect, and general and administrative costs assigned or otherwise properly allocated to a final cost objective (generally, a job order), or the amount of incremental billings for Supply Management manufactured inventory. Prior to completion of final cost objects, either in their entirety or as discrete elements, allocate all costs to work-in-process.

3.3.22.1. When recognizing revenue on a percentage-of-completion basis, record the portion of work-in-process associated with the recognized revenue as cost of goods sold. Line 6 applies to DWCF activities that accumulate costs to a final cost objective (generally, a job order), such as those within the Depot Maintenance, Research and Development (R&D), and Base Support DWCF activities. Line 6 will agree with the amount reported on Line 1.g, “Minus: Ending Work-In-Process,” of Part III, “Cost of Goods Sold,” of the Statement of Operations.

3.3.22.2. Non-supply reporting entities are to bill for work-in-process balances before the reporting cycle closes, and therefore, work-in-process is expected to be zero for these activities on the AR(M) 1307. The work-in-process for supply accounts represent progress payments incurred for manufactured items. Provide explanations in the footnotes when non-supply work-in-process is not zero. Timely billing helps ensure resources are available to cover DWCF costs. See Volume 4, Chapter 16 and SFFAS 7, “Accounting for Revenue and Other Financing Sources and Concepts for Reconciling Budgetary and Financial Accounting,” for additional guidance relating to revenue recognition. Report the portion of the balance in the following accounts as they relate to work-in-process:

- 152600 Inventory – Work-in-Process
- 152900 Inventory – Allowance
3.3.23. Line 7 – Operating Materials and Supplies, Net. Operating materials and supplies are asset accounts consisting of tangible personal property expensed when consumed in the course of normal operations. See Volume 4, Chapter 4 for guidance related to capitalizing or expensing operating materials and supplies balances. Line 7 can be applicable to any DWCF activity. Report the balance of the following accounts:

- 151100 Operating Materials and Supplies Held for Use
- 151200 Operating Materials and Supplies Held in Reserve for Future Use
- 151300 Operating Materials and Supplies – Excess, Obsolete, and Unserviceable
- 151400 Operating Materials and Supplies – Held for Repair
- 151600 Operating Materials and Supplies – In Development
- 151900 Operating Materials and Supplies – Allowance

3.3.24. Line 8 – Property, Plant, and Equipment, Net. Property, plant, and equipment (PP&E) are tangible assets that: (1) have an estimated useful life of two or more years; (2) are not intended for sale in the ordinary course of business; and (3) are intended to be used or available for use by the entity.

3.3.24.1. SFFAS 6, “Accounting for Property, Plant, and Equipment,” outlines accounting standards for Federally owned PP&E. Line 8 is the cost basis, net of depreciation, of the activity’s real and personal property, i.e., land, structures and facilities, construction-in-progress, purchased and self-developed software, equipment, and related improvements that have been capitalized.

* 3.3.24.2. Report DoD real property as follows:

3.3.24.2.1. Construction-In-Progress. The funding entity accumulates and reports construction-in-progress for real property (including improvements) in the construction-in-progress accounts until the asset or improvement is placed in service. When the asset or improvement is placed in service, the funding entity removes the construction-in-progress balance and recognizes the asset. The funding entity then transfers the asset or improvement to the host entity, if the host entity is different than the funding entity.

3.3.24.2.2. In-Service Assets. Report real property on the financial statements of the Military Department or Washington Headquarters Services on whose installation a real property asset is located. A Military Department working capital fund can report real property on its financial statements if it has jurisdiction over an installation.

3.3.24.2.3. Land. Reporting responsibilities for land follow the same rules as other real property. However, reporting entities without an unmodified audit opinion value existing land at zero dollars and expense future land acquisitions.

3.3.24.2.4. Capitalized Improvements. The funding entity accumulates and reports the costs of capitalized improvements until the improvement to an asset is placed in service, at which time it will be transferred to the entity responsible for reporting the real property base asset. Only Military Departments and Washington Headquarters Services have financial reporting responsibility for real property and completed improvements. See Volume 4, Chapter 24 for additional information. Line 8 is a summary line for Lines 8.a, “Structures, Facilities and Leasehold Improvements, Net,” through 8.g, “Other Property, Net.”

- 159100 Other Related Property
- 159900 Other Related Property – Allowance
- 199000 Other Assets
- 199500 General Property, Plant, and Equipment Permanently Removed but Not Yet Disposed

3.3.33. Line 10 – Total Assets. Line 10 is a summary line for Lines 1, “Fund Balance with Treasury,” through 9, “Other Assets, Net.”

3.3.34. Section Heading – LIABILITIES. The “Liabilities” section identifies obligations of the Federal Government to provide assets or services to another entity at a determinable date, when a specified event occurs, or on demand.

* 3.3.35. Line 11 – Liabilities Covered by Budgetary Resources. Report liabilities covered by available budgetary resources on this line. Budgetary resources are required to cover all obligations whether considered a liability or not.

3.3.35.1. Available budgetary resources include: (1) new budget authority; (2) unobligated balances of budgetary resources at the beginning of the year or net transfers of prior year balances during the year; (3) spending authority from offsetting collections (credited to an appropriation or fund account); and (4) recoveries of unexpired budget authority through downward adjustments of prior year obligations.

3.3.35.2. Consider liabilities covered by budgetary resources if they are to be funded by permanent indefinite appropriations, which have been enacted and signed into law and are available for use as of the reporting date. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) may apportion the resources without further action by the Congress or without a contingency first having to be met. Line 11 is a summary line for Lines 11.a, “Accounts Payable, Net,” through 11.h, “Other Liabilities.”

3.3.37. Line 11.a.(1) – Accounts Payable, Intragovernmental. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to accounts payables owed to Federal entities:

- 211000 Accounts Payable (except as reported on Line 11.a.(2))
- 212000 Disbursements in Transit
- 214000 Accrued Interest Payable – Not Otherwise Classified

3.3.38. Line 11.a.(2) – Accounts Payable, Intragovernmental, Undistributed. Report the amount of accounts payable in the following account that is owed to Federal entities recorded for undistributed disbursements. Undistributed disbursements represent the difference between the amount of disbursements reported by DFAS to the Treasury finance network and the amount of disbursements recorded by operating level activities.

- 211000 Accounts Payable (except as reported on Line 11.a.(1))

3.3.39. Line 11.a.(3) – Accounts Payable, Non-Federal. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to accounts payable owed to non-federal entities:

- 211000 Accounts Payable (except as reported on Line 11.a.(4))
- 212000 Disbursements in Transit
- 213000 Contract Holdbacks
- 214000 Accrued Interest Payable – Not Otherwise Classified

3.3.40. Line 11.a.(4) – Accounts Payable, Non-Federal, Undistributed. Report the amount of accounts payable in the following account that is owed to non-federal entities recorded for undistributed disbursements. Undistributed disbursements represent the difference between the amount of disbursements reported to DFAS by the Treasury finance network and the amount of disbursements recorded by operating level activities.

- 211000 Accounts Payable (except as reported on Line 11.a.(3))

3.3.42. Line 11.b.(1) – Salaries and Wages. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to salaries and wages:

- 221000 Accrued Funded Payroll and Leave
- 221100 Withholdings Payable
- 221300 Employer Contributions and Payroll Taxes Payable

3.3.43. Line 11.b.(2) – Accrued Annual Leave. DWCF activities must fully fund annual leave in their rates. The balance reported on this line represents the value of employee annual leave not yet taken. This amount is exclusive of the amount reported on Line 11.b.(1). Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to accrued annual leave:

- 221000 Accrued Funded Payroll and Leave

3.3.44. Line 11.b.(3) – Severance Pay, Separation Allowance, and Other Payroll Liabilities. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to severance pay, separation allowances, and other payroll liabilities:

- 221500 Other Post-Employment Benefits Due and Payable

3.3.45. Line 11.c – Progress Billings. The amount reported represents billings received in advance of performance for which revenue has not been earned. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to progress billings:

- 231000 Liability for Advances and Prepayments

3.3.46. Line 11.d – Advances and Prepayments from Others. The amount reported will agree with Line 6, “Unearned Revenue,” of the “Supplemental Report on Budget Execution.” Report the value of advances and prepayments received for goods not yet delivered or services not yet performed in the following account:

- 231000 Liability for Advances and Prepayments

3.3.47. Line 11.e – Debt. Line 11.e represents the amount of borrowings from the Treasury, the Federal Financial Bank, or other Federal Agencies. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to debt:

- 214000 Accrued Interest Payable – Not Otherwise Classified (except as reported on Line 11.f)
- 214200 Accrued Interest Payable – Debt
- 252000 Principal Payable to the Federal Financing Bank
- 259000 Other Debt
3.3.48. Line 11.f – Interest Payable. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to interest payable (other than debt interest). Exclude amounts already listed on Line 11.e, “Debt.”

3.3.52. Line 13 – Total Liabilities. Line 13 is a summary line for Lines 11, “Liabilities Covered by Budgetary Resources,” and 12, “Liabilities Not Covered by Budgetary Resources.”

3.3.53. Section Heading – NET POSITION. The “Net Position” section presents the arithmetic difference between the total assets and total liabilities recognized in the Federal Government’s or a component entity’s balance sheet. Net position may be positive (assets greater than liabilities) or negative (assets less than liabilities).

3.3.55. Line 14.a – Unexpended Appropriations. Line 14.a is equal to Line 1.A.(3), “Equals: Unexpended Appropriations – End of Period,” of Part II, “Changes in Net Position,” of the Statement of Operations. Normally, DWCF activities will not have unexpended appropriations as they are expended upon receipt to provide budgetary authority. (Supply activities that receive appropriations for War Reserve Materiel may not expend upon receipt. Also, a DWCF may have unexpended appropriations for Emergency Disaster Relief.)

4.1 General (150401)

The Statement of Cash Flow, Form 15-2, discloses the reporting entity’s gross cash receipts and disbursements with an explanation of the changes in cash or cash equivalents for the reporting period.

4.2 Heading (150402)

Complete the heading of the form to indicate: the reporting DoD Component, the reporting DWCF activity, the reporting period (month), and the calendar year.

4.3 Line Item Instructions (150403)

Instructions for the content of each line item are as follows:

4.3.1. Section Heading - CASH FLOWS FROM OPERATIONS. The “Cash Flows From Operations” section presents the cash flows generated by an entity’s operations.

4.3.3. Section Heading - OPERATING ADJUSTMENTS. The “Operating Adjustments” section identifies increases and decreases in items impacting an entity’s ending Fund Balance with Treasury.

4.3.4. Line 2 – Appropriated Capital Used (-). The amount of appropriated funds expended is a negative adjustment to the cash flow from operations. Report the balance of the following account:

570000 Expended Appropriations

4.3.7. Line 5 – Decrease (Increase) in Inventories. Line 5 is a summary line for Lines 5.a, “Inventory,” through 5.c, “Operating Materials and Supplies, Net.” Report the net decrease (increase) of the three sub-categories of inventory reported on Lines 5.a through 5.c.

4.3.14. Line 9 – Increase (Decrease) in Liabilities. Report the current year change in the following accounts:

- 213000 Contract Holdbacks
- 214000 Accrued Interest Payable – Not Otherwise Classified
- 216000 Entitlement Benefits Due and Payable
- 219000 Other Liabilities With Related Budgetary Obligations
- 222500 Unfunded FECA Liability
- 231000 Liability for Advances and Prepayments
- 232000 Other Deferred Revenue
- 240000 Liability for Nonfiduciary Deposit Funds and Undeposited Collections
- 252000 Principal Payable to the Federal Financing Bank
- 259000 Other Debt
- 265000 Actuarial FECA Liability
- 292000 Contingent Liabilities
- 294000 Capital Lease Liability
- 296000 Accounts Payable From Canceled Appropriations
- 298500 Liability for Non–Entity Assets Not Reported on the Statement of Custodial Activity
- 299000 Other Liabilities Without Related Budgetary Obligations
- 299500 Estimated Cleanup Cost Liability
4.3.15. Line 10 – Depreciation and Amortization. The depreciation and amortization for the period are not paid in cash and, therefore, require a positive adjustment to net cash flow from operations. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to items funded by the DWCF activity:

671000 Depreciation, Amortization, and Depletion

4.3.16. Line 11 – Other Adjustments. Line 11 is a summary line for Lines 11.a, “Prior Period Adjustments,” through 11.c, “Other.”

4.3.17. Line 11.a – Prior Period Adjustments. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to prior period adjustments. Enter prior period adjustments for the period that are not cash related transactions.

740000 Prior–Period Adjustments Due to Corrections of Errors
740100 Prior–Period Adjustments Due to Changes in Accounting Principles
740500 Prior–Period Adjustments Due to Corrections of Errors – Years Preceding the Prior Year

4.3.18. Line 11.b – Non–Cash Transfers. Report the balance of the following accounts. Enter transfers in and transfers out for the period that are not cash related transactions.

572000 Financing Sources Transferred In Without Reimbursement
573000 Financing Sources Transferred Out Without Reimbursement

4.3.19. Line 11.c – Other. Report the balance of the following account:

579000 Other Financing Sources

4.3.21. Line 13 – NOR Plus or Minus Operating Adjustments. Report the sum of Lines 1, “Net Operating Results (NOR),” and 12, “Total Operating Adjustments.”

4.3.22. Section Heading – CAPITAL ADJUSTMENTS. The “Capital Adjustments” section adjusts cash flow for the impact of acquiring and disposing of PP&E and other assets used in the production of goods and services. Most sales within the DWCF are recorded as revenue and included in Line 1, “Net Operating Results (NOR).” However, if an incoming cash flow is not a result of revenue, identify that cash flow within this section as either a result of a sale of PP&E or another cause. See Volume 4 for additional information relating to PP&E.

4.3.24. Section Heading – APPROPRIATIONS AND CASH TRANSFERS. The “Appropriations and Cash Transfers” section identifies the impact on cash flow from resources obtained in the form of appropriations from the Congress, or by transferring from or to other reporting entities. Appropriations may be distributed to the individual activity level. If appropriations are not distributed, report by the DWCF level holding those balances or allocate by that DWCF level, for reporting purposes, to the appropriate activity or activities.

4.3.25. Line 15 – Appropriations (Current Warrants). Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to transfers in and transfers out of appropriations (current warrants). Report the amount of appropriations received, net of rescissions, for the current FY in the following accounts:

- 310100 Unexpended Appropriations – Appropriations Received
- 310200 Unexpended Appropriations – Transfers–In
- 310300 Unexpended Appropriations – Transfers–Out
- 310500 Unexpended Appropriations – Prior Period Adjustments Due to Corrections of Errors – Years Preceding the Prior Year
- 310600 Unexpended Appropriations – Adjustments
- 310700 Unexpended Appropriations – Used
- 310800 Unexpended Appropriations – Prior–Period Adjustments Due to Corrections of Errors
- 310900 Unexpended Appropriations – Prior–Period Adjustments Due to Changes in Accounting Principles

4.3.27. Line 16.a – Transfers In. Report the amount of cash transferred from all Federal sources, except the Fiscal Service. The amount reported on this line will agree with the amount reported on Line 1.D.(2).b, “Plus: Transfers In of Cash,” of Part II, “Changes in Net Position,” of the Statement of Operations. Report cash transfers in from other Federal sources as an increase. Report only those amounts related solely to transferred-in cash balances. Do not report a transfer of cash from work performed (reimbursable sales) on this line.

- 575500 Nonexpenditure Financing Sources – Transfers–In

576500 Nonexpenditure Financing Sources – Transfers–Out

252000 Principal Payable to the Federal Financing Bank

4.3.34. Section Heading – SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURE OF CASH FLOW INFORMATION. The “Supplemental Disclosure of Cash Flow Information” section presents additional information related to the Statement of Cash Flow.

4.3.35. Line 22 – Total Interest Paid. Report the current year change in the following accounts:

214000 Accrued Interest Payable – Not Otherwise Classified
214100 Accrued Interest Payable – Loans
214200 Accrued Interest Payable – Debt
633000 Other Interest Expenses

5.1 General (150501)

Part I – Statement of Operations, Form 15-3, identifies the cumulative year-to-date NOR and the Recoverable NOR.

5.2 Heading (150502)

Complete the heading of the form to indicate: the reporting DoD Component, the reporting DWCF activity, the reporting period (month), and the calendar year.

5.3 Line Item Instructions (150503)

Instructions for the content of each line item are as follows:

5.3.1 Section Heading – REVENUES AND FINANCING SOURCES. The “Revenues and Financing Sources” section presents inflows of or other increases in assets, decreases in liabilities, or a combination of both resulting in an increase in the government's net position during the reporting period.

5.3.2 Line 1 – Appropriated Capital Used. Appropriations, primarily for War Reserve Material and Commissary Operations, may be provided directly to the DWCF. Use USSGL account 570000, “Expended Appropriations,” to record an amount equal to accrued expenses (versus outlays) of appropriated funds provided directly to the Fund. The purpose of the account is to match current period expenses to the appropriated funds used to finance those expenses. Record amounts in account 570000 equal to the amount of program expenses but do not include any expenses applicable to revenue accounts other than account 570000. In other words, record expenses incurred against an appropriation made directly available to the DWCF separately from expenses incurred against ordinary DWCF reimbursable financing. Report the balance of the following account:

570000 Expended Appropriations

5.3.3 Line 2 – Revenue from Sales of Goods and Services. Line 2 is a summary line for Lines 2.a, “Gross Revenue from Sales,” and 2.b, “Minus: Credits Allowed on Sales.”

5.3.4 Line 2.a – Gross Revenue from Sales. Report the balances in the following accounts:

510000 Revenue From Goods Sold
520000 Revenue From Services Provided
5.3.5. Line 2.b – Minus: Credits Allowed on Sales. Reporting activities within the Supply Management Activity will report the dollar amount of credits allowed on amounts due (accounts receivable) from sales or Depot Level Repairable (DLR) exchanges. Report the balances in the following accounts:

- 510900 Contra Revenue for Goods Sold
- 520900 Contra Revenue from Services Provided

5.3.6. Line 3 – Other Revenue and Financing Sources. Include the total amount of revenues and financing sources not reported on Lines 1, “Appropriated Capital Used,” or 2, “Revenue from Sales of Goods and Services.” Do not include revenues reported on this line in customer rates. Include cash donations. Identify the nature of each miscellaneous gain in the footnotes. Do not include other gains related to inventory on this line. Report other gains related to inventory on Line K.4, “Net Other Inventory (Gains) Losses” of Part IV, “Expenses,” of the Statement of Operations. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts as they relate to Other Revenues and Financing Sources:

- 531000 Interest Revenue – Other
- 531900 Contra Revenue for Interest Revenue – Other
- 532000 Penalties and Fines Revenue

5.3.7. Line 4 – Total Revenue and Financing Sources. Line 4 is a summary line for Lines 1, “Appropriated Capital Used,” through 3, “Other Revenue and Financing Sources.” Revenue will equal net sales plus any other reimbursable revenue and financing source.

5.3.8. Section Heading – EXPENSES. The “Expenses” section presents outflows of or other decreases in assets, increases in liabilities, or a combination of both resulting in a decrease in the government's net position during the reporting period.

5.3.12. Line 8 – Total Expenses. Report the sum of Lines 5, “Program or Operating Expenses (Supply and Service Activities),” through 7, “Other Losses.”

5.3.13. Section Heading – NET OPERATING RESULTS. The “Net Operating Results” section identifies the reporting line items used to calculate the NOR for the reporting period.

5.3.15. Line 10 – Plus (Minus) Extraordinary Items. Extraordinary items are both unusual in nature and infrequent in occurrence. Identify the nature of each extraordinary gain or loss in a footnote. Report the balance of the following account:

730000 Extraordinary Items

5.3.16. Line 11 – Net Operating Results (NOR). Line 11 is a summary line for Lines 9, “Revenue Less Cost Incurred Before Extraordinary Items” and 10, “Plus (Minus) Extraordinary Items.”

5.3.17. Section Heading – NET OPERATING RESULTS FOR RATE PURPOSES. The “Net Operating Results for Rate Purposes” section identifies the reporting line items used to calculate the NOR used for rate purposes for the reporting period.

5.3.19. Line 13 – Recoverable Net Operating Results. Line 13 is a summary line for Lines 11, “Net Operating Results (NOR),” and 12, “Plus (Minus) Deferred Operating Results and Depreciation (Part V).”

152900 Inventory – Allowance

7.3.9.  Line 1.h – Minus: Work for Activity Retention. Report the value of assets developed or manufactured for use and retention by the performing DWCF activity. Report the portion of the balance of the following account as it relates to assets retained by a business activity:

650000 Cost of Goods Sold

* 7.3.11. Section Heading – COST OF GOODS SOLD FROM INVENTORY. Report in the “Cost of Goods Sold from Inventory” section only the costs for Supply Management and Commissary Resale DWCF activities. Supply activities must record any incremental amount billed for manufactured inventory as work-in-process on Line 1. The Supply Activity will adjust the inventory work-in-process account as appropriate based on the subsequent progress bills received.
7.3.11.1. Refer to the DoD USSGL Transaction Library for detailed debit and credit transactions related to the recording and transfer out of work-in-process inventory accounts to the appropriate Inventory Held for Sale account(s). Once the Supply Activity receives the completed manufactured end item(s), they will transfer the corresponding value in the inventory work-in-process account to the appropriate inventory account. Accounting transactions related to this policy need to comply with the DoD Standard Chart of Accounts and the DoD USSGL Transaction Library.

7.3.11.2. SFFAS 3 sets the accounting principles for Federal Government entities to follow when accounting for and reporting inventory and related property. Volume 4, Chapter 4 provides instructions for DoD Components recording inventory at its last invoice price. Volume 4, Chapter 4 also provides the application of inventory-related accounts and provides clarification for the reporting requirements contained in section 2, “Cost of Goods Sold from Inventory,” of Part III, “Cost of Goods Sold,” of the Statement of Operations.

7.3.12. Line 2.a – Beginning Inventory – LAC. Report the balance of Line 2.i, “Minus: Ending Inventory – LAC,” from the preceding September 30, Statement of Operations, Part III, “Cost of Goods Sold.” The LAC valuation method is available to DeCA and is not approved for use by other DoD Components. The amount reported will not change during the FY.

152100 Inventory Purchased for Resale
152200 Inventory Held in Reserve for Future Sale
152300 Inventory Held for Repair
152400 Inventory – Excess, Obsolete, and Unserviceable
152500 Inventory – Raw Materials
152700 Inventory – Finished Goods

7.3.13. Line 2.b – Plus/Minus: Prior Period Adjustments to LAC Inventory. Report the current year change for inventory reported at LAC related to prior period adjustments included in the following accounts:

740000 Prior–Period Adjustments Due to Corrections of Errors
740100 Prior–Period Adjustments Due to Changes in Accounting Principles
740500 Prior–Period Adjustments Due to Corrections of Errors – Years Preceding the Prior Year

7.3.14. Line 2.c – Equals: Adjusted Beginning Inventory-LAC. Line 2.c is a summary line for Lines 2.a, “Beginning Inventory – LAC,” and 2.b, “Plus/Minus: Prior Period Adjustments to LAC Inventory.”

gain (or loss) associated with inventory still held by the entity. “Realization” of the holding gain (or loss) occurs when an item of inventory is sold or otherwise leaves the Supply Management stocking point.

7.3.16. Line 2.e – Plus: Purchases at Cost. Report the portion of the balance in the following account as it relates to amounts paid or payable for all inventory purchases during the reporting period:

152900   Inventory – Allowance

7.3.17. Line 2.f – Plus: Customer Returns–Credit Given. Report the portion of the balance in the following account as it relates to amounts of credit given on materiel returns:

152900   Inventory – Allowance

7.3.18. Line 2.g – Plus: DLR Exchange Credits. Report the portion of the balance in the following account as it relates to amounts of credits given on DLR exchanges:

152900   Inventory – Allowance

* 7.3.19. Line 2.h – Minus: Inventory Losses (Gains) Realized. The realization of most inventory gains (and losses) are recognized through reduction of the unrealized holding gains (and losses) accounts as a result of sales; that is, those gains (and losses) are realized when inventory items are sold and recognized in the cost of goods sold.

7.3.19.1. However, increases (or decreases) in inventory occurring because of disposal and events other than sales also result in an adjustment (increase or decrease) of the unrealized holding gains (or losses) accounts. As those inventory increases (or decreases) are not the result of sales, they should not affect the cost of goods sold. (Immaterial losses are charged to cost of goods sold.)

7.3.19.2. Therefore, remove the value of those gains (or losses) from the cost of goods sold and report on Line K.4, “Net Other Inventory (Gains) Losses,” of Part IV “Expenses,” of the Statement of Operations. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts related to (gains) losses on inventory identified in the following breakdown:

7.3.19.2.1. Non-Recoverable Gains or Losses on Disposal of Excess Inventory, Supply Management:

- 610000 Operating Expenses/Program Costs
- 615000 Expensed Asset
- 619900 Adjustment to Subsidy Expense
- 660000 Applied Overhead
- 661000 Cost Capitalization Offset
- 673000 Imputed Costs
- 679000 Other Expenses Not Requiring Budgetary Resources
- 680000 Future Funded Expenses
- 685000 Employer Contributions to Employee Benefit Programs Not Requiring Current-Year Budget Authority (Unobligated)
- 690000 Nonproduction Costs

8.3.24. Line H.1 – Depreciation of Equipment. Report the portion of the balance of the following account related to depreciation of equipment:

- 671000 Depreciation, Amortization, and Depletion

8.3.25. Line H.2 – Depreciation of Real Property. Report the amount of the following account related to depreciation of real property:

- 671000 Depreciation, Amortization, and Depletion

8.3.26. Line H.3 – Amortization of Leasehold Improvements and Other Intangible Assets. Report the portion of the balance of the following account related to amortization of leasehold improvements and other intangible assets:

- 671000 Depreciation, Amortization, and Depletion

8.3.27. Line I – Depreciation – Non-DWCF Acquired PP&E. Line I is a summary line for Lines I.1, “Non-Recoverable Depreciation of Equipment,” through I.2, “Non-Recoverable Amortization.” Report the amount of depreciation on PP&E acquired by the activity with funds other than DWCF Revolving Funds.

8.3.28. Line I.1 – Non-Recoverable Depreciation of Equipment. Report the portion of the balance of the following account related to depreciation of equipment acquired by the activity with funds other than DWCF Revolving Funds:

- 671000 Depreciation, Amortization, and Depletion
8.3.29. Line I.2 – Non-Recoverable Amortization. Report the portion of the balance of the following account related to amortization of leasehold improvements and other intangible assets acquired by the activity with funds other than DWCF Revolving Funds:

- 671000 Depreciation, Amortization, and Depletion

8.3.30. Line J – Bad Debts. Report the balance in the following account:

- 672000 Bad Debt Expense

8.3.32. Line K.1 – Losses on Disposition of Assets. Report the portion of the balance of the following account related to losses on disposition of assets identified for the following categories: Non-Supply Management Activities; Non-Recoverable Disposal of Equipment/Capital Assets, Non-Federal; Non-Recoverable Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC) Cost, Non-Federal; and Other Expense-Non-Supply Management, Non-Federal.

- 721000 Losses on Disposition of Assets – Other

8.3.33. Line K.2 – Net (Gains) Losses on Inventory Shrinkage/Deterioration. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts related to (gains) losses on inventory shrinkage/deterioration as reported by Non-Supply Management activities:

- 719000 Other Gains
- 729000 Other Losses

8.3.34. Line K.3 – Net (Gains) Losses on Inventory Excess/Obsolescence/ Spoilage. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts related to (gains) losses on inventory excess, obsolescence, and spoilage as reported by Non-Supply Management activities:

- 719000 Other Gains
- 729000 Other Losses
8.3.35. Line K.4 – Net Other Inventory (Gains) Losses. Report the portion of the balance of the following accounts related to (gains) losses on inventory identified in the following breakdown:

8.3.35.1. Non-Recoverable Gains or Losses on Disposal of Excess Inventory, Supply Management:

9.1 General (150901)

Part V - Recoverable Operating Results, Form 15-7, discloses differences, if any, between NOR reported on Part I, “Statement of Operations,” of the Statement of Operations and the operating results that may be used in the budget formulation of stabilized billing rates. As a matter of policy, any amounts that a DoD Component requests to include in or exclude from its DWCF rates, whether identified in the OUSD(C) guidance as permissible or requested by the DoD Component, must be adequately documented and quantified. Further, all such amounts must be explicitly approved by OUSD(C) prior to being included in or excluded from the report.

9.2 Heading (150902)

Complete the heading of the form to indicate: the reporting DoD Component, the reporting DWCF activity, the reporting period (month), and the calendar year.

9.3 Line Item Instructions (150903)

Instructions for the content of each line item are as follows:

9.3.2. Line 2 – Deferred Operating Results (Gains/Losses) Net

9.3.2.1. Data reported on this line, and its sub-lines, unless otherwise specified, are restricted to specific exclusions approved by OUSD(C)(P/B).

9.3.2.2. These exclusions include amounts determined to be adjustments for the difference between the historical and LAC inventory valuations. Attribute this difference to the value of inventory reflected in the cost of goods sold at historical cost versus the value of inventory at LAC. The LAC valuation method is available to DeCA and is not approved for use by other DoD Components. Use this difference on the AR(M) 1307 to adjust the NOR to Net Recoverable Operating Results based on replacement costs that preserve the Working Capital Funds ability to replenish stock.

9.3.2.3. Line 2 is a summary line for Lines 2.a, “Net (Gains) Losses on Disposal of Excess Inventory (+/-),” through 2.g, “Other Approved Gains and Losses (must be footnoted).” The activity, management command of the reporting DWCF activity, or the DoD Component departmental level will provide, or approve, amounts reported on monthly activity reports.
9.3.3. Line 2.a – Net (Gains) Losses on Disposal of Excess Inventory (+/−). Line 2.a applies only to Supply Management Activities. Report gains (or losses, if applicable) on potential excess/actual inventory for which OUSD(C)(P/B) has approved an exclusion. Report the portion of the balance in the following accounts related to net (gains) losses on the disposal of excess inventory:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>Account</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>711000</td>
<td>Gains on Disposition of Assets – Other</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>721000</td>
<td>Losses on Disposition of Assets – Other</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>729000</td>
<td>Other Losses</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

9.3.4. Line 2.b – Disposal of Equipment/Capital Assets (-). Report losses (or gains, if applicable) realized upon the disposal of excess equipment and other capital assets when OUSD(C)(P/B) has approved the exclusion. Do not report losses (or gains) on excess equipment and other capital assets due to BRAC on this line. Report the losses (or gains) on excess equipment and other capital assets due to BRAC on Line 2.c, “Non-Reimbursable Base Closure (BRAC) Costs.” Report the amount of losses (or gains) related to the disposal of equipment and capital assets in the following accounts:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Account</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>711000</td>
<td>Gains on Disposition of Assets – Other</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>721000</td>
<td>Losses on Disposition of Assets – Other</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

9.3.5. Line 2.c – Non-Reimbursable Base Closure (BRAC) Costs (+/-). Report losses (or gains, if applicable) in excess of reimbursement that are a result from a base closure when OUSD(C)(P/B) has approved the exclusion. Report the amount of losses (or gains) related to BRAC costs in the following accounts:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Account</th>
<th>Description</th>
</tr>

<tbody>
<tr>
<td>711000</td>

<tr>
<td>721000</td>
<td>Losses on Disposition of Assets – Other</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>729000</td>
<td>Other Losses</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

9.3.6. Line 2.d – Capital Asset Surcharge (-). Adjust capital asset surcharge amounts, positive or negative, included in revenue in order to avoid either the return of an apparent gain (or loss) in the development of the subsequent year rate structure. Leave this line blank when there is no capital surcharge revenue.

9.3.6.1. Include a capital asset surcharge in customer rates only if approved by OUSD(C)(P/B). A capital asset surcharge might be approved when the amount of depreciation expense of existing capital assets included in stabilized rates is either less (or greater) than the budgeted Capital Program.

9.3.6.2. As the capital asset surcharge does not have an offsetting expense, in isolation from other transactions, it is expected to result in a gain (or loss) to NOR. Deduct the gain (or loss) from NOR to prevent its return or charge to customers in subsequent years through adjusted rates. Capital asset surcharge amounts may be reported without prior approval of OUSD(C)(P/B). Report the amount of revenue related to capital asset surcharges in the following accounts:

- 510000 Revenue From Goods Sold
- 520000 Revenue From Services Provided

9.3.7. Line 2.e – Cash Surcharge. Similar to capital asset surcharges, activities may include a cash surcharge in their rates. Report the amount of revenue related to cash surcharges in the following accounts:

- 510000 Revenue From Goods Sold
- 520000 Revenue From Services Provided

9.3.8. Line 2.f – Inventory Replenishment. Report the difference between the historical cost and LAC for inventory valuation. Report the amount of revenue related to inventory replenishment in the following accounts:

- 510000 Revenue From Goods Sold
- 719000 Other Gains
- 729000 Other Losses

9.3.9. Line 2.g – Other Approved Gains and Losses (must be footnoted). Report the approved gains (or losses) in the following accounts. Exclude amounts already listed in Lines 2.a, “Net (Gains) Losses on Disposal of Excess Inventory,” through 2.f, “Inventory Replenishment.”

- 510000 Revenue From Goods Sold
- 520000 Revenue From Services Provided
- 570000 Expended Appropriations
- 671000 Depreciation, Amortization, and Depletion
- 685000 Employer Contributions to Employee Benefit Programs Not Requiring Current Year Budget Authority (Unobligated)-FECA Civilian Personnel Benefits
- 711000 Gains on Disposition of Assets – Other
- 719000 Other Gains
- 721000 Losses on Disposition of Assets – Other
- 729000 Other Losses
- 760000 Changes in Actuarial Liability

9.3.11. Line 4 – Net Recoverable Operating Results from Current Year Operations. Line 4 is a summary line for Lines 1, “NET OPERATING RESULTS (NOR),” through 3, “Depreciation, Non–DWCF Acquired PP&E.”

9.4 Year-End Procedures (150904)

9.4.1. At FY end, close the NOR to Cumulative Results of Operations. Since part of that amount may be a non-recoverable deferred amount and an amount related to depreciation for non-DWCF acquired PP&E, identify those amounts separately in financial records with attributes.

9.4.2. The amount reported on Line 2, “Deferred Operating Results (Gains/Losses) Net,” will be the opposite of Line 1.B.(2).d, “Plus or Minus: Net Operating Results,” of Part II, “Changes in Net Position,” of the Statement of Operations during the FY and closed to deferred Cumulative Results of Operations during the year-end close process.

9.4.4. Report the amount from Line 4, “Net Recoverable Operating Results from Current Year Operations,” on Line 1.B.(1).d, “Plus or Minus: Net Operating Results,” of Part II during the FY. Close this amount to Cumulative Results of Operations – Recoverable during the year-end close process.

DEFENSE WORKING CAPITAL FUND
STATEMENT OF OPERATIONS: PART VI - CAPITAL PROGRAM
(DoD COMPONENT/BUSINESS AREA/ACTIVITY)
MONTH ENDING ____________, 20XX
($ in thousands)
10.1 General (151001)

10.1.1. Part VI - Capital Program, Form 15-8, reflects the approved program, obligations, disbursements, and collections for each FY of the program. A capital asset for this report must meet the Working Capital Fund Investment Threshold for the program year reported and have a useful life of 2 years or greater.

10.1.2. For reporting purposes, define the reporting period as the year-to-date amounts, i.e., amounts reported since the end of the prior FY to the end of the reporting month shown in the heading. Report balances for each program year in Part VI until the program’s obligations, disbursements, and collections equal.

10.2 Heading (151002)

Complete the heading of the form to indicate: the reporting DoD Component, the reporting DWCF activity, the reporting period (month), and the calendar year.

*10.3 Columnar Instructions (151003)

The contents of the columns will be as follows:

10.3.1. Program Year (Column 1). Separate FY program identification is required. Identify all prior FYs separately until the obligations, disbursements, and collections equal. Arrange the FY programs in consecutive order, starting with the least current FY program.

10.3.2. Approved Program – Original Program (Column 2). The original program amount will be capital authority approved for the reporting FY on the initial Annual Operating Budget (AOB) for the FY. Report the carryover from prior FYs as part of the initial program for that year. The amount reported will not change in subsequent years. Show the changes in the Capital Program amount in Column 3, “Approved Program – Program Adjustments.”

10.3.3. Approved Program – Program Adjustments (Column 3). Report adjustments (generally, deductions) to the initial approved Capital Program amounts in this column. Disclose adjustments to the initial approved program amounts in the AOBs for a subsequent program year. The amount reported in this column may change annually as of the beginning of a FY but will not change during a FY except at year-end. At year-end, the amount reported in this column will change to allow the value of Column 4, “Approved Program – Current Program,” to equal Column 7, “Obligations – Total.”

10.3.5. Obligations – This Fiscal Year (Column 5). Amounts included in this column will be the total amount of obligations incurred in the current FY.
10.3.6. Obligations – Prior Fiscal Year(s) (Column 6). Amounts included in this column will be the cumulative amount of Column 7, “Obligations – Total,” as of the end of the prior FY. The amount reported will not change during the reporting FY.

10.3.7. Obligations – Total (Column 7). Column 7 is the sum of Column 5, “Obligations – This Fiscal Year,” and Column 6, “Obligations – Prior Fiscal Year(s).” The amount reported in Column 4, “Approved Program – Current Program,” must be greater than or equal to Column 7, “Obligations – Total.”

10.3.8. Disbursements – This Fiscal Year (Column 8). Amounts included in this column will be the total amount of disbursements incurred in the current FY. The amount must agree with Line 1.d, “Funds Disbursed – Capital Program,” of the Statement of Financial Position.

10.3.9. Disbursements – Prior Fiscal Year(s) (Column 9). Amounts included in this column will be the cumulative amount of Column 10, “Disbursements – Total,” as of the end of the prior FY. The amount reported will not change during the reporting FY.

10.3.10. Disbursements – Total (Column 10). Column 10 is a summary column for Columns 8, “Disbursements – This Fiscal Year,” and 9, “Disbursements – Prior Fiscal Year(s).” The amount reported in Column 7, “Obligations – Total,” must be greater than or equal to Column 10, “Disbursements – Total.”

10.3.11. Collections – This Fiscal Year (Column 11). Amounts included in this column will be the total amount of collections reported in the current FY. The amount must agree with Line 1.b, “Funds Collected – Capital Program,” of the Statement of Financial Position.

10.3.12. Collections – Prior Fiscal Year(s) (Column 12). Amounts included in this column will be the cumulative amount of Column 13, “Collections – Total,” as of the end of the prior FY. The amount reported will not change during the reporting FY.

10.3.13. Collections – Total (Column 13). Column 13 is a summary column for Columns 11, “Collections – This Fiscal Year,” and 12, “Collections – Prior Fiscal Year(s).”

11.1 General (151101)

Part VII - Inventory Management Report – Supply Management Activity, Form 15-9, compares fiscal data from the Supply Management Activity general ledger with the approved operating program for the purpose of monitoring execution of the current year budget. The report applies solely to Supply Management Activities for the reporting of inventory-related transactions.

11.2 Heading (151102)

Complete the heading of the form to indicate: the reporting DoD Component, the reporting DWCF activity, the reporting period (month), and the calendar year.

11.3 General Reporting Requirements (151103)

Each DoD Component will submit an Inventory Management Report for each Supply Management Activity division on forms consistent with the example provided. Footnotes should be included as an addendum to Form 15-9.

*11.4 Line Item Instructions (151104)

11.4.1. Line A – Customer Orders Accepted – Cumulative. Enter the total amount of customer orders received for the FY to date. Report the current year change in the following accounts:

- 422100 Unfilled Customer Orders Without Advance
- 422200 Unfilled Customer Orders With Advance
- 425100 Reimbursements and Other Income Earned – Receivable
- 425200 Reimbursements and Other Income Earned – Collected
- 425300 Prior–Year Unfilled Customer Orders With Advance – Refunds Paid
- 426600 Other Actual Business–Type Collections From Non-Federal Sources

11.4.2. Line B – Gross Reimbursable Sales of Property, Inventory, & Services – Cumulative. Enter the total sales for the FY to date. The amount reported on this line will equal Line 2.a, “Gross Revenue from Sales,” of Part I, “Statement of Operations,” of the Statement of Operations. Report the balance of the following accounts:

- 510000 Revenue From Goods Sold
- 520000 Revenue From Services Provided

11.4.3. Line C – Unfilled Customer Orders. Enter the amount of requisitions or orders outstanding from customers. Report the balance of the following accounts:

- 422100 Unfilled Customer Orders Without Advance
- 422200 Unfilled Customer Orders With Advance
11.4.4. Line D – Customer Returns – Credits Granted – Cumulative. Enter the amount of credit granted to customers for material returns for the FY to date. The amount reported will equal Line 2.b, “Minus: Credits Allowed on Sales,” of Part I, “Statement of Operations,” of the Statement of Operations. Report the amount of credit granted to customers for material returns in the following accounts:

- 510900 Contra Revenue for Goods Sold
- 520900 Contra Revenue from Services Provided

11.4.6. Line F – Purchases at Cost (LAC) – Cumulative. Enter the amount of purchases at cost for this FY to date. The LAC valuation method is available to DeCA and is not approved for use by other DoD Components. The amount reported will equal Line 2.e, “Plus: Purchases at Cost,” of Part III, “Cost of Goods Sold,” of the Statement of Operations. Report the portion of the following general ledger account:

- 152900 Inventory – Allowance (Purchased at Cost)

11.4.7. Line G – Obligations – Cumulative. Enter the total obligations incurred this FY to date. Line G is a summary line for Lines H, “Obligations – Reimbursable,” through J, “Obligations – Mobilization – Cumulative.”

11.4.8. Line H – Obligations – Reimbursable. Enter the amount of operating obligations incurred this FY to date. Do not include obligations reported on Lines I, “Obligations – Augmentation – Cumulative,” and J, “Obligations – Mobilization – Cumulative.” Report the current year net change in the following accounts:

- 480100 Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Unpaid
- 480200 Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Prepaid/Advanced
- 487100 Downward Adjustments of Prior–Year Unpaid Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Recoveries
- 488100 Upward Adjustments of Prior–Year Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Unpaid
- 488200 Upward Adjustments of Prior–Year Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Prepaid/Advanced
- 490100 Delivered Orders – Obligations, Unpaid
- 490200 Delivered Orders – Obligations, Paid
- 497100 Downward Adjustments of Prior–Year Unpaid Delivered Orders – Obligations, Recoveries
- 497200 Downward Adjustments of Prior–Year Paid Delivered Orders – Obligations, Refunds Collected 11.4.9. Line I – Obligations – Augmentation – Cumulative. Enter the amount of obligations incurred this FY to date for inventory augmentation, initial issue. Volume 2B, Chapter 9 defines purposes for inventory augmentation. Do not include obligations reported on Lines H, “Obligations – Reimbursable,” and J, “Obligations – Mobilization – Cumulative.” Report the current year net change in the following accounts:

- 480100 Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Unpaid
- 480200 Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Prepaid/Advanced
- 483200 Undelivered Orders – Obligations Transferred, Prepaid/Advanced
- 487100 Downward Adjustments of Prior–Year Unpaid Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Recoveries
- 487200 Downward Adjustments of Prior–Year Prepaid/Advanced Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Refunds Collected
- 488100 Upward Adjustments of Prior–Year Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Unpaid
- 488200 Upward Adjustments of Prior–Year Undelivered Orders – Obligations, Prepaid/Advanced
- 490100 Delivered Orders – Obligations, Prepaid/Advanced
- 490200 Delivered Orders – Obligations, Unpaid
- 498100 Upward Adjustments of Prior–Year Delivered Orders – Obligations, Unpaid
- 498200 Upward Adjustments of Prior–Year Delivered Orders – Obligations, Paid

11.4.10. Line J – Obligations – Mobilization – Cumulative. Enter the amount of obligations incurred this FY to date for war reserve purposes. Volume 2B, Chapter 9 defines purposes for war reserves. Do not include obligations reported on Lines H, “Obligations – Reimbursable,” and I, “Obligations – Augmentation – Cumulative.” Report the current year net change in the following accounts:

CHAPTER 1

INTRODUCTION TO THE FORM AND CONTENT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1.0 GENERAL (0101)

1.1 Overview (010101)

Under the provisions of Title 31, United States Code, section 3515 (31 U.S.C. §3515), the Department of Defense (DoD) is required to have annual audited financial statements covering all accounts and associated activities of the Department. As implemented by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), the Department is required to prepare both Agency-wide annual audited financial statements and separate financial statements for reporting entities as defined in Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board, Statement of Federal Financial Accounting Standards (SFFAS) 47, “Reporting Entity.” The financial statements are expected to provide information to DoD program managers, Congress, and the public, thereby facilitating both effective allocation of resources and assessment of management performance and stewardship. The objective is to produce financial statements that will be used to improve the management of the Department. Additionally, consistent with the objectives of the Statements of Federal Financial Accounting Concepts (SFFACs) and SFFASs, the Department continues to work toward the integration of budget and financial information in order to provide for more effective program management at all levels.

1.2 Purpose (010102)

Guidance on the form and content of quarterly and annual financial statements prepared within the DoD and provide a framework for the DoD Components while allowing flexibility to develop and include useful information to decision makers. This guidance applies to all DoD reporting entities identified in section 0104 and identifies the level at which functions and/or funds should be reported on a consolidated basis, notes the basis of accounting to be utilized, prescribes the specific authoritative guidance on financial statement format and disclosures, and provides other instructions necessary for the preparation of annual audited financial statements and quarterly unaudited financial statements. When recording accounting transactions, follow the accounting standards hierarchy found in Volume 1, Chapter 2.

2.0 BACKGROUND (0102)

Federal agencies traditionally prepared financial reports to monitor and control the obligation and expenditure of budgetary resources. With the enactment of Public Law 101-576, “Chief Financial Officers Act of 1990” (CFO Act), and Public Law 103-356, “Government Management Reform Act of 1994” (GMRA), the Congress called for the production of audited financial statements. The statements must fully disclose a federal entity’s financial position, results of operations, and provide information on the effective allocation of resources which Congress, Agency managers, the public, and others can assess management performance and stewardship. Accordingly, OMB in consultation with the CFO Council, the Council of the Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency, and other interested parties developed the formats and instructions for financial statements described in this volume. The annual audited financial statements must be organized as shown in Table 1-1.

*3.0 REQUIRED REPORTING DATES (0103)

Authoritative guidance requires the preparation of annual audited financial statements for the period ending on September 30 of each fiscal year and the quarterly unaudited financial statements for periods ending December 31, March 31, and June 30 of each fiscal year. Agencies must submit unaudited interim financial statements to OMB 21 business days after the end of the third quarter of the fiscal year and Notes to the Financial Statements 45 business days after the end of the third quarter of the fiscal year. Annual audited financial statements are due to OMB, the Treasury, the Government Accountability Office, and the Congress in accordance with OMB Circular A-136.

4.0 DoD REPORTING ENTITIES (0104)

4.1 Annual Audited and Quarterly Unaudited Financial Statements Required by OMB (010401)

Executive Branch agencies must generally prepare and submit audited financial statements to OMB. The CFO Act, as amended by the GMRA, requires major agencies of the Federal Government to prepare and submit audited financial statements. Additionally, OMB requires the Department and other major agencies to prepare Agency-wide quarterly unaudited financial statements according to OMB Circular A-136. The DoD Agency-wide financial statements provide the financial status of the entire Department. There are Component reporting entities in the Department that, while included in the DoD Agency-wide statements, are required by OMB to prepare stand-alone audited financial statements and quarterly unaudited financial statements. These components (Tier 1) are listed in Appendix B of OMB’s annual bulletin, “Audit Requirements for Federal Financial Statements.”

4.2 Annual Audited and Quarterly Unaudited Financial Statements Required by the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence (010402)
In addition to the reporting entities identified in paragraph 010401, the following entities will prepare annual audited and unaudited quarterly financial statements to the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence:

4.2.1. Defense Intelligence Agency;

4.2.2. National Reconnaissance Office;

4.2.3. National Geospatial-Intelligence Agency; and 4.2.4. National Security Agency.

4.3 Other Defense Activities (ODAs) (010403)

In addition to the reporting entities identified in paragraph 010401, the remaining components of the Department are reported in the consolidating/combining statements, which comprise the DoD Agency-wide annual audited and quarterly unaudited financial statements. Tier 2 includes Components undergoing a stand-alone audit. Tiers 3 and 4 include Components not under a stand-alone audit.

*4.4 Non-OMB Reporting Entities (010404)

The OMB non-reporting entities represent all others not identified in paragraphs 010401 and 010402. These entities are not required reporters per OMB Circular A-136. The management-approved “DoD Reporting Entities” list is located on the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) (OUSD(C)), Office of the Deputy Chief Financial Officer, Financial Improvement and Audit Remediation (FIAR) Directorate website (DoD Common Access Card required) under the “Policies, Publications, & Guidance” heading. The FIAR Directorate is responsible for updating this list annually.

4.4.1. DoD Designated Audit Entities. DoD has designated certain reporting entities to adhere to the same audit readiness efforts as congressionally mandated OMB reporting entities. These reporting entities must perform all audit readiness efforts in accordance with the FIAR guidance and must undergo annual stand-alone financial statement audits.

4.4.2. Other Material Defense Agencies and Remaining Entities. Other material Defense Agencies are reporting entities that must undergo annual examinations or other independent validations of their financial statement balances. Remaining entities include ODAs, organizations, and funds not material to the DoD consolidated financial statements. Remaining entities must perform audit readiness efforts to improve their internal controls and will be included in the DoD consolidated financial statement audit.

4.4.2.1. To support the preparation of the Agency-wide financial statements, these entities must submit trial balances and corresponding adjustments within Defense Departmental Reporting System – Audited Financial Statements (DDRS-AFS), DDRS-Budgetary, and DDRS - Data Collection Module. Additionally, these entities are required to provide information as outlined by the quarterly Agency-wide reporting schedules and guidance. To ensure continued improvement to financial reporting in accordance with Department objectives, other material Defense Agencies and remaining entities must continue value-added financial improvement efforts including evaluation and improvements to internal controls over financial reporting. Reasonableness reviews of financial statements for other material Defense Agencies and remaining entities during non-reporting periods may result in questions for explanation and/or future corrective action. The OUSD(C) delegated financial statement review of the entity’s financial information and OUSD(C) oversight of these reporting entities to the respective Component’s Comptroller or senior financial manager. However, designated DFAS Financial Reporting staff will remain available to assist in responding to issues or inquiries.

4.4.2.2. Based on the FIAR strategy, cost mitigation requirements, and expected progression towards full assertion of auditability, each other material Defense Agency and remaining entity will determine their internal reporting and audit requirements, as deemed necessary for continued improvement of financial data and achievement of audit objectives. Entities currently receiving an unmodified audit opinion should consider the cost versus value of the audit in determining requirements and objectives.

4.5 Pass-Through Accounts (010405)

Pass-through accounts are included in the consolidated financial statements. While financial transactions flow through such accounts to or from other entities, these accounts do not ultimately own that activity. Most pass-through account balances are eliminated within the DoD-wide consolidating statements, or with Treasury. The exception are account balances affecting the Statement of Budgetary Resources, which is presented on a combined basis. A listing of pass-through accounts is identified on the DoD Reporting Entities list (reference paragraph 010404).

4.6 Disclosure Entities (010406)

Disclosure entities are those non-DoD entities required to be disclosed in the footnotes to the consolidated financial statements but are not included in the primary financial statements of the Department. A listing of disclosure entities is identified on the DoD Reporting Entities list (reference paragraph 010404).

4.7 Audit Compliance (010407)

DoD Component reporting entities will prepare financial statements as denoted in paragraph 010401. All DoD Components (both reporting entities and non-reporting entities) are required to comply with the FIAR requirements and other guidance issued by the OUSD(C). Each Component, after completing their assertion of auditability, and with the advice of the DoD Office of the Inspector General (OIG), must establish an audit committee to oversee its financial audit. The purpose of the audit committee is to establish audit requirements, identify contract deliverables, monitor the execution of the contract, and identify and assist with resolution of obstacles to an unmodified audit opinion. Once DoD Component reporting entities are deemed auditable, the audit committee’s focus should be on ensuring a forum exists to address ongoing accounting and auditing issues. Audit committees for OMB reporting entities identified in paragraph 010401 must include a representative of DoD OIG. Audits of Federal financial statements are conducted in accordance with the requirements found in the annually updated OMB Bulletin, “Audit Requirements for Federal Financial Statements.” These provisions apply to audits of financial statements of executive departments, agencies, and government corporations and certain components of these agencies. The Bulletin reflects changes that apply as a result of other revised OMB guidance, including OMB Circular A-136.

5.0 CONTENT OF ANNUAL AUDITED AND QUARTERLY UNAUDITED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (0105)

*5.1 Major Sections of the Agency Financial Report (010501)

5.1.1. The annual audited financial statements of the OMB reporting entities identified in paragraph 010401 must be comprised of four major sections. A reporting entity is required to include a dated transmittal letter signed by the Agency Head to be located at the beginning of the report, as explained in Chapter 3, section 0302. Non-OMB reporting entities not identified elsewhere in this chapter are to follow the requirements outlined in paragraph 010404. The quarterly unaudited financial statements required for third and fourth quarters must be comprised of the principal statements and notes to the principal statements and, if applicable, supporting consolidating and/or combining statements. Although the first and second quarter principal statements must be prepared, the preparation of accompanying notes for the first and second quarter is not required. A more detailed outline appears in Table 1-1. Specific instructions for the preparation of the contents of each section are provided in the individual chapters. The four required major sections and the sequence of their presentation are as follows:

5.1.1.1. Agency Head Transmittal Letter;

5.1.1.2. Management’s Discussion and Analysis (MD&A);

5.1.1.3. Financial Section; and

5.1.1.4. Other Information.

5.1.2. The accompanying subsections of the Financial Section are as follows:

5.1.2.1. CFO Message;

5.1.2.2. Audit Report;

5.1.2.3. Principal Statements;

5.1.2.4. Notes to the Principal Statements; and

5.1.2.5. Required Supplementary Information (RSI).
5.2 Agency Head Transmittal Letter (010502)

This message precedes the MD&A section of the Agency Financial Report and is a dated transmittal letter signed by the Agency Head. The letter must contain the Agency Head’s assessment of the reliability and completeness of financial and performance data in the report and a description of any material weaknesses in internal control and actions the agency is taking to resolve the weaknesses. Guidance for required information in the Agency Head Transmittal Letter is provided in Chapter 3.

5.3 MD&A (010503)

The MD&A of the reporting entity is integral to the annual financial statements and should be regarded as RSI. MD&A requirements are stated in SFFAC 3, “Management’s Discussion and Analysis;” SFFAS 15, “Management’s Discussions and Analysis;” and OMB Circular A-136. MD&A is an important vehicle for communicating managers’ insights about the reporting entity, increasing the understandability and usefulness of the financial statements, and providing understandable and accessible information about the entity and its operations, service levels, successes, and challenges. MD&A also should address significant events, conditions, risks, uncertainties, trends, and contingencies that may affect future operations. Guidance for preparation of MD&A is provided in Chapter 3.

*5.4 CFO Message (010504)

The CFO Message provides a summary of the Department’s financial results, position, and condition. Additionally, it provides transparency where challenges exist. The message may also include a discussion of key financial-related measures emphasizing financial trends and assessing financial operations.

5.5 Audit Report (010505)

5.5.1 DoD Reporting Entity Audits. DoD OIG must render an audit opinion on the DoD Agency-wide financial statements and OMB required entities in paragraph 010401. In addition, OIG must provide an endorsement to the audit opinion for each of the reporting entity financial statements opined on by a contract auditor.

5.5.2 ODA Audits. DoD OIG will not issue separate audit opinions on the financial statements of ODAs included in the DoD Agency-wide financial report. The ODA financial statements and records must be included in the audits performed to support the opinion issued by OIG on the DoD Agency-wide audited financial statements.

5.6 Principal Statements and Notes to the Principal Statements (010506)

Principal statements and notes to the principal statements summarize financial information for individual funds and accounts within reporting entities and subentities. The amounts reported on the principal statements are based on general ledger account balances. Instructions for the preparation of the principal statements are contained in Chapters 4, 5, 6, and 7. Reconciliations within DoD can be viewed with proper authorization in the DDRS-AFS by selecting “Reports” from the menu and then accessing “Reconciliations.” Additional reconciliation information is available in the DFAS Reconciliation Manual.

5.6.1. Principal Statements. The principal statements must include:

5.6.1.1. Balance Sheet (Consolidated);

5.6.1.2. Statement of Net Cost (Consolidated);

5.6.1.3. Statement of Changes in Net Position (Consolidated); and 5.6.1.4. Statement of Budgetary Resources (Combined).

5.6.2. Notes to the Principal Statements. The notes to the principal statements are an integral part of the financial statements. They include a summary of the accounting principles and methods of applying those principles that are the most appropriate for presenting the entity’s significant assets, liabilities, equity, revenues, expenses, and budgetary information. The notes also provide further detail of the amounts reported on the statements. In cases where individual line items of the financial statements cannot be obtained or a substitution is made from the requirements herein, the deficiencies must be explained and the reason for noncompliance annotated in the notes. The notes also contain disclosures required by the SFFASs. Instructions for the preparation of the required notes are contained in Chapter 10.

5.7 RSI (010507)

All Federal agencies are required to report RSI. Certain information is designated as RSI and defined in OMB Circular A-136. Specific guidance for reporting RSI is contained in Chapter 12.

5.8 Other Information (010508)

Specific guidance for reporting Other Information is contained in Chapter 3.

5.9 Supporting Consolidating/Combining Statements (010509)

The consolidating and combining statements use a multi-column format to present information on the reporting entity's major component. The total column for consolidating and combining statements must equal the amount reported in the consolidated or combined statements. Although publishing the consolidating/combining statements is not required by the DoD, it is very important these statements are reviewed for completeness and consistency with the consolidated statements.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1.0 GENERAL (0201)

1.1 Purpose (020101)

This chapter identifies the general requirements for preparation and submission of financial statements and the required disclosures, as required by the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and other departmental guidance. It establishes the roles and responsibilities of departmental and agency financial managers, and provides specific instructions for preparation of the Management Representation Letter (MRL) and the Legal Representation Letter (LRL).

1.2 Authoritative Guidance (020102)

Guidance on the content and submission of the financial statements is defined in the OMB Circular A-136, “Financial Reporting Requirements,” and Bulletin 19-03, “Audit Requirements for Federal Financial Statements.” Applicable accounting principles are contained in the Statements of Federal Financial Accounting Standards (SFFAS) and Statements of Federal Financial Accounting Concepts (SFFAC). The DoD Financial Statement Audit Guide details the roles and responsibilities of reporting entities and service providers, as well as the processes they must follow, to achieve audit readiness. The Department’s financial reporting entities and related information are identified in Chapter 1. Volume 1, Chapter 1 explains the authority granted to the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) (USD(C)) for management and preparation of DoD financial statements. Annual updates to Circular A-136 are on the OMB website.

2.0 RESPONSIBILITIES (0202)

2.1 Responsibility for Preparation of the Financial Statements (020201)

The primary responsibility for the financial statements rests with the reporting entity’s management. Responsibility for preparation of the principal statements and notes, however, may be shared with the accounting organization responsible for maintaining the financial records of the reporting entity. Additional information for the responsible accounting activities who prepare the required supporting statements, and the responsible officials for those statements, can be found in the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) Financial Reporting Guidance. The responsible official must ensure that: (1) known business processes/systems that could materially impact the financial statements are communicated; (2) all necessary data that originates in nonfinancial processes and systems (e.g., inventory and property data) is provided; (3) consolidating/combining statements are reviewed and analyzed; and (4) feedback is provided to the entity's supporting accounting organization as required or upon request.
2.2 Reporting of Foreign Military Sales and Other Security Assistance (020202)

The Defense Security Cooperation Agency administers certain Foreign Military Sales (FMS) and other security assistance programs on behalf of the Executive Office of the President (EOP). While FMS activity is primarily reported separately from DoD activity, OMB has approved the following provisions regarding the specific information on the financial activity of FMS programs that is to be included in the DoD financial statements.

2.2.1. Revenue and expense amounts pertaining to FMS goods or services provided from the stocks of the DoD Components on a reimbursable basis must be reported in the financial statements of the applicable selling DoD Component and in the DoD Agency-wide consolidated statements.

2.2.2. Principal statements for the following EOP accounts are to be prepared by DFAS and reported separately from the DoD Agency-wide financial statements: 11*1081, 11*1082, 11*1085, 11*4116, 11X4121, 11X4122, 11X4174, and 11X8242. Descriptions of these accounts are contained in Volume 15, Chapter 1.

3.0 REPORTING SCHEDULES AND QUALITY CONTROL REVIEWS (0203)

3.1 Interim Financial Reporting (020301)

3.1.1. Interim financial reporting requirements are detailed in the OMB Circular A-136 and in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. All DoD financial reporting entities are required to support the DFAS and USD(C) preparation and analysis of the Department’s quarterly Agency-wide financial statements that must be submitted to OMB 21 business days after the end of the third quarter of the fiscal year (FY). The OMB-designated reportable entities are required to submit their interim unaudited Balance Sheet, Statement of Net Cost (SNC), and Statement of Changes in Net Position (SCNP) to OMB 21 business days after the end of the third quarter of the FY. More detailed reporting and timing requirements are contained in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. Agencies are required to use the MAX Federal Community to submit their interim financial statements electronically to OMB.

3.1.2. The DoD Agency-wide submission for the interim quarter and for the fiscal year end must include an analysis of any material differences. The analysis must only be on the material differences between the interim quarter and the same quarter from the prior year. It must be noted in the analysis if a financial statement does not have material differences between comparative periods. The analysis must include management’s explanation of material differences in types or amounts of assets, liabilities, costs, and revenues.

3.1.3. USD(C) and DFAS may require the OMB reportable entities to prepare and submit full note disclosures, variance analyses, and the Statement of Budgetary Resources (SBR) to Standard Form (SF) 133, “Report on Budget Execution and Budgetary Resources,” reconciliations as part of other departmental reporting and analyses activity to support the Agency-wide submission due to OMB after the interim quarter and at fiscal year-end. Specific requirements and timelines are detailed in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance.
3.1.4. Additionally, the DoD Financial Statement Audit Guide establishes other financial reporting requirements to assist in achieving full auditability. These financial reporting requirements and timelines are detailed within the Guide.

3.15. Chapter 10 requires the disclosure of all abnormal balances appearing on the individual note schedules or financial statement lines. These disclosures are reported in the accompanying notes to the financial statements in the third and fourth quarters of each FY. In support of the DFAS preparation and submittal of the Agency-wide interim reports, all Components must investigate abnormal balances and correct them if required by the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. Further, all Components must explain material, abnormal proprietary and budgetary United States Standard General Ledger (USSGL) account balances of $500,000 or greater on the summary program-level trial balance within the Defense Departmental Reporting System–Audited Financial Statement (DDRS-AFS). They must also explain any abnormal balance that appears on the statements or note schedule, regardless of amount. Refer to the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance for detailed disclosure requirements.

3.2 Annual Financial Statements (020302)

3.2.1. In accordance with OMB Circular A-136, the Department is required to submit a draft of the Agency Financial Report (AFR) to OMB’s Office of Federal Financial Management, and the appropriate OMB Resource Management Office, 10 business days before issuing the final AFR. This draft must include all sections of the Agency-wide AFR, as identified in Chapter 1, except the audit report if it is not available at that time. If the audit report is not available when the draft AFR is submitted to OMB, then a draft audit report, or a summary of the audit results including the type of opinion anticipated and names and descriptions of material weaknesses and significant deficiencies, is to be provided to OMB as soon as it is available. Agencies are required to use the MAX Federal Community to submit their draft AFRs electronically to OMB.

3.2.2. Each of the reporting entities identified in Chapter 1 is required to submit audited financial statements in accordance with the detailed financial statement reporting schedule contained in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. The final AFR must be posted to the reporting entity’s public website the same day the report is submitted to OMB, the Government Accountability Office (GAO), the U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury), and the Congress. Agencies must submit their final reports to OMB using the MAX Federal Community and to the Treasury and GAO using the contact information provided in Appendix B of OMB Circular A-136. Additionally, reporting entities must also submit their final reports to the USD(C).

3.3 Quality Control Reviews of Financial Statements and Notes (020303)

Each Component, along with their supporting accounting organization, must review its financial statements and notes to ensure the completeness of financial information provided by both the accounting activity and the various Component functional organizations.
3.4 Key Financial Statements Preparation Due Dates (020304)

The development and publication of the financial statements requires coordinated actions by entity management, the supporting accounting organization, and the audit community. Additional information regarding the key financial statement preparation milestones is in the financial statement reporting schedule in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance.

4.0 MANAGEMENT REPRESENTATION LETTERS (0204)

4.1 Preparation and Submission (020401)

4.1.1. Auditors require the responsible senior manager to prepare and submit an MRL, for each reporting entity audited, prior to the conclusion of an audit. The MRL must be signed by those members of management with overall responsibility for financial and operating matters. Members of management are those that the auditor believes are responsible for and knowledgeable about, directly or through others in the organization, the matters covered by the representations. Such members of management generally include the head of the agency, the Chief Financial Officer, and any others deemed responsible for matters presented in the MRL.

4.1.2. During the audit, management makes many representations to the auditor, both oral and written, in response to specific inquiries and through the submission of the financial statements. In the MRL, the senior responsible manager confirms the representations explicitly or implicitly given to the auditor, states and documents the continuing appropriateness of such representations, and reduces the possibility of misunderstanding concerning the matters that are the subject of the representations. Representations by management generally relate to: (1) the financial statements; (2) completeness of the information; (3) recognition, measurement, and disclosure; and (4) subsequent events. Specifically, the management function must represent that the financial statements do, or do not, present fairly the financial position of the reporting entity in accordance with federal generally accepted accounting principles.

4.2 Management Representations (020402)

Management representations must include all representations that are required by generally accepted auditing standards and OMB Bulletin 19-03. General representations must, however, be modified to be consistent with findings reported by the auditor. In accordance with OMB Circular A-136, Section V.5, management’s representations may be limited to matters that are considered either individually or collectively material to the financial statements, provided management and the auditor have reached an understanding on materiality for this purpose. MRLs are due to the office performing the entity’s audit prior to the conclusion of the audit. The schedules for the draft and final letters are contained in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. The USD(C) is responsible for submitting the final MRL to OMB.

4.3 Materiality (020403)

As required by OMB Circular A-136, Section V.5, the MRL must include a representation regarding the materiality of unrecorded financial statement adjustments aggregated by the auditors.
A list of any uncorrected misstatements (in Excel format), including those audit adjustments waived by the Component level, must be attached to the MRL.

4.4 Representation of Budgetary Data (020404)

Management is required to include a representation that addresses the consistency of budgetary data reported on the SBR, and the budgetary data submitted through the Governmentwide Treasury Account Symbol Adjusted Trial Balance System (GTAS), to prepare the year-end SF 133s. Management may consider using the following sample representation: “The information presented on the Department’s SBR is reconcilable to the information submitted on the Department’s year-end SF 133s. This information will be used as input for the FY 20xx actual column of the Program and Financing Schedules reported in the FY 20xx Budget of the U.S. Government. Such information is supported by the related financial records and related data.”

4.5 Signature Levels of Representation Letters (020405)

Signature levels for MRLs are as follows and may be handwritten or electronic.

4.5.1. The Secretary or Under Secretary of the Military Department concerned must sign an MRL in support of the audited financial statements for a Military Department’s General Fund and Working Capital Fund.

4.5.2. The Director or Deputy Director of the Defense Agency concerned must sign an MRL in support of the audited financial statements for a Defense Agency.

4.5.3. The fund manager of the trust, or revolving fund concerned, must sign an MRL in support of financial statements for a trust or revolving fund managed by the Office of the Secretary of Defense or Defense Agency.

4.5.4. The head of other reporting entities not described in subparagraphs 020405.A through 020405.C, but listed in Chapter 1 and pursuing a full financial audit and producing stand-alone financial statements, must sign an MRL in support of their audited financial statements.

4.5.5. The Secretary of Defense or Deputy Secretary of Defense, and the USD(C), must sign the final MRL for the DoD Agency-wide financial statements.

4.6 Referrals to Office of the Deputy Chief Financial Officer (020406)

Auditor requests for MRLs below levels cited in paragraph 020405 must be referred to the USD(C), Office of the Deputy Chief Financial Officer (ODCFO).

4.7 Date of Management Representation Letter (020407)

Generally, the date of an MRL must be the date the auditor issues the audit report on the entity’s financial statements. Coordinating the two dates is essential. The due dates for the MRLs are specified in the financial statement reporting schedule in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. Management must not provide auditors with pre-signed, undated letters or with predated letters. If auditors need an advance copy of the intended management letter, then auditors must include that requirement when submitting the initial request for the MRL. Active cooperation and interaction between auditors and management is expected so that the MRL reaches the auditors on the due date. Refer to the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance for additional requirements and timelines in support of the DoD Agency-wide financial statement submittal.

5.0 LEGAL REPRESENTATION LETTERS (0205)

5.1 Inquiries of Legal Counsel (020501)

According to OMB Bulletin 19-03, the auditor will request entity management to send a letter of inquiry to those lawyers with whom management consulted concerning litigation, claims, and assessments. Refer to the GAO Financial Audit Manual, Section 1002B, Example Legal Letter Request, and subsequent revisions, for an illustrative letter of inquiry from entity management to legal counsel. Management must document in a schedule how the information contained in the legal counsel’s response(s) was considered in preparing the financial statements. In accordance with OMB Circular A-136, Section V.4, LRLs and management’s schedules are required for the audits of entity financial statements and the special-purpose financial statements used to compile the Financial Report (FR) of the U.S. Government.

5.2 Obtain Legal Representations (020502)

5.2.1. To assist the auditor in completing the review of legal matters in a timely manner, the auditor may ask management to request that legal counsel submit an interim LRL so that a preliminary evaluation of the significance of material legal matters can be made. It is the responsibility of the senior financial management official of the entity being audited to request interim or final LRLs from their General Counsel (GC). Judge Advocates General must not be requested to furnish LRLs. The LRLs requested from the GC of the Military Departments must include the request that the GC report matters involving both military and civilian counsel.

5.2.2. Requests for an LRL pertaining to the Agency-wide financial statements, and to any defense-wide account audited separately, such as the Military Retirement Fund, must be sent to the DoD GC. Copies of any letters prepared by the GC of the Military Departments and DoD Components must be provided to the DoD GC, Attention: Deputy General Counsel (Fiscal) (DGC(F)) and to the DoD Inspector General (IG), or other independent auditors performing the audit. In letters provided to the GC, DoD must report only cases at or above the materiality threshold established for that year’s Agency-wide financial statement audit.

5.2.3. Management Schedules of Information (MSIs) must be reported directly to the USD(C). The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) must also prepare an LRL for Treasury Index 96 civil funds. The USACE LRL, and supporting MSIs, must be submitted to the USD(C). Each year, the DGC(F) must advise the counsels preparing the LRLs of the mandatory times for submission of them as specified in the financial statement reporting schedule within the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. The DGC(F) must also advise them of the applicable Agency-wide materiality threshold for that year’s Agency-wide financial statement.
5.3 Preparation of Legal Representation Letters (020503)

When preparing the LRLs, the GC must consider the guidance found in Treasury Financial Manual 2-4700, section 4705.60a, and OMB Bulletin 19-03. Report cases and claims using the legal representation format and guidance on the U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ) website under the “Selected Documents & Forms.” In addition to reporting the status of pending contingent liabilities, the interim LRLs must also include the cases reported in the previous year’s legal representations that are no longer pending. For additional policy regarding contingent liabilities, see Volume 4, Chapter 12 and applicable Policy Memoranda related to Volume 4, Chapter 12. The final representation letter must be limited to new information (i.e., cases that arise subsequent to the interim letter or changes in the status of cases that were reported in the interim letter). The final letter must not repeat information from the interim letter that has not changed. Any subsequent changes in cases that arise after the final representation letter, but before the end of the audit fieldwork on the financial statements, must be communicated to the auditor. The required summaries of the legal letters must be submitted to the cognizant audit agency for the reporting entity, to the entity’s supporting accounting activity, and to the ODCFO.

5.4 Determination of Legal Cases (020504)

Management must make an assessment as to whether pending, threatened litigation or unasserted claims must be reported or disclosed in the financial statements. This determination extends to cases in which legal counsel has classified the likelihood of loss as “unknown.” The name and telephone number of the individual who is able to answer questions regarding the presentation of legal claims and assessments in the financial statements must also be provided. The required summaries of the legal letters must be submitted to the cognizant audit agency for the reporting entity, the entity’s supporting accounting activity, and the ODCFO. DoD due dates for the interim and updated legal letters, and the associated summaries, are reflected in the financial statement reporting schedule in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance.

5.5 Summary of Legal Representation Letters (020505)

Rather than having the cognizant auditors submit copies of the interim and updated LRLs, along with the summaries of the information contained in these responses for each reporting entity, the GAO has agreed to use the single summary of the various LRLs prepared for submission with the Agency-wide statements. The IG and ODCFO must make the required submission to the OMB, the Treasury, the DOJ, and the GAO per the due dates in the financial statement reporting schedule contained in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. The agency IG must also provide notification to the OMB, Treasury, the DOJ, and the GAO whether there were “no changes” or “changes” due to subsequent events that resulted in a change in the likelihood of a loss, or the amount of a loss, or both, after the effective date of the final LRL, but before the date of the audit report on the FR.

6.1 Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (020601)

The principal statements and notes embody the generally accepted accounting principles contained in the SFFAS and SFFAC. The SFFAS and SFFAC are incorporated into accounting policy and guidance contained in this Regulation. Preparers of financial statements seeking additional guidance must follow the hierarchy contained in Volume 1, Chapter 2.

6.2 United States Standard General Ledger (020602)

Preparers of financial statements and notes must crosswalk their unique general ledger accounts to the USSGL chart of accounts, and at a lower level of detail to include Treasury’s Bureau of the Fiscal Service (Fiscal Service) GTAS attributes, Standard Financial Information Structure elements, DoD’s trading partner information, and other DoD-required attributes to prepare the financial statements and note schedules. DDRS-AFS must utilize the USSGL, GTAS attributes, and other DoD required attributes, to populate financial statements and related note schedules. Additional information regarding the input and timelines for importing information into DDRS-AFS is in the quarterly DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance.

6.3 Agreement Between Totals in Statements and Notes (020603)

DoD Components/reporting entities preparing quarterly interim and fiscal year-end financial statements, and related supporting notes and other schedules, must ensure the total figures disclosed in the supporting notes and other schedules conform to the amounts presented in the body of the financial statements. The chosen rounding level must be maintained consistently throughout the principal statements and notes. In addition, rounded totals must agree between the principal statements as applicable (e.g., ending balances from the SCNP equal the Total Net Position line on the Balance Sheet). Individual line items must sum to the totals (this may require adjusting the individual detail line items for differences created by the rounding process rather than adjusting column totals).

6.4 Comparative Data (020604)

Comparative financial statements are required. Data presented in the fiscal year-end prior year column must be identical with the amounts reported on the financial statements of the prior year. Information for the current and preceding years must be presented, regardless of the type of audit opinion rendered by the auditor. The notes must contain the information that is necessary for full disclosure of both years. Refer to Chapter 10 for additional policy regarding the notes required for the financial statements.

6.5 Variance Analysis/Fluctuations (020605)

A comprehensive financial statement variance analysis report is prepared each quarter solely for the Agency-wide financial statements, addressing material fluctuations between comparative periods on report lines of the Balance Sheet, SNC, and selected lines of the SCNP,
SBR, and supporting note schedules. Only Components materially contributing to the Agency-wide variances must explain significant variances when requested by DFAS Financial Reporting. A significant variance is a fluctuation from the same quarter in the prior year to the current year that exceeds $1 billion and 10 percent of the prior year amount, or a lower threshold defined by management. The detailed explanations for the significant variances must provide concise answers to the following questions pertaining to the comparative periods.

6.5.1. What is the dollar amount of the fluctuation?

6.5.2. Which activity caused the fluctuation?

6.5.3. What business event caused the fluctuation?

6.5.4. Why did the fluctuation occur?

6.5.5. When, during the last four quarters, did the primary business event occur causing the fluctuation? Responding to this question helps identify which disclosures are likely to be in effect for the current fiscal year end.

6.6 Statement Consolidation (020606)

User judgment must be exercised to determine if it is appropriate to exclude some statement line items, notes, and lines or columns in notes from the final published statements, if those lines do not apply to the reporting entity. In order to ensure consistent and accurate aggregation of amounts from suborganizations, however, such lines must not be excluded prior to the submission of the final published version. Due to the short timeframes available for statement consolidation at the agency level, preparers are not authorized to combine lines for which the referenced account balances are immaterial.

6.7 Disclose Material Balances (020607)

Do not designate in the notes as “other” any discrete balances of a material amount. Material balances must be separately disclosed and designated by name. Material is defined for this purpose as any component of a line item that represents 10 percent or more of the value of the line in the principal statement.

6.8 Notes to the Financial Statements (020608)

The note numbering sequence contained in Chapter 10 must be maintained in all versions of the notes in order to ensure consistent and accurate aggregation to the DoD Agency-wide level. For notes that are not applicable to the reporting entity, indicate the note is not applicable after the note number and title. Entities must retain this determination of nonapplicability in the working versions of the notes to document to outside auditors that an overt decision was made regarding the note disclosure applicability. The notes identified as nonapplicable will be excluded in preparation of the final statements. If additional notes are necessary to provide other required disclosures, then number them as explained in Chapter 10. Refer to Chapter 10 for more detailed guidance on the preparation, presentation, and numbering of notes to the principal financial statements.

6.9 Consistency in Reporting (020609)

Accounting policies and procedures must be applied consistently throughout the financial statements. Ensure amounts are consistently reported throughout the financial statements, notes, supplemental information, and the Management’s Discussion and Analysis (MD&A) section. Also ensure that schedules presented in the notes, in support of amounts presented on financial statements, have total figures that agree with the amounts presented in the financial statements. Financial information reported in multiple notes, or other sections, must be reported in a consistent manner. To the extent that information is not available for the accelerated reports, a reliable, alternative method of estimating amounts and balances must be developed and adequately disclosed.

6.10 Consolidated or Combined Statements (020610)

The Balance Sheet, SNC, and the SCNP principal statements must be prepared as consolidated statements, net of intra-entity transactions. The SBR must be prepared as a combined statement.

6.11 Rounding (020611)

DoD Agency-wide final published financial statements and notes must display dollars rounded to millions with one decimal point. All Component statements must display dollar amounts rounded to the nearest whole thousand on the final published principal statements and in the tables/schedules contained in the notes to the principal statements. Dollar amounts in note narratives must be reported with a maximum of three position integers and a single decimal value followed by an identifier, such as millions or billions (e.g., $324.1 million; not $324,100 thousand). To improve communication among preparers, reviewers, and auditors during the preparation process, and to avoid excessive workload associated with the resolution of rounding errors, all accounting activities must report amounts as dollars and cents on all draft/working versions of the principal statements and note schedules prior to submission by the reporting entity of the final audited financial statements.

6.12 Additional Information (020612)

Reporting entities that choose to present additional financial statements or information must include these in the “Other Information” section (see Chapter 3).

6.13 Organization of the Financial Statements (020613)

The financial statements of the reporting entities will be organized as outlined in Chapter 1, Table 1-1.
6.14 Requirements for Audited Financial Statements (020614)

Reporting entity managers are responsible for the preparation and printing of the final, complete annual audited version of their financial statements. These specific requirements are outlined in DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance.

6.15 Posting the Financial Statements (020615)

DoD’s Agency-wide financial statements and the AFR are posted on the public website of the USD(C). Reporting entity managers must post their individual financial statements on their public website and provide the ODCFO with electronic links to these reports by the due date specified in the financial statement reporting schedule. The files must be prepared in the Portable Document Format (PDF) type. If the reporting entity includes a large number of digital images, then the PDF can be very slow for users to access on the website. In those cases, it is beneficial, and encouraged, to prepare separate files for each section of the financial report. For additional posting guidance, refer to OMB Circular A-136, Section I.5.

6.16 Responsibility for Sections of DoD Agency-wide Financial Statements (020616)

DFAS, the USD (Acquisition and Sustainment) (USD(A&S)), and the USD(C) have responsibility for various sections of DoD Agency-wide financial statements and for providing information to Fiscal Service for inclusion in the FR of the U.S. Government.

* 6.16.1. The USD(C) and DFAS are responsible for preparing the draft/working versions and final version of the Financial section of the AFR that includes the Agency-wide financial statements and notes, the Required Supplementary Information (RSI) section (except for the deferred maintenance and repairs information), and the Other Information section of the DoD Agency-wide financial statements. In addition, DFAS must ensure that the GTAS adjusted trial balances are transmitted to Fiscal Service for inclusion in the FR of the U.S. Government with a notification to the USD(C). Refer to Volume 6A, Chapter 3 for guidance on GTAS reporting.

6.16.2. The USD(A&S) is responsible for compiling the complete Required Supplementary Stewardship Information section and the deferred maintenance and repairs information for the RSI section of DoD’s Agency-wide financial statements. The USD(A&S) must provide this information, electronically, to DFAS for inclusion in the working and final version of DoD Agency-wide financial reports per the due dates in the financial statement reporting schedule.

6.16.3. The USD(C) is responsible for preparing the Agency Head Transmittal Letter required by OMB Circular A-136, Section II.1.1 and the MD&A section of the Agency-wide financial statements, and for submitting the DoD Agency-wide financial statements to OMB and the Congress.

CHAPTER 3

AGENCY FINANCIAL REPORT SECTIONS

*1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter prescribes requirements for Department of Defense (DoD) Tier 1 consolidation entities referenced in Chapter 1, section 4.1 that must prepare and submit an Agency Financial Report (AFR) to the OUSD(C). The AFR must include the Agency Head Transmittal Letter, Management’s Discussion and Analysis (MD&A), Financial Section, and Other Information (OI). OUSD(C) prepares and submits the consolidated, Agency-wide AFR and a separate Annual Performance Report (APR). Subcomponents are not required to prepare an APR. If they decide to prepare an APR, subcomponents are not required to prepare OI, but may choose to do so using the format specified in this chapter.

*2.0 AGENCY HEAD TRANSMITTAL LETTER

An agency is required to include, toward the beginning of the report, a dated transmittal letter signed by the agency head. The date on the letter must match the due date prescribed in the OMB Circular A-136 to publish the AFR. The letter must include a brief message from the agency head containing an assessment of whether financial and performance data in the report are reliable and complete and, if not, describing any material inadequacies in the completeness and reliability of the data. The transmittal letter must also describe material internal control weaknesses and corrective actions the agency is taking to resolve these weaknesses. The transmittal letter may direct the reader to a more detailed section of the AFR instead of including the discussion in the transmittal letter.
3.0 MANAGEMENT’S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

3.1 Purpose

To be useful, the MD&A should be concise, easy to read to a non-technical audience, and use visual references to present summary information. The MD&A should focus on the most important matters and provide a balanced analytical assessment of key program and financial performance. The MD&A should provide management’s view of actual current performance and financial results, as well as expectations about the future. The MD&A should inform the reader, at a high level, of progress toward accomplishing the entity’s mission and associated strategic goals. The discussion should deal with the most important matters that would likely affect the judgments and decisions of people who rely on the AFR as a key source of information. It should address most important matters that could:

3.1.1. Lead to significant actions or proposals by senior management;

3.1.2. Be significant to the managing, budgeting, and oversight functions of Congress and the Administration; or 3.1.3. Significantly affect the judgment of stakeholders about the efficiency and effectiveness of the entity.

3.2 Responsibility

Management is responsible for the content of the MD&A. Its preparation should be a joint effort of the financial management office, program offices, and offices responsible for performance reporting. Management has considerable discretion in preparing and presenting the MD&A, subject to the inclusion of the required content and the requirement that the information in the MD&A is not misleading to the reader. The MD&A provides management with a forum for communicating current and future insights about the entity, that increases the understandability of financial information, and also provides information about the entity, its operations, service levels, successes, and challenges. The preparer must develop and retain adequate documentation supporting the financial, statistical, and other information presented in the MD&A section.

*3.3 Scope

The MD&A should be regarded as “required supplementary information” as that term is used in auditing standards and is an essential part of a complete general purpose federal financial report. The MD&A may include a brief overview or executive summary explaining the MD&A. An overview section gives the reader a useful summary of what is to come. Some agencies include an overview or executive summary in the “Mission and Organizational Structure” section of the MD&A. At a minimum, the MD&A should address the entity’s:

3.3.1. Mission and organizational structure;

3.3.2. Performance goals, objectives, and results;
3.3.3. Analysis of financial statements and stewardship information;

3.3.4. Analysis of systems, controls, and legal compliance;

3.3.5. Forward-looking information; and

3.3.6. Any additional information required by A-136, such as emergency funding.

3.4 Mission and Organizational Structure

The MD&A should contain a brief description of the mission(s) of the entity and describe its related organizational structure, consistent with the entity's strategic plan. The MD&A should:

3.4.1. Name the consolidation entity in a clear manner that leaves no doubt as to whether the consolidation entity is an entire organization or an activity or group of activities within an organization;

3.4.2. Identify the commercial functions (includes buying and leasing of real estate, providing insurance, making loans and loan guarantees, and other credit programs and any activity involving the provision of a service or thing for which a fee, royalty, rent, or other charge is imposed by an agency for services and things of value it provides) and the revolving, trust, and other fund accounts covered by the financial statements;

3.4.3. State the mission and major goals of the consolidation entity, including reference to the entity’s legislative mandate, if appropriate;

3.4.4. Identify the type and provide information on the numbers of individuals and/or groups served by or benefiting from the entity’s major program(s);

3.4.5. Provide indicators of the size of the major program(s) (e.g., dollars expended, population served, and the numbers of military and civilian personnel employed in carrying out the major program(s)); and

3.4.6. Describe the manner in which the consolidation entity is organized to provide the major program(s), including information related to the geographic locations of the organization (e.g., numbers of local, district, state, and regional offices).

3.5 Performance Goals, Objectives, and Results

Pursuant to the Government Performance and Results Act (GPRA) Modernization Act of 2010 (GPRAMA), the APR is the primary document for comprehensive organizational performance reporting. The MD&A presentation should minimize duplicative reporting with the APR. Therefore, the discussion of performance goals, objectives, and results in the MD&A should include only a summary of non-financial performance information to provide context for the financial information presented.
The performance discussion should help the reader assess the relative efficiency and effectiveness of programs. The MD&A should:

3.5.1. Provide a concise assessment of the entity’s overall progress toward major program goals, linking goals to cost categories or responsibility segments in the Statement of Net Cost or related notes, if possible;

3.5.2. Summarize overall (e.g., consolidation entity) performance in the context of historical trends;

3.5.3. Summarize the strategies and resources the entity used to achieve its goals;

3.5.4. Summarize any significant underlying factors that may have affected the reported performance, including factors that are substantially outside the entity’s control, factors over which the entity has significant control, and any anticipated or unanticipated risks;

3.5.5. Summarize plans to improve performance; and

3.5.6. Summarize the procedures management has designed and followed to provide reasonable assurance that reported performance information is relevant and reliable.

*3.6 Analysis of Financial Statements and Stewardship Information

The MD&A should help users understand the entity’s financial position, financial condition, and results of operations conveyed in the principal financial statements. The MD&A should include comparisons of the current year to the prior year and should provide an analysis of the agency's overall financial position, financial condition, and results of operations to assist users in assessing whether the financial position has improved or deteriorated because of the year's activities. This section should also include a discussion of key financial-related measures emphasizing financial trends and assessing financial operations. Factors to consider in identifying major changes include likely public or congressional interest in the change, historical trends in the amount, and the relative size of the change. Additionally, the MD&A should give users the benefit of management’s understanding of the following:

3.6.1. Major changes in types or amounts of assets, liabilities, costs, revenues, obligations, and outlays (explaining the underlying causes of the changes);

3.6.2. Relevance of particular balances and amounts shown in the principal financial statements, particularly if relevant to important financial management issues;

3.6.3. Entity’s stewardship information; and

3.6.4. In addition, the following items may be useful to include in the financial statement analysis:
3.6.4.1. Explanations for variances exceeding ten percent and are material to the agency;

3.6.4.2. Significant issues qualitative in nature and relating to financial management; and

3.6.4.3. Overall financial condition and financial management issues occurring since the previous reporting period that impact the agency’s current financial status.

3.7 Analysis of Systems, Controls, and Legal Compliance

3.7.1. Agencies are required to provide assurances to the status and effectiveness of the internal controls and financial management systems that support the preparation of the financial statements. Management should provide its assurances related to the Federal Managers’ Financial Integrity Act of 1982 (FFMIA) and its compliance determination required by the Federal Financial Management Improvement Act of 1996 (FFMIA) in a separate section entitled “Management Assurances.” The FFMIA assurance statement should:

3.7.1.1. Provide management’s assessment of the effectiveness of the organization’s internal controls to support effective and efficient programmatic operations, reliable financial reporting and compliance with applicable laws and regulations, and whether the financial management systems conform to relevant financial systems requirements;

3.7.1.2. Provide a separate assessment of the effectiveness of the internal controls over financial reporting as a subset of the overall FFMIA assurance statement; and

3.7.1.3. Include a summary of material weaknesses and non-compliance, a summary of assurance, and a summary of corrective actions to resolve the material weaknesses and non-compliance. Illustrative assurance statements and further guidance on corrective action plans can be found in OMB Circular A-123, “Management’s Responsibility for Enterprise Risk Management and Internal Control.”

3.7.2. Management should include its FFMIA compliance assessment in this section. Management is required to provide its assessment of the organization’s financial management systems compliance with the federal financial management systems requirements standards promulgated by FASAB and the United States (U.S.) Standard General Ledger at the transaction level. Financial management systems include both financial and financially-related (or mixed) systems. Further guidance on the financial systems requirement can be found in OMB Circular A-123, Appendix D, “Compliance with the Federal Financial Management Improvement Act of 1996.”

3.7.2.1. Briefly discuss the agency's financial management systems strategy and how it will achieve the goals of improving financial and budget management agency-wide. Include an overview of the agency's current and future financial management systems framework and a synopsis of critical projects currently underway or planned to achieve the target framework, per OMB M-19-16, “Centralized Mission Support Capabilities for the Federal Government;”
3.7.2.2. For areas of FFMIA non-compliance, the agency must identify remediation activities that are planned and underway and include projected dates to achieve compliance.

3.7.3. Management should also review its FMFIA assurance statements and its FFMIA compliance determination for consistency with the findings specified in the annual financial statement audit report(s). The Office of the Inspector General (OIG) or auditor must compare material weaknesses disclosed during the audit with those material weaknesses reported in the agency’s FMFIA report and document any material weaknesses disclosed by audit that were not reported in the agency’s assurance statements. The financial audit responsibilities are established in the “Scope of the Audit” section of OMB Bulletin 24-01, “Audit Requirements for Federal Financial Statements,” which is updated annually. If there is a conflict between this Chapter and the annual update to OMB Bulletin 24-01, auditors must follow guidance in the annual update. The reports may be different, but they should not be in direct conflict. When conflicting discrepancies exist, it is management’s responsibility to ensure that outstanding issues are reported appropriately. For material weaknesses related to an error requiring a restatement, if the agency asserted in its MD&A that it received an unmodified opinion on any previously issued financial statement, management should include a high-level discussion of the events that gave rise to the restatement, which should include the nature of the error.

3.8 Forward-looking Information

Forward-looking information includes information about the possible future effects of the most important existing performance and financial demands, events, conditions, and trends. Management should discuss important known and anticipated problems that need to be addressed and actions that have been planned or taken to address those problems. The actions that are needed, planned, and taken must be discussed within the sections listed in this paragraph or in a separate section of the MD&A.

3.9 Other Management Information, Initiatives, and Issues

Management has the discretion to include a summary in the MD&A of other information, initiatives, and issues it identifies.

3.10 Limitations of the Financial Statements

The MD&A should articulate the limitations of the principal financial statements. This section should state the following:

3.10.1. The principal financial statements are prepared to report the financial position, financial condition, and results of operations of the consolidation entity, pursuant to the requirements of 31 U.S.C. § 3515(b):
3.10.2. The statements are prepared from the books and records of the entity in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles and the formats prescribed by OMB. Reports used to monitor and control budgetary resources are prepared from the same books and records; and

3.10.3. The statements should be read with the realization that they are for a Component of the U.S. Government.

*4.0 FINANCIAL SECTION

The Financial Section of the AFR must contain the Auditor’s Report, Financial Statements and Notes, and Required Supplementary Information. The financial statements are the responsibility of agency management. Although not a requirement, the consolidation entity may include a Chief Financial Officer letter summarizing planned time frames for major barriers to correct audit weaknesses and instances of non-compliance. The section should also discuss the process the entity followed in addressing previously reported audit weaknesses and instances of non-compliance. The guidance for the Financial Statements and Notes is in Chapters 4 through 10.

*5.0 OTHER INFORMATION

The OI section of the AFR follows the Required Supplementary Information section of the statements and should contain the following, when appropriate and applicable:

5.1 Summary of Financial Statement Audit and Management Assurances Executive agencies are required to prepare a Summary of Financial Statement Audit and a Summary of Management Assurances. OMB Circular A-136 requires executive agencies to include these summaries as OI or to explain how and why DoD uses an alternative method for reporting the information. The agency should list each material weakness using a unique, short, and easily understood name. These names should be kept constant, so that a weakness reported in FMFIA sections or by the auditor has the same name. To the extent possible, weakness names should also be kept constant from year to year. Significant deficiencies are not required to be reported. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for additional guidance regarding format and content of the summary report.

5.2 Revenue Foregone

5.3 Tax Burden, Tax Gap, and Tax Expenditures

5.4 Management and Performance Challenges

OMB Circular A-136 states the Performance Accountability Report (PAR) or AFR must include a statement prepared by an executive agency’s OIG summarizing what the OIG considers the most serious management and performance challenges facing an executive agency and briefly assessing the executive agency’s progress in addressing those challenges. This statement must be provided to the executive agency head at least 30 days before the AFR due date. The executive agency head may comment on, but not modify, the OIG statement. The executive agency head may append comments to the OIG’s statement. Additional guidance is available in OMB Circular A-136, OI section.

5.5 Payment Integrity Information Act Reporting

The Act requires agencies to identify and review all programs and activities that may be susceptible to significant improper payments based on guidance from the OMB. Guidance for reporting improper payments is contained in Volume 4, Chapter 14 and OMB Circular A-136.

5.6 Other Agency-specific Statutorily Required Reports

Any reports required by statutes, not addressed in OMB Circular A-136 that pertain to financial or performance management, may be included in the AFR or PAR after consultation with OMB and Congress. The head of the agency must determine if inclusion of an agency-specific report will make the reported information more useful to decision makers. Consultation with Congress includes the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs of the Senate, the Committee on Oversight and Reform of the House of Representatives, and any other committee of Congress having jurisdiction over the report being proposed for consolidation.

5.7 Civil Monetary Penalty Adjustment for Inflation

Under the Federal Civil Penalties Inflation Adjustment Act Improvements Act of 2015, agencies must make annual inflation adjustments to civil monetary penalties and report on the adjustments in their AFR or PAR. Agencies are encouraged to include the illustrative table below and referenced in OMB Circular A-136.

5.8 Biennial Review of User Fees

Under 31 U.S.C. § 902, Chief Financial Officers are required to review on a biennial basis fees, royalties, rents and other charges imposed by the agency for services and things of value it provides and to make recommendations on revising those charges. The results of this review may be included in the AFR or PAR. See OMB Circular A-25, User Charges, for more information.

5.9 Grant Programs

To promote the efficient administration of grants programs, significant consolidation entities with Federal grants programs must submit a brief high-level summary of expired, but not closed, Federal grants and cooperative agreements (awards), including:

5.9.1. A summary table (as shown below) of the total number of awards and balances for which closeout has not yet occurred, but for which the period of performance has elapsed by two years or more prior to September 30, 2022 (i.e., on or before September 30, 2020).

5.9.2. A brief narrative of the progress made over the past year compared to the previous year’s report, challenges preventing closeout of awards reported, and actions to be taken to close awards reported.

5.10 Climate-Related Financial Risk

5.10.1. Significant entities must include hyperlinks to Climate Action Plans, Sustainability Reports and Implementation Plans, and other similar reports with information relevant to climate-related risk or climate-related financial risk that the entity issued during the current fiscal year.

5.10.2. Significant entities are encouraged to report governance, strategy, risk management, and metrics regarding the entity’s assessment and management of any significant climate-related risk. Significant entities are encouraged to report the following information to the extent it is available for the current fiscal year budget authority or outlays that are related to reducing the Federal Government’s exposure to climate-related financial risks:

5.10.2.1. Preparedness for extreme weather events;
5.10.2.2. Efforts to reduce risks from sea level rise, such as investments in modeling, levees, or natural barriers;

5.10.2.3. Flood mitigation, flood communication, and flood mapping activities;

5.10.2.4. Maintenance and repairs to Federal facilities that aim to reduce future risks from climate change;

5.10.2.5. Investments in federally managed land, infrastructure, and waterways that reduce future climate risks;

5.10.2.6. Climate-smart agriculture practices;

5.10.2.7. Response, safety, and preparedness efforts around extreme heat;

5.10.2.8. Expenditures that improve energy efficiency and the capability of future climate related risks;

5.10.2.9. Tools used to assess exposure to future climate risks; and 5.10.2.10. Incentives for nature-based solutions to climate risks.

5.11 Agency Audit Resolution Reports

Entities required to produce reports from the Agency Head under 5 U.S.C., Appendix 3, section 5(b) may include such reports in the AFR as provided by the Reports Consolidation Act (31 U.S.C. § 3516). Such entities are encouraged to do so if the AFR is the usual method for publishing the reports.

In addition, entities that provide a separate report to Congress under 5 U.S.C., Appendix 3, section 5(b) may include a summary of agency audit resolution in the AFR or PAR (either in the MD&A or as Other Information).

CHAPTER 4

BALANCE SHEET

1.0 GENERAL (0401)

1.1 Overview (040101)

The Balance Sheet is a statement of financial position required to be completed by Department of Defense (DoD) reporting entities identified in Chapter 1. It is a principal financial statement that presents comparative fiscal year data (i.e., current and preceding), as of a specific time. Moreover, it reports amounts owned or managed by reporting entities (assets), amounts owed by the entities (liabilities), and amounts which comprise the difference (net position). Notes to the Balance Sheet are required to clarify or provide additional, more detailed information on the individual asset, liability, and net position line items reported on the face of the Balance Sheet.

1.2 Purpose (040102)

This chapter presents the form and content of the DoD Balance Sheet. It identifies general requirements for each asset, liability, and net position line item reported on the Balance Sheet. For detailed accounting policy, see the individual asset and liability chapters published in Volume 4. For detailed information regarding schedules/timelines and/or specific notes, see the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) Financial Reporting Guidance and Chapter 10.

1.3 Authoritative Guidance (040103)

2.0 BALANCE SHEET FORMAT (0402)

2.1 General Information (040201)

The Balance Sheet should present summary information necessary to make the statement most useful to readers. Where substantial detail is required to properly explain specific line items, present the detail in the notes. See OMB Circular A-136 and Chapter 10 for additional instructions regarding the preparation and presentation of notes for each specific line item on the Balance Sheet.
Individual statement crosswalks are prepared using the Treasury USSGL. The crosswalk for each line of the Balance Sheet is incorporated into the Defense Departmental Reporting System (DDRS) Audited Financial Statements (AFS) and can be accessed with proper authorization by selecting “Query” from the main DDRS AFS menu, then selecting option “Referential Data” and option “Report Map.”

2.2 Materiality Amounts (040202)

Separate reporting of items on the Balance Sheet is appropriate if the amounts are material to the Balance Sheet. Material is defined as any item (asset or liability) that represents more than 10 percent of the value of total assets or total liabilities. If an item is determined to be material, DoD reporting entities may report the item separately on the face of the Balance Sheet.

2.3 Final Published Balance Sheet (040203)

The format presented in Figure 4-1 must be used for the final DoD-wide consolidated Balance Sheet. The final DoD-wide consolidated Balance Sheet and notes will display dollars rounded to millions with one decimal point. All DoD reporting entity Balance Sheets and notes must display dollar amounts rounded to the nearest whole thousand. Dollar amounts in note narratives must be reported with a maximum of three position integers and a single decimal value followed by an identifier, such as millions or billions (e.g., $340.1 million). Foreign currency account balances reported on the Balance Sheet must be translated into U.S. dollars at exchange rates determined by Treasury and which are effective at the financial reporting date. Additionally, the Balance Sheet will use pre-closing balances for all amounts. The line numbers shown in Figure 4-1 (e.g., 1.A.1) will not be included on the final published version of the DoD-wide or reporting entity Balance Sheet. The line numbers are for reference purposes only.

3.0 INSTRUCTIONS FOR PREPARATION OF THE BALANCE SHEET (0403)

3.1 General Instructions for the Assets Section (040301)

3.1.1. Assets. Assets are defined in accordance with SFFAS 1, “Accounting for Selected Assets and Liabilities.” The Balance Sheet must include both entity assets and nonentity assets. (Note: Clearing and suspense accounts are entity assets).

3.1.2. Disclosure of Entity and Nonentity Assets. The Balance Sheet combines entity and nonentity assets. For example, entity intragovernmental accounts receivable and nonentity intragovernmental accounts receivable are combined and reported as a single intragovernmental accounts receivable line item on the Balance Sheet. However, DoD reporting entities must separately disclose nonentity assets in notes to the financial statements.

3.1.3. Intragovernmental Assets. Intragovernmental assets arise from transactions within or between federal entities and represent claims by a DoD reporting entity against other federal entities. DoD reporting entities must report intragovernmental assets separately from nonfederal assets on the Balance Sheet. Nonfederal includes domestic and foreign persons and organizations outside the U.S. Federal Government. DoD reporting entities must classify Foreign Military Sales

3.2 Line Item Instructions for the Assets Section (040302)

3.2.1 Intragovernmental Assets.

3.2.1.1 Fund Balance with Treasury (FBWT), Line 1.A.1. FBWT is the aggregate amount of funds (i.e., entity and nonentity) in a DoD reporting entity's accounts with Treasury for which the reporting entity is authorized to make expenditures and pay liabilities. FBWT is an asset account because it represents an entity’s claim to the U.S. Federal Government’s resources. Fiduciary assets are not recognized on the Balance Sheet but must be separately disclosed in accordance with the provisions of SFFAS 31, “Accounting for Fiduciary Activities.” It does not include any amounts for which Treasury is willing to accept corrections to canceled appropriation accounts, in accordance with SFFAS 1. The amount reported must include extended obligation authority for obligations incurred in closing and closed accounts. For a detailed definition and accounting policy regarding FBWT, see Volume 4, Chapter 2.

3.2.1.2 Investments, Line 1.A.2. Intragovernmental investments are federal securities. Federal securities include nonmarketable par value Treasury securities, market-based Treasury securities expected to be held to maturity, marketable Treasury securities expected to be held to maturity, and securities issued by other federal entities. DoD reporting entities must report their investments on the Balance Sheet at their acquisition cost, adjusted for amortization of a premium or discount, if appropriate.

3.2.1.3 Accounts Receivable, Line 1.A.3. Intragovernmental accounts receivable are DoD claims to cash or other assets due from other federal entities. Receivables related to direct or guaranteed loans are not included on this line. No allowance for estimated uncollectible amounts is recognized for intragovernmental receivables because they are considered collectible. For accounts receivable elimination requirements, see Chapter 13.

3.2.1.4 Other Assets, Line 1.A.4. Intragovernmental other assets are assets not reported in a separate category under the Intragovernmental Assets section of the Balance Sheet. This line reports other intragovernmental advances and prepayments, including advance payments, and other intragovernmental assets that are immaterial to an entity and do not warrant separate reporting. For other assets elimination requirements, see Chapter 13.

3.2.1.5 Total Intragovernmental Assets, Line 1.A.5. This line is the sum of Lines 1.A.1 through 1.A.4.

3.2.2 Cash and Other Monetary Assets, Line 1.B. This line reports entity and nonentity cash and other monetary assets. The amount of cash and other monetary assets that the DoD reporting entity holds and is authorized to spend is entity cash. The assets under this category that are collected and held on behalf of the U.S. Federal Government or other entities are nonentity cash and other monetary assets; report both on this line. This line also includes DoD disbursements officers’ cash from the Standard Form (SF) 1219, “Statement of Accountability,” and the total U.S. dollar equivalent of foreign currencies held in special program foreign currency fund accounts. Cash consists of:

3.2.2.1. Coins, paper currency, and readily negotiable instruments, such as money orders, checks, and bank drafts on hand or in transit for deposit;

3.2.2.2. Amounts on demand deposit with banks or other financial institutions, including nonconfirmed collections and disbursements;

3.2.2.3. Cash held by a Disbursing Office;

3.2.2.4. Cash held in imprest funds;

3.2.2.5. Seized cash;

3.2.2.6. Foreign currencies translated for accounting purposes into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate on the financial statement date; and

3.2.2.7. Investments held outside of Treasury.

3.2.3. Accounts Receivable, Net, Line 1.C. This line reports DoD claims to cash or other assets due from nonfederal entities, net of an allowance for estimated doubtful amounts. It also includes interest receivable, fines, penalties, and administrative fees from nonfederal entities and supported undistributed collections. However, DoD reporting entities must report interest receivable related to direct loans and acquired defaulted guaranteed loans as a component of loans receivable on Line 1.D.

3.2.4. Loans Receivable, Net, Line 1.D. This line reports the net value of direct loans receivable (i.e., prior to 1992 and post-1991) and acquired defaulted guaranteed loans receivable. The net value of credit program receivables and related foreclosed property are considered entity assets if the entity has the authority to determine the use of the funds collected or is legally obligated to use the funds to meet entity obligations (e.g., loans payable to the Treasury). If a DoD reporting entity administers a loan guarantee program and forecloses on property, then refer to SFFAS 2, “Accounting for Direct Loans and Loan Guarantees,” for detailed requirements. When a loan guarantee program (generating a negative subsidy) guarantees a loan and the lender has not disbursed the loan as of the Balance Sheet date, a proprietary receivable from borrowings should not be reported. The undelivered order recorded to obligate the funds is sufficient disclosure when reported as part of the total undelivered orders.
3.2.5. Inventory and Related Property, Line 1.E. This line includes inventory, operating materials and supplies (OM&S), and stockpile materiel. For accounting policy regarding inventory, see SFFAS 48, “Opening Balances for Inventory, Operating Materials and Supplies, and Stockpile Materials;” SFFAS 3, “Accounting for Inventory and Related Property;” Volume 4, Chapter 4; and applicable Policy Memoranda. The following categories make up this line:

3.2.5.1. Inventory. Inventory is tangible personal property that is:

3.2.5.1.1. Held for sale, including raw materials and work in process;

3.2.5.1.2. Held for repair;

3.2.5.1.3. In the process of production for sale;

3.2.5.1.4. To be consumed in the production of goods for sale or in the provision of services for a fee; and

3.2.5.1.5. To be transferred to entities within or outside of the U.S. Federal Government.

3.2.5.2. OM&S. OM&S are tangible personal property to be consumed in normal operations. OM&S consist of secondary supply items and munition items that a logistics activity holds in stock pending issue, without reimbursement, to the unit or organization that will consume the item in normal operations. This may include OM&S held for repair and OM&S in development.

3.2.5.3. Stockpile Materiel. Stockpile materiel is strategic and critical materiel held due to statutory requirements for use in national defense, conservation, or national emergencies as required by the Strategic and Critical Materials Stock Piling Act. Specifically, this line reports only materiel applicable to and reported by the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA). The DLA National Defense Stockpile Center manages DoD stockpile materiel and only the DLA National Defense Stockpile Transaction Fund is authorized to use this inventory category and associated accounts.

3.2.6. General Property, Plant and Equipment (PP&E), Net, Line 1.F. This line reports all PP&E (net of accumulated depreciation) as defined in SFFAS 6, “Accounting for Property, Plant and Equipment;” Volume 4; and applicable Policy Memoranda related to Volume 4. DoD reporting agencies must recognize permanent impairments of General PP&E that will remain in use by the entity, in accordance with SFFAS 44, “Accounting for Impairment of General Property, Plant and Equipment Remaining in Use.” Please refer to SFFAS 50, “Establishing Opening Balances for General Property, Plant, and Equipment: Amending SFFAS 6, SFFAS 10, and SFFAS 23, and Rescinding SFFAS 35,” for additional guidance. Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 26 for a more detailed description of impairment. The rules regarding recognition of impairment apply to all capitalized assets. In addition, although the value of stewardship assets does not appear on the Balance Sheet, it is disclosed in the notes to the financial statements. General PP&E, Net, includes:
3.2.6.1. Capitalized PP&E. Capitalized PP&E includes general and personal property and any related modifications, modernizations, upgrades, and improvements whose values or costs meet or exceed the capitalization thresholds established by the Department. For additional policy regarding capitalization, see Volume 4 and applicable Policy Memoranda related to Volume 4.

3.2.6.2. Real Property. Real property includes buildings, structures, linear structures, facilities, installed building equipment (e.g., control systems, heating, cooling, electrical, and emergency lighting), and related capital improvements. DoD reporting entities must record the value of Base Realignment and Closure real property (once the mission of that installation terminates or transfers) in USSGL account 189000, “Other General Property, Plant, and Equipment.”

3.2.6.3. Assets Acquired through Capital Leases, including Leasehold Improvements. Capital leases are leases that transfer substantially all the benefits and risks of ownership to the lessee. For additional policy regarding capital leases, see SFFAS 6 and Volume 4, Chapter 26. DoD reporting entities must separately disclose capital leases in the footnotes.

3.2.6.4. Internal Use Software. DoD reporting entities must capitalize, as a General PP&E asset, the cost of software, whether commercial off-the-shelf, internally developed, or contractor-developed, that meets the DoD capitalization criteria for General PP&E. For further policy on internal use software, see SFFAS 10, “Accounting for Internal Use Software;” Federal Financial Accounting and Auditing Technical Release 16; and Volume 4, Chapter 27.

3.2.6.5. Depreciation/Amortization. Depreciation/amortization is the expense associated with the use of General PP&E. It is a contra-asset account that reduces the amount reported for General PP&E. DoD reporting entities must recognize depreciation/amortization on all General PP&E, except land and land rights of unlimited duration. For additional policy regarding depreciation/amortization, see Volume 4 and applicable Policy Memoranda related to Volume 4.

3.2.6.6. Construction-in-Progress (CIP). CIP is a temporary asset account in which DoD reporting entities must record the costs of constructing real property and general equipment. CIP accounts include all costs incurred to bring the asset to a form and condition suitable for its intended use. Capital expenditures or Contract Financing Payments (CFPs), coinciding with the portion of the work completed for real property and/or general equipment, must be recorded in a CIP account. For additional policy regarding CIP and/or CFPs, see Volume 4 and applicable Policy Memoranda related to Volume 4.

3.2.6.7. Land. General PP&E includes land and land rights acquired for or in connection with other General PP&E. Acquired for or in connection with other General PP&E is defined as land acquired with the intent to construct General PP&E and land acquired in combination with General PP&E, including not only land used as the foundation, but also adjacent land considered to be the General PP&E’s common grounds. DoD reporting entities that have not yet undergone a financial statement audit where they received an unmodified audit opinion must exclude (or adjust their land and land rights opening balances to zero) the value of land and land rights from opening balances of General PP&E on their balance sheets in accordance with SFFAS 6, as amended by SFFAS 50. Moreover, these entities must continue to exclude and expense future land and land rights acquisitions. Conversely, DoD reporting entities that have received an unmodified audit opinion will continue to account for land and land rights in accordance with SFFAS 6. All DoD reporting entities must disclose, in the notes to the financial statements, with a reference on the balance sheet, the number of acres of General PP&E land and land rights held. DoD reporting entities must report this acreage amount separately from Stewardship Land. There are no disclosure requirements for General PP&E land rights not measured in acres in establishing opening balances.

3.2.6.8. Government Furnished Equipment (GFE) and Contractor Acquired Property (CAP). GFE is property in the possession of, or directly acquired by, the Government and subsequently furnished to the contractor for performance of a contract. CAP means property acquired, fabricated, or otherwise provided by the contractor for performing a contract and to which the Government has title. DoD reporting entities must use the most reliable source of information available as a means to report the value of GFE and CAP. For additional policy regarding GFE and CAP, see Volume 4 and applicable Policy Memoranda related to Volume 4.

3.2.6.9. Working Capital Fund (WCF) PP&E. DoD WCF reporting entities operate as business-type activities. DoD WCF reporting entities must categorize all PP&E used in the performance of their missions as General PP&E, whether or not it meets the definition of other PP&E categories in SFFAS 6.

3.2.6.10. Multi-use Heritage Assets. Heritage assets predominantly used in general government operations (e.g., buildings such as the Pentagon, which is used as an office building) are classified as multi-use heritage assets. As required by SFFAS 29, “Heritage Assets and Stewardship Land,” DoD reporting entities must capitalize as General PP&E and depreciate the cost of acquiring, improving, and reconstructing all multi-use heritage assets. Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 28 for more detailed information on Multi-use Heritage Assets.

3.2.7. Investments, Line 1.G. This line reports investments in nonfederal securities. DoD reporting entities must report investments in nonfederal securities separately from investments in federal securities. Nonfederal securities include those issued by state and local governments, government-sponsored enterprises, and other private corporations. Report nonfederal securities at acquisition cost or amortized acquisition cost (less an allowance for loss due to changes in market value, if any). This line represents other DoD investments as allowed by public law. Specifically, Public Law 104-106, Section 2801 authorizes DoD to enter into limited partnerships in support of the Military Housing Privatization Initiative.

3.2.8. Other Assets, Line 1.H. Other assets are nonfederal assets that are not reported in a separate category on the Balance Sheet.

3.2.8.1. Other assets reports the values of all advances and prepayments made to nonfederal entities, and includes travel advances and those assets that are immaterial to the entity and do not warrant separate reporting.
3.2.8.2. This line does not include invoice payments, to include payments for partial deliveries or lease and rental payments. In addition, CFPs are not Other Assets. DoD reporting entities must record CFPs in a CIP account and report them on the General PP&E line of the Balance Sheet.

3.2.9. Total Assets, Line 2. This line is the sum of Line 1.A.5. and Lines 1.B. through 1.H.

3.2.10. Stewardship PP&E, Line 3. Stewardship PP&E consists of assets whose physical properties resemble those of General PP&E. However, due to their unique nature, stewardship assets are not capitalized and carry no book value. DoD reporting entities must demonstrate accountability over these assets by reporting on their existence and condition. SFFAS 29 reclassified heritage assets and stewardship land information as basic information, with the exception of condition reporting, which is considered Required Supplemental Information. Specifically, it requires reporting entities to reference a note on the face of the Balance Sheet that discloses information about heritage assets and stewardship land, but report no asset dollar amount. Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 28 for more detailed information on Heritage Assets and Stewardship Land. Stewardship PP&E includes:

- 3.2.10.1. Heritage Assets. Heritage assets are PP&E that are unique for one or more of the following reasons: (1) historical or natural significance; (2) cultural, educational, or artistic importance; or (3) significant architectural characteristics. Heritage assets consist of collection type heritage assets (i.e., objects gathered and maintained for exhibition) and non-collection type heritage assets (i.e., parks, memorials, monuments, and buildings). These assets are preserved indefinitely.

- 3.2.10.2. Stewardship Land. Stewardship land is land and land rights owned by the Government, but not acquired for or in connection with items of General PP&E. Examples of stewardship land include land used as forests and parks or land used for wildlife and grazing.

*3.3 General Instructions for the Liabilities Section (040303)

3.3.1. Liability. A liability is a probable future outflow or other sacrifice of resources resulting from past transactions or events. Financial statements must recognize probable and measurable future outflows or other sacrifices of resources arising from:

- 3.3.1.1. Past exchange transactions;

- 3.3.1.2. Government-related events;

- 3.3.1.3. Government-acknowledged events; and

- 3.3.1.4. Nonexchange transactions that are unpaid amounts due as of the reporting date.
3.3.2. Liability Recognition.

3.3.2.1. SFFAS 5, “Accounting for Liabilities of The Federal Government,” describes the general principles governing the recognition of a liability. The concept of a liability includes not only those liabilities that routinely recur in normal operations and are due within a fiscal year (e.g., accounts payable, as outlined in SFFAS 1), but also contingent liabilities resulting from an existing condition that involve uncertainty as to possible loss.

3.3.2.2. DoD reporting entities must recognize liabilities resulting from normal operations when they are incurred, regardless of whether they are covered by available budgetary resources. This requirement includes liabilities related to appropriations canceled under “M” account legislation included in Title 31, United States Code, section 1552, “Procedure for Appropriation Accounts Available for Definite Periods.”

* 3.3.3. Liabilities Covered, Not Covered by, and Not Requiring Budgetary Resources. Liabilities covered by budgetary resources, liabilities not covered by budgetary resources, and liabilities not requiring budgetary resources are combined on the Balance Sheet. For example, intragovernmental accounts payable covered by budgetary resources and intragovernmental accounts payable not covered by budgetary resources are combined and reported as a single intragovernmental accounts payable line item on the Balance Sheet.

3.3.3.1. Liabilities Covered by Budgetary Resources

3.3.3.1.1. Liabilities Covered by Budgetary Resources are liabilities incurred which are covered by realized budgetary resources as of the Balance Sheet date. Budgetary resources encompass not only new budget authority, but also other resources available to cover liabilities for specified purposes in a given year. OMB Circular A-11 identifies amounts included as available budgetary resources.

3.3.3.1.2. Liabilities are considered covered by budgetary resources when they are funded by permanent indefinite appropriations, which have been enacted and signed into law and are available for use as of the Balance Sheet date. The resources must be apportioned by OMB without further action by the Congress and without a contingency having to be met first. Custodial liabilities are covered by the assets that are collected and held for eventual transfer to other entities.

3.3.3.2. Liabilities Not Covered by Budgetary Resources. This category is for liabilities not covered by budgetary resources as provided in subparagraph 040303.C.1.b, and that will require budgetary resources.

3.3.3.3. Liabilities Not Requiring Budgetary Resources. This category is for liabilities that have not in the past required and will not in the future require the use of budgetary resources.
3.3.4. Current Liability. A current liability is an amount that is due to be paid within 12 months of the Balance Sheet date. Current liabilities must be disclosed separately from noncurrent liabilities in the notes to the financial statements.

3.3.5. Noncurrent Liability. A noncurrent liability is an amount that is due to be paid beyond 12 months of the Balance Sheet date and will be disclosed separately from current liabilities in the notes to the financial statements.

3.3.6. Contingent Liability. A contingent liability is a potential liability that may occur, depending on the outcome of an uncertain future event. Record a contingent liability if the contingency is probable and the amount of the liability can be reasonably estimated.

3.3.7. Intragovernmental Liabilities. Intragovernmental liabilities arise from transactions within or between federal entities. Intragovernmental liabilities are claims against a DoD reporting entity by other federal entities. DoD reporting entities must report intragovernmental liabilities separately from nonfederal liabilities, including government-sponsored enterprises and the Federal Reserve System, on the Balance Sheet. Classify liabilities with the Foreign Military Sales Trust Fund as intragovernmental.

3.3.8. Interest Payable. Interest payable is a current liability used to report the amount of interest incurred, but not paid by DoD reporting entities as of the date of the Balance Sheet. DoD reporting entities must report interest payable as a component of the appropriate liability accounts. Interest payable to federal entities is an intragovernmental liability and must be accounted for separately from interest payable to nonfederal entities (or the public).

3.4 Line Item Instructions for the Liabilities Section (040304)

This paragraph includes those liabilities incurred as of the reporting date.

3.4.1. Intragovernmental Liabilities

3.4.1.1. Accounts Payable, Line 4.A.1. Intragovernmental accounts payable are amounts owed by a DoD reporting entity for goods and services received from other federal entities. They include payables for progress made in contract performance by other federal entities and rents due to other federal entities. DoD reporting entities must adjust accounts payable for undistributed disbursements. For intragovernmental accounts payable elimination requirements, see Chapter 13.

3.4.1.2. Debt, Line 4.A.2. This line reports the amounts of borrowings from the Treasury, the Federal Financing Bank, or other federal agencies under general or specific financing authority (e.g., Treasury bills, notes, bonds, and Federal Housing Administration debentures). DoD reporting entities must classify all debt not covered by budgetary resources, except for direct loan and guaranteed loan financing account debt to Treasury, and that portion of other debt covered by budgetary resources, at the Balance Sheet date.
3.4.1.3. Other Liabilities, Line 4.A.3. Intragovernmental other liabilities are liabilities not reported in a separate category under the Intragovernmental liabilities section of the Balance Sheet. This line reports the total amount due to federal entities for liabilities owed by DoD reporting entities that are not included on lines 4.A.1 and 4.A.2. This amount includes, but is not limited to, deferred credits, advances and prepayments received from other federal entities for goods to be delivered or services to be performed, deposit fund amounts held in escrow, amounts collected from payroll and remitted to the Office of Personnel Management, and capital leases. This line also includes pecuniary liability to the Treasury for DoD disbursing officer's cash reported on SF 1219.

3.4.1.4. Total Intragovernmental Liabilities, Line 4.A.4. This is the sum of Lines 4.A.1 through 4.A.3.

3.4.2. Accounts Payable, Line 4.B. Accounts payable are amounts owed by a DoD reporting entity for goods and services received from nonfederal entities. They include payables for progress made in contract performance by nonfederal entities and rents due to nonfederal entities. DoD reporting entities must report interest payable as a component of the accounts payable on this line. Accrued interest payable is also included in this line as detailed by the Prompt Payment Act. DoD reporting entities must adjust accounts payable for undistributed disbursements.

3.4.3. Military Retirement and Other Federal Employment Benefits, Line 4.C. This line is applicable to and reports military retirement pension benefits, retired military health benefits, and other employment related actuarial liabilities for civilian and military personnel. DoD reporting entities responsible for the administration of pensions and other retirement benefits, including health benefits for retirees and other postemployment benefits, must calculate and report these liabilities and related expenses in accordance with SFFAS 5 and SFFAS 33, “Pensions, Other Retirement Benefits, and Other Postemployment Benefits: Reporting the Gains and Losses from Changes in Assumptions and Selecting Discount Rates and Valuation Dates.” Liabilities for federal employee and veterans’ benefits include the actuarial portion of these benefits. They do not include liabilities related to ongoing continuous expenses (e.g., employee accrued salary and accrued annual leave), which are reported on the Other Liabilities line.

3.4.4. Environmental and Disposal Liabilities, Line 4.D. Environmental and disposal liabilities include the costs to remove, contain, and dispose of hazardous waste from General PP&E, as well as the costs to remove, contain, and dispose of materiel and property that is deemed to be hazardous waste at a permanent or temporary closure or shutdown of associated General PP&E. SFFAS 5 provides criteria for recognizing a contingent liability and DoD reporting entities must apply such criteria to determine when cleanup costs are recognized as liabilities and disclosed in the notes. SFFAS 6 supplements the liability standard by providing policy for recording cleanup costs related to General PP&E and Stewardship PP&E used in federal operations. For accounting policy regarding Environmental and Disposal Activities, see Volume 4, Chapter 13.
3.4.5. Loan Guarantee Liability, Line 4.E. This line reports the present value of the estimated net cash flows to be paid as a result of loan guarantees after 1991. For loan guarantees prior to 1992, the amount of known and estimated losses to be payable must be included. When the total loan guarantee liability for all credit programs of a DoD reporting entity is negative, the entity must report the loan as an asset. If a loan guarantee liability is the result of both positive and negative amounts for the various components, then the total must be shown as a liability and negative components disclosed.

3.4.6. Other Liabilities, Line 4.F

3.4.6.1. Included Amounts. This line reports the total amount due to nonfederal entities for other liabilities owed by DoD reporting entities that are not included on lines 4.A through 4.E. This amount includes, but is not limited to, liabilities related to deferred credits from nonfederal entities, accrued liabilities related to ongoing continuous expenses, such as federal employee salaries, accrued employee annual leave, capital leases, advances and prepayments received from other nonfederal entities for goods to be delivered or services to be performed, deposit fund amounts held in escrow, and estimated contingent liabilities. In addition, report cleanup costs as other liabilities if they are not material to the Balance Sheet. Cleanup costs that exceed the materiality threshold are reported separately as environmental and disposal liabilities.

3.4.6.2. Accrued Entitlement Benefits. Accrued entitlement benefits include:

3.4.6.2.1. Salaries and wages which represent the estimated liability for salaries and wages of civilian personnel that have been earned, but are unpaid; and the estimated military personnel funded compensation earned, but unpaid, as of the end of the current accounting month; and

3.4.6.2.2. Both funded and unfunded accrued annual leave, which represent the accrued leave for civilians and military personnel earned and expected to be paid in the future.

3.4.6.3. Commitments and Contingencies. A loss contingency is an existing condition, situation, or set of circumstances involving uncertainty as to possible loss to an entity. The uncertainty should ultimately be resolved when one or more future events occur or fail to occur.

3.4.6.3.1. DoD reporting entities must recognize a contingent liability when a past event or exchange transaction has occurred; a future outflow or other sacrifice of resources is probable; and the future outflow or sacrifice of resources is measurable. Contingencies that do not meet any of the conditions for liability recognition, and for which there is at least a reasonable possibility that a loss or an additional loss may have been incurred, must be disclosed in a separate note. For additional policy regarding contingent liabilities, see SFFAS 5, as amended by SFFAS 12, “Recognition of Contingent Liabilities Arising from Litigation: An Amendment of SFFAS 5, Accounting for Liabilities of the Federal Government;” Volume 4, Chapter 12; and applicable Policy Memoranda related to this chapter.
3.4.6.3.2. DoD reporting entities must also disclose the following commitments:

3.4.6.3.2.1. An estimate of obligations related to canceled appropriations for which the reporting entity has a contractual commitment for payment; and

3.4.6.3.2.2. Amounts for contractual arrangements that may require future financial obligations.

3.4.6.3.3. DoD reporting entities must recognize a contingent liability for pending or threatened litigation and unasserted claims when the future outflow or other sacrifice of resources is measurable and "likely to occur" as detailed by SFFAS 12.

3.4.6.3.4. DoD reporting entities must recognize a contingent liability for contingencies not related to pending or threatened litigation when the future outflow or other sacrifice of resources is measurable and "more likely than not to occur" as detailed in SFFAS 12.

If a contingency exists for clean-up costs related to Stewardship PP&E, DoD reporting entities must recognize a contingent liability when the Stewardship PP&E is placed in service. DoD reporting entities must report such liability on Line 4.D. Please refer to OMB Circular A-136, Section II.3.3.4 for additional information.

3.4.6.4. Lease Liabilities. DoD reporting entities must report the liability for nonfederal capital leases, including those capital leases entered into during Fiscal Year 1992 and thereafter, and required to be fully funded in the first year of the lease.

3.4.7. Total Liabilities, Line 5. This line is the sum of Line 4.A.4 and Lines 4.B. through 4.F.

3.4.8. Commitments and Contingencies, Line 6. DoD reporting entities must disclose on Line 6 and in the notes, any contingencies that do not meet any of the conditions for liability recognition and for which there is at least a reasonable possibility that a loss or an additional loss may have been incurred.

3.5 General Instructions for the Net Position Section (040305)

Net Position is comprised of unexpended appropriations and cumulative results of operations, including those attributable to funds from dedicated collections. Funds from dedicated collections are financed by specifically identified revenues, provided to the government by non-federal sources, often supplemented by other financing sources, which remain available over time. These specifically identified revenues and other financing sources are required by statute to be used for designated activities, benefits, or purposes, and must be accounted for separately from the Government’s general revenues. SFFAS 27, “Identifying and Reporting Funds from Dedicated Collections,” as amended by SFFAS 43, “Funds from Dedicated Collections: Amending Statement of Federal Financial Standards 27, Identifying and Reporting Earmarked Funds,” requires disclosure of all funds from dedicated collections for which the reporting entity has program management responsibility. A crosswalk from the consolidated to combined net position amounts is included in the notes as a disclosure to the Balance Sheet.

3.6 Line Item Instructions for the Net Position Section (040306)

3.6.1. Unexpended Appropriations, Dedicated Collections, Line 7.A. This amount includes the portion of the entity’s appropriations represented by undelivered orders and unobligated balances related to funds from dedicated collections. DoD reporting entities must report unexpended appropriations attributable to funds from dedicated collections separately on the Balance Sheet. The prior period columns of the basic financial statements and related disclosures must not be restated in the year funds from dedicated collections are initially reported by an entity.

3.6.2. Unexpended Appropriations, Other Funds, Line 7.B. This amount includes the portion of the entity’s appropriations represented by undelivered orders and unobligated balances that do not relate to funds from dedicated collections. The amount of unexpended appropriations (including the amount of dedicated collections) reported on the Balance Sheet must equal the amount of unexpended appropriations reported on the Statement of Changes in Net Position (SCNP).

3.6.3. Cumulative Results of Operations, Dedicated Collections, Line 7.C. This line reports the net results of operations since inception, plus the cumulative amount of prior period adjustments related to funds from dedicated collections. DoD reporting entities must report the cumulative results of operations attributable to funds from dedicated collections separately on the Balance Sheet and in accordance with SFFAS 27, as amended by SFFAS 43. The prior period columns of the basic financial statements and related disclosures must not be restated in the year funds from dedicated collections are initially reported by an entity.

3.6.4. Cumulative Results of Operations, Other Funds, Line 7.D. This line reports the net results of operations since inception plus the cumulative amount of prior period adjustments that do not relate to funds from dedicated collections. This includes the cumulative amount of donations and transfers of assets in and out without reimbursement. The amount of cumulative results of operations (including the amount of dedicated collections) reported on the Balance Sheet must equal the amount of cumulative results of operations reported on the SCNP.

3.6.5. Total Net Position, Line 8. This line is the sum of Lines 7.A. through 7.D.

3.6.6. Total Liabilities and Net Position, Line 9. This line is the sum of Lines 5 and 8.

CHAPTER 5

STATEMENT OF NET COST

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Overview

The Statement of Net Cost (SNC) is designed to show separately the components of the net cost of the consolidating entity's operations for the reporting period. The net cost of operations is the gross cost incurred by the entity less any exchange revenue earned from its activities.

1.2 Purpose

This chapter prescribes the policy for preparing the DoD SNC. Additionally, this chapter provides standard formats for the published and working versions of the SNC.

1.3 Authoritative Guidance

*2.0 SNC PRESENTATION

According to OMB A-136, the SNC should present the net cost of operations by major programs. The federal entity should define the major program and the entity should group together the programs that are not deemed “major”.

2.1 Major Programs.

2.1.1 The DoD SNC presents major programs based on:

2.1.1.1. Metrics and outcomes described in the entity’s strategic and performance plans, as required by the Government Performance and Results Act of 1993 (G PRA), as amended by the GPRA Modernization Act of 2010 (GPRAMA);

2.1.1.2. Entity’s budget structure;

2.1.1.3. Guidance for defining and structuring responsibility segments presented in SFFAS 4; and

2.1.1.4. Requirements of the GPRAMA.
2.1.2. When data is available at the program element level, consolidating entities may provide information as a supplemental schedule in the note to the SNC or in “Other Information.” The SNC and related supporting schedules must show the net cost of operations for the entity as a whole and its sub-entities and program elements, as applicable. In the consolidated SNC, DoD identifies Components by the entities described in Chapter 1. The Components may further break out the consolidated SNC and provide any additional supporting schedules in the notes to the financial statements.

*2.2 Components of SNC

2.2.1. Net Program Costs. Net program costs are the gross program costs incurred by the consolidating entity, plus losses (gains) from actuarial assumption changes for military retirement or other postemployment benefits, less any exchange program revenue earned from its activities. This amount represents the net cost of a sub-organization or entity funded by sources other than exchange revenues. The gross cost of a program consists of the full cost of the outputs produced by that program, as defined by SFFAS 4, “Managerial Cost Accounting Standards and Concepts,” plus any nonproduction costs that are assignable to the program. Nonproduction costs are costs linked to events other than the production of goods and services. Refer to Chapter 10 for disclosure requirements in the notes to the financial statements.

2.2.2. Imputed Costs. SFFAS 4 requires consolidating entities to measure and report the full costs of their outputs (products and services) in financial reports. Imputed costs and financing sources included in the SNC must be identifiable to a specific trading partner. The entity providing the goods or services has the responsibility to provide the receiving entity with information on the full cost of such goods or services through either billing or other advice. SFFAS 4 identifies inter-entity costs that are not fully reimbursed. See SFFAS 4 for additional information.

2.2.2.1. Inter-Entity Imputed Costs. Inter-entity imputed costs represent costs that are paid in total or in part by entities external to DoD. Costs displayed on the SNC include certain imputed costs as directed by OMB. All federal agencies are required to report imputed costs for the gross program cost categories described in OMB Circular A-136 to ensure consistency in reporting across the Government. SFFAS 55, “Amending Inter-entity Cost Provisions,” requires the recognition of significant inter-entity costs by business-type activities. Additional guidance on inter-entity costs is available in Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board Technical Release 19, “Rescission of Technical Release 8.” Disclose intragovernmental full costs and earned revenues, and public costs and earned revenues, in the notes to the financial statements.

2.2.2.2. Intra-Entity Imputed Costs. Intra-entity imputed costs represent costs that are paid in total or in part by other entities within DoD. Costs displayed on the SNC include intra-entity imputed costs as required by SFFAS 4. Imputed intra-entity cost is the unreimbursed portion of the full costs of goods and services received by the entity from a providing entity that is part of the same entity or larger entity (i.e. other bureaus, components, or responsibility segments within the entity or larger entity). An example of an intra-entity imputed cost would be a DoD tenant receiving rent-free business space from another DoD entity. Volume 4, Chapter 19 provides additional detail on intra-entity costs. DoD consolidating entities should report the following intra-entity imputed costs:
2.2.2.2.1. Imputed Costs for Military Pension Expense. DoD consolidating entities will recognize an imputed cost that is equal to the reported employer entity pension expense for the accounting period, as computed using factors provided by the OUSD (Personnel and Readiness) (P&R), less any accounting period contributions by the Military Departments to the Military Retirement Fund. Report administrative entity expenses only in the Military Retirement Fund audited financial statements.

2.2.2.2.2. Imputed Costs for Military Health Benefits. DoD consolidating entities will recognize imputed costs equal to the employer entity expense for the military health benefits that is attributable to the Military Department (as computed using factors provided by the OUSD(P&R)) for the accounting period. The administrative entity for the military health benefits is the OUSD(P&R). DoD consolidating entities should report the administrative entity’s actual expenses only in the Medicare-Eligible Retiree Health Care Fund, Defense Health Agency, and Other Defense Organizations-General Funds financial statements.

2.2.2.2.3. DoD management, in accordance with the full cost provision of SFFAS 4, determines how intragovernmental costs incurred within DoD will be assigned, allocated, or imputed for purposes of accounting for the full cost of a program and its output(s). As a result, recognition of intra-entity imputed costs is not limited to specific cost categories as in the case of inter-entity imputed costs.

2.2.3. Gains or Losses. SFFAS 33, “Pensions, Other Retirement Benefits, and Other Postemployment Benefits: Reporting the Gains and Losses from Changes in Assumptions and Selecting Discount Rates and Valuation Dates,” requires entities reporting gains and losses associated with changes in long-term assumptions for civilian and military employee pensions, other retirement benefits, other postemployment benefits, including veterans’ compensation as a separate line item on the SNC.

3.0 Line Item

The Department of the Treasury provides a United States Standard General Ledger crosswalk detailing the accounts and attributes included in each line item of the SNC. DFAS ensures the Defense Departmental Reporting System (DDRS), Audited Financial Statements is updated with all crosswalk changes made by the Department of the Treasury.

3.1 Program Costs.

This line includes the full costs of each program’s outcome. It consists of both direct and indirect costs of the output and the costs of identifiable supporting services provided by other segments within the entity and by other consolidating entities. To the extent accounting systems and defined DoD business rules allow, the consolidating entity will accumulate and assign costs using the costing methodology stated in SFFAS 4. Program costs also include any nonproduction costs that can be assigned to the program but not to its outputs. Report costs related to the production of outputs separately from nonproduction costs that cannot be traced to the production of outputs. The costs of program outputs include costs of services provided by other entities even if the costs are fully reimbursed.
3.1.1. Recognize the cost of Stewardship Property, Plant, and Equipment as a cost in the SNC in the period it is incurred, report separately from other nonproduction costs, and disclose in the notes to the financial statements. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for additional information. The entity that received the funds reports these costs and separately discloses them in the notes to the financial statements. Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 28, for additional information on “heritage assets, multi-use heritage assets, and stewardship land” and SFFAS 29, “Heritage Assets and Stewardship Land.”

3.1.2. Gross Costs. This line contains costs that arise from the purchase of goods or services. The Gross Costs should include elimination of the effects of intra-entity and inter-entity business transactions in the consolidating entity’s statements.

3.1.3. Earned Revenue. This line contains exchange revenues that arise when a federal entity provides goods and services to the public or another government entity for a price. Report the full amount of exchange revenue on the SNC or supplementary schedule regardless of whether the entity is permitted to retain the revenue in whole or in part. Earned revenue must be deducted from the full cost of outputs or outcomes to determine their net cost unless it is not practical or reasonably possible to do so. It is not practical or reasonable to do so, DoD must deduct earned revenue from the gross cost of programs to determine the net program costs or deduct earned revenue from the costs of sub-organizations to determine the sub-organizations’ net cost of operations. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for additional guidance for assigning earned revenue to outputs, outcomes, programs, or sub-organizations.

3.1.4. Losses/(Gains) from Actuarial Assumption Changes for Military Retirement Benefits. This line contains gains and losses from changes in long-term assumptions used to measure military retirement benefits (i.e., Military Retirement Fund and Medicare-Eligible Retiree Health Care Fund).

3.2 Net Cost of Operations.

This line is the gross cost incurred by the consolidating entity less any exchange revenue earned from its activities. This amount represents the net cost of a sub-organization or entity that must be financed by sources other than exchange revenues. DoD must report the financing sources required to fund the “Net Cost of Operations” on the Statement of Changes in Net Position.

CHAPTER 6

STATEMENT OF CHANGES IN NET POSITION

1.0 GENERAL (0601)

1.1 Purpose (060101)

This chapter prescribes the policy surrounding preparation of the Department of Defense (DoD) Statement of Changes in Net Position (SCNP). It provides details for the formatting required for the SCNP and instructions for preparing the Unexpended Appropriations and Cumulative Results of Operations sections thereof.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance (060102)

2.0 FORMAT FOR THE SCNP (0602)

2.1 General Information (060201)

The SCNP reports the change in net position during the reporting period. The net position is affected by changes to its two components: Unexpended Appropriations and Cumulative Results of Operations. The SCNP format displays both components of net position separately to enable the user to understand better the nature of changes to net position as a whole.

2.2 Format for the SCNP (060202)

The SCNP will be prepared in accordance with the format presented in Figure 6-1. The working versions of all statements and notes must include line numbers as shown in Figure 6-1. All amounts are in dollars and cents in the working versions of the statements and notes in order to facilitate communication among the preparers, reviewers, and auditors during the financial statements preparation process. This process minimizes the additional time and workload required to round and reconcile dollar amounts.

2.3 Format for the Final Published SCNP (060203)

The final published DoD principal statements, including the SCNP, and notes to the principal statements display dollars rounded to millions with one decimal point. All Component statements, and notes to the statements, display dollar amounts rounded to the nearest thousand on the final published principal statements and in the tables/schedules contained in the notes to the principal statements. Dollar amounts in note narratives must be reported with a maximum of three position integers and a single decimal value followed by an identifier, such as millions or billions (e.g., $340.1 million, not $340,100 thousand). The line numbers shown in Figure 6-1 are for reference purposes only. Line number references are not included on the final published statements.

3.1 General Instructions (060301)

3.1.1. Preparation. The SCNP is prepared from information utilizing Department of the Treasury (Treasury) United States Standard General Ledger (USSGL) accounts and crosswalks. System users can access crosswalk information within the USSGL section of the TFM for current fiscal year reporting. The crosswalk for each line of the SCNP is included in the Defense Departmental Reporting System - Audited Financial Statements (DDRS-AFS). Authorized DDRS users may access the most current mapping of the SCNP by selecting “Query” from the main DDRS-AFS menu, then selecting “Referential Data,” and then SCNP under one of the “Report Map” options.

* 3.1.2. Dedicated Collections

3.1.2.1. Generally, funds from dedicated collections are financed by specifically identified revenues provided to the government by non-federal sources, often supplemented by other financing sources, which remain available over time. These specifically identified revenues and other financing sources are required by statute for designated benefits, activities, or purposes, and must be reported separately from the Federal government’s general revenues. The Statement of Federal Financial Accounting Standards (SFFAS) 43, “Funds from Dedicated Collections: Amending Statement of Federal Financial Accounting Standards 27, Identifying and Reporting Earmarked Funds,” contains the complete definition and criteria for dedicated collections. Report the portions of Cumulative Results of Operations and Unexpended Appropriations attributable to dedicated collections in Note 18, “Funds from Dedicated Collections,” of the notes to the financial statements.

3.1.2.2. Resources from “Funds from Dedicated Collections” derived from trust or special fund receipts are often commingled or mixed with resources from the General Fund of the U.S. Government. If the predominant source of a mixed fund is “Funds from Dedicated Collections,” the entire fund may be reported in the financial statements as “Funds from Dedicated Collections.” Whether a mixed fund is reported as “Funds from Dedicated Collections” depends upon the predominant use of the fund and whether the fund as a whole meets the definition of “Funds from Dedicated Collections” in SFFAS 43.

3.1.3. Prior Period Adjustments. A prior period adjustment is an adjustment to balances of a prior period due to a change in accounting principle or correction of a material error (or an aggregation of errors). Prior period adjustments for correction of material errors require restatement of prior period balances, while adjustments for changes in accounting principle generally do not. Immaterial errors must be corrected in the period discovered, using the accounts that would have been posted had the transactions occurred in the current period. For additional guidance, refer to SFFAS 21, “Reporting Corrections of Errors and Changes in Accounting Principles, Amendment of SFFAS 7, Accounting for Revenue and Other Financing Sources,” and the Prior-Period and Prior-Year Adjustment Scenarios.

3.1.3.1. Requests for Prior Period Adjustments. Prior period adjustments will be included in the quarterly financial statements in accordance with the guidance found in Section 405 of the DoD Financial Reporting Guidance, hereafter referred to as “DoD FRG.” Components should not record prior period adjustments in USSGL accounts without prior approval from Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) Financial Reporting Directorate. Forward all requests for prior period adjustments to DFAS Financial Reporting, accompanied by prior period adjustment packages with required supporting documentation, as outlined in the DoD FRG.

3.1.3.2. Calculating Materiality. Calculate materiality separately at the DoD reporting entity level, and against a materiality base. If the misstatement involves assets, then the materiality base should be total assets. If the misstatement involves liabilities, then the materiality base should be total liabilities. If the misstatement involves expenses, then the materiality base should be total expenses. Calculate the materiality base net of intragovernmental balances. For DoD reporting entities, an error (or aggregate of errors) is material when it equals or exceeds one percent of the materiality base. See the DoD FRG for additional information.

* 3.1.3.3. Disclosure of Prior Period Adjustments. Prior period adjustments that require restatements are included in Note 28, “Restatements.” Note disclosures to the principal financial statements are explained in Chapter 10. Disclosures include the nature of the errors and the effect on relevant balances in the current period. Financial statements of subsequent periods need not repeat the full disclosures, but should disclose whether there are prior period adjustments not reflected in comparative balances. A note disclosure is required when management becomes aware of a potential misstatement due to material error(s) whether or not the exact amount is known or has been corrected at the time financial statements are prepared. Disclose the nature of a prior period adjustment as the result of a change in accounting principle in accordance with the guidance found in Chapter 10, Note 20, “Disclosures Related to the Statement of Changes in Net Position.”

* 3.1.3.4. Management’s Responsibility and Notification of Auditors. Upon discovery that material errors escaped detection and were included in the published audited financial statements, management must assume responsibility for any false or misleading information in the financial statements, or omissions that render information or disclosures made in the financial statements misleading. As soon as possible after the detection of an error, management must notify their auditors and the primary users of their financial statements of the error and management’s plans to correct it in the financial statements. Components with prior period adjustments will immediately notify DFAS Financial Reporting Directorate (Audited Financial Statements) of the material error. The Office of the Secretary of Defense will make the formal notification to the Congress, OMB, Treasury, and the Government Accountability Office. The notification should include the cause of the error, an estimated dollar amount of the error, and whether a previously issued financial statement(s) will or may be restated. The general public can see the revised statements on the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) website. The misstated financial statements will be removed from the website.

3.1.3.5. Auditor’s Responsibility. If a “Subsequent Discovery of Facts” exists on the date of the auditor’s report, the auditors will determine whether action is required to prevent future reliance on the published audit report. The auditors may determine if revised financial statements and a revised auditor’s report are required. The auditors may decide to change the audit opinion if it is determined that subsequently discovered information is not reliable. Therefore, it is imperative management work with their auditor as soon as possible after the detection of an error and assist in any actions to resolve the audit finding.

*3.2 Line Item Instructions for the Preparation of the SCNP (060302)

3.2.1. Section Heading – Unexpended Appropriations. This section displays the unexpended balances brought forward from the prior period, in addition to any prior period adjustments that affect the beginning balance.

3.2.2. Beginning Balances, Line 1. The total for beginning balances for the consolidated
“Unexpended Appropriations” must agree with the total of the ending balances for consolidated “Unexpended Appropriations” of the prior year.

3.2.3. Prior Period Adjustments, Line 2. Report prior period adjustments separately for “Changes in accounting principles” (Line 2.A) and “Corrections of errors” (Line 2.B).

3.2.3.1. Changes in accounting principles, Line 2.A. A change in accounting principle is a change from one U.S. generally accepted accounting principle (USGAAP) to another USGAAP that can be justified as preferable. Changes in accounting principles include those that result from the adoption of a new Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board (FASAB) standard. This line reports the cumulative effect of the change on prior periods as a change in accounting principle. Do not restate the prior periods financial statements (see SFFAS 21).

3.2.3.2. Corrections of errors (+/-), Line 2.B. Errors in financial statements can result from mathematical mistakes, mistakes in the application of accounting principles, and/or oversight or misuse of the facts that existed at the time the financial statements were prepared. For errors discovered after the issuance of the financial statements, if the misstatement to the financial statements is material absent correction of the errors, then corrections are required and treated as prior period adjustments. Use the following criteria to determine proper display of financial statements containing material corrections of errors in prior periods (see SFFAS 21).

3.2.3.2.1. When only the current period statements are presented, report the cumulative effect of correcting the error as a prior period adjustment on Line 2.B, “Corrections of errors,” and restated on Line 3, “Beginning balances, as adjusted.”

3.2.3.2.2. When comparative financial statements are presented, correct the error in the earliest affected period presented by correcting any individual amounts on the financial statements. If the earliest period presented is not the period in which the error occurred and the cumulative effect is attributable to prior periods, report the cumulative effect as a prior period adjustment on Line 2.B, “Corrections of errors,” of the earliest period presented. The beginning position of the earliest period presented is restated on Line 3, “Beginning balances, as adjusted.”

3.2.4. Beginning balances, as adjusted, Line 3. This line is the sum of the adjusted “Beginning Balances” (Line 1) of “Unexpended Appropriations” and “Prior Period Adjustments.”

3.2.5. Budgetary Financing Sources, Line 4. Report financing sources that represent budgetary resources or adjustments to those resources, as reported on the Statement of Budgetary Resources (SBR) and defined by OMB Circular A-11, “Preparation, Submission, and Execution of the Budget.”

3.2.5.1. Appropriations received, Line 4.A. This amount includes appropriations received during the current reporting period. This amount does not always agree with the appropriations received amount reported on the SBR because of differences between proprietary and budgetary accounting concepts and reporting requirements. For example, certain dedicated collections are recorded as appropriations received on the SBR, but are recognized as exchange or nonexchange revenue (i.e., in special and nonrevolving trust funds) and reported on the SCNP in accordance with SFFAS 7.

3.2.5.2. Appropriations transferred-in/out (+/-), Line 4.B. This line is the amount of appropriations received in the current or prior year(s) that have been transferred-in or out during the current reporting year.

3.2.5.3. Other adjustments (e.g. rescissions) (+/-), Line 4.C. This amount includes adjustments to unexpended appropriations. Some examples of adjustments include reductions of appropriations and cancellations of expired appropriations/expenditure accounts.

3.2.5.4. Appropriations used, Line 4.D. Appropriations are considered used as a financing source when goods and services are received or benefits are provided. This statement is true whether the goods, services, and benefits are payable or paid as of the reporting date and whether the appropriations are used for items that are expensed or capitalized. “Appropriations used” does not include undelivered orders or unobligated appropriations. “Appropriations used” does not increase “Net Position” since it is subtracted from “Unexpended Appropriations” and added to “Cumulative Results of Operations” for a net zero effect on “Net Position” as a whole.

3.2.6. Total Budgetary Financing Sources, Line 5. This line is a summation of “Budgetary Financing Sources” (Lines 4.A through 4.D).

3.2.7. Total Unexpended Appropriations, Line 6. This line represents the total amount of “Unexpended Appropriations” for the period. The calculated value results from adding Line 5, “Total Budgetary Financing Sources,” to Line 3, “Beginning balances, as adjusted.”
3.2.8. Section Heading - Cumulative Results of Operations. This section displays the beginning balances brought forward from the prior year, in addition to any prior period adjustments that affect the beginning balance.

3.2.9. Beginning Balances, Line 7. The total for beginning balances for the “Consolidated Cumulative Results of Operations” must agree with the total of the ending balances for “Consolidated Cumulative Results of Operations” of the prior year.

3.2.10.1. Changes in accounting principles, Line 8.A. A change in accounting principle is a change from one USGAAP to another one that can be justified as preferable. Adoption of a new FASAB standard is a change in accounting principle. Unless otherwise specified in transitioning instructions of a new FASAB standard, report the cumulative effect of the change on prior periods on this line. Record the adjustment to the beginning balance of “Cumulative Results of Operations” in the SCNP for the period the change is made. Prior period financial statements will not be restated (see SFFAS 21).

3.2.10.2. Corrections of errors (+/-), Line 8.B. Errors in financial statements can result from mathematical mistakes, mistakes in the application of accounting principles, and/or oversight or misuse of the facts that existed at the time the financial statements were prepared. For errors discovered after the issuance of the financial statements, if the misstatement to the financial statements is material absent correction of the errors, then corrections are required and treated as prior period adjustments. Use the following criteria to determine proper display of financial statements containing material corrections of errors in prior periods (see SFFAS 21).

3.2.10.2.1. When only the current period statements are presented, report the cumulative effect of correcting the error as a prior period adjustment on Line 8.B., “Corrections of errors,” and the beginning position restated on Line 9, “Beginning Balances, as adjusted.”

3.2.10.2.2. When comparative financial statements are presented, correct the error in the earliest affected period presented by correcting any individual amounts on the financial statements. If the earliest period presented is not the period in which the error occurred and the cumulative effect is attributable to prior periods, report the cumulative effect as a prior period adjustment on Line 8.B., “Corrections of errors,” of the earliest period presented. The beginning position of the earliest period presented is also restated on Line 9, “Beginning balances, as adjusted.”

3.2.11. Beginning balances, as adjusted, Line 9. This line is the sum of the beginning balances of “Cumulative Results of Operations” and “Prior Period Adjustments.”

3.2.12. Budgetary Financing Sources, Line 10. Report financing sources and nonexchange revenue that are also budgetary resources or adjustments to those resources, as reported on the SBR and defined by OMB Circular A-11.
3.2.12.1. Other adjustments (+/-), Line 10.A. This amount includes adjustments to “Cumulative Results of Operations” that also have an impact on budgetary resources.

3.2.12.2. Appropriations used, Line 10.B. Appropriations are considered used as a financing source when goods and services are received or benefits are provided. This statement is true whether the goods, services, and benefits are payable or paid as of the reporting date and whether the appropriations are used for items that are expensed or capitalized. “Appropriations used” does not include undelivered orders or unobligated appropriations. “Appropriations used” does not increase “Net Position” since it is subtracted from “Unexpended Appropriations” and added to “Cumulative Results of Operations” for a net zero effect on “Net Position” as a whole.

3.2.12.3. Nonexchange revenue, Line 10.C. This includes revenues the Federal Government obtains through the use of its sovereign powers. SFFAS 7, “Accounting for Revenue and Other Financing Sources and Concepts for Reconciling Budgetary and Financial Accounting,” discusses the recognition and measurement criteria for taxes and other nonexchange revenues. If Federal securities investment revenue is material, report it as a separate line item on the SCNP.

3.2.12.4. Donations and forfeitures of cash and cash equivalents, Line 10.D. This amount includes voluntary gifts and involuntary forfeitures of resources to the Federal Government by nonfederal entities. Donations of financial resources include cash, cash equivalents, and securities. Involuntary forfeitures include seized cash and cash equivalents.

3.2.12.5. Transfers-in/out without reimbursement (+/-), Line 10.E. This amount includes intragovernmental non-appropriated balance transfers-in or out during the current reporting year. This line includes financing sources and revenue not reported as “Unexpended Appropriations.” Exchange revenue (included in calculating an entity's net cost of operations) transferred to the Treasury or another Federal entity must be recognized as a transfer-out.

3.2.12.6. Other budgetary financing sources (+/-), Line 10.F. This line includes other financing sources that affect budgetary resources and are not included in Lines 10.A through 10.E. Disclose in Note 20 of the Financial Statements all items equaling 10 percent or more of the value reported on Line 10.F.

3.2.13. Other Financing Sources (Nonexchange), Line 11. Report financing sources and nonexchange revenue that do not represent budgetary resources reported on the SBR and are not defined by OMB Circular A-11.

3.2.13.1. Donations and forfeitures of property, Line 11.A. This amount includes voluntary gifts and involuntary forfeitures of resources to the Federal Government by nonfederal entities, such as land or buildings. SFFAS 6, “Accounting for Property, Plant, and Equipment,” contains additional guidance for recognizing revenue arising from donations/involuntary forfeitures of non-financial resources.
3.2.13.2. Transfers-in/out without reimbursement (+/-), Line 11.B. This amount includes intragovernmental transfers-in/out of capitalized assets during the current reporting year. Record the amount of the transfer at the net book value of the transferring entity. If the net book value is unknown, then the amount recognized will be the asset's estimated fair value at the date of the transfer. Both parties to the transfer must confer when fair value is used to ensure balanced intragovernmental entries are recorded.

* 3.2.13.3. Imputed financing from costs absorbed by others, Line 11.C. This amount includes financing of certain costs by one Federal entity on behalf of another Federal entity. “Imputed financing from costs absorbed by others” must equal the amount of imputed costs reported on the Statement of Net Cost (SNC). Refer to SFFAS 55, “Amending Inter-entity Cost Provisions,” and SFFAS 4, “Managerial Cost Accounting Standards and Concepts,” for additional guidance on the recognition of inter-entity and material intra-entity unreimbursed costs.

3.2.13.4. Other (+/-), Line 11.D. This line includes other financing sources that do not represent budgetary resources and are not included in Lines 11.A through 11.C. Disclose in Note 20 of the Financial Statements all items equaling 10 percent or more of the value reported on Line 11.D.

3.2.14. Total Financing Sources, Line 12. This line is a summation of “Budgetary Financing Sources” (Lines 10.A through 10.F) and “Other Financing Sources (Nonexchange)” (Lines 11.A through 11.D).

3.2.15. Net Cost of Operations (+/-), Line 13. This amount must agree with the “Net Cost of Operations” as reported on the SNC.

3.2.18. Net Position, Line 16. This line represents the summation of Line 6, “Total Unexpended Appropriations,” and Line 15, “Cumulative Results of Operations.” The value for this line must agree with the “Total Net Position” reported on the “Balance Sheet.”

CHAPTER 7

STATEMENT OF BUDGETARY RESOURCES

1.0 GENERAL (0701)

*1.1 Purpose (070101)

This chapter prescribes the policy surrounding preparation of the Department of Defense (DoD) Statement of Budgetary Resources (SBR). It provides details for the formatting used in various versions of the SBR and instructions for preparing the SBR subsections of Budgetary resources, Status of budgetary resources, and Outlays, net.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance (070102)

2.0 FORMAT FOR THE SBR (0702)

*2.1 Format for the Working Version of the SBR (070201)

Format the SBR to align with the Standard Form (SF) 133, Report on Budget Execution and Budgetary Resources using the guidance published in Section 130 of OMB Circular A-11. The SBR is prepared at the DoD Component level and is a summarization of the individual appropriation account level SF 133s. Use the format presented in Figure 7-1 for the working version of the combined SBR. All amounts are in dollars and cents in the working versions of the statements and notes in order to improve communication among the preparers, the reviewers, and the auditors during the financial statements preparation process. Reporting all amounts in dollars and cents minimizes the additional time and workload required to round and reconcile dollar amounts.

2.1.1. OMB Circular A-136 requires that DoD distinguish between budgetary and non-budgetary credit reform financing accounts, and identify net outlays of specific distributed offsetting receipt values. Reserve the “Non-Budgetary Credit Reform Financing Account” section of the SBR for reporting United States Standard General Ledger (USSGL) account balances from the post-1991 direct loan financing and loan guarantee entries included in section 185.11 of OMB Circular A-11. Section 185.11 includes data descriptions for the respective schedules used to report financing and loan guarantee balances. Information on the SBR must be reconcilable with budget execution information reported on the SF 133 and with information reported in the Budget of the U.S. Government to ensure the integrity of the numbers presented.

* 2.1.2. Reporting entities submit USSGL-based trial balances through the Governmentwide Treasury Account Symbol Adjusted Trial Balance System (GTAS) to produce the SF 133, the prior year (PY) column of the Program and Financing Schedule (Schedule P) of the Budget of the U.S. Government, and the SBR. The DoD Financial Reporting Guidance and OMB Circular A-136 provide instructions for reconciling SF 133 data submitted through GTAS to the SBR.

2.1.2.1. The Bureau of the Fiscal Service (Fiscal Service) “Federal Account Symbols and Titles (FAST) Book” of the Treasury Financial Manual (TFM) identifies receipt, appropriation, and other fund account symbols and titles assigned by the Department of the Treasury. The FAST Book includes accounts used to report non-budgetary financing and loan guarantee accounts.

2.1.2.2. Disclose as Other Information, Executive Office of the President Accounts administered by DoD as non-budgetary financing and loan guarantee accounts. Refer to the FAST Book for a listing of non-budgetary financing and loan guarantee accounts.

2.2 Format for the SBR (070202)

The final published DoD principal statements and the notes to the principal statements display dollars rounded to millions with one decimal point. Component principal statements and the notes to the principal statements display dollars rounded to the nearest thousand on the final published principal statements and in the tables/schedules contained in the notes to the principal statements. Dollar amounts in note narratives are reported with a maximum of three position integers and a single decimal value followed by an identifier, such as millions or billions (e.g., $340.1 million, not $340,100 thousand). The line numbers on the working versions of all statements, including the illustrative DoD statements, are for reference purposes only. Line number references are not included on final published statements.

2.3 Note Disclosure (070203)

Explain material differences between amounts reported on the financial statements and budgetary reports in footnotes as described in Chapter 10. These material disclosures are consistent with the reconciliation requirements for the SBR, GTAS, and other budgetary reporting. The Component and auditor will discuss any material changes to budgetary information subsequent to the publication of the audited SBR to determine whether a restatement or note disclosure is necessary. Disclose any material differences between comparable information contained in the SBR and the Budget of the U.S. Government at the Agency-wide level in footnotes as described in Chapter 10. See Section 405 of the DoD Financial Reporting Guidance for DoD materiality thresholds.

3.0 INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PREPARATION OF THE SBR (0703)

Information on the SBR must be reconcilable with budget execution information reported on GTAS submissions and with information reported in the Budget of the U.S. Government. The SBR is prepared from USSGL information based on Fiscal Service USSGL accounts and crosswalks. The Fiscal Service website contains USSGL information and crosswalks for the SBR.
The Defense Departmental Reporting System Audited Financial Statements (DDRS-AFS) includes the crosswalk logic from the trial balance to each line of the SBR. Authorized users can access report crosswalks in DDRS-AFS by selecting “Query” and “Referential Data” from the main DDRS-AFS menu, and selecting a report under one of the “Report Map” options. For DoD, the DoD Standard Reporting Chart of Accounts identifies and defines approved general ledger accounts in accordance with the Standard Financial Information Structure.

3.1.1. Due to timing differences, subsequent changes, whether material or non-material, may be made to budgetary information included in the Budget of the U.S. Government after the SBR has been published. Make all subsequent changes, whether material or non-material, in OMB’s MAX A-11 Data Entry System and in GTAS during the September revision period.

3.1.2. The agencies and their auditors will discuss any material changes to budgetary information subsequent to the publication of the audited SBR to determine if restatement or note disclosure is necessary. At a minimum, disclose any material difference between comparable information contained in the SBR and the Budget of the U.S. Government in footnotes as described in Chapter 10.

3.1.3. Budgetary information aggregated for purposes of the SBR should be disaggregated for each of the reporting entity's major budget accounts and presented as Required Supplementary Information (RSI), as described in Chapter 12. Base the recognition and measurement of budgetary information in the SBR on guidance described in Appendix F, “Format of SF 132, SF 133, Schedule P, and SBR,” of OMB Circular A-11. OMB Bulletin 19-01, “Audit Requirements for Federal Financial Statements,” provides additional guidance by identifying the minimum requirements for audits of Federal financial statements.

3.1.4. OMB Circular A-136 requires a combined SBR (intragovernmental transactions are not eliminated), which is consistent with the aggregate of the account level information presented on GTAS submissions. Do not perform a line-by-line consolidation of this statement since it would require a line-by-line elimination of inter-entity balances. The statement distinguishes between budgetary and non-budgetary credit reform financing accounts and identifies distributed offsetting receipt values.

3.1.5. Divide the SBR into three general subsections: Budgetary resources; Status of budgetary resources; and Outlays, net.

3.1.5.1. Aggregate the SBR to reflect all activity of the reporting entity for the year covered by the financial statement. Present PY information so the reader may make appropriate comparisons with PYs.

3.1.5.2. Present separate columns for the current year (CY) and PY non-budgetary credit reform financing accounts in the SBR. The presentation allows for a clear distinction between budgetary and non-budgetary credit reform financing account information. OMB Circular A-136 contains guidance supporting the separation of credit reform financing account information on the SBR. Report all non-budgetary credit reform financing accounts separate from the budgetary totals in the Budget of the U.S. Government.
3.1.5.3. Line 4200 is included for distributed offsetting receipts on the SBR. Distributed offsetting receipts offset budget authority and outlays at the Component level in the Budget of the U.S. Government, but are not required on the SF 133, which provides appropriation account level information only. Since the SBR functions as a Component-wide report, the values of distributed offsetting receipts are included to reconcile with the Fiscal Service Quarterly Distributed Offsetting Receipts by Department Report in the Central Accounting Reporting System (CARS), which provides detailed information for transactions reported on the Statement of Transactions for distributed offsetting receipts reflected in the Monthly Treasury Statement.

3.1.6. Monitor budget execution at the individual appropriation account level (SF 133) for DoD Component reporting entities. Aggregate all budgetary information for the combined SBR principal statements. Disaggregate budgetary information for the reporting entity’s combining statement by major budget account groups and present in the RSI section of the financial statements as identified in section 0704. The major accounts and the aggregate of small budget accounts must equal, in total, the amounts reported on the face of the SBR.

* 3.2 Line Item Instructions for the Preparation of the SBR (070302)

3.2.1. SBR Format. Appendix F of OMB Circular A-11 identifies the format and information reported on each line of the SBR. OMB Circular A-136 provides additional guidance for the types of data included in each section of the SBR.

3.2.2. Budgetary resources. The Budgetary resources section identifies the total budgetary resources available to the reporting entity. Budgetary resources include, but are not limited to, new budget authority, unobligated budgetary resources at the beginning of the period, transfers in and out of budgetary resources, recoveries of PY obligations, spending authority from offsetting collections, and any adjustments to these resources.

3.2.3. Status of budgetary resources. The Status of budgetary resources section displays information about the status of budgetary resources at the end of the reporting period. It consists of the obligations incurred and the unobligated balances at the end of the reporting period. The total amount displayed for the status of budgetary resources equals the total budgetary resources available to the reporting entity as of the reporting date. The nature of permanent indefinite appropriations and legal arrangements affecting the use of unobligated balances must be disclosed in either Note 1 or a separate note to the SBR.

3.2.4. Outlays, net. The Outlays, net section displays the net total for agency outlays.

3.2.4.1. Outlays, net (total) (discretionary and mandatory), Line 4190. Line 4190 shows the amount of net outlays recorded during the reporting period. Line 4190 equals gross outlays less any offsetting collections.

* 3.2.4.2. Distributed offsetting receipts (-), Line 4200. Line 4200 shows the amount of distributed offsetting receipts recorded during the reporting period. Offsetting receipts are composed of proprietary receipts from the public, receipts from intragovernmental transactions, and offsetting governmental receipts.
3.2.4.2.1. Offsetting receipts are collections credited to general fund (GF), special fund, or trust fund receipt accounts, which offset gross outlays. Unlike offsetting collections, which are credited to expenditure accounts and offset outlays at the account level, offsetting receipts are credited to receipt accounts and offset outlays at the Component or governmentwide level.

3.2.4.2.2. Offsetting receipts may be distributed to Components or remain undistributed. Distributed offsetting receipts offset the outlays of the Component, while undistributed offsetting receipts offset governmentwide outlays. Distributed offsetting receipts typically offset the outlays of the Component that conducts the activity generating the receipts and the subfunction to which the activity is assigned.

3.2.4.2.3. The SBR includes all distributed offsetting receipts for the Component. OMB Circular A-136 defines and describes distributed offsetting receipts.

* 3.2.4.2.4. The amount of distributed offsetting receipts reported in the SBR is the aggregate of cash collected in these receipt accounts and reported to the Fiscal Service. Agencies classified as “CARS Daily Reporters” report via the Payment Information Repository or Collections Information Repository. Agencies not classified as “CARS Daily Reporters” report on a monthly basis via the legacy process using the Financial Management Service (FMS) 224, Statement of Transactions, or the FMS 1220, Statement of Transactions According to Appropriations, Funds, and Receipt Accounts. See TFM Volume 1, Part 2, Central Accounting and Reporting, for guidance regarding these forms.

* 3.2.4.2.5. The SBR does not include undistributed offsetting receipts credited to governmentwide outlay totals.

3.2.4.3. Agency outlays, net (discretionary and mandatory), Line 4210. Line 4210 shows net totals for agency outlays. Reduce gross outlays (disbursements) by actual offsetting collections to derive net outlays. Reduce net outlays by any distributed offsetting receipts to derive “Agency outlays, net.” The outlays (gross and net) are reconcilable to the disbursements and collections reported to Fiscal Service for the CY to date.

4.0 DISAGGREGATED SBR (0704)

Prepare and report the Disaggregated SBR in the RSI section of the financial statements. Figure 7-2 illustrates the current report format for the disaggregated SBR.

4.1 The DoD-wide Disaggregated SBR (070401)

Disaggregate the DoD-wide SBR into seven appropriation/fund groupings. Provide column headings and breakout by: Military Personnel; Procurement; Research, Development, Test and Evaluation (RDT&E); Family Housing and Military Construction; Military Retirement Benefits; Civil Works; and Operations, Readiness and Support.
4.2 Military Department GFs Disaggregated SBR (070402)

Disaggregate the Department of the Army GF, the Department of the Navy GF, and the Department of the Air Force GF SBR into five appropriation/fund groupings. Provide column headings and breakout by: Military Personnel; Procurement; RDT&E; Family Housing and Military Construction; and Operations, Readiness and Support.

4.3 Military Retirement Fund and U.S. Army Corps of Engineers (USACE) Disaggregated SBR (070403)

A disaggregated SBR for the Military Retirement Fund is not applicable. The USACE Civil Works may disaggregate as appropriate for the Treasury Index 96 accounts in the stand-alone USACE financial statements.

4.4 Medicare-Eligible Retiree Health Care Fund Disaggregated SBR (070404)

A disaggregated SBR for the Medicare-Eligible Retiree Health Care Fund is not applicable.

4.5 Working Capital Fund (WCF) Disaggregated SBR (070405)

Disaggregate the stand-alone Army WCF, Navy WCF, and Air Force WCF SBR by business activity.

4.6 All Other Defense Entities Disaggregated SBR (070406)

The stand-alone Other Defense Entities may disaggregate as appropriate for their entities.

CHAPTER 10

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter prescribes the format, content, and guidance for the preparation and presentation of notes to the principal financial statements.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

1.2.1. This chapter supplements the reporting requirements of Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-136, “Financial Reporting Requirements.” Updates to OMB Circular A-136 are on the OMB website. OMB Circular A-136 authorizes agencies to modify illustrations, with the exception of the Balance Sheet, in order to clarify amounts or remove information that does not apply or is uninformative. The chapter also describes responsibilities of the DoD Chief Financial Officer (CFO) as established by the CFO Act of 1990. The major DoD Components and reporting entities listed in Chapter 1 will prepare quarterly and fiscal year (FY)-end comparative financial statements and notes. For account information, refer to the U.S. Standard General Ledger (USSGL), and the DoD USSGL Transaction Library, which is available on the Standard Financial Information Structure (SFIS) web page.

1.2.2. The entities covered by this chapter are “reporting entities” and “component reporting entities” under Statement of Federal Financial Accounting Standards (SFFAS) 47, “Reporting Entity.” Under SFFAS 47, inclusion in a reporting entity’s financial statements may take the form of consolidation or disclosure. Agencies should review SFFAS 47, and consult with the Office of the Deputy CFO if they have questions regarding which agencies to include in their Performance and Accountability Report or Agency Financial Report (AFR).

2.1 Consistency and Agreement

The supporting schedules presented in the notes must agree with the amounts presented in the body of the financial statements, where applicable. Maintain the consistency of the chosen presentation (i.e. “thousands” or “millions”) and rounding level throughout the financial statements and notes. Rounded totals must agree between the financial statements as applicable (e.g., Net Position line on the Statement of Changes in Net Position (SCNP) must equal the Total Net Position line on the Balance Sheet). Individual line items must sum to the totals, which may require adjusting the individual detail line items for differences created by the rounding process rather than adjusting column totals. The prior FY column must be consistent with the amounts published on the financial statements and notes in the prior FY; unless, there was a restatement of the prior FY. Comparative financial information is presented on a one-year trailing period basis. For example, if presenting third quarter data, show comparative data from the third quarter of the prior FY. It is preferred the Component footnote numbers and disclosures are identical to the Agency-Wide footnote numbers and disclosures.

2.2 Compliance with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles

Some of the underlying financial systems and operations that produce these statements were not designed to generate auditable financial statements in compliance with the form and content guidance. Because of such long-standing system deficiencies, many DoD organizations may not be fully compliant with U.S. Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (USGAAP) and OMB Circular A-136. DoD is developing long-term systems improvements that will correct these deficiencies and ensure compliance with USGAAP. Within the Federal Government, the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board (FASAB) “Handbook of Federal Accounting Standards and Other Pronouncements, as Amended” is an authoritative source for USGAAP and is available on the FASAB website under “Standards and Guidance.” In cases where individual line items of the financial statements are not obtainable, or a substitution is made from the requirements herein, explain the deficiencies, and the reason for the noncompliance, in the related note. In addition, identify departures from USGAAP in Note 1, “Significant Accounting Policies.”

2.3 Classifications

U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury) account symbols are the basis for reporting the Department's financial transactions. Treasury’s Bureau of the Fiscal Service classifies receipt and expenditure accounts according to the Treasury Financial Manual (TFM) Federal Account Symbols and Titles, The FAST Book, Supplement to Volume 1. For descriptions of fund groups, and how they are used, refer to Volume 12, Chapter 1.

3.0 GENERAL NOTE GUIDANCE

3.1 General

The objective of the notes to the financial statements is to provide additional disclosures to ensure that the financial statements are more informative and not misleading. Consider the audience when writing the note narratives. Users of the general-purpose financial reports, including internal users, tend to have different levels of knowledge about government operations, accounting, and finance. Prepare the notes to the financial statements such that individuals without a detailed knowledge of accounting principles and specific business practices can understand them. DoD’s financial statements are provided to various internal users within DoD as well as external users such as OMB, Treasury, Congress, Government Accountability Office, and the general public.
3.2 Other Lines

Include a narrative for any line item titled “Other.” If the individual components of the “Other” line item represent 10 percent or more of the value of the line, disclose those components separately. If no amount sums to 10 percent or more of the “Other” line item, state that the amount is attributable to multiple items.

3.3 Abnormal Balances

OMB Reportable Components are required to explain all abnormal balances appearing on individual note schedules and financial statement lines. Current policy for reporting abnormal balance information is available on the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance web page that contains the Annual and Quarterly Financial Statement Guidance.

3.4 Fiscal Year Presentation

Report the current FY and prior FY amounts separately; unless, otherwise annotated.

3.5 DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance

The DFAS Annual and Quarterly Financial Reporting Guidance provides additional information pertaining to the financial statement notes. Reporting entities must use authoritative guidance, such as USGAAP, FASAB, and OMB Circular A-136, in addition to the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance, when preparing the notes to the financial statements.

4.0 NOTE 1. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

4.1 General Information

Note 1 to the financial statements must describe the reporting entity and identify its major components if not fully described in the Management’s Discussion and Analysis. Also, summarize the accounting principles and the methods of applying those principles that management has concluded are the most appropriate for presenting the entity’s assets, liabilities, equity, net cost of operations, changes in net position, and budgetary resources. Do not duplicate details presented elsewhere as part of the notes to the financial statements. It may be necessary to include more detailed discussion of an accounting policy in a specific note.

4.1.1 In general, the disclosure encompasses important judgments as to the valuation, recognition, and allocation of assets, liabilities, expenses, revenues, and other financing sources. Include in Note 1 a description of changes in USGAAP that impact the financial statements and an explanation of concepts, such as Fund Balance with Treasury (FBWT) and funds from dedicated collections, unique to federal financial statements. Reporting entities are encouraged to explain federal budgetary terms and concepts such as budgetary resources, appropriations, gross and net outlays, budgetary and non-budgetary, and distributed offsetting receipts.
4.1.2. In addition, disclose any significant changes, from the prior FY, in the composition of the reporting entity or significant changes in the manner in which the reporting entity aggregates information for financial reporting purposes.

*4.2 Reporting

All DoD reporting entities must review financial processes, systems, and data and modify or expand the sample disclosure statements for a complete and accurate representation of each issue. The specific language shown in sample disclosure statements may not be applicable to all DoD Components. Do not include narratives that are not applicable.

4.2.1. Reporting Entity. Describe the reporting entity and identify its major components if not fully described in the Management’s Discussion and Analysis. Also, describe any consolidated entities and disclosure entities in accordance with SFFAS 47, and explain that disclosure entities are not consolidated entities.

4.2.2. Mission of the Reporting Entity. For each reporting entity, enter a brief mission statement if not fully disclosed in the Management’s Discussion and Analysis.

4.2.3. Basis of Presentation. Disclose how the financial statements are prepared and any limitation that prevents compliance with USGAAP. Include a disclosure that the financial statements have been prepared to report the financial position and results of operations as required by the CFO Act of 1990, expanded by the Government Management Reform Act of 1994, and other legislation.

4.2.4. Classified Information. To protect classified information, all reporting entities must prevent the disclosure of classified information. Only those entities recording the data report classified activity.

4.2.5. Basis of Accounting. Disclose significant changes in the composition of the reporting entity, or significant changes in the manner in which the reporting entity aggregates information for financial reporting purposes. Describe the accounting principles, and methods of applying those principles, that management has concluded are appropriate for presenting fairly the entity’s assets, liabilities, net cost of operations, changes in net position, and budgetary resources. Describe changes in USGAAP affecting the financial statements and explain concepts such as FBWT and Funds from Dedicated Collections. Describe limitations that prevent compliance with full accrual accounting as required by USGAAP.

4.2.6. Accounting for Intragovernmental and Intergovernmental Activities. Describe the reporting entity’s: (1) methodology for eliminating transactions among entities within DoD and between other federal agencies; (2) any limitation that prevents the elimination of the intragovernmental transactions; and (3) actions the reporting entity is taking to correct the problem(s). Disclose that DoD’s proportionate share of public debt and related expenses, and interest cost of the Federal Government is not included.
4.2.7. Non-entity assets. Disclose relevant information related to amounts reported as entity and non-entity assets.

4.2.8. Fund Balance with Treasury. Include a disclosure statement to the following: “The Reporting Entity’s monetary resources are maintained in U.S. Treasury accounts.” Also, include any other information relevant to understanding Funds with the U.S. Treasury. Entities (Defense Agencies) with zero fund balance reported in their financial statements disclose: “Appropriations are suballocated to [Reporting Entities] by DoD. Differences between the U.S. Treasury and DoD balances are reconciled at the Department level.”

4.2.9. Cash and Other Monetary Assets. Include the following disclosures: (1) description of cash and foreign currency; (2) any restrictions on cash or foreign currency; (3) classification of these assets; and (4) procedures for handling exchange rate gains and losses.

4.2.10. Investments. Include the following disclosures: (1) the method for valuing investments; (2) the amortization method for premiums and discounts; (3) the provision for unrealized gains or losses; (4) a description of the types of securities purchased; (5) the information on investment in limited liability partnerships; and (6) information related to accrued interest on investments.

4.2.11. Accounts Receivable. Include the following disclosures: (1) categories of receivables included in the amount reported in accounts receivable on the Balance Sheet; and (2) allowance methods for uncollectible accounts due from the public. Pursuant to TFM Volume 1, Part 2, Chapter 4700, agencies must recognize any allowance for loss on intragovernmental accounts receivable.

4.2.12. Loans Receivable, Net and Loan Guarantee Liabilities. Disclose relevant information related to the loan programs and to which authority is granted in accordance with SFFAS 2, “Accounting for Direct Loans and Loan Guarantees,” and SFFAS 18, “Amendments to Accounting Standards for Direct Loans and Loan Guarantees in SFFAS 2”.

4.2.13. Inventory and Related Property. Include the following disclosures: (1) the method for valuing inventory and related property; (2) an approximation of the percent of resale inventory valued using the moving average cost (MAC) method and other methods; and (3) any limitations in valuing inventory in accordance with SFFAS 3, “Accounting for Inventory and Related Property,” or uncertainties about completeness and existence of reported values of inventory. Describe the held for sale; held in reserve for future sale; excess, obsolete, and unserviceable; held for repair; raw materials; and work-in-process categories. Also describe the Operating Material & Supplies (OM&S) held for use; held in reserve for future use; excess, obsolete, and unserviceable inventory; held for repair; and in development categories. DoD Components are responsible for identifying inventory (including inventory held as OM&S) that is excess, obsolete, and unserviceable. Upon identification of inventory as excess, obsolete, and unserviceable, the DoD Component adjusts the value of excess, obsolete, and unserviceable inventory to its net realizable value (NRV) as described in Volume 4, Chapter 4.
4.2.14. General Property, Plant, and Equipment. Include the following disclosures: (1) the method for valuing general equipment; (2) the capitalization threshold; (3) any limitations in valuing General Property, Plant, and Equipment (PP&E) in accordance with federal standards; and (4) the policy for reporting property provided to contractors.

4.2.15. Other Assets. Identify the majority of items reported as “Other Assets.” Describe contract financing payments and the circumstances under which the reporting entity uses them. See Volume 4, Chapter 5 for additional information related to contract financing payments.

4.2.16. Leases. Describe the conditions under which capital and operating leases would be recorded. Identify the method used to determine the value for capital leases. Describe how the discount rate for the present value calculation is determined. Disclose current year (CY) Federal and Non-Federal leases separately. Prior year (PY) lease amounts do not need to be disclosed separately.

4.2.17. Liabilities. Disclose relevant information related to amounts reported as liabilities.

4.2.18. Environmental and Disposal Liabilities. Describe environmental and other disposal liabilities. Identify the conditions in which they would be reported on the Balance Sheet as a liability, or condition where financial statement reporting is limited to a note disclosure. Describe the liabilities that arise from anticipated disposal costs.

4.2.19. Other Liabilities. Identify the majority of items reported as “Other Liabilities.” Describe such other liabilities as payroll liabilities and insurance programs or other liabilities applicable to the reporting entity.

4.2.20. Commitments and Contingencies. Disclose relevant information related to amounts reported as commitments and contingencies.

4.2.21. Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable. Describe transactions involving Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable. The Department applies SFFAS 33, “Pensions, Other Retirement Benefits, and Other Postemployment Benefits: Reporting the Gains and Losses from Changes in Assumptions and Selecting Discount Rates and Valuation Dates,” in selecting the discount rate and valuation date used in estimating actuarial liabilities.

4.2.22. Revenue and Other Financing Sources. Disclose the accounting policy for revenue recognition, the reporting entity’s pricing policy, and any limitation that may hinder revenue recognition in accordance with USGAAP. Also, provide policy information on: (1) other financing sources; and (2) non-monetary support provided by U.S. allies for common defense and mutual security, where applicable. Describe the accounting for funds from dedicated collections, as defined by SFFAS 43, “Funds from Dedicated Collections: Amending Statement of Federal Financial Accounting Standards 27, Identifying and Reporting Earmarked Funds.”

4.2.23. Recognition of Expenses. Disclose the accounting policy for recognizing operating expenses and any limitation that may hinder recognition in accordance with USGAAP. Also, define OM&S operating expenses, its recognition method, and any limitations.
4.2.24. Budgetary Resources. Provide explanations of budgetary terminology and concepts.

4.2.25. Treaties for Use of Foreign Bases. Describe the use, purchase, and limits on land, buildings, and other overseas facilities obtained through various international treaties and agreements.

4.2.26. Use of Estimates. Disclose the reporting entity’s use of estimates, and that actual results could differ materially from the estimated amounts. Describe the methodology used to account for and recognize estimates.

4.2.27. Parent-Child Reporting. Disclose relevant information related to parent-child reporting.

4.2.28. Transactions with Foreign Governments and International Organizations. Describe the authority to sell defense articles and services to foreign countries and international organizations.

4.2.29. Fiduciary Activities. Disclose information concerning fiduciary activities in accordance with SFFAS 31, “Accounting for Fiduciary Activities.” Fiduciary activities are reported on the financial statement note schedules, and not recognized on the proprietary financial statements. Define the reporting entity’s fiduciary activities. Disclose that fiduciary assets are not assets of the Federal Government and are not recognized on the Balance Sheet.

4.2.30. Tax Exempt Status. Disclose the federal government is exempt from all income taxes by any governing body whether it is a federal, state, commonwealth, or foreign government.

5.0 NOTE 2. NON-ENTITY ASSETS

Non-entity assets are assets held by an entity but are not available to the entity. Entity and non-entity assets are segregated on an entity’s Balance Sheet.

5.1 General Information

Disclose Non-entity Assets consisting of the categories in accordance with OMB Circular A-136. Combine entity and non-entity assets, except for non-entity assets meeting the definition of fiduciary assets on the face of the Balance Sheet.

5.2 Reporting

5.2.1. Non-entity Assets. These are assets that are held by an entity (as manager or custodian), but are not available for the entity’s own operational use. Within DoD, cash held by a disbursing officer (DO), as reflected on the Central Accounting Reporting System Account Statement for the relevant DO Cash Treasury Account Symbol, is an example of a non-entity asset.
5.2.2. Entity Assets. These are assets the reporting entity has authority to use. For example, an entity’s assets may be used in entity operations (such as equipment), be sold or exchanged for other assets (such as inventory for cash), or be used to liquidate (pay) entity liabilities.

5.2.3. Other Information. Disclose in the narrative a description of each current FY non-entity asset focusing on the nature of the asset that causes it to be classified as Non-entity Assets.

6.0 NOTE 3. FUND BALANCE WITH TREASURY

6.1 General Information

6.1.1. Status of FBWT. The “Status of Fund Balance with Treasury” is the entity’s total FBWT, as reflected in the entity's general ledger. Unobligated and obligated not yet disbursed balances presented in this section may not equal related amounts reported on the Combining Statement of Budgetary Resources (SBR). Do not include fiduciary activity on these lines. Refer to section 26.0 for the reporting of fiduciary activities. The Total FBWT amount must equal the Total FBWT line on the Balance Sheet.

6.1.2. Crosswalks. Base the mapping for the lines within this schedule on the USSGL crosswalks utilized in the Governmentwide Treasury Account Symbol Adjusted Trial Balance System (GTAS) and the Year-end Transaction Module. For USSGL account information, refer to the Fiscal Service USSGL and DoD USSGL Transaction Library.

6.2 Reporting

6.2.1. Unobligated Balance. The cumulative amount of budgetary authority that has not been set aside to cover outstanding obligations. Classify unobligated balances as available or unavailable. In the 4th quarter of the FY, this balance must agree with the sum of available and unavailable unobligated ending balances reported in GTAS and the Year-end Transaction Module.

6.2.1.1. Available. The amount of unexpired, unobligated balance that has been apportioned or is not subject to apportionment. This amount is immediately available for new obligations.

6.2.1.2. Unavailable. The amount of unexpired, unobligated balance that has not been apportioned, deferred, withheld pending rescission, or other similar limits on resources usage. It also may include expired budgetary resources available only for obligation adjustments until the appropriation is cancelled.

6.2.2. Obligated Balance Not Yet Disbursed. Funds that have been obligated for goods that have not been received, services that have not been performed, and goods and services that have been delivered and received, but not paid. In the 4th quarter of the FY, this balance must agree with amounts reported in GTAS and the Year-end Transaction Module.
6.2.3. Nonbudgetary FBWT. Include entity and non-entity FBWT accounts, which represent adjustments that do not have budgetary authority. Examples of Nonbudgetary FBWT fund types are: Clearing Accounts; Deposit Funds; and Non-entity and Other accounts.

6.2.4. Explanation of Unobligated Unavailable Balances. Disclose and explain restrictions on unobligated balances. Also, disclose if there are no restrictions.

6.2.5. Other Information. Explain any discrepancies between FBWT as reflected in the entity’s general ledger and the balance in Treasury accounts. Disclose any other information necessary for understanding the nature of the Fund Balance.

7.0 NOTE 4. CASH AND OTHER MONETARY ASSETS

*7.1 General Information

Disclose the nature and reasons for any restrictions on cash and other monetary assets. Note non-entity cash is always restricted cash.

7.2 Reporting

7.2.1. Cash. Cash consists of: coins, paper currency, and readily negotiable instruments, such as money orders, checks, and bank drafts on hand or in transit for deposit; amounts on demand deposit with banks or other financial institutions, including nonconfirmed collections and disbursements; investments held outside of Treasury; and foreign currencies, which will be converted into U.S. dollars at the exchange rate on the financial statement date. Cash available for reporting entity use includes petty cash, and cash held in revolving funds, not transferred into the General Fund of the Treasury.

7.2.2. Foreign Currency. The total U.S. dollar equivalent of nonpurchased foreign currencies held in foreign currency fund accounts.

7.2.3. Other Monetary Assets. Report other monetary assets not reported on other lines.

7.2.4. Other Information. Provide additional information needed to understand the nature of cash and other monetary assets. Disclose any restrictions on cash and the dollar amount. Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 2 and SFFAS 1, “Accounting for Selected Assets and Liabilities,” paragraphs 27 and 30, and SFFAS 3, paragraphs 59 to 61 and 65 to 66 for information related to restricted cash. Components report entity assets and non-entity assets under an entity’s custody or management in the financial statements, except for non-entity assets meeting definition of fiduciary assets, which are not recognized on the Balance Sheet, but disclosed in accordance with the provisions of SFFAS 31.

7.2.5. Disclose any restrictions on the use or conversion of foreign currencies. If there are no restrictions on cash or the use or conversion of foreign currencies, include a statement in the narrative disclosing that there are no restrictions. The Total Cash and Other Monetary Assets must equal the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.
8.0 NOTE 5. INVESTMENTS

8.1 General Information

8.1.1. Disclose the reporting entity’s investments in federal securities. Investments in federal securities include market-based U.S. Treasury securities issued by Fiscal Service. Investments are normally reported on the Balance Sheet at their par value or acquisition cost, adjusted for the amortization of the premium or discount recorded at the time of acquisition. The Total Intragovernmental and Non-Federal Investments must equal the amounts reported on the Balance Sheet.

8.1.2. Net Investments are equal to Cost, plus Amortized (Premium)/Discount. Securities are normally recognized at amortized cost on the Balance Sheet. However, use market value for Balance Sheet purposes when: (a) there is intent to sell the securities before maturity; and (b) there is a reduction in value that is more than temporary, in which case market value should be used (except for pension and retirement plans). Refer to SFFAS 1, paragraphs 68-73. Other investments are comprised of investments of funds with developers of family housing as related to the Military Housing Privatization Initiative.

*8.2 Reporting

8.2.1. Non-Marketable, Market-Based Intragovernmental Securities. Non-marketable, market-based U.S. Treasury securities are not traded on any securities exchange, but mirror the prices of marketable securities with similar terms. All investments maintained by the Defense Finance and Accounting Service Trust Fund Accounting Office are non-marketable, market-based U.S. Treasury securities (e.g., DoD Education Benefits Fund and Military Retirement Fund). Refer to SFFAS 1 for required non-marketable, market-based U.S. Treasury security disclosures.

8.2.2. Accrued Interest. The amount of interest accrued on intragovernmental investment securities, but not received as of the date of the statements.

8.2.3. Non-Federal Investments. The Military Family Housing Revitalization Act of 1996 provides for the DoD Family Housing Improvement Fund. The legislation permits investment of funds into ventures with developers to provide family housing. For example, the ventures will be real estate ventures, rent differential payments, investment in limited partnerships, and investments in equity or debt instruments related to family housing. Additionally, provide a description of the accounting method used and the amount of cash and non-cash assets conveyed to the venture. For non-federal investments, disclose in a table the fair value measurements hierarchy classification (Levels 1, 2, 3, or Other) by investments type: held-to-maturity, available-for-sale, or trading securities. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for disclosure requirements.

8.2.3.1. Level 1 reflects the unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets that the reporting entity can access at the measurement date.
8. 2.3.2. Level 2 reflects inputs other than quoted prices in Level 1 that are directly or indirectly observable for the asset.

8. 2.3.3. Level 3 reflects unobservable inputs for the asset.

8. 2.3.4. Other reflects the investments that are measured at fair value using the net asset value per share of the investment and have not been categorized in the fair value hierarchy; for these amounts, provide a description of securities.

8.2.3.5. Reporting entities must also disclose a reconciliation of investment activity for non-Federal securities. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for an illustration.

8.2.4. Other Information. Disclose any additional information relative to understanding the nature of reported investments, such as permanent impairments, and any securities that have been reclassified as securities available for sale or early redemption.

9.0 NOTE 6. ACCOUNTS RECEIVABLE, NET

*9.1 General Information

Present the gross receivables, the allowance for uncollectible accounts, and the net amount due. Disclose the method used to estimate the allowance. Pursuant to SFFAS 1 and Technical Bulletin 2020-I, Loss Allowance for Intragovernmental Receivables, agencies are required to recognize any allowance for loss on intragovernmental accounts receivable. The amount represented in this note includes both entity and non-entity receivables. Do not include receivables related to direct or guaranteed loans. Report these amounts in Note 7, “Loans Receivable, Net and Loan Guarantee Liabilities.”

9.2 Reporting

9.2.1. Intragovernmental Receivables. Intragovernmental Accounts Receivable, Net must equal the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

9.2.2. Non-Federal Receivables (From the Public). Non-Federal encompasses domestic and foreign persons and organizations outside the U.S. Government. Non-Federal Accounts Receivable, Net must equal the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

9.2.3. Criminal Restitution. Disclose criminal restitution balances separately if the amount is material to the entity, including the gross amount of receivables related to criminal restitution orders monitored by the agency and the estimate of NRV determined to be collectible for criminal restitution orders monitored by the agency.

9.2.4. Other Information. Disclose the method used to estimate the allowance for uncollectible accounts and the net amount due. Disclose any other information needed to understand the nature of the accounts receivable.
10.0 NOTE 7. LOANS RECEIVABLE, NET AND LOAN GUARANTEE LIABILITIES

10.1 General Information

10.1.1.1. Loans Receivable, Net. Loans are reported at the net present value of the following projected cash flows: loan disbursements, repayments of principal, payments of interest, recoveries, proceeds of asset sales, and other payments over the life of the loan after adjusting for estimated defaults, prepayments, fees, penalties, and other recoveries.

10.1.1.2. Loan Guarantee Liabilities. Report these liabilities at the net present value. The cost of the loan guarantee is the net present value of the following estimated projected cash flows: payments by DoD to cover defaults and delinquencies; interest subsidies, or other payments offset by payments to DoD including origination; and other fees, penalties, and recoveries.

10.1.2. Pre-1992 Direct Loans and Loan Guarantees. Disclose whether Pre-1992 direct loans and loan guarantees are reported under the present value method, or are reported under the allowance for loss method. DoD has elected to report Pre-1992 direct loans and loan guarantees using the allowance for loss method. See SFFAS 2 for additional information on the present value and allowance methods.

10.1.2.1. Note Format. Depending on the reporting method selected by management, agencies must choose the appropriated note format, which includes the net present value method or the allowance for loss method.

10.1.2.2. Changing Reporting Methods. Changing from one method to the other is not permitted without the advance approval of OMB. If a reporting entity needs guidance related to Pre-1992 direct loans or loan guarantees, contact the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller), Office of the Deputy CFO. The reporting entity discloses that their loans receivable, net, or their value of assets related to direct loans, is not the same as the proceeds they would expect to receive from selling their loans.
10.1.3. Payments Made on Behalf of Borrowers. When the reporting entity has made payments on behalf of borrowers (which should be collected from the borrowers), the resulting receivables must be reported in the same column as loans receivable for either direct loans or defaulted guaranteed loans.

10.1.4. Direct Loan or Loan Guarantee Programs. The names of the direct loans and loan guarantee programs operated by the reporting entity. An example of a DoD direct loan program is the Military Housing Privatization Initiative (MHPI).

10.1.5. Other Information. Disclose events and changes in economic conditions, other risk factors, legislation, credit policies, and subsidy estimation methodologies and assumptions that: (a) have had a significant and measurable effect on subsidy rates, subsidy expense, and subsidy re-estimates; and (b) are events and changes in conditions that have occurred and are more likely than not to have a significant impact, but the effects of which are not measurable at the reporting date.

10.2 Summary of Direct Loans and Loan Guarantees.

Summarize the total amounts for loans receivable and loan guarantee liability reported in Note 7. The Total Loans Receivable, Net must agree with the amount reported on the Balance Sheet. The Total Loan Guarantee Liability must agree with the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

Report the Loans Receivable Gross, the Interest Receivable, the estimated NRV of related Foreclosed Property, the Allowance for Subsidy Cost (Present Value), and the Value of Assets Related to Direct Loans, Net.

10.3.1. Total Direct Loans Receivable. The amount must agree with the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

10.3.2. Other Information. For foreclosed property resulting from credit reform activities, refer to OMB Circular A-136 for required disclosures.

10.3.3. Additional Instructions for Foreclosed Property. Value foreclosed property associated with Post-1991 direct loans at the net present value of the projected cash flows. Refer to Section 86 of OMB Circular A-11 for policy related to reporting foreclosed property.
10.4 Total Amount of Direct Loans Disbursed (Post-1991).

Disclose the amount of direct loans disbursed for each program the reporting entity manages. Currently, DoD has one direct loan program that disburses direct loans, the MHPI. Provide other information related to direct loans disbursed necessary to understand the nature of the loans.

10.5 Subsidy Expense for New Direct Loan Programs by Component.

10.5.1. Subsidy Expense for New Direct Loans Disbursed – Current FY. Report the following amounts in separate columns: present value amount of the current FY’s subsidy expense attributable to the interest rate differential between the interest rate charged to the borrowers and the discount rate used to calculate the present value of the direct loans and the subsidy costs, present value of the estimated delinquencies and defaults (net of recoveries) for the current FY, present value of the estimated fees and other collections (offsetting expense) for the current FY, present value of other cash flows for the current FY, including prepayments and proceeds of loan asset sales. Report the total amount of the separate columns.

10.5.2. Subsidy Expense for New Direct Loans Disbursed – Prior FY. Report the following amounts in separate columns: present value amount of the prior FY’s subsidy expense attributable to the interest rate differential between the interest rate charged to the borrowers and the discount rate used to calculate the present value of the direct loans and the subsidy costs, present value of the estimated delinquencies and defaults (net of recoveries) for the prior FY, present value of the estimated fees and other collections (offsetting expense) for the prior FY, present value of other cash flows for the prior FY, including prepayments and proceeds of loan asset sales. Report the total amount of the separate columns.

10.5.3. Direct Loan Modifications and Re-estimates – Current FY. Report the following amounts in separate columns: subsidy cost of modifications of direct loans previously disbursed, subsidy cost for interest rate re-estimates which are due to a change in interest rates from the rate assumed in budget preparation and used in calculating the subsidy expense to the rates that are prevailing at the time the direct loan is disbursed, subsidy cost for technical re-estimates which are due to changes made in projected cash flows under the terms of direct loans after reevaluating all the risk factors as of the financial statement date, except for the effect of interest rate re-estimates.; Report the total amount of the separate columns.

10.5.4. Other Information. Identify other information related to direct loan subsidy expense for Post-1991 direct programs. If modifications were made, explain the nature of the modifications, the discount rate used in calculating the expense, and the basis for recognizing a gain or loss related to the modifications. Also, if appropriate, disclose that the subsidy expense resulting from re-estimates that is included in the financial statements is not reported in the budget until the following year.

10.6 Subsidy Rates for Direct Loans by Program and Component.

Disclose the budget subsidy rates estimated for the cohorts of the current reporting year. Disclose the subsidy rate for the following components: interest differential costs; default costs.
(net of recoveries); fees and other collections; and other costs. These estimated subsidy rates for direct loans are in the current FY’s budget ("President’s Budget").

10.6.1. Budget Subsidy Rates for Direct Loans for the CY Cohorts. These rates must be consistent with rates published in the Direct Loans: Assumptions Underlying the FY Subsidy Estimates Table contained in the Federal Credit Supplement to the Budget of the U.S. Government.

10.6.2. Relevant Information for Comprehension. Subsidy rates pertain to the loan agreements contracted during the current FY. Do not apply these rates to the direct loans disbursed during the current reporting year to yield the subsidy expense. The subsidy expense for new loans disbursed in the current FY could result from disbursement of loans from both current and prior FY loan agreements. The subsidy expense reported in the current FY also includes modifications and re-estimates.

10.6.3. Subsidy Rate Amount. Each subsidy rate is the dollar amount of the total subsidy or a subsidy component as a percentage of the direct loans obligated in the cohort year. Entities are encouraged to use trend data to display significant fluctuations in subsidy rates. Trend data, if used, includes an analysis to explain the underlying causes for the fluctuations.

10.7.1. Reconciliation. Display the reconciliation between the beginning and ending balances of the subsidy cost allowance for outstanding direct loans reported in the reporting entity’s Balance Sheet. The reconciliation is required for direct loans obligated on or after October 1, 1991, the effective date of the FCRA. Reporting entities are encouraged, but not required, to display reconciliations for direct loans obligated prior to October 1, 1991, in schedules separate from the direct loans obligated after September 30, 1991. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for illustration.

10.7.2. Subsidy Expense. Report the components of subsidy expense for direct loans: Interest Rate Differential Costs; Default Costs (Net of Recoveries); Fees and Other Collections; and Other Subsidy Costs. Total the components of subsidy expense for direct loans.

10.7.3. Adjustments. Report the adjustments separately for direct loans: Loan Modifications, Fees Received; Foreclosed Property Acquired; Loans Written Off; Subsidy Allowance Amortization; and Other Adjustments.

10.7.4. Re-estimates. Report the Interest Rate Re-estimate and Technical/Default Re-estimate for direct loans. Total the re-estimates for direct loans as reported in the Modification and Re-estimates table for the CY.
10.8 Defaulted Guaranteed Loans from Post-1991 Guarantees.

Report the defaulted loan guarantees for applicable credit reform programs. If the reporting entity does not have defaulted guaranteed loans, state “There were no defaulted loan guarantees” after the note number and title.

10.8.1. Loan Guarantee Programs. Report the: Defaulted Guaranteed Loans Receivable, Gross; Interest Receivable; the estimated value of related Foreclosed Property; the Allowance for Subsidy Cost (Present Value); and the Value of Assets Related to Defaulted Guaranteed Loans Receivable, Net.

10.8.2. Other Information. For foreclosed property resulting from credit reform activities, refer to OMB Circular A-136 for required disclosures.

10.8.3. Additional Instructions for Foreclosed Property. Value foreclosed property associated with Post-1991 direct and acquired defaulted guaranteed loans at the net present value of the projected cash flows associated with the property. At the time of foreclosure, foreclosed property may be recorded at the estimated NRV if the differences do not meet the materiality threshold identified in the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance. A portion of the related allowance for subsidy account applies to the foreclosed property, but that amount need not be separately determined. Rather, subtract the allowance account from the sum of the credit program assets to determine the net present value of the assets.

10.9 Guaranteed Loans Outstanding.

10.9.1. Guaranteed Loans Outstanding. Present the outstanding amount of guaranteed loans for each loan guarantee program. For each guaranteed loan outstanding, report the face value of outstanding principal of guaranteed loans disbursed by a third party. In an additional column, report the guaranteed amount of the outstanding principal. Identify other information related to guaranteed loans outstanding necessary to understand the nature of the loan.

10.9.2. New Guaranteed Loans Disbursed. For each new guaranteed loan disbursed, report the face value of principal of guaranteed loans. Separately, report the guaranteed amount of principal within the same table. Identify other information related to new guaranteed loans disbursed necessary to understand the nature of the loan.

10.10 Liability for Loan Guarantees.

For each program with Post-FY 1991 loan guarantees, report the present value of the estimated net cash flows (outflows less inflows), to be paid by the entity because of the loan guarantees. Present the liabilities for loan guarantees for each loan guarantee program.

10.10.1. Programs. Report the present value of current and prior FY estimated net cash flows (outflows less inflows) to be paid because of loan guarantees.
10.10.2. Other Information. Identify other information necessary to understand the nature of the loan guarantee liability.

10.11 Subsidy Expense for Loan Guarantees by Program and Component.

Report the estimated cash flows (on a present value basis) for the various subsidy expense components of the loan guarantee programs. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for illustrations.

10.11.1. Subsidy Expense for New Loan Guarantees – Current FY. Disclose the following amounts in separate columns: present value of the amount of the interest supplements, present value of the estimated payments for defaults on loan guarantees (net of recoveries), present value of the estimated fees and other collections (offsetting expense), present value of other cash flows. Report the total amount of the separate columns.

10.11.2. Subsidy Expense for New Loan Guarantees – Prior FY. Disclose the following amounts in separate: present value of the amount of the interest supplements, present value of the estimated payments for defaults on loan guarantees (net of recoveries), present value of the estimated fees and other collections (offsetting expense), present value of other cash flows. Report the total amount of the separate columns.

10.11.3. Modifications and Re-estimates – Current FY. Disclose the following amounts in separate columns: subsidy expense for modifications of loan guarantees in guaranteed loans previously disbursed by a third party (whether Pre-1992 or Post-1991), interest rate re-estimates, and technical re-estimates of the subsidy expense for loan guarantees, previously committed, by components. Report the total amount of the separate columns.

10.11.4. Total Loan Guarantee Subsidy Expense. Disclose CY and PY in separate columns. Present total subsidy expense for the loan guarantees, modifications, and re-estimates.

10.11.5. Other Information. Identify other relevant information for loan guarantee programs subsidy expenses. If modifications were made, explain the nature of the modifications, the discount rate used in calculating the expense, and the basis for recognizing a gain or loss related to the modifications. Also, if appropriate, disclose that the subsidy expense resulting from re-estimates that is included in the financial statements is not reported in the budget until the following year.

10.12 Subsidy Rates for Loan Guarantees by Program and Component.

Report information on the subsidy rates for loan guarantees. Disclose the estimated subsidy rates for the following components: Interest Supplement costs; Default costs (net of recoveries); Fees and Other Collections; and Other costs. These estimated subsidy rates for loan guarantees are in the current FY’s budget (President’s Budget).

10.12.1. Subsidy Rates. Subsidy rates must be consistent with rates published in the Loan Guarantees: Assumptions Underlying the (FY) Subsidy Estimates table, contained in the Federal Credit Supplement to the Budget of the U.S. Government, which is a supporting document to the budget. Refer to the Federal Credit Supplement to the Budget of the U.S. Government for current guidance pertaining to subsidy estimates for loan guarantees.

10.12.2. Subsidy Rate Amount. Each subsidy rate is the dollar amount of the total subsidy or a subsidy component as a percentage of the guaranteed loans obligated. Entities may use trend data to display significant fluctuations in subsidy rates. Such trend data, if used, includes an analysis to explain the underlying causes for the fluctuations.

10.12.3. Subsidy Rate Applicability. The subsidy rates disclosed pertain only to the current FY’s cohorts. Do not apply these rates to the guarantees of loans disbursed during the current reporting year to yield the subsidy expense. The subsidy expense for new loan guarantees reported in the current FY could result from disbursements of loans from both current FY cohorts and prior FY(s) cohorts. The subsidy expense reported in the current FY also includes modifications and re-estimates.

10.13 Schedule for Reconciling Loan Guarantee Liability Balances (Post-1991 Loan Guarantees).

Display the reconciliation between the beginning and ending balances of the liability for outstanding loan guarantees reported in each entity’s Balance Sheet based upon the following instructions. The reconciliation is required for loan guarantees committed on or after October 1, 1991, the effective date of the FCRA. Reporting entities are encouraged, but not required, to display reconciliations for loan guarantees committed prior to October 1, 1991, in schedules separate from the loan guarantees committed after September 30, 1991. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for required disclosures.

10.14 Administrative Expense.

Report the portion of salaries and other administrative expenses that have been accounted for in support of the direct loan and loan guarantee programs.

10.15 Loans Receivable Roll forward.

Loans receivable and defaulted guarantee loans receivable must report a summary table that shows the change in net receivables. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for required disclosures.

11.0 NOTE 8. INVENTORY AND RELATED PROPERTY, NET

11.1 General Information

Volume 4, Chapter 4 contains more complete information on inventory valuation methods.
Valuation methods shown are those used by DoD, but may be specific to a particular organization or type of organization. Information for the inventory disclosures are identified in SFFAS 3. Also, reference SFFAS 48, “Opening Balances for Inventory, Operating Materials and Supplies, and Stockpile Materials” for alternative inventory valuation methods for the establishment of opening balances.
11.1.1. Inventory, Operating Materials and Supplies, and Stockpile Materials Opening Balances. SFFAS 48 allows a reporting entity, under specific conditions, to apply alternative methods in establishing opening balances for Inventory, OM&S, and Stockpile Materials. Deemed cost is an acceptable valuation method to establish opening balances of Inventory, OM&S, and Stockpile Materials.

11.1.2. Disclose the use of deemed cost in the first year the entity uses deemed cost to value assets for its opening balances and in any subsequent year those financial statements are presented for comparative purposes. The disclosure should describe the deemed cost methods used, and in the first year presented, the effect on relevant balances.

11.1.3. Account for inventory, OM&S, and Stockpile Materials after opening balances in accordance with SFFAS 3.

11.2 Inventory and Related Property, Net

Include the total amounts of Inventories and Related Property reported in Inventory, OM&S, and Stockpile Material in Note 8. The Total Inventory and Related Property, Net must agree with the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

11.3 Inventory, Net

Inventory categories include: held for sale; held in reserve for future sale; held for repair; raw materials; work-in-process; and excess, obsolete, and unserviceable.

11.3.1. Valuation. Disclose the following for each category of inventory: the gross amount recorded in the inventory system; the revaluation allowance for holding gains (losses) on inventory, if any; the net book value of the inventory (gross inventory plus revaluation allowance; and the valuation method used). The revaluation allowance represents adjustments to the gross inventory, in accordance with the applicable valuation methodology.

11.3.2. Valuation Method. Enter the code for the valuation method: Latest Acquisition Cost adjusted for holding gains and losses; NRV; and MAC.

11.3.3. Held for Sale. Report inventory that is held for sale, which includes consumable spare and repair parts, and repairable items owned and managed by DoD. This inventory includes materiel held due to a managerial determination to retain these items to support military or national contingencies.

11.3.4. Held in Reserve for Future Sale. Report the cost or value of tangible personal property held in reserve for future sale including inventory held for future sale because it is not readily available or will be needed.

11.3.5. Held for Repair. Report inventory held for repair, which includes damaged inventory that requires repairs to make it suitable for sale. DoD often relies on weapon systems and machinery no longer in production and encourages the repair and rebuilding of certain items.
Report inventory identified as unserviceable, but not reviewed to determine its reparability, as held for repair. When an assessment has been conducted, and it has been determined that it is not economically feasible to repair the item, the item must be reported as excess, obsolete, and unserviceable.

11.3.6. Raw Materials. Report the raw material inventory that is used as a component part of inventory.

11.3.7. Work-In-Process. Report inventory that is work-in-process, which includes costs related to the production or servicing of items, including direct material, direct labor, applied overhead, and other direct costs. This may also be used to accumulate the amount paid to a contractor under cost reimbursable contracts, including the amount withheld from payment to ensure performance, and the amount paid to other government plants for accrued costs of end items of material ordered but not delivered. Also, report work-in-process at depot maintenance activities.

11.3.8. Excess, Obsolete, and Unserviceable Inventory. Report inventory estimated to be potentially excess, obsolete, or beyond economic repair. Excess, obsolete, and unserviceable inventory must be valued at its expected NRV. Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 4 regarding the use of the NRV for excess inventory.

11.3.9. Total Inventory, Net. The total amount of Inventory, Net must equal the amount reported on the Inventory, Net line Note 8 (the summary note for Inventory and Related Property, Net).

11.3.10. Definitions of Inventory Gross Value, Revaluation Allowance, and Inventory, Net Columns. Inventory, Gross Value represents the standard value used for inventory transactions in the financial system. Revaluation Allowance represents the difference between standard inventory values and either historical cost or NRV. Inventory, Net is approximate historical cost or NRV. Valuation Method is the applicable valuation methodology used to arrive at the net inventory value.

11.3.11. Other Information (Related to Inventory). Disclose other information for the inventory component of the Inventory and Related Property line item on the reporting entity’s Balance Sheet.

11.4 Operating Material & Supplies, Net

OM&S include spare and repair parts, ammunition, tactical missiles, aircraft configuration pods, and centrally managed aircraft engines. OM&S categories include held for use; held in reserve for future use; held for repair; in development; and excess, obsolete, and unserviceable.

11.4.1. Valuation. Disclose the following for each category of OM&S: gross amount reported in the inventory system; revaluation allowance for gains (losses) on OM&S, if any; net book value (gross amount plus allowance for gains (losses)); and valuation method used. The revaluation allowance, represent the adjustment to the recorded value to arrive at the historical cost.

11.4.2. Held for Use. Report OM&S held for use balances which include all issuable materiel.

11.4.3. Held in Reserve for Future Use. Report OM&S held in reserve for future use balances representing the cost or value of tangible personal property, held in reserve because it is not readily available or because it will be needed.

11.4.4. Held for Repair. Report OM&S held for repair, which includes all economically repairable materiel. OM&S that has been identified as unserviceable, but not yet reviewed to determine its reparation, must be reported as held for repair. When an assessment has been conducted, and it has been determined that it is not economically feasible to repair the item, then the item must be reported as excess, obsolete, and unserviceable.

11.4.5. In Development. Report the cost incurred or value of tangible personal property, such as OM&S in development that will be consumed in normal operations upon completion of development.

11.4.6. Excess, Obsolete, and Unserviceable. Report OM&S estimated to be potentially excess, obsolete, or beyond economic repair. Value excess, obsolete, and unserviceable OM&S at their expected NRV. Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 4 regarding the use of the NRV for excess OM&S.

11.4.7. Total OM&S, Net. The total amount of OM&S, Net must equal the amount reported on the OM&S, Net line of Note 8 (the summary note for Inventory and Related Property, Net).

11.4.8. Valuation Method. Enter the code for the valuation method. Direct Method; Historical Cost; Replacement Price; Standard Price; NRV; and MAC

11.4.9. Other Information (Related to OM&S). Disclose other information for the OM&S component of the Inventory and Related Property line item on the entity’s Balance Sheet.

11.5 Stockpile Material, Net

11.5.1. Stockpile Material. Report the amount of strategic and critical materials held due to statutory requirements for use in national defense, conservation, or national emergencies.

11.5.1.1. The stockpile material categories are “Held for Sale” and “Held in Reserve for Future Sale.” Stockpile material is strategic and critical material, held due to statutory requirements, for use in national defense, conservation, or national emergencies. All material held by the National Defense Stockpile is classified as held in reserve for future sale until congressional action declares the material no longer required to be stockpiled, and available for sale on the open market. When the authorization to offer material for sale is received, the material is reclassified to held for sale.

11.5.1.2. Disposals cannot be made from the stockpile except for: (1) necessary upgrading, refining, or processing; (2) necessary rotation to prevent deterioration; (3) determination as excess with potential financial loss if retained; or (4) as authorized by law.

11.5.2. Valuation. For each category of Stockpile Material, disclose the amount reported in the logistics system allowance for gains (losses) on stockpile material, if any, and the net book value of stockpile material.

11.5.3. Valuation Method. Enter the code for the valuation method: MAC.

11.5.4. Total Stockpile Material. The total amount of Stockpile Material amount equal the amount reported on Stockpile Material, Net line of Note 8 (the summary note for Inventory and Related Property).

11.5.5. Other Information (Related to Stockpile Material). Disclose other information for the Stockpile Material component of the Inventory and Related Property, Net line item on the Balance Sheet.

12.0 NOTE 9. GENERAL PROPERTY, PLANT, AND EQUIPMENT, NET

12.1 General Information

12.1.2. Depreciation/Amortization Method. Report the depreciation or amortization method used: Straight Line (S/L) or not applicable. See Volume 4 for information on how to calculate depreciation using the S/L method.

12.1.4. Acquisition Value. Report the acquisition costs or estimated values by Major Asset Class.

For assets under capital lease, report the lesser of the present value or the fair value of the asset. The present value will be calculated, using either the lessor’s implicit rate or the U.S.
Treasury borrowing rate of the rental or other lease payments during the lease term, and will exclude that portion of the payments representing executory costs paid to the lessor. Include a cross-reference to Note 16, “Leases,” for additional information on capital leases.

12.1.5. Accumulated Depreciation/Amortization. Report the accumulated depreciation/amortization through the current reporting period, by Major Asset Class.

12.1.8. General PP&E Opening Balances. SFFAS 50 allows a reporting entity, under specific conditions, to apply alternative methods in establishing opening balances for General PP&E. DoD’s alternative methods include: using deemed cost to establish opening balances of General PP&E, selecting between deemed cost and prospective capitalization of internal use software, and allowing an exclusion of land and land rights from opening balances with disclosure and acreage information and expensing of future acquisitions.

12.1.8.1. Disclose the use of deemed costs in the first year the entity uses deemed costs to value assets for its opening balances and in any subsequent year those financial statements are presented for comparative purposes. The disclosure should describe the deemed cost methods used, and in the first year presented, the effect on relevant balances.

12.1.8.2. Account for general equipment and real property after opening balances in accordance with SFFAS 6.

12.1.9. Other Information. Disclose in the narrative sections of this note other relevant information for the General PP&E line item on the reporting entity’s Balance Sheet.

12.1.9.1. Adjustments. If adjustments are required to existing PP&E in the period the standards are implemented, in order to comply with the recognition and measurement criteria, record and disclose the adjustments by Major Asset Class in accordance with the standard.

12.1.9.2. General Disclosures Related to General PP&E. Disclose the required information pertaining to General PP&E, such as: (a) restrictions on the use or convertibility of General PP&E (e.g., outside the continental U.S. real property) or a statement disclosing there are no restrictions; (b) capitalization thresholds, including any changes in thresholds during the period; and (c) adjustments from changes in the accounting standards. If the acquisition cost is unknown for certain types or significant amounts of General PP&E, DoD Components must disclose the valuation method used to estimate the value reported. Disclosures reported under Note 1 of Significant Accounting Policies must not be repeated in this note.

12.2 Stewardship PP&E
Stewardship PP&E assets include Heritage Assets and Stewardship Land. Disclose, if applicable, the following:

12.2.1. If the cost of Heritage Assets and stewardship land transferred from other federal entities is not known, the receiving entity must disclose the number of physical units by major category. Do not recognize Heritage Assets and stewardship land acquired through donation or devise as a cost in calculating net cost, but disclose the fair value of the property. If the fair value is not known or reasonably estimable, disclose information related to the type and quantity of assets received.

12.2.2. Disclose any amounts expensed during the current period in the Statement of Net Cost (SNC) for the costs of acquiring, constructing, improving, reconstructing, or renovating Heritage Assets (other than Multi-Use Heritage Assets), and the cost of acquiring stewardship land and any costs to prepare a stewardship asset for its intended use. If the accounting system does not provide the necessary information to make the required disclosure for all or part of these expenses, the reporting entity must make the following disclosure to recognize the weakness and to disclose the portion of the expenses that are known. (If no portion of the expenses is known, include only the first sentence of the disclosure.)

12.2.3. Disclose that the reporting entity’s accounting system does not capture information relative to Heritage Assets separately and distinctly from normal operations. Where it was able to separate the cost of acquiring, constructing, improving, reconstructing, or renovating Heritage Assets, the reporting entity identified the dollar amount for the FY.

12.3 Heritage Assets

Heritage Assets are items of historical, natural significance, cultural, educational, or artistic (e.g., aesthetic) importance, or items with significant architectural characteristics. Heritage Assets are expected to be preserved indefinitely. SFFAS 29, “Heritage Assets and Stewardship Land,” requires entities with Stewardship PP&E to reference a note on the Balance Sheet where required disclosures relative to these assets are contained. Rather than a separate note, DoD discloses Heritage Assets with the General PP&E note.

12.3.1. Reporting. Reporting entities will disclose the beginning counts, additions, deletions, and ending counts of their Heritage Assets, by category for the period presented. Disclose the quantity of Multi-Use Heritage Assets (i.e., Heritage Asset buildings used predominantly for government operations) in the schedule.

12.3.2. Categories. Report balances for Heritage Assets within the following categories.

12.3.2.1. Buildings and Structures. Building and Structures include buildings and structures listed on, or eligible for listing on, the National Register of Historic Places, including Multi-Use Heritage Assets. This category also includes National Historic Landmarks; buildings or structures that are contributing elements to districts listed on, or eligible for, the National Register of Historic Places or a National Historic Landmark District; and buildings and structures designated eligible in the National Register of Historic Places for purposes of program alternatives.

12.3.2.2. Archeological Sites. Archeological Sites include sites identified, evaluated, and determined to be eligible for, or are listed on, the National Register of Historic Places.

12.3.2.3. Museum Collection Items. Museum Collection Items include items that are unique for one or more of the following reasons: historical or natural significance; cultural, educational, or artistic importance; or significant, technical, or architectural characteristics. Divide museum collection items into two subcategories: fine art and objects. Fine art includes paintings, sculptures, and other three dimensional art. Objects are current use, excess, obsolete, or condemned material; war trophies; personal property, such as uniforms, medals, or diaries; and military equipment.

12.3.3. Disclosures. Include the disclosures for Heritage Assets identified in OMB Circular A-136.

12.3.4. Year-End Reporting. Report deferred maintenance and repair information regarding Heritage Assets in Required Supplementary Information at year-end only.

12.4 Stewardship Land

Stewardship land is land and land rights owned by the Federal Government, but not acquired for or in connection with, items of General PP&E. “Acquired for or in connection with” is defined as including land acquired with the intent to construct General PP&E and land acquired in combination with General PP&E. Each DoD Component responsible for such land will report land classified as stewardship land. Without exception, classify all land provided to the Department from the public domain or at no cost as stewardship land, regardless of its use. SFFAS 29 requires entities with Stewardship PP&E to reference a note on the Balance Sheet where required disclosures relative to these assets are contained. Rather than a separate note, DoD discloses stewardship land within the General PP&E note.

12.4.1. Reporting. Reporting entities will disclose the beginning counts, additions, deletions, and ending counts of their stewardship land, by category. Report the facility numbers and category descriptions. DoD Instruction (DoDI) 4165.14, “Real Property Inventory and Forecasting,” identifies the predominant categories authorized for use.

12.4.1.1. Government Owned Land (Facility Number 9110) and State Owned Land (Facility Number 9111) is land held in public trust and will be reported as stewardship land;

12.4.1.2. Withdrawn Public Land (Facility Number 9120) is land held in public trust and will be reported as stewardship land;

12.4.1.3. Licensed and Permitted Land (Facility Number 9130) are interests and privileges held by the entity in land owned by others and will be reported as other land;
12.4.1.4. Public Land (Facility Number 9140) is land held in public trust and will be reported as stewardship land;

12.4.1.5. Land Easement (Facility Number 9210) are interests and privileges held by the entity in land owned by others and will be reported as stewardship land;

12.4.1.6. In-leased Land (Facility Number 9220) are interests and privileges held by the entity in land owned by others and will be reported as stewardship land; and 12.4.1.7. Foreign Land (Facility Number 9230) are interests and privileges held by the entity in land in foreign countries and will be reported as stewardship land.

12.4.2. Disclosures. Include the disclosures for stewardship land identified in OMB Circular A-136.

*12.5 Summary of Activity

To support the Financial Report of the United States Governmental compilation process, present a summary of activity reconciliation. The following categories must be included in the reconciliation: Balance beginning of year, Capitalized acquisitions, Dispositions, Transfers in/out without reimbursement, Revaluations, Depreciation expense, Donations, Other, and Balance end of year. The General PP&E, Net end of year must agree with the amounts on the reporting entity’s Balance Sheet.

13.0 NOTE 10. OTHER ASSETS

13.1 General Information

Report the amount of Other Assets not included elsewhere on the Balance Sheet. Other Assets also include General PP&E assets that are no longer operations, but have not yet been disposed of or removed from service.

13.2 Reporting

13.2.1. Intragovernmental Other Assets. Separately categorize the intragovernmental other assets.

13.2.1.1. Advances and Prepayments. Include advances and prepayments to other federal entities.

13.2.1.2. Other Assets. Include other assets categorized as federal.

13.2.1.3. Total Intragovernmental Other Assets. The total amount must match the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.
13.2.2. Other than Intragovernmental Assets. Separately categorize the non-federal other assets.

13.2.2.1. Outstanding Contract Financing Payments. Include contract financing payments, classified as advances, as defined in Volume 4, Chapter 5.

13.2.2.2. Advances and Prepayments. Include advances and prepayments categorized as non-federal.

13.2.2.3. Other Assets. Include other assets categorized as non-federal.

13.2.2.4. Subtotal. The subtotal amount includes the preceding lines. This subtotal is specific for DoD for presentation purposes.

13.2.2.5. Less: Outstanding Contract Financing Payments and Advances and Prepayments totaled and presented on the Balance Sheet as Advances and Prepayments. This line is specific to DoD for presentation purposes and to illustrate the reconciliation to the Balance Sheet.

13.2.2.6. Net Other than Intragovernmental. The net amount for non-federal other assets must match the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

13.2.3. Information Related to Other Assets. Identify other relevant information for other assets reported on the Balance Sheet.

14.0 NOTE 11. LIABILITIES NOT COVERED BY BUDGETARY RESOURCES

14.1 General Information

Report the Liabilities Not Covered by Budgetary Resources, liabilities for which congressional action is needed before budgetary resources can be provided. The Total Liabilities must equal the amount reported on the reporting entity’s Balance Sheet.

14.2 Reporting

14.2.1. Liabilities Not Covered by Budgetary Resources. Report the amounts of intragovernmental liabilities not covered by budgetary resources for Accounts Payable; Debt; and Other Liabilities. Report the sum of intragovernmental liabilities. Report the amounts of other than intragovernmental liabilities not covered by budgetary resources for Accounts Payable; Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable; Environmental and Disposal Liabilities; and Other Liabilities.

14.2.3. Liabilities Covered by Budgetary Resources. Report the total amount of liabilities covered by budgetary resources. Budgetary resources include: (1) new budget authority; (2) spending authority from offsetting collections; (3) recoveries of unexpired budget authority through downward adjustments of prior FY obligations; and (4) unobligated balances of budgetary resources at the beginning of the year or net transfers of prior FY balances during the year; and
(5) permanent indefinite appropriations or borrowing authority, which have been enacted and signed into law as of the Balance Sheet date, provided that the resources may be apportioned by OMB without further action by the Congress or without a contingency first having to be met.

14.2.4. Liabilities Not Requiring Budgetary Resources. Report the total amount of liabilities not requiring budgetary resources. Amounts represent liabilities that have not been required in the past and will not require the use of budgetary resources in the future. Examples of liabilities not requiring budgetary resources include liabilities for clearing accounts, non-fiduciary deposit funds, custodial collections, and unearned revenue.

14.2.5. Information Related to Liabilities Not Covered by Budgetary Resources. Provide other information needed to understand the nature of liabilities not covered by budgetary resources.
All entities reporting a balance on Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable must disclose the nature that comprise various employee actuarial liabilities not due and payable during the current FY. Refer to Note 13, “Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable,” for additional disclosures.

15.0 NOTE 12. DEBT

15.1 General Information

Report the net amount of debt. Agency Debt (Intragovernmental) includes debt issued under special financing authorities (e.g. Federal Housing Administration debentures and Tennessee Valley Authority bonds), with agency debt held by Government agencies reported separately from agency debt held by the public. Total Debt must equal the amount reported on the entity’s Balance Sheet.

15.2 Reporting

15.2.1. Other Debt. Report the amount of debt owed to the U.S. Treasury, which includes direct loan and guaranteed loan financing account liabilities to the U.S. Treasury. Report the following in separate columns: beginning balance of borrowings, the year’s net borrowing, and the ending balance of borrowings.

15.2.2. Information Related to Debt. Provide other information needed to understand the nature of debt (e.g., write offs of debts owed to the U.S. Treasury or the Federal Financing Bank) which includes direct loans and guaranteed loans financing account liabilities disclosed in paragraph 10.1.

15.2.2.1. Disclose that the outstanding debt consists of interest and principal due to the U.S. Treasury and the Federal Financing Bank. State the specific purpose for which the reporting entity borrows funds.
15.2.2.2. Disclose that the reporting entity must pay the debt if borrowers (e.g. foreign country, ship leasing, or housing builder) default on the loan. For loan guarantees, the reporting entity must pay the amount of outstanding principal guaranteed.

16.0 NOTE 13. FEDERAL EMPLOYEE AND VETERAN BENEFITS PAYABLE

16.1 General Information

Present Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable for the current and prior FY based on the following instructions. Report the information required in the note by the entity that administers the benefit(s), except “Federal Employees’ Compensation Act (FECA).” Include amounts owed to the Department of Labor for estimated actuarial liabilities for future workers’ compensation benefits.

16.1.1.1. Liabilities. Report the actuarial present value of projected benefits. For pensions, this would be the projected benefit obligation. Total Liabilities must agree with the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

16.1.1.1.1. Military Retirement Pensions accumulates funds used to pay pensions and annuities to retired military personnel and their survivors. Military Retirement Pensions will report the actuarially determined present value of all future pensions earned to date, using the “aggregate entry age” normal cost method. This is a method whereby projected retirement costs are spread over the projected future salaries of a new entrant cohort. (Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 10 for further guidance.)

16.1.1.1.2. The Military Pre Medicare-Eligible Retiree Health Benefits will include beneficiaries of the Defense Health Program (DHP), retirees, their dependents, and survivors who are not yet Medicare-eligible. The DHP will report the actuarially determined present value of all retirement benefits earned to date, using the “aggregate entry age” normal cost method. This is a method whereby projected medical costs are spread over the projected future service of a cohort at the point of entry. (Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 10 for further guidance).

16.1.1.1.3. The Military Medical-Eligible Retiree Health Benefits pay for health care programs for Medicare-eligible Military and other Uniformed Service retirees and their Medicare-eligible dependents or survivors. Report the actuarial present value of projected benefits accrued to date, using the “aggregate entry age” normal cost method. This is a method whereby projected retiree medical plan costs are spread over the projected service of a new entrant cohort.

16.1.1.2. Assets Available to Pay Benefits. In a separate column, report the net assets, if any, available to pay benefits.
16.1.1.3. Unfunded Liabilities. In a separate column, report the actuarial liabilities not covered by budgetary resources, e.g., the actuarial present value of projected benefits less funded assets available to pay benefits. The Total Unfunded Liabilities must agree with Note 11, “Liabilities Not Covered by Budgetary Resources,” Line “Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable.”

16.1.1.4. Unfunded Liabilities. Report the actuarial liabilities not covered by budgetary resources, e.g., the actuarial present value of projected benefits less funded assets available to pay benefits.

16.1.2. Other Benefits. Report other employment related actuarial liabilities (e.g., FECA, Voluntary Separation Incentive Programs, and DoD Education Benefits Fund.)

16.1.3. Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable (presented separately on the Balance Sheet). This presentation is specific to DoD. The line is included to demonstrate the reconciliation to the Balance Sheet.

16.1.4. Other benefit-related payables included in the Intragovernmental Other Liabilities on the Balance Sheet. This presentation is specific to DoD. The line is included to demonstrate Intragovernmental Other Liabilities (Note 13) is included to the Balance Sheet.

16.1.5. Total Federal Employee and Veterans Benefits Payable. Enter the sum of the totals from Total Pension and Health Benefits and Total Other Benefits in the corresponding columns.

16.1.6.1. Actuarial Cost Method Used. Provide a description of the actuarial cost method used to compute the projected plan benefit cost.

16.1.6.2. Assumptions. Disclose the actuarial, economic, and health care cost trend and discount rate assumptions used to calculate the liability. Refer to SFFAS 5 and SFFAS 33 for discount rate assumptions. Include the statement that the estimated actuarial liability is updated only at the end of each FY.

16.1.6.3. Expense Components. Disclose the individual components of expense for the period.

16.1.6.4. Fair Value of Investments. Disclose the fair value of investments in market-based and marketable securities.

16.1.6.5. Changes. Disclose the changes in actuarial liability since the previous calculation and provide a brief summary of the program(s) for which actuarial liabilities are computed.
16.2 Reconciliation of Beginning and Ending Liability Balances for Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable Provide a reconciliation of the changes in actuarial liabilities from beginning and ending balances. SFFAS 33 requires the display of the components of pension expense, as well as the gains and losses from changes in long-term assumptions used to estimate liabilities for federal employee pensions, other retirement benefits, and other post-employment benefits including a discount rate assumption.

16.3 Reporting

Report actuarial liability data related to normal cost liabilities, interest costs, plan amendment liabilities, actuarial (gains)/losses, and benefit outlays. Report actuarial liability data according to the following categories: Military Retirement Pensions, Military Pre Medicare-Eligible Retiree Health Benefits, Military Medicare-Eligible Retiree Health Benefits, and Other (Voluntary Separation Incentive Programs, and DoD Education Benefits Fund).

*16.4 Liability for Unpaid Insurance Claims

Report the changes in the liability balance for unpaid insurance claims, including incurred-but-not-reported.

*16.5 Insurance Programs

SFFAS 51, “Insurance Programs,” requires disclosure of insurance program information. Reporting entities must recognize revenues, expenses, and liabilities in accordance with categories identified in SFFAS 51.

17.0 NOTE 14. ENVIRONMENTAL AND DISPOSAL LIABILITIES

*17.1 General Information

Present environmental liabilities in accordance with OMB Circular A-136, corresponding policy guidance presented in Volume 4, Chapter 13, and instructions provided in this section. Include a reference to Note 17 if non-legal environment and disposal contingencies are disclosed in Note 17.

17.1.1. Environmental Liabilities. An environmental liability is a future outflow or expenditure of resources that exist as of the financial reporting date for environmental cleanup, closure, and/or disposal costs resulting from past transactions or events. A DoD environmental liability exists when: (1) contamination is present or likely to be present; (2) environmental cleanup, closure, and/or disposal is required by applicable federal, state, interstate, or local requirements or an authorized legal agreement such as a lease, contract, or international agreement; and (3) the operations that created the liability are DoD related. An environmental liability may also exist if environmental contamination is not DoD related, but DoD enters into a binding agreement that formally accepts financial responsibility for cleanup, closure, and/or disposal.

17.1.1. Environmental liabilities cost estimates consider, on a current cost basis, the anticipated costs of the level of effort required for remediating environmental cleanup sites, in compliance with associated environmental legal and regulatory requirements, and estimated environmental costs associated with the future closure of operations, including closure and disposal of PP&E.

17.1.2. Base such cost estimates on the current technology available. The estimated liability may be a specific amount or a range of amounts. If some amount within the range is considered a better estimate than any other estimate, use that amount. If no amount within a range is considered a better estimate than the other estimates, use the minimum amount in the range, and disclose the range under the note narrative.

17.1.2.1. Base the amount reported on site level investigations and characterizations. Base any estimate produced on site-specific information and cost models validated in accordance with DoDI 5000.61, “DoD Modeling and Simulation (M&S) Verification, Validation, and Accreditation (VV&A).”

17.1.2.2. As investigation at a specific site proceeds, the estimate is refined and reported as appropriate. If a site (Site “A”) is similar to another site (Site “B”) for which valid cost estimates have been derived (through site level investigation and characterization), the estimate for recognizing a liability for the site (Site “A”) could be based on the valid cost estimate for the similar site (Site “B”). Additionally, the estimated cost of a future study (if required) must be recognized. If there is no comparable site, then the remediation cost for the site (Site “A”) is not considered reasonably estimable at this time, but the anticipated cost of conducting a future study plus any other required costs must be recognized.

17.1.2.3. Disclose all methods used to estimate the costs (including the number of sites and costs estimates derived using data from similar sites) in a note narrative, as well as any elements that could not be estimated.

17.1.2. Non-Federal Environmental Liabilities. All environmental liabilities are non-federal liabilities.

17.1.2.1. Accrued Environmental Restoration Liabilities. Accrued Environmental Restoration (cleanup) Liabilities represent the cost to correct past environmental problems funded from the Environmental Restoration Accounts in accordance with DoD Manual 4715.20, “Defense Environmental Restoration Program (DERP) Management,” and Volume 4, Chapter 13. Environmental restoration activities may be conducted at operating installations and Formerly Used Defense Sites (FUDS), and other than operational ranges. Site inventory and estimated cost data prepared for the Defense Environmental Programs Annual Report to the Congress is the baseline for environmental restoration (cleanup) liability measurement (e.g., the current cost to acquire the required services).
17.1.2.1.1. Active Installations-Installation Restoration Program (IRP) and Building Demolition and Debris Removal (BD/DR). Environmental liabilities associated with remedial actions eligible for funding under DoD Manual 4715.20. Report cleanup costs not eligible for DERP funding on the Environmental Corrective Action line. These remedial actions may address:

   17.1.2.1.1.1. Hazardous substances, pollutants, and contaminants as defined in the “Comprehensive Environmental Response, Compensation and Liability Act” (CERCLA);

   17.1.2.1.1.2. Hazardous waste or hazardous constituents addressed under the “Resource Conservation and Recovery Act” (RCRA) corrective action process or other federal or state statutes and regulations;

   17.1.2.1.1.3. Military munitions (e.g., Unexploded Ordnance (UXO) or Waste Military Munitions (WMM)), chemical residues from military munitions, and munitions scrap at locations other than operational ranges associated with an active installation, when the environmental restoration activity is incidental to the IRP environmental restoration activity; or 17.1.2.1.1.4. BD/DR, which is the demolition and removal of unsafe buildings and structures at facilities or sites owned by, leased to, or otherwise possessed by the United States and under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Defense. For additional information, refer to the Management Guidance for the DERP (Chapters 6 and 7) for program category definitions and funding eligibility criteria, respectively.

17.1.2.1.2. Active Installations-Military Munitions Response Program (MMRP). Environmental liabilities associated with the MMRP category defined as response actions (e.g., the identification, investigation, and removal actions, remedial actions, or a combination of removal and remedial actions) to address military munitions (e.g., UXO or WMM) or the chemical residues of munitions at locations other than operational ranges. The contamination may include munitions, chemical residues from military munitions and munitions scrap at ranges other than operational ranges associated with active installations that pose a threat to human health or the environment. Refer to the Management Guidance for the DERP (Chapters 6 and 7) for more details on the definition of the MMRP category and funding eligibility criteria, respectively.

17.1.2.1.3. Formerly Used Defense Sites - IRP and BD/DR. Properties that meet the FUDS eligibility criteria described in the Management Guidance for the DERP. Include only those projects that address DoD hazardous, toxicological, and radiological waste (HTRW) and containerized HTRW (e.g., storage tanks).

   17.1.2.1.3.1. Include the environmental response actions related to hazardous substances (as defined in the CERCLA), pollutants or contaminants (as defined in the CERCLA), and DoD-unique materials. Report liabilities associated with remediation of contamination from non-munitions activities. The BD/DR program category is defined as the demolition and removal of unsafe buildings and structures at facilities or sites that are or were owned by, leased to, or otherwise possessed by the United States and under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Defense.

17.1.2.1.3.2. For additional detail, refer to the Management Guidance for the DERP (Chapters 6 and 7) for program category definitions and funding eligibility criteria, respectively.

17.1.2.1.4. Formerly Used Defense Sites - MMRP. Properties that meet the FUDS eligibility criteria described in the Management Guidance for the DERP. This represents the environmental liabilities associated with the identification, investigation, and removal or remedial actions (or a combination of removal and remedial actions) to address military munitions (e.g., UXO or WMM), chemical residues from military munitions, and munitions scrap for those sites that are FUDS eligible.

17.1.2.2. Other Accrued Environmental Liabilities – Non-Base Realignment and Closure (BRAC). Costs to remediate cleanup sites that are not eligible for funding under the DERP. Other accrued environmental liabilities also include environmental costs associated with the future closure of operations, including closure and disposal of PP&E.

17.1.2.2.1. Although hazardous waste cleanup and disposal activities are normally thought of as a cost of ongoing operations, associated activities remain a liability if not disposed of or cleaned up by the financial reporting date. Thus, environmental conditions that result from current operations and require immediate cleanup, e.g. an oil spill or routine hazardous waste disposal, are not considered environmental liabilities and will be recognized as a current operating expense, assuming the DoD Component completes the cleanup, closure, and disposal action in the current reporting period.

17.1.2.2.2. The following subparagraphs describe in more detail the categories of liabilities, as well as the applicable lines.

17.1.2.2.2.1. Environmental Corrective Action. Environmental liabilities associated with the cleanup sites not eligible for funding under the DERP, typically conducted under RCRA or other federal or state statutes and regulations. Include environmental liabilities associated with the identification, investigation, and removal and remedial actions to address the munitions discharge migrating off the military range or a formal decision to close the range occurs.

17.1.2.2.2.2. Environmental Closure Requirements. Environmental liability associated with the future closure/decommissioning of facilities on an active installation that have environmental closure requirements. Examples include the future costs associated with closing a solid waste landfill, wastewater treatment plant, fuel storage tanks, or permit requirements associated with treatment, storage and disposal facilities, and open burn/open detonation sites.
17.1.2.2.2.3. Asbestos. Environmental liabilities associated with the removal, containment, and/or disposal of friable (immediate health threat) and non-friable (not an immediate health threat): (1) asbestos-containing materials from property, or (2) material and/or property that consists of asbestos-containing material at permanent or temporary closure or shutdown of associated PP&E on non-BRAC installations.

17.1.2.2.2.4. Non-Military Equipment. Environmental liabilities related to non-military equipment.

17.1.2.2.5. Other. Environmental liabilities not covered by the preceding lines.

17.1.2.3. Base Realignment and Closure Installations. The cost to address environmental cleanup at bases that are realigning or closing. These liabilities can be from past activities that are part of DERP or from activities not covered by DERP.

17.1.2.3.1. IRP. Environmental liabilities associated with remedial actions eligible for funding under the DERP. Report all BRAC cleanup costs not eligible for DERP funding on the Environmental Corrective Action/Closure Requirements line. These remedial actions may address:

17.1.2.3.1.1. Hazardous substances, pollutants, and contaminants as defined in the CERCLA;

17.1.2.3.1.2. Hazardous waste or hazardous constituents addressed under the RCRA corrective action process or other federal or state statutes and regulations; and 17.1.2.3.1.3. Military munitions (e.g., UXO or WMM), chemical residues from military munitions, and munitions scrap at BRAC installations, when the environmental restoration activity is incidental to the IRP environmental restoration activity.

17.1.2.3.2. MMRP. Environmental liabilities associated with the MMRP that are defined as response actions (e.g., the identification, investigation, and removal actions, remedial actions, or a combination of removal and remedial actions) to address military munitions (e.g., UXO or WMM) or the chemical residues of munitions at locations other than operational ranges. The contamination may include munitions, chemical residues from military munitions, and munitions scrap at BRAC Installations (e.g., MMRP that pose a threat to human health or the environment). Refer to the Management Guidance for the DERP for more details on the definition of the MMRP category and funding eligibility criteria, respectively.

17.1.2.3.3. Environmental Corrective Action/Closure Requirements. Environmental liabilities associated with cleanup sites not eligible for funding under the DERP, typically conducted under RCRA or other federal or state statutes and regulations. Also include the environmental liability associated with the future closure of facilities that have environmental closure requirements. Examples include the future costs associated with closing a solid waste landfill, waste water treatment plant, fuel storage tanks, or permit requirements associated with treatment, storage and disposal facilities, and open burn-open detonation sites.

17.1.2.3.4. Asbestos. Environmental liabilities associated with the removal, containment, and disposal of friable (immediate health threat) and non-friable (not an immediate health threat). The environmental liability includes: (1) asbestos-containing materials from property, or (2) material and property that consist of asbestos-containing material at permanent or temporary closure or shutdown of associated PP&E on BRAC installations.

17.1.2.4. Environmental Disposal for General Equipment/Weapons Programs.
Environmental disposal liabilities related to the final disposition of general equipment on non-BRAC installations. Report the environmental disposal liabilities by the following line items:

17.1.2.4.1. Nuclear Powered General Equipment/Spent Nuclear Fuel.
Environmental disposal liabilities related to nuclear powered general equipment and used fuel.

17.1.2.4.2. Non-Nuclear Powered General Equipment. Environmental disposal liabilities related to the non-nuclear powered general equipment and used fuel.

17.1.2.4.3. Other Weapon Systems. Environmental liabilities not covered in the preceding lines.

17.1.2.5. Chemical Weapons Disposal Program. Environmental remediation and disposal liabilities related to chemical agents. Report the environmental and disposal liabilities by the following line items:

17.1.2.5.1. Chemical Demilitarization – Chemical Materials Agency.
Liabilities associated with the disposal of chemical constituents of military munitions, including the chemical byproducts of detonation, deflagration, or other reactive processes. These constituents are unconsumed explosives (even in trace concentrations) from the detonation of military munitions, explosives released by the structural compromise of unfired WMM, and chemical agents released from chemical munitions.

17.1.2.5.2. Chemical Demilitarization – Assembled Chemical Weapons Alternatives. Liabilities associated with assembled chemical weapons alternatives. Assembled chemical weapons alternatives refer to weapons that contain a chemical agent in addition to explosives, propellant, and packaging materials. Examples include rockets, projectiles, and bombs.

17.1.3. Other Information Related to Environmental Liabilities. Provide the narrative disclosures as outlined; each section will have captions so the disclosures are readily segregated.

17.1.3.1. Applicable Laws and Regulations of Cleanup, Closure, and/or Disposal Requirements. DoD Components must address each of the applicable laws and regulations that are the source of their environmental liabilities. DoD is required to clean up contamination resulting from past waste disposal practices, leaks, spills, and other past activities, which have created a public health or environmental risk. DoD does this in coordination with regulatory agencies, and if applicable, with other responsible parties. Reference Volume 4, Chapter 13 for examples of relevant laws and regulations for consideration and discussion.

17.1.3.1.1. The Department is also required to recognize closure and post-closure environmental costs for its General PP&E and environmental corrective action costs for current operations. Each of the Department’s major reporting entities is responsible for tracking and reporting all required environmental information related to environmental restoration costs, other accrued environmental costs, environmental disposal costs of weapons systems, and environmental costs related to the BRAC actions.

17.1.3.2. Methods for Assigning Total Cleanup Costs to Current Operating Periods.

17.1.3.2.1. DoD Components must provide the method for assigning the estimated total cleanup, closure, and disposal costs to the current operating periods. DoD Components must not confuse this with how they budget for the liabilities. The Department policy is to comply with the accounting standards.

17.1.3.2.2. The Department uses engineering estimates and independently validated models to estimate environmental costs. The models are contained within the applications such as Remedial Action Cost Engineering Requirements System. The Department validates the models in accordance with DoDI 5000.61 and primarily uses the models to estimate the liabilities based on data received during a preliminary assessment and initial site investigation.

17.1.3.2.2.1. The Department primarily uses engineering estimates after obtaining extensive data during the remedial investigation/feasibility phase of the environmental project. Once the environmental cost estimates are complete, the Department complies with accounting standards to assign costs to current operating periods. The Department has already expensed the costs for cleanup associated with General PP&E placed into service prior to October 1, 1997 unless the costs are to be recovered through user charges. When recovering costs through user charges, the Department expenses the portion of the asset life that has passed since the General PP&E was placed into service and systematically recognizes the remaining cost over the life of the assets.

17.1.3.2.2.2. For General PP&E placed into service after September 30, 1997, the Department expenses the associated environmental costs systematically over the life of the asset. The Department expenses the full cost to cleanup contamination for stewardship PP&E at the time the asset is placed into service. The Department uses two methods for systematic recognition: physical capacity for operating landfills and life expectancy in years for all other assets.

17.1.3.3. Provide a Description of the Types of Environmental and Disposal Liabilities Identified. Provide a general statement describing the types of their environmental and disposal liabilities.
17.1.3.4. Nature and Possible Changes in Estimated Cleanup Costs. Identify any environmental liabilities that they know may change due to inflation, deflation, technology, plans, and/or pending changes to applicable laws and/or regulations. If no known changes are pending, DoD Components must state that they are not aware of any pending changes but the liabilities can change in the future due to changes in laws and regulations, changes in agreements with regulatory agencies, and advances in technology.

17.1.3.5. Provide a Description of the Level of Uncertainty Regarding the Accounting Estimates Used to Calculate the Reported Environmental Liabilities. Provide a detailed description of the uncertainties regarding estimates of significant situations (e.g., BRAC closures, environmental related disposals, ranges, chemical agents, and munitions). The disclosure includes a general statement followed with the specific details known about the uncertainties.

17.1.3.6. Unrecognized Costs. Provide the unrecognized portion of the estimated total cleanup, closure, or disposal costs associated with General PP&E. For General PP&E placed in service on or after October 1, 1997, DoD Components systematically recognize the liability over the useful life of the assets. The unrecognized portion of the total cleanup must equal the estimated total cleanup costs less the amount recognized on the financial statements. Refer to Volume 4, Chapter 13 for further information on General PP&E requiring systematic recognition of the environmental liability.

17.1.3.7. Asbestos-Related Cleanup Cost. Provide the recognized liability for friable and non-friable asbestos cleanup costs.

17.1.3.8. Other Disclosures. DoD Components provide any other information they believe material to the users of the financial statements.

17.2 Other Information

Non-legal contingent environmental and disposal liabilities should be included within the Environmental and Disposal Liabilities. Legal refers to those contingencies and contingent liabilities that are reported in the legal letter and/or management schedule whereas non-legal refers to those contingencies and contingent liabilities that are not included in the legal letter or management schedule.

18.0 NOTE 15. OTHER LIABILITIES

18.1 General Information

Present Other Liabilities are not included elsewhere on the Balance Sheet. For FY 2023, both funded and unfunded accrued employee annual leave will be reported in Federal Employee and Veterans Benefits Payable.

18.2 Reporting

18.2.1. General Guidance on Other Liabilities
18.2.1.1. Other Liabilities include, but are not limited to, grants payable; insurance and guarantee program; advances from others and deferred revenue; deposit fund amounts held in escrow; contingent liabilities; contract holdbacks; and resources payable to the U.S. Treasury and other accrued liabilities.

18.2.1.2. Report all contingent liabilities within Other Liabilities. The amount reported (recognized) on the Balance Sheet is the total amount of the estimated probable loss. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for policy on recognizing contingent liabilities. Examples of claims or other contingencies include: (a) indemnity agreement reimbursements due to licensees or contractors for losses incurred in support of federal activities; (b) adjudicated claims against the Federal Government that are in the process of judicial proceedings; and (c) the unfunded portion of total liabilities to international institutions.

18.2.1.3. Current liabilities represent debt due for payment within 12 months or less of the Balance Sheet date. Noncurrent liabilities represent debt that is due for payment beyond 12 months from the Balance Sheet date.

18.2.2. Intrangovernmental. Report all intrangovernmental other liabilities. Report current separately from the noncurrent portion of the liability. The following liabilities are to be reported within Intrangovernmental Other Liabilities.

18.2.2.1. Disbursing Officer Cash.

18.2.2.2. Liabilities for Non-Entity Assets.

18.2.2.3. Subtotal. Sum the preceding lines. This is specific to DoD for presentation purposes.

18.2.2.4. Other Liabilities reported on Note 13, Federal Employee and Veteran Benefits Payable. Present the Other benefits-related payables included in Intrangovernmental Other Liabilities on the Balance Sheet from Note 13. This is specific to DoD for presentation purposes and to illustrate the reconciliation to the Balance Sheet and Note 13.

18.2.2.5. Total Intrangovernmental. The amounts must equal the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

18.2.3. Other than Intrangovernmental. Report Other than Intrangovernmental. Report current separately from the noncurrent portion of the liability. The following liabilities are to be reported within Other than Intrangovernmental Liabilities.

18.2.3.1. Accrued Funded Payroll and Benefits.

18.2.3.2. Deposit Funds and Suspense Accounts.
18.2.3.3. Non-environmental Disposal Liabilities. Breakout the categories used to report non-environmental disposal liabilities as follows: (a) Military Equipment (Non-nuclear); (b) Excess/Obsolete Structures; and (c) Conventional Munitions Disposal.

18.2.3.4. Contract Holdbacks.

18.2.3.5. Contingent Liabilities.

18.2.3.6. Other Liabilities without Related Budgetary Obligations. The amounts represent unfunded liabilities for which Congressional action is needed before budgetary resources can be provided.

18.2.3.7. Other Liabilities with Related Budgetary Obligations. The amounts of liabilities for which there is a related budgetary obligation.

18.2.3.8. Total Other than Intragovernmental Liabilities. The amounts must equal the amount reported on the Balance Sheet.

18.2.4. Advances from Others and Deferred Revenue. Report separately intragovernmental and other than intragovernmental amounts received for goods or services to be delivered or performed in the future and reflect amounts not yet earned.

18.2.5. Other Information Pertaining to Other Liabilities. Report other information relevant to other liabilities that is not in the categories.

*19.0 NOTE 16. LEASES

19.1 General Information

Entity as Lessee and Entity as Lessor are the two major categories of Leases. OMB Circular A-136 guidance for this note schedule reflect future payment disclosure requirements for five FYs and then all remaining payments due in later years (after five years). While this OMB Circular A-136 presentation is appropriate for end of year reporting, quarterly reporting requires an additional line for payments due in the remaining current FY and will result in the reporting of six FYs during quarters one through three, instead of the five FYs displayed in OMB Circular A-136. Reporting requirements for Leases is anticipated to significantly change for periods beginning after September 30, 2023 in accordance with SFFAS 54, Leases: An Amendment of SFFAS 5, Accounting for Liabilities of the Federal Government and SFFAS 6, Accounting for Property, Plant, and Equipment.

19.2 Entity as Lessee Assets Under Capital Lease

Report the Assets under Capital Lease by categories of land and buildings and machinery and equipment with the related accumulated amortization.
19.2.1. Entity as Lessee – Assets Under Capital Lease. By major category of asset, report the gross assets under capital lease and the total accumulated amortization. Sum the preceding lines.

19.2.2. Description of Lease Arrangements. Disclose any additional information related to assets under capital leases.

19.3 Entity as Lessee for Federal and Non-Federal Future Payments Due for Capital Leases

Present capital lease liabilities for the current and prior FY in accordance with the instructions provided. Federal and Non-Federal leases must be presented separately.

19.3.1. Future Payments Due. Report the future lease payments, by major category for all non-cancelable leases with terms longer than 1 year. Disclose CY federal and non-federal leases separately. PY lease amounts do not need to be disclosed separately.

19.3.2. Less: Imputed Interest. Report the imputed interest.

19.3.3. Less: Executory Costs. Report the executory costs.

19.3.4. Capital Lease Liabilities Covered by Budgetary Resources versus Not Covered by Budgetary Resources. Separately disclose the portions of the capital lease liability covered by budgetary resources and not covered by budgetary resources. (Refer to Appendix B of the OMB Circular A-11 for additional guidance, but notice a difference in terminology. The term “capital leases” as used in this volume includes “capital leases and lease purchases”).

19.3.5. FY Information. For quarterly reporting, report the payments remaining for the current FY (e.g., FY 2023) on the first line.

19.4 Entity as Lessee for Federal and Non-Federal Future Payments Due for Non-Cancelable Operating Leases

19.4.1. Description of Operating Lease Arrangements. Report information that would disclose the level of the reporting entity’s funding commitments, which include the following items in the disclosure: the major asset categories and associated lease terms; existence and terms of renewal options; escalation clauses; contingent rental restrictions imposed by lease agreements; deviations from the standard lease terms; and the lease period. Disclose CY federal and non-federal leases separately.

19.4.2. Future Payments Due for Non-Cancelable Operating Leases. Enter future lease payments, by major category, for all irrevocable leases with terms longer than one year.

19.5 Entity as Lessor for Federal and Non-Federal Future Projected Receipts for Capital Leases

Report the Capital Leases for future projected receipts as the lessor for federal and non-federal activities separately. Also, include a description of the lease arrangements.
19.6 Entity as Lessor for Federal and Non-Federal Future Projected Receipts for Non-Cancelable Operating Leases

Report the Non-Cancelable Operating Leases by category for future projected receipts as the lessor for federal and non-federal activities separately. Also, include a description of the lease arrangements.

20.0 NOTE 17. COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

20.1 General Information

A loss contingency is an existing condition, situation, or set of circumstances involving uncertainty as to possible loss to an entity. The uncertainty should ultimately be resolved when one or more future events occur or fail to occur. The likelihood that the future event or events will result in the loss or the incurrence of a liability can range from probable to remote. SFFAS 5, as amended by SFFAS 12, “Recognition of Contingent Liabilities Arising from Litigation: An Amendment of SFFAS 5, Accounting for Liabilities of the Federal Government,” contains the criteria for recognition and disclosure of contingent liabilities. It provides an exception to the contingent liability standard for recognizing loss contingencies on matters of pending or threatened litigation and unasserted claims. Refer to TFM Volume 1, Part 2, Chapter 4745 for disclosures related to legal contingencies. Also, reference Chapter 2 and Volume 4, Chapter 12.

20.2 Disclosures

20.2.1 Disclosure versus Recognition of Contingent Liabilities. Disclose contingent liabilities that do not meet the criteria provided in paragraph 20.2.2 for recognition on the books of a reporting entity. Record the contingent liabilities that meet the recognition criteria on the books of the reporting entity and include the contingent liabilities on the applicable liability line(s) of the Balance Sheet (e.g., Environmental and Disposal Liabilities; and Other Liabilities) and in notes, as appropriate.

20.2.2 Criteria for Disclosure of a Contingent Liability. Disclose contingent liabilities if any of the conditions for liability recognition are not met and there is at least a reasonable possibility that a loss or an additional loss may have been incurred. Disclosure in this context refers to the reporting information in notes regarded as an integral part of the basic financial information.

20.2.3 Required Disclosures. Include contingent liabilities that meet the criteria for disclosure:

20.2.3.1 Each reporting entity reviews its financial processes, systems, and data and modifies or expands, as necessary. The disclosure statement is a complete and accurate representation of contingent liabilities. An example of the disclosure statement is: “The reporting entity is a party in various administrative proceedings and legal actions, and claims. The Balance Sheet includes an estimated liability for those legal actions where the management and General Counsel consider adverse decisions “probable” and the amount of loss is measurable. In the event of an adverse judgment against the Government, some of the liabilities may be payable from the Judgment Fund. The reporting entity records Judgment Fund liabilities in Note 15, “Other Liabilities.” Refer to Note 15 for details.”

20.2.3.2. Disclose the nature of the contingency and an estimate of the possible liability, an estimate of the range of the possible liability, or a statement that such an estimate cannot be made. Amounts disclosed for litigation claims and assessments are fully supportable and must agree with the reporting entity’s legal representation letters and management schedule of information.

20.2.3.3. Disclose amounts for potential future financial obligations, such as contractual arrangements including fixed price contracts with escalation, price redetermination, or incentive clauses; contracts authorizing variations in quantities; and contracts where allowable interest may become payable based on contractor claims under the "Disputes" clause contained in contracts. Amounts disclosed represent future potential liabilities and do not include amounts already recognized as contingent liabilities in Note 15. Disclose the estimated range of loss, lower and upper ends.

20.2.3.4. In addition to the contingent liability disclosures required, OMB requires the following disclosures: (1) an estimate of obligations related to cancelled appropriations for which the reporting entity has a contractual commitment for payment, and (2) amounts for contractual arrangements that may require future financial obligations.

20.2.3.5. Disclose any other applicable contingencies, along with additional information to clarify the nature of the contingency. If a contingent liability has been recognized for all or part of the item(s), disclose it in Note 15, and do not include in Note 17.

20.2.3.6. For reporting entities that are unable to disclose contingencies related to specific contracts, disclose that the reporting entity “is a party in numerous individual contracts that contain clauses, such as price escalations, award fee payments, or dispute resolution, that may or may not result in the future outflow of budgetary resources.

21.0 NOTE 18. FUNDS FROM DEDICATED COLLECTIONS

21.1 General Information

21.1.1. Funds from dedicated collections are financed by specifically identified revenues, provided to the government by non-federal sources, often supplemented by other financing sources, and which remain available over time. These specifically identified revenues and other financing sources are required by statute to be used for designated activities, benefits, or purposes, and must be accounted for separately from the Federal Government’s general revenues. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for required criteria for recognizing funds from dedicated collections.

21.1.2. SFFAS 43 contains policy for reporting dedicated collections. SFFAS 43 clarifies that at least one source of funds must be external to the Federal Government for a fund to qualify as a fund from dedicated collections. It explicitly excludes any fund established to account for pensions, other retirement benefits, other post-employment benefits or other benefits provided for federal employees (civilian and military).

21.1.3. If more than one component entity is responsible for carrying out the program financed with revenues and other financing sources that are dedicated collections, and the separate portions of the program can be clearly identified with a responsible component entity, then each component entity reports its portion in accordance with the requirements of SFFAS 43. If separate portions cannot be identified, the component entity with program management responsibility reports the fund. Refer to the DFAS Financial Reporting Guidance for required disclosures for each individually reported fund from dedicated collections, or portion thereof, for which a component entity has program management responsibility.

21.2 Reporting

21.2.1. The note schedule must present the Balance Sheet, SNC, and SCNP for current FY and prior FY. The table must present separate columns for the Dedicated Collection Funds, Other Funds from Dedicated Collections, Total Funds from Dedicated Collections (Combined), Eliminations between Dedicated Collection Funds, and Total Funds from Dedicated Collections (Consolidated). For the Balance Sheet, Federal and Non-Federal amounts must be disclosed separately and the line titles that are used for the principal financial statements must be used.

21.2.2. Report all eliminations between funds from dedicated collections and other funds within the reporting entity. If a Component entity reports a different portion of a fund from dedicated collections than it reported in prior FYs, it will not restate its prior FY financial statements, but disclose the change in the note. This applies if a DoD Component entity does not report a fund from dedicated collections, or a portion thereof, that it reported in the previous year.

22.0 NOTE 19. GENERAL DISCLOSURES RELATED TO THE STATEMENT OF NET COST

22.1 General Information

Disclose information related to the SNC. If the SNC displays highly aggregated program information, disclose costs and revenue to support the SNC.

22.1.1. Gross Cost. Costs that arise from exchange transactions made with the public or another Government entity. The effects of intra-entity business transactions are eliminated from reporting entity statements in order to prevent overstating costs. Gross Cost must agree with the amount reported on the SNC.

22.1.2. Earned Revenue. Earned or exchange revenues that arise when an entity provides goods or services to the public or another Governmental entity for a price. The effects of intra-entity business transactions are eliminated from reporting entity statements in order to prevent overstating revenue. Earned Revenue must agree with the amount reported on the SNC.
22.1.3. Losses/(Gains) from Actuarial Assumption Changes for Military Retirement Benefits. Losses and gains from actuarial assumption changes for military retirement benefits reported for Military Retirement Benefits; Operations, Readiness and Support; and on the Consolidated line.

22.1.4. Net Program Costs. Cost incurred (Gross Cost), less any exchange revenues earned, plus or minus the losses or gains from actuarial assumption changes for military retirement benefits. This amount must agree with the amount reported on the SNC, SCNP, and Reconciliation of Net Cost to Net Outlays.

22.1.5. General Disclosures

22.1.5.1. Disclose that public costs and revenues are exchange transactions made between the reporting entity and a non-federal entity. For public earned revenue, the buyer of the goods or services is a non-federal entity. For intragovernmental costs, the seller is a federal entity. If a federal entity purchases goods or services from another federal entity and sells them to the public, classify the exchange revenue as public, but classify the related costs as intragovernmental. The purpose of this classification is to enable the Federal Government to provide consolidated financial statements, and not to match public and intragovernmental revenue with costs incurred to produce public and intragovernmental revenue.

22.1.5.2. Reporting entities who are unable to track customer information at the transaction level must make additional disclosures. Disclose that many of the reporting entity’s systems do not track intragovernmental transactions by customer at the transaction level. Expenses were adjusted by [cite methodology]: (1) reclassifying amounts between federal and non-federal expenses; or (2) accruing additional accounts payable and expenses. See Chapter 13 for additional information on intragovernmental reconciliations and eliminations.

22.2 Other Disclosures

22.2.1. Cost Disclosure Specific to General Funds. Disclose, if applicable, that the reporting entity does not meet specific accounting standards and that information presented is based on budgetary obligations, disbursements, and collection transactions, as well as nonfinancial feeder systems adjusted to record known accruals for major items such as payroll expenses, accounts payable, and environmental liabilities.

22.2.2. Cost Disclosure Specific to Working Capital Fund (WCF). Disclose, if applicable, that the reporting entity does not meet specific accounting standards. Each reporting entity reviews its financial processes, systems, and data and discloses, if applicable, that while the WCF generally records transactions on an accrual basis, the systems do not always capture actual costs in a timely manner. Information presented on this statement is primarily based on budgetary obligation, disbursement, or collection transactions, as well as information from nonfinancial feeder systems.

22.2.3. Inter-entity Costs. Refer to SFFAS 55, “Amending Inter-entity Cost Provisions,” for disclosure requirements related to inter-entity costs.
23.0 NOTE 20. DISCLOSURES RELATED TO THE STATEMENT OF CHANGES IN NET POSITION

23.1 General Information

Disclose information related to the SCNP. The SCNP reports the change in net position during the reporting period, which results from changes in Unexpended Appropriations and Cumulative Results of Operations.

23.2 Consolidating Net Position

Present funds from dedicated collections on a consolidated basis. Summarize the elimination of intradepartmental activity between funds from dedicated collections and all other fund types to arrive at the consolidated totals presented on the Balance Sheet and the Financial Report of the U.S. Government. See Note 18, “Funds from Dedicated Collections,” for additional information on reporting dedicated collections balances.

23.3 Reconciliation of Appropriations on the SBR to Appropriation Received on the SCNP

The Appropriations Received line item on the SCNP will not agree with the Appropriations line item on the SBR due to differences between proprietary and budgetary accounting concepts and reporting policies. Present a table identifying the differences and amounts needed to reconcile the two reports.

*23.4 Reporting

23.4.1. Appropriations, SBR. Include the appropriation amount as reported on the SBR.

23.4.2. Permanent and Temporary Reductions. Report items reported as permanent and temporary reductions to the appropriations balance reported on the SBR.

23.4.3. Trust and Special Funds Receipts. Report Trust and Special Funds not reported as reductions or additions to the appropriations received balance on the SCNP.

23.4.4. Miscellaneous Items. Report miscellaneous items not reported in this section as reductions or additions to the appropriations received balance on the SCNP.

23.4.5. Total Reconciling Differences. Report the Appropriations, SBR less the reporting categories in this section to arrive at the Appropriations Received, SCNP.

23.4.6. Appropriation Received, SCNP. Report the Appropriations Received from the SCNP.

23.4.7. Other Information. Discuss other information to help the user understand the SCNP.
24.0 NOTE 21. DISCLOSURES RELATED TO THE STATEMENT OF BUDGETARY RESOURCES

24.1 Net Adjustments to Unobligated Balance, Brought Forward, October 1

Disclose and explain material adjustments impacting the SBR unobligated beginning balance. If the adjustment represents a correction of a material error, and the earliest period presented is not the period in which the error occurred, and the cumulative effect is attributable to prior periods, report the cumulative effect as a prior period adjustment. If the period is presented on the financial statements, report the adjustment in the earliest affected period presented by correcting any individual amounts on the financial statements.

24.2 Terms of Borrowing Authority Used

Disclose repayment requirements, financing sources for repayment, and other terms of borrowing authority used.

24.3 Available Borrowing/Contract Authority, End of Period

Disclose the amount of borrowing and contract authority available at the end of the reporting period for the current and prior FY.

24.4 Undelivered Orders at the End of the Period

Disclose the amount of budgetary resources obligated for undelivered orders at the end of the period, separately disclosing federal and non-federal with the associated paid and unpaid amounts.

24.5 Legal Arrangements Affecting the Use of Unobligated Balances

Disclose information pertaining to legal arrangements affecting the use of unobligated balances of budget authority, such as time limits, purpose, and obligation limitations.

*24.6 Explanation of Differences between the SBR and the Budget of the U.S. Government Disclose material differences between the SBR and the Budget of the U.S. Government. Reference OMB Circular A-136 for an illustrative schedule.

24.6.1 Explain the budgetary resources, new obligations, upward adjustments (total), and net outlay amounts from PY SBR and the actual amounts from “Detailed Budget Estimates by Agency” found in the Budget Appendix.

24.6.2 Explain the distributed offsetting receipts amount from the PY SBR and the actual amount from the “Federal Budget by Agency and Account” found in the Analytical Perspectives of the Budget.
24.6.3. Disclose that the Budget with the actual amounts for the CY will be available at a later date within the President’s Budget.

24.7 Contributed Capital

Explain any capital infusion received during the reporting period including the amount, source, and reason for these additional funds.

24.8 Permanent Indefinite Appropriations

Disclose the existence, purpose, and availability of permanent indefinite appropriations.

25.0 NOTE 22. DISCLOSURES RELATED TO INCIDENTAL CUSTODIAL COLLECTIONS

Reporting entities collecting custodial revenues that are incidental to their primary mission may disclose the sources and amount of collections and the amounts distributed to others in the accompanying notes. Disclose information relating to the further understanding of incidental custodial collections.

26.0 NOTE 23. FIDUCIARY ACTIVITIES

26.1 Fiduciary Activities

Disclose the fiduciary assets, liabilities, and inflows/outflows of the reporting entity in accordance with SFFAS 31. Fiduciary activities collect the receipt for cash or other assets in which non-federal individuals or entities have an ownership interest that the Federal Government must uphold. Base the fiduciary relationship on statutory or other legal authority. Fiduciary activities are not recognized on the Balance Sheet, but they are required to be reported on schedules in the notes to the financial statements. Fiduciary activities may involve a variety of transactions including, but are not limited to, cash, investments, other assets, liabilities, inflows, and outflows.

26.2 Exclusions

SFFAS 31 excludes certain transactions from the reporting requirements for fiduciary activities, including but not limited to, unpaid payroll withholdings and garnishments, unearned revenue, operating revenues and expenses, and seized property, including seized monetary instruments. See SFFAS 31 for a list of exclusions.

26.3 Reporting

Reporting on fiduciary activities is required in two notes to the financial statements. Within Note 1, “Significant Accounting Policies,” provide a statement that says, “Fiduciary assets are not assets of the Federal Government and are not recognized on the Balance Sheet.” In Note 23, provide a description of the fiduciary relationship, such as the applicable legal authority, the objectives of the fiduciary activity, and a general description of the beneficial owners or class of owners. Also, disclose fiduciary activities in the following schedules by fiduciary funds.

26.3.1. Schedule of Fiduciary Activity. Disclose the beginning balance of net assets; the inflows/outflows from the fiduciary activities by category; the change in net assets; and the ending balance of net assets.

26.3.2. Schedule of Fiduciary Net Assets. Disclose the current and prior period ending balances of assets by category, liabilities by category, and a variance analysis addressing significant changes from the prior period.

26.3.3. Non-monetary Fiduciary Assets. Include a description of the composition of the assets, the method(s) of valuation, and changes (if any) from prior period accounting methods.

26.3.4. Non-Valued Fiduciary Assets. Include a description of non-valued fiduciary assets. These assets may include land held in trust. Component entities holding non-valued fiduciary assets disclose them in a Schedule of Changes in Non-Valued Fiduciary Assets.

27.0 NOTE 24. RECONCILIATION OF NET COST TO NET OUTLAYS

27.1 General Information

Preparers of financial statements perform a detailed reconciliation of net outlays (reported on the SBR) to net cost (reported on the SNC), identifying all applicable reconciling items. Preparers should refer the TFM “Budget and Accrual Reconciliation Guidance” for detailed guidance on preparing the reconciliation. Budgetary resources reported in this schedule are those resources reported on the SBR and defined in OMB Circular A-11. Other resources reported in this schedule are also reflected in the SCNP.

For Unreconciled Differences report the difference between the Total Net Outlays (SNC) and Agencies, Outlays, Net (SBR).

27.2 Reconciliation Objective

SFFAS 7, “Accounting for Revenue and Other Financing Sources and Concepts for Reconciling Budgetary and Financial Accounting,” as amended by SFFAS 53, “Budget and Accrual Reconciliation: Amending SFFAS 7, and 24, and Rescinding SFFAS 22,” requires a reconciliation identifying how the reporting entity budgetary resources outlayed during the period relate to the net cost of operations.

27.3 Budgetary to Proprietary Accounting Reconciling Differences

Because different accounting bases are used for budgetary and proprietary accounting, some transactions may appear in only one set of accounts due to legislative requirements or USGAAP (e.g., accrual of unfunded environmental and disposal liabilities that are recorded only in the proprietary records). Furthermore, not all obligations or offsetting collections may result in expenses or exchange revenue (e.g., purchase of a building is capitalized on the Balance Sheet in the proprietary accounts, but obligated and outlaid in the budgetary accounts).

27.3.1. The reconciliation summarizes differences due solely to budgetary and proprietary accounting. Other differences encountered must be researched and corrected.

27.4 Narrative Disclosures

Report any information that provides a further understanding of the entity’s note.

28.0 NOTE 25. PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS

28.1 General Information

SFFAS 49, “Public-Private Partnerships: Disclosure Requirements,” defines public-private partnerships as risk-sharing arrangements or transactions with expected lives greater than five years between public and private sector entities. “Risk” refers to risk of financial losses beyond the types of costs anticipated in the normal course of the agreement, assuming the agreement is carried out over its expected life.

28.2 Reporting

28.2.1. Entities involved in public-private partnerships, as defined by SFFAS 49, review the conclusive risk characteristics, and possibly the suggestive risk characteristics, to determine the required disclosures. See paragraphs 20 and 21 of SFFAS 49 for a listing of conclusive and suggestive risk characteristics.

28.2.2. SFFAS 49 exempts certain arrangements or transactions from public-private partnership disclosure requirements. See paragraph 15 of SFFAS 49 for a listing of exempt arrangements and transactions. Such exempt arrangements or transactions are subject to existing disclosure requirements in other SFFAS applicable to such arrangements or transactions.

28.2.3. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for additional disclosure requirements.

29.0 NOTE 26. DISCLOSURE ENTITIES AND RELATED PARTIES

29.1 General Information

SFFAS 47 instructs preparers of the financial statements in determining what organizations should be included in the reporting entity’s financial reports for accountability purposes. SFFAS 47 requires reporting entities to disclose certain information about disclosure entities and related parties.

29.2 Disclosure Entities
Preparers should consider both qualitative and quantitative materiality in determining the information presented regarding disclosure entities. Refer to SFFAS 47 and OMB Circular A-136 for required disclosures.

29.3 Related Parties

Consider organizations related parties if an existing relationship, or one party to the existing relationship, has the ability to exercise significant influence over the other party’s policy decisions. Only relationships that would be misleading to exclude information about such relationships warrant disclosure. Refer to SFFAS 47 and OMB Circular A-136 for required disclosures.

30.0 NOTE 27. SECURITY ASSISTANCE ACCOUNTS

30.1 General Information

This Note is specific to DoD Agency-Wide only. A hyperlink to the Security Assistance Accounts (SAA) AFR is included within the Note.

30.2 Reporting

Disclose in a narrative that DoD has a significant role, and works closely with the U.S. Department of State in the execution of the activities of the SAA, which is budgeted and reported in the Title 22, Foreign Relations and Intercourse under the purview of the Foreign Relations Committee in Congress. The SAA is a significant reporting entity, and in accordance with SFFAS 47, its stand-alone financial statements are consolidated directly into the U.S. Government-wide financial statements.

31.0 NOTE 28. RESTATEMENTS

31.1 General Information

Disclosure is required when management becomes aware of a potential misstatement due to a material error(s) whether or not the exact amount is known or has been corrected at the time financial statements are prepared. If material misstatements are identified in the prior period financial statements, the entity must explain the material misstatements.

31.2 Disclosures

31.2.1. Where amount of the misstatement is known, the disclosure must include the disclosures identified in SFFAS 21, “Reporting Corrections of Errors and Changes in Accounting Principles, Amendment of SFFAS 7, Accounting for Revenue and Other Financing Sources” and OMB Circular A-136.
31.2.2. Where management has become aware that a material error has occurred, but the exact amount is not known and/or financial statements have not yet been corrected, include the disclosures required by OMB Circular A-136.

*32.0 NOTE 29. COVID-19 ACTIVITY

32.1 General Information

Entities with a significant amount of budgetary activity associated with responding to COVID-19 must include a separate COVID-19 note. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for additional disclosure requirements.

Separately disclose amounts from annual and permanent appropriations that were used for COVID, including, as appropriate, the types of budgetary information illustrated in OMB Circular A-136. COVID funds must be designated with the appropriate GTAS Disaster and Emergency Fund Code.

*33.0 NOTE 30. SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

Disclose any significant events or transactions that occurred after the date of the Balance Sheet but before the issuance of the entity’s audited financial statements that have a material effect on the financial statements and, therefore, require adjustments to or disclosure in the statements. If such disclosure is made elsewhere in the notes, this note should include references to the applicable note(s).

34.0 NOTE 31. RECLASSIFICATION OF FINANCIAL STATEMENT LINE ITEMS FOR FINANCIAL REPORT COMPILATION PROCESS

34.1 General Information

Disclose information identifying how amounts reported on the AFR for the Balance Sheet, SNC, and SCNP are reclassified for compilation of the FR. This Note is reported at the DoD Agency-Wide level only. DoD Components do not report this Note.

34.2 Reporting

Agency financial statements reflect all agency financial transactions, including transactions with other Government agencies and transactions with the public. The FR includes only the Government’s financial transactions with the public; and does not include intragovernmental transactions. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for disclosure requirements.

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter provides the Department of Defense (DoD) policy and guidance for reporting Required Supplementary Information (RSI) to accompany the basic financial statements.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

* 1.2.2. SFFAS 59, “Accounting and Reporting of Government Land” establishes reporting requirements for government land in the RSI.

1.2.4. Volume 4, Chapters 24, 25, 26, and 28, provide the guidance for determining which DoD reporting entity is responsible for reporting real property on its financial statements.

*1.3 Format

1.3.1. For specific reporting formats and timing refer to Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) Financial Reporting Guidance, under the sections titled, Annual and Quarterly Financial Statement Guidance, and 4th Quarter.

1.3.2. Information presented in the RSI must be presented on a comparative basis. When the information is required for the first time, it need not be reported for the prior year.

2.0 DEFERRED MAINTENANCE AND REPAIRS

2.1 Policy

DoD reporting entities are required to report material amounts of DM&R on General Property, Plant, and Equipment (General PP&E) as supplementary information to accompany their annual financial statements. The determination of whether an item is material depends on the degree to which omitting or misstating information about the item makes it probable that the judgment of a reasonable person relying on the information would have been changed or influenced by the omission or the misstatement. General PP&E related accounting policy and definitions are contained in Volume 4.

2.2 Definition

As defined in SFFAS 42, DM&R are maintenance and repairs (M&R) not performed when required or scheduled and have been delayed for a future period. M&R are activities directed toward keeping fixed assets in an acceptable condition. M&R activities include preventive maintenance; replacement of parts, systems, or components; and other activities needed to preserve or maintain the asset. M&R, as distinguished from capital improvements, exclude activities directed towards expanding the capacity of an asset or otherwise upgrading it to serve needs different from, or significantly greater than, its current use. The amounts reported must include both funded and unfunded DM&R, but need not be separately reported as such in the RSI.

2.3 Required Reporting

2.3.1. DM&R reporting must provide beginning and ending balances for the reporting period and narrative information related to the activities. Entities are required to present both qualitative and quantitative information.

2.3.2. In accordance with SFFAS 42, DoD reporting entities, at a minimum, are required to present the following information for all General PP&E regardless of measurement method chosen:

2.3.2.1. Describe M&R policies and how they are applied (i.e., method of measuring DM&R);

2.3.2.2. Discuss how M&R activities are ranked and prioritized among other activities;

2.3.2.3. Identify factors considered in determining acceptable condition standards;

2.3.2.4. State whether DM&R relates solely to capitalized General PP&E and stewardship PP&E or also to non-capitalized or fully depreciated General PP&E;

2.3.2.5. Identify PP&E for which management does not measure and/or report DM&R, and provide the rationale for the exclusion of other than non-capitalized or fully depreciated General PP&E;

2.3.2.6. Provide estimated beginning and ending DM&R balances for each major category of PP&E (i.e., General PP&E; heritage assets; and stewardship land), for which M&R has been deferred;

2.3.2.7. Explain significant changes by category (i.e., general PP&E, heritage assets, and stewardship land) from the prior year.
2.3.3. SFFAS 42 permits the following methods to measure DM&R:

2.3.3.1. Condition assessment surveys, which are periodic visual (i.e., physical) inspections of PP&E to determine their current condition and estimated cost to correct any deficiencies;

2.3.3.2. Life cycle cost forecasts, which are acquisition or procurement techniques that consider operating, maintenance, and other costs in addition to the acquisition cost of assets; or

2.3.3.3. Other methods similar to the condition assessment survey or life cycle cost forecast methods.

2.3.4. SFFAS 42 also requires that condition standards, related assessment methods, and reporting formats be consistently applied unless management determines that changes are necessary. Changes must be accompanied by an explanation documenting the rationale for the change and any related impact on the DM&R estimates.

3.0 DISAGGREGATED STATEMENT OF BUDGETARY RESOURCES

3.1 Format

DoD reporting entities must prepare and report the disaggregated Statement of Budgetary Resources (SBR) as RSI. The format of the disaggregated SBR must follow the format contained in Chapter 7. The major account groupings and the aggregate of smaller budget accounts must, in total, agree with the amounts reported on the face of the reporting entity's SBR. The DoD Agency-Wide SBR must be disaggregated into the following appropriation/fund account groupings: (1) Military Personnel; (2) Procurement; (3) Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation; (4) Family Housing and Military Construction; (5) Military Retirement Benefits; (6) Civil Works; and (7) Operations, Readiness, and Support. Refer to Chapter 7 for additional guidance and detail on the disaggregated SBRs for the various military departments, funds, and other Defense entities.

3.2 Presentation

DoD Agency-Wide disaggregated SBR is presented as two RSI schedules, Combining SBR Budgetary and Combining SBR Non-Budgetary Credit Reform Financing Account. Two presentations allow for easier readability and mapping to the schedule structure based on financial reporting data. The disaggregated SBR is presented separately for both the current year and comparative year.

*4.0 GENERAL PLANT, PROPERTY, & EQUIPMENT, STEWARDSHIP LAND, AND PERMANENT LAND RIGHTS

4.1 Presentation
In accordance with SFFAS 59, DoD reporting entities, at a minimum, are required to present the following information for all General PP&E, Stewardship Land, and Permanent Land Rights disclosures:

4.1.1. Description and its relationship to the entity’s mission;

4.1.2. Description of the entity's policies for land. Policies for land are the goals and principles the entity established to guide its acquisition, maintenance, use, and disposal of land consistent with statutory requirements, prohibitions, and limitations governing the entity and the land;

4.1.3. Estimated acreage by predominant use category which includes land and permanent land rights;

4.1.4. Estimated acreage held for disposal or exchange;

4.1.5. Description of the different types of land rights acquired by the entity, whether such rights are permanent or temporary, and amounts paid during the year to maintain such rights; and 4.1.6. Two separate tables are required for General PP&E and Stewardship Land and must include estimated acreage by predominate use categories of Commercial, Conversation and Preservation, and Operational. Refer to OMB Circular A-136 for a table illustration.

CHAPTER 13

ADJUSTMENTS, ELIMINATIONS, AND OTHER SPECIAL INTRAGOVERNMENTAL RECONCILIATION REQUIREMENTS

1.0 GENERAL (1301)

*1.1 Overview (130101)

Intragovernmental transactions result from business activities conducted between two federal entities, called trading partners. The accurate reporting of reciprocal balances, and proper elimination of reciprocal activity between trading partners, requires accurate documentation of accounting events. Imbalances occur when federal entities or trading partners are unable to account for and reconcile differences when buying and selling goods and services.

1.2 Purpose (130102)

This chapter provides general instructions for trading partner exchange of data, eliminating intragovernmental transactions from the Department of Defense (DoD) quarterly and annual financial statements, and providing elimination information to the Department of the Treasury for use in preparing the Governmentwide financial statements.

*1.3 Authoritative Guidance (130103)

1.3.2. Treasury’s Bureau of the Fiscal Service (Fiscal Service) requires the use of Government-Invoicing (G-Invoicing) for the exchange of intragovernmental transactions between federal trading partners under Title 31, United States Code, sections 3512(b) and 3513. G-Invoicing adoption is required by all Federal Program Agencies (FPAs) by June 30, 2021, as mandated in the G-Invoicing Implementation Playbook Checklist.

1.3.3. The DoD Financial Reporting Guidance includes instructions and adjusting entries used to record intragovernmental eliminations.

2.0 BACKGROUND (1302)

2.1 Intragovernmental Balances (130201)

All DoD reporting entities are required to report intragovernmental account balances in their financial statements, eliminate appropriate intra-DoD balances, and classify intragovernmental account balances by category and level. The category of transaction refers to the nature of the accounting event causing the transaction. Refer to section 1303 for information addressing reciprocal account transactions. The level of the transaction refers to the nature of the trading partner involved. Refer to section 1305 for information addressing levels of intragovernmental trading partners.

*2.2 Eliminations (130202)

2.2.1. Eliminations represent the process where a federal entity having transactions with another federal entity ensures that the amounts on its trial balances for specific accounts correlate with those amounts in the reciprocal accounts of the federal entity with which business was conducted.

2.2.2. The purpose of eliminating intragovernmental account balances is to offset the effect of transactions between a DoD reporting entity and other FPAs, DoD reporting entities, and organizations within a DoD reporting entity in the financial statements. For reference, per Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Circular A-136, “Financial Reporting Requirements,” the Statement of Budgetary Resources is a combined statement and intragovernmental budgetary accounts are not eliminated.

*3.0 RECIPROCAL ACCOUNT TRANSACTIONS (1303)

Divide the transactions for intragovernmental data collected into the reciprocal categories, and the reciprocal United States Standard General Ledger (USSGL) accounts comprising these categories. A reciprocal category is comprised of a set of reclassified financial statement line items that are the reciprocal of each other (accounts payable/accounts receivable). These categories assist in the elimination of federal activity at the Governmentwide level to prepare the Financial Report of the United States Government (FR). Additionally, these reciprocal categories facilitate the reconciliation of activities between federal entities. See Appendices 2 and 3 of TFM 2-4700 for additional information on reciprocal categories.

*4.0 INTRAGOVERNMENTAL CAPITALIZED PURCHASES (1304)

Capture and report all current year capitalized asset purchase amounts in USSGL accounts included in the DoD Standard Reporting Chart of Accounts. These accounts must identify whether the items capitalized were purchased from non-federal sources or FPAs. Reporting entities capture agency trading partner codes when the capitalized items are from FPAs. Use this information to prepare the financial statements and reconcile reciprocal accounts with the federal trading partners. The full reconciliation equation, “expense plus current year capitalized acquisitions from a FPA equals the reciprocal FPA revenue,” is reflected in the “Buy/Sell Costs/Revenues” category for elimination of intragovernmental transactions addressed in TFM 2-4700.
5.0 LEVELS OF INTRAGOVERNMENTAL TRADING PARTNERS (1305)

*5.1 General (130501)

5.1.1. G-Invoicing. To assist FPAs with reconciling intragovernmental transactions, Fiscal Service mandated use of G-Invoicing, which facilitates the exchange of intragovernmental transaction information between federal trading partners and serves as the interface by which FPAs submit and reconcile intragovernmental data. FPAs involved with intragovernmental reimbursable activities use G-Invoicing to originate and settle intragovernmental agreements, orders, and invoices. G-Invoicing adoption is required by all FPAs by June 30, 2021, as mandated in the G-Invoicing Implementation Playbook Checklist.

5.1.2. Reporting Attributes. Assign each USSGL account the appropriate federal/non-federal indicator as defined in the Standard Financial Information Structure (SFIS). See the USSGL Account Attribute Table in Part 1, Section IV of the USSGL for additional guidance pertaining to permitted indicators for each USSGL account. There are three levels of intragovernmental trading partners for which intragovernmental transactions must be identified.

*5.2 Level 1 Trading Partners – Non-DoD FPAs (130502)

Level 1 transactions are between DoD and other FPAs, e.g., between the Department of the Air Force and the Department of Commerce. Identify Level 1 transaction balances by the Treasury Trading Partner codes and attributes attached to the USSGL accounts. Use Level 1 transaction balances to eliminate intragovernmental transactions during preparation of the FR. Appendix 1a of TFM 2-4700 contains a current list of federal trading partner codes. Level 1 transactions include sales of goods and services and specialized transactions, such as loans, interest receivable, other post-employment benefits, or civil service retirement benefit payments. DoD reporting entities are to document the procedures used to identify and verify the accuracy of their intragovernmental assets, liabilities, revenues, and expenses balances.

5.2.1. Intragovernmental Transactions

5.2.1.1. Fiscal Service issued TFM 2-4700 to streamline the accounting for intragovernmental transactions and provide a means for federal entities to ensure accurate recording, reporting, and reconciliation. All DoD entities executing or participating in intragovernmental acquisitions (either internal to DoD or external with other federal partners) are required to follow the intragovernmental transaction guidance contained in TFM 2-4700, and to exchange and capture the pertinent data elements specified.

5.2.1.2. Treasury eliminates all intragovernmental transactions when preparing the FR. Since Treasury eliminates these amounts, the accounting centers must ensure balances confirmed with the trading partners agree with balances submitted via the Governmentwide Treasury Account Symbol Adjusted Trial Balance System (GTAS).
5.2.2. Intragovernmental Fiduciary Transactions

5.2.2.1. Selected Level 1 intragovernmental transactions with the Treasury Investments, Borrowings, and Federal Financing Bank; the Department of Labor Federal Employees Compensation Act transactions; the Office of Personnel Management Employee Benefit transactions for Retirement, Health Insurance, Life Insurance; and custodial and non-entity transactions with federal entities other than the General Fund (GF) are specifically required to be fully reconciled.

* 5.2.2.2. Treasury eliminates all intragovernmental fiduciary transactions when preparing the FR. Accounting centers must ensure balances confirmed with the trading partners agree with balances submitted via GTAS.

5.3 Level 2 and 3 Trading Partners – Other DoD Reporting Entities (130503)

* 5.3.1. Level 2. Level 2 balances result from transactions between DoD reporting entities, e.g., between the Department of the Army Working Capital Funds (WCF) and the Department of the Navy GF. Volume 6B, Chapter 1, contains information on DoD reporting entities. Level 2 transactions are identified by trading partner codes and supplemental internal DoD codes, such as business partner numbers, trading partner federal/non-federal indicators, and other trading partner codes included in SFIS.

5.3.2. Level 3. Level 3 trading partners are within a DoD Component, i.e., Army WCF, Supply Management and Army WCF, Depot Maintenance, Other; and Department of the Navy GF, Operations and Maintenance and Department of the Navy GF, Research Development, Test, and Evaluation. There are up to four sublevels of eliminations, with the elimination totals shown on the DoD Component’s supporting consolidating statements. For example, the Navy GF Level 3 eliminations would be between: (A) Navy Military Personnel and Navy Procurement; (B) Navy Military Personnel trial balance AT17AA1_1453 and Navy Reserve Personnel trial balance AT17AA1_1405; and (C) internally within Navy Military Personnel trial balance AT17AA1_1453.

5.4.1. Trading Partner Reconciliations. DoD reporting entities reconcile with their trading partners at the detail transaction level. Detail transactions provide support for reported balances requiring elimination with trading partners. The reporting entity is ultimately responsible for the accuracy of its trading partner data; therefore, it is responsible for initiating actions to reconcile balances with its trading partners. DoD buy/sell eliminations include detailed transactions and should be supported by a Military Interdepartmental Purchase Request, sales order, customer bill, purchase order, contract, voucher, or the seller/buyer’s line of accounting, and be readily available upon request. Include similar detail supporting documentation for other reciprocal categories identified in TFM 2-4700. A DoD reporting entity unable to provide detail transactions at the appropriate time of the financial statement reporting cycle must adjust its balance to match the seller’s or buyer’s supportable data.
5.4.1.1. Reporting entities document the trading partner agreement in the General Terms and Conditions (GT&C) for instances where both buyers and sellers are currently on G-Invoicing. Reporting entities apply the GT&C to all transactions with DoD, other federal trading partners, and with internal DoD trading partners using G-Invoicing for GT&C.

5.4.1.2. Alternatively, DoD reporting entities may establish a bilateral Memorandum of Understanding with each of their DoD trading partners not using G-Invoicing. Such agreements, at a minimum must identify the following:

5.4.1.2.1. The reconciliation timeframes (frequency);

5.4.1.2.2. Accrual processes (agreed upon methodologies);

5.4.1.2.3. Availability or exchange of detailed transactions and key supporting documentation;

5.4.1.2.4. Protocol to resolve differences between trading partners; and

5.4.1.2.5. Other processes requiring clarification.

5.4.2. Intragovernmental Business Rules. Reporting entities with clean audit opinions on their annual financial statements provide intragovernmental transaction data in accordance with the DoD Financial Reporting Guidance. It is not expected that trading partner adjustments will have an adverse impact on agencies with a clean audit opinion; therefore, unsupported adjustments should not be allocated to agencies with a clean audit opinion. No supported or unsupported undistributed collections or disbursements should be allocated to either accounts receivable or payable balances of agencies with a clean audit opinion, unless specifically identifiable to the agency.

5.4.2.1. Document identified differences including, but not limited to, the difference amount, USSGL accounts impacted, rationale for the difference, and the status of communication with trading partners.

5.4.2.2. Prioritize trading partner material differences to reduce high-dollar variances. Agencies must work to reconcile and eliminate differences regardless of materiality.

5.4.3. Dispute Resolution. The Office of the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) oversees a DoD dispute resolution process to resolve balance discrepancies between DoD reporting entities. Reporting entities unable to reach an agreement with respect to intragovernmental account balances must escalate the issue to the Financial Improvement and Audit Remediation (FIAR) Directorate for resolution. Submit requests to the FIAR Directorate no later than the 12th business day of the month following the end of the quarter. At fiscal year-end, final adjustments must be completed prior to the issuance of the Agency Financial Report.
5.4.3.1. Reporting entities requesting FIAR Directorate review must provide the following with the request:

5.4.3.1.1. Completed Trading Partner Dispute Resolution Request Form;

5.4.3.1.2. Documentation demonstrating attempts to reconcile balances with trading partners at the senior executive or agency comptroller level; and

5.4.3.1.3. Documentation supporting balances the DoD reporting entities are seeking to resolve with trading partners.

5.4.3.2. The FIAR Directorate will facilitate resolution of the balance discrepancies within 2 business days. Once FIAR has rendered a final decision, the affected agencies must adjust their financial records to reflect the decision within 3 business days, but no later than the end of the quarter.

5.4.3.3. DoD reporting entities are expected to work with their respective non-DoD trading partners to reconcile and resolve intragovernmental differences. Working through the Defense Finance and Accounting Service, Enterprise Solutions and Standards, Financial Reporting-Audited Financial Statements Directorate, reciprocal accounts disputes with other FPAs will continue to follow the dispute resolution process identified in Appendix 6 of TFM 2-4700.

6.0 ELIMINATION OF BUDGETARY ACCOUNTS (4000 SERIES ACCOUNTS) (1306)

Present budgetary information on a combined basis, with no elimination of budgetary accounts, in order to be consistent with information reported on the “Report on Budget Execution and Budgetary Resources” in accordance with OMB Circular A-11, “Preparation, Submission, and Execution of the Budget.”

7.0 RECONCILIATION WITH OTHER REPORTS (1307)

Review all information reported in any other external reports for consistency with the information included in the quarterly and the annual audited financial statements.

8.0 RECONCILIATION WITH LEVEL 1 TRADING PARTNERS (1308)

*8.1 Reconciliation (130801)

8.1.1. OMB Circular A-136 requires reporting entities to reconcile and resolve differences between intragovernmental balances and transactions.

8.1.2. TFM 2-4700 includes guidance to facilitate the reconciliation of intragovernmental transactions.

8.1.3. G-Invoicing maintains a repository of intragovernmental transactions and internal controls to ensure the accuracy of transactions for buyers and sellers.
*8.2 GTAS (130802)

Each quarter, Treasury populates detailed trading partner data in GTAS. GTAS provides comparisons of balances reported by all federal partners and facilitates intragovernmental consolidation and elimination required for Governmentwide reporting. As an output of the GTAS comparison, Treasury provides quarterly Intragovernmental Material Differences Reports by Treasury Index. Review these reports and explain differences to Treasury in accordance with TFM 2-4700 and the DoD Financial Reporting Guidance. Treasury uses the Level 1 trading partner amounts reported in GTAS to compile the elimination entries necessary to prepare the FR.

9.0 FEDERAL TRADING PARTNER CODES (1309)

*9.1 Trading Partner Codes (130901)

Reporting entities submit trading partner code information to Treasury by GTAS Attributes. Use the trading partner codes, in conjunction with the USSGL account information, to identify required elimination entries.

*9.2 Trading Partner Effect of Prior Period Adjustments (130902)

When it is determined that a prior period adjustment is necessary for a transaction involving another FPA, the accounting centers identify the trading partner and determine how the transaction was recorded. Additionally, the accounting centers must work with the trading partner to inform Treasury of the prior period adjustment. This will assist Treasury with eliminations on the Governmentwide financial statements.

*9.3 Non-Federal Trading Partners (130903)

All accounting centers and DoD reporting entities must identify trading partner information properly according to the federal/non-federal indicator attribute included in SFIS.

*9.4 Foreign Military Sales Trust Fund Reporting (130904)

In general, DoD Components performing reimbursable activities on behalf of the Foreign Military Sales Trust Fund (11X8242) must recognize related accounts receivable and revenue as federal citing entity code 11X8242 as the Level 1 trading partner. Refer to the DoD Financial Reporting Guidance for additional reporting policy for the Foreign Military Sales Trust Fund.

CHAPTER I

BASIC PAY

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter prescribes the criteria for determining creditable service for military members; provides examples for computing valid creditable service; states periods of service that are not creditable for pay purposes; cites conditions for the payment of military pay entitlements; explains the computation of leave and conditions for leave accrual; and provides for situations where enlistments are not valid. Tables 1-1 through 1-15, outlining various conditions in which military pay is payable for all grades of military personnel, are at the end of this chapter. See Chapter 26 for entitlement to Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH), and Chapter 25, Table 25-1 or the Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS) table for payments.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with, the United States Code (U.S.C.). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 CREDITABLE SERVICE

2.1 Service Which is Creditable

2.1.1 General

2.1.1.1 The several military pay and personnel systems use a variety of dates to determine various entitlements. Among them is the date that denotes how much service a member has for the purpose of determining longevity pay rates. The Army refers to this as the “pay entry basic date,” the Navy and Marine Corps refer to this as the “pay entry base date,” while the Air Force calls it the “pay date.” This chapter will refer to this data element as the “basic pay date,” which is defined as reflecting all service that is creditable towards longevity.

2.1.2 The member’s servicing personnel office is responsible for providing, when necessary, a statement of service that can include the basic pay date, total active federal military service date, total commissioned federal military service date, and a variety of other dates, depending on the nature of the individual member’s service. This Regulation details only the computation of the basic pay date, since Military Service personnel regulations control the computation of all other dates.
2.1.2. Computation of Creditable Service. For most members who enter and serve on active duty without a break in service, the basic pay date is the date the member enters active or inactive service. If, however, there is a break in service, the time between periods of service usually is not included. Also, there are statutory periods when service in a particular component may not be counted. Conversely, there are periods for which some members are given constructive service, even though they were not actually serving on active or inactive duty. Use subparagraphs 2.1.3 through 2.1.5 to compute the basic pay date when there has been a break in service of any kind or if there is a need to include constructive service.

2.1.3. Creditable Service Periods. Include active or inactive service in any of the following components without restriction:

2.1.3.1. Regular service in the Army, Air Force, Navy, Coast Guard, and Marine Corps;

2.1.3.2. Army, Naval, Marine Corps, Air Force, and Coast Guard Reserve;

2.1.3.3. Army of the United States (service without specification of a component);

2.1.3.4. Army National Guard;

2.1.3.5. Army National Guard of the United States;

2.1.3.6. National Guard;

2.1.3.7. National Guard of the United States;

2.1.3.8. Air Force of the United States (service without specification of a component);

2.1.3.9. Air National Guard;

2.1.3.10. Air National Guard of the United States;

2.1.3.11. Nurse Corps and Nurse Corps Reserve of the Public Health Service; or

2.1.3.12. Public Health Service and Reserve Corps of the Public Health Service.

2.1.4. Other Creditable Service (with restrictions noted in this subparagraph and in subparagraph 2.2.1). Include the following periods of service:

2.1.4.1. Officer, deck officer, or junior engineer service in the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration, including similar periods of service in the former Corps of the Environmental Science Services Administration and the U.S. Coast and Geodetic Survey;
2.1.4.2. Service on a Military Service retired list, temporary disability retired list, or honorary retired list of any Uniformed Service or service as a member of the Fleet Reserve or Fleet Marine Corps Reserve;

2.1.4.3. Any period of service during which a member is entitled to retired, retirement, or retainer pay from any Uniformed Service;

2.1.4.4. Service as a cadet or midshipman at a military academy is always creditable service for an enlisted member who is not commissioned. For a prior service member, he/she reverts back to his/her enlisted status to complete their enlistment contract. See Table 1-1 to determine whether such service is creditable for commissioned and warrant officers;

2.1.4.5. Credit the time when an enlisted member is retained after the expiration of term of service of an Armed Force for medical care or hospitalization for disease or injury incident to service. Do not credit such periods of service if the underlying medical condition requiring medical care or hospitalization was due to the member’s misconduct;

2.1.4.6. Service otherwise creditable that is performed before a member reaches the statutory age for enlistment, unless the enlistment contract was voided or invalidated for fraud;

2.1.4.7. Active service performed as a temporary member of the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve;

2.1.4.8. Service terminated by desertion or dishonorable discharge unless the enlistment was fraudulent and was voided for that reason;

2.1.4.9. Periods of service when a member is detailed to and receiving pay and allowances from any other agency of the United States, even though accruing military pay, and allowances is suspended;

2.1.4.10. Service as a member of the Army, Navy, or Air Force Reserve Officers’ Training Corps (ROTC), provided the member has concurrent Selected Reserve (drilling status) for duty performed on or after August 1, 1979. Also, see subparagraph 2.1.4.14;

2.1.4.11. Service as an officer, Army field clerk, flight officer, aviation midshipman, or enlisted member of a uniformed service;

2.1.4.12. Service as an enlisted member in a Reserve Component, including Ready Reserve service (inactive and active) under the Delayed Entry (Enlistment) Program (DEP), before beginning active duty or an initial period of Active Duty Training (ADT), provided the Reserve enlistment was entered into before January 1, 1985. As of January 1, 1985, the following restrictions went into effect as and when stated:

2.1.4.12.1. For enlistments in a Reserve Component under Title 10, U.S.C., section 12103(b) or (d), including enlistments under a DEP, that were entered into between January 1, 1985, and November 28, 1989, the period served in the Reserve Component before beginning active duty or an initial period of ADT is not creditable; or

2.1.4.12.2. For enlistments entered into on or after November 29, 1989:

2.1.4.12.2.1. A period of enlisted service in a Reserve Component under 10 U.S.C. § 12103(b) or (d), including inactive service under a DEP, is creditable service only if the member performs Inactive Duty Training (IDT) before beginning active duty or an initial period of ADT; or

2.1.4.12.2.2. Service performed as an enlisted member in a Reserve Component under 10 U.S.C. § 513, other than a period of active duty, is not creditable service; or

2.1.4.13. Any period of service which was creditable under any federal statute in effect on January 10, 1962.

2.1.4.14. Prior provisions of law excluded the Simultaneous Membership Program from creditable service for commissioned officers, effective October 13, 1964. Title 10 U.S.C. § 2106 amended these provisions to provide service credit retroactive to August 1, 1979. These amendments resulted in no increase in pay, retired pay, or retainer pay before the date of enactment, September 23, 1996. Service in the program for enlisted members who retain that status remains creditable under all provisions.

2.1.5. Constructive Service

2.1.5.1. Some medical and dental officers are entitled to extra credit for longevity purposes to reflect the time spent in medical or dental school. Medical and dental officers must meet one or more of the following criteria to be entitled to the constructive credit.

2.1.5.1.1. On or before September 15, 1981, the officer already had the constructive service credit, then the credit is not lost if there is a break in service either before or after that date. This criterion is applicable to Public Health Service officers.

2.1.5.1.2. On or before September 14, 1981, the individual was enrolled in either the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program (AFHPSP) or in the Doctor of Medicine (DOM) program at the Uniformed Services University of Health Sciences (USUHS), completed that program, and was appointed as a medical or dental officer.

2.1.5.1.3. On or before September 14, 1981, the individual was participating in a program that credited years of service and led to an appointment as an officer in the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps.

2.1.5.2. Medical and dental officers, who meet the criteria in subparagraph 2.1.5.1, are entitled to 4 years of constructive service credit. Also, those medical officers who have completed a medical internship or its equivalent, or who entered military status while serving such an internship, are entitled to a fifth year of constructive service credit.
2.1.5.3. Where a member is entitled to service credit for a period covered by the constructive credit, reduce the constructive service credit by an amount equal to the actual service credit.

Example 1: An individual completed dental school on June 11, 1977, and accepted a commission as a dental officer on August 3, 1977. The member was credited with 4 years of constructive service and a basic pay date of August 3, 1973.

Example 2: An individual completed a medical internship on June 30, 1979, and accepted a commission as a medical officer on August 11, 1979. The member was credited with 5 years of constructive service and a basic pay date of August 11, 1974.

Example 3: An individual entered medical school in 1970 and accepted a commission on January 12, 1972. He graduated from medical school on June 10, 1974, and completed a civilian residency during the period from July 1, 1974, through June 30, 1975. Compute basic pay date as follows:

First, compute dual status period, which is the period of time between the date of commission and date of graduation:

<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Graduated:</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>06</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commission Date:</td>
<td>72</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dual Status Period:</td>
<td>02</td>
<td>04</td>
<td>28+1 (inclusive day)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Then, compute constructive service credit, which is the 4 years constructive credit less the time already credited as commissioned service:

Maximum Constructive Service Credit: 03 11 30 (4 years)
Less Dual Status Time: 02 04 29
Constructive Credit: 01 07 01

The member’s basic pay date was 1 year, 7 months, and 1 day before his commission date of January 12, 1972, or June 11, 1970.

Example 4: The scenario is the same as in the previous subparagraph, except the member accepted a commission on July 12, 1974, after starting the internship. The member was entitled to 5 years of constructive service credit instead of 4 years:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Date Finished Internship:</td>
<td>75</td>
<td>06</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Commission Date:</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>07</td>
<td>12</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dual Status Period:</td>
<td>00</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>18+1 (inclusive day)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
Maximum Constructive
Service Credit:  04 11 30 (5 years)
Less Dual Status Time:  00 11 19
Constructive Credit:  04 00 11

The member’s basic pay date was 4 years, no months, and 11 days before his commission date, or July 1, 1970.

Example 5: An officer commissioned on November 19, 1962, entered dental school on September 9, 1970, and graduated on May 28, 1974. To compute constructive service credit:

First, compute dual status:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Stage</th>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Month</th>
<th>Day</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Graduated</td>
<td>74</td>
<td>05</td>
<td>28</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Started School</td>
<td>70</td>
<td>09</td>
<td>09</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Dual Service</td>
<td>03</td>
<td>08</td>
<td>19+1 inclusive day</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Then, deduct the dual service from the 4-year constructive credit period to arrive at net constructive service credit:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Stage</th>
<th>Year</th>
<th>Month</th>
<th>Day</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Maximum Constructive Service Credit:</td>
<td>03</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Less Dual Service:</td>
<td>03</td>
<td>08</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Constructive Credit:</td>
<td>00</td>
<td>03</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Change the member’s basic pay date to 3 months and 10 days before the previous one (November 19, 1962) to August 10, 1962.

2.2 Service Not Creditable

2.2.1. General. Do not use any service that is not listed as creditable service to compute a basic pay date. The following list includes a few types of service that are not creditable:

2.2.1.1. The time served in an enlistment that is terminated, voided, or invalidated as fraudulent;

2.2.1.2. The time served as a commissioned officer in the Philippine Army;

2.2.1.3. The period of time a member was on the Emergency Officers’ Retired List;

2.2.1.4. The time an individual was a member of a state, home, or territorial guard;
2.2.1.5. The time an individual was a member of the inactive National Guard. This does not apply to an individual who was a member of the National Guard Reserve and the National Guard of the United States. Time during which the individual had dual status, enlisted or commissioned, in the inactive National Guard and the National Guard of the United States is creditable;

2.2.1.6. The time, subsequent to September 14, 1981, a member serves while enrolled in the AFHPSP and Financial Assistance Program (FAP), or while a DOM student at the USUHS. Use any service creditable on the date of the officer’s entry into DOM USUHS to compute the officer’s basic pay for longevity purposes while a USUHS student, not to exceed the maximum rate of O-1 pay (Table 1-7) or O-1E pay (Table 1-8), as applicable, or the rate of pay of the member’s former pay grade, if greater, as outlined in subparagraph 3.3.1. For the most current pay rates, see the Military Basic Pay tables on DFAS.MIL;

2.2.1.7. The time served in a Reserve Component before beginning active duty or an initial period of ADT for enlistment in a Reserve Component under 10 U.S.C. § 12103(b) or (d) that was entered into between January 1, 1985, and November 28, 1989;

2.2.1.8. For enlistments entered into on or after November 29, 1989:

2.2.1.8.1. A period of enlisted service in a Reserve Component under 10 U.S.C. § 12103(b) or (d), including inactive service under a DEP, if the member does not perform IDT before beginning active duty or an initial period of ADT; or

2.2.1.8.2. Service performed as an enlisted member in a Reserve Component under 10 U.S.C. § 513, other than a period of active duty; or

2.2.1.9. For an officer, the time served while attending a military service academy including the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy.

NOTE: The midshipmen attending the U.S. Merchant Marine Academy sign contracts to join the enlisted Navy Reserve on the day they enter the Academy. Students who attend one of the six state Merchant Marine college programs and who receive a Naval ROTC scholarship are treated the same as any Naval ROTC cadet or midshipmen. Students who attend one of the six state Merchant Marine college programs and who join the Navy after graduation from one of the programs are treated as any other member who joins the Navy.

2.2.2. Effect of Lost Time Absence From Duty on Creditable Service

2.2.2.1. Prior to February 11, 1996, a commissioned or warrant officer was entitled to credit for every day in a commissioned or warrant status, without regard to an absence of any kind, whether authorized or unauthorized, and including confinement prior to and during trial. In addition, absence during which a member was serving on active duty as an enlisted member was creditable if the enlisted member also held a commission as a Reserve officer. After February 10, 1996, a commissioned or warrant officer may not count the following periods of absence for any purpose other than that of computing length of service for basic pay:
2.2.2.1.1. Desertion;

2.2.2.1.2. Absence from organization, station, or duty for more than 1 day without proper authority, as determined by proper authority;

2.2.2.1.3. Confinement by military or civilian authorities for more than 1 day in connection with a trial, whether before, during, or after the trial; or

2.2.2.1.4. The officer’s inability for more than 1 day, as determined by competent authority, to perform assigned duties because of the officer’s intemperate use of drugs or alcoholic liquor, or because of disease or injury resulting from the officer’s misconduct.

2.2.2.2. See Table 1-2 to determine the creditability for absence while in an enlisted status.

2.3 Active Enlisted and/or Warrant Officer Service for Members in Basic Pay Grades O-1E, O-2E, or O-3E

2.3.1. Service Counted

2.3.1.1. General. Commissioned officers with over 4 years of prior active service as an enlisted member, warrant officer, or combined service in both grades are entitled to count such service for purposes of computing basic pay for longevity purposes. Such prior service includes all active service, in either the Regular or Reserve Component or both (i.e., ADT in enlisted or warrant officer status, annual Reserve training duty, and full-time National Guard duty). Service on active duty or ADT and IDT for at least 4 years and 1 day satisfies the over 4 years of service requirement under this section.

2.3.1.2. Creditable Prior Enlisted Service. Commissioned officers in pay grades O-1, O-2, or O-3 who are credited with over 4 years (i.e., at least 4 years and 1 day) of prior active service as an enlisted member are entitled to the special rate of basic pay for pay grade O-1E, O-2E, or O-3E.

2.3.1.3. Creditable Prior Warrant Officer Service. Commissioned officers in pay grades O-1, O-2, or O-3 who are credited with over 4 years (i.e., at least 4 years and 1 day) of prior active service as a warrant officer are entitled to the special rate of basic pay for pay grade O-1E, O-2E, or O-3E.

2.3.1.4. Creditable Combined Prior Service. Effective October 1, 1993, commissioned officers in pay grades O-1, O-2, or O-3 who are credited with over 4 years (i.e., at least 4 years and 1 day) of combined prior active service as an enlisted member and warrant officer are entitled to the special rate of basic pay for pay grade O-1E, O-2E, or O-3E.

2.3.1.5. Creditable Service for Certain Reserve Commissioned Officers. Effective January 1, 2002, commissioned officers in pay grades O-1, O-2, and O-3 who are paid from funds appropriated for Reserve personnel and credited with 1,460 points for retirement computed under 10 U.S.C. § 12732(a)(2) for service as a warrant officer and/or enlisted member, which requires a minimum of 50 points annually, are entitled to the special rate of basic pay for pay grade O-1E, O-2E, or O-3E.

2.3.1.6. Creditable Service for Certain Commissioned Officers. Effective November 24, 2003, the restriction that members must be paid from reserve appropriated funds to qualify for the special rate of basic pay for pay grades O-1E, O-2E, and O-3E based upon creditable service points is eliminated. Therefore, effective that date, commissioned officers in pay grades O-1 through O-3 with more than 1,460 points computed under 10 U.S.C. § 12732(a)(2) for service as a warrant officer and/or an enlisted member, which requires a minimum of 50 points annually, are entitled to the special rate of pay.

2.3.1.7. Leap Year. Reserve Component members who perform duty during a leap year earn a point for the extra day of duty in the month of February under 10 U.S.C. § 12732(a)(2). A leap year represents 1 year of service for basic pay purposes. Thus, the extra point does not qualify the member for having earned the equivalent of over 4 years of active service, and the member would not be eligible for the O-1E, O-2E, or O-3E rate of basic pay. The member would have to serve more than 4 years of active service to qualify for the special rate of basic pay.

2.3.1.8. Creditable Service While Graduate Students at USUHS. The Secretary of Defense will establish such selection procedures, service obligations, and other requirements as the Secretary considers appropriate for graduate students (other than DOM students) in a postdoctoral, postgraduate, or technological institute established pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 2113(e). The subparagraph 2.2.1.8 does not apply to graduate students.

2.3.2. Service Not Counted. In computing active service, do not count:

2.3.2.1. Active service in a dual status (temporary officer/permanent enlisted) in the Navy or Marine Corps;

2.3.2.2. Service as a National Guard technician; or

2.3.2.3. Except for periods of active duty service performed while a USUHS DOM student, time served as a DOM student at USUHS. See subparagraph 2.2.1.8 and applicable notes to Tables 1-7, 1-8, and the Basic Pay tables on DFAS.MIL.

2.4 Computation of Creditable Service

2.4.1. Computing a Basic Pay Date

2.4.1.1. All basic pay date computations start from the date of the member’s most recent entry on duty without a break in service. Use the following dates:

2.4.1.1. For enlisted members, the date of enlistment, but see subparagraph 2.1.4.12 for service under a DEP;
2.4.1.1.2. For officers, the date of acceptance of a commission. The date of acceptance for officers graduating from a Military Service academy is the date of graduation; or

2.4.1.1.3. For officers entitled to count service as an acting assistant surgeon, intern, or hospital steward in the Public Health Service or the Public Health Marine Hospital Service, the date of acceptance of the appointment. Do not count service performed before that date.

2.4.1.2. After determining initial basic pay date, compute creditable service for all service prior to that date. Use the following to compute basic pay date. If the member had any periods of service during which there was lost time, do not use those periods here. Instead, compute according to subparagraph 2.4.1.3.

2.4.1.2.1. List beginning dates of service for each separate period of service, without changing any of them, and add them together.

2.4.1.2.2. List all ending dates. If the day is the 31st day of the month, change it to 30. If the day is February 28 in a non-leap year, change it to February 30 for computation purposes. If the day is February 29, change it to February 30 for computation purposes. Do not change February 28 of a leap year to February 30. Add all ending dates together.

2.4.1.2.3. Subtract the beginning day result from the ending day result.

2.4.1.2.4. For each non-continuous period of service, add 1 day to account for inclusive days. Explanation: Any period of service is at least one day. If, for example, the member had one day of service on January 17, 2016, the computation would look like this:

Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Ending Day:</th>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>16 01 17</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Less Beginning Day:</td>
<td>16</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>17</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>00 00 00</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

It is necessary to add 1 day for inclusive days to avoid this erroneous answer.

2.4.1.2.5. Convert to full years, months, and days. The result is years of service creditable for pay purposes.

Example: Member served as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Service Type</th>
<th>From</th>
<th>To</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Active Duty Army (Enlisted)</td>
<td>Jan 1, 93</td>
<td>Feb 29, 96</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Army National Guard (Commissioned)</td>
<td>Jun 1, 96</td>
<td>May 26, 03</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Air National Guard (Commissioned)</td>
<td>Aug 1, 05</td>
<td>Mar 31, 10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>U.S. Air Force (Commissioned)</td>
<td>Apr 1, 10</td>
<td>Jun 4, 17</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
Convert February 29, 1996, to February 30, 1996, since 1996 was a leap year.

Convert March 31, 2010, to March 30, 2010, since the 31st day of a month does not count as an ending date, though it would count as a beginning date. The period from August 1, 2005, through June 4, 2017, is continuous, so it is all included in the third line of the computation.

Subtract total of beginning dates from the total of ending dates:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6016</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6015</td>
<td>25</td>
<td>60</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>5994</td>
<td>15</td>
<td>03</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>21</td>
<td>10</td>
<td>57</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Add 1 day for each of the 3 periods used in the computation. The result is 21 years, 10 months, and 60 days, which converts to exactly 22 years of creditable service.

2.4.1.3. Regarding computations involving lost time, if a member has lost time, compute the creditable service for the period served separately. Add the results to any creditable service computed separately under subparagraph 2.4.1.2.

2.4.1.3.1. When there is a period of lost time that has not been made good, compute the lost time on a 30-day month basis, but if the lost time begins on the 31st day of a month, include that day as a lost day. Compute as follows.

Determine the years, months, and days of lost time and deduct that amount from the total service during the period.

Example: A member enlisted for 4 years on July 18, 2012, but was absent without leave (AWOL) from February 10, 2015, through March 16, 2015. The member received a hardship discharge on August 10, 2015, without making up the lost time. The member reenlisted February 20, 2017. Compute creditable service and basic pay date as follows.

First compute the lost time.
YR  MO  DAY
End AWOL:  15  03  16
Began AWOL:  15  02  10
Lost Time:  00  01  06+1 (inclusive day)

Then compute first period of service.
Discharged:  15  08  10
Entered Active Duty:  -12  07  18
Subtotal:  03  00  22+1 (inclusive day)
Deduct Lost Time:  -00  01  07
Creditable Service:  02  11  16

Subtract 2 years, 11 months, and 16 days from reenlistment date of February 20, 2017, to arrive at a new basic pay date of March 4, 2014.

2.4.1.3.2. A member who makes good the lost time does so on a day-to-day basis. When the member makes good on lost time and completes the enlistment or contract period, compute the period of lost time on both a 30-day month basis and a day-to-day basis and use the result that is most advantageous to the member. To illustrate, if a member is AWOL on March 30 through April 1, it would be 3 days on the day-to-day basis but only 2 days on a 30-day month basis. Compute creditable service as follows (and separately from periods of service which do not have lost time).

2.4.1.3.2.1. First step: Compute total lost time on both a 30-day basis and a day-to-day basis. Convert the day-to-day basis computation to years, months and days, and compare it to the computation on the 30-day basis. Discard the one which shows a higher total of days lost.

2.4.1.3.2.2. Second step: Compute the gross amount of service during the period by subtracting the entry date from the discharge date and adding 1 day for inclusive day.

2.4.1.3.2.3. Third step: Subtract the lost time from the result of the second step. If the result is at least as long as the enlistment contract, use that amount. If the result is less than the enlistment contract, increase it to equal the enlistment contract.

2.4.1.3.2.4. Fourth step: Add this creditable service to any other periods and use the total to figure the member’s basic pay date.

Example 1: Assume the member in the example in subparagraph 2.4.1.3 had not received a hardship discharge; instead, he or she had completed the enlistment contract, including making good the lost time. He made up the 35 days of lost time computed on a day-to-day basis. The days served to make good the lost time were July 18-31, 2016 (14 days) and August 1-21, 2016 (21 days).
When the member reenlists on February 20, 2017, compute creditable service as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>16</td>
<td>08</td>
<td>21</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-12</td>
<td>07</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>04</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>03</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The result is 4 years, 1 month and 4 days before deducting lost time. Note that the lost time computed on a 30-day month basis was 37 days, but was only 35 days when computed on a day-to-day basis. Subtract the 35 days lost time from the period of service computed.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>04</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>04</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-00</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>05</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>03</td>
<td>11</td>
<td>29</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

The result is less than the enlistment contract of 4 years, but since the member completed the enlistment contract, he or she is entitled to credit for the entire 4 years. Set basic pay date at February 20, 2013, when the member reenlists on February 20, 2017.

Example 2: A member enlisted on July 18, 2012, for 4 years. She was AWOL from July 28, 2015, through September 3, 2015, which is 38 days on a day-to-day basis (July 28-31, 4 days; August 1-31, 31 days; and September 1-3, 3 days). She is discharged on August 24, 2016, after making good the 38 days of bad time by serving July 18-31 (14 days) and August 1-24 (24 days).

Step 1. When she reenlists on February 20, 2017, compute prior service as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>16</td>
<td>08</td>
<td>24</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-12</td>
<td>07</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>04</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>06+1</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The result is 4 years, 1 month and 7 days before deducting lost time.

Step 2. Lost time on a day-to-day basis was 38 days. Compute lost time on a 30-day month basis as:

- July 28-31, 2015, 03 days
- August 1-30, 2015, 30 days
- September 1-3, 2015, 03 days
- Total 36 days
Step 3. Following the rule set out in step 2, deduct the lost time in the manner most beneficial to the member.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>04</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>07</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-00</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>06</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>04</td>
<td>00</td>
<td>01</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

Step 4. Set the basic pay date at February 19, 2013, when the member reenlists on February 20, 2017.

2.4.1.4. Regarding adjusting the basic pay date when a member has lost time, lost time does not change an officer’s basic pay date (See paragraph 2.2.2). When an enlisted person returns to duty after a period of lost time, add the number of days lost time to the member’s basic pay date to reflect the lost time.”

Example: An enlisted member with no prior service enlisted on July 18, 2015. He was AWOL from February 10, 2017, through March 16, 2017. When the member returns to duty status, change his basic pay date as follows:

Compute lost time:

February 10-30 21 days
March 1-16 16 days
37 days lost time

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>YR</th>
<th>MO</th>
<th>DAY</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>15</td>
<td>07</td>
<td>18</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>+00</td>
<td>01</td>
<td>07</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>15</td>
<td>08</td>
<td>25</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

The new basic pay date is August 25, 2015.

2.4.2. Procedure When Basic Pay Date Falls on February 29. When basic pay date falls on February 29, entitlement to longevity increases begins on March 1 in non-leap years and on February 29 in leap years.

3.0 COMPUTATION OF PAY

3.1 Basic Pay Entitlements

3.1.1. When Entitled to Basic Pay. The pay of Military Service members is prescribed by law. Current basic pay rates are contained in Tables 1-7, 1-8, 1-9, 1-10, and on the Basic Pay tables on DFAS.MIL. Members are entitled to receive pay according to their pay grades and years of service if they are:
3.1.1. On active duty in a pay status; and

3.1.2. Not prohibited by law from receiving such pay.

3.1.2. Employment of Members in Another Capacity

3.1.2.1. Employment Under the Government

3.1.2.1.1. Unless otherwise provided by law (such as during the period a member is on terminal leave pending retirement, separation, or release from active duty under honorable conditions), a member may not be employed in another capacity by the government and receive pay, other than the pay and allowances that accrue by reason of the military status. A member may be employed, however, on a voluntary basis during off-duty hours in connection with non-appropriated fund activities.

3.1.2.1.2. Under agreements such as that between the DoD and the Agency for International Development (AID) of the Department of State, military members may be detailed to agencies such as AID for certain types of service for specified periods. As provided in pertinent agreements, members that are detailed are entitled to the pay and allowances of employees of the agency (AID Foreign Service personnel, in the case of that agency) holding comparable positions. Such members are paid by the agency in which service is performed, not by the Military Service involved.

3.1.2.2. Acceptance or Holding Civil Office

3.1.2.2.1. An officer of an Armed Force on active duty may not be employed on civil functions if the civil duties separate the member from the parent organization or interfere with the performance of military duties. This applies to employment on civil works or internal improvements, by an incorporated company, or as acting paymaster or disbursing agent of the Bureau of Indian Affairs.

3.1.2.2.2. Unless otherwise provided by law, an officer of a Regular Component of the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps may not hold a civil office by election or appointment under the United States, a territory, possession, or state. Acceptance of such position terminates the officer’s appointment and any further entitlement to receive pay and allowances whether or not the officer continues to fulfill the duties as an officer subsequent to accepting the office.

3.1.2.3. Medical Officers. Medical officers on active duty who receive any compensation or stipend payments for services they perform as interns or resident physicians in private or public institutions (state, county, municipal, or privately owned hospitals) receive such payments for the benefit of the United States. Collect these payments from medical officers for deposit to the U.S. Treasury.
3.1.3. Formal Acceptance of Appointment by Officers

3.1.3.1. Pay and allowances generally accrue from the date of acceptance of appointment as an officer. The normal method of acceptance is taking the oath of office. Commencement of travel in compliance with an order is considered acceptance for pay purposes, but payment will not be made until formal signing of the oath of office. See Table 1-3 for specifics and for graduates of the academies.

3.1.3.2. An officer need not take the oath of office upon promotion if the service has been continuous since the last oath.

Note: See Table 1-4 for other situations regarding effective dates for promotions or restoration of grade.

3.1.4. Restriction Against Dual Payments

3.1.4.1. Except as prescribed in subparagraph 3.1.4.3, a Reserve member who is entitled to disability compensation or a pension from the Department of Veterans Affairs (VA) because of earlier military service, and who performs military duty for which the member is entitled to compensation, may elect to receive either of the following for the period of military duty:

3.1.4.1.1. Payments for the VA disability compensation or pension; or 3.1.4.1.2. If the member specifically waives those payments, the pay and allowances authorized by law for the duty the member is performing.

3.1.4.2. Except as prescribed in subparagraph 3.1.4.3, a Reserve member who is entitled to retired or retainer pay because of earlier military service, and who performs military duty for which the member is entitled to compensation, may elect to receive either of the following for the period of military duty:

3.1.4.2.1. Payments of the pay and allowance authorized by law for the duty the member is performing; or

3.1.4.2.2. If the member specifically waives those payments, the retired or retainer pay to which the member is entitled.

3.1.4.3. A Reserve member who is called to active duty for a period of more than 30 days in time of war or national emergency generally ceases to be entitled to payments based on earlier military service until the period of active duty ends and is entitled to the pay and allowances authorized by law for the duty the member is performing. However, where the payments based on earlier military service exceed the payments for the active duty, the member may receive the former payments instead.
3.1.5. Posthumous Promotions. Members may be promoted posthumously. The amount of bonus, gratuity, pay, or allowances is not changed by these promotions. This payment restriction does not apply to promotions of members while in a missing status where a determination by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned is subsequently made that the member died before the date of the promotion.

3.1.6. Corrections of Military Record. Members who are separated from active service, but later retroactively restored to active duty by administrative record correction action, become entitled to retroactive military pay and allowances for the period of restoration subject to the following: The purpose of such a record correction is to restore the member to the same position the member would have had if he or she had not been separated from military service, without awarding an unearned windfall. When settling such an account, the earnings received from civilian employment during the period of restoration to active duty must be deducted from the net balance of military pay and allowances otherwise due. Any amount of civilian earnings in excess of the net balance of retroactive military pay and allowances otherwise due will not be collected so as not to place the member in debt. Additionally, amounts paid to a member for military retired pay, separation pay, severance pay, and/or VA pension or compensation during what is now a period of active duty under a record correction must be taken into account when determining the amount of retroactive military pay and allowances due, if they have not otherwise been recouped or accounted for. To the extent authorized by law and regulation, amounts found due must be reduced by the amount of any existing indebtedness to the government arising from military service.

3.2 Computing Monthly Pay

3.2.1. Monthly Pay

3.2.1.1. Service of 30 Days or More. Compute monthly compensation as if each month had 30 days. When service begins on an intermediate day of the month, pay for the actual number of days served during that calendar month, but only through the 30th day of that month. If active military service begins on the 31st day of any month, compensation does not accrue for that day. Any person who enters active service during February and serves until the end of the month is entitled to pay for 1 month (30 days), less the prorated amount for the number of days expired before entry on duty. If the service ends before the last day of February, pay the member only for the actual number of days served.

3.2.1.2. Service of Less Than 30 Days. Members of the Uniformed Services entitled to receive compensation for continuous periods of less than 1 month are entitled to pay and allowances for each day of the period at the rate of 1/30 of the monthly amount of such pay and allowances. Include the 31st day of a calendar month in the computation. Members who are obligated to serve on active duty for 30 days or more, but who were released before performing such active duty for at least 30 days, are entitled to receive pay and allowances on a day-to-day basis.

3.2.2. Absence Without Pay

3.2.2.1. Deduct 1/30 of 1 month’s pay for each day’s absence in a non-pay status.
3.2.2.2. No pay is lost for unauthorized absence on the 31st day of a month, except when it is the first day of absence or when the member is paid for the day under subparagraph 3.2.1.2.

3.2.2.3. Absence in a non-pay status on the 28th of February in a non-leap year result in loss of pay for 3 days. If the member is absent only on the 28th day of February in a leap year, deduct the pay for 1 day for the 28th. If the absence occurs on the 29th of February, deduct pay for 2 days. When payment is made under subparagraph 3.2.1.2, on the basis of each day served, deduct only for the actual period of unauthorized absence.

3.2.3. Annual Salary. Annual salary is divided into 12 equal installments. One installment represents the pay for each calendar month. The daily rate is 1/30 of the monthly rate. The instructions in subparagraph 3.2.1 for monthly pay also apply to annual salary.

3.2.4. Basic Pay Rates. Tables 1-7 through 1-10 contain monthly rates of basic pay and are listed on the Basic Pay tables on DFAS.MIL.

3.3 Saved Pay and Allowances

3.3.1. Enlisted. An enlisted member who accepts an appointment as an officer will, following appointment, be paid the greater of:

3.3.1.1. The pay and allowances to which such member would be entitled if the member had remained in the last enlisted grade held before appointment as an officer and continued to receive increases in pay and allowances authorized for that grade; or

3.3.1.2. The pay and allowances to which the member thereafter becomes entitled as an officer.

3.3.2. Warrant Officers. A warrant officer who accepts an appointment as a commissioned officer will, following appointment, be paid the greater of:

3.3.2.1. The pay and allowances to which the member thereafter becomes entitled as a commissioned officer;

3.3.2.2. The pay and allowances to which such member would be entitled if the member had remained in the last warrant officer grade held before appointment as a commissioned officer and continued to receive increases in pay and allowances authorized for that grade; or

3.3.2.3. In the case of an officer who was formerly an enlisted member, the pay and allowances to which entitled, under subparagraph 3.3.1.1, before appointment as an officer.

3.3.3. Prior Service Medical Students. Members selected to participate as DOM students at the USUHS, or in the AFHPSP and FAP, who have prior active service, including members who have had a break in service, in a pay grade with years of service greater than the rate of second lieutenant or ensign, will be authorized saved pay for the basic pay rate of the former grade. The former basic pay rate will be increased on January 1 of each year by the average percentage increase authorized for that year. The member will continue to receive the former pay rate until the date, occurring before or after graduation or participation in the program, that the member’s actual grade and years of service basic pay rate exceeds the former grade rate. This saved pay provision applies only to basic pay. The member’s other pay entitlements will be paid at the member’s actual grade and years of service.

3.3.4. Restrictions

3.3.4.1. Except for prior service DOM students discussed in subparagraph 3.3.3, a member entitled to saved pay is not authorized the pay for one grade and an allowance for another grade.

3.3.4.2. The saved pay amount may be reduced when the member loses entitlement to specific items. However, these specific items will be included in saved pay if the member again qualifies for such items (See subparagraph 3.3.4.7.).

3.3.4.3. In the case of the Navy or Marine Corps, a member in a temporary appointment is not entitled to saved pay because of a permanent promotion.

3.3.4.4. BAH may be continued as an item of saved pay and will be paid whenever it is not forfeited because the member is assigned to government quarters.

3.3.4.5. For enlisted members, BAS is the alternative for subsistence in kind. Since officers are not authorized subsistence in kind, a member eligible for saved pay is entitled to the appropriate BAS rate (including the “when permitted to mess separately rate” even when subsistence in kind otherwise would be provided or made available) under the conditions prevailing for enlisted members at their permanent station. Credit BAS at the “when permitted to mess separately rate” at all times, except when the member would otherwise be entitled to a different rate (See Chapter 25, paragraph 2.2.).

3.3.4.6. For appointments accepted before January 6, 2006, special duty assignment pay, incentive pay for hazardous duty, special pay for diving duty, special pay for sea duty, and hardship duty pay may be retained as an item of saved pay only for as long as the member continues to perform the duty and would be eligible to receive payment had the member remained in the former status.

3.3.4.7. For appointments accepted on or after January 6, 2006, in determining the amount of pay and allowances of a grade formerly held by an officer who was an enlisted member and accepted an appointment as an officer, the following special and incentive pays may be considered only so long as the officer continues to perform the duty that creates the entitlement to, or eligibility for, that pay and would otherwise be eligible to receive that pay in the former grade:

3.3.4.7.1. Incentive pay for hazardous duty;

3.3.4.7.2. Submarine duty pay;
3.3.4.7.3. Special pay for diving duty;

3.3.4.7.4. Hardship duty pay;

3.3.4.7.5. Career sea pay;

3.3.4.7.6. Special pay for service as a member of a Weapons of Mass Destruction Civil Support Team;

3.3.4.7.7. Assignment incentive pay;

3.3.4.7.8. Special pay for duty subject to hostile fire or imminent danger;

3.3.4.7.9. Special pay or bonus for an extension of duty at a designated overseas location;

3.3.4.7.10. Foreign language proficiency bonus; and

3.3.4.7.11. Critical skill retention bonus.

3.3.4.8. The enlisted cash clothing allowances prescribed in Chapter 29 may not be included in the saved pay computation if the officer is entitled to the initial uniform allowance prescribed in Chapter 30, section 2.0.

3.3.4.9. Family Separation for Housing (FSH) may be continued as an item of saved pay under the same conditions as BAH (see subparagraph 3.3.4.4). If the member was entitled to FSH due to an enforced separation from the member’s family at the time of appointment, the allowance may be included in the computation of saved pay until the entitlement ends. FSH may be reinstated for future periods if the member again qualifies for FSH due to an enforced separation from the family. Similarly, other items of overseas station allowance and/or special or incentive pay may be reinstated if a member again qualifies for them.

3.3.4.10. Effective January 6, 2006, the following special and incentive pays are dependent on a member being in an enlisted status and may not be considered in determining the amount of pay and allowances of a grade formerly held by an officer:

3.3.4.10.1. Special duty assignment pay;

3.3.4.10.2. Reenlistment bonus;

3.3.4.10.3. Enlistment bonus; and

3.3.4.10.4. Critical skill incentive pay (see Chapter 22, section 5.0).

3.3.5. Breaks in Service. A break in service (e.g., released from active duty or discharged) does not disqualify an officer for the saved pay and allowances entitlements of this section.
3.4 Increased Basic Pay During a Period of Service Essential to the Public Interest

3.4.1. Entitlement to Increased Basic Pay. This section applies only to enlisted members of the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, or Naval or Marine Corps Reserve, whose enlistments expire while serving on a naval vessel in foreign waters.

3.4.1.1. Retention in Service. Such members may be retained on active duty until the naval vessel returns to the Continental United States (CONUS) if the period of retention is determined “service essential to the public interests.” The senior officer present afloat makes this determination.

3.4.1.2. Pay and Allowances. During the period of retention, except in time of war, members are entitled to regular pay and allowances, plus a 25-percent increase in the basic pay, to which they were entitled on the day before the period of retention began.

3.4.2. Members Not Eligible for Increase

3.4.2.1. Enlisted members are not entitled to the increased basic pay if retained on active duty after the expiration of enlistment:

3.4.2.1.1. At shore stations;

3.4.2.1.2. On ships on duty in waters in or around possessions and territories of the United States;

3.4.2.1.3. On ships on duty in ports or waters within the sovereign jurisdiction of the United States;

3.4.2.1.4. Due to lack of transportation; or

3.4.2.1.5. Merely because it is desirable to continue their services, or some benefit may be derived there from.

3.4.2.2. A member of the Naval Reserve or Marine Corps Reserve is not entitled to the 25-percent increase while retained beyond the period of obligated service as distinguished from normal date of expiration of enlistment.

3.4.3. Restrictions in Use. Do not use the 25-percent increase in computing:

3.4.3.1. Cash settlement for unused leave on discharge;

3.4.3.2. Physical disability or temporary disability retired pay;

3.4.3.3. Disability severance pay; or

3.4.3.4. Reenlistment bonus.
3.4.4. Termination of Increase in Basic Pay. The 25-percent increase in basic pay continues through date of:

3.4.4.1. Discharge, if the member is discharged within 30 days after arrival in CONUS; or 3.4.4.2. Transfer to a hospital for treatment (See Table 1-5, rule 19 for the date of termination of normal pay and allowances.).

3.5 Allowable Travel Time for Reserve Members Called to or Released From Active Duty

3.5.1. Pay and Allowances Entitlement for Allowable Travel Time

3.5.1.1. Reserve members called to active duty are entitled to active duty pay and allowances for the time allowed for necessary travel from:

3.5.1.1.1. Home to a first duty station; or

3.5.1.1.2. Last duty station to home (except when released from active duty for retirement or dismissal, when discharged, or upon resignation).

3.5.1.2. Pay and allowances for allowable travel time is an earned entitlement. The payment for the return home may be made upon the member’s release from such duty without regard to actual performance of the travel. If the member dies after payment, but before payment would otherwise be due, no part of the payment will be recovered by the United States.

3.5.2. Terms and Special Conditions

3.5.2.1. Allowable travel time is considered active duty for all purposes normally ascribed to active duty. The computation of allowable travel time, whether actual or constructive will:

3.5.2.1.1. For periods of active duty of 30 days or less, be based upon the rules contained in Table 1-6; or

3.5.2.1.2. For periods of active duty of more than 30 days, be based upon the rules and provisions in Chapter 57.

3.5.2.2. A member of a Reserve Component is entitled to active duty pay and allowances for allowable travel time, if any, when:

3.5.2.2.1. Ordered to perform ADT;

3.5.2.2.2. Performing authorized IDT immediately before or after ADT at or near the same site; or 3.5.2.2.3. Receiving orders that direct performance of necessary travel to and from the ADT site immediately before and after combined ADT/IDT. The travel date will be specified in the active duty orders. Full retirement point credit is earned for the period of IDT performed.

4.0 ABSENCE FROM DUTY, EFFECT ON PAY, AND ALLOWANCES

4.1 Authorized Leave

4.1.1. Authority. All Military Service members on active duty for 30 consecutive days or more are entitled to accrue leave under applicable Military Service leave regulations. While on authorized leave, they are entitled to full pay and allowances except as otherwise provided in Table 1-11.

4.1.2. Applicable Service Leave Regulations. Applicable Military Service leave regulations are:

4.1.2.1. Army - Army Regulation 600-8-10;

4.1.2.2. Navy - Military Personnel Manual 1050-010;

4.1.2.3. Air Force and Space Force - Department of the Air Force Instruction 36-3003; and

4.1.2.4. Marine Corps - Marine Corps Order 1050.3J.

4.1.3. Pay and Allowances During Leave

4.1.3.1. Entitlement. See Table 1-11.

4.1.3.2. Full Pay and Allowances Defined. This term means (includes) the following:

4.1.3.2.1. Basic pay;

4.1.3.2.2. Special pays;

4.1.3.2.3. Incentive pay for hazardous duty;

4.1.3.2.4. BAS (enlisted leave rations);

4.1.3.2.5. BAH;

4.1.3.2.6. Personal money allowances;

4.1.3.2.7. Clothing maintenance allowances;
4.1.3.2.8. Family separation allowances; and

4.1.3.2.9. Station allowances (CONUS Cost of Living Allowance (See Chapter 67); and Overseas Cost of Living Allowance and Temporary Lodging Allowance (See Chapter 68).

4.1.4. Advance Leave Carryover or Change to Excess Leave (Effective November 14, 1986)

4.1.4.1. When Carryover Allowed. Members may elect to carry all or part of an advance leave balance over to a new term of service when discharged for the purpose of:

4.1.4.1.1. Reenlisting within 24 hours of discharge or extending an enlistment; or 4.1.4.1.2. Accepting an appointment as a warrant or commissioned officer of the Armed Forces. Carryover will not exceed the number of days or fraction of days the member will accrue in the new enlistment or term of service or 30 days, whichever is less.

Example 1: A member’s current term of service ends April 30, 2015. The member reenlists for 6 years on March 1, 2015, and has a 5.0-day advance leave balance. The 5.0-day advance leave balance can be carried into the new term of service.

Example 2: A member’s current term of service ends September 30, 2015. On May 1, 2015, the member agrees to serve a 12-month extension and has a 12.5-day advance leave balance that will be offset by leave accrual through September 30, 2015. Between May 1, 2015, and September 30, 2015, the member was charged for 30 days of leave. When the extension became operative (October 1, 2015), the member could elect to carry the 30.0-day advance leave balance into the new term of service (12-month extension).

4.1.4.2. Excess Leave. Advance leave becomes excess leave and requires collection of pay and allowances under the following conditions:

4.1.4.2.1. Discharge for the purpose of reenlisting, extending an enlistment, or accepting a warrant or commission, and advance leave exceeds 30 days;

4.1.4.2.2. Advance leave balance exceeds that which will accrue in the new enlistment or term of service (for example, enlistment or extension(s)), including when an agreement to extend is cancelled by the Military Service. If an agreement to extend is cancelled by the member for the purpose of immediate reenlistment, collect the advance under subparagraph 4.4.1.2.1, if applicable;

4.1.4.2.3. Relief from active duty;

4.1.4.2.4. Appointment as a cadet or midshipman at a Service academy;
4.1.4.2.5. Death; or

4.1.4.2.6. Return from a period of leave that was in excess of the number of days of leave and fractions thereof that the member will accrue before the normal expiration of current enlistment or term of active service. The term of an extension(s) will be considered when determining the normal expiration of current enlistment or term of active service. Extension(s) will be considered from the date the member agrees to the extension(s). Excess leave properly charged before the date a member extends a term of service (reenlistment, appointment or agrees to extend voluntarily or is involuntarily extended) will not be affected and under no circumstances will pay and allowances previously collected be refunded (See subparagraph 4.1.5 when it is known at the time leave is granted that the member will be in excess leave status).

Example 3: A member’s current term of service ended on March 31, 2016. The member reenlisted for 6 years on January 1, 2015, and had a 35.5-day advance leave balance. The member carried 30.0 days of advance leave into the new term of service. The remaining 5.5-day advance leave balance changes to excess leave and requires immediate collection of pay and allowances. Subparagraph 4.1.5 applies.

Example 4: Same as example 2, except that the member took 34 days of leave between May 1, 2015, and September 30, 2015. Since a maximum of 30.0 days of advance leave could be carried into the new term of service (12-month extension), immediate collection of pay and allowances for the remaining 4.0 days was required when the leave was used. Subparagraph 4.1.5 applies.

4.1.4.3. Amount to be Collected. Compute collection under subparagraph 4.1.4.2 on the basis of pay and allowances received by the member during the period of leave involved.

4.1.5. Pay and Allowances During Excess Leave. Members on excess leave are not entitled to pay and allowances. Apply as follows.

4.1.5.1. When the complete period of leave is granted as excess leave, pay and allowance accrual will be stopped beginning with the first day of leave.

4.1.5.2. When a portion of the leave is granted as advance leave and a portion granted as excess leave, pay and allowance accrual will be stopped beginning with the first day of excess leave. Members in an excess leave status are considered to have a rate of pay.

4.1.6. Leave Pending Review of Certain Court-Martial Convictions. Under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, members sentenced to unsuspended dismissal or unsuspended dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge by court-martial may be required to take leave pending review of their conviction as provided by the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ) Article 76a,

4.1.6.1. Such leave will be charged against any accrued leave to the member’s credit on the day before the day such leave begins unless the member elects to be paid for accrued leave under Chapter 35, subparagraph 2.1.2.
4.1.6.1.1. If the member does not elect to be paid for accrued leave or does not have sufficient accrued leave to cover the total period of leave required to be taken, the leave not covered by accrued leave will be charged as excess leave.

4.1.6.1.2. If the member elects to be paid for accrued leave, the entire period of leave will be charged as excess leave and pay, and allowances will not accrue for such period except under the provisions of subparagraph 4.1.6.2.

4.1.6.2. A member required to take leave under Article 76a, UCMJ, whose sentence by court-martial to dismissal or dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge is set aside or disapproved on appellate review, will accrue pay and allowances for the period of leave charged as excess leave (except for any day of accrued leave for which the member has been paid under subparagraph 4.1.6.1.2.), unless a rehearing or new trial is ordered and dismissal or dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge results from the rehearing or new trial and such dismissal or discharge is later executed.

4.1.6.2.1. Computation of Payment. The amount of gross pay and allowances accrued under this subparagraph will be reduced by the total gross income from wages, salaries, tips, other personal service income, unemployment compensation, and public assistance benefits from any government agency during the period the member is deemed to have accrued gross pay and allowances. The total gross income, however, cannot reduce the amount of gross pay and allowances to the extent that the member becomes indebted to the government.

4.1.6.2.1.1. Approved Sentence Does Not Include Reduction. Pay and allowances under this section will be paid in the pay grade held by the member on the day before the day on which the court-martial sentence was approved by the convening authority.

4.1.6.2.1.2. Approved Sentence Includes Reductions. If the pay grade of the member was reduced to a lower grade as a result of the court-martial sentence, and the reduction has not been set aside, disapproved, or otherwise vacated, pay and allowances accrued under this paragraph will be paid at the lower pay grade.

4.1.6.2.2. Time of Payment

4.1.6.2.2.1. Payment will be made within 60 days from the date of the order setting aside or disapproving the sentence by court-martial to a dismissal or a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge if no rehearing or new trial has been ordered.

4.1.6.2.2.2. Payment will be made within 180 days from the date of the order setting aside or disapproving the sentence by court-martial to a dismissal or a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge if a rehearing or new trial has been ordered, but charges have not been referred to a rehearing or new trial within 120 days from the date of that order.

4.1.6.2.2.3. If a rehearing or new trial has been ordered, and a dismissal or a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge is not included in the result of the rehearing or new trial, payment will be made within 60 days of the date of the announcement of the result of such rehearing or new trial.

4.1.6.2.2.4. If a rehearing or new trial has been ordered, and a dismissal for a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge is included as the result of such rehearing or new trial, but such dismissal or discharge is not later executed, payment will be made within 60-days of the date of the order which set aside, disapproved, or otherwise vacated such dismissal or discharge.

4.1.6.2.2.5. If a member who is entitled to be paid under this section fails to provide sufficient information in a timely manner regarding his/her income when such information is requested under subparagraph 4.1.6.3, the periods of time prescribed in this paragraph will be extended until 30 days after the date on which the member provides the requested information.

4.1.6.3. In all cases where payment must be made under subparagraph 4.1.6.2, the member solely is responsible for providing the information as to all sources and amounts of income received by the member during periods of required appellate leave. Pay will be computed only on the basis of a written record.

4.1.6.3.1. For periods where the member was employed, information as to all sources and amounts of income should include, at a minimum, copies of all pertinent:

4.1.6.3.1.1. Federal income tax returns;
4.1.6.3.1.2. Employer statements of income earned from wages, salaries, tips; and 4.1.6.3.1.3. Documentation of other personal service income.

4.1.6.3.2. For periods where the member has been unemployed, the member must submit an affidavit or written evidence of lack of employment and, at a minimum, copies of all pertinent:

4.1.6.3.2.1. Documentation to verify the duration of unemployment compensation;
4.1.6.3.2.2. Public assistance benefits received from any government agency;
4.1.6.3.2.3. Federal income tax returns; and 4.1.6.3.2.4. Any other documentation required by the Service concerned.
NOTE: The burden of proving the existence of a valid claim against the United States is on the member asserting the claim. A member must prove by clear and convincing evidence on the written record that the U.S. DoD is liable under the law for the amount claimed.

4.2 Unauthorized Absence and Other Lost Time

4.2.1. Effect on Pay and Allowances. The types of unauthorized absences, and other lost time, and their effect on pay and allowances are shown in Table 1-12 (Compute forfeitures of pay and allowances as instructed in subparagraph 3.2.2).

4.2.2. Unauthorized Absence and Desertion

4.2.2.1. Determination by Court-Martial. A member found guilty of unauthorized absence by a court-martial, forfeits pay and allowances for the period of absence. An acquittal (or disapproval by the reviewing authority, in case of conviction) affects only the disciplinary aspects of the absence. It does not prevent an administrative determination that the member was AWOL.

4.2.2.2. Administrative Determination of Unauthorized Absence. When a member is in an unauthorized absence status, an administrative determination must be made as to whether the absence was unavoidable. Table 1-13 contains rules for determining whether the absence was unavoidable. If it is not excused as unavoidable, the member forfeits pay and allowances for the period of absence. This applies even though a court-martial finds the member not guilty of a charge of unauthorized absence, or when a finding of guilty has been disapproved by the reviewing authority.

4.2.2.3. Discharge for Desertion. A discharge for desertion is conclusive evidence of desertion for the purpose of forfeiture of pay, even in the absence of trial by court-martial.

4.2.2.4. Dropped From Rolls. A commissioned officer of the Army or Air Force, who is dropped from the rolls by the President for absence without authority for 3 months, forfeits all pay due or to become due. Pay and allowances due at the time the officer is dropped from the rolls, however, will be used to satisfy debts due the United States and its instrumentalities.

4.2.2.5. Disposition of Forfeitures as a Result of Desertion. When an enlisted member, warrant officer, or limited duty officer forfeits pay as a result of desertion, deposit the gross amount of such forfeited pay to the Armed Forces Retirement Home Trust Fund. Do not, however, deposit this pay beyond the expiration of term of enlistment for enlisted members.

4.2.3. Computing Periods of Unauthorized Absence. Unauthorized absence of 24 consecutive hours or less does not affect pay or allowances. This applies even though the absence involves parts of 2 days. When the period of unauthorized absence exceeds 24 consecutive hours, use Table 1-14 to determine the first and last day of the period of absence.
4.2.4. Absence in the Hands of Civil Authorities

4.2.4.1. General. Pay the member all pay and allowances earned through the day before the first day of unauthorized absence. If the member is delivered to civil authorities by military authorities, he or she is entitled to all pay and allowances earned through the day prior to the date of such delivery. For entitlement to pay and allowances during confinement, see Table 1-12, rules 4, 5, and 6.

4.2.4.2. Finding of Insanity. An administrative determination under the rules contained in Table 1-13 must be made as to whether the absence was unavoidable when a member is found not guilty by reason of insanity by a civil court and committed under applicable Federal or State law for an indefinite period of time. Table 1-12 contains rules for determining the effect of absences on pay and allowances.

4.2.4.3. Work Release Program. In some states and local jurisdictions, a person convicted and sentenced to a term of civil confinement may be released from the confinement facility to the cognizance of an employer during the normal workday. Work release, job rehabilitation, or employment retention programs of this type generally are conducted for the purpose of providing prisoners a means to continue support of their dependents and to demonstrate that they are capable of self-rehabilitation. When members are paroled to military authorities under a “work release” or similar program, they are entitled to pay and allowances for each day of full duty performed commensurate with their grade and military specialty.

4.2.5. Absence Due to Disease

4.2.5.1. When Pay Is Forfeited. See Table 1-12, rule 3.

4.2.5.2. When Pay Is Not Forfeited. Pay is not forfeited for absence from duty caused by:

- 4.2.5.2.1. An injury;
- 4.2.5.2.2. A disease, except under Table 1-12, rule 3;
- 4.2.5.2.3. Simple drunkenness, if not coupled with chronic alcoholism or intemperate use of habit-forming drugs; or
- 4.2.5.2.4. Venereal disease, whether or not due to misconduct.

4.2.5.3. Personal Expense Money. A member whose pay is forfeited under Table 1-12, rule 3 for more than 1 month is entitled to $5 for personal expenses for each full month that he or she forfeits pay. This payment will be made even though the member is indebted to the United States. The term “full month” is the period from a date in 1 month through the preceding date in the following month. For example, July 3 through August 2 is 1 month.
4.2.6. Military Confinement. Pay and allowances accrue to a member in military confinement except when:

4.2.6.1. Confined by military authorities, for civil authorities. See Table 1-12, rules 6 and 8;

4.2.6.2. Pay and allowances are forfeited by court-martial sentence. See Chapter 48 and Table 1-12, rule 10; and 4.2.6.3. The term of enlistment expires. See subparagraph 4.2.7.

4.2.7. Term of Enlistment Expires

4.2.7.1. General. Pay and allowances accrue to a member upon return to a full-duty status. Full duty is attained when a member, not in confinement, is assigned useful and productive duties (as opposed to duties prescribed by regulations for confinement facilities) on a full-time basis which are not inconsistent with the grade, length of service, and military occupational specialty (MOS). While placement in the same MOS is not essential, the decision to place a member in that MOS or to assign the member available duties consistent with the grade and service rests with the appropriate military commander.

4.2.7.2. Absentee Returned to Military Control. An absentee who surrenders or is apprehended after a term of enlistment has expired is not entitled to pay and allowances until restored to a full-duty status for the purpose of making good the lost time. While held in retention, a member may be assigned duties as prescribed by regulations governing detained prisoners without being returned to full-duty status.

4.2.7.3. Enlistment Expires Before Trial. An enlisted member retained in the Military Service for the purpose of trial by court-martial is not entitled to pay for any period after the expiration of the enlistment unless acquitted or the charges are dismissed, or the member is retained in or restored to a full-duty status.

4.2.7.4. Confined Awaiting Trial by Court-Martial. If a member is confined awaiting court-martial trial when the enlistment expires, pay and allowances end on the date the enlistment expires. If the member is acquitted when tried, pay and allowances accrue until discharge.

4.2.7.5. Confined Serving Court-Martial Sentence. If a member is confined serving a court-martial sentence when the enlistment expires, pay and allowances end on the date the enlistment expires unless the sentence is completely overturned or set aside as specified in Chapter 48. Pay and allowances will not accrue again until the date the member is restored to a full-duty status.

4.2.7.6. Confined While in a Status of Being Held in the Service to Make Up Lost Time. If confined while in a status of being held in the Military Service to make up lost time, an enlisted member continues in a pay status, except to the extent that pay may be forfeited by court-martial, the same as during the regular enlistment period. This pay status terminates if the member is in confinement on the date the normal term of service as extended to make up lost time would have expired, even if restored to duty at a later date.

4.2.7.7. Confinement Deferred or Prisoner Restored to Duty. A prisoner in a non-pay status is entitled to pay and allowances when service of sentence to confinement is deferred or the member is restored to a full-duty status. The date restored to duty is the date the member reported present for duty.

4.2.7.8. Absentee Confined Upon Return to Military Control. An enlisted member whose term of enlistment has expired while in a status of absence without leave or desertion is not entitled to pay and allowances upon return to military control while confined awaiting trial and disposition of the case if the conviction becomes final and the member has not been returned to a full-duty status. A member, however, who is returned to military control and restored to full duty for the purpose of making good the lost time before being confined to await trial, continues in a pay status except to the extent that pay may be forfeited by court-martial, the same as during the regular enlistment period. This pay status terminates if the member is in confinement on the date the normal term of service is extended to make up lost time would have expired, even if he or she is restored to duty at a later date.

4.2.7.9. Confined Under Sentence of Death. The pay and allowances of a member, serving in confinement under sentence of death and pending completion of the appellate review of the record of trial, do not accrue after the expiration of the enlistment.

4.2.7.10. Appellate Review of Court-Martial Sentence. A confined member who is pending appellate review of his or her court-martial sentence is not entitled to pay and allowances after the expiration of term of enlistment, unless the conviction is completely overturned or set aside.

4.2.8. Reserve Officer Absent From Duty. A Reserve officer whose term of active service expires while confined as a result of court-martial action continues to be entitled to pay and allowances, except when forfeited under an approved sentence of a court-martial or a period of service is terminated by proper orders.

5.0 PAYMENT IN CASES OF VOID, VOIDABLE, OR REJECTED ENLISTMENTS OR INDUCTIONS

5.1 Voidability of Contract

A fraudulent contract of enlistment or induction is not void but is voidable at the option of the government. When the government becomes aware of the fraud, it may void the contract or waive the objection and allow the contract to stand (See Table 1-15.).
5.2 Fraudulent Enlistments – Pay and Allowances

Members under investigation, or determined to be serving in fraudulent enlistments, are due pay and allowances for periods shown in Table 1-15.

5.3 Travel Payments

See Joint Travel Regulation, Chapter 5, Paragraph 051007.

5.4 Disbursing Officer Entitled to Credit

A disbursing officer is entitled to credit for proper payments to a member who fraudulently enlisted if payments were made without the knowledge of the fraud and before the government rescinded the contract.

5.5 Failure to Discover Physical Condition of Enlistee or Inductee

Failure to discover that the physical condition of an enlistee or inductee was such as would warrant rejection for military service does not deprive member of right to pay and allowances or of the status of being entitled to basic pay (See Table 1-15.).

6.0 FINANCIAL INSTITUTION CHARGES

6.1 Reimbursement

Reimbursement of financial institution charges may be authorized. Authorized reimbursements are limited to overdraft charges or minimum balance, or average balance charges levied by the financial institution because of an administrative or mechanical error on the part of the government that causes pay to be deposited late or in an incorrect manner or amount.

6.2 Non – Reimbursement

Charges by financial institutions resulting from erroneous information provided by the member or the financial institution to a military pay office are not the liability of the government and will not be reimbursed.

6.3 Definitions

6.3.1 Financial Institutions. For the purpose of this section, a financial institution is defined as a bank, savings and loan association, or similar institution or a credit union chartered by the United States or a state.

6.3.2 Pay. For the purpose of this section, pay is defined as basic pay, allowances, bonuses, special and incentive pays.
7.0 MILITARY PAYDAYS

7.1 Payday

The payday is the first calendar day of the month after the month in which the entitlement was earned. This does not preclude one payment in midmonth for any element of compensation.

7.2 Exception

Except for payrolls otherwise payable on October 1, if the payday falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal legal holiday, payment is authorized on the preceding workday, but not more than 3 days before the scheduled payday. This exception applies to foreign holidays recognized abroad by U.S. Forces. It also applies to payments made to members upon separation from the Military Service through retirement or discharge when the last day of active duty falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal legal holiday.

7.3 Determination

For payrolls otherwise payable on October 1, the DoD Comptroller will determine if the payroll may be dated in September.

NOTES:

1. Prior to February 11, 1996, absence during which a member was serving on active duty as an enlisted member and was also a Reserve officer is creditable. After February 10, 1996, a commissioned or warrant officer may not count the periods of absence for any purpose other than for computing length of service for basic pay. Also, see subparagraph 2.2.2.

2. If the member is released without trial or acquitted, or if conviction is set aside on legal grounds (as distinguished from clemency), the period of absence is creditable. If the member is released upon agreement to make restitution, or is later convicted by court-martial on the same facts, the period of absence is not creditable.

3. The period spent in confinement is creditable when the member is acquitted, or the sentence is set aside or disapproved.

4. The period of absence is not creditable only if the confinement was under general court-martial sentence and/or while waiting (and during) trial which resulted in a sentence by a general court-martial to confinement and total loss of pay and allowances.

NOTES:

1. Original appointments include officers appointed from warrant officer, enlisted member, or civilian status.
2. Pay accrues from date of graduation, even though appointment is issued and accepted at later date.
3. See paragraph 3.5 and Table 1-6 for allowable travel time to include in computation. Pay and allowances do not accrue if the member begins travel or reports earlier than the travel time necessary to comply with the active duty orders.
4. If member passes the physical examination, pay and allowances accrue for travel time to first duty station when later ordered to active duty for more than 30 days.
5. If the member fails the physical examination, pay and allowances accrue for period required for the examination and travel time to and from the examination.
6. If the member is ordered to active duty solely to take a physical examination, not incident to being ordered to active duty, active duty pay, and allowances do not accrue.
7. Pay status does not begin if the Army National Guard or Air National Guard member is unable to respond to the call to active duty because of illness or other reason.

NOTES:

1. If the officer’s assignment is terminated because of:
   a. Assignment to another position also designated a special assignment: the officer will continue to draw the pay rate of the terminated assignment through the day before assuming the new position.
   b. Hospitalization: the officer will continue to draw the pay rate of the terminated assignment for the full period of hospitalization, but for not more than 180 days.
   c. Retirement: the officer will continue to draw the pay rate of the terminated position through the day before retirement, but for not more than 90 days.
2. A retroactive amendment of active duty orders is authority to serve in the higher grade from date of the amendment only. Increased pay and allowances are authorized from that date. Such orders do not create entitlement to increased pay and allowances for the retroactive period.
3. A retroactive promotion date is to be used only for consideration of seniority and time in grade for future promotions. Such orders do not create entitlement to increased pay and allowances for the period between the eligibility date for promotion and the effective date of the promotion order or letter. The effective date of promotion for purposes of entitlement to increased pay and allowances must not be earlier than the date the officer is assigned to a position requiring a grade equal to or higher than the grade to which promoted.
4. An appointment, promotion, or advancement to a higher grade with an effective date beyond the expiration date of the current enlistment and which is contingent upon the member’s extension of enlistment or reenlistment, entitles the member to increased pay and allowances from the effective date of extension or reenlistment, whichever is later. Payment for the higher rank or rating is not authorized for a period prior to date of current enlistment.
5. This restriction does not prevent payment to enlisted members for retroactive promotions or advancements that are made pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 1552(a)(2) (retroactive promotion or advancement without decision of the Board for Correction of Military Records), effective October 23, 1992.

Table 1-5. Termination or Reduction of Active Duty Pay and Allowances (Continued)

NOTES:

1. Discharge orders do not relieve the government of its obligation to an officer. The officer must have received actual or constructive notice by the effective date, unless the officer willfully avoids notice of separation. If kept in Military Service without fault, in ignorance of an order of dismissal, the officer is entitled to all salaries and benefits of the office. If held in Military Service under orders after the date shown in separation orders, the officer is entitled to pay if there is nothing in the records showing non-entitlement.

2. A member who reverts from a temporary officer appointment to a permanent enlisted or warrant officer grade is entitled, if otherwise proper, to the active duty pay and allowances of the temporary officer grade through and including the date of reversion.

3. Includes discharge for underage enlistment. Does not include discharge for fraudulent contract of enlistment (See section 5.0.).

4. A member whose enlistment is extended involuntarily by law comes under rule 15, not rules 16-21.

5. If medical care or hospitalization was due to member’s misconduct, pay and allowances terminate on date of expiration of term of Military Service.

6. See subparagraph 3.4.4 for date of termination of the 25 percent increase in basic pay.

7. An erroneous promotion is later voided by revoking promotion orders (certificates of appointment or other documents used by the Military Service concerned to administratively effect promotions) from the original effective date. Payment of the pay and allowances of the higher grade through the date prior to the date of discovery is contingent, in each case, upon an administrative determination of the commander, that service performed while serving in the higher grade may be regarded as service performed in a “de facto” status; that is, the member was promoted by competent authority and performed duties of the higher grade (See procedural regulations of the Military Service concerned).

NOTES:

1. When the air terminal is within 50 miles of the active duty station and direct or connecting flights are obtainable within 50 miles of the place from which ordered to active duty.
2. Additional time may be allowed when there is an actual delay in air travel. The delay must have been due to reasons beyond the control of the member, such as mechanical failure, adverse weather conditions, excess passenger load, cancelled flights, illness of other passengers, or other circumstances.
3. Travel is not expected to start or end between midnight and 0600.
4. Travel days will not exceed the computed travel time. In the computation of travel time, use existing commercial schedules to determine the latest departure time that would permit arrival at the duty station on the reporting date and hour. On release from active duty, use earliest schedule after release, which would permit arrival home by fastest available means, without regard to actual performance of travel. A member of a Reserve Component is entitled to active duty pay and allowances for allowable travel time per subparagraph 3.5.2 when member:
   a. is ordered to perform ADT;
   b. performs authorized IDT immediately before or after ADT at or near the same site; and
   c. receives orders, which direct performance of necessary travel to and from the ADT site immediately before and after combined ADT/IDT. The travel date will be specified in the active duty orders. Full retirement point credit is earned for the period of IDT performed.

NOTES:

1. Basic pay rate for Academy Cadets/Midshipmen and ROTC members/applicants is $1,339.50.
2. The amount of the maximum combat zone tax exclusion in effect for a qualifying month equals the sum of the basic pay for the senior enlisted member payable (Table 1-10, note 3) and the maximum amount of hostile fire or imminent danger pay ($225) actually payable to the officer for the qualifying month.
3. For rank titles, see Volume 7A Comparable Grades.
4. Basic pay is limited to the rate of basic pay for level II of the Executive Schedule in effect during calendar year 2024, which is $18,491.70 per month for officers at pay grades O-7 through O-10. This includes officers serving as:
   a. Chairman or Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff;
   b. Chief of Staff of the Army;
   c. Chief of Naval Operations;
   d. Chief of Staff of the Air Force;
   e. Commandant of the Marine Corps;
   f. Chief of Space Operations;
   g. Commandant of the Coast Guard;
   h. Chief of the National Guard Bureau; or
   i. Commander of a unified or specified combatant command (as defined in 10 U.S.C. § 161(c)).
5. Basic pay for pay grades O-6 and below is limited to the rate of basic pay for Level V of the Executive Schedule during calendar year 2024, which is $15,000.00.
6. O-1, O-2, and O-3 rates do not apply to commissioned officers who have been credited with over 4 years (i.e., at least 4 years and 1 day) of active duty service as an enlisted member or as a warrant officer or as both an enlisted member and a warrant officer.
7. These rates or, when applicable, the O-1E rates in Table 1-8 apply during periods of active service while as a DOM student of the USUHS. Also see subparagraph 2.2.1.6.

NOTES:

1. The amount of the maximum combat zone tax exclusion in effect for a qualifying month equals the sum of the basic pay for the senior enlisted member (grade E-9) payable (Basic Pay – Enlisted, Note 3) and the amount of hostile fire or imminent danger pay ($225) actually payable to the officer for the qualifying month.

2. For rank titles, see Volume 7A Comparable Grades.

3. Creditable service to be taken into account for purposes of this table is active service as an enlisted member or as a warrant officer or as both an enlisted member and a warrant officer, in the case of a commissioned officer on active duty who is paid from funds appropriated for active-duty personnel; or a commissioned officer on active Guard and Reserve duty. Effective November 24, 2003, creditable service to be taken into account for purposes of this table in the case of a commissioned officer is service as an enlisted member or as a warrant officer, or as both an enlisted member and a warrant officer, for which more than 1,460 points have been credited to the officer for the purposes of 10 U.S.C. § 12732(a)(2).

4. These rates do not apply to DOM students of the USUHS who do not have over 4 years (i.e., at least 4 years and 1 day) of active duty service as an enlisted member or as a warrant officer or as both an enlisted member and a warrant officer. See the Basic Pay – Officers table for applicable rates. DOM USUHS students with over 4 years of prior enlisted and/or warrant officer service are entitled to the O-1E rate of basic pay in this table during such active duty periods. Also see subparagraphs 2.2.1.6.

NOTES:

1. For rank titles, see Volume 7A Comparable Grades.
2. Basic pay for senior enlisted member (grade E-9) is $10,294.80 regardless of years of service while serving as:
   a. Senior Enlisted Advisor of the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff;
   b. Sergeant Major of the Army;
   c. Master Chief Petty Officer of the Navy;
   d. Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force;
   e. Sergeant Major of the Marine Corps;
   f. Chief Master Sergeant of the Space Force;
   g. Master Chief Petty Officer of the Coast Guard; or
   h. Senior Enlisted Advisor to the Chief of the National Guard Bureau.
3. If a member is placed on terminal leave pending retirement immediately following the completion of service as the senior enlisted member of a Military Department, the member is entitled to the higher senior enlisted pay $10,294.80 up to a maximum of 60 days. If a member is hospitalized, and during or immediately before such hospitalization, completed service as the senior enlisted member of that Military Department’s Armed Force, the member will continue to be entitled, for not more than 180 days while so hospitalized, to the rate of basic pay authorized for a senior enlisted member.
4. Must have 4 months of active duty or more.
5. Basic pay for an E-1 with less than 4 months of active duty is $1,865.10.

NOTES:

1. See subparagraph 4.1.4 for collection requirements when advance leave is changed to excess leave.
2. Enlisted members are entitled to BAS at the rate shown in Chapter 25, Table 25-1 or the Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS) table except for days of leave specifically authorized by the PCS orders. Pay BAS at the rate shown in Chapter 25, subparagraph 2.2.2.3 for the PCS order-authorized leave period.
3. Members without dependents are entitled to BAH as prescribed in subparagraph 4.1.3.2.5.
4. A negative leave balance, which existed prior to the member being ordered home continues until separation or retirement and will be collected as excess leave.
5. A member separating effective March 1, whose separation leave period through February 28 (or through February 29 during leap year) results in excess leave, is not entitled to pay and allowances for February 29 and 30 (or for February 30 during leap year). These days are not considered days of excess leave; however, the member is considered to be in a non-pay status through February 30. See subparagraph 3.2.2.

6. Under DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1327.06, “Leave and Liberty Policy and Procedures,” a member does not accrue leave during periods of excess leave (here referred to as “nonaccrual”). Computation of the number of days involved in an excess leave balance, which accounts for this nonaccrual may result in a total which includes a fraction. Effective with leave taken on or after Feb 1, 1987, the total is not rounded to eliminate the fraction when pay and allowances are collected for excess leave. The fractional one-half day is considered to occur on the first day of the excess leave involved. Collect pay and allowances for the number of days, to include fractional days.

7. Member is not entitled to special pay under Chapter 14, section 2.0.

NOTES:

1. Enlisted members are entitled to BAS at the rate prescribed when permission to ration separately is granted unless they were subsisted at government expense.
2. See Chapter 26, for entitlement to BAH in a non-pay status. See Chapter 10 for entitlement to Hostile Fire Pay, which is payable in full for each month in which qualification is made.
3. A member is not entitled to pay or allowances for period of hospitalization after expiration of enlistment.
4. A member is not entitled to pay and allowances if granted a pass or liberty to serve civil confinement.
5. In any case where the commander of the military installation retains the discretionary authority to decide to incarcerate a member (or to merely restrict to the duty station and assign to perform useful and productive duties on a full-time basis), such member will not be considered as being “constructively absent” for the purposes of entitlement to pay and allowances.
6. Under existing DoD policy and Status of Forces Agreements, the U.S. Commander always retains discretionary authority to incarcerate or restrict a Military Service member to the installation when such a member is pending civil charges, even in cases where incarceration or restriction is requested by foreign authorities. Such member is not considered as being “constructively absent” for the purpose of entitlement to pay and allowances.
7. Pay and allowances due on date of desertion and on date an officer was dropped from the rolls will be used to satisfy debts due the United States and its instrumentalities.

CHAPTER 2

REPAYMENT OF UNEARNED PORTION OF BONUSES AND OTHER BENEFITS

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter establishes policy pertaining to the repayment of unearned portions of bonuses and other benefits. A member who enters into a written agreement with specified service conditions for receipt of a bonus, special or incentive pay, educational benefits, stipend, or similar payment (hereinafter referred to as “pay or benefit”) is entitled to the full amount of the pay or benefit if the member fulfills the required conditions. Failure to fulfill the conditions specified in the written agreement will result in termination of the agreement, and the member will be required to repay the unearned portion of the pay or benefit. Such repayment will be pursued unless the member’s failure to fulfill the specified conditions is due to circumstances determined reasonably beyond the member’s control. Conditions under which repayment will not be sought are set forth in section 3.0.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), Title 37. Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 POLICY

2.1 Payment Disposition

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may establish, by regulation, procedures for determining the amount of the repayment required. Service regulations will apply the rules in Table 2-1 for disposition of unearned portions of the pay or benefit.

2.2 Use of Separation Designator Codes (SPD) in Effecting the Repayment of Unearned Portion of Bonuses and Other Benefits

SPD codes are used to track and analyze the reasons that Service members separate from military service and to assist in the review, development, and monitoring of separation policies and programs. Additionally, SPD codes are used to ensure standardized pay actions are consistent with separation policies. While automated processes are critical, it is also important to recognize and allow Secretaries of the Military Departments to exercise their delegated authority to change pay actions on a case-by-case basis. Therefore, when the Secretary of a Military Department concerned wishes to exercise delegated authority to change a pay action for the designated SPD code assigned to the member’s DoD (DD) Form 214, the Secretary concerned submits the requested exception to policy (ETP) to the Director of Military Compensation in the Office of the Assistant Secretary of Defense (OASD) for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (M&RA) for approval. The approved ETP is submitted to the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) for processing. It is important for the Military Departments to treat Service members similarly at separation, so this authority to change the designated pay action should be used sparingly.

2.3 Definition

The term “service,” as used in this chapter, refers to an obligation willingly undertaken by a member of the uniformed services in exchange for a pay or benefit offered by the Secretary of Defense or the Secretary of the Military Department concerned to do one or more of the following:

2.3.1. Remain on active duty;

2.3.2. Remain in an active status in a Reserve Component;

2.3.3. Perform duty in a specified skill, with or without a specified qualification or credential;

2.3.4. Perform duty at a specified location; or

2.3.5. Perform duty for a specified period of time.

2.4 Bankruptcy

An obligation to repay a pay or benefit to the United States is, for all purposes, a debt owed to the United States. A discharge in bankruptcy does not discharge a person from such debt if the discharge order is entered less than 5 years after:

2.4.1. The date of the termination of the agreement or contract on which the debt is based; or

2.4.2. The date of the termination of service on which the debt is based, in the absence of such agreement or contract.

3.0 REPAYMENT AND NON-REPAYMENT CONDITIONS

3.1 Conditions Under Which Repayment Will Be Sought

3.1.1. When the conditions of a written agreement are not fulfilled and repayment is determined appropriate, the member will be required to repay the United States the unearned portion of a pay or benefit. In cases other than death of a member, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned will advise DFAS of the disposition of any unearned portion of a pay or benefit.
3.1.2. Repayment will be sought, and any unpaid balances may not be paid to members who incur a disability because of their misconduct.

3.2 Delegation of Authority

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may, through regulation, delegate the authority to make repayment determinations consistent with the criteria set forth in section 3.0, but not below the O-6 or equivalent level. If delegated, then the Military Departments will specify the level and the scope of the authorized delegation in implementing regulations.

3.3 Conditions Under Which Repayment Will Not Be Sought

As a general rule, repayment action may not be pursued in situations in which the member’s inability to fulfill specified service conditions related to a pay or benefit is due to circumstances determined reasonably beyond the member’s control. Payment of any unpaid portion of pay or benefit will be subject to the rules in Table 2-1, which in appropriate circumstances provide discretion to the Secretary of the Military Department concerned to pay unearned portions based on case-by-case determinations.

3.3.1. Repayment will not be sought, and any remaining unpaid portion of a pay or benefit due to a member under a written agreement that existed at the time of the member’s death, which was not the result of the member’s misconduct, is payable as a lump sum in the settlement of the decedent’s final military pay entitlements.

3.3.2. Repayment will not be sought and any remaining unpaid portion of a pay or benefit due to a member under a written agreement will be paid at the time of separation or retirement for a disability incurred in the line of duty in a combat zone designated by the President of the United States or the Secretary of Defense, or in a combat-related operation designated by the Secretary of Defense, and/or for a combat-related disability.

3.3.3. Subject to the enlistment authorities and the relevant regulations of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, a member who was paid a bonus or special pay for a period of enlistment in a Military Department, who is discharged for immediate reenlistment or appointment in a Military Department for which no bonus or special pay is paid, may be considered to have completed the full term of service specified in the former enlistment contract, provided the term of the latter reenlistment or appointment includes the remaining period of service from the former enlistment. The member’s enlistment bonus or special pay entitlements will be addressed prior to discharge from a Military Department.

3.3.4. Repayment will not be sought, and the Secretary of the Military Department concerned will not pay any remaining unpaid portion of a pay or benefit under the following circumstances, unless otherwise authorized by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned under subparagraph 3.4.2.

3.3.4.1. The member’s employment in another military specialty or assignment rotation is directed;
3.3.4.2. The member’s military specialty or assignment is phased out or eliminated;

3.3.4.3. The member’s military specialty or assignment is otherwise affected by force structure or other mission essential requirements; or 3.3.4.4. The member is separated from service under a hardship separation or sole survivor discharge.

3.3.5. Pursuant to Title 10, U.S.C. section 1171, enlisted members who are discharged within 12 months before the expiration of an enlistment, reenlistment, or extension of enlistment are considered to have completed the terms of the enlistment, reenlistment, or extension of enlistment for which the bonus was paid. Thus, recoupment is not required for the unearned portion of the pay or benefit arising from the early discharge. The Military Departments are responsible for determining whether a member’s early discharge is made pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 1171 and advising DFAS of the determination.

3.4 Conditions Under Review by the Secretary of the Military Department

3.4.1. In instances involving a member’s separation for medical reasons, not falling under 10 U.S.C. Chapter 61 or section 1413a(e), which were not the result of the member’s misconduct, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned has the discretion to determine whether to require repayment of the unearned portion of pay or benefit or to pay an unpaid balance of a pay or benefit.

3.4.2. Under circumstances not specifically mentioned in this chapter, if a member under a written agreement for a pay or benefit does not fulfill the service conditions for the pay or benefit, repayment of unearned portions will be sought, and any unpaid portion will not be paid. However, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned has the discretion to, at some point in the process, grant an exception based on a case-by-case determination that requiring repayment of an unearned portion, or refraining from paying any unpaid portion would be:

3.4.2.1. Contrary to a personnel policy or management objective;

3.4.2.2. Against equity and good conscience; or

3.4.2.3. Contrary to the best interest of the United States.

CHAPTER 3

SPECIAL PAY – OFFICERS ONLY

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The Secretaries of the Military Departments may pay a bonus or special pay to persons or officers, as appropriate, to support accession and retention efforts for a designated military specialty, career field, unit, grade, or to meet some other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. This chapter establishes policy pertaining to the payments of bonuses or special pay in support of accession and retention efforts.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 GENERAL BONUS AUTHORITY FOR OFFICERS

2.1 Authority

Title 37, U.S.C., section 332 (37 U.S.C. § 332) and the DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1304.34, General Bonus Authority for Officers, dated July 11, 2016, provides the general bonus authority for bonuses referenced in sections 3.0, 4.0, 5.0, and 6.0. The Secretaries concerned may pay these bonuses to a person, member, or officer in the Military Services who:

2.1.1. Accepts a commission or appointment as an officer in a Military Service;

2.1.2. Affiliates as an officer with a Reserve Component (RC) of a Military Service;

2.1.3. Agrees to remain on active duty (AD) or in an active status for a specified period as an officer in a Military Service;

2.1.4. Transfers between the Regular Component and the Ready Reserve of the same Military Service, or vice versa; or

2.1.5. Transfers from a Regular Component or the Ready Reserve of a Military Service to a Regular Component or the Ready Reserve of another Military Service, subject to the approval of the Secretary with jurisdiction over the Military Service to which the member is transferring.
2.2 Eligibility

In accordance with paragraph 2.1, the Secretary concerned may only pay a bonus to a person or officer who:

2.2.1. Signs a written agreement with the Secretary concerned to serve for a specified period in a designated career field, skill, unit, or grade, or meets some other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary;

2.2.2. Successfully completes training and becomes qualified in a designated skill or career field, if completion of such training and technical qualification forms the basis for which the bonus is paid;

2.2.3. Qualifies pursuant to any additional criteria prescribed by the Secretary concerned;

2.2.4. Meets any additional eligibility criteria outlined in sections 3.0, 4.0, 5.0, and 6.0;

2.2.5. Is not in receipt of an accession, retention, reserve affiliation, or transfer bonus, in accordance with 37 U.S.C. Chapter 5, Subchapter I, for the same activity, skill, or period of service;

2.2.6. Will not exceed the mandatory retirement or high-year tenure date during the specified period of obligated service for which the bonus is paid; and

2.2.7. Is not serving a service obligation, except as noted in paragraph 2.8.

2.3 Additional Guidelines

2.3.1. An officer is not eligible for a bonus, under DoDI 1304.34, if previously discharged or released from AD or military service in an active status based on a determination of misconduct, substandard duty performance, or moral or professional dereliction.

2.3.2. In accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 371, an officer may not receive a bonus or incentive pay under 37 U.S.C. Chapter 5, Subchapter I and 37 U.S.C. Chapter 5, Subchapter II, for the same activity, skill, or period of military service.

2.3.3. An officer may receive only one bonus pursuant to paragraph 2.1 for the duration of the service obligation period, unless explicitly exempt in statute or DoDI 1304.34.

2.3.4. An officer may not receive more than $300,000 (or $150,000, in the case of a non-Active Guard Reserve officer in the RC) in combined bonus payments authorized under DoDI 1304.34 during the course of the officer’s career. The Military Service may not exceed these payment caps unless specifically authorized by the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (ASD (M&RA)).
2.3.5. An officer receiving pre-commissioning compensation in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 2106, and 10 U.S.C. § 2107 and 10 U.S.C. § 2107a, or financial assistance through a loan repayment program under 10 U.S.C. § 16201, 10 U.S.C. § 16301, 10 U.S.C. § 16302, or 10 U.S.C. § 16303, is not eligible for a bonus pursuant to DoDI 1304.34 until the military service obligation (MSO) is completed.

2.3.6. An officer receiving a bonus in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 333 and 37 U.S.C. § 334, is not eligible for a bonus pursuant to DoDI 1304.34 for the same skill and period of service.

2.3.7. An officer receiving a bonus in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 335, is not eligible for a bonus pursuant to DoDI 1304.34 for the same period of obligated service.

2.3.8. Existing bonus contracts under 37 U.S.C. Chapter 5, Subchapter I, will remain in effect through the preexisting termination dates.

2.4 Payment Method

2.4.1. The Secretary concerned will establish the method of payment for the bonus (i.e., lump sum or periodic installments).

2.4.2. The Secretary concerned may make payment based on training milestones, proportional length of service, or lump sum. However, the Secretary will not pay an officer any portion of a skill bonus before awarding of the military skill specialty, if completion of such training and technical qualification forms the basis for which the bonus is paid.

2.4.3. Officers will receive their initial bonus payments based on the terms and conditions of their bonus agreements.

2.5 Amount

The bonus amount paid by the Secretary concerned will be fixed on acceptance of the agreement by the Secretary and may only be paid prospectively. The bonus paid may not exceed the following amounts, unless otherwise approved by the ASD (M&RA):

2.5.1. $60,000 for a minimum 4-year service obligation for an officer or person who accepts a commission or appointment as an officer in a Military Service, as described in subparagraph 2.1.1;

2.5.2. $10,000 for a minimum 3-year service obligation for an officer, as described in subparagraph 2.1.2;

2.5.3. $25,000 for each year of obligated service as an officer in a Regular Component for retention, as described in subparagraph 2.1.3;
2.5.4. $12,000 for each year of obligated service as an officer in an RC for retention, as described in subparagraph 2.1.3; or

2.5.5. $10,000 for a transfer, as described in subparagraphs 2.1.4 and 2.1.5.

2.6 Specific Rule for Designated Military Skills or Career Fields

The following are specific procedures, requirements, and conditions related to an accession, affiliation, retention, or transfer bonus paid to an officer for a period of obligated service in a designated military skill or career field:

2.6.1. The period of obligated service will include normal skill progression, as defined by the Secretary concerned (e.g., attending courses in professional military education) and any other advanced training or education related to a designated military skill.

2.6.2. The Secretary concerned may pay a conversion bonus to an officer who agrees to convert to a designated military skill in which there is a shortage of trained and qualified officers. The bonus may be payable in a lump sum upon approval and completion of the conversion training by the Secretary concerned.

2.6.2.1. The officer must agree to serve for not less than 3 years on AD or in an active status in the Selective Reserve (SELRES) in that military skill or career field.

2.6.2.2. The officer must serve in the pay grade of O-3 or below with no more than 8 years of commissioned military service at the time the officer enters into the conversion contract, as computed in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 205.

2.6.2.3. The officer must have completed all service obligations previously incurred for receipt of an accession or retention bonus, in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 332, or critical skills retention bonus, in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 355, at the time the officer begins training for conversion to the new skill.

2.6.2.4. The bonus amount may not exceed the retention bonus amounts listed in paragraph 5.4.

2.6.3. Officers receiving skill-based bonuses are expected to serve in an assignment for which the skill is required. For service obligations of at least 36 months, the Secretary concerned may curtail the assignment requirements to a period of 2 years based on the needs of the Military Service. The Secretary concerned will establish assignment criteria and procedures that limit the circumstances in which such a period of obligated military service may be curtailed and will specify such other appropriate conditions of military service, consistent with 37 U.S.C. § 332(b)(2) and paragraph 2.2. Additionally, the Secretary will:

2.6.3.1. Ensure that military personnel centers identify, monitor, and review such obligated military service curtailments;
2.6.3.2. Approve any curtailment of the assignment criteria that involves more than one consecutive assignment in a military skill other than that which was designated for purposes of the bonus. This responsibility may be delegated no lower than the grade of major general or rear admiral (upper half); and

2.6.3.3. Ensure that any request for curtailment is:

   2.6.3.3.1. Clearly justified based on the needs of the Military Department concerned; and

   2.6.3.3.2. Not granted on a routine basis.

2.7 Repayment

A person or officer who receives a bonus in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 332, and fails to complete the period of obligated service or other conditions of service specified in the written agreement for which the bonus is paid, must repay any unearned portion of the bonus in accordance with the provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373 and Chapter 2.

2.8 Service Obligations

2.8.1. An officer who has a service obligation is not eligible for a bonus under DoDI 1304.34, except when the officer:

   2.8.1.1. Serves his or her initial service obligation incurred at time of commissioning or appointment in accordance with DoDI 1304.25, “Fulfilling the Military Service Obligation (MSO);”

   2.8.1.2. Incurs a service obligation due to a permanent change in duty station or promotion;

   2.8.1.3. Incurs a service obligation for attending and completing professional military education or government-funded education courses (this exception does not apply to undergraduate education); or

   2.8.1.4. Incurs a service obligation as a result of transferring Post 9-11 GI Bill benefits.

2.8.2. For the situations described in subparagraphs 2.8.1.1 through 2.8.1.3, the service obligations may run concurrently for bonuses offered under DoDI 1304.34. For subparagraph 2.8.1.4, the Secretary concerned will determine if the service obligation is concurrent or consecutive.

2.8.3. Excluding the situations described in subparagraph 2.8.1:
2.8.3.1. The Military Department may offer a bonus under DoDI 1304.34 up to 1 year from completion of an officer’s service obligation.

2.8.3.2. The bonus may not be paid until completion of the previous service obligation.

2.8.3.3. The service obligation for a new bonus will begin on the date of the agreement or completion of a previous service obligation, whichever date is later.

2.9 Non-Availability

2.9.1. Officers of the SELRES who incur a period of authorized absence approved by the Secretary concerned or are transferred to the Standby Reserve in accordance with DoD Directive 1200.7, will have their bonuses suspended during this period and will not be entitled to bonus payments. The Secretary concerned will determine this period of time on a case-by-case basis.

2.9.2. The Secretary concerned may reinstate RC officers in the bonus program who are subsequently reassigned in the SELRES to a skill for which they had previously contracted, if they extend their MSO so they are able to serve the full original bonus agreement period.

2.9.3. Officers’ entitlement to subsequent payments will resume on the adjusted anniversary date of satisfactory and creditable SELRES service, as appropriate. The Secretary concerned will adjust the anniversary date for periods of authorized absence. Failure to meet reinstatement criteria in a capacity that was previously agreed on will result in termination of the bonus and in repayment, as appropriate.

3.0 ACCESSION BONUS

3.1 General

An accession bonus offers a monetary incentive for a person (including a Service member) to accept a commission or appointment as an officer and serve for a specified period on AD or in an active status in a Military Service.

3.1.1. An accession bonus is authorized when an individual executes a written agreement and agrees to serve for a minimum 4-year period in:

3.1.1.1. A designated military skill or career field;

3.1.1.2. A unit;

3.1.1.3. A grade; or

3.1.1.4. Some other role that meets a condition or conditions imposed by the Secretary concerned.
3.1.2. The procedures described in sections 2.0 and 3.0, as well as any additional conditions and requirements prescribed by the Secretary concerned, govern the award and administration of an accession bonus.

3.2 Additional Accession Bonus Eligibility Requirements

In addition to meeting the minimum eligibility requirements listed in paragraph 2.2, an eligible person must:

3.2.1. Meet the qualification standards listed in DoDI 1304.26 for a commission or appointment;

3.2.2. Be an initial recipient of a commission or appointment in a Regular Component or RC;

3.2.3. Have completed all previous service obligations incurred as a result of receiving a bonus or special pay while serving as an enlisted Service member or Reserve Officer Training Course cadet or midshipmen;

3.2.4. Not have received:
   3.2.4.1. Pre-commissioning compensation under 10 U.S.C. §§ 2106, 2107, and 2107a;
   3.2.4.2. Financial assistance through a loan repayment program in accordance with 10 U.S.C. §§ 16201, 16301, 16302, or 16303; or 3.2.4.3. An accession bonus in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 324 and 37 U.S.C. § 330; and

3.2.5. Accept a service obligation on AD or in the SELRES for at least 4 years.

3.3 Restrictions

3.3.1. An officer may receive only one officer accession bonus during a career. An officer accessed from the enlisted ranks is eligible for an accession bonus as an officer or warrant officer.

3.3.2. An officer reappointed in a Military Service after resignation or termination of a commission or appointment from an earlier period of military service is not eligible for an accession bonus.

3.3.3. An officer may not receive an accession bonus and a transfer bonus for the same period of military service.

3.3.4. An officer may not receive an accession bonus and an affiliation bonus for the same period of military service.
3.4 Amount

The amount of an accession bonus under DoDI 1304.34 may not exceed $60,000 for a minimum 4-year period of obligated service, nor may it exceed an annual amount of $15,000.

3.5 Payment Method

The method of payment will be consistent with paragraph 2.5.

3.6 Non-Availability

In the event an RC officer becomes unavailable, the provisions in paragraph 2.9 will apply.

3.7 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, an officer accession bonus may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless an officer accession agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

4.0 RC AFFILIATION BONUS

4.1 General

The RC affiliation bonus offers a monetary incentive for an officer to affiliate with the SELRES of a Military Service.

4.1.1 The bonus is authorized when an officer affiliates with the SELRES of a Military Service and agrees to serve for a specified period of not less than 3 years of obligated service in a military skill designated critical by the Secretary concerned or not less than 3 years of obligated service in a specific SELRES unit or officer pay grade to meet manpower shortages in the specific SELRES unit or officer pay grade. Additionally, the Secretary concerned may, with the officer’s consent, convert the officer to a designated career field or military skill in which there is a shortage of trained and qualified personnel.

4.1.2 The procedures described in sections 2.0 and 4.0, as well as any additional conditions and requirements prescribed by the Secretary concerned, govern the award and administration of an RC affiliation bonus.

4.2 Additional RC Affiliation Bonus Eligibility Requirements

In addition to meeting the minimum eligibility requirements in paragraph 2.2, an eligible officer must execute an agreement to serve as an officer in the SELRES for a service obligation of at least 3 years and have fewer than 15 years of qualifying military service towards a regular or non-regular retirement, in accordance with DoDI 1215.07. The officer must also:

4.2.1. Be serving in the Ready Reserve or Standby Reserve of a Military Service; or 4.2.2. Be serving or have served in the Regular Component for a period of more than 30 days and have been released under honorable conditions.

4.3 Additional Guidelines

4.3.1. Individuals may receive more than one affiliation bonus in a career, though not for the same military skill, grade, or unit.

4.3.2. An officer may receive an affiliation bonus and transfer bonus as long as the officer serves the service obligations for each bonus consecutively. See section 6.0 for additional information on transfer bonuses.

4.3.3. Officers signing up for an affiliation bonus and a transfer bonus at the same time will incur an additional 12-month service obligation rather than an additional 24-month service obligation, as otherwise prescribed. The minimum service obligation for an officer receiving both bonuses is 4 years.

4.4 Amount

The maximum affiliation bonus may not exceed $10,000 for a minimum 3-year service obligation.

4.5 Payment Method

4.5.1. The method of payment will be consistent with paragraph 2.5.

4.5.2. An affiliation bonus begins to accrue on the date the eligible officer is assigned to a unit or position in the SELRES.

4.6 Non-Availability

In the event an RC officer becomes unavailable, the provisions in paragraph 2.9 will apply.

4.7 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, an officer affiliation bonus may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless an officer affiliation agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

5.0 RETENTION BONUS

5.1 General

A retention bonus under DoDI 1304.34 provides a monetary incentive that may be offered by the Military Department to retain adequate numbers of qualified officers.
5.1.1. Specifically, the bonus may be used by the Military Department to obtain the voluntary extension of an officer’s service in exchange for an agreement to serve for a specified period in a designated military skill, career field, unit, or grade or to meet some other condition or conditions imposed by the Military Department concerned.

5.1.2. The procedures described in sections 2.0 and 5.0, as well as additional conditions and requirements prescribed by the Secretary concerned, govern the award and administration of the retention bonus.

5.1.3. In order to meet the designated military skill or career field criteria, the Secretary concerned may, with the officer’s consent, convert the officer to a designated career field or military skill in which there is a shortage of trained and qualified personnel.

5.1.4. Officers appointed into a Military Service after a period of disenrollment, discharge, or separation who meet the eligibility requirements in paragraphs 2.2 and 5.2 may be eligible for a retention bonus.

5.2 Additional Retention Bonus Eligibility Requirements

In addition to the eligibility requirements in paragraph 2.2, an eligible officer must:

5.2.1. Have completed a minimum of 4 years of active commission service or qualifying service for an RC officer, in accordance with DoDI 1215.07; and 5.2.2. Agree to remain on AD or in an active status for a period of at least 2 years.

5.3 Restrictions

5.3.1. An officer is not eligible for a retention bonus if, at the start of the period of additional obligated service, the officer:

5.3.1.1. Has between 16 and 19 years of active commissioned service or qualifying service, in accordance with DoDI 1215.07 for an RC officer; or

5.3.1.2. Is retirement eligible with more than 22 years of active commissioned service or qualifying service in accordance with DoDI 1215.07.

5.3.2. The service obligation for a retention bonus may not extend an officer’s service beyond 25 years of active commissioned service or qualifying service, in accordance with DoDI 1215.07 for an RC officer.

5.3.3. Officers who have transferred their Post-9/11 GI Bill or Montgomery GI Bill-SELRES education benefits to a dependent or spouse in accordance with DoDI 1341.13, are eligible for a retention bonus as specified in DoDI 1304.34. The Secretary concerned will determine if the service obligation for both the retention bonus and GI Bill transfer is served concurrently or consecutively.
5.4 Amount

The Secretary of the Military Department may prorate bonus amounts for retention requests greater than 2 years. The additional service time will be calculated on a monthly basis at a rate equal to 1/12th the annual amount. The maximum retention bonus may not exceed:

5.4.1. $25,000 for each year of obligated service in a Regular Component; or 5.4.2. $12,000 for each year of obligated service in an RC.

5.5 Payment Method

The method of payment will be consistent with paragraph 2.5.

5.6 Non-Availability

In the event an RC officer becomes unavailable, the provisions of paragraph 2.9 will apply.

5.7 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, an officer retention bonus may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless an officer retention agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

6.0 TRANSFER BONUSES

6.1 Intra-Service Transfer

The Intra-Service transfer bonus provides a monetary incentive for an officer to transfer from the Regular Component of a Military Service to the Ready Reserve (and vice versa, however mobilization does not constitute an intra-service transfer) of the same Service to meet manning requirements. The Secretaries concerned may pay a bonus to an officer who agrees to transfer from the Regular Component to the Ready Reserve (and vice versa) and agrees to serve for a specified period in a designated military skill, career field, unit, or grade, or to meet other conditions imposed by the Secretary concerned.

6.1.1. The procedures described in section 2.0 and paragraph 6.1, as well as any additional conditions and requirements prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, govern the award and administration of the transfer bonus.

6.1.2. All transfers among Military Service components will be conducted in accordance with DoDI 1300.04.

6.1.3. To be eligible for an intra-service transfer bonus, an officer must meet the following additional eligibility requirements:
6.1.3.1. The officer has fulfilled all service obligations satisfactorily within the officer’s current Regular Component or RC;

6.1.3.2. The officer meets the qualification criteria for the transfer bonus of the Regular Component or RC of the Military Service to which the officer is transferring;

6.1.3.3. The officer must agree to remain in the component of the Military Service for which the transfer bonus is offered for a minimum of 2 years; and 6.1.3.4. The officer must have fewer than 15 years of active time.

6.1.4. Affiliation and Transfer Bonus

6.1.4.1. The Secretaries concerned may offer an intra-service transfer bonus in conjunction with an affiliation bonus.

6.1.4.2. Officers receiving both bonuses incur an additional 12-month service obligation for a minimum service obligation of 4 years.

6.1.4.3. Table 3-1 lists the intra-service transfers for which the Military Departments may offer a bonus.

6.2 Inter-Service Transfer

The Inter-Service transfer bonus provides a monetary incentive for an officer to transfer to another Military Service to meet manning requirements of that Military Service. The Secretaries concerned may pay a bonus to an officer who agrees to transfer to and serve in another Military Service for a specified period in a designated military skill, career field, unit, or grade or to meet some other condition(s) imposed by the Secretary of the gaining Military Department.

6.2.1. The procedures described in section 2.0 and paragraph 6.2, as well as any additional conditions and requirements prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, govern the award and administration of the transfer bonus.

6.2.2. Transfers between Military Services include officers transferring from the Regular Component or the Ready Reserve of a Military Service to the Regular Component or the Ready Reserve of a different Military Service.

6.2.3. Officer transfers between Military Services will be conducted in accordance with DoDI 1300.04.

6.2.4. In order to successfully transfer, an officer must:

6.2.4.1. Qualify for retention in the Military Service to which the officer is transferring;
6.2.4.2. Have fulfilled all MSOs satisfactorily within the officer’s current Regular Component or RC;

6.2.4.3. Meet the qualification criteria established by the Secretary of the Military Department with jurisdiction over the Military Service to which the officer is transferring;

6.2.4.4. Agree to sign a written agreement to remain in the Military Service for which the transfer bonus is offered for a minimum 3-year period; and 6.2.4.5. Have fewer than 15 years of active service time.

6.2.5. Affiliation and Transfer Bonus

6.2.5.1. The Secretary concerned may offer an inter-service transfer bonus in conjunction with an affiliation bonus.

6.2.5.2. Officers receiving both bonuses incur an additional 12-month service obligation for a minimum MSO of 4 years.

6.2.5.3. Table 3-2 lists the inter-service transfers for which a bonus may be offered.

6.3 Restrictions

An officer receiving separation pay in accordance with 10 U.S.C., Chapter 59, is not eligible for a transfer bonus.

6.4 Amount

A transfer bonus may not exceed $10,000.

6.5 Payment Method

The method of payment will be consistent with paragraph 2.5.

6.6 Non-Availability

In the event an RC officer becomes unavailable, the provisions of paragraph 2.9 will apply.

6.7 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, an officer transfer bonus may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless an officer transfer agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.
7.0 SPECIAL PAYS FOR NUCLEAR-QUALIFIED OFFICERS (NAVY ONLY)

*7.1 Nuclear Power Accession Bonus Program

7.1.1. Eligibility

7.1.1.1. Nuclear Officer Accession Bonus. An accession bonus is payable to officers or prospective officers who are selected for officer naval nuclear-propulsion training and execute a written agreement to participate in a program of training for duty in connection with the supervision, operation, and maintenance of naval nuclear propulsion plants. Payment is authorized upon acceptance of the written agreement.

7.1.1.2. Nuclear Career Accession Bonus. Officers who are on AD and who successfully complete the nuclear propulsion-training program, leading to qualification for duty in connection with the supervision, operation, and maintenance of naval nuclear propulsion plants, are eligible for payment of the nuclear career accession bonus.

7.1.2. Payment. Payment procedures and bonus rates for this program are contained in Chief of Naval Operations Instruction (OPNAVINST) 7220.11J paragraph 7.c, paragraph 8.b, and enclosure 1 paragraphs 1.a and 1.b.

7.1.3. Repayment. An officer, who receives an accession bonus and does not commence or satisfactorily complete the nuclear power training, will be subject to the repayment provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373, and Chapter 2.

7.1.4. Duration of Authority. A nuclear power accession bonus may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

*7.2 Nuclear Officer Continuation Bonus (COBO)

7.2.1. Entitlement. The Secretary of the Navy may pay Nuclear Officer COBO to nuclear-qualified officers who agree to remain on AD for a specified period beyond their existing service obligation.

7.2.2. Eligibility. Officers who meet the criteria defined in OPNAVINST 7220.11J are eligible to receive COBO upon acceptance of their written agreement to remain on AD in connection with supervision, operation, and maintenance of naval nuclear propulsion plants.

7.2.3. Payment. The amount payable may not exceed $75,000 for each 12-month period. The payment procedures, rates and effective dates are contained in the governing regulation, OPNAVINST 7220.11J, paragraph 9.c and enclosure 1 paragraph 1.c.

7.2.4. Repayment. An officer who receives a bonus and fails to complete the period of obligated service or other conditions of service specified in the written agreement for which the bonus is paid, may be subject to repayment of any unearned portion of the bonus in accordance with the provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373, Chapter 2, and OPNAVINST 7220.11J.

7.2.5. Duration of Authority. A nuclear officer continuation bonus may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

7.3 Nuclear Career Annual Incentive Pay (AIP)

7.3.1. Purpose. The Secretary of the Navy may pay Nuclear Career AIP to nuclear-trained and nuclear-qualified officers who are on AD and who complete their initial service requirement, and to nuclear-trained and nuclear-qualified limited duty and warrant officers who serve in an assignment with duties in connection with direct supervision, operation, or maintenance of naval nuclear propulsion plants.

7.3.2. Eligibility. AIP is paid annually to nuclear-trained and qualified officers who remain on AD for a specified period and who meet the eligibility criteria set forth in OPNAVINST 7220.11J.

7.3.2.1. Warrant Officers in pay grades W-2 through W-5 and Officers in pay grades O-1 through O-6 are eligible for AIP. Officers serving in a period of obligated service associated with paragraph 7.2 are not eligible for AIP during that period of their obligated service.

7.3.2.2. In order to be eligible for AIP (or a pro rata portion thereof), for any nuclear service year, an officer must be qualified for duties in connection with the supervision, operation, and maintenance of naval nuclear propulsion plants on 30 September.

7.3.3. Payment. Under 37 U.S.C. § 333(d)(1)(B), Nuclear Career AIP may not exceed $25,000 for each 12-month period of qualifying service. The current payment procedures and rates are contained in the governing regulation, OPNAVINST 7220.11J paragraph 10.c and enclosure 1 paragraph 1.d.

NOTE: An officer of the U.S. Navy who is not on AD on the last day of a nuclear service year may be paid AIP on a pro rata basis if otherwise qualified, unless termination of AD or loss of qualifications was voluntary or was the result of his own misconduct.

7.4 Prototype Shift Engineer Incentive Pay (SEIP)

7.4.1. Entitlement. The Secretary of the Navy may pay SEIP to nuclear-trained and nuclear-qualified officers who have completed their initial service requirement and remain on AD for a specified period while maintaining current technical qualifications, as approved by the Secretary, for duty in connection with the supervision, operation, and maintenance of naval nuclear propulsion plants.

7.4.2. Eligibility. Nuclear-trained submarine and surface warfare officers who meet the criteria defined in OPNAVINST 7220.11J, are eligible to receive SEIP while assigned to a qualifying billet and qualified for duty in connection with the supervision, operation, and maintenance of naval nuclear propulsion plants.

7.4.3. Payment. Officers who meet the eligibility criteria for SEIP in OPNAVINST 7220.11J paragraph 11.a are eligible for SEIP at the start of their shift engineer tour. The payment procedures and monthly rate is specified in OPNAVINST 7220.11J, paragraph 11.b and enclosure 1 paragraph 1.e.

7.4.4. Repayment. An officer, who fails to commence or satisfactorily complete a shift engineer tour will be subject to the repayment provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373 and Chapter 2. Specific exclusions from recoupment are listed in OPNAVINST 7220.11J.

8.0 COMMAND PAY

8.1 Purpose

Command pay is designed to recognize officers assigned as commanding officers in operational leadership positions of unusual responsibility which are of a critical nature to a Military Service. The Secretary concerned may designate positions under his or her jurisdiction that are authorized command pay.

8.2 Eligibility

Secretaries concerned will establish eligibility criteria based on Service-specific needs but will consider paygrade, level of responsibility, and the operational nature of the assignment.

8.3 Amount

Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned will establish monthly rates, but the amount of command pay per month will not exceed $150.

8.4 Restrictions

8.4.1. No more than 10 percent of the number of officers on AD in a Military Service in paygrades O-4 through O-6 may be paid command pay.

8.4.2. Command pay is not authorized for more than one officer per unit, except for the dates of assumption of and relief from command.

CHAPTER 5

HEALTH PROFESSIONS OFFICER (HPO) SPECIAL AND INCENTIVE PAY

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to establish policy pertaining to Health Professions Special and Incentive (HPS&I) Pay.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with, the DoD Instruction (DoDI) 6000.13. Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 PROVISIONS

Each HPS&I pay is in addition to any other pay or allowance to which an HPO is eligible except as specified in sections 3.0 through 8.0.

2.1 Legacy Special Pays

2.1.1. HPOs who entered into a written agreement for receipt of a special pay (Multiyear Special Pay, Incentive Special Pay, or Additional Special Pay) on or before January 27, 2018 will, if otherwise qualified, continue to receive payments until completion of the written agreement. Effective January 28, 2018, all new agreements for special pays will be administered in accordance with paragraph 2.2. The criteria for legacy pays can be found in the archived Chapters 5, 6, 7, and 21.

2.1.2. Subject to acceptance by the Secretary concerned, an HPO who entered into a written agreement in accordance with the legacy special pay authorities may request termination of that agreement to enter into a new agreement with an equal or longer obligation at the annual rate in effect at the time of execution of the new agreement. The new obligated period will not retroactively cover any portion or period that was executed under the old agreement.

2.2 Consolidated Special Pays (CSP)

HPOs may be paid special pay at the rate for the specialty for which they are fully qualified. The specialty or subspecialty must be the same for all pays received. The HPO may only receive Incentive Pay (IP) and a Retention Bonus (RB) for one specialty, even if the HPO holds qualifications in two or more specialties. The IP and RB must be effective on the same date. The eligibility for each HPS&I pay is described in sections 3.0 through 8.0.
2.3 Restrictions

2.3.1. The amount of HPS&I pay is not included in computing the amount of any increase in pay or in computing retired, separation, severance, or readjustment pays.

2.3.2. An HPO may not receive special pays pursuant to paragraphs 2.1 and 2.2 simultaneously. Once an HPO receives a special pay pursuant to paragraph 2.2, the HPO cannot revert back to special pays in paragraph 2.1.

2.3.3. An officer receiving a health profession bonus is not eligible to receive a payment pursuant to Title 37, United States Code (U.S.C.), section 332 for the same period of obligated service.

2.3.4. An officer receiving health professions IP is not eligible to receive a payment pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 353 for the same skill and period of service.

2.3.5. An officer receiving BCP is not eligible to receive a payment pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 353(b) for the same skill and period of service covered by the certification.

2.4 Eligibility

To be eligible to participate in the CSP, an HPO must:

2.4.1. Not have reached the mandatory retirement or removal date due to age or years of service and complete any additional service obligation incurred before the individual’s mandatory retirement or removal date, unless granted a waiver;

2.4.2. Have a current, valid, and unrestricted license or approved waiver;

2.4.3. Maintain all licensing, credentialing, and specialty qualifications;

2.4.4. Meet privileging requirements; and

2.4.5. Sign a service agreement indicating:

2.4.5.1. The amount of bonus or pay;

2.4.5.2. The method of payment of the bonus or pay;

2.4.5.3. The period of obligated service for the bonus or pay;

2.4.5.4. Whether the service will be performed on Active Duty (AD) or in active status in a Reserve Component (RC);

2.4.5.5. The type or conditions of the service; and
2.4.5.6. The circumstances that may result in termination of the agreement and repayment of any unearned portion of the bonus or pay if the officer fails to fulfill the conditions of the bonus or pay, to include an unfulfilled service obligation or eligibility requirement.

3.0 ACCESSION BONUS (AB)

3.1 Eligibility

To be eligible for an AB, an individual must:

3.1.1. Meet the eligibility criteria itemized in paragraph 2.4;

3.1.2. Be a graduate of an accredited school in a health profession;

3.1.3. Be qualified for an appointment as a commissioned officer in a regular or RC of a Uniformed Service (an individual must accept an appointment as an HPO before the bonus will be paid);

3.1.4. Execute a written agreement to accept an appointment as an HPO of the Army, Navy, or Air Force to serve on AD in a regular component or in an active status in a RC in a health profession for a specified period;

3.1.5. When appointed, have completed the service obligation for receipt of financial assistance from the DoD to pursue a course of study in a health profession. This includes, but is not limited to, participants and former participants of the:

3.1.5.1. Reserve Officers’ Training Corps;

3.1.5.2. Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program;

3.1.5.3. Financial Assistance Program;

3.1.5.4. Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences; and

3.1.5.5. Other commissioning programs;

3.1.6. Have been honorably discharged or released from any prior service;

3.1.7. Be qualified in the specialty to which appointed; and

3.1.8. Have been discharged from any Uniformed Service at least 24 months before execution of the written agreement to receive an AB, and no longer hold an appointment, if a former HPO.
3.2 Amounts

AB amounts are listed in Table 5-1. For the most current rates, see the HPO AB table on DFAS.MIL.

4.0 CRITICALLY SHORT WARTIME SKILLS ACCESSION BONUS (CSWSAB)

4.1 Eligibility

To be eligible for CSWSAB, an individual must:

4.1.1. Meet the eligibility criteria itemized in subparagraphs 3.1.1 through 3.1.6;

4.1.2. Be fully qualified in the critically short wartime specialty to which appointed; and

4.1.3. Have been discharged from any Uniformed Service at least 24 months before execution of the written agreement to receive a CSWSAB, and no longer hold an appointment, if a former HPO.

4.2 Amounts

CSWSAB amounts are listed in Table 5-2. For the most current rates, see the CSWSAB table on DFAS.MIL.

5.0 BOARD CERTIFICATION PAY (BCP)

5.1 Eligibility

5.1.1. HPOs must:

5.1.1.1. Meet the eligibility criteria itemized in paragraph 2.4;

5.1.1.2. Be serving in an Active Component (AC) or RC of a Military Service and entitled to basic pay under 37 U.S.C. § 204 or compensation pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 206;

5.1.1.3. Be serving on AD or in an active Reserve status in a designated health professional clinical specialty;

5.1.1.4. Have a post-baccalaureate degree in a clinical specialty (a post Master's certificate acceptable to the Secretary concerned can satisfy this requirement); and

5.1.1.5. Be certified by a professional board in a designated health profession clinical specialty.

5.1.2. All Officers, to include General/Flag officers at the rank of O-7 and above, are eligible for the BCP.
*5.2 Amount

The annual amount payable is $8,000, to be prorated monthly.

6.0 IP

6.1 General Provisions

6.1.1 IP When Not Participating in an RB Agreement. Subject to acceptance by the Secretary concerned, an HPO who is eligible for and not in an existing RB agreement, and who is no longer obligated pursuant to a previous IP agreement, may enter into a new 1-year IP agreement at the rate in the HPS&I pay plan. IP agreements must be for at least 1 year and cannot be prorated. If, during the IP agreement, the HPO becomes eligible for a higher IP, the HPO may terminate and renegotiate at that higher rate, obligating for at least a year from the date of renegotiation.

6.1.2 IP When Participating in an RB Agreement. An HPO who enters into an RB contract may also be eligible for IP for the same specialty at the amount in the HPS&I pay plan. An HPO who elects this option will continue IP eligibility, at the rate in effect at the time the RB agreement is effective, for each active year of the RB contract. Any renegotiation of either the RB or IP will require signing a new RB contract at the annual rate in effect at the time of signature, with an obligation that ends after the obligation of the original agreement.

6.1.3 Effective Date. The effective date of the IP agreement will be calculated from the date the member completes the qualifying training plus 3 months.

6.2 Eligibility

6.2.1 To be eligible for IP, an HPO must be:

6.2.1.1 Serving in an AC or RC of a Military Service and entitled to basic pay under 37 U.S.C. § 204 or compensation pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 206;

6.2.1.2 Serving on AD or in an active Reserve status in a designated health professional specialty; and

6.2.1.3 Eligible as prescribed in paragraph 2.4;

6.2.2 Medical Corps and Dental Corps Officers at the rank of O-7 and above are eligible for the HPO IP at the General Medical Officer (GMO) or General Dental Officer rate, respectively. All other General/Flag officers are authorized the HPO IP rate for their credentialed specialty.
6.3 Amounts

Annual payment amounts for IP contracts are listed in Tables 5-3 through 5-6 and paid in equal monthly payments. For the most current IP rates, see the Dental Corps IP/RB, Medical Corps IP/RB, Nurse Corps IP/RB, and Specialty IP/RB tables on DFAS.MIL.

7.0 RB

7.1 General Provisions

7.1.1. Subject to acceptance by the Secretary concerned, an HPO with an existing multiyear special pay pursuant to 37 U.S.C. Chapter 5, Subchapter I, or with an RB contract pursuant to 37 U.S.C. Chapter 5, Subchapter II, may request termination of that contract to enter into a new RB contract with an equal or longer obligation at the RB annual rate in effect at the time of execution of the new contract. The new obligation period will not retroactively cover any portion or period that was executed in accordance with the prior contract.

7.1.2. The Secretary concerned may pay an RB to HPOs based on their clinical specialty or subspecialty regardless of their ability to spend appropriate time in a clinical setting.

7.2 Eligibility

To be eligible for an RB, an HPO must:

7.2.1. Meet the eligibility criteria itemized in paragraph 2.4;

7.2.2. Have completed qualifications for the specialty or subspecialty for which the RB is being paid before the beginning of the fiscal year during which a written agreement is executed;

7.2.3. Enter into a written agreement, accepted by the Secretary concerned, to remain on AD or in an active status in an RC as an HPO for 2, 3, or 4 years;

7.2.4. Be below the grade of O-7; and

7.2.5. Meet one of the following requirements:

7.2.5.1. Have completed any AD or reserve duty service commitment incurred for any and all pre-commissioning education and training; or 7.2.5.2. Have completed the service obligation for an AB (an individual eligible for an AB may decline the AB and accept the RB).

7.3 Amounts

Annual payment amounts for AC RB contracts are listed in Tables 5-3 through 5-6. For the most current AC RB rates, see the Dental Corps RC AB/RB, Medical Corps RC AB/RB, Nurse Corps RC AB/RB, and Specialties RC AB/RB tables on DFAS.MIL.

8.0 RC

8.1 AB

8.1.1. To be eligible for an AB, a RC participant must:

8.1.1.1. Execute a written agreement to remain a satisfactory participant in the Selected Reserves (SELRES) in accordance with DoDI 1215.13;

8.1.1.2. Be qualified in a critical skill identified on the RC HPS&I Pay Plan; and 8.1.1.3. Meet the provisions outlined in paragraphs 2.4 and 3.1.

NOTE: An HPO in the SELRES who transfers to the Individual Ready Reserve or Standby Ready Reserve is not eligible for payments and will have the special pay suspended during this period.

8.1.2. Payment amounts for RC AB contracts are listed in Tables 5-7, 5-8, 5-9, and 5-10. For the most current RC AB rates, see the Dental Corps RC AB/RB, Medical Corps RC AB/RB, Nurse Corps RC AB/RB, and Specialties RC AB/RB tables on DFAS.MIL.

8.2 Affiliation Bonus for RC (AFBRC)

8.2.1. Eligibility

To be eligible for an AFBRC, an HPO must:

8.2.1.1. Meet the eligibility criteria itemized in paragraph 2.4;

8.2.1.2. Be serving on AD, or have served on AD, and have a DoD (DD) Form 214, “Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty,” that verifies an honorable discharge or release;

8.2.1.3. Provide the original DD 214 (copy 1 or copy 4), or a reproduction with a certified true-copy stamp, and the appropriate Federal Government authenticating seal imprinted for each period of service;

8.2.1.4. Be qualified to hold an appointment as an HPO;

8.2.1.5. Be qualified in the specialty in which they agree to serve;
8.2.1.6. Execute a written agreement to serve 3 years in the SELRES; and 8.2.1.7. Not have previously received an AB in the SELRES, unless granted a waiver.

8.2.2. Amount

The Secretary concerned may pay an AFBRC up to $10,000 to eligible officers.

8.2.3. Restrictions

An officer receiving a health profession bonus is not eligible to receive a payment pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 332 for the same period of obligated service.

8.3 BCP

8.3.1. Eligibility

An HPO must meet the provisions outlined in paragraph 5.1.

8.3.2. Payment

If eligible, a RC member will be paid at the daily rate of one-thirtieth of the BCP monthly rate as defined in paragraph 5.2 for any period in which the member is entitled to basic pay under 37 U.S.C. § 204 or compensation pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 206.

8.4 IP

8.4.1. Eligibility

An HPO must meet the provisions outlined in paragraph 6.2.

8.4.2. Payment

If eligible, an RC member will be paid at the daily rate of one-thirtieth of the IP monthly rate for any period in which the member is entitled to basic pay under 37 U.S.C. § 204 or compensation pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 206. See paragraph 6.3.

8.5 RB

8.5.1. Eligibility

To be eligible for an RB, an HPO must meet the provisions outlined in paragraph 7.2.
8.5.2. Payment

Payment amounts for RC RB contracts are listed in Tables 5-7, 5-8, 5-9, and 5-10. For the most current RC RB rates, see the Dental Corps RC AB/RB, Medical Corps RC AB/RB, Nurse Corps RC AB/RB, and Specialties RC AB/RB tables on DFAS.MIL.

9.0 TERMINATION

9.1 Reasons

The Secretary concerned may terminate, at any time, an HPO special pay agreement. The Secretary concerned will establish regulations that specify the conditions and procedures for termination, and they will be included in the written service agreement for the specific special pay. Reasons for termination may include, but are not necessarily limited to:

9.1.1. Loss of privileges;
9.1.2. Court-martial conviction;
9.1.3. Failure to maintain a current, valid, and unrestricted license or approved waiver; or 9.1.4. Reasons that are in the best interest of the Military Department.

9.2 Proration

If an agreement for one or more special pays is terminated, the HPO will be paid on a pro-rata basis for the portion served until the official date of termination.

9.3 Repayment

An HPO who fails to maintain the eligibility requirements for a special pay, does not complete the obligation period for the pay, or whose pay is terminated by the Secretary concerned, as described in paragraph 8.1, will be subject to the repayment provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373 and Chapter 2. These repayment authorities will be stipulated in the written service agreement.

9.4 Reinstatement

If an HPO’s special pay is terminated due to failure to maintain a valid license, the member can become eligible for special pays again. Once the HPO’s license is reinstated and eligibility is re-established, the HPO may negotiate new contractual special pay agreements. Regardless of whether the HPO receives special pays, the HPO will be held responsible for the original contracted special pay service obligation until completed or until involuntary separation from military service occurs.
9.5 Duration of Authority

An HPS&I may not be paid to any person for an AB, CSWSAB, BCP, IP, or RB after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the person’s entitlement to the HPS&I commenced prior to that date.

CHAPTER 8

SPECIAL PAY - SPECIAL DUTY ASSIGNMENT PAY

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

Special Duty Assignment Pay (SDAP) is awarded to Service members for the performance of duty in an assignment, location, or unit designated, where the assigned duties are determined to be extremely demanding, involving an unusual degree of responsibility or difficulty, or requiring special qualifications.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), Title 37. Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 SDAP

2.1 Eligibility

The Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned will establish eligibility criteria based on Service-specific needs and will consider paygrade, level of responsibility, and the operational nature of the assignment.

2.1.1 Army. See the Department of the Army Memorandum, Corrected 3-Special Duty Assignment Pay Biennial Review and Recertification, dated November 14, 2018.

2.1.2 Navy. See Chief of Naval Operations Instructions (OPNAVINST) 1160.6C.

2.1.3 Air Force and Space Force. See Air Force Instruction (AFI) 36-3012.

2.1.4 Marine Corps. See Marine Corps Order (MCO) 7220.12R.

2.2 Additional Guidelines

2.2.1 The Secretary of the Military Department may pay a special duty pay to a member of the Active or Reserve Component of the Uniformed Service who is entitled to basic pay under 37 U.S.C. § 204, or compensation under 37 U.S.C. § 206.
2.2.2. The Secretary concerned may pay SDAP to a Service member who performs duties in an assignment, location, or unit designated, and under the conditions of service specified by the Secretary concerned.

2.2.3. SDAP will be in addition to any other pay or allowances a Service member may be receiving, except where otherwise stated.

2.2.4. Awarding new agreements for assignment and special duty pays under 37 U.S.C., Chapter 5, Subchapter I, was discontinued after October 1, 2017. Existing agreements under 37 U.S.C., Chapter 5, Subchapter I, will remain in effect and payments may continue through the agreed-upon date.

2.3 Restrictions

2.3.1. A member of a Reserve Component entitled to pay under 37 U.S.C. § 206 and authorized for special duty pay may be paid an amount of SDAP that is proportionate to the compensation received by the member for inactive duty training. The member may be awarded an amount at 1/30th of the prescribed monthly rate of the special duty pay for the performance of each authorized period of inactive duty training with pay.

2.3.2. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may increase, decrease, or abolish SDAP for any skill or assignment at any time and will establish restrictions and limitations to the pay through Service regulations.

2.3.3. Assignment and special duty pays are not to be continuous in nature and should be for a specified period. However, back-to-back assignment and special duty pays are authorized as long as the Service member continues to meet Service regulations and perform duties in assignments designated for the pay.

2.3.4. A member may receive multiple assignment and special duty pays. However, a Service member may not receive multiple pays for the same purpose and period of service.

2.4 Amount

2.4.1. Assignment and special duty pays may be paid in monthly, installment, or lump sum amounts, but may not exceed the amount listed in subparagraph 2.4.2. The combination of assignment and special duty pays may not exceed an average monthly amount of $3,500, unless otherwise authorized by the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs.

2.4.2. The Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned will establish monthly rates, but the maximum amount of SDAP per month will not exceed $750.
2.5 Repayment

A member who receives SDAP in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 352, and fails to fulfill the eligibility requirements for receipt of such pay, will be subject to the repayment provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373.

3.0 ENTITLEMENT

3.1 Service Designations

Designations of military specialties and assignments for SDAP are in the applicable regulations of the Military Service concerned.

3.2 Written Agreement

3.2.1. Discretionary for Monthly Payments. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may require a Service member to enter into a written agreement with the Secretary in order to qualify for the payment of assignment pay or special duty pay on a monthly basis. If used, the written agreement will specify the period for which the assignment pay or special duty pay will be paid and the monthly rate.

3.2.2. Non-discretionary for Installment or Lump Sum Payments. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned will require a Service member to enter into a written agreement with the Secretary in order to qualify for installment or lump sum payments of assignment pay or special duty pay. The written agreement will specify the period for which the Service member will receive assignment pay or special duty pay, the amount of each periodic installment or lump sum, and the repayment policy under paragraph 2.5.

4.0 CONDITIONS OF ENTITLEMENT

4.1 Effect of SDAP on Other Computations

SDAP is not used in the computation for an enlistment bonus, severance pay, separation pay, or cash settlement of accrued leave.

4.2 Tax

SDAP is subject to withholding of income tax, but not subject to withholding of Federal Insurance Contributions Act taxes.

*4.3 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, SDAP may not be paid for service provided after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table for SDAP unless an SDAP contract was entered into prior to the date on the table.

CHAPTER 9

ACTIVE DUTY ENLISTED MEMBERS ENLISTMENT, REENLISTMENT AND RETENTION BONUSES

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter establishes DoD policy guidance pertaining to active duty enlistment, reenlistment, and retention bonuses.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code (U.S.C.), section 331 (37 U.S.C. § 331). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 ENLISTMENT BONUS

2.1 Eligibility

An enlistment bonus is authorized for individuals who enlist in a Military Service for a specific period and, if applicable, for service in a military skill that is experiencing critical personnel shortages as designated by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. The individual must meet the qualifications listed in subparagraphs 2.1.1 through 2.1.8:

2.1.1. Possess a high school diploma, a completion or attendance certificate in lieu of a high school diploma, or a General Educational Development program certificate;

2.1.2. The individual must be an initial enlistee, who enlists in a Regular Component of the Military Service. An initial enlistee is a person who has either never served or has served, and was released from such service before completing the basic training requirements of the Service of which the person was a member and the service was characterized as either honorable or uncharacterized.

2.1.3. Enlist for at least 2 years or extend an initial period of obligated service to a total of at least 2 years in a Regular Component of a Military Service and serve for a specified period of obligated service in at least one of the following categories:

2.1.3.1. A designated military skill,

2.1.3.2. Career field,
2.1.3.3. Unit,

2.1.3.4. Grade, or

2.1.3.5. Other condition or conditions imposed by the Under Secretary of Defense (Personnel and Readiness) (USD (P&R)) or the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

2.1.4. Execute a written agreement with the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that specifies the:

2.1.4.1. Amount of the bonus;

2.1.4.2. Method of bonus payment - lump sum amount or periodic installments;

2.1.4.3. Period of obligated service; and

2.1.4.4. Designated military skill or specialty, career field, unit, grade, or such other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

2.1.5. Not have previously received an enlistment bonus, a retention bonus, an affiliation bonus, or a transfer bonus for the same period of service;

2.1.6. Not have previously received and not be eligible to receive a Selective Retention Bonus (SRB) under section 3.0 or a Critical Skill Retention Bonus (CSRB) under section 4.0;

2.1.7. Successfully complete training and become technically qualified in a designated skill if completion of such training and technical qualification forms the basis under which the bonus is paid; and

2.1.8. Meet any additional military service specific eligibility criteria and quality standards established by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

*2.2 Amount

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned will determine the amount of the enlistment bonus awarded for a designated military skill. The bonus payment for a designated military skill or cumulative amount of enlistment bonuses to any individual is not to exceed $75,000 for a minimum 2-year service obligation.

2.3 Computation

The Secretaries of the Military Departments are required to establish rules of computation for enlistment bonuses.
2.4 Method of Payment

2.4.1. The bonus may be paid either in periodic installments or a single lump sum. The timing of the initial payment is at the discretion of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, except that it must not be paid before the member completes basic recruit training. For individuals enlisted for specialties requiring formal training, the Service concerned may withhold the initial payment until the individual completes the training and qualifies in the military skill, so the bonus serves as an incentive to complete the training needed to qualify in the skill.

2.4.2. If paid in installments, after the initial payment, the remainder of the bonus must be paid in equal periodic installments.

2.5 Repayment

2.5.1. A member, who does not complete the term of enlistment, or extension of enlistment, or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

2.5.2. A member, who is discharged 12 months or less before the expiration of enlistment or extension of enlistment in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1171 may be considered to have completed the terms of enlistment or extension of enlistment for which the bonus was paid. For all other early discharges, the Military Departments will determine and advise when repayment is not required.

2.6 Duration of Authority

An enlistment bonus may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

*3.0 SRB

3.1 Eligibility

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may designate a unit, grade, or impose such other condition or conditions of service with respect to the SRB, as determined necessary to mitigate a significant current or projected personnel shortage or changing force structure requirements. An SRB based on unit, grade, or such other condition or conditions of service are subject to USD (P&R) approval. The member must:

3.1.1. Serve in a pay grade E-3 or higher;

3.1.2. Reenlist for a period of at least 3 years or voluntarily extend an enlistment for a period of at least 1 year on active duty;
3.1.3. Execute a written agreement with the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that specifies the:

3.1.3.1. Amount of the bonus;

3.1.3.2. Method of bonus payment - lump sum amount or periodic installments;

3.1.3.3. Period of obligated service; and

3.1.3.4. Designated military skill, career field, unit, or grade, or such other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

3.1.4. Agree to serve for a specified period in at least one of the following reenlistment or extension categories:

3.1.4.1. A designated military skill,

3.1.4.2. Career field,

3.1.4.3. Unit,

3.1.4.4. Grade, or

3.1.4.5. Other condition or conditions imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

3.1.5. Meet skill qualification prior to payment of the SRB for a member transferring into a designated military skill;

3.1.6. Qualify under any additional eligibility criteria prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

3.1.7. Not be in receipt of an enlistment bonus, a retention bonus, an affiliation bonus, or a transfer bonus for the same period of service; and

3.1.8. In addition to the eligibility requirements in subparagraphs 3.1.1 through 3.1.7 an enlisted service member serving under an indefinite reenlistment must:

3.1.8.1. Be in the pay grade of E-5 or above;

3.1.8.2. Have 10 or more years of military service; and

3.1.8.3. Sign an agreement to remain on active duty for a period of at least 3 years.
3.2 Limitations

3.2.1. A re-entry or reenlistment must occur no later than 3 months (or within a lesser period if so prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned) after the date of discharge or release from active duty.

3.2.2. Veterans with more than a 3-month but less than a 4-year break in active duty may qualify for a broken service, or a prior service re-entry, SRB program in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

3.2.3. Re-enlistees reentering active duty with a break in active duty greater than 24 hours, only the original DoD (DD) Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, (copy 1 or copy 4) or a reproduction of the DD 214, with a certified true-copy stamp and appropriate Federal Government authenticating seal imprinted thereon, is acceptable documentation and identification. The 24-hour period begins on the day following the date of discharge or separation.

3.2.4. Members with prior enlisted service and subsequent service as an officer, who were discharged or released from active duty and who, within 3 months after discharge or release from active duty as an officer, reenlist in the same Regular Component of a Military Service in which they previously served as an enlisted member may be eligible for an SRB. The individual must meet all other requirements established in paragraphs 3.1 and 3.2.

3.2.5. Service members may be eligible for an SRB if they extend their existing service obligation for a minimum of 12 months.

3.2.6. Members who reenlist or voluntarily extend an enlistment to obtain sufficient obligated service to participate in a program leading to commissioned or warrant officer status are not eligible for an SRB.

3.2.7. A member is not eligible for an SRB if the member was discharged or released from active duty or service in an active status based upon a determination of misconduct, substandard duty performance, or moral or professional dereliction.

3.2.8. An SRB may be paid to an enlisted member up to 28 years of active duty or service. The Deputy Assistant Secretary of Defense for Military Personnel Policy may waive this restriction based upon a request and justification submitted by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

3.2.9. Generally, a member may not use any preexisting period of obligated service to satisfy an obligated service requirement under an SRB agreement, unless such service is determined by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned to be consistent with the requirements of 37 U.S.C. § 371; and
3.2.9.1. Such preexisting period of obligated service is necessary for the member to qualify for continuous submarine duty incentive pay and is service for which no bonus was previously authorized or payable; or

3.2.9.2. Such preexisting period of obligated service includes no more than a 2-year period of an unserved voluntary extension of enlistment for which no bonus was previously authorized or payable, and the member agrees to an additional 2-year period of obligated service in connection with the SRB.

3.3 Amount

The SRB may not exceed $30,000 for each year of obligated service in a Regular Component. The maximum amount for an SRB is $180,000.

3.3.1. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned must determine the amount of the SRB based on a business case model that targets the retention of adequate levels of enlisted personnel in a reenlistment or extension category.

3.3.2. Members may receive more than one SRB for a career, but the total combined SRB payments over a career must not exceed $360,000.

3.3.3. SRB amounts may be prorated for extension requests greater than one year and reenlistments greater than 3 years. The additional service time will be calculated on a monthly basis at a rate equal to 1/12th the annual amount.

3.4 Computation

The Secretaries of the Military Departments are required to establish and publish the rules for computing the SRB.

3.5 Method of Payment

The bonus may be paid either in periodic installments or a single lump sum. If the Secretary of the Military Department concerned elects to pay SRBs in installments:

3.5.1. The installment amount will be at the discretion of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, and may be paid at the time of reenlistment, or at the beginning of the member’s service commitment for the voluntary extension of enlistment. All payments must be made before the member completes a total of 28 years of service.

3.5.2. An initial installment to a member who reenlists after a break in active duty service greater than 24 hours is to be made no earlier than 30 days after arrival at the first permanent duty station following reenlistment.

3.5.3. Where there is lost time, the subsequent installment payments will be delayed by the number of days of lost time.
3.5.4. Discharge for the purpose of immediate reenlistment does not affect a member’s entitlement to subsequent SRB installment payments.

3.6 Additional Obligated Service

Additional obligated service is defined as any active service commitment beyond an existing contractual service agreement. Existing contractual service agreements include enlistments, extensions of enlistment, and reenlistments.

3.7 Changes and Termination of Awards

3.7.1. The Military Departments will notify USD (P&R) of any changes to a Military Department’s SRB guidance under the enlisted bonus program. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned will issue an announcement that fully describes the change along with an effective date. The amount of the SRB offered after the date of such change may not exceed that authorized under 37 U.S.C. § 331(c).

3.7.2. Members agreeing to retrain and reenlist for a different specialty may be paid a bonus in the amount offered at the time of the agreement or upon completion of the training, whichever is greater. If after completion of the training a bonus is no longer offered for the skill, the bonus amount at the time of the agreement will be awarded to the Service member.

3.8 Repayment

3.8.1. A member, who does not complete the term of reenlistment, or extension of reenlistment, or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

3.8.2. A member, who is discharged 12 months or less before the expiration of enlistment or extension of enlistment in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1171 may be considered to have completed the terms of enlistment or extension of enlistment for which the bonus was paid. For all other early discharges, the Military Departments will determine and advise when repayment is not required.

3.9 Duration of Authority

An SRB may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

4.0 CSRB

4.1 Eligibility

An enlisted member of the Armed Forces, who is serving on active duty in a Regular Component and is qualified in a critical military skill designated by the Secretary of Defense, may be paid a retention bonus as provided in this section, if the member is not serving on an indefinite enlistment and reenlists or voluntarily extends the enlistment for at least 1 year.

4.2 Limitations

4.2.1. A retention bonus may not be given under paragraph 4.1 to a member of the Armed Forces who has completed more than 25 years of active duty or who will complete the 25th year before the end of the period of active duty or active status for which the bonus is offered. This limitation does not apply with respect to a member who is qualified in a skill related to special operations forces.

4.2.2. The USD (P&R) or the Principal Deputy, USD (PDUSD) (P&R) may waive the 25-year service limitation on eligibility with respect to a member who, during a period of active duty or service in an active status in a Reserve Component for which the bonus is being offered, is assigned duties in a skill designated as critical.

4.2.3. CSRB payments may not be made before the start of the active duty service period for which the CSRB is being awarded, unless specifically authorized by the PDUSD (P&R).

4.3 Amount

4.3.1. A member may enter into an agreement, reenlist, or voluntarily extend enlistment more than once in order to receive a bonus under this section. However, a member may not receive a total of more than $200,000 in payments under this section.

4.3.2. A CSRB amount may not exceed $30,000, annually unless PDUSD (P&R) has granted an exception.

NOTE: The combined total of CSRB and Selective Reenlistment Bonus, in accordance with, DoD Directive (DoDD) 1304.21, during an individual’s career, shall not exceed $200,000, unless the PDUSD (P&R) authorizes it for the skill concerned as an exception to policy.

4.4 Method of Payment

A bonus under this section may be paid in a single lump sum or periodic installments.

4.5 Repayment

4.5.1. A member, who does not complete the term of retention bonus or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

4.5.2. A member, who is discharged 12 months or less before the expiration of enlistment or extension of enlistment in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1171 may be considered to have completed the terms of enlistment or extension of enlistment for which the bonus was paid. For all other early discharges, the Military Departments will determine and advise when repayment is not required.

4.6 Duration of Authority

An SRB may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

*5.0 PRIOR SERVICE REENLISTMENT BONUS

5.1 Eligibility

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay an individual who reenlist in a regular component of a military service after a break in active duty. An individual must:

5.1.1. Not have previously received, or currently be entitled to, and SRB under section 3.0; or a CSRB under section 4.0;

5.1.2. Not have more than 16 years of total military service and have received an honorable discharge at the conclusion of all previous periods of service;

5.1.3. Not have been released, not be released, from active duty for the purpose of enlistment in a Reserve Component;

5.1.4. Provide either:

5.1.4.1. The original DD Form 214 (copy 1 or copy 4);

5.1.4.2. A reproduction of the DD Form 214 with a certified true copy stamp and the appropriate Federal Government authenticating seal imprinted on the reproduction for any period of previous military service; or

5.1.4.3. Other official documentation verifying member’s satisfactory participation for all periods of previous service in the Active Component and Selected Reserve;

5.1.5. Successfully complete any additional training or re-training required to become technically qualified in a designated critical skill for which the member is projected to occupy;

5.1.6. Reenlist for at least 3 years; and

5.1.7. Execute an agreement to serve as an enlisted member in the Regular or Reserve Component of a Military Service for a period of not less than 3 years upon acceptance of the agreement by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that specifies the:

5.1.7.1. Amount of the bonus;
5.1.7.2. Method of bonus payment - lump sum amount or periodic installments;

5.1.7.3. Period of obligated service; and

5.1.7.4. Designated:

5.1.7.4.1. Military skill or specialty;

5.1.7.4.2. Career field;

5.1.7.4.3. Unit:

5.1.7.4.4. Grade; or

5.1.7.4.5. Such other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

5.2 Amount

The Prior Service Reenlistment Bonus amount must not exceed $20,000 for each year of obligated service in a Regular Component.

5.3 Method of Payment

5.3.1. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned must establish a method of payment for the bonus (lump sum or periodic installments). Payment should be disbursed based on training milestones, amounts, and length of enlistment. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned must not pay a person or member any portion of the bonus prior to completion of training.

5.3.2. Members with prior military service, who do not require formal training to be technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus is being paid, will receive their first installment no earlier than 30 days after arrival at the first permanent duty station following re-entry on active duty.

5.4 Repayment

5.4.1. A member, who does not complete the term of this bonus or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

5.4.2. A member, who is discharged 12 months or less before the expiration of enlistment or extension of enlistment in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1171 may be considered to have completed the terms of enlistment or extension of enlistment for which the bonus was paid. For all other early discharges, the Military Departments will determine and advise when repayment is not required.
5.5 Duration of Authority

An SRB may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

*6.0 CONVERSION BONUS

6.1 Eligibility

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay a conversion bonus to a member of the Armed Forces, who agrees to execute a written agreement to convert to, and serve for a period of not less than three years in, a MOS for which there is a shortage of trained and qualified personnel. The member must:

6.1.1. At the time the agreement is executed, be serving in a pay grade E-6 or below, with no more than 12 years of service as computed in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 205.

6.1.2. Have completed all service obligations incurred for receipt of an enlistment bonus as prescribed in section 2.0, a retention bonus as prescribed in section 3.0, or CSRB as prescribed in section 4.0;

6.1.3. Meet all eligibility requirements prescribed in section 2.1;

6.1.4. Extend the existing enlistment contract to qualify for the bonus if he or she has less than 3 years of active duty or duty in an active status in the Selected Reserve.

6.1.5 Execute a written agreement with the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that specifies the:

6.1.5.1. Amount of the bonus;

6.1.5.2. Method of bonus payment - lump sum amount or periodic installments;

6.1.5.3. Period of obligated service; and

6.1.5.4. Designated military skill, career field, unit, grade, or such other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned; and

6.1.6. Not be in receipt of an enlistment bonus, a retention bonus, an affiliation bonus, or a transfer bonus for the same period of service.

6.2 Amount

The bonus payment will not exceed $10,000.
6.3 Method of Payment

6.3.1. The conversion bonus may be paid in periodic installments or in a lump sum.

6.3.2. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned must not pay a member any portion of the bonus before completion of training.

6.4 Repayment

6.4.1. A member, who does not complete the term of this bonus or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

6.4.2. A member, who is discharged 12 months or less before the expiration of enlistment or extension of enlistment in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1171 may be considered to have completed the terms of enlistment or extension of enlistment for which the bonus was paid. For all other early discharges, the Military Departments will determine and advise when repayment is not required.

6.5 Duration of Authority

An SRB may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

7.0 BONUS FOR TRANSFER BETWEEN MILITARY SERVICES

7.1 Eligibility

The Secretary of the gaining Military Department may pay a bonus to an enlisted member who agrees to transfer and serve in another Military Service, for a specified period in a designated military skill, career field, unit, grade, or to meet some other condition or conditions imposed by the Secretary of the gaining Military Department. The member must:

7.1.1. Execute a written agreement with the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that specifies the:

7.1.1.1. Amount of the bonus;

7.1.1.2. Method of bonus payment - lump sum amount or periodic installments;

7.1.1.3. Period of obligated service, which must be for a minimum 3 year period; and

7.1.1.4. Designated military skill, career field, unit, grade, or such other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;
7.1.2. Agree to serve for a specified period in at least one of the following reenlistment or extension categories:

7.1.2.1. A designated military skill,

7.1.2.2. Career field,

7.1.2.3. Unit,

7.1.2.4. Grade, or

7.1.2.5. Other condition or conditions imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

7.1.3. Have satisfactorily completed any term of enlistment in a Military Service;

7.1.4. Qualify for reenlistment in the Regular Component of the Military Service to which the member is transferring;

7.1.5. Prior to the transfer, fulfill the requirements established by the Secretary with jurisdiction over the Military Service to which the member is transferring;

7.1.6. Not be in receipt of an enlistment bonus, retention bonus, an affiliation bonus, or a transfer bonus for the same period of service;

7.1.7. Not be in receipt of separation pay in accordance with 10 U.S.C. Chapter 59; and

7.1.8. Meet any additional military service specific eligibility criteria and quality standards established by the Secretary of the Military Department to which the member is transferring.

7.2 Amount and Method of Payment

The Secretary of the gaining Military Department may pay the transfer bonus in one $10,000 lump sum amount upon approval of the transfer by the Secretary of that Military Department. Alternatively, the bonus may be paid in annual installments, the total of which may not exceed $10,000.

7.3 Repayment

7.3.1. A member, who does not complete the term of this bonus or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

7.3.2. A member, who is discharged 12 months or less before the expiration of enlistment or extension of enlistment in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1171 may be considered to have completed the terms of enlistment or extension of enlistment for which the bonus was paid. For all other early discharges, the Military Departments will determine and advise when repayment is not required.

7.4 Duration of Authority

An SRB may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

8.0 BONUS FOR TRANSFER BETWEEN COMPONENTS OF A MILITARY SERVICE

8.1 Eligibility

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay a bonus to an enlisted member who agrees to transfer from the Regular Component to the Ready Reserve or vice versa of the same service. The member must:

8.1.1. Execute a written agreement with the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that specifies the:

8.1.1.1. Amount of the bonus;
8.1.1.2. Method of bonus payment - lump sum amount or periodic installments;
8.1.1.3. Period of obligated service; and
8.1.1.4. Designated military skill, career field, unit, grade, or such other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

8.1.2. Agree to serve for a specified period in at least one of the following reenlistment or extension categories:

8.1.2.1. A designated military skill,
8.1.2.2. Career field,
8.1.2.3. Unit,
8.1.2.4. Grade, or
8.1.2.5. Other condition or conditions imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

8.1.3. Not be in receipt of an enlistment bonus, retention bonus, an affiliation bonus, or a transfer bonus for the same period of service;
8.1.4. Satisfactorily complete all terms of enlistment within their current component;

8.1.5. Qualify for reenlistment in the Regular Component of the Military Service to which the member is transferring;

8.1.6. Agree to remain in the component for which the transfer bonus is offered for a minimum 2 year period;

8.1.7. Have fewer than 15 years of active service time; and

8.1.8. Meet any additional military service specific eligibility criteria and quality standards established by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

8.2 Amount and Method of Payment

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned must establish the amount and method of payment for the bonus (lump sum or periodic installments). The bonus for transfer between components of a Military Service may not exceed $10,000 and is payable upon approval of the Secretary concerned.

8.3 Repayment

8.3.1. A member, who does not complete the term of this bonus or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

8.3.2. A member, who is discharged 12 months or less before the expiration of enlistment or extension of enlistment in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1171 may be considered to have completed the terms of enlistment or extension of enlistment for which the bonus was paid. For all other early discharges, the Military Departments will determine and advise when repayment is not required.

8.4 Duration of Authority

An SRB may not be paid to any person after the date on the Duration of Authority table. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the entitlement commenced prior to that date.

9.0 VOLUNTARY EXTENSION RETENTION BONUS (VERB)

9.1 Eligibility

Effective April 27, 2020, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay a VERB to an enlisted member who volunteers to remain on active duty, for at least 6, but not more than, 24 months of additional obligated service beyond their expiration of term of service (ETS) dates. The member must:
9.1.1. Be within 12 months of the date of their ETS;

9.1.2. Volunteer to remain on active duty, for at least six, but not more than, 24 months of additional obligated service beyond their existing ETS dates;

9.1.3. Be in the pay grade of E-3 or above;

9.1.4. Have less than 28 years of service; and

9.1.5. Sign an extension agreement specifying the amount of the bonus, the payment method, period of obligated service, and type or condition of service.

9.2 Restrictions

9.2.1. Enlisted members volunteering for VERB are not eligible for an early discharge in accordance with title 10 U.S.C. § 1171.

9.2.2. Enlisted members may not be in receipt of any other bonus pursuant to title 37 U.S.C. § 331 for the same period of service.

9.2.3. Members who are pending disciplinary action, administrative separation, or mandatory discharge pursuant to any other provision of law or regulation, or who are being evaluated for disability retirement or separation pursuant to 10 U.S.C. Chapter 61 are not eligible for an extension bonus.

9.2.4. Additionally, unless otherwise waived by the Secretary concerned, an enlisted member is not eligible for VERB if the additional obligated service will extend the member’s service beyond the member’s mandatory retirement or high-year tenure date.

9.2.5. Members may only receive one VERB during their career.

9.3 Amount and Method of Payment

Secretaries concerned may pay the bonus in a lump sum or in periodic installments. The bonus amount may not exceed $12,000 for each 12-month period. For bonus agreements less than 12 months, the bonus amount may be prorated to a monthly rate not to exceed $1,000 per month. Bonus amounts may be paid at the time of the agreement, but the bonus amount will be calculated based only on the additional service obligation. Lastly, the entire term of the extension will be included as previously obligated service for any future bonus calculations.

9.4 Repayment

Service members failing to complete the service obligation specified in the bonus agreement may have their agreement terminated and may be required to repay any unearned portion of the bonus amount in accordance with title 37 U.S.C. § 373, and Chapter 2.

9.5 Duration of Authority
Subject to congressional reauthorization of title 37 U.S.C. § 331, this authority will remain in effect until September 30, 2021, unless otherwise modified or terminated earlier by the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (ASD M&RA).

CHAPTER 10

SPECIAL PAY - DUTY SUBJECT TO HOSTILE FIRE OR IMMINENT DANGER

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter establishes DoD policy for payment of Hostile Fire Pay (HFP) and Imminent Danger Pay (IDP) and lists the areas where members are authorized to receive these entitlements.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The HFP and IDP policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code, section 351 (37 U.S.C. § 351). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 ENTITLEMENT PROVISIONS

*2.1 Policy

A member may be paid special pay for duty subject to hostile fire or imminent danger for any month when the member, while entitled to basic pay for active duty or compensation for inactive duty, also meets the qualifying criteria of this chapter. A member is not authorized to receive concurrent payments for hostile fire and imminent danger duty.

2.1.1. HFP. This entitlement is paid at the rate of $225 per month when, as certified by the appropriate commander, a member is subjected to hostile fire, explosion of hostile mines, or other hostile action (a hostile fire event) and who:

2.1.1.1. Performs duty in a hostile fire area;

2.1.1.2. Is exposed to a hostile fire event;

2.1.1.3. Is on duty during a month in an area in which a hostile event occurred that placed the member in grave danger of physical injury; or

2.1.1.4. Is killed, injured, or wounded by a hostile fire event.

2.1.2. IDP. This entitlement is paid on a daily prorated basis, not to exceed $225 per month, when a member is on official duty in a designated IDP area. IDP may be paid to a service member who is subject to the threat of physical harm or imminent danger on the basis of civil insurrection, civil war, terrorism, or wartime conditions in a designated foreign area. See Table 10-1, or for the most current listings Imminent Danger Pay table on DFAS.MIL.
2.2 Payment

IDP is payable on a prorated daily basis not to exceed a monthly rate of $225. It is payable in addition to all other pays or allowances, except when receiving HFP, as stated in paragraph 2.1. The proration does not apply to the 31st of a month for Active and Reserve component members who are on active duty for 30 days or more. HFP will not be prorated. Members will receive the maximum monthly rate of special pay for the month in which the hostile fire or hostile fire mine explosion event occurred. Payment will be made for the full month, if a member is exposed to hostile fire or a hostile mine explosion on the 31st day of a month, and the member has not already received credit for the full monthly allowance. The following examples for payment on the 31st are provided:

Example 1: A member on active duty for more than 30 days in an IDP area for the period March 31 through April 29 will receive IDP only for the period April 1 through 29.

Example 2: A member on active duty for more than 30 days in an IDP area for the period March 31 through April 29, and who is exposed to hostile fire or a hostile mine explosion on March 31, will be entitled to HFP for the entire month of March and IDP for the period April 1 through 29.

Example 3: A member on active duty for less than 30 days in an IDP area for the period March 29 through April 20 will be entitled to IDP for the period March 29 through 31 and April 1 through 20 for a total of 23 days.

Example 4: A member on active duty for less than 30 days in an IDP area for the period March 29 through April 20, and who is exposed to hostile fire or a hostile mine explosion on March 31, will be entitled to the full monthly amount of HFP of $225 for the month of March, and daily IDP for the period April 1 through 20.

3.0 DETERMINATIONS OF FACT

*3.1 Eligibility - HFP

The appropriate commander will certify that the member has met the requirements for entitlement to HFP for a given month. A death certificate or injury report may be substituted in place of the certification, if the document establishes the cause of the death or injury was due to hostile fire or a hostile fire event.

3.1.1. Certification of entitlement will be made at the lowest level of command that includes all the vessels, aircraft, or units subjected to the hostile fire or explosion of hostile mine incident. For example, in the case of a single vessel subjected to hostile fire or explosion of hostile mines, the vessel’s commanding officer should certify payment eligibility for all members on board. If two or more vessels are involved, then the commanding officer of the unit that includes all of the vessels should certify eligibility.
3.1.2. Certification will include the name and appropriate payroll identification number of each member entitled to the HFP, a short description of the incident, and when and where it occurred. The certification should be forwarded directly to the servicing financial support office, via the geographic Combatant Commander exercising operational control over the Service member(s) at the time of the hostile fire event.

*3.2 Eligibility – IDP

3.2.1. When the airspace is specifically included in an IDP area designation, members who perform official duty while flying over the area are eligible for IDP, even if they do not land in the area. When airspace is not specifically designated, members who perform duty over the area are not entitled to IDP unless they land in the area.

3.2.2. A member who performs duty on a vessel performing operational duty while in an area designated for IDP is eligible for IDP payments.

3.2.3. A member is not considered to be on official duty in a designated IDP area, and therefore, is not eligible for IDP pay, if the member is in the area:

3.2.3.1. While on leave from a duty station outside the IDP area, even if the outside location is another IDP area;

3.2.3.2. While merely transiting (as distinguished from performing official duty) by any means (including vessel, aircraft, and land conveyance) through the IDP area as a consequence of traveling between two points, both outside the IDP area; or 3.2.3.3. Solely for personal convenience.

3.3 Administration

Any determinations of fact made by commanders in the certification of hostile fire are conclusive. Such determinations are not subject to review by any officer or agency of the government, unless there has been fraud or gross negligence. Such determinations, however, may be changed on the basis of new evidence or for other good cause.

4.0 SPECIAL SITUATIONS

4.1 Member Captured or Missing

A member entitled to HFP and/or IDP immediately before entering a status of missing, missing-in-action, interned in a foreign country or captured by a hostile force will continue to be credited with HFP and/or IDP for each month while in such a status. See Chapter 34 for additional information.
4.2 Hospitalization

A member entitled to HFP and/or IDP who in the line of duty incurs a wound, injury or illness while serving in a combat operation or a combat zone; while serving in a hostile fire area; or while exposed to a hostile fire event (regardless of location), and who is hospitalized for the treatment of such a wound, injury, or illness, may continue to receive HFP and/or IDP. Members may be paid HFP and/or IDP for up to 12 months from the date of hospitalization under the Pay and Allowance Continuation (PAC) Program. See Chapter 13 for PAC entitlement eligibility.

4.3 Absences

The following examples are provided for absences from the IDP area:

4.3.1. A member who takes leave in the IDP designated area that the member is assigned for duty remains entitled to the payment of IDP.

4.3.2. A member who takes leave in an IDP area that the member is not assigned for duty is not eligible for the payment of IDP. See subparagraph 3.1.6.1.

4.3.3. A member who takes leave in an area not designated as an IDP area is not eligible for the payment of IDP for the period of the absence.

4.3.4. A member assigned for duty in an IDP area who performs temporary duty in an area not designated as an IDP area is not eligible for the payment of IDP for the period of absence.

5.0 Duration of Authority

HFP or IDP may not be paid to any person after the date on the through date in Table 10-1. No payments will be made after the termination date unless the person’s entitlement to the HFP or IDP commenced prior to that date.

NOTES:

1. The designation of a land area encompasses all internal waters, unless otherwise noted. For HFP and/or IDP purposes, the term “internal waters” is defined as waters landward of the baseline, drawn in accordance with international law.

2. The designation of a water area (such as the Persian Gulf) includes the territorial seas of those waters, but not the internal waters of the coastal lands. For example, all waters of the Persian Gulf seaward of the baseline of the coastal states, drawn in accordance with international law, would be included in the Persian Gulf designation.

3. Unless otherwise specifically indicated, airspace is NOT part of the included area. When airspace is specifically included, it will normally be that space directly vertically above the approved land or sea area.

4. This table reflects all designated areas, which were active within the last six years.

5. Limited to Service members performing duties within the Joint Task Force Guantanamo Bay Detention Facilities.

6. Land area within a 20-km radius from the center of Athens (38° 01’ N, 23° 44’ E).

7. Water area of the Mediterranean Sea extending from the North African Coast northward into Mediterranean Sea, bounded on the east at: 26° 00’ E longitude; extending north to: 34° 35’ N latitude; and extending west to: the East Coast of Tunisia.

8. Water area of the Somalia Basin with coordinates:
   -11°10’N-51°15’E;
   -06°00’N-48°30’E;
   -05°00’N-50°30’E;

   -03°00’S-43°00’E;
   -01°00’S-41°00’E; and
   -06°00’N-48°30’E.

9. Excluding Izmir and the Turkish Straits (i.e., the Dardanelles; the Sea of Marmara; and the Bosporus Straits).

10. Airspace: south of 37°45’N; and east of 43°00’E.

CHAPTER 11

SPECIAL PAY - DIVING DUTY

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter provides the policy governing special pay entitlements applicable to diving duty for all of the Military Services.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code (U.S.C.). The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 DIVING DUTY HAZARDOUS DUTY INCENTIVE PAY (HDIP)

2.1 Entitlement

The Secretary concerned may pay HDIP to Service members required by competent orders to participate in diving duty as part of their primary duty.

2.2 Requirements

Service members entitled to basic pay may be eligible for HDIP for diving duty for periods during which they are:

2.2.1. Assigned by competent orders to the duty of diving,

2.2.2. Required to maintain proficiency as a diver by frequent and regular dives, and

2.2.3. They are either:

2.2.3.1. Actually performing diving duty while serving in an assignment for which diving is a primary duty, or

2.2.3.2. Meeting the requirements to maintain proficiency as a diver by frequent and regular dives while serving in an assignment that includes diving other than as a primary duty.
2.3 Suspension

In time of war, the President may suspend diving duty pay.

2.4 Conditions

See Table 11-1 for conditions which further affect entitlement to diving duty pay. Additional conditions of service may be imposed by the Secretary concerned.

2.5 Qualifications for Diving Duty

2.5.1. Army

Except as noted in Tables 11-2 and 11-3, an Army member must be a rated diver in accordance with Army Regulation (AR) 611-75 and be assigned to:

2.5.1.1. A Table of Organization and Equipment or Table of Distribution and Allowance position in Skill Classification/Military Occupational Specialty, Special Qualification Identifier, or Additional Skill Identifier (ASI) specified in AR 611-75; or 2.5.1.2. A position designated as diving duty by the Deputy Chief of Staff Personnel.

2.5.2. Navy and Marine Corps

Members must be designated divers, assigned to diving duty under competent orders, and maintain their qualifications for diving.

2.5.3. Air Force

Service members must:

2.5.3.1. Successfully complete an approved DoD course for underwater swimmers,

2.5.3.2. Be under orders for diving duty as authorized by their Major Command, and

2.5.3.3. Meet the other qualification standards prescribed by current Air Force Instructions.

2.6 Rates Payable

Service members who meet the eligibility criteria, but who do not participate in a full calendar month of dive duty, will receive a prorated HDIP payment.
2.6.1. Service members assigned to diving duty are entitled to special pay for diving duty at a rate of not more than $240 per month.

2.6.2. Service regulations may not vary criteria or rates for payment of diving duty HDIP for officers and enlisted members.

2.7 Specific Rates Payable

See Tables 11-2 through 11-9. The most current rates are in the Diving Duty Pay Rates table on DFAS.MIL.

2.8 Restrictions on Payment

2.8.1. Although a Service member may perform more than three hazardous duties in a month, a Service member may not receive simultaneous payments for more than three HDIP duties in a month. Therefore, if a member receives diving duty incentive pay in a month, they may not receive more than two other HDIP payments from the hazardous duties listed in Chapter 22 and Chapter 24.

2.8.2. No member is entitled to receive special pay for performing diving duty after diving qualifications have lapsed. Upon requalification, no payments will be made for the period of the lapsed qualification.

*2.9 Duration of Authority

Unless authorized by Congress, no diving duty HDIP payment may be paid after the termination date on the Duration of Authority table.

3.0 MASTER DIVER SKILL INCENTIVE PAY (MDSIP)

3.1 Authority

Title 37, U.S.C. § 353 and the Under Secretary of Defense (Personnel and Readiness) (USD(P&R)) Memorandum, Master Diver Skill Incentive Pay, dated January 26, 2018, provides the authority for the Secretaries of the Military Departments to offer MDSIP to Service members who:

3.1.1. Are qualified in a critical diving specialty, and

3.1.2. Maintains proficiency as a diver through frequent and regular dives.

3.2 Eligibility

The Secretaries of the Military Departments may pay MDSIP to qualified Service members serving in critical diving specialties designated by the Secretary concerned. Qualifying Service members must be proficient in performance of one of the following critical diving skill areas:
3.2.1. Supervision and training of members who are qualified in the full spectrum of diving apparatus and gas mixtures;

3.2.2. Diving, salvage, and ship underwater repair operations;

3.2.3. Surface and underwater demolition operations for salvage, ship husbandry, or underwater construction operations;

3.2.4. Operation, maintenance, and certification of deep dive systems and equipment; or 3.2.5. Operation of special operations underwater vehicles requiring the use of an underwater breathing apparatus.

3.3 Additional Guidelines

3.3.1. In addition to being qualified in one of the critical skill areas listed in paragraph 3.2, a Regular or Reserve Component Service member must meet the eligibility criteria for diving duty (HDIP) outlined in section 2.0, and any additional criteria prescribed by the Secretary concerned.

3.3.2. Service members qualified solely in the use of a self-contained underwater breathing apparatus are not authorized MDSIP.

3.3.3. Reserve Component members entitled to compensation pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 206 are eligible for MDSIP at the discretion of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. The amount authorized will be equal to 1/30th of the monthly MDSIP authorized by the Military Department concerned for each period of inactive duty training.

3.4 Payment Method and Amount

3.4.1. Rates. In accordance with paragraph 3.1, the Military Departments may pay monthly MDSIP to qualified Service members who meet the MDSIP eligibility requirements. The amount may not exceed:

3.4.1.1. $340 per month for enlisted members, or 3.4.1.2. $240 per month for officers.

3.4.2. Multiple Payments.

3.4.2.1. Under the provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 353, a Service member may not be paid more than one skill incentive pay in any month for the same period of service or skill.

3.4.2.2. A member may not be paid a skill incentive pay under 37 U.S.C. § 353, and hazardous duty pay under 37 U.S.C. § 351, for the same period of service in the same career field or skill for which the payment is made.
3.4.3. Proration. If a Service member does not satisfy the eligibility requirements for MDSIP for an entire month, the Secretary concerned will prorate the payment to reflect the duration of the member’s actual qualifying service during the month.

3.4.4. Repayment. Repayment of any unearned portion or overpayment will be in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 2; Volume 16, Chapter 3; and 37 U.S.C. § 373.

3.5 Restrictions

3.5.1. Service members temporarily unable to perform diving duty due to a physical or medical condition, not the result of the member’s own misconduct, may continue to receive MDSIP for up to 6 months. After 6 months, MDSIP will be terminated and may not be reinstated until the condition resulting in the physical or medical restriction is corrected and the member is again certified for diving duty by a competent Medical Officer.

3.5.2. Service members permanently disqualified or otherwise determined to be no longer eligible to perform diving duty are not eligible for MDSIP in accordance with paragraph 3.1 or any additional criteria prescribed by the Military Departments concerned.

3.5.3. Service members are not authorized MDSIP for any period of unauthorized absences.

3.5.4. Service members who receive MDSIP and fail to satisfy the eligibility requirements for receipt of pay will be subject to having the pay terminated.

3.6 Written Agreement

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned will establish Service specific instructions for the administration of MDSIP in accordance with paragraph 3.1. The instructions may require a member to enter into a written agreement in order to qualify for MDSIP. The written agreement must specify the period for which the Service member will receive the skill incentive pay and the monthly rate of the pay.

*3.7 Duration of Authority

Unless authorized by Congress, no MDSIP payment may be entered into after the date on the Duration of Authority table.

PURPORTED MARRIAGES

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to establish policy for purported marriages and the related impact to military pay.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), Title 37. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in the reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 VALIDATION OF PAYMENTS BASED ON PURPORTED MARRIAGES

2.1 Authority for Validation

A payment of an allowance based on a purported marriage that is made under 37 U.S.C. § 423 or prior laws, before the marriage is annulled or terminated is valid if:

2.1.1. A court of competent jurisdiction adjudges or decrees that the military member entered the marriage in good faith; or

2.1.2. In the absence of such judgment or decree, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or a person designated by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned makes a finding of good faith.

2.2 Responsibility for Validation

Findings of good faith under subparagraph 2.1.2 are submitted to the offices listed in Chapter 26, Table 26-11. Purported marriages requiring such findings are listed in Chapter 26.

2.3 Payments Not Validated

Payments based on invalid marriages are erroneous payments or overpayments unless validated.

CHAPTER 13

ILLNESS OR INJURY PAYMENT PROGRAMS

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter describes the payment programs authorized for military personnel, who, while serving in the line of duty, are either injured, wounded, or became ill, or who have a permanent catastrophic injury or illness and require a caregiver.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), Title 37. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

*2.0 PAY AND ALLOWANCE CONTINUATION (PAC) PROGRAM

2.1 General

Effective May 15, 2008, the Secretary of Defense authorized the PAC Program for Service members of the Regular or Reserve Components (RC) pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 372.

2.2 Eligibility

2.2.1. To be eligible for the PAC Program, Service members must have been wounded, ill, or injured in a combat zone, a hostile fire area, or while exposed to a hostile fire event, and hospitalized, as defined in subparagraph 2.3.2 for treatment of such wound, injury, or illness.

2.2.2. Paragraph 2.2.1 includes Service members who are assigned to a medical or patient unit based on orders that confirm the assignment and who are determined as not fully fit to perform full military duties.

2.3 Entitlement

2.3.1. Service members of the Regular or RC who incur a wound, injury, or illness in the line of duty while serving in a combat operation or a combat zone, while serving in a hostile fire area, or while exposed to a hostile fire event (regardless of location), and are hospitalized for treatment of the wound, injury, or illness, will continue to receive the pay and allowances the member was receiving at the time of hospitalization. These pay and allowances include special and incentive pays, bonuses, and the daily incidental expense portion of the temporary duty allowance authorized for members deployed in a combat operation or combat zone.
2.3.2. Circumstances Involving Hospitalization:

2.3.2.1. A member who is evacuated for medical treatment will be considered “first hospitalized for treatment” at the time of the evacuation for the purposes of determining PAC eligibility.

2.3.2.2. After first hospitalization for treatment, a Service member may remain eligible for PAC during follow-on outpatient treatment and/or rehabilitation until triggering one of the three terminating reasons listed in paragraph 2.5.

2.3.2.3. The member may be authorized PAC beginning on the first day of the month following the date they were first hospitalized for treatment, and it may continue for up to 12 subsequent consecutive months.

2.3.3. For purposes of Hardship Duty Pay – Location (HDP-L), Service members serving on a temporary deployment, or attached duty of more than 30 days in a designated hardship duty location, and who are wounded, injured, or become ill within the first 30 days of serving in the designated area, will be considered eligible for HDP-L at the time the wound, injury or illness is incurred.

2.4 Commencement of Payment

Continuation of pay and allowances under the PAC Program begins on May 15, 2008, or the date of the member’s eligibility, whichever occurs later. Begin PAC payment on the first month after hospitalization.

Example: If a member was medically evacuated from Iraq to Germany in July, August is the “first month” of PAC.

2.5 Termination of Entitlement

The pay and allowances for Service members that meet the PAC Program eligibility requirements will continue until the end of the first month beginning after the earliest of the following dates:

2.5.1. The date on which the Service member is returned for assignment to other than a medical or patient unit for duty (Note: The return to assignment is based on a determination that the member is fully fit to perform full military duties);

2.5.2. The date on which the Service member is discharged, separated, or retired (including temporary disability retirement) from the Uniformed Services; or

2.5.3. One year after the date on which the Service member is first hospitalized for the treatment of the wound, injury, or illness. The Principal Deputy Under Secretary of Defense (USD) for Personnel and Readiness (P&R) may extend the termination date in 6-month increments under extraordinary circumstances.
*3.0  SPECIAL COMPENSATION FOR ASSISTANCE WITH ACTIVITIES OF DAILY LIVING (SCAADL)

3.1  General

The provisions of the SCAADL Program apply only to those Service members with qualifying injuries or illnesses incurred on or after August 31, 2011. The Secretary concerned may pay special compensation to eligible Service members of the Active or RC who have incurred or aggravated a permanent catastrophic illness or injury in the line of duty, and require a caregiver who provides non-medical care, support, and assistance to the member. The DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1341.12, “Special Compensation for Assistance with Activities of Daily Living Program,” dated October 31, 2019, contains detailed instructions and procedures for initiating the SCAADL entitlement.

3.2  Eligibility

3.2.1.  To receive the SCAADL compensation, the Service member:

3.2.1.1.  Injury has been determined to have been incurred/aggravated in the line of duty;

3.2.1.2.  Must have a certification made, by a licensed DoD physician or a Veterans Affairs (VA)-licensed physician, that the member has a permanent catastrophic injury and needs assistance from another person to perform the personal functions required by everyday living;

3.2.1.3.  Must have a certification made, by a DoD or a VA-licensed physician, that the member requires hospitalization, nursing home care, or other residential institutional care in the absence of such assistance;

3.2.1.4.  Be an outpatient and have identified a designated primary caregiver. The designated primary caregiver:

3.2.1.4.1.  May be a Service member assigned to a RC and not serving on active duty. If the Service member designates a member of a RC as their primary caregiver, an alternate caregiver must also be designated. Members of the Active Component and RC assigned to active duty will not serve as designated primary caregivers;

3.2.1.4.2.  Must not be receiving the VA Program of Comprehensive Assistance Caregivers stipend, or VA Aid and Attendance compensation, in accordance with subparagraphs 3.3.1.2 and 3.3.1.3;

3.2.1.4.3.  May still be eligible to receive the respite benefit if they are qualified in accordance with TRICARE Operations Manual (TOM) 6010.56-M; and
3.2.1.4.4. Must be at least 18 years of age. The exception to this requirement is if the Service member’s spouse is under 18 years of age, he or she may be the primary or alternate caregiver;

3.2.1.5. Be an outpatient and not receiving federally funded in-home services (other than respite care), including TRICARE, to assist with activities of daily living (ADL) or provide supervision to avoid harm to self or others.

3.2.2. Service member receiving other home health services in accordance with TOM 6010.56-M remain eligible to receive SCAADL compensation, except as described in paragraph 3.3.

3.3 Restrictions

3.3.1. SCAADL is not paid to a Service member:

3.3.1.1. If any other federal agency is providing outpatient or in-home services to assist the member with ADL or provide supervision to avoid the Service member from harming themselves or others;

3.3.1.2. Who is a former member (veteran) and receives special monthly compensation from the VA in accordance with 38 U.S.C. § 1114(r)(2);

3.3.1.3. If the Service member’s primary caregiver receives a monthly caregiver stipend from the VA’s Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers Program;

3.3.1.4. If the Service member qualifies for and accepts in-home assistance with ADL, supervisory, or protection needs paid with supplemental health care program funds and provided by a TRICARE-authorized home health agency;

3.3.1.5. If the Service member enters hospice care. In accordance with TRICARE Reimbursement Manual 6010.61-M, TRICARE will cover hospice care for those members. However, Service members in hospice care for the management of medication still qualify for the SCAADL Program; or 3.3.1.6. On the last day of the month during which a 90-day period ends after the Service member begins separation or retirement, even though the member has not begun to receive compensation pursuant to 38 U.S.C. § 1114(r)(2) before the end of such period.

3.3.2. Service member will be removed from the SCAADL Program:

3.3.2.1. If the Service member is returned to duty through rehabilitation, or is found fit by a Service physical evaluation board, or otherwise returned to duty status as unfit, but retained on active duty. The Service member will be removed from the SCAADL program in accordance with the Military Department’s regulations. Termination effective date will be the last day of the month the Service member is no longer eligible under this provision; or 3.3.2.2. Pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 373, Service members no longer satisfying SCAADL eligibility requirements will repay any SCAADL allowances received after the member is returned to duty or removed from the SCAADL program, except when:

3.3.2.2.1. The Secretary of the Military Departments concerned determines that the imposition of the repayment with regard to a Service member would be contrary to a personnel policy or management objective, would be against equity and good conscience, or would be contrary to the best interest of the United States;

3.3.2.2.2. The Service member dies or is retired or separated with a combat-related disability; or 3.3.2.2.3. The Service member receives sole survivorship discharge.

3.3.3. Service members or their designated representatives may appeal disapproval to receive SCAADL in accordance with respective Military Service appeal guidelines.

3.3.4. Qualifying payments to Service members, who receive SCAADL, in accordance with paragraph 2.3, will terminate as detailed in subparagraph 3.5.3.

3.3.5. Service members must complete a re-evaluation and recertification every 180-calendar days of eligibility for the SCAADL benefit.

3.3.6. Service members in receipt of SCAADL will recertify compensation upon a change in clinical status or geographical location.

3.3.7. All Service members hospitalized for 16 cumulative days or more of a month will be required to recertify upon release from the hospital.

3.4 Monthly Compensation

An online SCAADL Calculator is available to compute the approximate monthly SCAADL compensation. The military services will use the DoD (DD) Form 2948, “Application for Special Compensation for Assistance with Activities of Daily Living (SCAADL) Eligibility,” to document the Service member’s eligibility for SCAADL. The following guidelines apply:

3.4.1. Monthly compensation is computed based on the Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) wage rate for a home health aide, using the 75th percentile of the hourly wage rate in the Service member’s geographic area of residence. The BLS wage rates are updated annually and published effective January of each year. The amount of monthly compensation is calculated using the zip code of the geographic location where the Service member currently resides and the Service member’s dependence level.

3.4.2. A three-tier system recognizing the variation in complexity of care required by the Service member and provided by the caregiver determines the monthly compensation. The member’s Primary Care Manager (PCM) will assess the Service member’s dependency level and assign a point value corresponding to the number of hours of care the member requires each week.

3.4.2.1. High Tier. It is presumed that a Service member who scores 21 or higher will require at least 40 hours per week of caregiver assistance.

3.4.2.2. Medium Tier. It is presumed that a Service member who scores 13-20 will require at least 25 hours per week of caregiver assistance.

3.4.2.3. Low Tier. It is presumed that a Service member who scores 1-12 will require at least 10 hours per week of caregiver assistance.

3.4.3. Service members or their designated representatives may appeal a PCM’s determination of dependency level to their Service headquarters. The dependency level may also change if the Service member’s condition changes and a reevaluation of the member’s level of dependency is conducted.

3.5 Payment Period

The following guidelines apply to the period that the SCAADL entitlement may be paid:

3.5.1. Service members become eligible for the SCAADL entitlement on the date a licensed DoD or VA physician certifies that the member meets the eligibility criteria. If the certification is not on the first of the month, and the entitlement is continuous for more than 1 month, the first month will be prorated based on a 30-day month computation. The 31st day of the first month will be excluded.

3.5.2. Service members entitled to SCAADL for a continuous period of less than 1 month will receive payment for the actual number of days at the rate of 1/30th of the monthly amount. The 31st day of a calendar month may not be excluded from this computation.

3.5.3. SCAADL entitlement stops on:

3.5.3.1. The last day of the month in which a 90-day period ends after the date the Service member separates or retires. (For example, March 15 (separation date) plus 90 days equals June 13 (last day of entitlement is June 30));

3.5.3.2. The last day of the month during which a Service member dies (See Note);

3.5.3.3. The last day of the month a physician determines that a Service member no longer meets the eligibility requirements for SCAADL; or

3.5.3.4. The last day of the month preceding the month during which the Service member begins receiving aid and attendance from the VA under 38 U.S.C. § 1114(r)(2), or the Service member’s primary caregiver begins receiving a monthly caregiver stipend from the VA under 38 U.S.C. § 1720G.
Note: This last SCAADL payment should be paid to the beneficiary in the unpaid pay and allowances described in Chapter 36, section 3.0.

CHAPTER 14

INCENTIVE FOR QUALIFIED MEMBERS EXTENDING DUTY AT DESIGNATED LOCATIONS OVERSEAS

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter establishes policy pertaining to the incentive for qualified members extending duty at designated locations overseas.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), including Titles 10 and 37. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 SPECIAL PAY OR BONUS

2.1 Eligibility

Members of the Armed Forces may be entitled to a special pay or bonus if they:

2.1.1. Are entitled to basic pay;

2.1.2. Have a specialty that is designated by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned for the purposes of this entitlement;

2.1.3. Have completed a tour of duty (as defined in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary concerned) at a location outside the Continental United States (CONUS) that is designated by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned for the purposes of this entitlement; and

2.1.4. Have completed that tour of duty and then execute an agreement to extend that tour for a period of not less than 1 year.

2.2 Amount

When the Secretary of the Military Department concerned accepts the member’s agreement to extend the tour of duty, the member becomes entitled, subject to the restrictions identified in paragraph 2.5, to receive one of the following benefits:

2.2.1. Special pay in monthly installments in an amount prescribed by the Secretary, but not to exceed $80 per month; or 2.2.2. An annual bonus in an amount prescribed by the Secretary, but not to exceed $2,000 per year. The Secretary may pay a bonus in either a lump sum or monthly installments.

2.3 Selection

Not later than the date the Secretary of the Military Department concerned accepts the agreement described in subparagraph 2.1.4 providing for the extension of a member’s tour of duty, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned will notify the member regarding whether the member will receive special pay or bonus. The payment rate for the special pay or bonus will be fixed at the time of the agreement and may not be changed during the period of the extended tour of duty.

2.4 Repayment

A member who, having entered into a written agreement to extend a tour of duty described in subparagraph 2.1.4, and who receives a bonus payment but does not complete the obligated service in accordance with the agreement will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

2.5 Restriction

A member, who elects to receive one of the benefits specified in section 3.0 as part of the extension of a tour of duty, is not entitled to the special pay or bonus authorized in this section for the period of extension of duty for which the benefit is provided.

3.0 SPECIAL REST AND RECUPERATIVE (SR&R) ABSENCE

3.1 Eligibility

A member who meets the eligibility requirements defined in paragraph 2.1 may in lieu of receiving the special pay or bonus, elect to receive one of the entitlements described in paragraph 3.2.

3.2 Entitlement

A member may elect, in lieu of a special pay or bonus, either:

3.2.1. A period of SR&R absence for not more than 30 days; or

3.2.2. A period of SR&R absence for not more than 15 days for members whose qualifying tour of duty is 12 months or less, and round-trip transportation at Government expense from the location of the extended tour of duty to the nearest port in the 48 contiguous States and return, or to an alternative destination and return at a cost not to exceed the cost of round-trip transportation from the location of the extended tour of duty to such nearest port; or 3.2.3. A period of SR&R absence for not more than 20 days for members whose qualifying tour of duty is longer than 12 months, and round-trip transportation at Government expense from the location of the extended tour of duty to the nearest port in the 48 contiguous States and return, or to an alternative destination and return at a cost not to exceed the cost of round-trip transportation from the location of the extended tour of duty to such nearest port.

NOTE: The provisions of SR&R are not effective unless the Secretary concerned determines that the application will not adversely affect combat or unit readiness.

3.3 Travel Time

Travel time from the CONUS port, or alternate destination, to the SR&R absence point, and return is included in the 15-day or 20-day SR&R absence. This period will begin the day after the member arrives at the aerial port of debarkation and continue until the day before the member returns to the designated port. The non-chargeable leave period will continue until the day before the date of return to the designated port. Travel time to or from the CONUS port, or alternate destination, and overseas location is non-chargeable and not included in the 15-day or 20-day SR&R.

3.4 Limitations

The 15-day or 20-day SR&R absence and round-trip transportation option may not be combined with any temporary duty or transportation entitlement that would result in the cost of the round-trip portion of the option exceeding the round-trip cost from the member’s tour of duty station to the nearest CONUS port.

CHAPTER 15

SPECIAL PAY – ASSIGNMENT INCENTIVE PAY (AIP)

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter prescribes guidance applicable to the payment of AIP.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from and prepared in accordance with (IAW) the United States Code (U.S.C.), including Titles 10 and 37. Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 DoD AIP CRITERIA

2.1 Entitlement

The DoD may give AIP to eligible Active/Regular and Reserve Component (RC) Service members IAW 37 U.S.C. § 352, the DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1340.26, “Assignment and Special Duty Pays,” and regulations published by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. The ability of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned to enter into a new agreement with a Service member for AIP is subject to the extension of such authority under 37 U.S.C. § 352.

2.2 Eligibility

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay AIP to a member of an Active/Regular or RC who is entitled to basic pay under 37 U.S.C. § 204, or compensation under 37 U.S.C. § 206. The Secretaries of Military Departments will establish eligibility criteria based on Service-specific needs. Personnel shortages and the ability of a unit to meet mission requirements should be given primary consideration.

2.3 Written Agreement

2.3.1 Discretionary for Monthly Payments. The Secretary concerned may require a Service member to enter into a written agreement with the Secretary in order to qualify for the AIP payment on a monthly basis. If used, the agreement will specify the period for which the AIP will be paid and the monthly rate of the AIP.

2.3.2 Non-discretionary for Installment or Lump Sum Payments. The Secretary concerned will require a Service member to enter into a written agreement with the Secretary in order to qualify for installment or lump sum payments of AIP. The written agreement will specify the period for which the Service member will receive AIP, the amount of each periodic installment or lump sum, and the repayment policy cited in 37 USC § 373.

2.4 Payment

AIP, paid under this section, is in addition to any other pay or allowance to which the Service member is entitled, except where otherwise stated in DoDI 1340.26 and 37 U.S.C.

*2.5 Limitations and Restrictions

The following limitations and restrictions, which affect the entitlement to AIP, apply to all programs listed in this chapter.

2.5.1. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may increase, decrease, or abolish AIP for any assignment, location, or unit at any time and will establish restrictions and limitations to the pay through Military Service regulations. Payment of AIP in combination with other special duty pays may not exceed an average monthly amount of $3,500 unless authorized by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (ASD) for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (M&RA).

2.5.2. A member is not entitled to AIP during a period of terminal leave which ends upon discharge or release of the member from Active-Duty (AD).

2.5.3. Service members are not authorized to receive more than one AIP simultaneously for the same period of service. If a Service member is eligible for more than one AIP, the higher dollar value AIP will be paid.

2.5.4. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned will establish payment levels to be either monthly payments, installments, or a lump sum amount not to exceed a maximum monthly average of $1,500.

2.6 Special Provisions

The service of a member in a designated assignment will be considered continuous in any period of temporary absence during which the member is performing temporary duty pursuant to orders or on authorized leave other than transition leave.

3.0 ARMY AIP PROGRAMS

The Headquarters, Department of the Army (HQDA), Office of the Deputy Chief of Staff (ODCS) G-1 authorizes AIP programs. All HQDA authorized programs have a termination date. No new agreements may be entered into without DA reauthorization of the programs. The programs listed in paragraphs 3.1 through 3.15 are DA programs and fall under these guidelines. See applicable memorandums contained in the references for restrictions specific to a particular Army AIP described in paragraphs 3.1 through 3.15.
3.1 14th Missile Defense Battery (MDB)

3.1.1 Eligibility. Soldiers must:

3.1.1.1 Be permanently assigned to the 14th MDB at Kyogamisaki, Japan; and

3.1.1.2 Sign a written agreement acknowledging the limitations and restrictions as a condition to receive AIP. The agreement will specify the period for which the AIP will be paid and the amount of the monthly rate.

3.1.2 Payment

The maximum monthly rate payable to Soldiers serving in an approved assignment will not exceed $1,500.

3.1.3 Termination

3.1.3.1 The 14th MDB will terminate once the Life Support Area is established, or Soldiers are being subsisted (Government meals are provided) by or on behalf of the Government.

3.1.3.2 Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.2 Army Cyber (ARCYBER) Command

3.2.1 Eligibility. Enlisted Soldiers, Warrant Officers, and Commissioned Officers must be fully trained and certified in a U.S. Cyber Command or ARCYBER work role. Soldiers must:

3.2.1.1 Have completed the appropriate training and have been awarded the appropriate certifications located inside the Cyber Mission Force (CMF) or those directly executing strategic to tactical level cyber missions required outside of the CMF; and

3.2.1.2 Enter into a written agreement to serve 1 to 3 years in an ARCYBER approved billet. The written agreement will specify the period for which the AIP will be paid and the amount of the monthly rate of the AIP.

3.2.2 Payment. The maximum monthly rate payable to any Soldier serving as a:

3.2.2.1 Basic under the ARCYBER AIP program will start at $200 and will not exceed $1,000;

3.2.2.2 Senior under the ARCYBER AIP program will start at $300 and will not exceed $1,250; and
3.2.2.3. Master under the ARCYBER AIP program will start at $500 and will not exceed $1,500.

3.2.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.3 Computer Network Operations (CNO)

3.3.1. Eligibility

3.3.1.1. Enlisted Soldiers, Warrant Officers, and Commissioned Officers must be fully certified in an U.S. Army Intelligence and Security Command (INSCOM) work role, assigned to a designated billet in support of the National Security Agency.

3.3.1.2. Soldiers must enter into a written agreement in order to qualify for CNO AIP. The written agreement will specify the period for which the AIP will be paid and the amount of the monthly rate of the CNO AIP.

3.3.1.3. Soldiers must not be permanently non-deployable per DoDI 1332.45. For this memorandum, “deployment” is defined as the movement of personnel into and out of an operational area or in support of operations. Deployment encompasses all activities from origin or home station through destination, specifically including inter-theater, and intra-theater movement legs, staging and holding areas.

3.3.2. Payment. The monthly rate payable to any Soldier serving as a:

3.3.2.1. Basic under this CNO AIP program will start at $200.00 and will not exceed $1,000.00;

3.3.2.2. Senior under this CNO AIP program will start at $300.00 and will not exceed $1,250.00; and

3.3.2.3. Master under this CNO AIP program will start at $500.00 and will not exceed $1,500.00.

3.3.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.
3.4   Department of the Army Select Recruiter (DASR) Tour Extension Program

   3.4.1.   Eligibility.  All Soldiers must meet all the eligibility requirements below.

      3.4.1.1.  Must be permanently assigned to the U.S. Army Training and Doctrine Command as an on-production DASR assigned to the U.S. Army Recruiting Command (USAREC).

      3.4.1.2.  Must be serving on an initial 36-month tour as a DASR that is scheduled to end between October 26, 2023, and December 31, 2024.

      3.4.1.3.  Must be recommended for and selected for extension by their battalion and brigade chain-of-command.

      3.4.1.4.  Must be a high performing recruiting non-commissioned officer producing 11 or more contracts in Fiscal Year 23 and recommended for and selected for extension by their battalion and brigade chain-of-command.

      3.4.1.5.  Soldiers must be in good standing and not flagged for adverse action under AR 600-8-2, “Suspension of Favorable Personnel Actions (Flag),” and must meet Army standards for retention (to include Army fitness and body composition program minimum standards) at the time of payment.  Soldiers who are later cleared of any misconduct will be paid all AIP payments to which they might otherwise be entitled but were not paid while flagged for adverse action.

      3.4.1.6.  Must not have requested or been approved to convert to Military Occupational Specialty (MOS) 79R.  Requests to convert to MOS 79R may be submitted upon completion of the extension period unless the Soldier voluntarily requests to terminate AIP entitlement under this program.

   3.4.2.   Payment

      3.4.2.1.  A Soldier who is extended under this program will be paid $1,500.00 per month.

      3.4.2.2.  AIP is only payable for the period of the extension.  Extension and payments will begin on the first day of the month following the Soldier’s original tour ending date.

      3.4.2.3.  Soldiers are not authorized to receive more than 12 monthly payments under this AIP program or previous DASR Tour Extension programs.

      3.4.2.4.  Payments will terminate on the day prior to an authorized leave period that ends with the discharge or release of the Soldier from active-duty, a permanent change of station outside of USAREC.

      3.4.2.5.  Payments will be suspended when the Recruiter fails to contract at least one Soldier during the recruiting month.  Payments will resume after the Recruiter contracts an applicant into the Army. Written agreements will be terminated when the Recruiter fails to write a contract for 3 months during the extension period.

3.4.2.6. In the event of misconduct, payments will terminate on the day the Soldier loses qualification to perform the duty to which they are receiving AIP.

3.4.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.5 Detachment Alpha (DET-A) at the Joint Defense Facility Pine Gap (JDFPG), Alice Springs, Australia

3.5.1. Eligibility. Soldiers permanently assigned to DET-A JDFPG who are authorized AIP must be:

3.5.1.1. Serving on AD;
3.5.1.2. In the grade of O-6 or below;
3.5.1.3. Permanently assigned to DET-A, JDFPG;
3.5.1.4. Within the first 90 days of arrival to the duty station; and 3.5.1.5. Must agree to serve the prescribed tour length (more than 24 months).

3.5.2. Payment. The monthly rates payable to any Soldier serving under this AIP program will be as follows:

3.5.2.1. Soldiers with MOS 42A and current Top-Secret clearance: $200 monthly;
3.5.2.2. Soldiers with MOS 35N/35S and no Additional Skill Identifier (ASI): $200 monthly;
3.5.2.3. Soldiers with MOS 35S with ASI Z8: $250 monthly;
3.5.2.4. Soldiers with MOS 35S with ASI M7: $275 monthly;
3.5.2.5. Soldiers with MOS 35S with ASI K2: $300 monthly;
3.5.2.6. Soldiers with MOS 352S: $200 monthly; and 3.5.2.7. Soldiers with MOS 35G: $200 monthly.
3.5.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.6 Drill Sergeant (DS)

3.6.1. Eligibility. All Soldiers must be:

3.6.1.1. Permanently assigned to the Training and Doctrine Command as DS in a Basic Combat Training, One Station Unit Training; Advance Individual Training, or Drill Sergeant Academy.

3.6.1.2. In their current position for a minimum of 6 months, but not more than 12 months under this program; and

3.6.1.3. Be recommended for and selected for extension by their battalion and brigade chain-of-command.

3.6.2. Payment

3.6.2.1. The maximum monthly rate payable to a DS will be $500.

3.6.2.2. AIP is only payable for the period of the extension. Payments begin on the first day of the month following the Soldier’s original tour ending date.

3.6.2.3. Soldiers are not authorized to receive more than 12 monthly payments under this program.

3.6.2.4. AIP payments will terminate on the day prior to an authorized leave period that ends with the Soldier’s discharge or release from AD.

3.6.2.5. In the event of misconduct, AIP payments will terminate on the day the Soldier loses qualification to perform the duty to which he or she is receiving AIP.

3.6.3. Repayment

Soldiers, with the exception of sole survivor discharges and those who die or are retired or separated with a combat-related disability, will repay an amount equal to the unearned portion of AIP if the Soldier fails to complete the extension period. Soldiers who fail to complete the extension period will not receive any unpaid AIP amounts.
3.6.4. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.7 Joint Special Operations Command (JSOC) Special Mission Unit (SMU)

3.7.1. Eligibility

3.7.1.1. Soldiers, including RC, must be permanently assigned to a JSOC SMU Operator billet.

3.7.1.2. Soldiers must be in good standing and not be under UCMJ action at the time of approval and must remain in good standing throughout the AIP tour.

3.7.1.3. Soldiers must have less than 35 years of active federal service in order to qualify for continued payment.

3.7.1.4. Soldiers must sign a written agreement to serve 1 to 3 years in a JSOC SMU Operator assignment. The written agreement will specify the period for which the AIP will be paid and the amount of AIP payment.

3.7.2. Payment

3.7.2.1. SMU Operators with less than 25 years of active federal service may apply for the following:

3.7.2.1.1. SMU Operators with less than 3 years of service in a SMU Operator billet may be paid $750 per month; or 3.7.2.1.2. SMU Operators with 3 years or more of service in a SMU Operator billet may be paid $1,000 per month.

3.7.2.2. SMU Operators with 25 years or more of active federal service may apply for the following:

3.7.2.2.1. SMU Operators with 3 years or more of service in a SMU Operator billet may be paid $500 per month. Agreements will terminate at 28 years of active federal service; or 3.7.2.2.2. SMU Operators serving in a specified Key Leadership/Development position may be paid $1,000 per month. Agreements will terminate at 35 years of active federal service.

3.7.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.8 Korea AIP (KAIP)

3.8.1. Eligibility. Soldiers:

3.8.1.1. Must be permanently assigned to Republic of Korea in the grades of O-3 and below.

3.8.1.2. Must not be serving in command select list positions.

3.8.1.3. Must be in good standing and not be under UCMJ action at the time of approval and must remain in good standing throughout the AIP tour.

3.8.1.4. Assigned to Korea for more than 40 months at the end of their current tour are not eligible to apply.

3.8.1.5. Serving on their initial assignment after graduating from initial entry training or newly appointed officers are not authorized to apply. Soldiers must be in a documented and authorized position by MOS and skill level and must remain in that position for the duration of the extension in order to qualify for KAIP.

3.8.2. Payment

3.8.2.1. The maximum monthly rate payable is $500. Payment will be made in a lump sum, payable upon approval of the AIP agreement extending the Soldier’s assignment.

3.8.2.2. Soldiers are limited to a maximum 24-month extension under this AIP program. Payment for an extension beyond 24 months or a subsequent extension when combined with a previous extension(s) that exceeds 24 months is not authorized.

3.8.2.3. The commander determines the payment rate based on the needs of the Army and may be different for Soldiers serving in the same location but will not exceed the monthly rate of $500.

3.8.2.4. Lump sum payments will not exceed the maximum monthly rate authorized by the Commander at the time the Soldier enters into the written agreement multiplied by the number of continuous months in the period for which the AIP is authorized. Lump sum payments will be paid on the first date of the extension of the Soldier’s assignment.
3.8.3. Written Agreements

3.8.3.1. Approval authorities will require a Soldier to enter into a written agreement in order to qualify for AIP. The agreement will specify the period for which the AIP will be paid and the amount of the lump sum AIP payment.

3.8.3.2. New AIP written agreements must adhere to this policy. Any approved AIP agreement in existence prior to October 2, 2023, will remain valid under its terms until the effective termination date of the agreement.

3.8.4. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.9 National Training Center (NTC)

3.9.1. Eligibility

Soldiers permanently assigned to the NTC and Fort Irwin may request AIP provided they meet the following eligibility criteria.

3.9.1.1. Must be serving on active-duty.

3.9.1.2. Must be in the grade of O-6 or below.

3.9.1.3. Must be permanently assigned to the NTC and Fort Irwin as their first choice in the Assignment Interactive Module (AIM) and Assignment Satisfaction Key - Enlisted Module (ASK-EM) marketplaces to include those under U.S. Army Forces Command, Medical Department Activity, Dental Activity, and Army Materiel Command from a previous duty station other than Fort Irwin.

3.9.1.4. Must be within the first 90 days of arrival to the duty station.

3.9.1.5. Must be in good standing and not under the UCMJ process (to include Article 15 or courts-martial proceedings), investigations, and must meet Army standards for retention (to include Army Combat Fitness Test and Army Body Composition Program) at the time of approval and must remain in good standing throughout the AIP tour; and

3.9.1.6. Must not be permanently non-deployable per DoDI 1332.45. “Deployment” is defined as the movement of personnel into and out of an operational area or in support of operations. Deployment encompasses all activities from origin or home station through destination, specifically including inter-theater, and intra-theater movement legs, staging and holding areas.
3.9.2. Payment

Payment will be in the lump sum amount of $4,800, to be paid upon in-processing at Fort Irwin for any Officer or Non-Commissioned Officer that preferences NTC and Fort Irwin as their first choice of duty assignment in the AIM or ASK-EM marketplace.

3.9.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.10 Nominative Assignment Program AIP

3.10.1. Eligibility

Soldiers must be approved for Commander, INSCOM designated military intelligence nominative assignment workforce (enlisted personnel, warrant officers, and commissioned officers) performing strategic-level duties in service of Army, DoD, or Intelligence Community efforts.

3.10.2. Payment

The following levels for this AIP program are based upon years of assigned in the nominative workforce.

- 3.10.2.1. Level 1 (3 years or less) - $900 per month.
- 3.10.2.2. Level 2 (3 years or more but less than 6 years) - $1,200 per month.
- 3.10.2.3. Level 3 (6 years or more) - $1,500 per month.

3.10.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.11 Operational Deployments (OD)

3.11.1. Eligibility

AD Soldiers who physically deploy and perform duties as part of a rotational force away from their permanent duty stations to U.S. Army Europe (USAREUR) and U.S. Army Pacific (USARPAC) areas of responsibility may be entitled to AIP-OD, subject to the criteria outlined in subparagraphs 3.11.1 through 3.11.7.
3.11.2. Payment

3.11.2.1. AIP-OD will be paid in monthly installments (lump sums are not authorized).

3.11.2.2. AIP-OD will be prorated for Soldiers who do not satisfy the eligibility requirement for an entire month to reflect the duration of the Soldier’s actual qualifying service during the month. For Soldiers eligible to receive AIP-OD, proration will not apply to the 31st day of a month with more than 30 days.

3.11.2.3. Atlantic Resolve, Joint Multi-National Training Group Ukraine, and other qualifying deployments for a Soldier who is serving on Operation Force Rotations (OFR) in a field duty status are authorized $195 per month. Soldiers serving on OFR in a regular temporary duty status are not authorized AIP-OD.

3.11.2.4. Korea Rotational Force Soldiers serving on OFR in a field duty status are authorized $195 per month.

3.11.2.5. Soldiers serving on OFR in a regular temporary duty status are not authorized AIP-OD.

3.11.3. Absences

3.11.3.1. AIP-OD for USAREUR and USARPAC will continue when a Soldier is on authorized leave, other than leave authorized for a period ending upon the Soldier’s discharge or release from AD.

3.11.3.2. When a Soldier entitled to AIP-OD is absent without leave (AWOL), AIP-OD payments will stop on the first day of AWOL through the day before the date the Soldier is restored to full duty, provided the Soldier remained eligible for AIP-OD.

3.11.4. Hospitalization

3.11.4.1. A Soldier who is deployed and requires hospitalization away from the permanent duty station is still considered operationally deployed and remains entitled to AIP-OD.

3.11.4.2. A Soldier who is deployed and requires hospitalization at the permanent duty station is not eligible for payment of AIP-OD for the period of hospitalization, unless otherwise qualified to receive the pay under 37 U.S.C. § 372.

3.11.4.3. If a line of duty investigation determines that the Soldier’s injuries are due to his or her own misconduct, AIP-OD payments will stop on the first day of hospitalization through the day before the date the Soldier is restored to full duty, provided the Soldier remained otherwise eligible for AIP-OD.

15-16
3.11.4.4. If the member is wounded/injured/ill from a combat zone, combat operation, hostile file pay area, or as a result of hostile fire, reference Chapter 13.

3.11.5. Confinement

3.11.5.1. When a Soldier entitled to AIP is confined awaiting trial by court-martial, AIP-OD payments stop on the first day of confinement through the day before the date the Soldier is restored to full duty, provided the Soldier remained eligible for AIP-OD.

3.11.5.2. When a Soldier confined awaiting trial by court-martial is acquitted, or has charges dismissed, the Soldier will be entitled to AIP-OD retroactive to the first day of confinement, provided the Soldier remained eligible for AIP-OD.

3.11.6. Captured or Missing Status

A Soldier entitled to AIP-OD immediately before entering a status of missing, missing-in-action, interned in a foreign country, or captured by a hostile force will continue to be credited with AIP-OD for each month while in such a status.

3.11.7. Termination

The AIP-OD program is subject to congressional annual reauthorization of 37 USC § 352; therefore, no orders will be issued to start an AIP-OD payment after the termination date on the Duration of Authority table.

*3.12 Recruiting Duty Volunteer Program AIP

3.12.1. Eligibility. All Soldiers must meet all the eligibility requirements below.

3.12.1.1. Must volunteer for recruiting duty by completing a volunteer recruiter packet and submitting though Recruit the Recruiter program.

3.12.1.2. Must be fully eligible for and selected for recruiting duty.

3.12.1.3. Must ship to the Army Recruiter Course (ARC) before February 2024 and successfully graduate from the ARC.

3.12.1.4. Must successfully complete the Advanced Training Program (ATP) IAW USAREC Regulation 350-1, Training and Leader Development, within the first 120 days of assignment to a recruiting station.

3.12.1.5. Must receive a satisfactory ATP quality score from the New Recruiter NCO Board IAW USAREC Regulation 350-1, Training and Leader Development.
3.12.1.6. Soldiers must be in good standing and not flagged for adverse action under AR 600-8-2 and must meet Army standards for retention (to include Army fitness and body composition program minimum standards) at the time of payment.

3.12.2. Payment

A Soldier who meets all the eligibility criteria listed in subparagraph 3.12.1 will be paid a one-time lump sum payment of $5,000.

3.12.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.13 Remote and Austere Conditions AIP (RAC-AIP)

3.13.1. Eligibility. All AD and RC Soldiers who are assigned to an approved RAC-AIP assignment may request RAC-AIP provided the Soldier meets the following eligibility criteria:

3.13.1.1. Must be in the grade of O-6 or below;

3.13.1.2. Must be permanently assigned;

3.13.1.3. Must be within the first 90 days of arrival to the assignment;

3.13.1.4. Must agree to serve the prescribed tour;

3.13.1.5. Must have not previously received RAC-AIP during the current tour or a previous tour within the last six years (Soldiers who extend their tour or agree to serve a consecutive overseas tour in a subsequent RAC-AIP assignment are not eligible);

3.13.1.6. Must enter into a written agreement in order to qualify for RAC-AIP. The written agreement will include an acknowledgement of the additional personal costs associated with the conditions of the remote and austere assignment, the specific terms and conditions for maintaining eligibility for RAC-AIP, the period for which the RAC-AIP will be paid, and the amount of the RAC-AIP.

NOTE: Members may file an exception to policy (ETP) for any of the eligibility requirements stated in subparagraph 3.13.1. The approval authority for the ETP is the Deputy Chief of Staff, G-1 and/or his/her designee.

* 3.13.2. Payment

3.13.2.1. RAC-AIP will be paid in a lump sum payment; monthly payments are not authorized. RAC-AIP is taxable.
3.13.2.2. The maximum lump sum payment will vary based on each assignment. The Army G-1 will approve RAC-AIP payment levels based on the additional costs one is reasonably expected to incur to prepare themselves, their family members, and their personal property for a remote and austere assignment outside the 48 contiguous United States.

3.13.2.3. RAC-AIP is authorized in addition to any other AIP program for which the Soldier may be eligible; however, in no case may a Soldier’s AIP payments exceed the $18,000 annual AIP payment limit as set forth by the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness in DoDI 1340.26.

3.13.2.4. RAC-AIP will not be paid retroactively. The approval authority will base the RAC-AIP payment rate on the Soldier’s eligibility at the time of approval.

3.13.2.5. Amounts are:

3.13.2.5.1. Level 1:
   3.13.2.5.1.1. Without command sponsorship dependents, $500;
   3.13.2.5.1.2. With command sponsorship dependents, $1,000;

3.13.2.5.2. Level 2:
   3.13.2.5.2.1. Without command sponsorship dependents, $1,000;
   3.13.2.5.2.2. With command sponsorship dependents, $2,000;

3.13.2.5.3. Level 3:
   3.13.2.5.3.1. Without command sponsorship dependents, $1,500;
   3.13.2.5.3.2. With command sponsorship dependents, $3,000;

3.13.2.5.4. Level 4:
   3.13.2.5.4.1. Without command sponsorship dependents, $2,000;
   3.13.2.5.4.2. With command sponsorship dependents, $4,000;

3.13.2.5.5. Level 5:
   3.13.2.5.5.1. Without command sponsorship dependents, $2,500;
   3.13.2.5.5.2. With command sponsorship dependents, $5,000;
3.13.3. Repayment

3.13.3.1. If the Soldier’s commander determines that there is adverse information (as defined in Army Regulation 15-6) regarding the Soldier, the Soldier must repay their AIP for the prorated period that they were not in good standing.

3.13.3.2. Soldiers, with the exception of sole survivor discharges and those who die or are retired or separated with a combat-related disability, will repay an amount equal to the unearned portion of RAC-AIP, if the Soldier fails to complete the extension period.

3.13.4. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

*3.14 Security Force Assistance Brigade (SFAB)

3.14.1. Eligibility

3.14.1.1. Enlisted Soldiers who are fully trained and certified, are authorized AIP for assignments at their permanent duty stations.

3.14.1.2. Soldiers must enter into a written agreement to serve a minimum of 24 months in an SFAB approved billet. The written agreement will specify the period for which the AIP will be paid and the amount of AIP payment.

3.14.2. Payment

The maximum payment under this program is $5,000 for a minimum 24-month assignment to an SFAB.

3.14.3. Repayment

Soldiers, with the exception of sole survivor discharges and those who die or are retired or separated with a combat-related disability, will repay an amount equal to the unearned portion of AIP if the Soldier fails to complete the AIP period. Soldiers who fail to complete the AIP period will not receive any unpaid AIP amounts.

3.14.4. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.
3.15 U.S. Army Special Operations Command (USASOC)

On September 18, 2020, the DA ODCS G-1 reauthorized USASOC AIP.

3.15.1 Eligibility

3.15.1.1 Soldiers must be permanently assigned to an authorized Major Force Protection-11 billet in the grade of E-5 and above.

3.15.1.2 Soldiers must be in good standing and not be under UCMJ action at the time of approval and must remain in good standing throughout the AIP tour.

3.15.1.3 Soldier must have less than 35 years of active federal service in order to qualify for continued payment.

* 3.15.2 Payment

3.15.2.1 The maximum monthly rate payable to a Soldier assigned to USASOC under this AIP program is $1,250.00 and the maximum monthly rate payable to a Soldier assigned to a Special Mission Unit (SMU) is $1,500. Payment under this program may be made in lump sum or monthly payments.

3.15.2.2 Payment rates are determined by the commander based on the needs of the Army and may be different for Soldiers in similar positions at the same location but will not exceed the amount authorized in 3.15.2.1.

3.15.2.3 Lump sum payments will not exceed the maximum monthly rate authorized by the commander at the time the Soldier enters into the written agreement, multiplied by the number of continuous months in the period for which the AIP will be paid, pursuant to the agreement. Lump sum payment will be paid on the approval of the AIP agreement.

3.15.3 Written Agreements

Approval authorities will require a Soldier to enter into a written agreement in order to qualify for AIP. The agreement will specify the period for which the AIP will be paid and the amount of the lump sum AIP payment.

3.15.4 Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

5.7 Cavalier Space Force Station, ND

5.7.1. Eligibility

Regular Air Force Officers and enlisted Airmen, and Guardians assigned to the 10th Space Warning Squadron at Cavalier Space Force Station, ND are eligible to receive AIP.
5.7.2. Payment

The monthly rate is $700.

5.7.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL.

5.8 Extended Training Service Specialists (ETSS)

5.8.1. IAW DoDI 1340.26, and subject to annual congressional authorization and the availability of appropriated funds, Airmen assigned to identified hard-to-fill billets in the ETSS program support to Foreign Military Sales activities are eligible to receive AIP.

5.8.2. Airmen filling these billets will receive AIP at a rate of $1,500 per month, subject to the AIP rate ceiling established by the Deputy ASD for Military Personnel Policy.

5.8.3. Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL.

5.9 Intercontinental Ballistic Missile Field Operations Program

The SAF established an AIP program for officers assigned to Minot Air Force Base (AFB), Malmstrom AFB, or F.E. Warren AFB.

5.9.1. Eligibility Requirements

5.9.1.1. Missile and Nuclear Operations (13N), Missile Maintenance (21M), and Security Forces (31P) officers who are qualified to perform nuclear position duties are eligible.

5.9.1.2. Officers who are assigned to qualifying positions at Minot AFB, Malmstrom AFB, or F.E. Warren AFB and regularly perform duties in missile fields at these locations are eligible.

5.9.1.3. Officers whose “regular performance of duties” requires dispatch on orders to a missile field for a minimum number of hours within a 90-day calendar quarter (example: 210 hours out of a 90-day period) are eligible. This pay is not intended for those who go to the missile field sporadically.

5.9.2. Payment

Officers meeting the requirements will receive $300 per month. The unit commander will sign the AIP roster certifying the officer has met all the requirements.
5.9.3. Termination

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL.

5.10 Kingsley Field, Klamath Falls, Oregon

5.10.1. Regular Air Force and Active Guard Reserve (AGR) Airmen permanently assigned to the 173rd Fighter Wing, Kingsley Field, Klamath Falls, Oregon will be eligible to receive AIP under 37 U.S.C. § 352. Air Force and AGR Airmen assigned to the 173rd Fighter Wing in a student status are not eligible for AIP.

5.10.2. Members who meet the eligibility provisions outlined in 5.8.1., will be authorized $400 AIP per month.

5.10.3. AIP must be terminated immediately if the member is AWOL, placed in confinement, or removed from field duties by the commander for cause. For officers, the termination is effective the day prior to promotion to the grade of Major. The effective date of termination is the last day the Airman met the requirements before removal.

5.10.4. AIP must terminate upon Permanent Change of Station to a location other than the 173rd Fighter Wing, Kingsley Field, Klamath Falls, Oregon or upon starting permissive leave in conjunction with terminal leave status.

5.10.5. Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL.

5.11 KAIP

5.11.1. All officers and enlisted personnel are eligible to receive KAIP under 37 USC § 352. Members will continue to receive AIP payments until the end-date specified in their agreements or their departure from Korea.

5.11.1.1. Airmen who are:

5.11.1.1.1. Selected for a 12-month unaccompanied tour in the Republic of Korea, and who execute a written agreement to serve either an additional 12- or 24-month unaccompanied tour, will receive $300.00 per month regardless of rank or Air Force Specialty Code (AFSC); or 5.11.1.1.2. Offered and have accepted a Command Sponsorship Program billet in the Republic of Korea and execute a written agreement to serve the 36-month accompanied tour, will receive $300.00 per month regardless of rank or AFSC.

5.11.1.2. The SAF reauthorized the continuance of KAIP through the termination date on the Duration of Authority table.
5.11.1.3. The AIP will be stopped upon termination of the contract or curtailment of the agreed tour of duty for any reason, either voluntary or involuntary. The entitlement to AIP will be terminated if the member is AWOL or enters confinement.

5.11.1.4. Airmen who elect AIP for Korea will not be eligible for Home Basing, Follow-on Assignment, or concurrent Overseas Tour Extension Incentive Program or In-Place Consecutive Overseas Tour.

5.11.2. The Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (USD(P&R)) memorandum establishes three categories of assignments applicable for AIP payments. All categories require a written agreement by the member. The categories are:

5.11.2.1. Members who volunteer for a 36-month initial assignment to Pyeongtaek, Osan, Daegu, Chinhae, or Seoul may be paid $300 per month in AIP, to be paid on a monthly basis, upon commencement of the assignment.

5.11.2.2. Members who volunteer for a 24-month initial assignment to Uijongbu or Dongducheon may be paid $300 per month in AIP, to be paid on a monthly basis, upon commencement of the assignment.

5.11.2.3. Members who accept an initial tour to Korea in any location and later elect to extend their assignment length for 12 or 24 months may be paid $300 per month, to be paid on a monthly basis, upon commencement of the tour with an extension agreement, or entering the extension, whichever is earlier.

5.11.3. Restrictions. At any time during the authorized period, the SAF (M&RA) may terminate the KAIP program if it is no longer required.

5.11.4. Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL.

*5.12 Turkey

5.12.1. Active-duty Airmen and Guardians assigned to Turkey serving an unaccompanied tour of 12-months who agree to serve a total of 24-months in Turkey, may elect, and will receive Turkey (TAIP) at a rate of $1,000.00 per month.

5.12.2. Members who meet the eligibility provisions outlined in 5.11.1 will receive TAIP at a rate of $1,000 per month effective on:

5.12.2.1. The effective date of payment for Airmen and Guardians electing TAIP at their losing base will equal:

5.12.2.1.1. Their Date Arrived Station; or

5.12.2.1.2. December 29, 2022, whichever is later.
5.12.2.2. The effective date of payment for Airmen and Guardians electing TAIP after arriving in Turkey will equal the date:

5.12.2.2.1. They sign the TAIP agreement; or

5.12.2.2.2. December 29, 2022, whichever is later.

5.12.3. Unless reauthorized by Congress, AIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless the AIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

6.0 MARINE CORPS AIP PROGRAMS

Consult with Headquarters Marine Corps Manpower and Reserve Affairs for a list of USMC AIPs.

*7.0 AIP IN LIEU OF POST-DEPLOYMENT MOBILIZATION RESPITE ABSENCE (PDMRA) PROGRAM

The Secretary of Defense directed on January 19, 2007, that a program be established to recognize members who mobilize or deploy more frequently than established rotation policy goals. The PDMRA program was established to allow a member to earn days of administrative absence, not chargeable to the member’s accrued leave account, dependent on the length of time the member deployed beyond the rotation policy goals. Effective May 24, 2007, the program also allowed members to receive monetary compensation in lieu of administrative absence days in certain situations. The authority to pay monetary compensation terminated October 1, 2014. Paragraphs 7.1 – 7.6 are included for historical information only.

7.1 USD (P&R) Memorandum, May 24, 2007

The USD (P&R) authorized the Secretary concerned to offer the option of payment of AIP in lieu of taking administrative absence under the PDMRA program in certain situations. RC members (as described in subparagraph 7.1.1) may elect to receive AIP for PDMRA days earned instead of taking the administrative absence. The programs are not effective until the Services publish their implementation instructions.

7.1.1. Eligible Members. RC members who are also federal, state, or local government civilian employees and precluded by law from being paid by two entities for simultaneously serving in an RC status and in their civilian government jobs may elect the payment of AIP instead of taking administrative absence.

7.1.2. Requirement. The member must elect to receive the AIP instead of the PDMRA administrative absence days before the PDMRA days are earned.
7.1.3. Payment. Members electing to be paid the AIP will receive $200 for each PDMRA day earned. Members are not authorized to be paid for any PDMRA days earned before an election is made.

7.1.4. Restrictions

7.1.4.1. Payment of the AIP will not exceed the monthly limit of $1,500.

7.1.4.2. The PDMRA payment benefit is not eligible for combat zone tax exclusion (CZTE).

7.1.5. Service Instructions. Effective dates for the implementation are:

7.1.5.1. Marine Corps: July 27, 2007;

7.1.5.2. Navy: August 2, 2007;

7.1.5.3. Army: August 7, 2007; and

7.2 Authority

Public Law 111-84, section 604, dated October 28, 2009, authorized the Secretary of Defense to prescribe regulations allowing the Secretary concerned to provide current and former members with payment for administrative absence days earned under the PDMRA program during the period January 19, 2007, through the date the Service implemented their respective PDMRA program. The USD (P&R) issued guidance on February 1, 2010, authorizing the Secretary concerned to issue implementing guidance. The authority expired on October 28, 2010.

7.2.1. Eligible Members

7.2.1.1. Former members who were discharged or released from the Armed Forces under honorable conditions are eligible.

7.2.1.2. Current Active Component (AC) and RC members, who qualified for PDMRA days during the period described in paragraph 7.2, are eligible.

7.2.2. Payment

7.2.2.1. Former members may receive $200 for each PDMRA day earned.

7.2.2.2. Current members, who earned PDMRA days during the period of January 19, 2007, through the date the member’s service implemented the PDMRA benefits as stated in subparagraph 7.1.5., may receive either one day of administrative absence for each PDMRA day earned or payment of $200 per day during that time frame as directed by the Secretary concerned.

7.2.2.3. Payment may be paid in a lump sum or installments, at the election of the Secretary concerned.

7.2.3. Restrictions

7.2.3.1. Payment of the AIP will not exceed the monthly limit of $1,500.

7.2.3.2. The PDMRA payment benefit is not eligible for CZTE.

7.3 Qualifying Deployments and Mobilizations on or After January 19, 2007

The following is the program guidance for qualifying deployment and mobilizations on or after January 19, 2007, but before October 1, 2011.

7.3.1. Frequency Thresholds

7.3.1.1. AC members deployed in excess of 12 months during the most recent 36-month period qualify for PDMRA.

7.3.1.2. RC members mobilized in excess of 12 months during the most recent 72-month period qualify for PDMRA.

7.3.2. Creditable Time

7.3.2.1. Creditable time for AC members includes the day of the member’s arrival at the deployed location through departure of BoG.

7.3.2.2. Creditable time for RC members includes mobilizations under 10 U.S.C. § 12301(a), 10 U.S.C. § 12302, or 10 U.S.C. § 12304. Mobilization for this purpose includes the day the member is mobilized through the date the mobilization is terminated.

7.3.2.3. The Secretary concerned may include other deployments or mobilizations in conjunction with an expanded program for the Service concerned.

7.3.2.4. For AC members, computation of creditable time commences 36 months prior to the member’s deployment and continues during the deployment.

7.3.2.5. For RC members, computation of creditable time commences 72 months prior to the member’s mobilization and continues during the deployment.

7.3.2.6. The Secretary concerned will establish policy on the crediting of time when court-martial or other adverse administrative actions have been initiated.
7.3.2.7. PDMRA days are authorized for each month or portion of a month that a member is deployed (AC) or mobilized (RC) beyond the frequency thresholds at subparagraph 7.3.1. The number of PDMRA days awarded to AC and RC members are:

7.3.2.7.1. One day of administrative absence per month in excess of 12 months during the qualifying period;

7.3.2.7.2. Two days of administrative absence per month in excess of 18 months during the qualifying period; or 7.3.2.7.3. Four days of administrative absence per month in excess of 24 months during the qualifying period.

7.3.2.8. The Secretary concerned may develop supplementary tables, including other non-monetary recognition programs, delivering comparable or greater benefits to members meeting the frequency thresholds at subparagraph 7.3.1.

7.3.2.9. RC members must be on AD during the days they take their earned PDMRA days.

7.3.3. Payment

7.3.3.1. Under current law, RC members who are also federal, state, or local government civilian employees are not permitted to receive their civilian pay on the same days they are serving on AD. Affected members may elect to receive AIP at $200 for each day of absence that otherwise would have been authorized, not to exceed $1,500 monthly, in lieu of being awarded administrative absence days.

7.3.3.2. There is no option to cash in administrative absence days already earned. The AIP election must be made by the affected RC member prior to the days being earned.

7.4 Qualifying Deployments and Mobilizations on or After October 1, 2011

The following is program guidance for qualifying deployments and mobilizations on or after October 1, 2011, including that portion of an ongoing deployment or mobilization that occurs on or after October 1, 2011.

7.4.1. Deployment and Mobilization Frequency Requirements and/or Thresholds

7.4.1.1. AC members, who on the first day of their current deployment, had deployed in excess of 12 months out of the previous 36 months, and who meet the other eligibility criteria contained in this section, qualify for PDMRA days.

7.4.1.2. RC members, who on the first day of their current qualifying mobilization, had been mobilized pursuant to 10 U.S.C. §§ 12301(a), 12302, or 12304 in excess of 12 months out of the previous 72 months, and who meet the other eligibility criteria contained in this section, qualify for PDMRA days. The 12-month qualifying period may include service pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 12301(d) when designated by the Secretary concerned.

* 7.4.1.3. The Secretary concerned may utilize the deployment-to-dwell ratio of 1:2 for AC members or mobilization-to-dwell ratio of 1:4 for RC members as the qualifying threshold for providing PDMRA benefits, as opposed to the requirements contained in subparagraphs 7.3.1 and 7.3.2.

7.4.2. Two Days PDMRA Accrual Conditions

7.4.2.1. AC Service members accrue 2 administrative absence days per month when the deployment threshold established in subparagraph 7.4.1 is exceeded, and the AC member is:

7.4.2.1.1. Deployed to Iraq or Afghanistan; or 7.4.2.1.2. Deployed to a CZTE area when the area has been designated as a 2-day per month PDMRA accrual location by the Secretary concerned.

7.4.2.2. RC Service members accrue 2 administrative absence days per month when the mobilization threshold established in subparagraph 7.4.1 is exceeded, and the RC member is serving:

7.4.2.2.1. In Iraq or Afghanistan pursuant to 10 U.S.C. §§ 12301(a), 12302, or 12304;
7.4.2.2.2. In Iraq or Afghanistan pursuant to 10 U.S.C § 12301(d) when designated by the Secretary concerned; or 7.4.2.2.3. In a CZTE area under the authority of 10 U.S.C. §§ 12301(a), 12301(d), 12302, or 12304 when the CZTE area has been designated as a 2-day per month PDMRA accrual location by the Secretary concerned.

7.4.3. One Day PDMRA Accrual Conditions

7.4.3.1. AC members accrue 1 administrative absence day per month when the deployment threshold established in subparagraph 7.4.1 is exceeded for deployments to a qualifying CZTE area when the CZTE area has been designated as a 1-day per month PDMRA accrual location by the Secretary concerned.

7.4.3.2. RC members accrue 1 administrative absence day per month when the mobilization threshold established in subparagraph 7.4.1 is exceeded, and the RC member is serving:

7.4.3.2.1. Outside of the United States pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 12301(a), 10 U.S.C. § 12302, or 10 U.S.C. § 12304;
7.4.3.2.2. Outside of the United States pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 12301(d) when designated by the Secretary concerned; or 7.4.3.2.3. In a CZTE area pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 12301(d) when the CZTE area has been designated as a 1-day per month PDMRA accrual location by the Secretary concerned.

7.4.4. PDMRA Accrual Conditions

7.4.4.1. Service members, at a minimum, must meet PDMRA eligibility criteria contained in paragraphs 7.3 and 7.4 for 30 consecutive days in order to begin accruing PDMRA days.

7.4.4.1.1. PDMRA accrual for AC members includes the day that the member arrives at the deployed location through the day that the member redeploys.

7.4.4.1.2. PDMRA accrual for RC members includes the day that the member is ordered to duty pursuant to 10 U.S.C. §§ 12301(a), 12302, or 12304 through the date that the member’s service is terminated under that same authority.

7.4.4.2. When designated as qualifying for PDMRA by the Secretary concerned pursuant to subparagraphs 7.4.2.2.2, 7.4.2.2.3, 7.4.3.2.1, or 7.4.3.2.2 include the day that the member enters service pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 12301(d) through the date that the member’s service is terminated under that same authority.

7.4.5. Extensions of Mobilization Orders to Utilize Accrued PDMRA Days. The Secretary concerned may extend the mobilization orders of RC Service members, within statutory limitations, to allow these members to utilize PDMRA days accrued during the mobilization. RC members do not accrue PDMRA days during the time that mobilization orders are extended for the purpose of utilizing PDMRA days.

7.4.6. Election of Payment for PDMRA Days

7.4.6.1. Under current law, RC members who are also federal, state, or local government civilian employees are not permitted to receive their civilian pay while on AD utilizing accrued PDMRA days.

7.4.6.2. To resolve this pay restriction, the Secretary concerned may offer such RC members a special PDMRA payment, which permits such members to elect to receive AIP in lieu of being awarded PDMRA administrative absence days.

7.4.6.3. If this option is offered, the AIP election must be made by the RC Service member prior to earning PDMRA days. The AIP would be valued at a rate of $200 for each day of administrative absence that otherwise would have been authorized under the PDMRA program, not to exceed the $1,500 monthly maximum limit of AIP. This option may not be used to cash in administrative absence days already earned.
7.4.7. Crediting PDMRA Time. The Secretary concerned will establish policy on crediting PDMRA time when court-martial or other adverse administrative actions have been initiated.

7.4.8. RC Use of Administrative Absence Days. RC members must be serving pursuant to 10 U.S.C. §§ 12301(a), 12301(d), 12302, or 12304 in order to utilize the administrative absence days accrued under the PDMRA program.

7.5 Public Law 112-120, Dated May 25, 2012

7.5.1. Public Law 112-120 clarified the entitlement to PDMRA days for RC members. The law allows for the Secretary of Defense to determine that provisions of entitlement outlined in DoDI 1327.06, “Leave and Liberty Policy and Procedures” will not apply to RC members whose qualified mobilization commenced before October 1, 2011, and continued on and after that date until the date the mobilization terminated.

7.5.2. The USD (P&R) issued implementation guidance for Public Law 112-120 on July 11, 2012. The guidance stipulated that:

7.5.2.1. Each Secretary concerned will publish implementing guidance and establish an application process to allow qualifying current and former RC members to apply for benefits authorized by Public Law 112-120.

7.5.2.2. Benefits are only authorized for RC members who deployed Outside the Continental United States and whose qualified mobilization commenced before October 1, 2011.

7.5.2.3. Each Secretary concerned will provide qualifying applicants with a PDMRA day, or a payment of $200 for each PDMRA day that the individual would have qualified for had the October 1, 2011, guidance changes not applied to the individual.

7.5.2.4. Each Service’s application for benefits will require qualifying RC members to elect to receive either a PDMRA day or payment of $200 for each qualifying PDMRA day. The application will caution members who are no longer mobilized in a status where they can use the PDMRA days and elect PDMRA days in lieu of payment that:

7.5.2.4.1. The PDMRA days will be banked and cannot be used until the next qualifying period of service; and

7.5.2.4.2. Banked PDMRA days will be lost if the member is separated from the military prior to using the PDMRA days. Banked PDMRA days cannot be subsequently sold.

7.5.2.5. Qualifying former RC members will only receive $200 per day for each PDMRA day.
7.5.2.6. Former RC members who were discharged or released from the Armed Forces under other than honorable conditions are not eligible for benefits.

7.5.2.7. Each Secretary concerned may elect to pay qualifying individuals a lump sum payment or installments.

7.5.2.8. The authority to provided benefits under Public Law 112-120 expires on October 1, 2014. This expiration does not affect PDMRA days earned prior to but used or paid for after October 1, 2014. The member must have elected the payment option before October 1, 2014.

7.6 Public Law 112-239, Dated January 2, 2013

7.6.1. Public Law 112-239 allows for the payment of $200 per day to individuals who were eligible to participate as a member of the Armed Forces in the PDMRA program, but who did not participate in 1 or more days in the program due to Government error. Those individuals must apply for payment of PDMRA days with an application for the correction of their military records pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 1552, or other process as prescribed by the Secretary concerned.

7.6.2. A claim for a deceased individual, who would have been authorized to apply for the payment of $200 in subparagraph 8.6.1, may be submitted by the deceased individual’s legal representative. Payment for a deceased member will be made pursuant to 10 U.S.C. § 1552 (c)(2), or other process as determined by the Secretary concerned.

CHAPTER 17

SPECIAL PAY – HARDSHIP DUTY

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter prescribes the policy for payment of Hardship Duty Pay (HDP) and lists the areas where members are authorized to receive these entitlements.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code, section 352 (37 U.S.C. § 352). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 HDP

2.1 HDP – Location (HDP – L)

2.1.1. Purpose. HDP – L is designed to recognize service at locations where living conditions are substantially below those normally found within the continental United States and to provide equity across DoD for Service members assigned to these locations. Locations are contained in Table 17-1, and are listed on the Hardship Duty Pay - Locations table on DFAS.MIL.

2.1.2. Eligibility. All Service members permanently assigned or serving in a temporary additional duty/temporary duty (TAD/TDY), deployed, or attached status for over 30 consecutive days in a designated area, will receive HDP – L. Service members on permanent reassignment to the area are eligible for HDP – L from the day of arrival at the new station. The conditions for HDP – L are set forth in Table 17-2. The Assistant Secretary of Defense – Manpower and Reserve Affairs (ASD (M&RA)) will promulgate any additional eligibility criteria by issuing a policy decision memorandum.

2.1.3. Locations and Amounts. The ASD (M&RA) will promulgate locations and specific amounts for HDP – L at the rates shown in Table 17-1.

2.1.4. Restrictions. Service members performing duty temporarily in a designated area are not eligible for HDP – L during the first 30 days of consecutive duty in the area. On the 31st day, HDP – L is payable to the member retroactive to the date the member reported for duty at the location. The ASD (M&RA) will promulgate any additional restrictions for HDP – L.

2.1.5. Termination. HDP – L entitlement ends on:
2.1.5.1. The day the member departs the station as a result of Permanent Change of Station (PCS) reassignment; or

2.1.5.2. The last day of the effective period as stated in Table 17-1; or

2.1.5.3. The day specified in Table 17-1 for specific situations.

2.2 HDP – Mission (HDP – M)

2.2.1. Purpose. HDP – M is designed to recognize permanent or temporary assignment of Service members when conditions are deemed particularly arduous or require Service members to perform duties outside of normal military operations.

2.2.2. Eligibility. Eligibility criteria will be established by the ASD (M&RA) for Service members permanently or temporarily assigned to a designated mission. A member assigned to, on TAD/TDY with, or otherwise under the operational control of the Defense Prisoner of War/Missing Personnel Office, the Joint Task Force-Full Accounting, or the Central Identification Lab-Hawaii, may qualify for HDP – M based on performance of a hardship mission. Eligible members are entitled to receive HDP – M for each month in which they perform investigative or remains recovery duty in a remote, isolated area (including, but not limited to, areas in Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam, North Korea, Albania, Bulgaria, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Croatia, Egypt, Italy, Romania, Servia, Slovenia, and Yugoslavia) in the recovery of U.S. Service member remains.

2.2.3. Maximum Amount. HDP – M is payable to all members at the rate of $150 per month. HDP – M is payable at the full monthly rate, without prorating or reduction, for each month, during any part of which, the member performs a specified mission.

2.3 HDP – Tempo (HDP – T)

2.3.1. Purpose. HDP – T is designed to recognize extended or excessive amounts of time outside of a Service member’s permanent duty station (PDS).

2.3.2. Eligibility. Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned will establish eligibility criteria based on Service-specific needs but will consider retention, quality of life, family separation, and other factors that contribute to a Service member’s dissatisfaction when spending extended or excessive amounts of time away from the Service member’s PDS.

2.3.3. Amount. Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned will establish monthly rates, but the maximum amount of HDP – T per month will not exceed $500. The Secretary of the Navy:

2.3.3.1. Has delegated authority to the Navy and Marine Corps to pay HDP – T at the monthly rate of $495 to Sailors and Marines deployed beyond the 220th consecutive day of an operational deployment. Sailors and Marines will receive prorated HDP – T based on the number of days in the month that they are eligible, subject to the provisions of Chapter 1, paragraph 3.2;
2.3.3.2. First delegated the authority to make payments for HDP – T effective September 17, 2014. Members who were on a qualifying operational deployment/mobilization on September 17, 2014 were permitted to count the consecutive number of days of deployment/mobilization prior to September 17, 2014 for the purpose of being eligible for the payment of HDP – T; and

2.3.3.3. Has authorized payments for HDP – T until October 1, 2023, unless the delegation is rescinded before that date.

2.3.4. Restrictions. The Secretary of the Military Departments concerned will prorate the monthly amount of HDP – T for a member who does not satisfy the eligibility requirements for an entire month.

NOTE: For periods of absence, consult with Service regulations to determine eligibility.

2.4 HDP – Restriction of Movement (HDP – ROM)

2.4.1. Purpose. HDP – ROM is designed for Service members ordered by their command to restriction of movement for self-monitoring due to exposure or suspected exposure to COVID-19.

2.4.2. Eligibility. Effective March 13, 2020, Service members ordered by their command:

- 2.4.2.1. To restriction of movement for self-monitoring due to exposure or suspected exposure to COVID-19; or

- 2.4.2.2. To restriction of movement for self-monitoring due to travel to, from or through a Center for Disease Control and Prevention Level 3 Travel Health Notice country;

- 2.4.2.3. That are directed to do so at a facility that is neither provided by the U.S. Government nor is their personal residence at the member’s PDS; and

- 2.4.2.4. Are required to pay for the cost of their lodging without full or partial reimbursement.

2.4.3. Amount. HDP – ROM will be paid at the rate of $100 per day not to exceed $1,500 per month.

3.0 RESTRICTIONS ON PAYMENT

3.1 General Restrictions

When a member is in receipt of Hostile Fire Pay (HFP) or Imminent Danger Pay (IDP), then the maximum amount of HDP – L is $100. The total entitlement of HDP – L plus HFP or IDP in any 1 month may not exceed $325.
3.2 Concurrent Payments

The combination of HDP – M, HDP – L, and HDP – T entitlements and other assignment and special duty pays may not exceed an average monthly amount of $3,500 unless otherwise authorized by ASD (M&RA).

NOTE: As of the March 13, 2020, memorandum from ASD (M&RA), HDP – ROM may be paid in addition to all other HDPs and assignment and special duty pays such that the total combined HDP and assignment and special duty pays may not exceed the average monthly amount of $5,000 as prescribed in 37 USC § 352(b)(2).

NOTES:
1. If already in a location when it is designated a hardship duty area, the day of designation starts pay for those on permanent duty. Absences from an HDP-L area of less than 24 hours do not break continuity. A member, on operational flight duty, TAD/TDY, or hospitalized in an area on the date it becomes designated for HDP – L, may count the number of consecutive days already served in that area immediately preceding the date of designation. Additionally, the member may count the number of consecutive days served in a different designated area or areas, if the member served in such area(s) immediately preceding arrival in the newly designated area. In any case, entitlement to payment for HDP – L cannot accrue for any area prior to the date it is designated.
2. Rule 3 applies when a medical evacuee has been reassigned on PCS from the designated area for medical treatment.
3. Any enroute TAD/TDY, travel time, or leave will accrue HDP-L at the PDS/prevailing area rate. HDP terminates if more than 30 days pass before a member (other than a member with accompanied status at an HDP – L PDS) reports for duty in another designated area.
4. If time from more than one designated area is combined to meet the 30 day qualifying criteria, pay the rate for the area at which the greatest time was earned during the first 30 days. After the first 30 days pay the applicable rate for the area in which duty is served, prorated if necessary.
5. Non-judicial punishment does not result in loss of HDP.

CHAPTER 18

SPECIAL PAY – CAREER SEA PAY (CSP)

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter establishes policy pertaining to CSP and CSP-Premium (CSP-P).

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), including Title 37. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 PROVISIONS

2.1 Entitlement

A member who is entitled to basic pay is entitled to CSP and CSP-P while serving on sea duty under regulations prescribed by the Office of the Secretary of Defense, Secretary of the Military Department concerned, and the provisions of this chapter.

2.2 Definitions

2.2.1. CSP. CSP is special pay for recognition of the greater than normal rigors of assignment to sea duty.

2.2.2. CSP-P. CSP-P is special pay that is in addition to CSP and is paid for unusually long periods of continuous sea duty. A member entitled to CSP who has served 36 consecutive months of sea duty is also entitled to CSP-P for the 37th consecutive month and each subsequent consecutive month of sea duty served.

2.2.3. Sea Duty. Sea duty, for the purpose of entitlement to CSP and CSP-P, is duty performed by a member under orders:

2.2.3.1. While permanently assigned for duty to a ship, ship-based staff, or ship-based aviation unit and serving on a ship with a primary mission that is accomplished underway (includes ships designated as destroyers or submarine tenders). Periods when the member is on temporary duty (TDY), on leave, hospitalized, or otherwise temporarily absent under orders, not to exceed the first 30 consecutive days of each occurrence, are also counted;
2.2.3.2. While temporarily assigned for duty to a ship, ship-based staff, or ship-based aviation unit and serving on a ship with a primary mission that is accomplished underway (includes ships designated as destroyers or submarine tenders);

2.2.3.3. While permanently or temporarily assigned for duty to a ship or ship-based staff and serving on a ship with a primary mission that is accomplished in port, but only during that period while the ship is away from its homeport. A ship is considered to be away from its homeport whenever it is at sea or is in a port that is more than 50 miles from its homeport; or

2.2.3.4. While serving as a member of the off-crew of a two-crewed vessel.

2.2.4. Cumulative Sea Duty (CSD). CSD is the total time a member has been assigned to qualifying sea duty during their service career, regardless of pay grade. Additionally, it will include all time during which a member is assigned to a ship or ship-based staff and actually served on a ship with a primary mission that is accomplished in port, regardless of whether the ship is at sea or away from homeport.

2.2.5. Ship. Ship, for the purpose of entitlement to CSP and CSP-P, means a self-propelled vessel in an active status, in commission, or in-service.

3.0 CONDITIONS OF ENTITLEMENT

3.1 General Conditions

The general conditions of entitlement to CSP are listed in Table 18-1. Additionally, entitlement to and the rate of CSP is dependent upon the branch of service, pay grade, and total CSD applicable to the member. All members in pay grades E-1 through O-6 are eligible for payment of CSP, except commissioned officers of the Army and Air Force with 3 or less years of CSD and enlisted members of the Air Force in pay grades below E-4.

3.2 CSP-P Conditions

The conditions of entitlement to CSP-P require the member to first be entitled to CSP. The CSP-P is in addition to CSP; however, for certain pay grades, it has been included in the CSP rate tables and is not payable as a separate item. When payable as a separate item, CSP-P accrues from the first day following the completion of the 36th month of consecutive sea duty and will be prorated if beginning on other than the first day of a calendar month.

Example: A member beginning a period of sea duty on January 15, 2011 would accrue CSP-P beginning January 15, 2014. The CSP-P is payable for the 37th and each subsequent consecutive month of sea duty regardless of the member’s pay grade when the sea duty began, provided the member is concurrently entitled to CSP.

3.2.1. The following members of the Navy and Marine Corps may become entitled to CSP-P as a separate item of pay:
3.2.1.1. All officers in pay grades O-1 through O-6;

3.2.1.2. All warrant officers;

3.2.1.3. All enlisted members in pay grades E-1 through E-4; and

3.2.1.4. All enlisted members in pay grades E-5 through E-9 with not over 8 years of CSD.

3.2.2. The following members of the Army may become entitled to CSP-P as a separate item of pay:

3.2.2.1. All officers in pay grades O-1 through O-6; and 3.2.2.2. All enlisted members in pay grades E-1 through E-3.

3.2.3. The following members of the Air Force may become entitled to CSP-P as a separate item of pay:

3.2.3.1. All officers in pay grades O-1 through O-6;

3.2.3.2. All enlisted members in pay grade E-4; and

3.2.3.3. All enlisted members in pay grades E-5 through E-9 with not over 5 years of CSD.

3.2.4. Members not addressed in subparagraphs 3.2.1, 3.2.2, and 3.2.3, have CSP-P already included in their applicable CSP rate table or are otherwise not eligible to receive a separate CSP-P payment.

*3.3 Duration of Authority

Unless authorized by Congress, no CSP or CSP-P payment may be paid after the termination date on the Duration of Authority table.

4.0 RATES PAYABLE

4.1 CSP

The Secretary concerned will prescribe the monthly rates for special pay applicable to members of each Military Service under the Secretary’s jurisdiction. The monthly rate may not exceed $750.

4.1.1. The monthly rates of CSP for members of the Army are in Table 18-2.
4.1.2. The monthly rates of CSP and CSP-P (for E-5 through E-9 with over 8 years of CSD) for members of the Navy and Marine Corps are listed in Table 18-3.

4.1.3. The monthly rates of CSP for members of the Air Force are listed in Table 18-4.

4.2 CSP-P

The Secretary concerned will prescribe the monthly rate for CSP-P applicable to members of each Military Service under the Secretary’s jurisdiction. The monthly rate may not exceed $350.

5.0 RESTRICTIONS

5.1 En route and Transport Restrictions

Do not credit time for sea duty and do not pay CSP or CSP-P to members en route to or from ships outside the Continental United States or onboard a ship for transportation, regardless of the length of the period. This restriction applies to the periods prior to a member reporting for permanent duty and after being permanently detached from duty onboard a ship.

5.2 Midshipmen and Cadet Members

Do not credit time for sea duty and do not pay CSP or CSP-P to midshipmen, aviation cadets, or academy cadets.

5.3 Navy and Marine Corps Members

Do not pay CSP-P to Navy and Marine Corps members entitled to CSP in Table 18-3 for duty if in pay grades E-5 through E-9 with over 8 years of CSD.

5.4 Army Members

Do not pay CSP-P to Army members entitled to CSP in Table 18-2 for duty:

5.4.1. Between October 1, 2002 and June 30, 2003 if in pay grades E-5 through E-9; or

5.4.2. On or after July 1, 2003 if in pay grades E-4 through E-9 or W-1 through W-5.

5.5 Air Force Members

Do not pay CSP-P to Air Force members entitled to CSP in Table 18-4 for duty if in pay grades E-5 through E-9 with over 5 years of CSD.

NOTES:
1. “Temporarily based ashore” refers to a ship-based aviation unit or ship-based staff that has landed ashore with intent to return to a ship.
2. Entitlement terminates when the ship returns to the homeport.
3. Further TAD/TDY ashore from ship will not interrupt CSP entitlement for the first 30 days member is in such status, provided member is otherwise entitled and returns to the ship.
4. Where sentence is changed to restriction to ship and member performs duty, CSP is resumed. Nonjudicial punishment does not result in loss of CSP.
5. Entitlement accrues only when the ship is away from the homeport.
6. Chief of Naval Operations Instruction (OPNAVINST) 4700.8L series defines ship status assignments for U.S. Naval ships.

CHAPTER 19

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY BONUS

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter establishes policy pertaining to Foreign Language Proficiency Bonus (FLPB) for members of an Active Component (AC) or Reserve Component (RC) of the Military Services (less the Coast Guard).

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), including Title 37. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 ENTITLEMENT

*2.1 General Provisions

2.1.1. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned will pay FLPB to a member of an AC or RC, that has been certified as proficient in one or more foreign languages, or dialects identified on the DoD Strategic Language List (SLL) in the Immediate and Emerging Payment category (see the FLPB Installment Rates table, Payment Category A).

2.1.2. The Secretary may pay FLPB to a member of an AC or RC of the Uniformed Services who has been certified as proficient in one or more foreign languages or dialects:

   2.1.2.1. Identified on the DoD or Service Secretary SLL in the Enduring category (Service Secretaries may choose to pay or not pay FLPB, see the FLPB Installment Rates table, Payment Category B); or

   2.1.2.2. Not identified on the DoD SLL, but designated by the Secretary concerned as a foreign language or dialect for which proficient personnel are required to accomplish DoD Component specific missions (see the FLPB Installment Rates table, Payment Category B).

2.1.3. The Secretary may not vary the criteria or rates for the proficiency bonus paid to officers and enlisted members.

Note: FLPB Installment Rates are set pursuant to DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1340.27. On August 17, 2022, the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness established a new FLPB payment table (identified as “Table 1” in DoDI 1340.27). Table 1 has not been fully implemented. This chapter will be updated and republished to conform to this instruction following the full implementation of Table 1 in DoDI 1340.27 by the Military Departments.

2.2 AC Eligibility

2.2.1. The Secretary concerned may pay FLPB to a member of an AC of the Uniformed Services who meets at least one of the following conditions:

2.2.1.1. Is qualified in a military career specialty requiring proficiency in a foreign language or dialect and is certified proficient in that foreign language or dialect;

2.2.1.2. Has received training, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary, designed to develop proficiency in a foreign language or dialect;

2.2.1.3. Is assigned to military duties requiring a proficiency in a foreign language or dialect for which the DoD or the Secretary concerned has identified a need; or 2.2.1.4. Is certified proficient in a foreign language or dialect in accordance with paragraph 2.4 for which the DoD or the Secretary has identified a critical need.

2.2.2. The member must execute a written agreement with the Secretary concerned that specifies the:

2.2.2.1. Amount of FLPB awarded;

2.2.2.2. Period for which the FLPB will be paid;

2.2.2.3. Initial certification or recertification necessary for the FLPB payment; and

2.2.2.4. Repayment provision of the unearned portion of any remaining FLPB if the member does not satisfy the eligibility and certification requirements for the length of the written agreement.

2.2.3. The member must achieve a minimum of Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) skill level 2/2 (ILR skill level 1/1 if authorized by the Secretary concerned) or higher in any two modalities on a DoD or Service Secretary SLL, Service-approved foreign language or dialect in order to receive FLPB, except as outlined in paragraphs 2.6 and 2.7.

2.3 RC Eligibility

2.3.1. In order to receive FLPB in a similar fashion as a member of the AC, a member of the RC must:

2.3.1.1. Meet the eligibility certification requirements outlined in paragraphs 2.2, 2.4, 2.6, and 2.7; and
2.3.1.2. Fulfill the minimum annual service requirements for retirement eligibility, as defined in 10 U.S.C. § 12732 unless waived by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

2.3.2. An RC member must earn a minimum of 50 retirement points, regardless of the RC source, in each full anniversary year to have that year count as creditable towards verification of the total years of qualifying service for non-regular retired pay and payment of FLPB.

2.3.2.1. A partial qualifying year is any period of less than 12 full months during which the RC member earns a prorated share of 50 retirement points and an identical prorated share (or smaller percentage of full FLPB annual payment) of FLPB.

2.3.2.2. An RC member who performs a partial qualifying year of less than 12 full months and earns less than 50 retirement points in a year will have their FLPB prorated at a value of 2 percent for each retirement point less than 50 points.

2.3.3. The total of FLPB paid to an RC member in good standing, and who has not been adjudicated as an unsatisfactory performer in the previous 12 months, must equal the annual FLPB paid to an AC member with the same certified language proficiency.

2.3.4. For RC members, the requirement to attain 50 points during a separation year is waived for FLPB calculation if the member separates before 12 months in the anniversary year. The RC member will be paid the standard FLPB monthly allotment for months in good standing, with the last month prorated if separation occurs before the last day of the month. RC members in a separation year, which are no longer in good standing, will have their FLPB terminated in the month in which they are determined to be no longer “in good standing.” The exception to the 50-point standard in a separation year is an RC member who serves the entire anniversary year. The individual must earn 50 points to collect the last month of FLPB prior to separation.

2.4 Certification

2.4.1. A member must be eligible and certified by the Secretary concerned as being proficient in a foreign language or dialect for which the bonus is offered.

2.4.2. The certification of a member’s foreign language or dialect proficiency will expire at the end of the 1-year period beginning on the first day of the first month after the certification date. A member must test annually in each foreign language or dialect in order to continue receiving FLPB, unless recertified under the conditions stipulated in paragraphs 2.6 and 2.7. The Secretary concerned may retest a member no earlier than 6 months from the last administration of a test in that foreign language or dialect unless the member has completed a significant language education or training event (at least 150 hours of immersion training or 6 consecutive weeks of 5 hour-a-day classroom training) in that foreign language or dialect.

2.4.3. A member must be certified as proficient in any combination of two of the three modalities (reading (R), listening (L), and speaking (S)) to receive FLPB, except as referred to in the FLPB Installment Rates table, Note 2.
*2.5 Amount and Method of Payment

2.5.1. The bonus rate of FLPB may not exceed $12,000 per 1-year certification period. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay a bonus in monthly installments or a lump sum during the certification period.

2.5.2. The monthly rate will not exceed $500 per month for a single foreign language or dialect, or $1,000 per month for two or more foreign languages or dialects. The total annual FLPB amount may not exceed $12,000 for each 1-year period of certification.

2.5.3. To receive the maximum monthly bonus installment allowed in any payment category (A or B), a member must acquire 3/3/3 proficiency in all three modalities or achieve an ILR skill level 4/4 or above in any two modalities (see the FLPB Installment Rates table).

2.5.4. The Secretary concerned:

2.5.4.1. May authorize FLPB at either Payment A or B rates (see the FLPB Installment Rates table) for DoD-approved languages not on the SLL and where there is a need to ensure a sufficient number of proficient personnel to accomplish DoD Component specific missions;

2.5.4.2. May, in the case of foreign languages considered prevalent in the Service, limit the payment of FLPB to those Service members whose duties require proficiency in such languages or as determined by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

2.5.4.3. May authorize the payment of FLPB to Service members whose duties require an ILR skill below level 2 in the L, R, or S modalities; or

2.5.4.4. May authorize Military Departments, on an interim basis, the discretion to assign scores in two modalities for results on the Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI). A score may be assigned for the listening modality equal to the score for the speaking modality, up to and including ILR skill level 4.

Note: Hospitalized members may be entitled to FLPB under the Pay and Allowance Continuation (PAC) Program. See Chapter 13 for PAC entitlement eligibility.

2.6 Waiver of Recertification of Proficiency

2.6.1. The Secretary concerned may waive the certification requirement and pay FLPB to a member who:

2.6.1.1. Is assigned to duty in connection with a contingency operation;

2.6.1.2. Is unable to schedule or complete the test for certification because of that assignment; and
2.6.1.3. Except for the lack of such certification, satisfies the eligibility requirements cited in paragraphs 2.2 or 2.3.

2.6.2. The Secretary may treat the date the member was assigned to duty in connection with a contingency operation as equivalent to a certification date.

2.6.3. When a member whose certification will expire during a contingency operation assignment or within 6 months following return to the continental United States or to an overseas permanent duty station, the Secretary concerned will authorize the Service member those 6 months after returning as a mandatory grace period to recertify for FLPB.

2.6.4. If a member fails to obtain the required certification by the end of the 6-month period, then the Secretary may require the Service member to repay all or a portion of the FLPB received in accordance with paragraph 3.3.

2.6.5. The Secretary may waive the annual certification in subparagraph 2.4.2 and the duration of certification requirements in paragraphs 2.6 and 2.7, if the Service FLPB regulation addresses the specific circumstances under which the Service Secretary may waive either or both of these certification requirements.

2.7 Exceptions to Recertification

The Secretary concerned may elect to recertify a member’s foreign language or dialect proficiency using their last recorded DoD Language Proficiency Test (DLPT) scores when:

2.7.1. A member is assigned to duty outside the continental United States (excluding Alaska and Hawaii) at a location where web-delivered testing facilities are not available or accessible. In such cases, the member may complete the recertification requirements provided in paragraph 2.4, no later than 6 months after the date released from the duty assignment. The Secretary is responsible for determining which locations qualify for this recertification and the duration (not to exceed 6 months) of the Service recertification grace period;

2.7.2. A member’s certification expires while attending a significant language education or training event (at least 150 hours of immersion training or 6 consecutive weeks of 5-hour-a-day classroom training) or other significant events as defined by the Secretaries of the Military Departments, Defense Agencies, and DoD Field Activities heads. The next 1-year certification period will begin when they retest after they complete the significant language education or training event. The member’s FLPB will continue while in training up until completion of the course retest event. Further FLPB entitlement will be based on the results from that event; or

2.7.3. A member who initially certifies or recertifies proficient through the DLPT system, at or above ILR skill levels 3/3 or 3/3/3 in a foreign language or dialect, must take an approved test within the DLPT system no less frequently than every 2 years for recertification, in which case recertification in the off year may be accomplished using a method selected by the Secretary of the Military Department.
3.0 CONDITIONS OF ENTITLEMENT

3.1 Requirements

A member must qualify under any additional eligibility requirements prescribed by the Secretaries concerned, and is subject to Service specific certification requirements and amount of payment restrictions as outlined in:

3.1.1. DoD: DoDI 1340.27, Military Foreign Language Skill Proficiency Bonuses and DoDI 5160.71, DoD Language Testing Program;

3.1.2. Army: Army Regulation 11-6;

3.1.3. Navy: Chief of Naval Operations Instruction 7220.7H;

3.1.4. Air Force and U.S. Space Force: Department of Air Force Manual 36-2664, Attachment 10, and Air Force Instruction 36-4005; or

3.1.5. Marine Corps: Marine Corps Order 7220.52F.

NOTE: Pay authorizing officials must access the current DoD SLL and the Component’s unique foreign language bonus pay authorizations, additional eligibility rules, and certification requirements in order to ensure the correct FLPB payment is authorized.

3.2 Tax

FLPB is an item of pay subject to federal withholding tax. It is not subject to the Federal Insurance Contributions Act tax.

3.3 Repayment

A member, who receives FLPB but does not satisfy eligibility and certification requirements specified in section 2.0, may be subject to repayment in accordance with Chapter 2.

3.4 Relationship to Other Pay and Allowances

A member may not be paid more than one Skill Incentive Pay or Proficiency Bonus in any month for the same period of service and skill. A member may be paid skill incentive pay or the proficiency bonus, in addition to any other pay and allowances to which the member is entitled, except that a member may not be paid skill incentive pay or a proficiency bonus and hazardous duty pay, in accordance with Chapter 24, for the same period of service in the same career field or skill.
*3.5 Duration of Authority

Unless authorized by Congress, no FLPB agreement may be entered into after the date on the Duration of Authority table.

CHAPTER 20

AVIATION BONUS (AvB)

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The Secretaries of the Military Departments may offer an AvB to increase their respective Department’s ability to attract and retain officers in a military aviation career. An AvB paid to an eligible officer is in addition to any other pay and allowance to which the officer is entitled, except that an officer may not receive a payment for the same skill and period of service.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The AvB policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code, section 334 (37 U.S.C. § 334). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 DURATION OF AUTHORITY

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AvB may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table unless an AvB agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

3.0 ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

3.1 General

The Military Departments may offer an AvB on a selective basis when there is a shortage or a projected shortage of Regular or Reserve Component (RC) officers qualified in critical aviation specialties. AvBs will be limited to those periods in an officer’s aviation career in which AvBs can be expected to affect retention trends for the Military Service concerned.

3.2 Qualifications

To qualify for an AvB, an officer, on active duty (AD) or in an active status, must:

3.2.1. Be eligible for Aviation Incentive Pay at the time of incurring the initial AvB contractual obligation;

3.2.2. Be in a pay grade of O-5 or below at the time of incurring the initial AvB contractual obligation;
3.2.3. Serve in an aviation specialty or skill designated as critical by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

3.2.4. Have completed or be within one year of completing any service obligation incurred for undergraduate aviator training. In accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 653, the minimum service obligation of any Service member who successfully completes training in the Armed Forces as a pilot is 8 years if the member is trained to fly fixed-wing jet aircraft, or 6 years if the member is trained to fly any other type of aircraft. The minimum service obligation of any member who successfully completes training in the Military Services as a combat systems officer or naval flight officer will be 6 years;

3.2.5. Execute a written agreement to remain on AD in the Regular Component or to serve in an active status in the selected reserve for at least one year; and

3.2.6. Meet such other additional criteria as the Secretary of the Military Department concerned may prescribe.

4.0 PAYMENT METHODS AND AMOUNTS

4.1 Payment Method

The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay an AvB to Regular or RC officers of a Uniformed Service who meet the qualification criteria in paragraph 3.2 in a lump sum or in periodic installments, as determined by the Secretary concerned.

4.2 Amounts

The AvB amount, covered by the written agreement, described in paragraph 5.1, between the Regular or RC officer and the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, for each 12-month period of obligated service specified in 37 U.S.C. § 334(c)(1)(B), will not exceed the following, unless otherwise updated by the Assistant Secretary of Defense Manpower and Reserve Affairs (ASD M&RA):

* 4.2.1. $35,000 per year for Regular Component officers or RC Active Guard and Reserve officers performing qualified flying duty. For the three-year period commencing June 1, 2023, the Air Force is authorized to offer these eligible pilots AvBs in amounts not to exceed $50,000 per year, unless such authorization is otherwise rescinded or superseded;

4.2.2. $35,000 per year for Regular Component officers or RC Active Guard and Reserve officers performing qualified flying duty related to Unmanned Aerial System (UAS) operators; or

* 4.2.3. $18,000 per year for all other RC officers performing qualified duty, to include UAS operators. For the three-year period commencing June 1, 2023, the Air Force is authorized to offer these eligible pilots AvBs in amounts not to exceed $30,000 per year, unless such authorizations is otherwise rescinded or superseded.
Note: The ASD (M&RA) may update the AvB amounts, in accordance with the DoD Instruction (DoDI) 7730.67, October 20, 2016, paragraph 2.1.b.

4.3 Relationship to Other Pay and Allowances

Aviation pays and bonuses paid in accordance with DoDI 7730.67 will be in addition to any other pay or allowances to which the member is entitled, except as specified in the limitations and restrictions in DoDI 7730.67, paragraph 3.1.b.

5.0 TERMS AND CONDITIONS

5.1 Written Agreements

5.1.1. To receive an AvB, an officer must execute a written agreement with the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that specifies the amount of the AvB, the method of payment (lump sum or periodic installments), the period of obligated service (at least 1 year), and the type or conditions of service. No agreement may be executed that would take an officer beyond 25 Years of Aviation Service.

5.1.2. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned will not exceed the AvB amount covered by the written agreement for any 12-month period of obligated service specified in paragraph 4.2 or 37 U.S.C. § 334(c).

5.1.3. Bonus agreements awarded under 37 U.S.C. § 301b, that were approved before October 1, 2017, will remain in effect, and payments may continue through the agreed-upon date in the written agreement.

5.2 Acceptance

Upon acceptance of the written AvB agreement by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, the period of obligated service and the total amount of AvB the Department will pay pursuant to the agreement will be fixed, unless otherwise renegotiated for a higher bonus amount in return for additional obligated service.

5.3 Death of a Member

If a member dies before receiving the full amount of the bonus due (including contracted future year anniversary payments) and death is not caused by the member’s misconduct, the remaining unpaid bonus balance is payable as a lump sum for inclusion in the settlement of the deceased member’s final military pay account. If death is determined to be the result of the member’s own misconduct, termination of future payments and proration or repayment of the bonus, as applicable, must be made in accordance with procedures established by the Military Department concerned. See Chapters 2 and 36.
6.0 REPAYMENT

An officer, who fails to fulfill the eligibility requirements or service conditions specified in the written agreement for the AvB, will be subject to the repayment provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373 and Chapter 2.

CHAPTER 22

AVIATION INCENTIVE PAYS

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to describe the policies for Hazardous Duty Incentive Pay (HDIP), Aviation Incentive Pay (AvIP), and Critical Skill Incentive Pay (CSIP).

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code (U.S.C.), section 334(a) (37 U.S.C. § 334(a)), 37 U.S.C. § 351(a)(2), and 37 U.S.C. § 353. Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 HDIP FOR FLYING DUTY

The Secretary concerned may pay HDIP to Service members required by competent orders to participate in frequent and regular aerial flights as an aircrew member or to non-aircrew members who otherwise meet the requirements for flying duty.

2.1 Eligibility

To be eligible for flying duty HDIP, a Service member must be required by competent orders to participate frequently and regularly in sustained, powered, controlled aerial flights, and generally must complete 4 hours (or 2 hours for reserve component (RC) Service members) of aerial flights each month. Hours that are flown in excess of this requirement may be credited against this requirement for up to 5 subsequent, consecutive months. Additionally, a Service member who has a shortage of flying hours after crediting these excess hours may, under certain conditions established by the Military Departments, enter a 3-month grace period wherein hours flown in future months may be retroactively applied to earlier monthly requirements.

*2.2 Limitations and Restrictions

2.2.1. Officers, including aviation cadets entitled to AvIP under section 3.0, are not entitled to payments under this section for the same period of service.

2.2.2. Enlisted members receiving CSIP under section 5.0 are not entitled to payments under this section for the same period of service.

2.2.3. An officer receiving an incentive pay pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 334, may not receive HDIP pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 351(a)(2) for the same skill and period of service.
2.2.4. Service members receiving a skill incentive pay pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 353(a), may not receive HDIP pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 351(a)(2), for the same period of service in the same career field or skill for which the payment is paid.

2.2.5. Service members must be on competent orders to serve in the area or to perform the hazardous duty to qualify for an incentive.

2.2.6. To be eligible for select HDIP payments, a Service member must be in training, have successfully completed the qualifying training and technical qualification, or meet qualification requirements for the performance of the hazardous duty.

2.2.7. Although a Service member may perform more than three hazardous duties in a month, a Service member may not receive simultaneous payments for more than three HDIP duties in a month.

2.3 Definitions

2.3.1. Aerial Flights. Aerial flights are flights in military aircraft or spacecraft, and also flights in nonmilitary aircraft when Service members are required by competent orders to fly in such aircraft. A flight begins when the aircraft or spacecraft takes off from rest at any point of support located on the surface of the earth and terminates when it next comes to a complete stop at a point of support located on the surface of the earth.

2.3.2. Aviation Accident. Aviation accident is an accident in which a Service member, who is required to participate frequently or regularly in aerial flights, is injured or otherwise incapacitated as the result. The injury or incapacitation, as certified by the appropriate medical authority of the Uniformed Service concerned, may result from:

2.3.2.1. Jumping from, being thrown from, or being struck by an aircraft or spacecraft, or any part or auxiliary thereof; or

2.3.2.2. Participation in any duly authorized aerial flight or other aircraft or spacecraft operations. This term also means an incapacity incurred as the result, as certified by appropriate medical authority, of performance of flying duty, even though such incapacity is not the result of an actual aviation accident.

2.4 Flight Requirements

2.4.1. Minimum Flying Time Each Month

2.4.1.1. During 1 calendar month, 4 hours of aerial flight are required. If a Service member does not fly 4 hours in any month, any hours flown during the last 5 preceding months (which have not already been used to qualify for flight pay) may be applied to meet this 4-hour requirement.
2.4.1.2. During 2 consecutive calendar months when the requirements of subparagraph 2.4.1.1, have not been met, 8 hours of aerial flight are required.

2.4.1.3. During 3 consecutive calendar months when the requirements of subparagraph 2.4.1.2, have not been met, 12 hours of aerial flight are required.

2.4.2. Fractions of a Calendar Month. For fractions of a calendar month, calculate the percentage that the period in question is of the calendar month. The flying time required is that same percentage of the aerial flight time required for a full calendar month (see Table 22-1).

2.4.3. Fractions of 2 Consecutive Calendar Months. For fractions of 2 consecutive calendar months, consider the whole period in question. Calculate the percentage that the period in question is of the calendar month. The flying time required is that same percentage of the aerial flight time required for a full calendar month (see Table 22-1).

2.4.4. Application of Hours Flown. To the extent of hours available, hours flown in any month apply as follows:

2.4.4.1. First, to meet flight requirements for that month;

2.4.4.2. Next, if the Service member has entered a grace period for meeting flight requirements, to the prior month or months, as applicable; and

2.4.4.3. Next, in order, to the first, second, third, fourth, and fifth succeeding months, but only to the extent that the Service member fails, during each month, to fly the required 4 hours. (Hours available to meet requirements of later months are referred to as “excess” flight time.) See examples in Tables 22-2 and 22-3.

2.4.5. Military Operations or Unavailability of Aircraft. When under authority conferred by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, the commanding officer certifies that a Service member is unable to meet normal flight requirements due to military operations (combat or otherwise), or the non-availability of aircraft in order to complete those requirements. The Service member may, however, comply with the minimum flight requirements by performing 24 hours of aerial flight over a period of 6 consecutive calendar months. The commanding officer will certify that only those conditions specified in this subparagraph prevented completion of normal flight requirements. The 24-hour flight requirement may be met at any time during the 6-calendar-month period and in any combination of flights.

2.4.5.1. If the Service member is in a 3-calendar-month grace period when military operations or aircraft non-availability prevents fulfillment of flight requirements, the 6-calendar-month period for meeting the 24-hour flight requirement under this subparagraph begins on the first day of the grace period.

2.4.5.2. If the Service member is not in a 3-calendar-month grace period, the first month in which military operations or aircraft non-availability prevents fulfillment of flight requirements is the beginning of the 6-calendar-month period for meeting the 24-hour flight requirement under this subparagraph.

2.4.5.3. During the 6-calendar-month period, HDIP for flying may be paid for any single month, or for multiple months, when minimum requirements have been met.

2.4.5.4. At the end of the 6-calendar-month period, HDIP for flying may be paid for missed months in the period to the extent that the remaining hours flown are applicable. Excess hours are applied prospectively under subparagraph 2.4.4 if the Service member continues to fly under the same orders.

NOTE: For RC officers not on active duty for a period of more than 30 consecutive days, the requirement is half of the requirements contained in paragraph 2.4.

2.5 Determination of a 3-Calendar-Month Period

2.5.1. When 3-Month Period Starts and Ends. The 3-calendar-month period in which flight requirements must be met begins with the first month in which flight requirements are not met. If the Service member flies enough time in the second month to cover the first and second months, the period ends with the second month. If not, the period extends through the third month.

2.5.2. Deficiencies for a Fraction of a Month. If a Service member fails to qualify for a fraction of a month (because flying status or active duty began on an intermediate day of the month), the 3-month period ends on the last day of the second full month following the fractional month.

2.5.3. When Next 3-Month Period Starts

2.5.3.1. A new 3-month period starts with the first month in which flight requirements are not met following a month in which flight requirements were met.

2.5.3.2. For a new 3-month period to begin immediately after a prior 3-month period, flight requirements must have been met for the entire prior 3-month period, not merely for the last month.

2.5.3.3. If the requirements for the entire prior 3-month period were not met, a new period does not begin until flight requirements are met for at least 1 month after the prior 3-month period.

2.5.3.4. After a month when flight requirements are met, any month in which flight requirements are not met begins a new 3-month period. A new period may not start with the second or third month in which flight requirements are not met; nor may a new period start with the fourth month in which flight requirements are not met. There must be at least 1 month in which requirements are met before a new 3-month period begins. See Tables 22-2 and 22-3 for application of the rules listed in paragraph 2.5.
2.6 Entitlement to Pay When No Flights are Performed in the First Month of a 3-Month Period

Assume, for the purposes of this paragraph, that the Service member had no excess flight time from prior months.

2.6.1. Second Month. If a Service member performs no aerial flights during the first month of a 3-month period and, in the second month, performs at least 4 hours but less than 8 hours, he or she is entitled to pay only for the second month. For example: In January, no aerial flights are performed; in February, 5 hours of aerial flight are performed. Flight pay is payable only for February.

2.6.2. Third Month. If a Service member performs no aerial flights during the first 2 months of a 3-month period, he or she must perform 12 hours of aerial flight in the third month to be entitled to incentive pay for all 3 consecutive months. For example: If flight requirements are met for January and a Service member performs no flights during the months of February and March, he or she must perform at least 12 hours in April to be entitled to receive the incentive pay for the period February 1 to April 30. If the Service member performs 4 or more hours, but less than 12 hours in April, he or she is entitled to receive the incentive pay only for April.

2.6.3. First and Third Months. If a Service member does not perform aerial flights during the first month and in the second month performs only sufficient flights to qualify for the second month, he or she must perform enough hours of flight during the third month to total 12 hours in order to qualify for the incentive pay for the first and third months of the 3-month period.

Example: In January, no aerial flights are performed; in February, 5 hours of aerial flight are performed. The deficiency in January must be made up in March. If at least 7 hours are accomplished in March, flight pay for January and March is payable. If only 6 hours are flown in March, flight pay is payable only for March (the payment for February previously having been made) and incentive pay for January is lost.

2.7 Injury or Incapacity Resulting From Performance of Hazardous Duty

Service members qualified for HDIP, who are temporarily unable to perform a hazardous duty due to an injury or illness that is not the result of the Service member’s own misconduct, may continue to receive HDIP for up to 6 months.

2.7.1. On a case-by-case basis, the Secretary concerned, or designee, may authorize an extension of HDIP payments for up to an additional 6-months, based on the recommendation of the appropriate medical authority. Under no circumstance will HDIP payments continue beyond 12 months from the date of injury or illness.

2.7.2. HDIP will be terminated for Service members permanently disqualified or otherwise determined to be no longer eligible to perform hazardous duty by a competent medical authority.
2.7.3. Service members reassigned to a new duty assignment or specialty not eligible for HDIP will have their HDIP payments terminated on the date of reassignment or reclassification.

2.7.4. If the injury or illness occurred while serving in a combat zone, hostile fire area, or imminent danger area, the Service member may continue to receive HDIP during the Service member’s hospitalization and rehabilitation. See Chapter 13.

2.8 Right to Flight Pay Under Certain Conditions

See Table 22-4.

2.9 Determinations Affecting Entitlement to Flight Pay

2.9.1. Flight Pay From Date of Reporting for Duty. A Service member is entitled to flight pay on and after the date that he or she reports for and enters on duty under competent orders, subject to meeting flight requirements. A Service member in a non-duty status (such as on leave or sick) at the time that flying status orders are issued is not entitled to flight pay for any period before he or she reports for and enters on duty under such orders.

2.9.2. Excess Flight Time. When authorized under paragraph 2.5, flight time in excess of the time required or insufficient to qualify for a particular month may be applied to a later month in which minimum requirements are not met, provided that the orders under which flying time was logged remain in effect.

2.9.3. Change of Designation, Non-Crewmember to Crewmember or Vice Versa. A Service member whose status changes from non-crewmember to crewmember (or vice versa) within a month or other qualifying period may not combine time flown in both categories for pay purposes. The Service member is entitled to flight pay, as a non-crewmember for the period of time Service member held that status, if he or she met the pro rata requirements as a non-crewmember. The Service member is entitled to flight pay as a crewmember, for the period of time he or she held that status, if he or she met the pro rata requirements as a crewmember.

2.9.4. Change From One Crewmember Status to Another Crewmember Status. Flights as one type of crewmember may be combined with flights as another type of crewmember if the Service member remains on continuous active duty and continuous flying status. Total requirements may be met in either crewmember status or a portion may be met in each status.

Example: An aviation cadet is given a rating as a navigator and issued new flying status orders immediately following termination of Service member’s former orders.

2.9.5. Missing or Missing-in-Action

2.9.5.1. A Service member assigned to flying duty who is declared missing by competent authority is entitled to HDIP during the entire period of absence and is entitled to HDIP for hospitalization and rehabilitation after termination of missing status for an additional period, not to exceed one year.

2.9.5.2. Upon return from a missing status and completion of any required period of hospitalization and rehabilitation (not to exceed 1 year), entitlement to HDIP for flying duty will be contingent on a determination of continued eligibility under paragraph 2.1 and the applicable flight requirement provisions of paragraph 2.4.

2.9.5.3. A new 3-month grace period does not start when the missing status and hospitalization ends. The new 3-month grace period starts with the first month of deficiency, after entering a missing status.

2.9.5.4. If the missing status and hospitalization goes beyond the 6-month grace period, the Service member must meet flight requirements for at least 1 month to become entitled to flight pay again.

2.9.5.5. If the Service member does not meet flight requirements upon the completion of an authorized missing and hospitalization period, he or she is entitled to pro rata HDIP for flying duty through the date of such authorized period.

2.9.6. Death

2.9.6.1. Death Due to Aviation Accident. If death occurs on the date of an aviation accident, flight pay accrues to include the date of death. If, however, death occurs after the 3-month period has expired, flight pay is not authorized for any day after the expiration of that period. Flight pay for the month or period before the month in which the accident occurred is not authorized unless flight requirements were met for that period.

2.9.6.2. Death Due to Other Causes. If death occurs from causes other than an aviation accident, flight pay is payable to and including the date of death if the Service member has met pro rata flight requirements for the month of death and was on flying status.

2.10 Suspensions From Flying Status, Effect on Flight Pay

2.10.1. Flight Pay for a Period of Suspension. Except under subparagraphs 2.10.2 and 2.10.3, Service members are not entitled to flight pay for any period while suspended from flying status. Service members are considered suspended on the effective date of suspension. Service members are considered to be in a flying status on the day that the suspension is removed or terminated. Payment for a period of suspension cannot be made in any case until the suspension has been removed or terminated.

2.10.2. Suspension for Other Than Physical Incapacity for Service Members Required to Perform Minimum Flight Requirements. Service members are entitled to flight pay for a period of suspension from flying status, provided the suspension is removed or terminated and they meet flight requirements as prescribed in paragraph 2.4. If the Service member has excess flights performed before suspension, the grace period specified in paragraph 2.4 begins on the first month of the period of suspension not covered by excess flights.

Example: A Service member was suspended from flying status on February 1. He had 16 hours excess flying time as of January 31. Flight pay is stopped on January 31. The suspension subsequently is removed (or terminated) on June 30.
He flew 12 hours in the month of July. After removal of the suspension, pay flight pay for February 1 through May 31 on the basis of the 16 excess hours accumulated in the 5 months before February 1. The grace period, authorized as stated in paragraph 2.4, started on June 1. The hours that were flown in July qualify the Service member for flight pay for June and July.

2.10.3. Suspension for Physical Incapacity of Service Members Subject to Minimum Flight Requirements. A Service member is entitled to flight pay during a period of grounding due to physical incapacity if he or she meets the flight requirements stated in paragraph 2.4. The Service member also is entitled to flight pay during a period of suspension, if the suspension is removed or terminated and flight requirements are actually met. There are no flight requirements during the first 3 months of a period of incapacity incurred as the result of performance of an assigned hazardous duty. See paragraph 2.7.

2.10.4. Suspension Removed or Terminated. If a suspension is removed or terminated after the Service member can no longer qualify for flight pay under subparagraphs 2.10.2 and 2.10.3, there is loss of pay for any period that is not covered by paragraph 2.4. Flight pay accrues after the suspension is removed or terminated for Service members required to meet minimum flight requirements from the date of reporting for flying duty after the suspension is removed or terminated if flight requirements are met.

2.11 Payment of Flight Pay and Incentive Pay for Other Hazardous Duty

A Service member who qualifies for flight pay and incentive pay for one or more other types of hazardous duty may receive the flight pay and incentive pay only for two other hazardous duties for the same period. Dual HDIP is limited to those Service members required by orders to perform specific multiple hazardous duties necessary for successful accomplishment of the mission of the unit to which assigned.

2.11.1. Conditions of Entitlement. The hazardous duties for which dual incentive pay is payable must be an integral part of the Service member's assigned mission. Accomplishment of the assigned mission must require the Service member to perform specific multiple hazardous duties. A Service member must meet minimum requirements for each of the hazardous duties, except for injury or illness.

2.11.2. Types of Duties That Qualify Service Member for Dual Payment of HDIP. See Chapter 24, subparagraph 2.4.1.

2.11.2.1. Air Force pararescue team Service members placed on orders to perform duties as both crewmembers and parachutists.
2.11.2.2. Other combinations of hazardous duties for which dual payments of incentive pay are authorized by the Military Services concerned.

2.11.3. Injury or Incapacity as a Result of Performance of Hazardous Duty or Dual Hazardous Duties. If a Service member who is required to perform more than one hazardous duty becomes injured or otherwise incapacitated as a result of any of the duties, he or she is entitled to dual incentive pay during the incapacity, but for no longer than 6 months. If not entitled to dual incentive pay at the time of the incapacity, the Service member is entitled to the type of incentive pay that he or she was receiving at the time of the incapacity. The beginning date of the 6-month period will be determined separately for each type of incentive pay. See paragraph 2.7 to determine the 6-month period separately for each incentive pay.

2.12 Authority to Issue Orders

Authority to issue orders requiring the performance of flying duty, granting waivers of performance requirements, or extending time periods during which requirements may be met is delegated by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned to specific commanders within each Military Service. Such delegations are contained in the personnel administrative regulations of the respective Military Services.

2.13 Monthly Rates

See Table 22-5. For the most current rates see the HDIP for Flying table.

2.13.1. HDIP for aircrew members may not exceed $250 per month.

2.13.2. HDIP for non-aircrew members is $150 per month

2.13.3. Service members who otherwise meet the eligibility criteria, but who do not participate in a full calendar month of flying duty, will receive a prorated HDIP payment as follows:

2.13.3.1. Prorating the monthly HDIP is required for Service members who fail to satisfy the eligibility requirements for the pay for the entire month. The amount of HDIP authorized for qualifying service during a day or portion of a day will be the amount equal to 1/30th of the monthly amount of HDIP payable to a Service member.

2.13.3.2. Service members are first entitled to HDIP on the date they report for, and begin performing, an eligible duty in compliance with competent orders. HDIP ends on the effective date published in orders for termination of such duty or the date the Service member is detached from and is no longer required to perform the hazardous duty, whichever occurs first.

2.13.3.2.1. When a Service member begins hazardous duty on a date other than the first day of a month or terminates that duty prior to the last day of a month and otherwise meets the requirements of the pay for the month, the Service member is entitled to a prorated portion of HDIP for the month.
2.13.3.2.2. The prorated monthly amount is calculated using the daily rate to reflect the duration of the Service member’s actual qualifying service during the month.

2.14 Repayment

An officer or enlisted member who fails to fulfill the eligibility requirements of DoD Instruction (DoDI) 7730.67, Aviation Incentive Pays and Bonus Program or other conditions of service specified by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned will be subject to repayment consistent with 37 U.S.C. § 373, Chapter 2, and Volume 16 Chapter 3.

2.15 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, HDIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL.

3.0 AvIP FOR AVIATORS IN OPERATIONAL FLYING DUTY (OFD) OR PROFICIENCY FLYING DUTY (PFD) POSITIONS

3.1 General

The Secretaries of the Military Departments may offer AvIP(s) under 37 U.S.C. § 334(a) to increase their respective Department’s ability to retain officers in a military aviation career and support the recruiting and retention of individuals with military aeronautical ratings or designations.

3.2 Eligibility

The Secretary concerned may pay AvIP to aviation officers performing in OFD or PFD positions. AvIP may only be paid to an officer who:

3.2.1. Is entitled to basic pay pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 204 or to compensation under 37 U.S.C. § 206;

3.2.2. Maintains, or is in training to receive, an aeronautical rating or designation that qualifies the officer for OFD or PFD;

3.2.3. Engages in, or is in training to receive, frequent and regular performance of OFD or PFD;

3.2.4. Engages in or remains in aviation service for a specified period of time;

3.2.5. Achieves the minimum flight requirements of 4 hours during 1 calendar month or 24 hours during 6 consecutive months (the minimum flight hour requirement for RC officers not on active duty for a period of more than 30 consecutive days is 2 hours during 1 calendar month or 12 hours during 6 consecutive months). A certified flight simulator may be used to meet this requirement. The Secretary concerned may waive the minimum flight requirements:
3.2.5.1. For officers (except flight surgeons or medical officers) who meet the AvIP eligibility requirements in paragraph 3.2 while assigned to OFD or PFD positions; or

3.2.5.2. In extreme circumstances (e.g., military operations (combat or otherwise) or non-availability of aircraft), when the Secretary concerned may authorize a commanding officer to certify that an officer is unable to meet minimum flight requirements; and

3.2.6. Meets all applicable eligibility requirements and such other criteria, as the Secretary concerned determines appropriate.

*3.3 Limitations and Restrictions

3.3.1. Officers receiving HDIP pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 351(a)(2) are ineligible for AvIP.

3.3.2. Officers receiving AvIP pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 334(a), may not receive HDIP pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 351(a)(2), or skill incentive pay or proficiency bonuses pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 353, for the same skill and period of service.

3.3.3. Service members temporarily medically incapacitated will be considered qualified for aviation service unless such incapacitation continues for more than 12 months. After 365 days of incapacitation, a Service member will be disqualified from aviation service and will not be requalified until the condition resulting in incapacitation is corrected or is subject to a waiver under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. A competent medical authority must certify the Service member as medically qualified for operational flying duty (OFD) or proficiency flying duty (PFD). This guidance is only for the purposes of AvIPs and bonuses and does not otherwise restrict a Service’s authority to place an aviator in an applicable flight status.

3.3.4. Service members permanently disqualified for aviation service or otherwise determined no longer eligible for aviation service, in accordance with DoDI 7730.67, and such additional regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, are ineligible for AvIP or CSIP.

3.3.5. Service members are not authorized AvIP or CSIP payments for any periods of unauthorized absence.

*3.4 Payments and Amounts

3.4.1. The maximum amount of monthly AvIP in 37 U.S.C. § 334(c)(1)(A) is not to exceed the rate of $1,500 per month to officers while serving in an OFD or PFD assignment. Unless otherwise updated by the Assistant Secretary of Defense (ASD) in accordance with DoDI 7730.67, paragraph 2.1.b, officers performing qualifying duty or performing qualifying duty relating to unmanned aerial systems (UAS) may receive up to $1,000.

3.4.2. The monthly Army Officer AvIP Rates are listed on Table 22-6. For the most current rates, see the Monthly Army Officer Aviation Incentive Pay Rates table.
3.4.3. The monthly Navy Officer AvIP Rates are listed on Table 22-7. For the most current rates, see the Monthly Navy Officer Aviation Incentive Pay Rates table.

3.4.4. The monthly Navy AvIP Rates for Officers in Administrative Milestone Billets are listed on Table 22-8. For the most current rates, see the Monthly Navy Aviation Incentive Pay Rates for Officers in Administrative Milestone Billets table.

3.4.5. The Air Force monthly AvIP rates are calculated based upon years of aviation service (YAS) established by the Aviation Service Date and are reflected in Table 22-9. For the most current rates, see the Monthly Air Force Aviation Incentive Pay Rates table.

3.4.6. The monthly Marine Corps Officer AvIP Rates are listed on Table 22-10. For the most current rates, see the Monthly Marine Corps Officer Aviation Incentive Pay Rates table.

3.4.7. The following are exceptions to the amounts in subparagraph 3.4.2 through 3.4.6:

3.4.7.1. Warrant Officers with over 22 YAS may continue to receive AvIP at the over 10 YAS rate until retirement.

3.4.7.2. Officers performing OFD or PFD while piloting UASs with over 14 YAS may receive AvIP up to $1,000 per month up to 22 YAS.

3.4.8. AvIP for officers in aviation training will begin on the later of these two dates and will be prorated based on the number of days remaining in the month:

3.4.8.1. The date when the officer first reports to the aviation activity in which he or she will receive flight training in a specific aircraft leading to an aeronautical rating, and is placed on aeronautical orders; or

3.4.8.2. The date of commission.

3.4.9. AvIP payments for all other aviators will begin the day an officer signs in to an OFD or PFD assignment. The initial payment amount will be prorated based on the number of days remaining in the month.

3.4.10. At the discretion of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, RC officers entitled to compensation under 37 U.S.C. § 206 are eligible for AvIP. The amount authorized will be equal to 1/30th of the monthly AvIP authorized by the Military Department concerned for each period of inactive duty training.

3.5 Repayment

An officer or enlisted member who fails to fulfill the eligibility requirements of DoDI 7730.67, or other conditions of service specified by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, will be subject to repayment consistent with 37 U.S.C. § 373, and Chapter 2.
3.6 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AvIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL.

4.0 AvIP FOR AVIATORS NOT IN OFD OR PFD POSITIONS

4.1 General

The Secretaries concerned may pay AvIP to an officer who is otherwise qualified but who is not currently engaged in the performance of OFD or PFD, who meets each of the following three conditions:

4.1.1. The officer meets the eligibility criteria listed in subparagraphs 4.2.1 through 4.2.4;
4.1.2. The officer is assigned to a position listed in paragraph 4.4; and 4.1.3. The AvIP payment is in the best interest of the Military Service.

4.2 Eligibility

The Secretary concerned may pay AvIP to officers with an aeronautical rating (except flight surgeons or medical officers) with fewer than 25 YAS who are in non-OFD or PFD assignments and meet one of the following criteria:

4.2.1. Are eligible for AvIP continuously through 12 YAS;
4.2.2. Have performed at least 96 creditable months of OFD or PFD upon completion of 12 YAS. These officers are eligible for up to 18 YAS as long as they are assigned to a non-OFD or non-PFD assignment;
4.2.3. Have performed at least 120 creditable months of OFD or PFD upon completion of 18 YAS. These officers are eligible for AvIP for up to 22 YAS as long as they are assigned to a non-OFD or non-PFD assignment; or
4.2.4. Have performed at least 144 creditable months of OFD or PFD upon completion of 18 YAS. These officers are eligible for AvIP for up to 25 YAS as long as they are assigned to a non-OFD or non-PFD assignment. Aviation warrant officers may continue to receive AvIP beyond 25 YAS as long as they are assigned to an assignment in paragraph 4.4.

4.3 Limitations and Restrictions

See paragraph 3.3.
4.4 Non-OFD or Non-PFD Assignments

Qualified aviation officers (except flight surgeons or other medical officers) who meet the eligibility criteria in paragraph 4.2 may receive AvIP when assigned to any of the following non-OFD or non-PFD assignments:

4.4.1. A Joint assignment or position on the Joint Duty Assignment List;

4.4.2. Attending resident professional military education or a fully-funded graduate education program authorized by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

4.4.3. Aviation-specific positions that must be filled by officers with an aeronautical rating; or 4.4.4. Career-enhancing assignments outside of aviation or based on the needs of the Military Services for a period not to exceed 48 consecutive months.

4.5 Payments and Amounts

4.5.1. The Secretaries concerned may pay monthly AvIP to aviators who meet the YAS criteria in paragraph 4.2 and are serving in positions listed in paragraph 4.4.

4.5.2. At the discretion of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, RC officers entitled to compensation under 37 U.S.C. § 206 are eligible for AvIP. The amount authorized will be equal to 1/30th of the monthly AvIP authorized by the Military Department concerned for each period of inactive duty training.

4.6 Repayment

See paragraph 3.5.

4.7 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, AvIP For Aviators Not In OFD Or PFD Positions may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL.

5.0 CRITICAL SKILL INCENTIVE PAY (CSIP)

5.1 General

The Secretary concerned may designate a career field or skill as critical for the purposes of offering a skill incentive pay. The following specialties are designated as critical and are eligible for CSIP:

5.1.1. Qualified career enlisted members who meet the eligibility requirements in paragraph 5.2; or 5.1.2. Enlisted UAS operators who meet the eligibility requirements in paragraph 5.2.

5.2 Eligibility

CSIP is payable on a monthly basis in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 353 to a Regular or RC enlisted member who:

5.2.1. Is entitled to basic pay pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 204 or to compensation under 37 U.S.C. § 206;

5.2.2. Serves in a military career enlisted aviation occupational specialty or rating designated as critical by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

5.2.3. Qualifies for aviation service under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned; and 5.2.4. Meets other criteria the Secretary concerned deems appropriate.

5.3 Limitations and Restrictions

In addition to the limitations and restrictions prescribed in this paragraph, see paragraph 3.3.

5.3.1. Enlisted members receiving incentive payments pursuant to 37 U.S.C. §§ 301(a)(1), 301(a)(2), 301(a)(13) or 320, are ineligible for CSIP.

5.3.2. Enlisted members receiving CSIP pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 353(a), may not also receive HDIP pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 351(a)(2), for the same period of service in the same career field or skill.

5.3.3. Enlisted members may receive only one skill incentive payment in any given month for the same skill and period of service, pursuant to 37 U.S.C § 353(a).

5.3.4. Enlisted members may not receive CSIPs and proficiency bonuses, in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 353, for the same skills and periods of service.

5.3.5. Officers are not authorized CSIP.

5.4 Terms and Conditions of CSIP Written Agreements

The Secretary concerned may require a Service member to enter into a written agreement in order to qualify for a CSIP payment. The agreement must specify the period for which the Service member will receive CSIP and the monthly rate of pay.
5.5 Payments and Amounts

5.5.1. The Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned may pay monthly CSIP to eligible Service members who meet the CSIP requirements in an amount not to exceed $600 per month. See Table 22-11. For the most current rates, see the Monthly Critical Skill Incentive Pay Rates for Air Force Enlisted Flyers table.

5.5.2. If a Service member does not satisfy the eligibility requirements specified in paragraph 5.2 for an entire month, the Secretary concerned may prorate the payment amount to reflect the duration of the Service member’s actual qualifying service during the month.

5.5.3. RC Service members entitled to compensation under 37 U.S.C. § 206 are eligible for CSIP at the discretion of the Secretary concerned. The amount will be equal to 1/30th of the monthly CSIP authorized by the Military Department concerned for each period of inactive duty training.

5.6 Repayment

See paragraph 3.5.

5.7 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, CSIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table, located on DFAS.MIL, unless a CSIP agreement was entered into prior to the date on the table.

CHAPTER 23

SUBMARINE DUTY PAY

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The purpose of this chapter is to provide policy pertaining to Submarine Duty Pay for members of the Navy, as authorized by law. A member of the Navy, who is entitled to basic pay, may be paid submarine duty incentive pay for the frequent and regular performance of operational submarine duty required by orders (including on a submarine of a foreign nation).

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), including Title 37. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 INCENTIVE PAY FOR OPERATIONAL SUBMARINE DUTY

2.1 Purpose

Incentive pay for operational submarine duty is designed to recognize the arduous nature of submarine duty assignments. The Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned may establish an operational submarine duty incentive pay program to encourage volunteerism for submarine duty assignments.

2.2 Eligibility

The Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned will establish eligibility criteria based on Service-specific needs for submarine duty assignments.

2.3 Amount

The Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned will establish monthly rates, based on level of responsibility and time of submarine service. The maximum amount of operational submarine duty incentive pay per month will not exceed $1,000. The monthly rates of submarine duty pay for commissioned officers, warrant officers, and enlisted members are contained in Tables 23-1, 23-2, and 23-3. For the most current rates, see the Submarine Duty Pay Rates table on DFAS.MIL.

2.4 Definition of Terms for “Operational Submarine Duty”

2.4.1. “Operational submarine duty” means duty performed:
2.4.1.1. While assigned under competent orders to a submarine;

2.4.1.2. While serving as an operator or crew member of an operational submersible (including an undersea exploration or research vehicle);

2.4.1.3. While undergoing initial submarine training prior to assignment to a nuclear-powered submarine;

2.4.1.4. While undergoing rehabilitation training after assignment to a nuclear-powered submarine;

2.4.1.5. In the case of members qualified for the submarine service, while assigned as a member of a submarine operational command staff whose duties require serving on a submarine during underway operations:

2.4.1.5.1. During 1 calendar-month: 48 hours, except that hours served underway in excess of 48 hours as a member of a submarine operational command staff during any of the immediately preceding 5 calendar-months and not already used to qualify for incentive pay, may be applied to satisfy the 48-hour underway time requirements for the current month;

2.4.1.5.2. During any 2 consecutive calendar-months when requirements of subparagraph 2.4.1.5.1 have not been met: 96 hours; or

2.4.1.5.3. During any 3 consecutive calendar-months when requirements of subparagraph 2.4.1.5.2 have not been met: 144 hours;

2.4.1.6. While receiving training and instructions for assignment to a submarine of advanced design; or

2.4.1.7. While receiving instructions to prepare a submariner for a position of increased responsibility on a submarine.

2.4.2. The term “submarine service” means the service performed by a member under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Navy. The years of submarine service are computed beginning with the effective date of the initial order to perform submarine service.

2.5 Submarine Duty Pay Start and Stop Dates

See Table 23-4.

2.6 Submarine Operational Command Staff Members

2.6.1. General rules for meeting underway time requirements, including determination of a 2- or 3-month grace period, are substantially the same as those for flying pay. (See Chapter 22.)
2.6.2. For the fractional part of a calendar month, or fractional parts of 2 consecutive calendar months (duty begins in 1 month and ends in the following month), the underway time required, based on the requirement of 48 hours for a calendar month, will be determined from Table 23-5.

2.7 Temporary Additional Duty or Authorized Leave

A member, who is entitled to submarine duty pay, retains entitlement during periods of temporary additional duty or authorized leave. However, a submarine operational command staff member is required to fulfill the underway time requirements to retain entitlement during such periods if not otherwise entitled to continuous monthly submarine duty pay in accordance with section 3.0.

2.8 Missing Status - Member’s Entitlement

A member receiving submarine duty pay when declared missing by a competent authority is entitled to submarine duty pay during the period of absence and for the period, not to exceed 1 year, required for hospitalization and rehabilitation after termination of missing status. The member’s entitlement to submarine duty pay, upon termination of the period of eligibility, will be contingent on a determination of continued eligibility.

2.9 Restriction

2.9.1. An officer who fails selection for assignment as an executive officer or commanding officer of a submarine, or who declines to serve in either such position, may not be paid submarine duty pay except for periods during which such officer is serving on a submarine during underway operations.

2.9.2. A Service member cannot receive both continuous submarine duty pay (CONSUBPAY) and operational submarine duty incentive pay at the same time for the same period of service. When CONSUBPAY eligibility is not met, personnel may be eligible for operational submarine duty incentive pay for any period attached under orders to operational submarine duty, whether temporarily or permanently assigned.

3.0 CONTINUOUS SUBMARINE DUTY SKILL INCENTIVE PAY FOR SUBMARINE SERVICE MEMBERS

3.1 Purpose

The Navy may offer CONSUBPAY to active duty Service members who volunteer to serve in, and remain serving in, the submarine service on a career basis in a submarine duty designation or designator.
3.2 Eligibility

A member of the submarine service (as defined in subparagraph 2.4.2) may be eligible for CONSUBPAY if they meet the following requirements:

3.2.1. Hold a submarine duty designation or designator, or are in training to receive a submarine duty designation or designator;

3.2.2. Have a valid submarine service entry date and have obtained the prescribed amount of total operational submarine service (TOSS) at the completion of 12 and/or 18 years of submarine service. Prior to 12 years of service, there is no minimum TOSS requirement for CONSUBPAY;

3.2.3. Enlisted members serving ashore must maintain a sufficient period of obligated service as specified in the Office of Chief of Naval Operations Instruction (OPNAVINST) 7220.15 (including any extension of enlistment) to be able to be reassigned to submarine duty. Officers must remain qualified for follow-on submarine service while serving ashore;

3.2.4. Maintain physical qualifications for submarine service;

3.2.5. Have less than 26 years of service; and

3.2.6. Meet other applicable requirements outlined by the Secretary of the Navy.

3.3 Additional Eligibility Requirements

3.3.1. To remain eligible for CONSUBPAY through 26 years of service (excluding, in the case of an officer, any period of service as an enlisted member) a member must accumulate at least 6 years of TOSS in the first 12 years of submarine service, and at least 10 years of TOSS in the first 18 years of submarine service. However, if a member accumulates at least 8 but less than 10 years of TOSS after 18 years of submarine service, the member remains eligible for CONSUBPAY through 22 years of service (excluding, in the case of an officer, any period of service as an enlisted member).

3.3.2. If, upon completion of either 12 or 18 years of submarine service, it is determined that a member has failed to perform the minimum prescribed operational submarine duty requirements during the prescribed periods of time, the eligibility for continuous monthly submarine duty pay ceases. If continuous monthly submarine duty pay ceases upon completion of 12 years of submarine service, a member may be eligible to re-qualify for the pay if after the completion of 18 years of submarine service, the minimum operational submarine duty requirements have been met. At which time, the pay may resume for the period of time prescribed in this section. However, if entitlement to continuous monthly submarine duty pay ceases in the case of any member at the completion of either 12 or 18 years of submarine service or 26 years of service (as computed under Chapter 1, section 2.0), such member will only be eligible for operational submarine duty pay in the amount specified in section 2.0 for the performance of submarine duties while assigned to a submarine during underway operations.
NOTE: In the case of an officer, any period as an enlisted member, before initial appointment as an officer, is excluded.

3.4 Rates

The monthly rates of submarine duty pay are the same as indicated in Tables 23-1 through 23-3.

3.5 Missing Status - Member’s Entitlement

The provisions of paragraph 2.8 are applicable to submarine duty pay entitlement under this section.

3.6 Restriction

3.6.1. Pursuant to Title 37, United States Code, Section 353(h), a Service member may not be paid more than one pay under the section in any month for the same period of service and skill.

3.6.2. Service members temporarily unable to perform submarine duty due to a physical or medical condition, not the result of the member’s own misconduct, may continue to receive CONSUSBPY for a period of up to 6 months. After 6 months, CONSUSBPAY will be terminated and may not be reinstated until the condition resulting in the physical or medical restriction is corrected and the member is again certified for submarine duty by a competent Undersea Medical Officer.

3.6.3. Service members permanently disqualified or otherwise determined to be no longer eligible to perform submarine duty, are ineligible for CONSUSBPAY.

3.6.4. In accordance with the Memorandum for Assistant Secretary of the Navy (ASN) for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (M&RA), dated January 26, 2018 a Service member, who receives CONSUSBPAY and fails to satisfy the eligibility requirements for receipt of the pay, will be subject to having the pay terminated. Repayment of any unearned portion or overpayment will be in accordance with the provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373, Chapter 2, and Volume 16, Chapter 3.

NOTES:
1. Attachment to a submarine means duty as a crew member either on board the submarine, or on duty ashore during periods of rehabilitation after reporting for permanent duty as a crew member, whether to the on-ship or off-ship crew.
2. When an off-ship crew member, in a training and rehabilitation status, performs travel in connection with a change of home port of the member's submarine by means other than the submarine, member's entitlement to submarine pay continues during period in transit.
3. This rule also applies to officers, who previously qualified in submarines as enlisted members, while attending the following:
   a. Submarine Officers' Basic Course or Submarine Officers' Indoctrination Course, for the specific purpose of preparing for a position in a nuclear-powered submarine; or
   b. A course of instruction listed in the OPNAVINST 7220.15, December 28, 2005, specifically preparing them for positions of increased responsibility in nuclear-powered submarines.

CHAPTER 24

INCENTIVE PAY - HAZARDOUS DUTY OTHER THAN AERIAL FLIGHTS

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The Secretaries of the Military Departments may offer hazardous duty incentive pay (HDIP), special warfare skill incentive pay (SWSIP), or Naval special warfare (NSW) skill incentive pay (SKIP) payments to Service members who under competent orders are required to perform duties designated as hazardous, based upon the inherent dangers of the duty and the risks of physical injury. This chapter establishes the policy pertaining to the monetary incentive to Service members who perform these duties.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), Title 37. Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 ENTITLEMENT

2.1 Eligibility

In order to receive HDIP, a Regular or Reserve Component Service member must:

2.1.1. Be entitled to basic pay under 37 U.S.C. § 204 or 37 U.S.C. § 206;

2.1.2. Be serving under competent orders to perform the hazardous duty; and

2.1.3. Be in training, or have completed qualifying training and meet eligibility criteria for the performance of the hazardous duty.

*2.2 Member of the Reserve Components (RC)

2.2.1. A member of the RC on extended active duty (EAD) as defined in Chapter 57, paragraph 2.1, who is ordered to perform any of the hazardous duties listed in sections 3.0 through 13.0, is entitled to pay based on the terms of this chapter.

2.2.2. A member of the RC on active duty training (ADT), who is ordered to perform any of the hazardous duties listed in sections 3.0 through 13.0 is entitled to pay based on Table 24-1, rules 9 through 13 and Chapter 57, paragraphs 3.2 and 4.1.
2.3 Payment Method and Amounts

2.3.1. Rates. A member who qualifies for HDIP under this chapter may receive a monthly amount up to the rate prescribed for the type of duty performed. The most current rates are in the HDIP Rates table on DFAS.MIL.

2.3.2. Proration. In the case of a member of the Regular Component, HDIP commences on the date the member reports for, and begins performing an eligible duty in compliance with competent orders. Entitlement ceases on the effective date published in orders for termination of such duty or the date the member is detached from and no longer required to perform the hazardous duty, whichever occurs first. When a member commences hazardous duty on a date other than the first day of a month, or terminates that duty on a date other than the 30th of a month (28th or 29th of February, as appropriate) and otherwise meets the requirements of this chapter for the month, he or she may receive a prorated portion of pay for the month. In cases where a member does not satisfy the HDIP eligibility requirement for the entire month, the member’s pay for the qualifying service must be prorated to 1/30th of the monthly amount payable pursuant to paragraph 2.3.1. In the case of an RC member, see subparagraph 2.2.2.

2.3.3. Repayment of Unearned or Overpayment. Service member receiving an incentive pay in accordance with this chapter and fails to satisfy the eligibility requirements for receipt of pay will be subject to having the pay terminated. Repayment of any overpayment will be in accordance with the provisions of Title 37, U.S.C., section 373, DoD Financial Management Regulation, Volume 16, Chapter 3.

2.4 Multiple Payments of HDIP

Service members performing multiple hazardous duties may receive a maximum of three HDIP payments per month. Multiple HDIP is limited to those members required by orders to perform specific multiple hazardous duties necessary for successful accomplishment of the mission of the unit to which assigned. Members must meet minimum requirements for each hazardous duty, unless excepted as provided in paragraph 2.6.

2.4.1. Aviation Incentive Pay (AvIP) and HDIP. Officers entitled to AvIP and enlisted members entitled to Critical Skill Incentive Pay (CSIP), are not eligible for flying duty HDIP. In addition to flying duty HDIP, Service members may receive two additional HDIPs under the provisions of this chapter provided the conditions for entitlement have been independently met.

2.4.2. Restriction With Regard to Parachute Duty. Only one type of parachute duty payment (regular or military free fall) is authorized for a qualifying period. When a member qualifies for both types of parachute duty, the higher rate of pay is authorized. Unless otherwise restricted by Military Service regulations (for example, restrictions on manning classification), a member who qualifies for a military free fall rate for a month in which the member earlier qualified for the regular rate of parachute pay will be entitled to the difference between the monthly rate of $150 and $225.
2.5 Injury or Incapacity Resulting From Performance of Hazardous Duty

Service members qualified for HDIP who are temporarily unable to perform a hazardous duty due to an injury or illness that is not the result of the Service member’s own misconduct may continue to receive HDIP for up to 6 months. Appropriate medical authority determines the cause of the incapacity and the dates thereof.

2.5.1. Case-by-Case Exception. On a case by case basis, the Secretary concerned, or designee, may authorize an extension of HDIP payments for up to an additional 6-months, based on the recommendation of the appropriate medical authority. Under no circumstance may HDIP payments continue beyond 12 months from the date of injury or illness.

2.5.2. Termination of HDIP. HDIP will be terminated for Service members permanently disqualified or otherwise determined to be no longer eligible to perform hazardous duty by a competent medical authority.

2.5.3. Reassignment or Reclassification. Service members reassigned to a new duty assignment or specialty not eligible for HDIP will have their HDIP payments terminated on the date of reassignment or reclassification.

2.5.4. Combat Zone. If the injury or illness occurred while serving in a combat zone, hostile fire area, or imminent danger area, the Service member may continue to receive HDIP during his or her hospitalization and rehabilitation in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 372. See Chapter 13, section 2.0 for additional details.

2.6 Authority to Issue Orders

Authority of the Military Departments to issue orders requiring performance of hazardous duty is delegated by the Secretaries to specific commanders within each Military Service. These delegations are contained in personnel administrative regulations of the respective Military Services.

2.7 Missing Status - Member's Entitlement

A member receiving an HDIP listed in sections 3.0 through 14.0, when declared by competent authority to be missing (as defined in the Definitions Chapter), is entitled to HDIP during the period of absence and for any period, not to exceed 1 year, required for hospitalization and rehabilitation after termination of the missing status. The member's entitlement to HDIP, upon termination of any required period of hospitalization and rehabilitation or the 1-year period after date of return from missing status, whichever is earlier, will be contingent on a determination of continued eligibility under section 2.0 and the applicable requirements.
2.8 Duration of Authority

Unless reauthorized by Congress, HDIP, SWSIP, and NSW SKIP may not be paid after the date listed on the Duration of Authority table.

3.0 PARACHUTE DUTY

*3.1 Entitlement

3.1.1. General. Qualified members are those who have received a designation as a parachutist, including those undergoing training for such designation, who are required by competent orders to engage in parachute jumping from an aircraft in aerial flight, and who meet the minimum performance requirements.

3.1.2. Performance Requirements. For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for parachute duty HDIP set out in DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1340.09, para. 3.4.d.

3.1.3. Military Free Fall

3.1.3.1. Service members who qualify for military free fall duty must perform duty involving parachute jumping, as an essential part of their military duties, in military free fall operations where parachute deployment by the jumper occurs without the use of a static line.

3.1.3.2. Qualifying members are those who have received a designation as a military free fall parachutist, including those undergoing training for such designation; who are required by competent orders to engage in parachute jumping from an aircraft in aerial flight; and who meet the requirements of paragraph 3.1. Performance requirements must be satisfied by military free fall jumps.

3.2 Parachute Jumps-Leave, Permanent Change of Station (PCS), Temporary Duty Travel (TDY)/Temporary Additional Duty (TAD), or ADT

Qualifying jumps for entitlement to parachute pay will be performed during a period of duty requiring parachute jumping as established by competent orders. Parachute jumps performed under the following circumstances do not qualify a member for entitlement to parachute pay:

3.2.1. Parachute jumps performed by any member while on leave or during PCS or TDY/TAD not requiring parachute jumping as an essential part of the duty; and

3.2.2. Parachute jumps performed by a member of an RC while on ADT that does not require parachute jumping as an essential part of the duty.

3.3 Rates

The HDIP rates for parachute duty are:
3.3.1. HDIP for static line parachute jumping is $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate).

3.3.2. HDIP for a military freefall parachutist is $225 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate).

3.3.3. HDIP for parachute duty may be paid, provided prescribed requirements are met, only from the date of reporting for duty or training. Service members who arrive after the first day of the month or depart prior to the end of the month and are not on competent orders for a full calendar month will receive a prorated HDIP payment for those months.

4.0 FLIGHT DECK DUTY

*4.1 Entitlement

The Secretary concerned may offer flight deck HDIP (FDHIP) to Service members who under competent orders perform flight deck hazardous duty. Service members must be present, during flight operations at an assigned duty station on the flight deck of an aircraft carrier or a ship other than an aircraft carrier from which aircraft are launched and recovered during flight operations.

4.1.1. Performance Requirements. for eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for flight deck duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.g.

4.1.2. Multiple Payments. Members receiving HDIP for any other type of hazardous duty are not entitled to FDHDIP for the same period.

4.2 Specialized Terms

4.2.1. Eligible Air Capable Ship. A ship having a flight deck that has been certified to launch or land aircraft under Chief of Naval Operations ship or helicopter facility certification program.

4.2.2. Flight Operations. The period of time during which launch and recovery of aircraft are in progress on the flight deck of an eligible air capable ship. It includes the turn-up and movement of aircraft preparatory to launch and the movement and shutdown of aircraft immediately following recovery.

4.2.3. Day of Flight Operations. One day of flight operations will consist of a calendar day during which any combination of aircraft takeoffs and/or landings takes place, as specified for each ship by class in OPNAV Instruction 7220.4 series. Four days of such flight operations, or the equivalent thereof, will constitute the basic calendar month qualification criteria.

4.2.4. Equivalent of 4 Days of Flight Operations. Any single day or combination of days during a calendar month in which the number of aircraft takeoffs and/or landings equals the monthly total requirement for that class ship in OPNAV Instruction 7220.4 series will constitute the equivalent of four days of flight operations.

4.2.5. FDHD Billet. A billet that requires frequent and regular participation in flight operations on the flight deck of an eligible (certified) ship as promulgated in the OPNAV Instruction 7220.4 series.

4.2.6. Participation. Service members must be present, during flight operations, at an assigned station on the flight deck of an aircraft carrier or a ship other than an aircraft carrier from which aircraft are launched and recovered during flight operations.

4.3 Rates

FDHDIP is paid to eligible members at a rate of $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate). Service members who meet entitlement criteria, but who do not participate in a full calendar month of flight operations will receive a prorated FDHDIP payment. The prorated amount will be determined by multiplying 1/30th of the monthly FDHDIP rate by the number of days the member actually performed in an FDHD billet aboard ship for the partial month.

4.4 Commencement and Termination of FDHDIP

Eligibility for entitlement to FDHDIP begins on the date a member is ordered to duty in an FDHD billet. Entitlement eligibility ends on the date the orders to such billet are revoked, or when a member is permanently detached from the aircraft carrier, other eligible air capable ship, or aviation unit, whichever occurs first. Orders may be terminated for other reasons but not for the sole purpose of providing FDHDIP for additional members.

4.5 Right to Pay Under Certain Conditions

See Table 24-1.

5.0 DEMOLITION DUTY

5.1 Entitlement

5.1.1. Condition of Entitlement. A member entitled to basic pay, who is required by competent orders to perform duty involving the demolition of explosives, as prescribed by Military Service regulations, as a primary duty (including training for that duty), is entitled to HDIP under the conditions stated in this section.

5.1.2. Duty Involving Demolition of Explosives. Demolition duty is duty performed by members who engage in the following activities under competent orders and as a primary duty assignment:
5.1.2.1. Demolish by the use of explosive objects, obstacles, or other explosives, or recover and render harmless, by disarming or demolishing, explosives that have failed to function as intended or which have become a potential hazard;

5.1.2.2. Participate as students or instructors in instructional training, including that in the field or fleet, for the duties described in subparagraph 5.1.2.1 provided that live explosives are used in such training;

5.1.2.3. Participate in proficiency training, including that in the field or fleet, for the maintenance of skill in the duties described in subparagraph 5.1.2.1 provided that live explosives are used in such training; or

5.1.2.4. Experiment with or develop tools, equipment, or procedures for the demolition and rendering harmless of explosives, provided that live explosives are used.

5.2 Rates

HDIP for demolition duty is $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate). HDIP is payable for any full calendar month, provided the prescribed requirements are met at least one time during the calendar month, or is prorated under subparagraph 2.3.2 for any portion of a calendar month during which a member under competent orders performs demolition duty.

*5.3 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for demolition duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.e.

5.4 Right to Pay Under Certain Conditions

See Table 24-1.

6.0 EXPERIMENTAL STRESS DUTY

6.1 Entitlement

6.1.1. Condition of Entitlement. A member on active duty who is required by competent orders to perform experimental stress duty is entitled to HDIP under the conditions stated in this section.

6.1.2. Duty Involving Experimental Stress. Experimental stress duties are included in subparagraphs 6.1.2.1 through 6.1.2.4.

6.1.2.1. Human Acceleration or Deceleration Experimental Subject. Duty performed as human acceleration or deceleration experimental subjects utilizing experimental acceleration or deceleration devices.
6.1.2.2. Thermal Stress Duty. Duty performed as human thermal experimental subjects in thermal stress experiments.

6.1.2.3. Low-Pressure Chamber Duty. Duty performed within a low-pressure (altitude) chamber at physiological facilities as human test subjects, inside instructor-observer or inside observer-tender.

6.1.2.4. High-Pressure Chamber Duty

6.1.2.4.1. Duty performed within a high-pressure (hyperbaric or recompression) chamber or hyperbaric complex as a:

6.1.2.4.1.1. Human test subject for approved protocols applicable to the research, development, testing and evaluation of diving, hyperbaric and underwater-related tools, systems, equipment and procedures;

6.1.2.4.1.2. Human test subject in a recompression chamber/hyperbaric complex inside instructor-observer or inside observer-tender during the conduct of protocols; or

6.1.2.4.1.3. Human test subject in a recompression chamber/hyperbaric complex inside instructor-observer or inside observer-tender during the conduct of hyperbaric treatment or hyperbaric therapy procedures which include, but are not limited to, treatment of ailments incidental to diving and hyperbaric/hypobaric exposure.

6.1.2.4.2. For a Navy member to qualify as a human test subject, inside instructor-observer or inside observer-tender in a recompression chamber/hyperbaric complex, all of the following conditions must be met. The member must:

6.1.2.4.2.1. Possess one of the Navy Enlisted Classification/Navy Officer Billet Classification (NEC/NOBC) codes listed and be assigned by competent orders to a billet utilizing the following NEC/NOBC classifications:

6.1.2.4.2.2. Be ordered to perform additional duty as a human test subject, inside instructor-observer or inside observer-tender as described in subparagraphs 6.1.2.4.1, 6.1.2.4.2, or 6.1.2.4.3, or by the commanding officer having cognizance over the recompression chamber or hyperbaric complex; and

6.1.2.4.2.3. Either be instructing or operating Navy approved underwater breathing equipment, support systems, and recompression chambers; or observing the other individual(s) for symptoms of diving injuries/illnesses and providing appropriate treatment, as ordered by competent authority.

6.1.2.4.3. The following types of similar duties do not entitle Navy personnel to HDIP as recompression chamber/hyperbaric complex inside instructor-observers or inside observer-tenders:

6.1.2.4.3.1. Inside observer-tender and divers for surface decompression procedures incidental to the conduct of diving operations as this is considered a normal procedure related to the safe conduct of routine diving operations;

6.1.2.4.3.2. Under instruction either inside instructor-observer, inside observer-tender, or trainees that includes saturation diving procedures and hyperbaric medical related training which is considered a normal requirement to establish or maintain proficiency and/or qualifications;

6.1.2.4.3.3. Inside observer-tender or test candidates during pressure and/or oxygen tolerance tests;

6.1.2.4.3.4. Inside observer-tender, technicians or others involved in recompression chamber or hyperbaric complex preventive or corrective maintenance or during the use of a chamber or complex for the purpose of conducting preventive or corrective maintenance procedures; and 6.1.2.4.3.5. Patients undergoing hyperbaric treatment or therapy.

6.1.3. Restriction. A member is entitled to only one payment of HDIP for experimental stress duty during any 1 month.

6.2 Rates

HDIP for experimental stress duty is $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate). HDIP is payable for any full month, or is prorated in accordance with subparagraph 2.3.2 for any portion of a calendar month, during which experimental stress duty is performed under competent orders.

*6.3 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for experimental stress duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.f.

6.4 Right to Pay Under Certain Conditions

See Table 24-1.

7.0 TOXIC FUELS (OR PROPELLANTS) DUTY

7.1 Entitlement

7.1.1. A member is eligible for HDIP for duty involving the servicing of aircraft or missiles with highly toxic fuels or propellants when this duty is performed as a primary duty according to the requirements set forth in subparagraphs 7.2.1 through 7.2.4 and 7.2.7.

7.1.2. A member is eligible for HDIP for duty involving the servicing of aircraft or missiles with highly toxic fuels or propellants for the testing of aircraft or missile systems (or components of such systems) during which highly toxic fuels are used when this duty is performed as a primary duty according to the requirements listed in paragraph 7.2.

*7.2 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for toxic fuel or propellants duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.j.

7.3 Rates

HDIP for handling of toxic fuels and propellants is $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate). Service members who meet the eligibility criteria, but who do not participate in a full calendar month of duty involving toxic fuels and propellants, will receive a prorated HDIP payment.
7.4 Restriction

Authorization is based upon the performance of this primary duty that has the potential for accidental or inadvertent exposure to highly toxic fuels or propellants or related substances and not upon actual quantifiable exposure to such substances. Therefore, neither this construction of the term nor the receipt of the pay may be construed as indicating that any Service member eligible for such pay has been actually exposed to highly toxic fuels or propellants, or related substances contrary to the provisions of any statute, Executive order, rule, or regulation relating to health or safety which is applicable to the Uniformed Services.

8.0 TOXIC PESTICIDES DUTY

8.1 Entitlement

A member is eligible for HDIP for duty involving frequent and regular exposure to highly toxic pesticides when the member is assigned by competent orders to the entomology, pest control, pest management, or preventive medicine functions of a Uniformed Service for a period of 30 consecutive days or more.

*8.2 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for toxic pesticides duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.h.

8.3 Rates

HDIP for duty involving exposure to toxic pesticides is $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate). Service members who meet the eligibility criteria, but who do not participate in a full calendar month of duty involving exposure to highly toxic pesticides will receive a prorated HDIP payment.

9.0 DANGEROUS VIRUSES (OR BACTERIA) LAB DUTY

9.1 Entitlement

A member is eligible for HDIP for duty involving laboratory work that utilizes live dangerous viruses or bacteria as a primary duty.

*9.2 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for dangerous viruses or bacteria duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.i.
9.3 Rates

HDIP for laboratory duty involving dangerous viruses or bacteria is $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate). Service members who meet the eligibility criteria, but who do not participate in a full calendar month of laboratory duty utilizing live viruses or bacteria will receive a prorated HDIP payment.

10.0 CHEMICAL MUNITIONS DUTY

10.1 Entitlement

A member is eligible for HDIP for duty involving the handling of chemical munitions (or components of such munitions) as a primary duty.

*10.2 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for toxic pesticides duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.k.

10.3 Rates

HDIP for handling of chemical munitions is $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate). Service members who meet the eligibility criteria, but who do not participate in a full calendar month of duty handling chemical weapons will receive a prorated HDIP payment.

10.4 Restriction

The Secretary concerned is authorized to pay HDIP for the performance of this primary duty that has the potential for accidental exposure to chemical agents and not upon actual quantifiable exposure to such agents. Therefore, neither the construction of the term nor the receipt of pay provided for in this section may be construed as indicating that any person eligible for such pay actually has been exposed to chemical agents contrary to the provisions of any statute, Executive order, rule, or regulation relating to health and safety which is applicable to the Uniformed Services.

11.0 MARITIME VISIT, BOARD, SEARCH, SEIZURE (VBSS) DUTY

11.1 Entitlement

The Secretary concerned may offer an HDIP to members who under competent orders perform duty in VBSS billets that require frequent and regular participation in VBSS operations aboard vessels in support of maritime interdiction operations.
11.2 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for maritime VBSS duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.1.

11.3 Rates

HDIP for VBSS is a monthly rate of $150.00 (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate). Service members are eligible for HDIP for VBSS operations and may be paid a full month’s VBSS HDIP during any calendar month in which the Service member serves in such a billet and conducts the minimum number of boarding operations.

12.0 POLAR REGION FLIGHT OPERATIONS DUTY

12.1 Entitlement

A member is eligible for HDIP for duty involving the use of ski-equipped aircraft on the ground in Antarctica or on the Arctic Ice-Pack.

*12.2 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for polar region flight operations duty HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.m.

12.3 Rates

HDIP for polar region flight operations duty is $150.00 per month (see the HDIP Rates table for the most current rate).

13.0 WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION CIVIL SUPPORT (WMDCS) TEAM

13.1 Entitlement

The Secretary concerned may pay HDIP to RC Service members assigned to WMDCS teams.

*13.2 Performance Requirements

For eligibility, the member must meet the performance requirements for WMDCS team HDIP set out in DoDI 1340.09, para. 3.4.n.

13.3 Rates

HDIP for RC Service members assigned to a WMDCS team is $150 per month (see the HDIP Rates for the most current rate). Service members who meet the eligibility criteria, but who do not participate in a full calendar month as a WMDCS team member, will receive a prorated HDIP payment.

14.0 DIVING DUTY HDIP

See Chapter 11 for diving duty eligibility criteria, requirements, and rates.

*15.0 SPECIAL WARFARE SKILL INCENTIVE PAY (SWSIP)

15.1 Entitlement

The Air Force may pay a monthly skill incentive pay to Airmen qualified and serving as an Air Force Special Warfare (AFSPECWAR) Airmen. AFSPECWAR Airmen conduct operations in the ground domain in contested, denied, operationally limited, and permissive environments under severe environmental conditions.

15.2 Performance Requirements

15.2.1. AFSPECWAR Airmen must serve in one the following seven critical Air Force Specialty Codes (AFSC):

15.2.1.1. Pararescue (1Z1XX);
15.2.1.2. Combat Control (1Z2XX);
15.2.1.3. Tactical Air Control Party (1Z3XX);
15.2.1.4. Special Reconnaissance (1Z4XX);
15.2.1.5. Special Tactics Officer (19ZXA);
15.2.1.6. Tactical Air Control Party Officer (19ZXB); or 15.2.1.7. Combat Rescue Officer (19ZXC).

15.2.2. The Air Force may offer skill incentive pay to AFSPECWAR Airmen who:

15.2.2.2. Serve in one of the AFSPECWAR Airmen AFSCs listed in subparagraph 15.2.1.

15.2.2.3. Meet all applicable eligibility requirements for performance of skill incentive pay as outlined in the Assistance Secretary of Defense (ASD) Memo for Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (M&RA) and any other criteria established by the Secretary of the Air Force in accordance with Air Force publications:
15.2.2.3.1. Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 10-3500V1, Air Force Special Warfare Training Program, dated June 1, 2022, Table A2.1 and A2.2 for critical skills (parachute, dive, demolition, and aerial flight); and 15.2.2.3.2. Department of the Air Force Guidance Memorandum to AFMAN 10-409-O, Support to Adaptive Planning, dated June 15, 2021.

15.2.2.4. Have completed the requisite training and maintain necessary qualifications for the performance of Special Warfare Airmen critical skills required by the Secretary of the Air Force in accordance with the Air Force “Force Generation and Force Presentation (AFFORGEN) model.”

15.2.2.5. Meet medical and physical requirements for deployment or be granted a waiver for deployment purposes.

15.2.2.6. AFSPECWAR Airmen assigned to designated career-broadening assignments (e.g., Headquarters staff, recruiting, and instructor duties) may continue to receive SWSIP for up to 24 months as long as they meet SWSIP qualifications at the time they report to their career-broadening assignment. After 24 months, Airmen must recertify in their SWSIP skills within 180 days or SWSIP will be discontinued and any payments received after 24 months will be subject to repayment in accordance with provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373.

15.2.2.7. AFSPECWAR Airmen may continue to receive SWSIP provided they meet SWSIP eligibility criteria while attending Professional Military Education Courses, during contingency deployment, while on authorized leave, and while in route to their next AFSPECWAR duty assignment.

15.3 Rates

15.3.1. SWSIP is paid to eligible members at an amount not to exceed $615 per month. If a Service members satisfies the eligibility requirements only for part of the month, the Secretary of the Air Force will prorate the payment amount to reflect the duration of the member’s qualifying service during the month. Reserve component members may be eligible for SWSIP at the discretion of the Secretary of the Air Force. The daily amount authorized will be equal to 1/30th of the monthly SWSIP rate for each period of inactive duty for training.

15.3.2. See SWSIP Tables 24-3 and 24-4 detailing how SWSIP will be paid.

15.4 Restriction

The following limitations and restrictions apply for receipt of SWSIP:

15.4.1. Service members may not receive a bonus or incentive pay pursuant to Subchapter I and Subchapter II of Chapter 5, of Title 37, U.S.C., for the same activity, skill, or period of service.
15.4.2. Service members receiving incentive payments pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 334 or 37 U.S.C. § 334a are not eligible for SWSIP for the same skill or period of service.

15.4.3. Service members may not be paid skill incentive pay or proficiency bonuses pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 353, and hazardous duty pay under 37 U.S.C. § 351(a)(2), for the same period of service in the same career field or skill.

15.4.4. Service members may not be paid more than one pay under 37 U.S.C. § 353, in any month for the same period of service and skill.

15.4.5. Service members temporarily unable to perform the skills of an AFSPECWAR Airman due to a medical restriction, not the result of the member’s own misconduct, may continue to receive SWSIP for up to 12 months, provided the member met the eligibility criteria within the 30 days that occurred prior to the injury or illness. If the restriction persist beyond 365 days or the member is no longer certified to perform the AFSPECWAR Airman duties, SWSIP payments will terminate and may not resume until the condition resulting in medical restriction is corrected and the member is certified to resume AFSPECWAR Airmen duties by a competent medical authority. The Secretary of the Air Force may, on a case-by-case basis, authorize a one-time extension of SWSIP for up to 90 days (beyond the initial 365 days). Extensions beyond 90 days must be forwarded to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs for approval. All extension requests will include a description of the injury, current prognosis and treatment technique, expected date of full recovery and resumption of AFSPECWAR Airman duties, as well as an endorsement recommendation from the Air Force Surgeon General or designee.

15.4.6. Service members permanently disqualified or otherwise determined to be no longer eligible to perform the duties of an AFSPECWAR Airman, are ineligible for SWSIP.

15.4.7. Service members are not authorized SWSIP payments for any periods of unauthorized absence.

16.0 NAVAL SPECIAL WARFARE (NSW) SKILL INCENTIVE PAY (SKIP)

16.1 Entitlement

The Navy may pay a monthly skill incentive pay to Service members qualified and serving as NSW Operators pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 353. NSW Operators perform clandestine paradrop, maritime, and land-based special operations in austere conditions in order to provide to the United States and its allies tailored capabilities. NSW SKIP will be used in lieu of hazardous duty incentive pays to minimize costly training interruptions in the NSW inter-deployment training cycle (IDTC), minimize the strain on force Personnel Tempo System during the IDTC and remove financial disincentives associated with NSW Operators seeking medical care.

16.2 Performance Requirements

16.2.1. The term NSW Operator encompasses the following critical Navy enlisted classifications (NECs) and officer designator codes:
16.2.1.1. Sea-air-land (SEAL) delivery vehicle (SDV), operator (023X);

16.2.1.2. SEAL special warfare operator (O26X);

16.2.1.3. SEAL special warfare officer (113X);

16.2.1.4. SEAL special warfare warrant operator (715X);

16.2.1.5. Special warfare combatant-craft crewman (SWCC) operator (052X); and 16.2.1.6. SWCC warrant officer (717X).

16.2.2. The NSW SKIP is payable to active duty, and training and administration of Reserve operators only, on a monthly basis, who meet all of the following criteria in subparagraph 16.2.2.1 through 16.2.2.6.

16.2.2.2. Be serving in one of the NSW operators NECs or officer designator codes listed in subparagraphs 16.2.1.1 through 16.2.1.6.

16.2.2.3. Completed all the required training and maintained eligibility for designation as an NSW operator.

16.2.2.4. Completed the requisite training necessary to perform parachute duty and (if necessary) qualification training for demolition and diving duty.

16.2.2.5. Meet the medical and physical requirements for deployment or granted a waiver by the Secretary of the Navy.

16.2.2.6. Be assigned to commands that complete NSW IDTC (e.g., SEAL team, SDV team, special boat team, NSW training detachment), or meet the minimum semi-annual currency requirements as listed by the rating and qualifications in the NSW SKIP Currency and Payment Levels table (Table 24-4).

16.2.3. NSW operators will continue to receive NSW SKIP while in school, NSW IDTC, on leave, or en route to next assignment as long as they continue to meet the eligibility criteria listed in subparagraphs 16.2.2.1 through 16.2.2.6. Contact the OPNAV, Naval Special Warfare Program Management Branch (N137) for partial payment information.

16.2.4. NSW operators who receive NSW SKIP under this guidance and fail to satisfy the eligibility requirements will be subject to having their pay terminated. Repayment of any overpayment will be in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 373.

16.2.5. Reserve NSW operators (1135) will receive NSW SKIP if recalled to fulfill orders that are 1 year or longer. Jump, dive, and demolition payments may be paid to NSW reservists with orders under a year and have met currency requirements per the NSW SKIP Currency and Payment Levels listed in Exhibit 1.

16.3 NSW Pay Levels and Qualifications

Enlisted pay rates will be administered according to NECs and qualifications. Officer pay rates will be administered according to designators and qualifications. Pay will be stopped by the commanding officer’s (CO) decertification, NEC or designator removal, terminal leave, or lateral transfer out of the NSW community. Levels and qualifications are as follows:

16.3.1. SDV Operator Holding NEC 023X

16.3.1.1. SEAL enlisted SDV operators must be qualified and current in all of the following duties:

16.3.1.1.1. Military parachuting operations including static line and or military free-fall,

16.3.1.1.2. Combat diving (open circuit self-contained underwater breathing apparatus (SCUBA) and or closed circuit) operations, and 16.3.1.1.3. Demolition and explosive breaching operations with live explosive material as an essential part of required duties.

16.3.2. Special Warfare Operator Holding NEC 026X, SEAL Warrant Officer Holding Designator 715X, SEAL Officer Holding Designator 113X

16.3.2.1. SEAL enlisted operators, SEAL Officers, and SEAL warrant officers must be qualified and current in all of the following duties:

16.3.2.1.1. Military parachuting operations including static line and or military free-fall,

16.3.2.1.2. Combat diving (open circuit SCUBA and or closed circuit) operations, and 16.3.2.1.3. Demolition and explosive breaching operations with live explosive material as an essential part of required duties.

16.3.3. Special Warfare Boat Operator Holding NEC 052X and Special Warfare Combatant-Craft Crewman Warrant Officer Holding Designator 717X

SWCC enlisted operators and SWCC warrant officers must be qualified and current in military parachuting operations including static line and or military free-fall.
16.4 Rates

The Navy may pay monthly NSW SKIP to qualified Service members who meet the NSW SKIP eligibility requirements in an amount not to exceed $715 per month. See the NSW SKIP Currency and Payment Levels (Table 24-4) for the monthly pay rate. If a Service member does not satisfy the eligibility requirements specified for an entire month, the Secretary of the Navy will prorate the payment amount to reflect the duration of the member’s actual qualifying service during the month. Qualified Reserve Component members who meet the NSW SKIP eligibility requirements, and are entitled to compensation pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 206, may be eligible for NSW SKIP at the discretion of the Secretary of the Navy. The daily amount authorized will be equal to 1/30th of the monthly NSW SKIP rate for each period of inactive duty for training.

16.5 Restrictions

The following limitations and restrictions apply for receipt of NSW SKIP:

16.5.1. Service members may not be paid NSW SKIP and jump, dive, or demolition duty pays for the same period of service.

16.5.2. Service members may not be paid more than one NSW SKIP in any month for the same period of service.

16.5.3. Service members temporarily unable to perform the skills of an NSW operator due to a medical restriction that is not the result of the Service member’s own misconduct may continue to receive NSW SKIP for up to 12 months, provided the Service member met the eligibility criteria for the pay within 30 days prior to the injury or illness. If the restriction persists beyond 12 months or the Service member is no longer certified to perform the NSW operator skill, NSW SKIP payments will terminate and may not resume until the condition, which resulted in the medical restriction, is corrected and the Service member is certified to resume NSW operator duties by the appropriate medical authority. The Secretary of the Navy may, on a case-by-case basis, authorize a one-time extension of NSW SKIP for up to 90 days beyond the initial 12 months. Extensions beyond 90 days must be forwarded to the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs for approval.

16.5.4. COs in the pay grade of O-5 or above may waive the jump requirements for one jump during a 12-month period due to non-availability of jump equipment or aircraft, inclement weather, or while attending a military education or training of less than 179 days. Service members must maintain their proficiency through refresher training in lieu of jumping in order to retain eligibility for NSW SKIP pay during the waived period.

16.5.5. COs in the paygrade of O-5 or above may waive jump, dive, and demolition currency requirements for joint individual augmentations and any global force management assignment that requires a member to deploy where operations or equipment do not permit execution of jump, dive, and demolition training.

NOTES:

1. Performance of hazardous duty while on leave cannot be counted for pay purposes.
2. Orders to perform hazardous duty remain in effect when member is being reassigned PCS successively to hazardous duty. If the member cannot be immediately assigned to a hazardous duty position at a new station, orders to perform such duty will be terminated effective the date of arrival at new duty station and HDIP stopped as of that date. When successive assignment does not require hazardous duty as an essential part of military duty at the new permanent duty station, orders to perform such duty will be terminated effective the date of departure from old duty station (or TDY point if performance of hazardous duty is required as an essential part of military duty at the TDY point) and HDIP stopped as of that date. When effective date in the orders terminating hazardous duty is other than the last day of a calendar month and that month's performance requirements have been met, the month's hazardous duty pay will be prorated per subparagraph 2.3.2.
3. Parachute pay may not be paid beyond the last day of the calendar month for which requirements are met.
4. ADT includes annual training, special tours of ADT, school tours, and the initial tour performed by enlistees without prior military service.
5. HDIP entitlement for ADT includes time allowed for necessary travel from home to first duty station (See Chapter 1).
6. HDIP for IDT is paid per Chapter 58.

Note 2: In order to qualify for special pay for NSWSKIP, NSW operators are considered qualified if they have conducted minimum requirements in the previous block.

Note 3: SEAL enlisted operators who get commissioned will continue to receive the same NEC NSW SKIP pay level they received prior to commissioning until they complete the Junior Officer Training Course (JOTC). After completing JOTC and their officer designator is changed from 1180 to 1130, the officer will begin receiving the 113X NSW SKIP pay level.

CHAPTER 25

SUBSISTENCE AND BASIC NEEDS ALLOWANCES

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

Each member of a uniformed service entitled to basic pay is entitled to Subsistence and Basic Needs Allowances subject to the conditions set forth in this chapter.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The policies and requirements established by DoD for the allowances in this chapter are derived primarily from and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code, sections 402, 402a and 402b (37 U.S.C. § 402, 402a and 402b). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 BASIC ALLOWANCE FOR SUBSISTENCE (BAS)

2.1 Eligibility

Unless otherwise restricted as described in paragraph 2.3, a member becomes entitled to one of the following monthly BAS rates based upon their rank and circumstances.

2.1.1. Officer BAS. A single rate of BAS applies to all officers.

2.1.2. BAS for Enlisted Members. An enlisted member is not entitled to BAS during basic training. Enlisted members are entitled to one of the following BAS rates.

2.1.2.1. Enlisted BAS. Enlisted BAS is the monthly standard rate that is payable to enlisted members unless they qualify for, and proper authority approves, BAS II.

2.1.2.2. Enlisted BAS II. Enlisted BAS II is the monthly rate that may be payable to members on duty at a permanent station and assigned to single (unaccompanied) Government quarters, which do not have adequate food storage or preparation facilities, and where a Government mess is not available, and the Government cannot otherwise make meals available. The BAS II rate is twice the rate of standard enlisted BAS. BAS II may be paid to enlisted members of the Navy assigned to vessels in a pre-commissioning status or who otherwise meet criteria set forth in the Military Personnel Manual (MILPERMAN) 7220-182. The Air Force has authorized payment of BAS II to members at specific locations.
2.1.3. Continuity of Enlisted BAS Entitlement

2.1.3.1. Enlisted members continue their existing BAS entitlement without interruption upon discharge or retirement, if reenlistment or recall to active duty is completed at the same station within 24 hours.

2.1.3.2. Enlisted members continue their existing BAS entitlement without interruption during weekends, holidays, administrative absence, pass, or liberty (not including leave).

2.2 Payment

2.2.1. Rates. The rates for BAS are listed in Table 25-1, for the most current rates, see BAS table on DFAS.MIL.

2.2.2. Enlisted BAS in Specific Situations. The following policy will be used in determining whether BAS or BAS II applies in specific situations:

2.2.2.1. Enlisted BAS rates will be applied uniformly for all enlisted members under similar conditions permanently assigned to the same installation, station, base, or ship. The installation commander/commanding officer will ensure the uniform application of BAS rates for members under similar conditions, whether from a single Service or more than one Service. If there is conflict between Service directives that prevents uniform application of BAS, the commander/commanding officer will report the differences, through appropriate channels, to the Secretaries of the Military Departments concerned, who will confer to ensure uniform determinations on the authorized BAS rate.

2.2.2.2. Enlisted members on authorized leave (including proceed time, authorized delays enroute between duty stations chargeable as leave, and convalescent leave) are entitled to the standard enlisted BAS rate, regardless of the BAS rate authorized at their Permanent Duty Station (PDS).

2.2.2.3. Enlisted members performing Permanent Change of Station (PCS) travel (including Temporary Additional Duty or Temporary Duty (TAD/TDY)) enroute under orders away from their designated post of duty are entitled to the standard enlisted BAS rate, regardless of the BAS type authorized at their previous or subsequent PDS.

2.2.2.4. Enlisted members receiving BAS II at their PDS who are hospitalized or performing regular or permissive TAD/TDY (including field duty, sea duty, Essential Unit Messing (EUM), or members traveling together with limited or no per diem travel) under orders away from their PDS will revert to standard enlisted BAS for the period of hospitalization or absence from the PDS.

2.2.2.5. Enlisted members will be entitled to the standard enlisted BAS rate for any day they are under orders for leave or PCS travel. This includes the day of commencement and day of termination of the status under those orders.
2.2.2.6. Enlisted members who change BAS status at the direction or by permission of a commander, under blanket authority, or at the member’s request will have the entitlement change take effect at the beginning of the day specified in writing by the commander.

2.2.3. Advance Payments. Specific circumstances for advance payment of BAS are contained in Chapter 32, paragraph 2.5.

2.2.4. Effect on Overseas Station Allowances. BAS is paid in conjunction with the overseas Cost-Of-Living Allowances (COLA) authorized by the Joint Travel Regulations.

2.3 Restrictions

2.3.1. Military members are not entitled to BAS of any type under the following conditions:

2.3.1.1. When undergoing Basic Military Training, including initial officer training (Officer Candidate School, Officer Training School), except when the member has continuous prior enlisted service (active or reserve). Members will be subsisted-in-kind while attending initial basic military training;

2.3.1.2. When in an excess leave status;

2.3.1.3. When in an absent-without-leave status, in excess of 24 hours, unless the absence is excused as unavoidable;

2.3.1.4. When on an approved educational leave of absence not exceeding 2 years;

2.3.1.5. When a member with no dependents is training for, attending, or participating in Pan American games, Olympic games, or other specifically authorized international amateur sport competitions and the sponsoring agency subsists them during that period; or

2.3.1.6. When a court-martial sentence imposes forfeiture of pay and allowances.

2.3.2. Enlisted members are not authorized BAS II when a government mess is temporarily closed for less than 14 days or when a member is on leave, assigned temporary duty (TAD/TDY), or in the hospital.

2.4 Government Provided Meals

2.4.1. A military member being paid BAS must pay for all meals or rations provided by or on behalf of the Government, except as provided in subparagraph 2.4.2. This is a personal obligation of the individual. Meals or rations may be paid with cash tendered to the Government mess by the member or, under certain circumstances, the amount owed may be collected/deducted from the member’s travel per diem (a member under orders for EUM has no entitlement to subsistence travel per diem), or from the member’s pay account. When payment is made from a pay account, the payment is not considered a deduction from or reduction of the entitled BAS; rather it is a collection for a debt owed to the Government (see Table 25-2).

2.4.2. A member is not required to pay for meals provided while the member undergoes medical recuperation or therapy, or is otherwise in the status of continuous care, including outpatient care, at a military treatment facility for an injury, illness or disease incurred while the member was on active duty:

2.4.2.1. In support of Operation Enduring Freedom, Operation Iraqi Freedom, Operation New Dawn, Operation Freedom’s Sentinel; or

2.4.2.2. In any other operation designated by the Secretary of Defense as a combat operation or in an area designated by the Secretary as a combat zone.

2.4.3. Mandatory pay account collection may be imposed for enlisted members in certain situations. These are circumstances where it is not feasible to control dining access or collect cash due to operational constraints or where efficiency of operation requires collection for all meals. When a commander/commanding officer requires mandatory pay account collection, the collection will be made for all meals available, whether the meals are actually eaten or not. Mandatory collections are made day-for-actual-day, not on a 30-day month basis. Unless the member is receiving a per diem for subsistence, the collection will be at the discount meal rate.

2.4.3.1. Mandatory pay account collection may be required in the following situations:

2.4.3.1.1. Field duty;
2.4.3.1.2. Sea duty;
2.4.3.1.3. Members traveling together with limited or no per diem travel;
2.4.3.1.4. Accession Pipeline Military Training;
2.4.3.1.5. EUM; or
2.4.3.1.6. Essential Station Messing (ESM).

2.4.3.2. Mandatory pay account collection for meals does not apply to the following:

2.4.3.2.1. Members on official leave, in a PCS status (including travel time and proceed time), in a military treatment facility, or on TAD/TDY other than TAD/TDY to another situation requiring mandatory pay account collection for meals. In these instances, pay account collections will be suspended or adjusted with a credit and the Government mess will be responsible for collecting from the member for any meals served.
2.4.3.2.2. Members who have missed more than 20 percent of meals on a monthly basis due to assigned duties, as certified by the commanding officer/commander or their designee. Collections will be suspended or adjusted with a credit.

2.4.3.3. Pay account collections will be at 25-percent of the discount meal rate for the first and last day of assignment in situations requiring mandatory collection. A member transitioning directly between two mandatory meal collection situations will be treated as though the collection period were continuous and will not receive the 25-percent reduced charge for the transition. The 25-percent reduced meal charge does not apply for leave periods. Full collections will be made on the duty days before and after the leave period.

2.4.4. In circumstances other than those requiring mandatory pay account collection, members receiving BAS will pay for meals provided by or on behalf of the Government by using cash or by collection/reduction of subsistence per diem from their travel claims. Members on Joint Task Force operations under per diem travel orders usually will have the subsistence portion of their per diem withheld or deducted from their travel reimbursement as payment for meals provided in theater. Members deployed on regular TAD/TDY travel who receive deductible meals (meals at “no cost”) will have the subsistence portion of their per diem reduced as payment for meals provided by or on behalf of the Government.

2.4.5. The standard meal rate applies unless there is a specific exception allowing application of the discount meal rate. Members actually paid subsistence per diem for meals must pay the standard meal rate unless the per diem is withheld or disallowed as payment for the meals.

2.4.6. Members being subsisted by or on behalf of the Government, where no other collection means exists or where normal collections were not made, may have a collection for meals made through their pay account at the appropriate rate upon proper documentation for a debt owed to the Government.

2.4.7. Collections from individual pay accounts for meals and rations provided by the Government or on behalf of the Government will be credited to the appropriation specified by each Military Service.

*2.5 Specialized Terms

2.5.1. ESM. Messing declared by the installation, base, or station commander responsible for single Government quarters that is essential to operate the Government mess efficiently and economically, or that is necessary for the health and safety of enlisted personnel permanently assigned to single quarters. Those categories of enlisted members included in ESM will be charged for all meals made available whether eaten or not, except for approved missed meals.

2.5.2. EUM. Group messing that is declared by an appropriate authority to be necessary for operational readiness, military operations, or effective training where members are required to eat Government–furnished meals. Members will be in a travel status and are entitled to travel reimbursement for incidental expenses, but not for subsistence. Designation for EUM will apply only to organizational units and to operational elements and detachments, not to individual members. All members on duty under circumstances where EUM has been declared will be charged for all meals made available whether eaten or not, except for approved missed meals.

2.5.3. Field Duty. Any maneuvers, war games, field exercises, or similar operations where a member is assigned to a unit being subsisted in a dining facility operated by or on behalf of the U.S. Government or with an organization drawing field rations. Members may be on per diem orders.

2.5.4. Sea Duty. Service performed in a self-propelled vessel with berthing and messing facilities that is in an active status, in commission, or in service. This term applies to members who are either permanent party or aboard for TAD/TDY. All members on sea duty, not a member of an authorized private mess, will be charged for all meals made available whether eaten or not, subject to approved missed meals.

2.5.5. Government Furnished Meals. A condition in which meals or rations are furnished without charge by a Government contractor or a foreign government, or through a fellowship, grant, or intern program while a member is receiving basic pay, either under the terms of a contract or agreement or on a complimentary basis. Unless a member is entitled to be subsisted-in-kind, subsistence provided on behalf of the Government must be charged to the member.

2.5.6. Subsisted-in-Kind. Meals or rations furnished at no charge to members not entitled to BAS from a Government Mess or who are subsisted at no charge on behalf of the Government.

3.0 FAMILY SUPPLEMENTAL SUBSISTENCE ALLOWANCE (FSSA)

3.1 General Provisions

The FSSA program was established to supplement a member’s BAS to a level sufficient to remove the member’s household from or eliminate the need for benefits under the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), formerly known as the food stamp program. FSSA is payable at a monthly rate as determined by the Military Service concerned under the guidance provided by the Secretary of Defense and may not exceed $1,100 per month. FSSA is a nontaxable allowance payable in addition to, all other pays and allowances. Applicable definitions are found at DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1341.11, E2.

3.2 Eligibility

FSSA is payable to any officer or enlisted member of the Armed Forces who meets all of the following criteria:

3.2.1. Is serving on active duty and receiving BAS;

3.2.2. Has a household income, including military income of the member, and any other household income that would make the member eligible for assistance under the USDA SNAP program for the member’s household size;
3.2.3. Has at least one person in the member’s household who is a military dependent;

3.2.4. Has made an application for and been certified at a specific payment level by the appropriate office; and

3.2.5. After September 30, 2016, is serving outside the United States, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the U.S. Virgin Islands, or Guam.

*3.3 Entitlement

FSSA is a monthly entitlement payable in whole dollar amounts not to exceed $1,100. It is not payable to any member, otherwise entitled, during periods in a non-pay status.

3.3.1. FSSA is payable in an amount that would bring the member’s household income to 130 percent of the Federal poverty guidelines (FPG) as established by the USDA, but not to exceed $1,100.

3.3.2. For periods of less than a full month of entitlement, the FSSA is payable at 1/30 of the monthly amount for each eligible day served.

3.3.3. If an eligible member is receiving SNAP benefits and the amount of the member’s SNAP allotment exceeds the amount of the FSSA calculated under subparagraph 3.3.1, the member’s FSSA entitlement will be equal to the lesser of the value of the SNAP allotment or $1,100.

3.4 Military Income

3.4.1. For the FSSA program, the following sources of revenue will be counted as military income:

3.4.1.1. Basic Pay;

3.4.1.2. BAS;

3.4.1.3. Basic Allowance for Housing or cash equivalent for those who are living in Government-provided housing;

3.4.1.4. Overseas Housing Allowance (OHA). When a member lives in Government quarters while stationed overseas, the amount of the housing allowance to count as income for that member is the OHA ceiling for the local area;

3.4.1.5. All bonuses. The monthly amount of military income attributable to a bonus will be the amount of the bonus, prorated over the period of time to which bonus is applicable; and
3.4.1.6. All special and incentive pays except those excluded in subparagraph 3.4.2.

3.4.2. The following sources of revenue will not be counted as military income:

3.4.2.1. Hostile Fire Pay;

3.4.2.2. Imminent Danger Pay;

3.4.2.3. Continental United States COLA;

3.4.2.4. Overseas COLA;

3.4.2.5. Family Separation Allowance;

3.4.2.6. Clothing Allowances; and

3.4.2.7. All travel and transportation related allowances and entitlements.

3.5 Application and Certification

Members must apply for the FSSA program with the appropriate organizational element as designated by their respective Service. The appropriate Service organization will make all decisions regarding eligibility and the amount of entitlement and will provide final certification for payment to include the entitlement start date.

3.6 Recertification and Termination

3.6.1. When any of the following events occur, in order to avoid termination of FSSA, a member receiving FSSA must report the event to the Service certifying organization within 30 days for recertification of FSSA eligibility:

3.6.1.1. Member’s monthly gross household income (GHI) increases by $100 or more;

3.6.1.2. Member’s household size decreases;

3.6.1.3. Member is promoted. The certification ends the day prior to the effective date of promotion;

3.6.1.4. Member executes a PCS move. The certification ends the day prior to the date the member officially reports for duty at the new duty station; and

3.6.1.5. Members are required to re-certify annually effective February 1 of each year.
3.6.2. The effective date of recertification will be the day following the last day of the previous certification period.

3.6.3. If during recertification it is determined that the member’s monthly gross household income increased by an amount greater than $100 more than 30 days prior to reapplication, the difference between the amount of the current entitlement and the amount being recertified (if less) will be recouped. The recoupment amount is calculated on a pro rata basis for each day, following the date the increased income exceeded $100 through the effective date of the recertification.

3.6.4. When a member’s eligibility is not timely recertified, eligibility for FSSA will be lost, and the date for termination of the entitlement will be the date of the event requiring recertification. An untimely recertification will be treated as an initial application.

*4.0 BASIC NEEDS ALLOWANCE (BNA)

4.1 General

4.1.1. Applicability

This section applies to Military Departments (including the Coast Guard at all times, including when it is a Service in the Department of Homeland Security by agreement with that Department), the Office of the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff, the Combatant Commands, the Office of Inspector General of the DoD, the Defense Agencies, the DoD Field Activities, and all other organizational entities within the DoD (referred to collectively in this section as the “DoD Components”).

4.1.2. Policy

Pursuant to 37 U.S.C. § 402b, BNA must be made available to each member in accordance with the eligibility criteria specified in this section.

4.2 Procedures

4.2.1. General

The BNA program provides a monthly allowance for members who voluntarily apply and whose GHI and household size place them below 150 percent of the FPG for their geographical location effective July 1, 2023. For the time period January 1, 2023 to June 30, 2023, the applicable percentage was 130 percent. The Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) periodically updates the FPG in the Federal Register in accordance with 42 U.S.C. § 9902. Refer to DoDI 1341.15 for applicable definitions of GHI, household and other terms used in this section.

4.2.2. Eligibility

4.2.2.1. Eligible Members. Active duty members with dependents are eligible for BNA and may be certified if:
4.2.2.1.1. They have completed initial entry training (IET).

4.2.2.1.2. Their GHI during the most recent calendar year (i.e., the calendar year immediately preceding the year they apply for BNA) did not exceed 150 percent of the FPG for such year, as published by the HHS for their location and the number of individuals in their household.

4.2.2.1.3. They have voluntarily applied for the BNA and provided the required information to determine eligibility, and if found eligible, they will be considered a certified applicant.

4.2.2.1.4. They are not ineligible for the allowance pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.2.2 or subparagraph 4.2.2.3.

4.2.2.2. Ineligible Members. Active duty members are ineligible for BNA if:

4.2.2.2.1. Their GHI during the most recent calendar year exceeded 150 percent of the FPG for such year, as published by the HHS for their location and the number of individuals in their household;

4.2.2.2.2. They do not have dependents;

4.2.2.2.3. They are a cadet at the United States Military Academy, the United States Air Force Academy, or the Coast Guard Academy; a midshipman at the United States Naval Academy; or a cadet or midshipman serving elsewhere in the Military Services;

4.2.2.2.4. They have not completed IET;

4.2.2.2.5. Having been notified of potential BNA eligibility, they fail to submit a BNA application within 180 calendar days or a submission deadline established by the implementing guidance published by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard, as applicable; or 4.2.2.2.6. They elect in writing not to receive the allowance.

4.2.2.3. Special BNA Eligibility Considerations

4.2.2.3.1. Households with Multiple Eligible Members. When a household contains multiple members determined to be eligible to receive BNA pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.2.1, only one allowance may be received. The household’s members must jointly elect which eligible member must receive the allowance.

4.2.2.3.2. Automatic Ineligibility of Members Receiving Certain Income Increases. A member determined to be eligible to receive BNA pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.2.1 will be considered automatically ineligible if their monthly GHI increases as a result of a promotion or other permanent increase to pay or allowances, to include entry into active service, to an amount that, on an annualized basis, would exceed the limit described in subparagraph 4.2.2.1.2. If the member is receiving BNA, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must inform them that they are ineligible and payment of the allowance must terminate 60 calendar days after the date of ineligibility. Pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.9, the certified member must report changes in GHI to the BNA certifying official to be reviewed and re-certified.

4.2.2.3.3. Ineligibility Due to Changes in Income as a Result of Disciplinary Action. If a member’s previous calendar year GHI was reduced due to a fine, forfeiture, or reduction in rank imposed as a part of disciplinary action or an action in accordance with 10 U.S.C. Chapter 47, also known as the Uniform Code of Military Justice, they are not eligible for BNA solely due to the fine, forfeiture, or reduction in rank. A member described in this subparagraph who is:

4.2.2.3.3.1. Reinstated to the pay grade held before any reduction in rank may become eligible for BNA, provided they are otherwise eligible pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.2.

4.2.2.3.3.2. In receipt of BNA at the time of the fine, forfeiture, or reduction in rank may retain eligibility to BNA if they are otherwise eligible for the allowance pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.2., notwithstanding any fine, forfeiture, or reduction in rank.

4.2.2.4. Ineligibility Due to Certain Duty Status. Whenever a member is in a non-pay status for any reason, they are not eligible for BNA during the non-pay period. When the member is returned to a pay status, they may apply or reapply for BNA if they are otherwise eligible pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.2.

4.2.2.5. Ineligibility Due to Certain Changes in Household Size. A member will be ineligible for BNA if a change in the number of their dependents reported in the Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS) is such that their GHI exceeds 150 percent of the FPG for the member’s geographical location and the new number of individuals in their household. If the member is receiving BNA, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must inform them that they are ineligible and payment of the allowance must terminate 60 calendar days after the date of ineligibility. If the certified member is receiving BNA when the change in number of dependents is reported in DEERS, pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.9, the certified member must report changes in the number of individuals in their household to the BNA certifying official to be reviewed and re-certified.

4.2.2.6. Eligibility Due to Certain Changes in Household Size. A member may become eligible for BNA if a change in the number of their dependents reported in DEERS is such that their GHI drops below 150 percent of the FPG for their geographical location and the new number of individuals in their household, and they are otherwise eligible pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.2.1.
4.2.3. BNA Eligibility Screening

4.2.3.1. Screening Requirements. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must:

4.2.3.1.1. Screen each member for BNA eligibility before the member completes IET;

4.2.3.1.2. Screen active duty members, at least annually, for BNA eligibility after IET; and 4.2.3.1.3. Maintain documentation on members who were screened and the results of the screenings.

4.2.3.2. Informing Screened Members. Upon determining a screened member is eligible for BNA, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard will, in writing:

4.2.3.2.1. Inform the member that they are eligible to apply for BNA, but that screening eligibility does not guarantee certification;

4.2.3.2.2. Inform the member that to receive BNA, they must submit a BNA application in accordance with instructions and procedures published by their Military Service;

4.2.3.2.3. Inform the member that submission of a BNA application, including substantiating documentation, and receipt of the allowance are voluntary;

4.2.3.2.4. Inform member of additional financial management and assistance programs for which they may be eligible;

4.2.3.2.5. Provide the member BNA application instructions;

4.2.3.2.6. Provide the member with deadlines for submitting BNA applications and substantiating documentation required under the member’s Military Service implementing guidance; but Services must establish such deadlines no earlier than 60 calendar days and no later than 180 calendar days after the date of the written screening notification. For members undergoing IET at the time of the screening, the application deadline must be no later than 180 calendar days following arrival at their first permanent duty station;

4.2.3.2.7. Inform the member that if they do not submit a BNA application, with required substantiating documentation, by the established deadline, they will be deemed ineligible for BNA; and 4.2.3.2.8. As appropriate, inform the member on the counseling requirements specified in subparagraph 4.2.9 for applicants.

4.2.4. Application

DoD financial counselors, pay administrators, personnel services, community or family support services, or equivalent command organizations may assist in the application process, but will not grant any member final certification for BNA. Assistance may include reviewing documentation, helping members obtain necessary paperwork, and gathering information required for certification. The amount of BNA may be estimated and shared with the member. The eligibility and estimation is not binding or final until it is certified by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

4.2.4.1. A member seeking to receive BNA must submit a signed and complete application in accordance with this section and policy established by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

4.2.4.2. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must develop an application that will include, at a minimum:

4.2.4.2.1. Date of submission;
4.2.4.2.2. The member’s name;
4.2.4.2.3. The member’s DoD identification number;
4.2.4.2.4. The member’s pay grade;
4.2.4.2.5. The member’s years of service for purposes of payment of basic pay;
4.2.4.2.6. Pay entry date;
4.2.4.2.7. The member’s permanent duty station or home port;
4.2.4.2.8. The member’s current monthly GHI (includes lump sum payments converted to a monthly amount, e.g., a bonus prorated over the period of time to which the bonus applies);
4.2.4.2.9. Preceding calendar year GHI by source. Military income can be obtained and verified through the personnel and pay systems;

4.2.4.2.9.1. The monthly amount of GHI attributable to a bonus must be prorated over the period of time to which the bonus applies. If applicable, the bonus will be prorated over the period of time for which the bonus is paid;

4.2.4.2.9.2. Sporadic, variable, or seasonal income must be counted only during the month(s) in which it is received. If sporadic, variable, or seasonal income causes the GHI of the member to exceed the $150 per month threshold specified in subparagraph 4.2.9, the member must report the sporadic income amount to a certifying official to be reviewed for eligibility under subparagraph 4.2.2.3.2;

4.2.4.2.9.3. Any GHI that is received in a foreign currency must be converted to U.S. dollars using the prevailing rate of exchange at the time of application;

4.2.4.2.9.4. Exclusions from GHI are specified in the definition of GHI in the DoDI 1341.15 Glossary; and 4.2.4.2.10. Number of individuals in the member’s household.

4.2.4.3. The application should include a statement that the applicant’s signature, including any digital signature, confirms that the information in the application is accurate, to the best of their knowledge.

4.2.4.4. To the extent practicable, in-place administrative processes must be used to support BNA. When necessary, each Military Service must help applicants of other Military Services submit their application to their own Service. This should be done where reasonable access to their own Military Service is not available, such as at joint commands.

4.2.4.5. Members may submit a BNA application without being notified after a screening. Members who believe they may be eligible for BNA may consult with DoD financial counselors or officials designated by their respective Military Department or Service to assist in understanding requirements for eligibility.

4.2.4.6. The application will include all required information and substantiating documentation to allow the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard to determine eligibility.

4.2.4.7. The application will include all required information to allow the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard to compute BNA.

4.2.4.8. A member receiving BNA must annually resubmit an updated, signed application, along with substantiating documentation, to the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

4.2.5. Application Adjudication. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must establish procedures to determine eligibility and make a determination of the amount of BNA for each certified applicant within 30 calendar days of receiving an application.

4.2.5.1. The Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Commandant of the Coast Guard must ensure adequately trained personnel are in position to process and certify applications. This includes submitting the transaction to the Defense Finance and Accounting Service or appropriate pay systems.
4.2.5.2. BNA is effective on the application’s certification date.

4.2.5.3. The Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Commandant of the Coast Guard must ensure controls over information processing (e.g., cross-system consistency checks to compare data in different systems and safeguarding personal information) are implemented while processing BNA applications.

4.2.5.4. Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Commandant of the Coast Guard may reject a member’s application if they have approved separation orders. Members receiving BNA and pending separation may continue to receive BNA until separation.

4.2.5.5. Upon determining a member’s eligibility status, the Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Commandant of the Coast Guard must notify certified applicants in writing. At a minimum, the written notification must, as applicable, include:

4.2.5.5.1. A statement that the member is deemed eligible or ineligible for BNA;

4.2.5.5.2. A statement that if the applicant’s eligibility determination could not be adjudicated, the applicant must be informed of why the application could not be processed;

4.2.5.5.3. If the applicant has been deemed ineligible, why the application was denied;

4.2.5.5.4. If the applicant is certified to receive BNA, the amount of the monthly BNA;

4.2.5.5.5. If an applicant is certified, a notification that they may elect to either receive or decline BNA. Elections to decline BNA must be in writing and must be provided to the certifying official by the member;

4.2.5.5.6. If an applicant is certified, applicable counseling requirements specified in subparagraph 4.2.9;

4.2.5.5.7. Additional financial management and assistance programs for which the applicant may be eligible;

4.2.5.5.8. Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Commandant of the Coast Guard must maintain documentation on:

4.2.5.5.8.1. Members who were notified;

4.2.5.5.8.2. Members who have applied for the BNA;

4.2.5.5.8.3. Members who were certified;
4.2.5.5.8.4. Members who have declined BNA and members who were deemed ineligible based on the criteria in subparagraph 4.2.2; and 4.2.5.5.8.5. The amount of the allowance for certified applicants opting to receive BNA.

4.2.6. Computation of Allowance

4.2.6.1. Standard Amount of the Allowance

4.2.6.1.1. BNA for certified applicants must be paid on a monthly basis. Member eligibility will be determined pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.2.

4.2.6.1.2. BNA must be computed as follows: 1.5 times the most recently published annual FPG for the calendar year during which the allowance is paid based on the member’s duty station and the current number of individuals in the member’s household, including the member, minus the member’s GHI during the preceding calendar year, divided by 12. The amount of the BNA must be rounded to the nearest whole dollar. The following example depicts how to compute BNA:

Example: BNA Computation

Assumptions: A member with the following:

1. A household size of five.
3. A prior calendar year GHI - $39,947
4. Applicable annual FPG - $32,470

Sample Computation:

\text{BNA} = \frac{(1.5 \times $32,470) - $39,947}{12} \\
= \frac{($48,705 - $39,947)}{12} \\
= $8,758/12 \\
= $730 \text{ per month}

NOTE: A rate of 1.3 is applicable from January 1, 2023, to June 30, 2023. Effective July 1, 2023, the rate is 1.5.
4.2.6.1.3. The amount of the decrease in household income resulting from a fine, forfeiture, or reduction in rank may not be used to increase the amount of BNA.

4.2.6.2. Alternate Computation of the Allowance for Duty Outside the United States. If a certified applicant is assigned to a duty location outside the United States, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must make the calculations described in subparagraph 4.2.6.1 using the FPG for the 48 contiguous States and the District of Columbia.

4.2.6.3. Proration. If a member is certified for BNA for less than a full month, the BNA must be prorated based on the number of days of the certified applicant’s eligibility for the allowance during the month. Proration must be computed at the rate of 1/30th of the monthly BNA amount for each day of certification during the month.

4.2.7. Geographic Locations

4.2.7.1. The HHS maintains the following geographical locations for the FPG:

4.2.7.1.1. The 48 contiguous states and the District of Columbia.

4.2.7.1.2. Hawaii.

4.2.7.1.3. Alaska.

4.2.7.2. If a member receiving BNA executes a PCS and is reassigned from one FPG geographic location specified in subparagraph 4.2.7.1 to another, BNA must be recomputed based on the new duty location.

4.2.7.3. Members assigned to geographic locations outside the defined poverty guideline geographical locations in subparagraph 4.2.7.1 must use the FPG for the 48 contiguous states and the District of Columbia.

4.2.8. Other BNA Recertifying Requirements. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must review BNA eligibility and if necessary, upon the member resubmitting an application, the amount of BNA must be recomputed pursuant to subparagraph 4.2.6:

4.2.8.1. Annually on the anniversary date of the original BNA application certification or annually on the date BNA was last certified, whichever is most current. Whenever a member;

4.2.8.2. Whenever a Service member provides substantiated information that their current monthly GHI increases by $150 or more per month;

4.2.8.3. Whenever a Service member provides substantiated information that the number of individuals in the household increases or decreases; or 4.2.8.4. Whenever a Service member receiving BNA executes a PCS and is reassigned from one FPG geographical location specified in subparagraph 4.2.7.1 to another FPG geographical location, BNA must be recertified. Recertification will occur upon arrival at the new duty location using the FPG of the new location. If the PCS is to or from the 48 contiguous States or the District of Columbia to or from a location outside of the United States, it is not necessary to recertify the amount of BNA.

4.2.9. Counseling Requirements. Upon certification, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must ensure applicants are counseled on the following:

4.2.9.1. During participation in BNA, the member must report any increase or decreases in recurring monthly GHI of $150 or more per month, or any increase or decrease in the number of individuals in their household, to the certifying official within 60 calendar days. Failure to report changes may result in termination of BNA eligibility;

4.2.9.2. Receipt of BNA may affect participation of the household in certain Federal assistance programs, such as subsidized school lunch programs; the Women, Infant, and Children program; FSSA; low-income utility assistance programs; day care programs; and other income based assistance programs;

4.2.9.3. BNA is taxable income pursuant to 26 U.S.C. § 61;

4.2.9.4. That the publication of this section does not result in a retroactive application of benefits other than that which may result from any intervening time period between the effective dates DoDI 1341.15 and any further Military Service-specific guidance; and

4.2.9.5. The member may voluntarily discontinue BNA at any time.

4.2.10. Payment Processing. The monthly BNA is payable from the date the application is certified. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned or the Commandant of the Coast Guard must establish procedures to ensure all eligible members will be paid the monthly BNA within 30 calendar days of certifying the application.

4.2.11. Effective Periods

4.2.11.1. BNA is payable to eligible members for months beginning on and after January 1, 2023.

4.2.11.2. Unless otherwise extended by the Congress, no BNA may be paid after December 31, 2027.

NOTES:

1. BAS II is the monthly rate that may be payable to enlisted members, in lieu of the regular BAS rate, when on duty at a permanent station and assigned to single (unaccompanied) Government quarters, which do not have adequate food storage or preparation facilities, and where a Government mess is not available, and the Government cannot otherwise make meals available. The BAS II rate is twice the rate of standard enlisted BAS and must be authorized by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned and the Commandant of the Coast Guard.

2. The BAS rate effective January 1, 2019 is the same as the BAS rate for January 1, 2018.

3. The BAS rate effective January 1, 2017 is the same as the BAS rate for January 1, 2016.

NOTES:

1. Collections from an enlisted member’s pay account will be made when the member has not otherwise paid for meals provided by or on behalf of the Government (i.e., by cash, a personal check or charge, or by deduction/reduction of per diem). Collections from pay will be deducted from the member’s pay account and credited to the appropriation specified by the Military Service concerned.

2. For the prior year rates, see: Office of Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) website.

3. The discount meal rate applies to meals and rations provided by or on behalf of the U.S. Government to a member not paid per diem or other travel reimbursement for subsistence who is performing duty in a U.S. Government vessel, a U.S. Government aircraft, on maneuvers, war games, field exercises, or similar operations, or to members traveling together with limited or no per diem travel status under EUM or assigned ESM. The discount meal rate also applies to meals and rations provided to a member assigned to Joint Task Force operations (for other than training) at temporary U.S. installations, or through a temporary dining facility.

4. The standard meal rate applies to meals and rations provided to any member not authorized the discount meal rate. This includes any member being paid per diem for subsistence, except those on Joint Task Force operations as described in note 3. Generally, when the standard meal rate is applicable, it will be collected in cash from the member by the dining facility.

CHAPTER 26

HOUSING ALLOWANCES

1.0 GENERAL (2601)

1.1 Purpose (260101)

This chapter establishes policy pertaining to housing allowances. Housing allowances include Basic Allowance for Housing (BAH), Overseas Housing Allowance (OHA), and Family Separation Housing (FSH) Allowance. Entitlement eligibility is subject to the conditions set forth in this chapter.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance (260102)

2.0 INTRODUCTION (2602)

A Service member on Active Duty (AD) entitled to basic pay is authorized a housing allowance based on his or her grade, rank, location, and whether he or she has any dependents. A housing allowance generally is not authorized for a Service member who is assigned to appropriate and adequate Government quarters (see Section 8.0 for Government quarters). If member is on excess leave, housing allowances do not accrue during the excess-leave period. If a Service member is absent without leave which is not excused as unavoidable, housing allowances are not authorized. See Table 26-1 for a listing of the different type of housing allowances authorized.

2.1 Definitions for Housing Allowances (260201)

2.1.1. Sharer. A sharer includes a Service member authorized an OHA or FSH-OHA (FSH-O) based location allowance or any of the following individuals who reside with a Service member:

2.1.1.1. A civilian employee, including any dependents, authorized a Living Quarters Allowance (LQA). Department of State Standardized Regulations (DSSR), Section 130 (DSSR § 130) or cost of living allowance (COLA) in a non-foreign location Outside Continental United States (OCONUS) (see OCONUS COLA).

2.1.1.2. Any other person, excluding a Service member’s dependent, who contributes money toward the payment of rent, mortgage, or utilities.
2.1.2. Owner-Owned Multiple Occupancy Dwelling. The dwelling is a duplex, triplex, or other type of multiple occupancy dwelling that is designed for separate private-sector housing units for more than one household. The units within the dwelling ordinarily have separate addresses or entrances. For OHA or FSH-O purposes, it would include a dwelling where the Service member and any dependents occupy a single separate unit within the dwelling and the other units are rented out.

2.1.3. Vicinity. The vicinity is the entire country, U.S. territory or possession, or state when in Alaska or Hawaii where the Service member’s permanent duty station (PDS) is located. When a Service member resides with a dependent and commutes to the PDS, the dependent is considered to be residing at or in the vicinity of the PDS even if in an adjacent country or state. However, if the Service member has to maintain separate households and maintaining separate households is authorized or approved through the Secretarial Process, a dependent is not residing in the PDS vicinity for FSH purposes. A commander may submit a request for determination through the appropriate channels to the applicable office listed in Table 26-2.

2.1.4. Government Quarters

2.1.4.1. Government quarters include:

2.1.4.1.1. U.S. Government owned or leased sleeping accommodations or family-type housing;

2.1.4.1.2. Lodging or other quarters obtained by U.S. Government contract;

2.1.4.1.3. Dormitories or similar facilities operated by a cost-plus-a-fixed-fee contract;

2.1.4.1.4. Sleeping or housing facilities furnished by a foreign government on the Government’s behalf; or

2.1.4.1.5. Quarters in a state-owned National Guard camp.

2.1.4.2. For BAH purposes, the term does not include privatized housing or transient facilities, such as temporary lodging facilities, guesthouses, hostess houses, or hotel-type accommodations built or operated by non-appropriated fund activities. Government quarters converted to privatized housing are no longer Government quarters.

2.1.5. Rental Charge. A rental charge is a fee for occupancy and does not include service charges for linens, cleaning, maintenance, or similar costs.

2.1.6. Primary Residence for Reserve Component (RC) Member. For an RC member ordered to AD, the primary residence is the dwelling (e.g., house, townhouse, apartment, condominium, mobile home, houseboat, vessel) where the RC member resides before being ordered to AD.
2.2 Housing-Allowance Rates and Applicable Dates (260202)

2.2.1. Rates. The housing-allowance rates are each determined as specified in Table 26-3.

2.2.2. Housing Allowance Start and Stop Dates. The authorizing document for OHA is the DoD DD Form 2367, OHA Report. Table 26-4 specifies the date to start BAH or OHA for a Service member with a dependent. Table 26-5 specifies the date to stop housing allowances based on changes in the status of a sole dependent. Table 26-6 specifies the date to stop BAH or OHA for reasons other than a change in the status of a dependent. Situations not covered in these tables are contained elsewhere in this chapter.

2.2.2.1. Start. Unless specifically authorized elsewhere in this Chapter, PDS housing allowance eligibility starts on a Service member’s reporting day to a new PDS. OHA starts on the day a Service member obtains private-sector housing. If the Service member is authorized a monetary allowance in lieu of transportation (MALT) plus per diem (MALT Plus) on the reporting day, OHA eligibility starts on the day after the Service member’s reporting day. When a home port change is involved, ordinarily a housing allowance based on the rate for the new home port starts on the effective date of the home port change.

2.2.2.2. Stop. Unless an extension is authorized or approved under paragraph 10.2, or the PCS move is a close proximity move as specified in paragraphs 10.1 and 10.2, the OHA and the FSH-BAH (FSH-B) based location or FSH-O allowances stop on any of the following:

2.2.2.2.1. The day the Service member’s OHA, FSH-O, or FSH-B lease ends;

2.2.2.2.2. The day before the Service member departs due to a PCS order;

2.2.2.2.3. The day before the effective date a Service member’s assigned ship or unit changes its home port from OCONUS. However, a Service member without a dependent is authorized a housing allowance based on the old home port until the day the Service member moves back aboard the ship under all of the following conditions:

2.2.2.2.3.1. The Service member is undergoing a home port change;

2.2.2.2.3.2. The ship does not depart from the old home port before or on the home port change effective date; and

2.2.2.2.3.3. Quarters on board the ship are not available (for example, because the ship is dry-docked);

2.2.2.2.3.4. Upon assignment to Government quarters.
3.0 DETERMINING DEPENDENCY (2603)

3.1 Dependent (260301)

3.1.1 Eligibility

3.1.1.1 A Service member’s lawful spouse and legitimate, unmarried, minor children are always dependents for housing allowance purposes, except as specified in this section;

3.1.1.2 An unmarried minor child of an invalid marriage, or a marriage annulled as void or voidable, is a dependent for housing allowance purposes; or

3.1.1.3 An incapacitated child over age 21, a ward of the court, or an unmarried child over age 21 and under age 23 who is attending college full time requires an “in-fact dependency,” as specified in Service regulations. The child is a secondary dependent and must be dependent upon the Service member for over one-half of the child’s support. The child’s income, not counting the Service member’s contributions, must be less than one-half of the child’s living expenses and the Service member’s contribution must be more than one-half of the child’s monthly living expenses.

3.1.2 No Authority on Dependent’s Behalf. A Service member is not authorized a housing allowance for any of the following:

3.1.2.1 A minor child entitled to basic pay as a Uniformed Service member on AD. This includes a minor child attending a military Service academy where the United States furnishes quarters;

3.1.2.2 A spouse on AD in a Uniformed Service entitled to basic pay and allowances. See Section 4.0 for housing allowances when two Service members married to each other are both entitled to basic pay and allowances;

3.1.2.3 A dependent for whom the Service member is no longer required to provide support;

3.1.2.4 A dependent for whom the Service member has not provided required proof of adequate support, when necessary as specified in paragraph 3.3;

3.1.2.5 A dependent whom the Service member fails to support (see paragraph 3.3);

3.1.2.6 A dependent whose whereabouts are unknown and whose absence and whereabouts remain unexplained;

3.1.2.7 A former spouse to whom the Service member is paying alimony;
3.1.2.8. A dependent who occupies Government quarters as a permanent residence without payment of a rental charge. See paragraph 3.7 for an exception when the child is living with the Service member’s former or estranged spouse;

3.1.2.9. A child for whom the Service member pays child support and the following conditions exist:

3.1.2.9.1. The child is in another active-duty Service member’s custody, including a former spouse, as specified in this section; and

3.1.2.9.2. The Service member with custody of the child is assigned to Government or Government-leased family quarters, or receives a with-dependent housing allowance on behalf of the child. This does not include privatized housing;

3.1.2.10. A child after adoption by a third party and the final adoption order or decree has been entered. When the Service member supports the child pending a final decree, authority for a housing allowance continues after an interlocutory decree of adoption has been entered if the decree does not change the legal relationship between the child and the Service member.

3.1.3. Spouse in Foreign Military. A Service member is authorized a housing allowance for a spouse in the military service of a government other than the United States. The Service member is authorized a housing allowance even if the foreign government furnishes a residence or pays a monetary allowance in lieu of a residence for the spouse.

3.2 Determinations and Fraudulent Claims (260302)

Dependency must be determined before a housing allowance is authorized. After initial approval, the Services must maintain adequate levels of internal audit to assure the legality, propriety, and correctness of all housing allowance payments. See individual Service regulations for procedures.

3.2.1. Determinations. In determining relationship or dependency for housing allowance eligibility, the appropriate officials must apply the rules in this section. The Service Secretary or designee makes all determinations of relationships or dependency for a primary dependent. The designee may re-delegate. Otherwise, the Army disbursing officer or designee, the U. S. Air Force (USAF) Financial Services Office (FSO) or designee, and offices specified in this section for the Navy and the U.S. Marine Corps (USMC) make determinations. The Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) determines relationships and dependency for secondary dependents and individuals whose status as a primary dependent is questionable for the Army, USAF, or Navy. The Commandant of the Marine Corps – Marine and Family Programs Division, Defense Enrollment Eligibility Reporting System (DEERS)/Dependency Determination Section (MFP-1) determines relationships and dependency for secondary dependents and individuals whose status as a primary dependent is questionable for the USMC. Determinations for relationships or dependency for non-DoD Services is per Service regulations.
3.2.1.1. Dependent Status Certification. Upon arrival at a new PDS, each Service member authorized a housing allowance for a dependent must recertify the status of the dependent to the Secretary concerned to support a housing allowance on the dependent’s behalf. If a Service member fails to provide the certification, the housing allowance on the dependent’s behalf stops at the end of the month in which the certification is due. A housing allowance at the appropriate partial or without-dependent rate is paid unless the Service member is not authorized that allowance for some other reason. A housing allowance at the with-dependent rate is authorized effective the date the Service member provides proper certification. The higher rate is not retroactive unless the Service member’s commander certifies that the failure to recertify promptly was for reasons beyond the Service member’s control.

3.2.1.2. Dependency Re-determinations. Annual re-determination of dependency is required for a Service member who claims a housing allowance for any of the following dependents:

3.2.1.2.1. A parent, parent in-law, stepparent, parent by adoption, or a person who serves in loco parentis;

3.2.1.2.2. A student 21 and 22 years of age;

3.2.1.2.3. An incapacitated child over age 21;

3.2.1.2.4. A ward of a court; or

3.2.1.2.5. Any dependent of an RC member. The RC member must recertify the dependent’s status at least every 3rd year from the previous certification or when a dependent’s status changes.

3.2.2. Determining Dependency Relationship for Service Member’s Child.

3.2.2.1. Army. Submit requests for determinations in accordance with this paragraph and Table 26-7.

3.2.2.2. Navy. The Disbursing Officer makes the determination for any person who can qualify as a dependent of a Service member in the Navy. Submit all doubtful cases through channels to the Defense Office of Hearings and Appeals (DOHA). Table 26-8 specifies the rules for determining the dependency relationship for a Service member in the Navy for the purposes of a housing allowance when the dependent claimed is an unmarried child.

3.2.2.3. USAF. If the dependent claimed is an unmarried child over age 21 and is incapable of self-support, then the USAF FSO or designee makes the determination. In this case, the dependent must actually be dependent on Service member for a substantial portion of support. Submit requests for determinations in accordance with Table 26-9.
3.2.2.4. USMC. For any determination, concerning a combination of a spouse and an unmarried legitimate child, and the dependent child is under age 21, the commanding officer of a battalion, squadron or separate detached command makes the decision. Table 26-10 specifies the rules for determining the dependency relationship for a Service member in the USMC for the purposes of a housing allowance when the dependent claimed is an unmarried child.

3.2.3. Fraudulent Claims. Any Service member who submits a claim for a housing allowance that contains a false statement is subject to court-martial or criminal prosecution. Fraudulent acceptance of benefits may cause a civilian recipient to be subject to criminal prosecution. The law provides for severe penalties of imprisonment and a fine. For military personnel, it may include a punitive separation, total forfeitures, and confinement.

3.2.4. Marriage Status Determination. Any case in which the validity of a Service member’s marriage is questionable is a case of a doubtful relationship. This paragraph outlines different types of relationships where validity is doubtful for housing allowance purposes. Submit requests for determination on validity of a marriage in doubtful cases or for validation of payments as specified in Table 26-11.

3.2.4.1. Remarriage Within Prohibited Period Following Divorce. Under the laws of some states, a marriage is not dissolved until a specified period has elapsed after a divorce decree is granted, and remarriage is prohibited within the specified period. In all states that grant an interlocutory decree before granting a final divorce decree, remarriage may not occur before the final decree is granted.

3.2.4.2. Marriage by Proxy. Proxy marriages are valid if performed in a jurisdiction that recognizes common law marriages and has no statute or judicial determination prohibiting proxy marriages.

3.2.4.3. Marriage by Telephone. A marriage by telephone is recognized only if a statute or court decision authorizes or recognizes telephone marriages in the jurisdiction where the marriage was performed.

3.2.4.4. Common Law Marriages. Under laws of certain states, persons who do not obtain a license to marry or go through certain other formalities may enter into a common law marriage. Common law marriages entered into in those states are valid if they are contracted in accordance with state law.

3.2.4.5. Foreign Nation Divorce. A foreign nation divorce may or may not be recognized as valid in the United States depending on several factors. These factors include place of residence of the parties involved, whether they appeared in person to obtain the divorce, and applicable state laws. Any claim involving the remarriage of a Service member following a foreign nation divorce and any claim by, or on behalf of, the spouse from whom the Service member has obtained a foreign nation divorce are cases of doubtful relationship. A claim based on a Service member’s marriage to a person who has obtained a foreign nation divorce is also a doubtful case.
3.2.4.6. Void Marriage. If a Service member’s marriage is void, for example, due to a preexisting marriage of the spouse, the Service member has no lawful spouse and is not authorized a housing allowance at the with-dependent rate due to the purported marriage. When marriage invalidity is discovered, no further housing allowance payments at the with-dependent rate may be made. See Table 26-5 to determine when to stop housing allowance payments. The Service member may retain payments already received if they are validated under Chapter 12, for DoD Services or Service written material for non DoD Services. When validity of a marriage is questionable, submit the case to the office specified in Table 26-11 for a determination on the validity of the marriage and, if necessary, validation of payments already made.

3.2.4.7. Annulled Marriage. If a Service member’s marriage is annulled by a court decree, no further housing allowance payments may be made. The Service member may retain payments received before the effective date of the decree. Retention of payment in some annulment cases based on legal factors must be validated under Chapter 12, for DoD Services or Service written material for non-DoD Services. Submit all annulment cases to the office specified in Table 26-11 for review and, if necessary, validation of payments made.

3.2.5. Spousal Dependency Determination. Table 26-12 specifies who determines a dependency relationship for the purposes of a housing allowance when the dependent claimed is a spouse. Unless otherwise specified, the rules for the Navy and the USMC apply regardless of a Service member’s rank.

3.3 Providing Support for Dependent (260303)

3.3.1. Proof of Support.
Proof of support of a lawful spouse or unmarried, minor, legitimate child of a Service member is generally not required. However, when an appropriate office receives evidence or a complaint from a dependent of nonsupport or inadequate support, proof of adequate support is required as specified in this paragraph.

3.3.2. Non-support.
A Service member who fails to support a dependent on whose behalf a housing allowance is received is not authorized a housing allowance on that dependent’s behalf. A Service member does not avoid the legal responsibility to comply with a court order for support by forfeiting a housing allowance. Housing allowances must be recouped for nonsupport or inadequate support periods. Subsequently paying support arrears does not authorize a Service member a housing allowance for the dependent unless one of the following caused the nonsupport or inadequate support:

- 3.3.2.1. The Service’s mission requirements; or
- 3.3.2.2. Outside agencies’ actions determined by Service regulations to be beyond the Service member’s control.

3.3.3. Unstated Support Amount or Release From Support Responsibility.
A legal separation agreement, court decree, judgment, or order that is silent on dependent support, does not state the dependent support amount, or absolves the Service member of dependent support responsibility does not affect a Service member’s housing allowance. This is true regardless of the jurisdiction in which the decree, agreement, or order was issued or of the dependent’s domicile. The Service member is authorized a housing allowance on behalf of a dependent if the Service member contributes to the dependent’s support in an amount that is not less than the applicable BAH-Differential (BAH-Diff) rate.

3.3.4. Legal Separation Agreement or Court Order Stating Support Amount. When there is a court order or legal separation agreement stating the support amount, a Service member must contribute to the dependent’s support the amount specified to receive BAH-Diff. In no case may the support payments be less than the applicable BAH-Diff rate.

3.3.5. Joint Legal Custody. When a Service member is divorced from a person who is not a Service member, they share joint legal custody of a child, and the former spouse is awarded primary physical custody, then the Service member is a non-custodial parent for housing allowance purposes.

3.3.5.1. When the Service member’s court-ordered child support is less than the applicable BAH-Diff rate and the Service member is not residing in, or assigned to, Government quarters, the Service member is only authorized a housing allowance at the without-dependent rate.

3.3.5.2. When a Service member not assigned to Government quarters pays additional support to the former spouse who has primary custody of the child so that the total child support provided is equal to or more than the BAH-Diff rate, he or she is authorized a housing allowance at the with-dependent rate.

3.3.6. Temporary Custody. When a Service member has temporary custody of a child and they reside in a private-sector residence, the cost of maintaining the residence is not a factor in determining authority for the with-dependent housing allowance rate and may not be used instead of, or in addition to, child support to qualify for increased allowances. The dependent child must reside with the Service member on a non-temporary basis, which is a period of 91 or more consecutive days, for the Service member to qualify for the with-dependent housing allowance rate for the temporary period. The cost of maintaining a home may not be added to the amount of child support to qualify for the increased allowances.

3.3.7. Adequate Support. When a court order or legal separation agreement does not establish support requirements, a Service member must provide a support amount that is at least equal to the BAH-Diff rate applicable to the Service member’s grade. The support amount required to retain or receive a housing allowance for a dependent is not necessarily adequate to meet Service policies. The Service concerned may have additional requirements for support in the absence of a legal separation agreement or court order.
3.3.8. Increase in Support Required by Increase in BAH-Diff Rates. Whenever BAH-Diff rates increase, the minimum amount of dependent support required for housing allowance purposes increases to the new rate. A Service member receiving a housing allowance on behalf of a dependent must increase the amount of support within 60 days of the increase to continue receiving the housing allowance.

3.3.9. Settlement Agreement.

3.3.9.1. Property settlements made under a court order or written agreement are not considered support for housing allowance purposes.

3.3.9.2. Payments made under a settlement in place of support are considered support only for the period specified in the written agreement or court order.

3.3.9.3. A lump-sum settlement in place of support made under written agreement or court order is support for the period the lump sum would reasonably cover the dependent’s support.

3.3.10. Interlocutory Decree of Divorce. If an interlocutory decree of divorce does not provide for support to the former spouse, the Service member is not authorized a housing allowance for the former spouse after the date of the decree unless the Service member provides proof of support.

3.4 Dependent Parent (260304)

3.4.1. Determination. A parent’s dependency is determined based on an affidavit submitted by the parent and any other evidence required under applicable regulations. A legal guardian may complete the form for a mentally incompetent parent. Table 26-13 specifies who determines a dependency relationship for the purposes of a housing allowance when the dependent claimed is a parent, including a person acting in loco parentis. If there is a question on whether the parent is or is not a dependent, then the authority in Table 26-13 submits a request through the appropriate chain of command to the authority in Table 26-11 or a dependency determination. When necessary, a request may be submitted through the appropriate chain of command to the DOHA for a decision.

3.4.2. Dependency Requirement. A Service member is authorized a housing allowance on behalf of a parent who depends on the Service member for more than one-half of the parent’s support. The parent’s income, not counting the Service member’s contribution, must be less than one-half of the parent’s monthly living expenses and the Service member’s contribution must be more than one-half of the parent’s monthly living expenses. A parent’s residence in a charitable institution, public or private, does not prohibit the Service member from receiving a housing allowance for the parent when the following conditions are met as well as any other Service requirements:
3.4.2.1. Family Unit Rule. In determining a parent’s dependency, consider the total income and expenses of the family unit that includes the parent. Ordinarily, the Service member’s contribution to the expenses of the family unit must exceed one-half of its total expenses before any one person in the family unit can be considered dependent on the Service member. When application of the family unit rule results in manifest injustice, consider any other available evidence of dependency, and determination made according to principles of equity and good conscience.

3.4.2.2. Income. Unliquidated capital assets are not income, and parents are not required to deplete their capital assets to establish dependency on a Service member for housing allowance purposes. However, the following are considered income when determining whether a parent is dependent on the Service member:

3.4.2.2.1. Proceeds derived from the liquidation of capital assets;

3.4.2.2.2. Amounts placed in reserve for depreciation of property held for income ordinarily are available for a parent’s current living expenses;

3.4.2.2.3. Contributions made to a parent by a charitable organization;

3.4.2.2.4. Payments made to the parent from the Social Security Administration, unemployment compensation, and financial assistance from governmental agencies;

3.4.2.2.5. Pensions received by the parent; or

3.4.2.2.6. Uninvested capital. If a parent has capital that is not invested, compute the income return at 5.25% a year.

3.4.3. Change in Dependent Status. If the parent becomes a dependent due to changed circumstances, and the Service member contributes over one-half of the parents’ support, a housing allowance is authorized from the date the contribution began. A Service member is authorized a housing allowance for any active-duty period when the parent is a dependent, whether the dependency occurred before or after the Service member entered service.

3.4.4. Stepparent. A stepparent or stepchild relationship ends upon divorce from the biological parent, but not necessarily upon the biological parent’s death. A housing allowance for a stepparent may be established after the biological parent’s death.

3.5 Adopted Child, Stepchild, or Child Born Out of Wedlock (260305)

An adopted child, a stepchild, and a child born out of wedlock are all considered primary dependents. As a result, a dependency determination is not required for these dependents.

3.5.1. Proof of Parentage. A Service member who claims a housing allowance for an adopted child, stepchild, or a child born out of wedlock must provide proof of parentage as follows:
3.5.1.1. For an adopted child, document showing the Service member is the child’s legal parent;

3.5.1.2. For a stepchild, a marriage license showing the Service member is married to the child’s legal parent and documentation showing that the Service member’s spouse is the child’s parent; or

3.5.1.3. For a child born out of wedlock, a birth certificate with the Service member’s name cited is required. If the Service member’s name is not stated on the birth certificate or on a court order, obtain a signed affidavit of parentage (signed and sworn by a notary) from the Service member. If the child is not in the custody of the Service member parent, the case is treated as specified in the rules for BAH-Diff.

3.5.2. Support Requirements. A Service member may claim a dependent child, adopted child, stepchild, or out of wedlock child, for housing allowance purposes. The Service member is authorized a housing allowance if the Service member contributes to the dependent’s support and that support is at least equal to the applicable BAH-Diff. This includes a Service member authorized BAH-Diff and a Service member assigned to single-type Government quarters when the child is in the physical custody of another person.

3.6. Child Living With Service Member’s Former Spouse (260306)

3.6.1. Former Spouse Married to Another Service Member

3.6.1.1. Child in Government Quarters. When a Service member’s child resides in Government quarters not assigned to the divorced Service member parent, that Service member is not authorized a housing allowance for the child.

3.6.1.2. Child Not in Government Quarters. A housing allowance may not be paid for a child to both the stepparent and the natural parent at the same time. The natural parent has priority to a housing allowance for that child if providing adequate support.

3.6.2. Service Member Marries Someone Other Than a Service Member. The Service member is not authorized a housing allowance for the child living with the former spouse. Subparagraph 10.2.1.2 does not apply in the case of a Service member who is required to support a child in the custody of a former spouse when the Service member remarries and is assigned to or occupies family Government quarters.

3.6.3. Service Member Marries Another Service Member

3.6.3.1. The Service member is not authorized a housing allowance for the child living with the former spouse when the Service member remarries another Service member and is assigned to or occupies Government family type quarters. Subparagraph 10.2.1.2 does not apply in the case of a Service member who is required to support a child in the custody of a former spouse when the Service member remarries another Service member and is assigned to or occupies family Government quarters.
3.6.3.2. A Service member is authorized a housing allowance for a child for whom the Service member is paying child support ([59 Comp. Gen. 681 (1980)]) if all of the following conditions are met:

3.6.3.2.1. The Service member is required to support a child in the custody of a former spouse;

3.6.3.2.2. He or she is married to another Service member with children born of this marriage;

3.6.3.2.3. The Service member lived in family-type Government quarters with the Service member spouse and children;

3.6.3.2.4. The Service member is assigned a permanent change of station (PCS) to a different PDS outside commuting distance;

3.6.3.2.5. The Service member’s current spouse—who is also a Service member—and children remain in Government quarters; and

3.6.3.2.6. The Government quarters’ assignment is in or transferred to the remaining Service member’s name.

Note: This is based on the rule that a Service member’s housing allowances is determined independently of the uniformed spouse when the Service members are separated by orders and do not reside in the same household.

3.7 Child Living With Service Member’s Former or Estranged Spouse (260307)

3.7.1. Former or Estranged Spouse is Service Member Assigned Family Government Quarters. When the Service member with custody of the child is assigned to, or occupies, adequate family-type Government quarters with the child while receiving child support, the Service member paying child support is not authorized a housing allowance for the child.

3.7.2. Former or Estranged Spouse in Family Government Quarters Visits Service Member. When a child who normally resides in family Government quarters with a Service member’s former or estranged spouse who is the custodial parent visits the Service member in a private-sector residence for 91 or more days, the visit is considered non-temporary. The Service member is then authorized a housing allowance for the child from the first day of the visit. If the visit is 90 or fewer days, a housing allowance for the child is not payable for any part of the visit.

3.8 Dependent Confined in Penal or Correctional Institution (260308)

3.8.1. Housing Allowance Payable. Confinement of a Service member’s spouse or unmarried minor child in a penal or correctional institution does not affect the Service member’s authority for a housing allowance on the dependent’s behalf, unless any of the following conditions apply:
3.8.1.1. The Service member refuses to support the dependent;

3.8.1.2. The Service member has been relieved from supporting the dependent;

3.8.1.3. The period of confinement may extend beyond 5 years; or 3.8.1.4. The case is otherwise doubtful.

3.8.2. Doubtful Cases. Submit doubtful cases or cases involving a sentence extending beyond 5 years to the addresses specified in Table 26-11. Do not pay a housing allowance on behalf of the dependent pending a decision.

4.0 SERVICE MEMBER MARRIED TO ANOTHER SERVICE MEMBER (2604)

4.0.1. Dependent on AD in a Uniformed Service. In accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 421, a dependent who is on AD in a Uniformed Service and is entitled to basic pay cannot be considered a dependent for housing allowance purposes.

4.0.2. One Service Member Enters a Non-Pay Status. When one Service member enters a non-pay status, the other Service member may claim the Service member not entitled to pay and allowances as a dependent and be authorized to draw BAH or OHA at the with-dependent rate for the duration of the non-pay status, if otherwise authorized, unless a dependent is confined in a penal or correctional institution (see paragraph 3.8). A Service member may claim as a dependent a Service member on inactive duty for training (Reserve drills).

4.0.3. Service Member Serving on Sea Duty. See paragraph 10.1 for two Service members married to each other when one or both are serving on sea duty.

4.0.4. BAH or OHA at the With-Dependent Rate. When two Service members have a dependent, the Service members must choose which one will receive BAH or OHA at the with-dependent rate. If they cannot agree, then the senior Service member receives the with-dependent rate. The Service members may subsequently elect to transfer BAH authorization from one Service member to the other for any reason. Changes are effective as of the election date and may not be applied retroactively.

4.0.5. Child From a Prior Marriage or the Service Member’s Child Born Out of Wedlock. When the dependent is a child from a prior marriage or the Service member’s child born out of wedlock, the two Service members may elect for the Service member with a dependent to receive BAH or OHA at the without-dependent rate when not occupying single-type Government quarters and the other Service member to receive BAH or OHA for stepchildren as specified in paragraph 3.5. A Service member in a TDY status would maintain the BAH in effect at the PDS while in single-type Government quarters at the TDY location.

4.0.6. Other Housing Allowances. Other housing allowance paragraphs in this chapter (e.g., FSH, Service member on unaccompanied tour, BAH rate protection) also apply to a Service member married to another Service member.
4.1 Both Service Members Married to Each Other Entitled to Basic Pay (260401)

4.1.1. Family-Type Quarters. When Service members married to each other jointly occupy family-type quarters, neither Service member is authorized BAH or OHA, even if no dependent resides in the quarters, unless a dependent is prevented by a military order from occupying quarters.

4.1.2. Separate Households. When both Service members maintain separate households at or in the vicinity of their PDS or PDSs, each is individually authorized BAH or OHA. Only one Service member may receive BAH or OHA at the with-dependent rate. When both Service members no longer share a common residence due to military orders, their authorization for increased allowances or assignment to Government quarters should be determined separately without regard to the general rule that all dependents of Service members are in the same class for the purpose of determining housing allowance authorizations. Each member is required to have physical custody of a dependent if both members are claiming a housing allowance authorization at the with-dependent rate. See paragraphs 3.3 and 4.3 for BAH or OHA for divorced or legally separated Services members.

4.1.3. Same or Adjacent Military Installations. Both Service members are considered to be stationed at the same or adjacent bases, or shore installations, when they are not prevented by distance from living together or they actually commute on a regular basis regardless of distance.

4.1.3.1. Each Service member is usually authorized BAH or OHA at the appropriate rate when family-type quarters are not assigned, notwithstanding the availability of adequate single quarters for either or both Service members.

4.1.3.2. When both Service members are authorized BAH or OHA at the same or adjacent military installation and are then separated geographically by orders, the Service member remaining at the old PDS ordinarily is authorized BAH or OHA continuation regardless of the availability of adequate single quarters.

4.1.4. Without-Dependent. When both Service members have no dependents and both are prevented by distance from living together, each is treated as a Service member without a dependent for BAH or OHA.

4.2 Other Dependents (260402)

4.2.1. Dependent Parent. When one of the two married Service members is receiving a housing allowance at the with-dependent rate, the class of dependents includes either Service member’s parent. Only one Service member is authorized a housing allowance at the with-dependent rate or BAH-Diff for the one class of dependents when the Service members are assigned to the same or adjacent bases.

4.2.2. Dependent Parent or Child From Previous Relationship. When one or both Service members are authorized housing allowances for a child from a previous relationship or on behalf of a dependent parent, and the Service members marry and are stationed in the same area, all children and dependent parents of either Service member are the same class of dependents. Therefore, only one housing allowance at the with-dependent rate (including BAH-Diff) is payable. Any child born of their marriage, or adopted by them, is within the same class of dependents for housing allowances purposes.

4.2.2.1. If one Service member elects to stop receiving a housing allowance at the with-dependent rate, then the other Service member may claim the children for housing allowance purposes. A relationship determination is required, but ordinarily a dependency determination is not. In all instances of a Service member having a spouse on AD, full details must be given showing the spouse’s full name, Social Security number, duty station, and branch of Service.

4.2.2.2. This does not apply to two Service members living together but not married. Two unmarried Service members living together are each authorized a housing allowance based on each Service member’s dependents.

4.3 Dependent Custody Effects on Housing Allowances (260403)

4.3.1. Divorce or Legal Separation. The following rules apply when a divorce or separation occurred, or a decree or agreement was amended and the divorced or separated parents are both Service members. These rules apply in addition to those in paragraph 3.3 and only when neither Service member is assigned to family-type Government quarters, unless otherwise specified:

4.3.1.1. Unless both Service members agree to the contrary, the custodial parent is authorized a housing allowance for the child, regardless of the child-support amount received by that Service member. In addition to the court order, a separate notarized agreement between the Service members must be provided for the non-custodial Service member to receive a housing allowance for the child;

4.3.1.2. When each Service member has legal and physical custody of one or more of the children of the marriage, each Service member is authorized a housing allowance for the children in their individual physical custody, regardless of child-support payments from one Service member to the other;

4.3.1.3. When a child of the marriage is in a third party’s custody, only one Service member is authorized a housing allowance for the child, even if both Service members are paying sufficient child support to qualify for the housing allowance. The senior Service member is authorized a housing allowance for the child when the two Service members do not agree on which person claims the authorization. If the Service members are of equal rank, date of rank determines which one receives a housing allowance for the child;

4.3.1.4. In joint legal custody cases, when physical custody changes from one parent to another, each parent is authorized a housing allowance for the child during those periods the child is actually in that parent’s physical custody;
4.3.1.5. When a non-custodial Service member pays child support to the custodial parent who also has another dependent who makes the Service member eligible for a housing allowance, there is a presumption that the custodial parent’s authorization is based on the dependent other than the child of the marriage. The housing allowance authorization for the custodial and non-custodial parents is determined individually; or

4.3.1.6. When the dependent is no longer in one class, the housing allowance authorization for the custodial and non-custodial parents is determined individually. For example, if the non-custodial parent pays child support to a non-active duty parent for a child from a previous marriage or non-marriage relationship, the non-custodial parent may qualify for a housing allowance based solely on the basis of the Service member’s child support for the child (see paragraph 3.1).

4.3.2. Voluntary Support Payments. Voluntary support payments must not be considered to determine housing allowance authorization unless there is a mutual agreement between the Service-member parents that the custodial Service member parent accepts the support payments.

5.0 BASIC ALLOWANCE FOR HOUSING (BAH) (2605)

5.1 BAH Rate Protection (260501)

The monthly BAH amount paid to a Service member must not be reduced due to changes in housing costs in the Military Housing Area (MHA), changes in the national monthly housing cost, or a Service member’s promotion. The BAH rate for an RC member is also protected, provided the RC member does not have a break in active service of 1 or more calendar days. This includes transitions in service status from Active Guard Reserve (AGR) duty to other AD and back to AGR duty, or beginning a new AD order or order extension without a break in active service. If the Service member is demoted or loses authority for BAH, then the Service member’s BAH rate protection at the current amount stops when the eligibility to BAH for a given MHA or County Cost Group ends. The current BAH rate at the current duty location becomes the Service member’s new protected BAH rate.

5.2 BAH Advance (260502)

5.2.1. Authority. Each Service must set regulations for advance BAH payment administration to include the preparation and disposition of vouchers and supporting papers. When allowed by Service regulations, a Service member’s commanding officer, his or her designee, or another designated official may authorize an advance BAH payment to pay advance rent, security deposits, or initial expenses due to occupying other than Government housing. An advance may also be authorized at any time during a Service member’s tour at the location concerned or when a Service member has relocated due to a PCS order. The Secretary concerned or the Secretary’s designee may authorize an advance BAH payment in circumstances and conditions other than those specified in this paragraph. Service regulations must set repayment procedures for advances made under special circumstances.
5.2.2. Timing. Ordinarily, the advance should not be disbursed more than 3 working days before the date payment under the lease or rental agreement must be made. In extenuating circumstances, the officials listed in this chapter may authorize disbursement more than 3 working days before the date payment must be made. The BAH advance may be paid before or after the expenses occur. A Service member must request the advance payment within 30 days after incurring the expense.

5.2.3. Requirements. Housing expenses must be documented. Required documentation includes copies of the lease, utility company statement, and any other pertinent documentation necessary to support the housing expenses.

5.2.4. Amount. The advance amount is determined by the Service member’s current BAH rate, his or her ability to repay the advance, other advances of pay that may have been made, and any recurring pay deductions. The BAH advance is limited to a total of 3 months BAH that the Service member is expected to accrue. Expenses identified by a Service member used to purchase any real estate or living accommodations must not serve as a basis for authorizing or determining the amount of the advance.

5.2.5. Repayment. Repayment of the advance should be at a rate of at least one-twelfth of the amount advanced in equal monthly installments for the next 12 months. Collection action should begin on the 1st day of the month after the advance payment has been made.

5.2.5.1. When justified by the Service member and authorized by the Service member’s commanding officer, his or her designee, or another Service-designated official, start of collection action may be postponed for up to 3 months after the advance is made. Repayment may be spread over a period of more than 12 months, but must be limited to 24 months or the Service member’s scheduled tour at the location concerned, whichever is shorter.

5.2.5.2. Action must be taken immediately to recoup in a lump sum any BAH advance that the landlord has returned to the Service member upon receipt of information that the Service member has vacated the housing for which the advance was made. If the Service member chooses, he or she may repay in monthly installments any balance of an advance not returned by the landlord. The balance must be repaid during the months remaining on the existing loan repayment schedule.

5.3 Partial Housing Allowance (BAH-Partial) (260503)

5.3.1. Conditions. Table 26-14 specifies the conditions for BAH-Partial.

5.3.2. Navy Barracks Privatization Test. Under the authority in 10 U.S.C. § 2881a, the Navy is conducting a limited test of barracks privatization. The privatized barracks are defined as Government quarters for the purposes of the test. For a Service member occupying privatized barracks, a special BAH-Partial rate equal to a percentage of the PDS locality BAH at the without-dependent rate for the Service member’s grade is established. Table 26-15 specifies the applicable locations and percentages.
5.4 BAH Differential (BAH-Diff) (260504)

A Service member assigned to single-type Government quarters or a single-type housing facility under a Uniformed Service jurisdiction is not usually authorized more than BAH Partial. However, if the Service member is authorized BAH solely due to paying child support and the Service member is paying an amount equal to or greater than BAH-Diff, then he or she is authorized BAH-Diff. A Service member is not authorized BAH-Diff if the child support payment is less than the Service member’s applicable pay grade BAH-Diff amount. See paragraphs 3.6, 3.7, and 4.3 if child is in the custody of another AD member.

5.5 Temporary BAH Increase (260505)

The Secretary of Defense may prescribe a temporary increase in BAH rates in an area the President declared as a major disaster area or at an installation that experienced a sudden increase in the number of assigned Service members. Payment of the higher BAH is only effective for an MHA or specified ZIP Codes within a county cost group. Unless extended by the authority of the Congress, no agreement may be entered into after the termination date on the Duration of Authority table.

5.5.1. Eligibility. A temporary increase in BAH rates results in two different BAH rates for Service members assigned to the same ZIP Code. To receive the higher of the two BAH rates, a Service member must certify to the Secretary concerned that he or she incurred higher housing costs in an approved area due to a major disaster or sudden increase of military personnel assigned to an installation. The certification must be in a form acceptable to the approval authority. The Service member’s certification must document rent, or mortgage expense in the case of a homeowner, and utility expenses.

5.5.2. Approval. The approval authority is at a level specified through the Secretarial Process. If the total housing expense—rent or mortgage plus utility expenses—from the Service member’s certification is less than the existing BAH rate, no increase is authorized. If the total housing expense from the Service member’s certification is higher than the BAH rate during that time, then the Service member is authorized the increased rate effective the approval date of the MHA for an increased rate or the date the Service member started incurring the increased expenses, whichever is later.

5.5.3. Locations. Locations approved for temporary BAH rate increase as listed in Table 26-16. See the Temporary BAH Rate Increase Approved Location table on the Defense Travel Management Office (DTMO) website for the most current locations.

5.5.4. Effect of Changes. Table 26-17 specifies how changes during the temporary rate increase period affect the BAH paid.

5.5.5. Termination. The increased allowance is paid through the day before the effective date of the next standard BAH rate change for the area. The new standard BAH rate applies on the effective date. There is no rate protection for temporarily increased rates.
6.0 OVERSEAS HOUSING ALLOWANCE (OHA) (2606)

*6.1 OHA Overview (260601)

OHA is designed to cover actual rental costs for 80% of the assigned Service members. A Service member is reimbursed actual rental costs, limited to the maximum OHA rate for each locality and grade. OHA is not intended and must not be used for the personal enrichment of a Service member by including costs incurred for procuring or adapting a residence to accommodate renters or for vacation purposes. Disciplinary action may apply when housing allowances are used for other than the purpose intended.

6.1.1. OHA Types. There are two housing-allowance types paid under OHA—an upfront, lump sum Move in Housing Allowance (MIHA) for those who qualify and a monthly OHA, which includes a utility and recurring maintenance allowance.

6.1.2. Requirements. A Service member authorized to live in private-sector leased or owned housing is authorized OHA provided a DD 2367 is completed and approved. Payment of OHA requires a lease agreement or a verifiable purchase price. The senior officer of the Uniformed Services in the country concerned, or the individuals or offices designated for that purpose by the senior officer has approval authority.

6.1.2.1. The reported housing must be the actual residence that the Service member occupies and from which the Service member commutes to and from work daily. If a Service member is assigned on an unaccompanied tour or has a Secretarial waiver and authorized OHA for a dependent who lives separately, the reported housing must be the actual residence that the Service member’s dependent occupies.

6.1.2.2. When a Service member is required to pay monthly rent at a specified fixed-exchange rate (dollar equivalency contract) for the lease duration because it is required by law or local custom, the Service member’s commanding officer, or designee, must enter the following statement in DD 2367 (Part C Remarks: “Dollar equivalency contract required. No other housing option available to the Service member.”) The Service member must enter the monthly rent equivalent in U.S. dollars into DD 2367 block 5b.

6.1.3. Monthly OHA Allowance. An OHA paid monthly includes the rental allowance and the utility and recurring maintenance allowance as specified in paragraphs 6.2 and 6.3.

6.1.4. MIHA. The MIHA/Miscellaneous is an upfront, lump sum payment based on the average move-in costs for a Service member. The four payment types of MIHA are specified in Table 26-23.

6.1.5. Allowance Payable. OHA rates are based on a Service member’s PDS except as otherwise indicated in this chapter. OHA is not payable on the arrival day when MALT Plus is paid. Unless a special determination jointly issued by the Secretary concerned and the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense, Personnel and Readiness (OUSD (P&R)) authorizes a different rate due to special circumstances, the amount of OHA payable is as specified in this chapter.
6.1.6. OHA Unique Expenses. In some locations outside the United States, a Service member or dependent incurs excessive housing expenses for items that a Service member based in the United States does not normally incur. Since the expenses are not incurred by every Service member outside the United States, they cannot be a part of the ordinary OHA calculation. For these expenses, payment is a lump sum, dollar-for-dollar, reimbursement for a specifically authorized expense at designated authorized locations.

6.1.6.1. Authorization. All requests to authorize an OHA Unique Expense must be submitted from a major command to OUSD (P&R) through the applicable Service representative listed in the Uniformed Services Contact Information. OUSD (P&R) specifically authorizes or approves the expense for reimbursement according to the DoD Overseas Station and Housing Allowances Process Guide. OUSD (P&R) does not accept requests from individual Service members to authorize an OHA Unique Expense.

6.1.6.2. Reimbursement. The Secretary concerned may reimburse an OHA Unique Expense if Table 26-18 authorizes the location and expense. At their discretion, Services may alternatively use the Secretarial Process to reimburse an authorized expense or expenses. Once an OHA Unique Expense has been authorized for a location, no further examination may be made to compare the spendable income of the claimant to the amount of the expense claimed. Any claim based on a valid receipt for an authorized OHA Unique Expense may be reimbursed in a lump sum, dollar-for-dollar, through Service payment procedures. The Service concerned is not required to recover any amount refunded to a Service member by any foreign government agency that may be involved.

6.1.6.3. Authorized Locations and Expenses. Table 26-18 specifies the authorized locations and expenses for an OHA Unique Expense reimbursement.

6.1.7. OHA Responsibilities. Commanders OCONUS, or their designees, must periodically provide data required for authorizing, changing, and terminating OHA for each locality OCONUS within their jurisdictions as specified by the OUSD (P&R). For the responsibilities of the Overseas Command or Commander, Senior Officer, and Country Allowance Coordinator, see the DoD Overseas Station and Housing Allowance Process Guide.

6.2 OHA Determining Monthly Rent (260602)

Monthly rent is the amount paid each month by a Service member for possession and use of private-sector housing, to include a mobile home or boat.

6.2.1. Determine Rent. The rent stated in the lease, or as otherwise agreed to by the landlord and the tenant in a written document, must be used in computing the OHA. The cost of parking at the duty location is not included in rent. The following rules apply for determining rent:

6.2.1.1. A recurring condominium or homeowner association fee paid by the Service member is prorated to a monthly charge and incorporated into the Service member’s rent;
6.2.1.2. A sharer’s monthly rent is determined by dividing the total monthly rent by the number of sharers occupying the dwelling;

6.2.1.3. In an arrangement by which a Service member pays rent in advance and the landlord agrees to reimburse the Service member all or substantially all of the rental money at the end of the lease agreement, the amount of rent used in computing a Service member’s OHA is zero;

6.2.1.4. If a Service member or dependent jointly occupy a dwelling with relatives or friends who own the dwelling, the rent amount is zero, even if there is a lease or written document. This restriction does not apply when the Service member or dependent leases lodging from a relative or friend with a bona fide, standard written lease, when the relative or friend concerned does not jointly occupy the leased dwelling and the relative or friend regularly rents the lodging involved. There is no authority to pay MIHA or the utility and recurring maintenance allowance when living with relatives or friends;

6.2.1.5. The cost of a separate lease for parking at or in the vicinity of the private-sector housing is added to the housing lease amount in determining his or her total rent; or

6.2.1.6. See subparagraph 6.2.3 for a dwelling owned by a Service member.

6.2.2. Sharers. A sharer is authorized up to the maximum rental allowance set for a Service member without a dependent unless accompanied by one or more dependents (see Table 26-19). A sharer accompanied by a dependent is authorized up to the maximum rental allowance set for a Service member with-dependents.

6.2.2.1. Compute the authorized OHA for each sharer by adding the sharer’s prorated share of the rent paid or the maximum rental established for the sharer’s grade and locality, whichever is less, and the prorated monthly utility and recurring maintenance allowance.

6.2.2.2. A Service member authorized MIHA/Miscellaneous (see paragraph 6.5) receives a full rather than prorated allowance. Only one sharer may claim reimbursement for any individual rent, security, or infectious-disease related expense.

6.2.2.3. A renter living in a completely separate unit of an owner-occupied multiplex dwelling owned by another Service member is not a “sharer,” and OHA is determined as if the renter occupied an unattached unit.

6.2.3. Private-Sector Housing Owned

6.2.3.1. Divide the actual purchase price—not an appraised value—of the private-sector housing by 120 to derive the monthly calculated “rent” for a private-sector dwelling owned by a Service member. Settlement costs, fees for title search, other legal and related costs are not included in determining the actual purchase price.
6.2.3.2. The amount of any personal installment-type loans and real estate equity loans obtained for renovating or repairing the current dwelling place are added to the actual purchase price before determining the rent.

6.2.3.2.1. For this purpose, renovating means restoring to a previous condition, as by remodeling, and repairing means restoring to a sound condition after damage or injury, including fixing, setting right, renewing, or refreshing.

6.2.3.2.2. A loan used to furnish or decorate the home—including such things as the addition of a hot tub or pool to a home purchased without such an amenity—or a loan for personal reasons, including a credit card or line of credit loan must not be used.

6.2.3.2.3. To determine the monthly OHA rental equivalency when adding a loan described in this paragraph, add the loan amount to the original verifiable purchase price, divide the new total by 120, and the new “rental equivalency” starts from the loan start date.

6.2.3.2.4. The Service concerned must adjudicate loans. The Service member’s command should submit the request with all documentation through the appropriate channel specified in Table 26-2.

6.2.3.3. If a Service member or the Service member’s dependent inherits a dwelling or residence or otherwise receives it without purchasing it, the dwelling or residence purchase price is $0. In this case, the Service member is authorized to receive the utility and recurring maintenance allowance. If a Service member obtains a mortgage on the inherited dwelling or residence specifically for home improvements or takes out a loan to pay inheritance taxes on the residence or dwelling, the mortgage or loan cost may be used as an OHA housing cost.

6.2.3.4. If the dwelling is a multiplex unit owned by a Service member, the allowance claimed is based on the percentage of the multiplex unit’s square footage occupied by the Service member and dependent. The allowance equals the purchase price multiplied by that percentage and divided by 120. Renters of other units within the multiplex unit are not sharers.

6.2.3.5. If the Service member-owned dwelling place is a mobile home or boat, the monthly lot rental or berthing fee paid is added to this amount.

6.2.4. Maximum Rental Allowance. Use the OHA Calculator (OHA Calculator) to obtain the maximum amount of monthly rent considered. Maximum OHA rental allowances for each locality are based on reported actual rental cost data for Service member with-dependents residing in private-sector housing. If utilities are included in the rent, see paragraph 6.3. See the OHA computation steps for calculation examples.

6.2.5. Rent Changes. Re-compute OHA if and when the rent changes.

6.3 OHA Utility or Recurring Maintenance Allowance (260603)
6.3.1. Monthly Allowance. When rent does not include utilities or the Service member is a homeowner, the Service member is authorized the utility and recurring maintenance allowance. The utility and recurring maintenance allowance for each OHA locality is based on the with- dependent reported expenses for Service members who pay all or a majority of their utilities. It covers the utility costs for 80% of the Service members assigned to an area. It is paid to sharers on a prorated amount of the net allowance. It is paid to a Service member without a dependent, who is not a sharer, at 75% of the with-dependent rate.

6.3.2. Rent Includes All or Some Utilities. If any or all of the OHA utility component is included in the rent, then the amount is withheld from the utility and recurring maintenance allowance and then added to the Rental Allowance component before comparison with the Service member’s actual rent.

6.3.2.1. A Service member is not authorized the utility and recurring maintenance allowance when rent includes all utilities. However, when computing the OHA, the appropriate utility and recurring maintenance allowance is added to the Service member’s rental allowance.

6.3.2.2. When rent includes some utilities, the utility and recurring maintenance allowance is paid on a percentage basis. The locality climate code and the utility point score determine the percentage of the utility and recurring maintenance allowance that the Service member is authorized. However, when computing OHA, the amount for which the Service member is not authorized is added to the appropriate rental allowance ceiling.

6.3.2.2.1. Locality climate codes are specified on each OHA locality table. The three climate codes are:

- Code 1 (Cold). Long-term mean temperature of 45 °F or colder;
- Code 2 (Moderate). Neither Code 1 nor Code 3; and
- Code 3 (Hot). Long-term mean temperature of 69 °F or warmer, except when the long-term mean for 1 or more months of the year drops to 45 °F or colder. In such instances, a climate code of 2 is assigned.

6.3.2.2.2. Table 26-20 specifies the correct climate code to credit the Service member with appropriate points for each utility or service that is not included in the rent. Add the numbers to get the Service member’s total utility point score.

6.3.2.2.3. Table 26-21 specifies the correct percentage of the utility and recurring maintenance allowance to be paid after determining the total utility point score.

6.4 OHA Computation Steps (260604)

Follow steps one through four in Table 26-22 to determine a Service member’s OHA.
6.5 Move-in Housing Allowance (MIHA) (260605)

6.5.1. General. MIHA exists to defray the move-in costs associated with occupying private-sector housing covered under the OHA program, whether leased or owned. MIHA is not payable to a Service member occupying Government or Government-leased housing. MIHA does not cover move-out costs. In most cases, a Service member authorized OHA is authorized MIHA. See MIHA for how to complete DD Form 2556, MIHA Claim. That form must accompany MIHA/Rent, MIHA/Security, or MIHA/Infectious Disease-related expenses. Various OHA Surveys are sent to Service members in private-sector leased housing to document utility and move-in expenses.

6.5.2. Rules and Information

6.5.2.1. To be authorized a MIHA, a Service member must be eligible for OHA.

6.5.2.2. An eligible Service member is authorized MIHA for one dwelling during a tour at a PDS unless a Government-funded local move occurs and the Service member occupies another dwelling covered by OHA.

6.5.2.3. There is no MIHA authorized under any of the following circumstances:

6.5.2.3.1. A local move would otherwise initiate a second or subsequent MIHA payment request unless that move is Government funded;

6.5.2.3.2. A Service member complies with a PCS order but remains in the same dwelling, including an RC member called or ordered to AD who is authorized OHA based on the primary residence at the time called or ordered to AD; or 6.5.2.3.3. A Service member moves from Government quarters to private-sector housing for separation or retirement (see Joint Travel Regulations (JTR) Chapter 5, Section 0519).

6.5.2.3.4. The four MIHA payment types are described in Table 26-23. See the DoD MIHA Process Guide for qualifying areas and additional rules.

6.5.2.3.5. Sharer Eligibility. Each Service member classified as a sharer and authorized MIHA is authorized the full MIHA/Miscellaneous allowance. Only one sharer may claim the individual expense for MIHA/Rent, MIHA/Security, and MIHA/Infectious Disease. Acceptable claims for MIHA/Rent, MIHA/Security, or MIHA/Infectious Disease must include DD 2556 proper documentation, and detailed receipts for all expenditures.
6.5.3. MIHA/Miscellaneous Expenses. The purchase price of an item included in Table 26-24 is generally authorized for the MIHA/Miscellaneous component of the OHA unless an item is purchased with the intent to ship it from the present PDS. An item intended to be shipped is not reportable. These expenses are associated with items necessary to make housing habitable. Table 26-24 lists the vast majority of reportable expenses, and lists certain expense items that are not reportable. These lists are not exhaustive, but contain the vast majority of items commonly contained in each group.

6.6 OHA Advance Payment (260606)

For detailed information regarding areas with rental advance protection under OHA, see Rental Advances. Rental payments should be made on a month-to-month basis whenever possible to avoid the need for rental advances.

6.6.1. Authority

6.6.1.1. Advance Rent of Fewer than 4 Months, Security Deposits, or Initial Expenses. The Senior Officer in-country, or his or her designee, may authorize an advance OHA payment to pay advance rent, security deposits, or MIHA-related expenses due to occupying private-sector housing. The advance may be made at any time during the Service member’s tour. It also may be authorized when a Service member has located housing due to a PCS order. Personal preference is not grounds for authorizing advance rent payment. Advance OHA is not authorized for lease arrangements in which the Service member lives rent free after making a one-time payment to the landlord with the anticipation that the rental amount is to be completely or substantially refunded at lease termination.

6.6.1.2. Advance Rent of 4 or More Months

6.6.1.2.1. Rental advances of at least 4 months, but no more than 12 months, may be made only for the locations authorized by OUSD (P&R). Once OUSD (P&R) authorizes and lists a location for Rental advances, the Senior Officer in-country, or his or her designee, may authorize individual requests. Requests for approval are considered if the requirement for the advance rent exists for any of the following reasons:

6.6.1.2.1.1. Law;

6.6.1.2.1.2. Local custom for everyone, including local nationals; or 6.6.1.2.1.3. Economic or market conditions preclude availability of secure housing, as confirmed by the U.S. Embassy;

6.6.1.2.2. Request to add locations must be submitted through the Country Senior Officer or Command as instructed in the DoD Overseas Station and Housing Allowance Process Guide.
6.6.2. Amount. The amount to be advanced must be determined based on housing expenses, including advance rent and a security deposit, and the authorized OHA. Housing expenses must be documented. Expenses identified by a Service member for purchase of real estate or living accommodations must not be considered. The Service member’s ability to repay the advance must be considered in determining the advance amount. While the amount to be advanced should not exceed the estimated OHA total for 1 year, a larger amount may be authorized if needed to cover anticipated housing expenses. In no case may the advance payment exceed either of the following, whichever is less.

6.6.2.1. Anticipated housing expenses.

6.6.2.2. OHA anticipated to accrue for the Service member’s tour at that PDS.

6.6.3. Repayment

6.6.3.1. Repayment Within 12 Months. Monthly repayment installments should be at a rate of one-twelfth of the amount advanced over 12 months. Collection action should begin on the 1st day of the month after payment of the advance.

6.6.3.2. Postpone Collection Start. When justified by the Service member and authorized by an official designated by the Service concerned, the collection start may be postponed for up to 3 months after the advance. Repayment may be spread over a period of more than 1 year, but must be limited to the Service member’s tour at the PDS.

6.6.3.3. Advance Rent Repayment Postponement Until the Service Member Vacates Housing. An official designated by the Service concerned may postpone repayment of advance rent until the Service member vacates the housing for which the advance rent was paid if earlier repayment would create an excessive economic burden.

6.6.3.4. Security Deposit Repayment Postponement Until the Service Member Vacates Housing. An official designated by the Service concerned may postpone repayment of the entire amount of a security deposit of $500 or more until the Service member vacates the housing for which the security deposit was paid if earlier repayment would create an excessive economic burden.

6.6.3.5. Recouping Lump Sum Returned by Landlord. Action to recoup in a lump sum of any OHA advance that has been returned to the Service member by the landlord must be taken immediately upon receipt of information that the Service member has vacated the housing for which the advance was made. Any balance of an advance not returned by the landlord may be repaid in monthly installments, if desired by the Service member, over the balance of the months remaining on the Service member’s existing loan repayment schedule.
6.6.3.6. Currency Fluctuation Effects. The Service concerned absorbs any loss due to currency fluctuations when liquidating advance security deposits. The Service member must pay to the Service any gains due to currency fluctuations. These currency protection procedures for security deposits apply without regard to the provisions for protection of rent advances in subparagraph 6.6.4.

6.6.3.7. Pay System Reporting of Monthly Rent. In countries in which rate protection for advance rent has not been implemented the monthly rent entered in the respective pay system should be entered in U.S. dollars when a Service member has taken an advance for rent.

6.6.4. Advance Rent Currency Rate Protection. Rate protection may be provided for certain countries that have undergone a significant currency fluctuation. Countries previously authorized OHA Rental Advance Protection continue to have rent protected locality codes in the OHA Calculator until all previously protected Service members either permanently change stations or change quarters. Currency rate protection for additional advances is calculated using the exchange rate in effect at the time the new advance is paid. In countries in which rate protection for advance rent has been implemented, monthly rents for an advance rent are processed in dollars. See Service regulations for currency fluctuation loss or gain procedures. Rate protection is accomplished by comparing the OHA rate with the exchange rate in effect at the time the Service member received the advance with the greater of either of the following:

6.6.4.1. The rental allowance in effect at the time of the advance; or 6.6.4.2. Any higher rental allowance implemented during the repayment period of the advance.

6.7 Service Member Occupying a Government Trailer or Rental Guarantee Housing and OHA (260607)

Unless otherwise specified in this chapter, no housing allowance is payable to a Service member occupying housing constructed under the Rental Guarantee Housing Program as authorized in Section 302 of the Act of July 14, 1952, (66 Stat. 622) or Government trailers purchased under Section 408 of the Act of September 1, 1954, (68 Stat. 1126), or any other statute.

6.8 OHA and Living Quarters Allowance (LQA) (DSSR § 130) Paid Concurrently (260608)

A Service member is entitled to OHA at the with-dependent rate even if the Service member’s dependent spouse receives a LQA. Direct questions pertaining to LQA to the spouse’s Civilian Personnel Office (CPO) or Civilian Personnel Advisory Center (CPAC). Volume 7A has no authority to determine or control eligibility or entitlement of LQA for a civilian employee. See DSSR § 130, and the DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1400.25, Vol. 1250, Civilian Employee Overseas Allowances and Differentials.
6.9 Observer to a UN Peacekeeping Organization (260609)

A Service member permanently assigned as an observer to a UN peacekeeping organization who receives a UN mission subsistence allowance, known as mission per diem, is also authorized a housing allowance under this Chapter. The housing allowance amount, when added to the UN mission subsistence allowance, cannot exceed the housing allowance of a Service member permanently assigned to other than a UN Peacekeeping Organization in the same area. This paragraph does not authorize a reduction in the UN mission subsistence allowance.

7.0 FAMILY SEPARATION HOUSING (FSH) ALLOWANCE (2607)

7.1 FSH Overview (260701)

FSH is payable to a Service member with a dependent for added housing expenses resulting from separation from the dependent. The separation must be caused by a Service member’s assignment on military or uniform orders to either a PDS OCONUS on an unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour or a PDS to which concurrent dependent travel has been denied or deferred (see paragraph 10.6). For CONUS non-current travel application areas, refer to DoDI 1315.18, Enclosure 5, Paragraph 2.

*7.2 Administration of FSH Allowance (260702)

7.2.1 Eligibility. For FSH to be payable, all of the following conditions must be met:

7.2.1.1 Dependent transportation to the PDS is not authorized at Government expense under the JTR, Chapter 5, Section 0504;

7.2.1.2 Dependent does not reside in the PDS vicinity; and 7.2.1.3 Government quarters are not available for assignment to the Service member.

7.2.2 Allowances

7.2.2.1 There are two types of FSH: FSH-B and FSH-O.

7.2.2.1.1 FSH-B is payable for an assignment at a PDS in Alaska or Hawaii or to a PDS in the CONUS to which concurrent travel has been denied. FSH-B is payable in a monthly amount equal to the BAH without-dependent rate applicable to the Service member’s grade and PDS. Payment starts upon submission of proof that Government quarters are not available and that the Service member has obtained private-sector housing.
7.2.2.1.2. FSH-O is payable for an assignment at a PDS outside the United States. FSH-O is payable in a monthly amount up to, and under the same conditions as, the without-dependent OHA rate applicable to the Service member’s grade and PDS. OHA rules for determining monthly rent, utility and recurring maintenance allowance, MIHA, and advances apply to FSH-O.

7.2.2.2. A Service member may not be paid FSH-B or FSH-O in any of the following situations:

7.2.2.2.1. The Service member’s only dependent is entitled to AD basic pay;

7.2.2.2.2. The Service member has no dependents other than a dependent for whom he or she is paying child support, but the Service member does not have primary physical custody and control of that child. This situation is fundamentally different from a Service member who has a spouse or children. A Service member with a spouse or any children is authorized transportation of any dependents, but the nature of the tour or the PDS location prevents dependent transportation to the PDS. A Service member who has a dependent solely due to child support is not eligible for transportation of that dependent under the JTR, Chapter 5, paragraph 050405, because the Service member does not have physical custody and control. The ineligibility for transportation, as opposed to a tour or location denial, prevents payment of FSH;

7.2.2.2.3. The Service member is assigned to a PDS where concurrent dependent travel is authorized and has not been deferred by the Government per paragraph 10.6;

7.2.2.2.4. The Service member elects not to occupy available assigned Government quarters and resides in a private-sector residence for personal convenience; or

7.2.2.2.5. FSH-O or FSH-B is not authorized if all of the Service member’s dependents reside in the PDS vicinity. If some, but not all, of the dependents voluntarily reside near the PDS, FSH-O or FSH-B continues.

7.2.2.3. FSH-O or FSH-B continues uninterrupted while a Service member’s dependent visits at or near the Service member’s PDS, but not to exceed 90 continuous days. Circumstances must clearly show that the dependent is not changing residence and that the visit is temporary and not intended to exceed 90 days.

7.2.2.3.1. If, for unforeseen reasons, such as due to illness or other emergency, a bona fide social visit lasts 91 or more days, FSH-O or FSH-B stops at the end of the 90-day period. FSH-O or FSH-B is authorized again on the day that the dependent departs from the PDS.

7.2.2.3.2. If one or more, but not all, dependents visit for longer than 90 days and the Service member is authorized a with-dependent housing allowance on behalf of the dependents who are not visiting or do not reside in the vicinity of the Service member’s PDS, then he or she is authorized FSH-O or FSH-B.
8.0 GOVERNMENT QUARTERS (2608)

Assignment to Government quarters affects a Service member’s eligibility for BAH. A housing allowance, other than BAH-Partial or BAH-Diff, is not authorized for a Service member who is assigned to Government quarters appropriate to the Service member’s grade, rank, or rating and adequate for the Service member and dependents, if any.

8.1 Responsibility for Assignment or Termination (260801)

8.1.1 Assignment or Termination of Government Quarters. The commander responsible for the Government quarters has the authority to assign and terminate the assignment. The commander also determines when quarters are adequate and suitable for assignment based on appropriate directives. Government quarters or housing facilities under the Uniformed Services’ control are considered assigned, suitable, and adequate whenever occupied by a Service member at the PDS without payment of rental charges. This includes any of the following conditions:

8.1.1.1 When an organization or institution furnishes quarters to a Service member without charge on behalf of the United States;

8.1.1.2 When a foreign government furnishes quarters to a Service member without charge for the Service member’s official use; or 8.1.1.3 When the quarters, furnished to a Service member without charge, are jointly assigned to one or more Service members without a dependent.

8.1.2 Voluntarily Vacating Assigned Quarters. A Service member is still considered assigned to Government quarters when he or she voluntarily vacates assigned quarters without the installation commander’s approval. A Service member in pay grade E-7 and above, without a dependent, may elect not to occupy assigned quarters unless denied permission by the Secretary Concerned.

8.1.3 Family Type Quarters

8.1.3.1 A Service member married to another Service member are both considered assigned to Government quarters when all of the following apply:

8.1.3.1.1 Both are stationed at the same or adjacent installations;

8.1.3.1.2 Both are able to reside in Government family quarters; and 8.1.3.1.3 Government family quarters are assigned to one of the Service members.

8.1.3.2. However, if there is a separation agreement, pending divorce, or marital discord that requires one Service member to obtain alternative private-sector housing, to be authorized a housing allowance the Service member not occupying family quarters must obtain a statement from the installation housing officer that Government housing is not assigned.

8.1.4. Quarters Assignment Date for Housing Allowance. A housing allowance continues to accrue through the day before a Service member is assigned Government quarters or begins to occupy Government quarters at the PDS.

8.1.5. Quarters Termination Date for Housing Allowance. Housing allowance accrues from the date the assignment to Government quarters ends or the date that quarters are vacated.

8.2 Government Quarters Assigned or Occupied (260802)

8.2.2. Quarters Not Designated as Family-Type Quarters. A Service member who is not assigned to and does not occupy Government quarters is authorized a housing allowance for a dependent even if the dependent occupies Government quarters not designated as family-type quarters. Examples of such quarters include:

8.2.2.1. Dormitory quarters occupied by a Service member’s child at a school for dependents of military personnel;

8.2.2.2. A hospital room occupied by a dependent under 10 U.S.C. § 1077, Dependents Medical Care Act. However, a Service member is not authorized a housing allowance when the dependent is hospitalized under the Dependent’s Medical Care Act and the Service member is assigned to and occupies Government quarters while the dependent is hospitalized even though private quarters are retained; or 8.2.2.3. Off-base housing or private-sector housing occupied by the Service member’s civilian spouse due to employment overseas with the DoD Education Activity (DoDEA) as a schoolteacher. The Service member must be separated from the spouse by official orders.

8.2.3. Quarters Furnished on Behalf of the United States. A Service member is not authorized a housing allowance for a dependent if the Service member and dependent is furnished adequate family-type quarters without rental charge. Examples of such family-type quarters include:

8.2.3.1. Quarters furnished to a Service member in an official capacity by a foreign government;

8.2.3.2. Quarters furnished by a state, county, municipal, or privately owned hospital to an officer serving on AD as an intern or resident physician; or 8.2.3.3. Quarters furnished by a college, university, or a research facility as part of a fellowship, scholarship, or grant.

8.2.4. Quarters Occupied by Dependent. A Service member furnished single-type quarters is not authorized a housing allowance for any of the following:

8.2.4.1. A spouse who is a sole dependent and is furnished quarters in kind as a civilian employee at a Government hospital;

8.2.4.2. A spouse who is a sole dependent and is furnished Government quarters while serving with the American Red Cross overseas;

8.2.4.3. A sole dependent who is a student nurse in training at a Government hospital. However, a housing allowance is payable on behalf of a dependent who is a student nurse in training at a civilian hospital;

8.2.4.4. A civilian spouse who is a sole dependent and is furnished Government quarters while assigned overseas with DoDEA as a schoolteacher;

8.2.4.5. A dependent who occupies Government housing facilities and evacuated to a safe haven. See subparagraph 8.2.6 for an exception when the Service member must continue to pay for private-sector housing; or 8.2.4.6. Any dependent, if one or more of the Service member’s dependents occupy the quarters with the Service member on a permanent basis for more than 90 days, unless another dependent is officially prevented from residing with the Service member.

8.2.5. Rental Quarters (Other Than Inadequate Quarters). A Service member and a dependent who occupy the following facilities on a rental basis are authorized a housing allowance. The facilities are:

8.2.5.1. Any housing facilities, including trailers, under the Government’s jurisdiction other than Government quarters constructed or designated for occupancy without charge. The Service member may sublease such quarters with or without charge to a temporary sublessee and neither the sublessor nor a Service member sublessee loses the right to a housing allowance;

8.2.5.2. A hotel on the grounds of a Service Academy. A Service member is authorized BAH while renting quarters in a hotel on the grounds of a Service Academy; or 8.2.5.3. Quarters furnished to a Service member for service in a capacity other than that of a Service member.

8.2.6. Quarters at Safe Haven Temporarily Occupied by Dependents

8.2.6.1. A Service member is authorized a housing allowance for a dependent when both of the following occur:

8.2.6.1.1. The Service member’s dependent occupies Government provided housing at a safe haven area after emergency evacuation from private-sector housing at the PDS; and

8.2.6.1.2. Due to conditions beyond the Service member’s control, the Service member is required to continue rent payment for the private-sector housing to keep the furnishings and belongings in the private-sector housing and to have housing available upon the dependent’s return.

8.2.6.2. This authority continues until a dependent is authorized to return to the Service member’s PDS or the dependent arrives at a designated place as specified in the JTR, Chapter 6.

8.2.7. Lease on Private-Sector Rental or Leased Housing. When a Service member makes a local move from private-sector rented or leased housing to Government housing, a housing allowance is not payable for the remainder of the lease on the private-sector housing even though the Service member is required to honor the lease.

8.2.8. Limitation on Quarters Occupied by Service Member

8.2.8.1. When adequate quarters are not furnished for a Service member’s dependent, the Service member is not authorized BAH or OHA if the Service member occupies Government quarters that exceed the minimum standards for his or her grade “without-dependent.” This applies either at the PDS or TDY location unless the quarters are the only quarters available and either of the following conditions apply:

8.2.8.1.1. The quarters are not suitable for joint occupancy; or 8.2.8.1.2. If suitable for joint occupancy, the quarters are jointly occupied with another Service member permanently assigned to the PDS.

8.2.8.2. This limitation does not apply to a Service member on medical hold or holdover personnel receiving outpatient medical treatment who have been designated as requiring a live-in non-medical attendant. The Service determines the housing standards for such personnel based on medical condition, treatment, non-medical attendant, and other relevant factors.

8.2.9. Additional Room Assigned to Chaplain. Assignment of an additional room to a chaplain for spiritual purposes does not affect the Service member’s authority for BAH or OHA. The chaplain must use the room for official duties and not as living quarters.
8.3 Government Quarters Designated as Inadequate (260803)

8.3.1. Housing Allowance Authority. Service member with-dependents may be assigned Government quarters designated as inadequate on a rental basis without loss of BAH. This does not apply to bachelor officer quarters, visiting officer quarters, guesthouses, and similar type facilities, or to assigned Government quarters undergoing ordinary repairs. An order stating that quarters were inadequate while repairs were being made cannot serve to authorize BAH during the period involved.

8.3.2. Effect of Subleasing Inadequate Government Quarters. The Service member may share the Government quarters with others or permit occupancy by others while on leave. The Service member may also sublet the Government quarters on a rental basis without loss of BAH, regardless of the amount of rent.

8.3.3. Rental Charge for Inadequate Government Quarters. The authority controlling the inadequate Government quarters establishes the procedures for collecting rent from the Service member at the Government quarters’ fair rental value. The rental charge for the Government quarters must be its fair rental value, limited to 75% of the Service member’s with-dependent BAH rate (see 10 U.S.C. § 2830). The rental charge is independent of the amount and type of BAH paid to the Service member.

8.3.4. Effective Date of BAH and Rental Charge. BAH and rental charge begin on the date of the Service member’s assignment to such Government quarters or on the date the determination of inadequacy is effective, whichever is later.

8.3.5. Computation of BAH and Rental Charge. BAH and the rental charge are computed on a 30-day month basis and prorated at one thirtieth of the monthly rate for each day inadequate Government quarters are assigned. BAH is not paid for, nor is rent charged, for the 31st day of a month. When inadequate Government quarters are assigned on February 28, pay 3 days’ BAH and charge 3 days’ rent. Rent is not charged for the day the assignment ends; however, BAH accrues for the termination day.

8.3.6. Inadequate Government Quarters Re-Designated Adequate. Rental charges and BAH end on the date rehabilitated inadequate Government quarters are re-designated as adequate Government quarters. If the Service member’s assignment to inadequate Government quarters continued during the rehabilitation period, the adequacy re-designation is effective the 1st day of the month following the month in which the rehabilitation was completed.

8.3.7. Two Service Members Married to Each Other—Each Authorized BAH. When two Service members married to each other jointly occupy inadequate family quarters on a rental basis, see section 4.0 to determine their respective BAH rates. The rental charge for the Government quarters must be the assigned inadequate family-type Government quarters’ fair rental value, but must never exceed 75% of the with-dependent BAH rate that would be payable to a Service member of the same grade and rank as the Service member under whose eligibility the Government quarters are assigned. The BAH paid to the respective Service members does not affect the rent amount charged, even if a Service member is receiving BAH at the with-dependent rate.
BAH is collected as specified in Service procedures. For inter-Service marriages, the rental charge is collected as specified in the procedures of the Service furnishing the Government quarters.

9.0 PRIVATIZED HOUSING (2609)

“Privatized housing” is defined as housing units on or near a military facility in the United States or its territories and possessions that are acquired by or constructed by private persons under the authority of 10 U.S.C. §§ 2871-2885. The Service Secretary determines which privatized housing is suitable for use as military family housing. Each Service member occupying privatized housing is authorized a housing allowance in the same manner as a Service member not assigned to Government quarters. See subparagraph 5.3.2 for the Navy Barracks Privatization Test.

10.0 ASSIGNMENT SITUATIONS (2610)

10.1 Service Member Without-Dependent (261001)

A Service member without a dependent entitled to basic pay is authorized BAH or OHA in the situations specified in Table 26-26 and as otherwise specified in this paragraph. Ordinarily BAH or OHA is based on the service member’s PDS and paid when adequate Government quarters are not provided at the PDS.

10.1.1. Service Member Away From PDS. A Service member away from the assigned PDS may occupy Government quarters designated for a Service member without-dependent at the TDY location without affecting the Service member’s authority to receive BAH or OHA or to be assigned quarters at the Service member’s PDS. Under such circumstances, a Service member may not occupy Government quarters that exceed the minimum standards specified for a Service member of that grade “without-dependent,” unless they are the only quarters available and are available for joint occupancy with other Service members. This limitation does not apply to a Service member who is on medical hold or is receiving outpatient medical treatment and has been designated as requiring a live-in non-medical attendant. The Service determines the housing standards for these personnel based on medical condition, treatment, non-medical attendant, and other relevant factors.

10.1.2. Government Quarters. A Service member is not authorized BAH or OHA if assigned or occupies Government Quarters suitable and adequate for the member’s grade at the PDS. Government Quarters occupied without payment of rental charges are deemed assigned as appropriate and adequate quarters. When not assigned to Government quarters at the PDS, BAH or OHA accrues while in a duty or authorized leave status not due to PCS. BAH or OHA continues if temporary Government quarters are occupied.

10.1.3. Service Member TDY. A Service member on TDY (including permissive travel) when no PCS is involved, is authorized to continue to receive BAH or OHA if authorized prior to the TDY. For a Service member below grade E-7 on a TDY without a PCS involved authority for BAH or OHA does not exist during the TDY if quarters are assigned or furnished at the PDS, even if the quarters are vacated at the beginning of the TDY. BAH or OHA does not accrue if assigned quarters at the PDS.
10.1.4. PCS Between PDSs in Proximity. Ordinarily a housing allowance is paid based on the Service member’s PDS or the home port for a Service member assigned to a ship or afloat unit.

10.1.4.1. The Service may instead pay a housing allowance based on the old PDS rate in a situation involving a low or no-cost move. The determination of whether to base the housing allowance on the old PDS because it is inequitable to base it on the new PDS, is made by the Secretary concerned or through the Secretarial Process.

10.1.4.2. When a Service member is ordered on a PCS between PDSs located in proximity to each other, housing allowances continue when the Service member continues to commute from the residence occupied while at the old PDS. The housing allowance continues from the time between the Service member’s detachment from the old PDS and reporting to the new PDS, unless otherwise prohibited in this Chapter.

10.1.4.3. If a Service member is reassigned under the conditions of a low-cost or no-cost PCS and is not authorized a household goods (HHG) move, the housing allowance is based on the old PDS under the following conditions:

10.1.4.3.1. The Service member requested the old PDS housing allowance; and 10.1.4.3.2. The Service-selected decision process determines that it would be inequitable to base the Service member’s allowances on the housing cost in the Service member’s new PDS area.

10.1.5. Service Member in Grade E-7 or Above Not on Sea Duty. A Service member without a dependent in grade E-7 or above may elect at any time not to occupy Government quarters at the PDS and is authorized BAH or OHA unless the Secretary concerned or designee has determined that the Service member’s exercise of this option would adversely affect a training mission, military discipline, or readiness.

10.1.6. Service Member in Grade E-6 Not on Sea Duty. A Service member without a dependent in grade E-6 assigned to inadequate Government quarters or to a housing facility under the jurisdiction of a Uniformed Service that does not meet DoD adequacy standards, may elect to not occupy such quarters and receive BAH or OHA instead. The Secretary concerned, or the designee, may deny BAH or OHA on determining that the Service member’s exercise of this option would adversely affect a training mission, military discipline, or readiness.
10.1.7. Service Member on Sea Duty. A Service member assigned on permanent duty to a ship ordinarily has Government Quarters available aboard that ship. The Secretary Concerned may determine that a ship or class of ships is inadequate for berthing a member in home port, in which case the ship or class of ships is not available as Government Quarters for housing allowance purposes. When quarters aboard a ship, deemed adequate for berthing, become temporarily unavailable due to maintenance or damage, Government Quarters are no longer available onboard the ship. The Service concerned provides guidance on payment of housing allowances or alternate berthing procedure for ships that become temporarily unavailable for berthing.

10.1.7.1. A Service member without a dependent in grade E-6 or above assigned to permanent sea duty aboard a ship may elect not to occupy assigned shipboard Government quarters and receive BAH or OHA. A Service member in pay grade E-6 or above is authorized to receive BAH or OHA after reporting to a deployed ship or afloat unit.

10.1.7.2. A Service member without a dependent in grade E-5 assigned to permanent sea duty aboard a ship cannot elect not to occupy assigned shipboard Government quarters and receive BAH or OHA. Under Service regulations, the Secretary concerned may authorize BAH or OHA to a Service member without a dependent who is serving in grade E-5 and is assigned to sea duty. When preparing regulations under this paragraph, the Secretary concerned must consider Government quarters availability for a Service member serving in grade E-5.

10.1.7.3. A Service member without a dependent in grade E-4 assigned to permanent sea duty aboard a ship cannot elect not to occupy assigned shipboard Government quarters and receive BAH or OHA. Under Service regulations, the Secretary concerned may authorize BAH or OHA to a Service member without a dependent who is serving in grade E-4 and is assigned to sea duty. When preparing regulations under this paragraph, the Secretary concerned must consider Government quarters availability for a Service member serving in grade E-4.

10.1.7.4. A Service member married to another Service member who is in a pay grade below E-6 is authorized BAH or OHA if assigned to permanent sea duty.

10.2 Service Member With-dependent (261002)

10.2.1. Authorized BAH or OHA. Except for a Service member paying child support and assigned to Government quarters, a Service member with a dependent, who is entitled to basic pay is authorized BAH or OHA at the with-dependent rate when any of the following conditions are met:

10.2.1.1. Adequate Government quarters are not furnished for the Service member and dependent without a rental charge payment;

10.2.1.2. Adequate Government quarters are not furnished for the Service member’s dependent, or not all of the Service member’s dependents are authorized to occupy Government quarters assigned to the Service member. This does not apply when the child is living with the former spouse and the Service member has remarried;
10.2.1.3. A dependent is not en route or does not accompany the Service member to the PDS, or the PDS vicinity, which prevents assignment of family quarters. This situation does not prevent the Service member from receiving BAH or OHA for a dependent;

10.2.1.4. A single or divorced Service member who maintains legal and physical custody of a child before receipt of a PCS authorization or order to an unaccompanied tour may continue to be paid BAH at the with-dependent rate for the last PDS, or designated place, as specified in this paragraph. The divorce decree must state the specific period during which the Service member has legal and physical custody. BAH at the with-dependent rate is authorized only for the period the Service member would have the custody of the child if not serving on the unaccompanied tour. For military necessity, the Service member must place the child in the physical custody of a relative or caregiver designated by the Service member, to be authorized BAH or OHA at the with-dependent rate; or

10.2.1.5. A Service member, classified as with-dependent for housing purposes solely because the Service member is paying child support, is not authorized a housing allowance other than BAH-Diff if he or she is assigned to Government quarters or both of the following apply:

10.2.1.5.1. The Service member is assigned to sea duty in a grade above E-3; and

10.2.1.5.2. The Service member is authorized to and does not occupy the assigned, unaccompanied Government quarters by choice.

10.2.2. Location Rate. Ordinarily a housing allowance is based on the Service member’s PDS, or the home port for a Service member assigned to a ship or afloat unit. However, the Service may determine that a Service member’s assignment to a PDS, or the circumstances of that assignment, requires a dependent to reside separately. Authorization or approval of a housing allowance based on the dependent’s location or old PDS is through the Service Secretary or through the Secretarial Process.

10.2.2.1. Low or No-Cost Moves. A Service may pay BAH or OHA based on the old PDS rate in situations involving low or no-cost moves and for situations in which the Service member and dependent are residing separately. The determination of whether it is inequitable to pay BAH or OHA based on the new PDS is through the Secretarial process. When a Service member is ordered on a PCS between PDSs located in proximity to each other and continues to commute from the residence occupied while at the old PDS, BAH or OHA continues from the time between the Service member’s detachment from the old PDS and reporting to the new PDS, unless otherwise prohibited in this Chapter. A Service member ordered on PCS with TDY, or leave en route is authorized BAH or OHA based on the old PDS during that period. If a Service member is reassigned under the conditions of a low-cost or no-cost PCS and is not authorized an HHG move, BAH or OHA may be based on the rate for the old PDS if both the following conditions are met:
10.2.2.1.1. It was requested by the Service member; and

10.2.2.1.2. The decision of whether it would be inequitable or not to base the allowance on the housing cost in the new PDS area to which the Service member is reassigned, is determined through the Secretarial Process.

10.2.2.2. Unaccompanied or Dependent-Restricted Assignment OCONUS

10.2.2.2.1. BAH or OHA is based on the old PDS in a situation in which the Service member is making a PCS to a dependent-restricted or unaccompanied assignment OCONUS and the dependent remains at the Service member’s old PDS.

10.2.2.2.2. If the dependent of a Service member assigned to an unaccompanied tour moves to a designated place, the Service member is authorized BAH or OHA based on the dependent’s location. Payment based on the old PDS is not authorized.

10.2.2.3. Location Rate Changes. Location rate changes may be routinely authorized or approved when a Service member is:

10.2.2.3.1. Assigned to a PDS in an area at which sufficient housing quantities do not exist;

10.2.2.3.2. In receipt of a PCS order to a unit with a promulgated change of home port and dependents relocate to the announced home port (or authorized designated place in the United States) before the effective date of the home port change;

10.2.2.3.3. Assigned to “unusually arduous sea duty” and a dependent resides at or relocates to a designated place in the United States;

10.2.2.3.4. Assigned to or is in receipt of a PCS authorization or order to a ship entering overhaul involving a home port change and his or her dependent is not relocated due to the home port change;

10.2.2.3.5. Disadvantaged due to reassignment for reasons of improving mission capability and readiness of the unit, in receipt of a PCS authorization or order between PDSs located in the same proximity, and disallowed HHG movement. A determination must be issued through the Secretarial Process that implementing this policy in the interest of correcting an inequity incurred due to movement of the Service member for purposes of improving mission capability and unit readiness;

10.2.2.3.6. Assigned to an intermittent TDY or a TDY pending further orders; or 10.2.2.3.7. Assigned to a Professional Military Education or training course that is scheduled for a duration of 1 year or less.

10.2.2.4. Multiple Dependent Locations. In instances when dependents are in multiple locations, the Service member must designate the dependent’s primary residence. The housing allowance rate is based on this primary residence.

10.2.2.5. Ship or Home Port

10.2.2.5.1. A Service member assigned to duty aboard a ship or other afloat unit is authorized a with-dependent allowance when supported by a statement of the Service member’s commanding officer, or an officer designated by the commanding officer. The statement must specify that the dependent has established a residence at or in the home port vicinity. The applicable with-dependent allowance is payable even though the Service member is quartered in kind aboard a ship with his or her afloat unit. The rate payable is the rate applicable to the ship’s or afloat units’ home port.

10.2.2.5.2. The housing allowance must change to the new home port rate on the effective date of the home port change if the Service member is currently assigned or is in receipt of a PCS order to a ship or another afloat unit with an announced home port change and their dependent is authorized travel to the new home port.

10.2.2.6. Other Circumstances. The Secretary concerned may determine that other circumstances may require a dependent to reside separately from the Service member and authorize or approve a housing allowance payment based on either the dependent’s location or the old PDS. If the Secretary concerned determined that an additional reason for a BAH or OHA waiver was acceptable, the Secretarial Process may then be used to authorize or approve individual cases based on that determination.

10.2.3. During Leave, Travel Status, Separation, and Other Situations. Table 26-27 and paragraph 10.10 specify BAH or OHA accrual for a Service member entitled to basic pay with a dependent. In Table 26-27, the phrase “due to a PCS” refers to whether or not the Service member is en route to a new PDS under a PCS authorization or order.

10.3 Service Member with Acquired Dependent (261003)

When a Service member acquires a dependent, for example, through marriage, birth, or adoption, a with-dependent housing allowance is authorized as of the date the dependent is acquired.

10.3.1. PDS in the CONUS. When the Service member is assigned to a PDS in the CONUS, the housing allowance is authorized based on the PDS. He or she may request through the Secretarial Process a housing allowance based on the dependent’s residence location. Table 26-28 specifies the changes in BAH or OHA when a Service member acquires a dependent while assigned in the CONUS.
10.3.2. PDS OCONUS. When a Service member is assigned at a PDS OCONUS and the dependent does not reside at or near the PDS OCONUS, the housing allowance is based on the dependent’s location. If the dependent does reside at or near the PDS OCONUS, the housing allowance is based on the PDS OCONUS.

10.3.3. FSH Eligibility. Table 26-30 specifies FSH authorization for a Service member assigned to a PDS OCONUS. FSH eligibility is effective the date the dependent is acquired.

10.4 Service Member With-Dependent Serves Unaccompanied or Dependent-Restricted Tour OCONUS or “Unusually Arduous Sea Duty” Outside the United States (261004)

A Service member with a dependent who serves an unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour OCONUS or “unusually arduous sea duty” outside the United States is authorized a with-dependent housing allowance based on the dependent’s location. The housing allowance may be based on the old PDS if the dependent remained in the residence shared with the Service member before the PCS, did not relocate, and is not in Government quarters. The housing allowance for the dependent’s location may be authorized or approved to be effective on the date of the lease.

10.4.1. FSH Authorization. If the Service member is serving an unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour and single-type Government quarters are not available for assignment at the PDS OCONUS, and the dependent does not reside at or near the PDS, then FSH-O or FSH-B is also authorized. A Service member assigned to “unusually arduous sea duty” is not authorized FSH since Government quarters are available for assignment.

10.4.2. Dependent Visit. Table 26-31 specifies changes made to allowances when a dependent visits a Service member serving an unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour. If the Service member is in a BAH area, in Alaska or Hawaii, then the allowance specified in Table 26-30 is either BAH or FSH-B, as applicable. If the Service member is outside the United States, then the allowance is either OHA or FSH-O, as applicable. If all of a Service member’s dependents arrive at his or her PDS OCONUS and stay beyond 90 days, the Service member is not authorized OHA simply because the dependent is present. To be paid OHA the Service member must provide the required documentation (a completed and approved DD 2367) for private-sector leased or owned housing.

10.4.3. Initial Tour of Duty. When a Service member serves an unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour at the first PDS (i.e., the initial PDS when coming on AD) payment of a with-dependent housing allowance is based on one of the designated locations specified in the JTR, Chapter 5, paragraph 050814 if the dependent has been authorized or approved to reside at one of those locations.

10.4.4. Transfer Between Unaccompanied or Dependent-Restricted Tours. A Service member transferred between unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tours, whose dependent does not move, continues to be authorized a with-dependent rate based on the dependent’s location. A Service member is authorized a with-dependent rate based on the dependent’s new location if the Service member is transferred between unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tours and the dependent moves from either:
10.4.4.1. The Service member’s old PDS (the PDS before the Service member was assigned on the first unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour) to a designated place; or 10.4.4.2. A designated place to another designated place if the move is authorized or approved.

10.4.5. Dependent Relocates to Other OHA Location. If a dependent relocates from a designated place at personal expense to any other OHA location that is not in the vicinity of the Service member’s PDS, start OHA based on the new location effective the date private-sector housing is obtained once the required documentation is provided. If the dependent departed from an OHA area, stop the with-dependent allowance based on the designated place effective the day before the dependent departed that location. If the dependent departed from a BAH area, stop the with-dependent allowance the day before the dependent arrives at the new location.

10.4.6. Dependent Relocates to Other BAH Location. If the dependent relocates at personal expense from a designated place in a BAH area to a different location in a BAH area that is not at or near the Service member’s PDS, continue BAH based on the previously authorized location (either the old PDS or dependent location before the move). If the dependent relocates from a designated place in an OHA area to a location in a BAH area, start BAH based on the new location on the dependent’s arrival date and stop the OHA the day before dependent’s departure.

10.4.7. Situation-Based Rate for Housing Allowance. Table 26-32 specifies situation-based rate information. A housing allowance must not be paid if a Service member is assigned adequate family-type Government quarters at the PDS. Do not start the housing allowance until the Service member terminates the family-type Government quarters assignment.

10.4.7.1. If a Service member is assigned to an unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour at a PDS OCONUS and he or she is required to perform a TDY anywhere in the world, due to a transfer to another unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour, and the dependent continues to reside at the same location then continue to pay the housing allowance based on the dependent’s permanent residence.

10.4.7.2. If a Service member is assigned to an unaccompanied or dependent-restricted tour at a PDS OCONUS and the Service member is required to perform a TDY due to a transfer to the United States, and the dependent continues to reside at the same location then continue to pay a housing allowance based on the dependent’s permanent residence location through the day before the Service member’s reporting day to the new PDS. Start BAH or OHA based on the new PDS, the day the Service member reports at that PDS.

10.4.7.3. If a Service member is assigned to “unusually arduous sea duty” in the United States and the dependent is not residing with the Service member at the unit’s home port then pay BAH based on the unit’s home port. The Service member may request a waiver through the Secretarial process for BAH or OHA to be based on the old PDS if the dependent remained in the residence shared with the Service member before the PCS, or based on the dependent’s current location.
10.5 Reserve Component (RC) Member (261005)

A DoD retired Service member ordered to AD is authorized the same housing allowances as an RC member. A lease agreement or verifiable purchase price is required before OHA payment.

10.5.1 Order Duration. An RC member called or ordered to AD for 30 or fewer days is authorized the RC rate (BAH-RC), except for contingency operations or for an AGR member. A Service member called or ordered to AD for 31 or more days, except a Service member without a dependent during initial entry training, is authorized BAH or OHA. An RC member initially on a tour of 30 or fewer days who receives an order modification, assignment extension, or additional consecutive orders with a prospective, new active-duty period of 31 or more days receives BAH or OHA on the modification date. BAH-RC stops the day before the amendment or modification and BAH or OHA based on the primary residence starts on the modification date. This rate is payable as of the date of the amendment, modification or new issuance and continues for the tour duration except as otherwise specified in this chapter. If there is a break in service, periods of AD previously served may not be added together to meet the requirement for BAH or OHA that AD exceeds 30 days under the authority of 37 U.S.C. § 403(g)(6)(C)(iii). See Table 26-48 for examples. See paragraph 10.10 for the rate payable to a Service member in a travel status while in the accession pipeline travel.

10.5.1.1 Called or Ordered to AD for 30 or Fewer Days. If the RC member is called or ordered to AD for 30 or fewer days and the duty is not in support of a contingency operation, then start BAH-RC on the first day of AD. If the duty is in support of a contingency operation, then start BAH or OHA based on the primary residence at the time called or ordered to AD beginning on the first day of AD.

10.5.1.2 Called or Ordered to AD for Other than Training or Active Duty for Training (ADT) for 31 or More Days. An RC member called or ordered to ADT for a period lasting between 31 and 139 days, receives BAH or OHA based on the primary residence at the time called or ordered to ADT beginning on the first day of AD. An RC member called or ordered to AD for other than training for a period lasting between 31 and 180 days, except if he or she is without a dependent during initial entry training, is authorized BAH or OHA based on the primary residence beginning on the first day of AD. This rate continues for the tour duration except as otherwise specified in this chapter.

10.5.1.3 Called or Ordered to ADT for 140 or More Days and Authorized HHG Transportation. Except when supporting a contingency operation, the initial rate ends on the day before the RC member reports at the duty location specified in the active-duty order. Whether or not the duty is in support of a contingency operation, BAH or OHA based on the primary residence starts at the time called or ordered to AD for training, beginning on the first day of AD and continues through the day before arrival at the PDS. BAH or OHA based on the PDS location begins on the day the RC member reports at that location. An RC member called or ordered to ADT for 140 or more days at one location or other than training for 181 or more days is authorized BAH or OHA in the same manner as a Service member already on AD. OHA or BAH is not authorized for an RC member assigned adequate Government quarters to his or her grade and dependency status at the PDS.

10.5.1.4. Called or Ordered to ADT for 140 or More Days But Not Authorized HHG Transportation. If the RC member is not authorized HHG transportation (e.g., duty is not performed for 140 or more days at one location), he or she receives BAH or OHA based on the primary residence at the time called or ordered to AD, except as specified for an RC member OCONUS without a dependent. An RC member without a dependent authorized PCS allowances but not HHG transportation to a location OCONUS and Government quarters are not available, receives BAH or OHA based on the primary residence, unless the rate at the PDS is authorized or approved through the Secretarial Process.

10.5.1.5. Called or Ordered to AD Other Than Training for 181 or More Days But Not Authorized HHG Transportation. An RC member called or ordered to AD for other than training for 181 or more days who is not authorized HHG transportation for a PCS receives BAH or OHA based on the primary residence, except as specified for an RC member OCONUS without a dependent in subparagraph 10.5.1.6. The member must be residing at any of the following locations at the time called or ordered to AD:

10.5.1.5.1. At a location outside the local commuting distance of the RC member’s primary residence and the duty is not for more than 180 consecutive days at one location;

10.5.1.5.2. At a location other than the RC member’s primary residence but authorized TDY allowances as specified in the JTR, Chapter 3;

10.5.1.5.3. At a location to which the RC member commutes from his or her primary residence; or

10.5.1.5.4. At a location OCONUS for a prospective period of less than 12 months.

10.5.1.6. RC Member Without-Dependent OCONUS. An RC member without a dependent—or who has no dependents other than for whom he or she is paying child support—and who is not authorized FSH as specified in section 7.0 receives BAH or OHA based on the primary residence. If all the following conditions apply:

10.5.1.6.1. The RC member is authorized PCS allowances to a location
OCONUS;

10.5.1.6.2. The RC member is not authorized PCS HHG transportation because the prospective period is less than 12 months. HHG transportation under a TDY order, as specified in the JTR, Chapter 2, does not affect this housing allowance authority; and 10.5.1.6.3. Government quarters are not available at the PDS.

Then the Service may determine that it is inequitable to pay a housing allowance based on the primary residence. A housing allowance based on the PDS may be authorized or approved through the Secretarial Process. If Government quarters are available for assignment to the RC member at the PDS, he or she receives only BAH or OHA based on the primary residence.

10.5.1.7. Called or Ordered to AD for Contingency. An RC member called or ordered to AD in support of a contingency operation is authorized BAH or OHA based on the primary residence beginning on the first day of AD. This rate is authorized even for duty of 30 or fewer days. This rate continues for the duration of the tour unless the RC member is authorized PCS HHG transportation, in which case the rate for the PDS would apply on the day the RC member reports to the PDS.

10.5.1.8. Injured or Physically Disabled While on AD or on Inactive-Duty Training

10.5.1.8.1. An RC member injured or physically disabled due to an injury, illness, or disease incurred or aggravated in the line of duty during any of the following is authorized BAH or OHA:

10.5.1.8.1.1. Performing AD;

10.5.1.8.1.2. While on inactive-duty training, other than work or study in connection with a correspondence course of an armed force, or attendance in an inactive status at an education institution under the sponsorship of an armed force or the USPHS; or

10.5.1.8.1.3. While authorized incapacitation pay, which may include BAH or OHA under DoDI 1241.01 (RC Line of Duty Determination for Medical and Dental Treatments and Incapacitation Pay Entitlements).

10.5.1.8.2. BAH or OHA is based on the primary residence and is paid beginning on the date the RC member becomes entitled to incapacitation pay. BAH or OHA for an eligible RC member may not be paid for more than 6 months except when, in the interest of fairness and equity, the Secretary concerned or the Secretary’s designee extends incapacitation pay. For offsets, see 37 U.S.C. § 204(g) and (h), and DoDI 1241.01 (RC Line of Duty Determination for Medical and Dental Treatments and Incapacitation Pay Entitlements).

10.5.1.9. Order Modification or Amendment. When an RC member receives an order modification or amendment extending his or her assignment, the prospective new active-duty period determines the authority for housing allowances. If the prospective period is 140 or more days for training or 181 or more days and HHG are authorized for the PCS, the BAH-RC or BAH or OHA based on the primary residence stops the day before the modification or amendment and BAH or OHA based on the new PDS begins on the modification date.

10.5.2. Contingency Operation. An RC member called or ordered to AD in support of a contingency operation is authorized BAH or OHA for the duration of the tour. If the RC member receives a PCS order authorizing HHG transportation, BAH or OHA is based on the new PDS.
However, if the Service member is called or ordered to AD and a PCS order is not issued, BAH or OHA is based and paid on the primary residence location at the time called or ordered to AD except for an AGR member.

10.5.3. AGR Member. An AGR member’s BAH or OHA is based on the PDS, even when the Service member is mobilized for AD other than for AGR duty, provided the Service member does not have a break in service. The rate based on the PDS applies for the duration of the tour. If the AGR member receives a PCS order authorizing HHG transportation, BAH or OHA is based on the new PDS. However, if the Service member is called or ordered to AD without a break in service and a PCS order authorizing HHG transportation is not issued, BAH or OHA is based and paid on the PDS location at the time called or ordered to AD. A break in service occurs when 1 or more calendar days between active-duty service periods do not qualify as active-duty service. If an AGR member has a break in service when called to AD for other than AGR duty, then the Service member is paid a housing allowance as for any other RC member (for example, the primary-residence rate).

10.5.4. RC Member Married to Service Member. Unless an RC member is assigned to a contingency operation or is an AGR member when he or she is called to AD for 30 or fewer days, the RC member is authorized the RC rate (BAH-RC) without-dependent rate if he or she is not assigned to Government quarters and is married to another Service member on AD without a dependent. For such an RC member on AD for 31 or more days, each Service member is authorized BAH or OHA at the without-dependent rate. If a Service member in this situation has a dependent, BAH or OHA is paid as for an active-duty member.

10.6 Government Defers Dependent Travel (Non-Concurrent Travel) (261006)

10.6.1. When the Government defers dependent travel at Government expense to a Service member’s new PDS, a with-dependent housing allowance continues to be paid at the old PDS rate, or at the rate for the dependent’s location if the dependent relocated there at Government expense. In a case in which the Secretarial Process previously authorized a housing allowance based on the dependent’s location, that rate continues.

10.6.2. If otherwise eligible, FSH-O or FSH-B for the Service member’s location starts when the Service member obtains private-sector housing.

10.6.3. The payment of the with-dependent allowance and FSH-O or FSH-B continues for 60 days after dependent travel is authorized. If the 60-day time period expires, a dependent has not arrived at the Service member’s PDS, and an extension to the 60-day period has not been granted through the Secretariat Process, a housing allowance is not authorized for the dependent’s location. However, the Service member is authorized a with-dependent allowance based on the PDS location.

10.6.4. Table 26-34 specifies changes to a housing allowance when the Government defers a dependent’s travel to a duty station OCONUS.
10.6.5. Tables 26-35 and 26-36 specify changes, based on location and expected travel delay, when the Government defers dependent travel to a duty station in the CONUS when the area has been declared a concurrent dependent travel application area (see JTR, Chapter 5, paragraph 051205).

10.7 Dependent Travels Before or After Service Member (261007)

When a PCS order has been issued, the Service member’s family may perform PCS travel at a different time than the Service member.

10.7.1. Housing Allowance Based on Dependent’s Location or Old PDS. Unless otherwise authorized or approved, a Service member’s housing allowance is based on the PDS. If authorized or approved through the Secretarial Process, a Service member may be authorized a housing allowance based on the location at which a dependent maintains a permanent residence or the old PDS. Situations that are routinely authorized or approved at a lower level than the Service Secretary are listed in subparagraph 10.2.2. An example of advance travel is the member’s family travels ahead to get settled before school starts. An example of delayed travel is the family remains at the old PDS until the school year ends.

10.7.2. Secretarial Determinations. The Secretary concerned may determine that other circumstances may require a dependent to reside separately from the Service member and authorize or approve a housing allowance payment based on either the dependent’s location or the old PDS. If the Secretary concerned determined that an additional reason for a BAH or OHA waiver was acceptable, the Secretarial Process may then be used to authorize or approve individual cases based on that determination.

10.7.3. Rates Applicable

10.7.3.1. If a dependent relocates, the rate applicable to the dependent’s new residence location is effective on the date the dependent arrives.

10.7.3.2. If the dependent does not relocate, the with-dependent allowance is based on the higher of the rates for the dependent’s location or the Service member’s old PDS and continues until the dependent departs the authorized or approved location.

10.7.3.3. A Service member is generally authorized BAH-Transit while on leave and travel between PDSs. However, in situations in which the Secretary concerned has authorized or approved an advance or delayed travel situation, the authorized or approved allowance at the with-dependent rate applies. In delayed travel situations, when the dependent departs the authorized or approved location, the allowance changes to the new PDS if the Service member has already arrived there or to the BAH-Transit if the Service member is still in transit.

10.7.4. Advance Travel. In all cases of advance travel, if the Service member is assigned Government quarters at the old PDS and a housing allowance has not been approved by the Secretarial process for the dependent’s location, do not start either BAH or OHA.
10.7.4.1. Table 26-37 specifies changes to housing allowances when the old PDS and new PDS are in the BAH area.

10.7.4.2. Table 26-38 specifies changes to housing allowances when the old PDS is in the BAH area and the new PDS is outside the OHA area.

10.7.4.3. Table 26-39 specifies changes to housing allowances when the old PDS is outside the OHA area and the new PDS is in the BAH area.

10.7.4.4. Table 26-40 specifies changes to housing allowances when both the old and new PDS are outside the OHA area.

10.7.5. Delayed Travel

10.7.5.1. Table 26-41 specifies changes to housing allowances when the old PDS and new PDS are in the BAH area.

10.7.5.2. Table 26-42 specifies changes to housing allowances when the old PDS is in the BAH area and the new PDS is outside the OHA area.

10.7.5.3. Table 26-43 specifies changes to housing allowances when the old PDS is outside the OHA area and the new PDS is in the BAH area.

10.7.5.4. Table 26-44 specifies changes to housing allowances when the old PDS and new PDS are outside the OHA area.

10.8 Early Return of Dependent (ERD) (261008)

10.8.1. Early Return at Government Expense

10.8.1.1. When all of a Service member’s dependents return from a PDS OCONUS at Government expense not due to a PCS, regardless of the reason for the return, the Service member is authorized a housing allowance at the with-dependent rate based on the dependant’s permanent residence location effective on the arrival day or the date the ERD order was issued, whichever is later. If the dependant’s location is in an OHA area, start OHA on the date private-sector housing is acquired.

10.8.1.2. OHA, or BAH in Alaska or Hawaii, at the with-dependent rate for the Service member’s PDS OCONUS stops on the day before the day the rate for the dependant’s permanent residence starts. If the Service member resides in private-sector housing after the dependant’s departure and single-type Government quarters are not available, FSH-O or FSH-B for the Service member’s PDS location is authorized effective on the day the rate for the dependant’s permanent residence location begins. If Government quarters are assigned or made available to the Service member following a dependant’s departure, no housing allowance is payable for the Service member’s PDS.
10.8.1.3. Whether or not a Service member is assigned family Government quarters:

10.8.1.3.1. If the dependent’s location is in a BAH area, start with-dependent BAH based on dependent residence location as of the dependent’s arrival date or the date the ERD order was issued, whichever is later.

10.8.1.3.2. If the dependent’s location is in an OHA area, start OHA on the date private-sector housing is acquired for the dependent (based on the paperwork) or the date the ERD order was issued, whichever is later.

10.8.1.4. When a Service member assigned to Government family-type quarters terminates the quarters assignment and single-type Government quarters are not available, start FSH effective on the termination date, the date private-sector housing for the Service member is acquired (based on the paperwork for OHA), or the date the ERD order was issued, whichever is later.

10.8.1.5. If a Service member is not assigned to Government family-type quarters then stop the with-dependent rate based on the PDS on the day before the allowance rate based on the dependent’s location starts. If single-type Government quarters are not available, start FSH-O or FSH-B the day the allowance based on the dependent’s location starts.

10.8.2. Early Return at Personal Expense. When all of a Service member’s dependents returned early from a PDS OCONUS at personal expense, the Service member is not authorized a second housing allowance and the housing allowance at the with-dependent rate based on the Service member’s PDS continues without change, unless there is an OHA-related paperwork change. If the Service member vacates family-type Government quarters that were occupied by the dependent before the dependent’s departure, the Service member is authorized an allowance at the with-dependent rate for the Service member’s PDS. If a Service member assigned family Government quarters at the PDS OCONUS terminates a Government quarter assignment while:

10.8.2.1. In a BAH area, start with-dependent BAH based on the PDS as of the termination date; or 10.8.2.2. In an OHA area, start with-dependent OHA based on the PDS as of the date (based on the paperwork) private-sector housing is acquired or the termination date, whichever is later.

10.9 Evacuation of a Service Member’s PDS (261009)

10.9.1. Service Member With a Dependent

10.9.1.1. PDS OCONUS-Command-Sponsored Dependent (see Chapter 67)

10.9.1.1.1. A Service member, whose command-sponsored dependent is evacuated and who was authorized a with-dependent housing allowance on the evacuation date, continues to be paid that allowance while the Service member’s PDS remains unchanged and the Service member continues to maintain private-sector housing, as long as the command-sponsored dependent is receiving evacuation allowances.

10.9.1.1.2. If a dependent, command sponsored for OCONUS COLA, is authorized to return to the PDS after being evacuated, no housing allowance actions are required, whether or not the Service member is assigned quarters at the PDS.

10.9.1.1.3. If a dependent’s return to the PDS is not authorized or approved, then the dependent must select a designated place and will continue to receive evacuation allowances as specified in the JTR, Chapter 6. A Service member is authorized a with-dependent allowance based on the location of the designated place beginning the day after the evacuation allowance ends, whether or not the Service member is assigned Government quarters at the PDS.

10.9.1.1.3.1. If the Service member is not assigned Government quarters at the PDS, OHA or BAH based on the PDS OCONUS stops on the day before the allowance based on the designated place starts.

10.9.1.1.3.2. If Government quarters are not available for the Service member at a PDS OCONUS, start FSH-O or FSH-B based on the PDS on the same day as the with-dependent allowance based on the designated place starts.

10.9.1.2. PDS OCONUS-Non-Command Sponsored Dependent

10.9.1.2.1. If the evacuation occurs 89 or fewer days after a dependent arrived at the Service member’s PDS OCONUS and the Service member is still being paid a with-dependent allowance based on the dependent’s permanent residence or designated place as well as FSH-O or FSH-B based on the PDS OCONUS rate, then no changes in housing allowances are required. Whether the Service member is assigned Government quarters at the PDS is not a factor.

10.9.1.2.2. If the evacuation occurs 90 or more days after a dependent arrived at the Service member’s PDS OCONUS and the Service member is now being paid a with-dependent allowance based on the PDS, reinstate OHA or BAH based on the dependent’s prior permanent residence or designated place on the dependent’s departure day from the PDS. Stop the with-dependent OHA or BAH allowance based on the PDS the day before the dependent departs. If after the dependent departs and Government quarters are not available for the Service member, then start FSH based on the PDS on the day the dependent departs the PDS.

10.9.1.3. PDS in the CONUS

10.9.1.3.1. A Service member who was authorized a with-dependent BAH on the date the dependent was evacuated continues to be paid BAH as long as the dependent is receiving evacuation allowances when both of the following conditions apply:

10.9.1.3.1.1. The Service member’s PDS remains unchanged; and 10.9.1.3.1.2. The Service member continues to maintain private-sector housing.

10.9.1.3.2. If a dependent is authorized to return to the PDS after being evacuated, no housing allowance actions are required. Whether the Service member is assigned Government quarters at the PDS is not a factor.

10.9.1.3.3. If the return of a dependent to the PDS is not authorized or approved, the dependent is directed to select a designated place and continue to receive evacuation allowances as provided in the JTR, Chapter 6 until he or she establishes a permanent residence. A Service member is authorized a with-dependent allowance based on the designated place beginning the day after evacuation allowances end. BAH based on the PDS stops the day before evacuation allowances end.

10.9.2. Service Member Without-Dependent. A Service member without a dependent, who was authorized OHA or BAH at the PDS on the date an evacuation is ordered or authorized, and who continues to maintain a private-sector residence, continues to be authorized the allowance even though the Service member temporarily may be required to occupy Government quarters or be sent on a TDY. When the commanding officer believes the Service member will not be permitted to return to the private-sector housing in the foreseeable future, the commander must encourage the Service member to end the private-sector housing at the earliest practical date and end OHA or BAH concurrent with the private-sector housing termination.

10.10 Service Member in Transit (261010)

BAH-Transit is a temporary housing allowance paid while a Service member is in a travel or leave status between PDSs, provided the Service member is not assigned Government quarters while at the old or new PDS. If the Service member performs a TDY en route at the new PDS, BAH or OHA for the new PDS begins the day of arrival in a TDY status at the new PDS. If the Service member performs a TDY en route at a location near, but outside the limits of, the new PDS or to the home port of a ship, afloat staff, or afloat unit, per diem stops as specified in the JTR, Chapter 5. BAH or OHA for the new PDS begins the day per diem stops.

10.10.1. Old PDS in the United States. A Service member’s old PDS is the PDS for BAH purposes from the day the Service member departs the old PDS through the day before the Service member reports to the new PDS in compliance with a PCS order. If the Service member had been residing in Government quarters at the old PDS, the Service member is authorized BAH as of the Government quarters termination date.

10.10.2. Old PDS Outside the United States. When a Service member’s old PDS is outside the United States, and the Service member is not assigned Government quarters, the Service member is authorized OHA through the day before departing the PDS outside the United States. The day the Service member departs, OHA is no longer authorized and the Service member is authorized BAH-Transit if the Service member is not receiving a with-dependent housing allowance for a dependent residing separately. If the Service member is being paid BAH at the with-dependent rate for a dependent residing separately, that BAH rate continues until the Service member arrives at the new PDS. If the Service member is being paid OHA at the with-dependent rate for a dependent residing separately, that OHA rate continues provided the dependent remains at the location outside the United States. If the dependent also performs PCS travel, BAH-Transit applies.

10.10.3. New Accession. A Service member in the accession pipeline includes a Service member who is undergoing initial entry training, including an RC member, a student—includes Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) and Officer Candidate School—without prior military Service, or a Service academy graduate upon graduation, until arrival at the first PDS. The Service member remains in the accession pipeline until the Service member arrives at a PDS, including a training location of 20 or more weeks. An RC member remains in the accession pipeline until he or she completes entry-level training or arrives at a PDS, whichever occurs first.

10.10.3.1. Service Member Without-Dependent. A Service member in the accession pipeline without a dependent is authorized BAH-Transit when in a travel, leave en route, or proceed time status while transferring from the initial entry training location, between training locations, and to the first PDS. For BAH authorization only (not locality rate), the training sites are defined as a PDS except for an RC member without a dependent. A Service member without a dependent is not authorized BAH (except BAH-Partial) while at the training locations since Government quarters are assigned at the PDS. An RC member without a dependent attending accession training is authorized BAH or OHA based on the primary residence location at the time called or ordered to AD if the Service member maintains a residence and continues to be responsible for rent, or owns the residence.

10.10.3.2. Service Academy or ROTC Graduate Without-Dependent. A Service academy or ROTC graduate without a dependent is authorized a housing allowance at the without-dependent rate for the graduation or commissioning location through the day before departure en route to the training location, if he or she:

10.10.3.2.1. Remains on AD at the graduation or commissioning location following graduation and commissioning before proceeding to another duty station; and 10.10.3.2.2. Is not assigned Government quarters.

10.10.3.3. Service Member With a Dependent. The BAH rate for a new accession with a dependent is based on the dependent’s location if the location is in the United States. If dependent is located outside the United States, BAH is based on the training site location. If an officer who was previously authorized a housing allowance at the without-dependent rate for the graduation or commissioning location specified in subparagraph 10.10.3.2 acquires a dependent, the officer’s housing allowance at the with-dependent rate becomes based on the dependent’s location effective the date the dependent is acquired.
10.10.4. Retirement or Separation

10.10.4.1. From a PDS in the United States. A Service member’s old PDS is the PDS for BAH purposes from the day the Service member departs the old PDS through the separation or retirement date. If the Service member had been residing in Government quarters at the old PDS, the Service member is authorized BAH beginning the date Government quarters are terminated provided the Service member is still on AD.

10.10.4.2. From a PDS Outside the United States

10.10.4.2.1. Establishes Residence Outside the United States. A Service member at a PDS outside the United States, who is processing for retirement or separation or on leave after processing, and who intends to establish a residence in an OHA-based area after retirement or separation, is eligible for OHA. To be paid OHA under any of the circumstances listed, the Service member must provide a lease and a completed and approved DD 2367.

10.10.4.2.1.1. If the Service member continues to occupy private-sector leased or owned housing at or in the PDS vicinity, OHA continues until the date of separation or retirement.

10.10.4.2.1.2. If the Service member occupies private-sector leased or owned housing after vacating Government quarters or moves to different private-sector housing in the same country, OHA starts on the date the Service member obtains private-sector housing and stops on the date of separation or retirement.

10.10.4.2.1.3. If a Service member at a PDS outside the United States moves to a different country that is an OHA area to establish a residence after separation or retirement, the Service member is eligible for a housing allowance based on the residence location. OHA starts on the day the Service member obtains private-sector housing and stops on the date of separation or retirement. However, if the Service member is being paid OHA at the with-dependent for dependents residing separately, that OHA rate continues provided the dependents remain at the location OCONUS.

10.10.4.2.2. Returns to a U.S. Processing Station. If not assigned Government quarters, a Service member separating or retiring at a PDS outside the United States, who returns to the United States for retirement or separation processing, is authorized OHA through the day before departing the PDS outside the United States. The day the Service member departs that PDS, OHA is no longer authorized. The Service member is authorized the BAH rate for the retirement or separation processing location if he or she is not receiving a with-dependent housing allowance for a dependent residing separately. If the Service member is being paid a with-dependent BAH rate for a dependent residing separately, that BAH rate continues until the Service member separates or retires. NOAA’s Marine and Aviation Operations and Commissioned Personnel Centers are the processing stations for NOAA.
10.10.4.2.3. Returns to the United States After Completing Separation or Retirement Processing Overseas. If not assigned Government quarters, a Service member retiring or separating at a PDS outside the United States, who returns to the United States after completing retirement or separation processing at the overseas PDS, and who does not have a processing location within the United States, is authorized OHA through the day before departing the PDS outside the United States. The day the Service member departs that PDS, OHA is no longer authorized. The Service member is authorized the BAH rate for the leave address provided as part of the final processing if he or she is not receiving a housing allowance at the with-dependent rate for a dependent residing separately. If the Service member is being paid a BAH at the with-dependent rate for a dependent residing separately, that BAH rate continues until the Service member separates or retires.

10.10.5. Decision Process for a Service Member in Transit

10.10.5.1. In all cases for a Service member in transit the following decisions must be made:

10.10.5.1.1. If a Service member is assigned Government quarters adequate for the Service member and the dependent, if applicable, the Service member is not authorized BAH or OHA. Start BAH or OHA effective the date of the quarters termination, as applicable;

10.10.5.1.2. If the Service member has a Secretarial waiver to pay BAH based on the previous PDS, or BAH based on the dependent’s location, then continue that rate until the Service member arrives at the new PDS; or 10.10.5.1.3. If a Secretarial waiver is for an OHA location, continue the OHA rate if the dependent remains at the OHA location.

10.10.5.2. A payment of OHA requires a lease agreement or a verifiable purchase price.

10.10.5.3. A Service member who is participating in the Educational Leave Program Relating to Continuing Public and Community Services, and the Service member is authorized BAH or OHA, start BAH or OHA based on the designated unit of assignment during scheduled school breaks or leave periods.

10.10.5.4. If a Service member receives an appropriate authorization or order associated with a prolonged hospitalization determination and is transferred from any PDS to a hospital in the United States for observation or treatment, pay BAH based on the hospital location if the Service member is authorized BAH.

10.10.5.5. Table 26-45 specifies housing allowances for a Service member in transit on a PCS. Table 26-46 specifies housing allowances for a Service member who is a new accession. Table 26-47 specifies housing allowances for a Service member awaiting final discharge or in processing for separation or retirement.
10.11 Service Member in a Missing Status (261011)

10.11.1. Service Member Without-Dependent. A Service member without a dependent carried in a missing status is authorized without-dependent BAH. Pay BAH at the without-dependent rate based on the PDS for a Service member whose PDS is in the United States. If the Service member had a Secretarial waiver to receive BAH based on the former PDS due to a low-cost or no-cost PCS, then that BAH rate continues. Pay BAH at the without-dependent rate based on the home of record (HOR) location for a Service member whose PDS is outside the United States. If the Service member’s HOR and PDS are outside the United States, then pay the without-dependent BAH-Transit rate. See Chapter 34 (Pay Entitlement of Members Missing, Missing in Action, Interned, and Payments to Dependents).

10.11.2. Service Member With-Dependent. A Service member with a dependent continues to receive the housing allowance authorized upon entering the missing status. If the dependent relocates, pay the housing allowance at the with-dependent rate based on the dependent’s location.

10.12 Service Member in Confinement (261012)

Pretrial confinement, restraint other than confinement, or an adjudged sentence of restriction alone does not affect a Service member’s BAH authority.

10.12.1. Transferred to a Confinement Facility. When a Service member who is serving a court-martial sentence to confinement is transferred to a confinement facility, then the BAH or OHA rate is based on the dependent’s location if the Service member is authorized a housing allowance, other than BAH partial, while confined. A Service member is not authorized a housing allowance unless authorized basic pay. All rules concerning whether a Service member in civil or foreign confinement, including pre-trial, is authorized basic pay are covered in Chapter 1 (Creditable Service). This rule does not address a Service member’s authority for a housing allowance when civil or foreign authorities confine the Service member.

10.12.2. In Confinement

10.12.2.1. BAH or OHA does not accrue while the Service member is confined pursuant to a court-martial and the sentence is effective or approved or when the Service member was not receiving BAH or OHA on the day before confinement and Government quarters assignment was not terminated before or during confinement. Service procedures must specify how and by whom Government quarters termination must be certified. Confinement imposed pursuant to a court-martial sentence begins the date the sentence is adjudged (10 U.S.C. § 857(a), (b)).

10.12.2.1.1. If a Service member is in confinement in a guardhouse, brig, or correctional barracks pursuant to a court-martial—not including pretrial confinement, restraint other than confinement, or an adjudged sentence of restriction alone—then the Service member’s BAH or OHA accrues if the sentence is set aside or disapproved. The Service member must be otherwise authorized to receive BAH or OHA.
10.12.2.1.2. A Service member without dependents who is confined in a guardhouse, brig, or correctional barracks, was assigned to single-type Government quarters before confinement, and remains assigned to such quarters during confinement is authorized BAH-Partial unless forfeiture of allowances was directed. If he or she is restrained in a status of arrest in assigned single-type Government quarters, and therefore not authorized BAH or OHA, then the Service member is authorized BAH-Partial unless forfeiture of allowances was directed.

10.12.2.2. For FSH, a Service member in military confinement or otherwise restricted by military authority continues FSH for 60 or fewer days without certificate from the Service member. The FSH may continue for more than 60 days, but payment must be supported by the Service member’s certification that he or she maintained private-sector housing at the PDS.

10.13 Housing Allowance Following Service Member’s Death (261013)

BAH or OHA continuation or payment to the surviving dependent of a Service member who dies on AD is authorized for 365 days. It is paid to the dependent when, on the date of the Service member’s death, the dependent either does not occupy Government quarters, is occupying Government quarters on a rental basis, or vacates Government quarters within 365 days of the Service member’s death.

10.13.1. Not Payable. The housing allowance is not payable to a dependent who killed the Service member, unless there is evidence that clearly absolves the dependent of any felonious intent. It also is not payable to a surviving dependent of an RC member if that RC member dies while on inactive duty.

10.13.2. Payment Priority. Payments to a surviving dependent are made first to the current spouse. If there is no current spouse, the housing allowance is divided equally among the dependents on whose behalf the deceased Service member was receiving a with-dependent housing allowance.

10.13.3. Payment Amount and Method. The housing allowance is paid in the same amount and in the same manner as the deceased Service member would have been paid. The housing allowance may be paid quarterly as an advance payment, but must be reconciled. Housing allowance payments to the dependent are not subject to collection of any debts owed by the deceased Service member to the United States.

10.13.4. Surviving Service Member Spouse. (37 U.S.C. § 403(l)). The allowance in this paragraph may be paid to a deceased Service member’s spouse even if the spouse is also a Service member entitled to basic pay. The allowance is paid to the surviving Service member spouse in addition to any other pay and allowances to which the surviving Service member spouse is authorized as a Service member. The following payment rules apply:

10.13.4.1. Dual housing-allowance payments are authorized for a surviving Service member spouse.
10.13.4.2. When any dependents other than a surviving Service member spouse are involved, the housing allowances are paid in the same manner that was provided for before the Service member’s death. If the surviving Service member spouse was drawing the without-dependent housing allowance on the Service member’s date of death, that rate would continue for 365 days. On day 366, the surviving Service member spouse’s housing allowance could change to the with-dependent rate.

10.13.4.3. If the family vacates Government quarters, the surviving Service member spouse is paid the housing allowance that would have been paid to the deceased Service member, as well as the housing allowance to which the surviving Service member spouse is authorized. In this case, the surviving Service member spouse may determine on whose behalf the with-dependent and the without-dependent housing allowances are paid.

10.13.4.4. If the deceased Service member was receiving a with-dependent housing allowance solely for a dependent who may not be claimed by the surviving Service member spouse, the surviving Service member spouse is only authorized housing allowance continuation at the without-dependent rate. The remainder—the difference between the with-dependent and without-dependent rates—is divided equally among the dependents on whose behalf the deceased Service member was receiving the with-dependent rate.

10.13.5. Rate Defining Location

10.13.5.1. If a Service member with a dependent dies on AD while assigned to a PDS in the United States, then the housing allowance for the dependent is based on the deceased Service member’s PDS, regardless of the location where the dependent chooses to reside unless the dependent is in receipt of a Secretarial waiver.

10.13.5.2. If a Service member with a dependent dies on AD while assigned to a PDS outside the United States, then the housing allowance for the dependent is based on the location where the dependent resides, or chooses to reside, in the United States. If the dependent stays overseas, the housing allowance is based on the OHA rate—and the documented cost—for the location where the dependent resides. It then changes to BAH based on the United States location where the dependent later decides to reside on the date that any dependent arrives there or the date that all dependents have departed the PDS location, whichever is later. Authority exists for 365 days after the Service member’s death.

10.13.5.3. If a Service member with a dependent dies on AD and a dependent resides in Government quarters, then the housing allowance for the dependent is based on the dependent’s location the day that the Government housing facilities were vacated. That rate continues for 365 days, less the number of days the Government housing facilities were occupied following the date of the Service member’s death. If the Government housing was outside the United States, pay the housing allowance based on the location where the dependent chooses to reside.
10.14 Housing Flexibility for Certain Armed Forces Members With-Dependents, Permanent Change of Station (PCS) Within the United States (37 USC § 403a). Effective for PCS departures on or after October 1, 2018. (261014)

10.14.1. General. An eligible Armed Forces member with-dependents may be permitted certain housing flexibility while under a PCS order within the United States during a covered relocation period (DoDI 1315.18, Enclosure 3, paragraph 10).

10.14.2. Eligibility. An Armed Forces member with-dependents with PCS orders within the United States that may be authorized housing flexibility under this paragraph is an Armed Forces member who has one of the following:

10.14.2.1. A spouse who is gainfully employed or enrolled in a degree, certificate or license granting program at the beginning of the covered relocation period;

10.14.2.2. One or more dependents attending an elementary or secondary school at the beginning of the covered relocation period;

10.14.2.3. One or more dependents enrolled in the Exceptional Family Member Program; or 10.14.2.4. An immediate family member with a chronic or long-term illness at the beginning of the covered relocation period for whom the member is caring.

10.14.3. Covered Relocation Period. The covered relocation period begins 180 days before the date of the PCS, which is the date the Armed Forces member leaves the current PDS and ends 180 days after the date of the PCS. The Secretary concerned may lengthen or shorten the covered relocation period through the Secretarial process based on the needs of the Armed Forces. See the Housing Flexibility Decision Support Tools.

10.14.4. Expiration. If the Armed Forces member’s eligibility expires for any reason during the covered relocation period, that period is terminated and housing is paid at the PDS where the Armed Forces member is assigned at that time. If the Armed Forces member departs the old PDS, and the persons that are the basis of the eligibility do not arrive at the new PDS within the covered relocation period, housing allowances are paid at new PDS location rate beginning the day after the relocation period ends.

10.14.5. Authority. The dependents of an Armed Forces member may perform PCS travel at a different time than the Armed Forces member once the PCS order has been issued. Unless otherwise authorized or approved, the Armed Forces member’s housing allowance is based on the PDS. However, an eligible Armed Forces member may request a housing allowance based on the dependents location. If authorized or approved through the Secretarial Process for dependents who relocate in advance or after the Armed Forces member, a housing allowance under this paragraph may be based on one of the following:
10.14.5.1. The new PDS;

10.14.5.2. The location the dependents reside when the Armed Forces member departs for the new PDS (only for the time the dependents reside in that area); or 10.14.5.2. The area of the Armed Forces member’s former PDS, but only if different than the area the dependent resides.

<tr>
<td>3</td>
<td>Partial Housing Allowance (BAH-Partial)</td>
<td>Paid to offset the raise that was reallocated from basic pay to housing between 1980 and 1981. It is paid when a Service member without a dependent is assigned to single-type quarters, or is on either field or sea duty, and not authorized to receive a BAH or an OHA. BAH-Partial is not authorized during proceed time, leave en route, and travel time on a permanent change of station (PCS) move unless the member is assigned to single type Government quarters and not authorized BAH or OHA. <th>Applicable Rate Determination</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| 1    | BAH        | a. OUSD (P&R) determines adequate housing costs in a MHA for all Service members authorized BAH. OUSD (P&R) bases the determination for housing allowances upon the cost of adequate rental housing for civilians with comparable income levels in the same area.
   b. An adjustment in the BAH rates due to an OUSD (P&R) redetermination of housing costs in an MHA takes effect with the pay raise each year.
   c. An MHA is defined geographically by ZIP Code within the United States. Major military population areas are further identified by a combination of a two-digit code for the state and a three-digit numerical designation within the state. For small military population areas, ZIP Codes are aggregated into areas of similar housing cost and designated as county cost groups. |
| 2    | BAH-Diff   | The BAH-Diff is a fixed rate and is the difference between the with-dependent Basic Allowance for Quarters (BAQ) rate and the without-dependent BAQ rate as of December 31, 1997 based on the Service member’s grade and increased each year by the average pay raise percentage. |
| 3    | BAH-Partial| The BAH-Partial rate is the difference in basic pay between the 1980 and 1981 reallocated pay raises and what those basic pay rates would have been without the raise reallocation. The rate is statutory and does not change. |
| 4    | BAH-Transit| The BAH-Transit rate varies depending on the old PDS location and the housing allowance type received, unless a location-specific rate is payable. The default BAH-Transit rate is a fixed rate, which is the amount of BAQ on December 31, 1997, incremented by the average housing allowance increase each year. |
| 5    | BAH-RC     | The BAH-RC rate for a period of AD for a non-contingency operation of 30 or fewer days is a fixed rate, which is the BAQ amount on December 31, 1997, incremented by the average housing allowance increase each year. |
| 6    | OHA        | a. OUSD (P&R) determines adequate housing costs in a locality for all Service members authorized OHA by location.
   b. OHA rate ceilings are calculated based on data provided by commanders OCONUS and actual rent data derived from pay systems.
   c. The PDS geographic location governs the OHA rate payable unless otherwise specified. See OHA for how geographic locations are determined. |
| 7    | FSH        | a. FSH-B is payable in a monthly amount equal to the without-dependent BAH rate for the same location applicable to the Service member’s grade and PDS.
   b. FSH-O is payable in a monthly amount up to the without-dependent OHA rate for the same location applicable to the Service member’s grade and PDS, and is computed under the same rules and conditions as OHA. |

| 2    | Using the appropriate locality table, find the rental allowance for the Service member’s specific locality code and grade. For a Service member without-dependent, multiply the with-dependent rate by 90 percent. If rent includes:
|      | a. all utilities (block 7b checked on DD 2367), add the full utility and recurring maintenance allowance to the maximum rental allowance.
|      | b. some but not all utilities (block 7c checked on DD 2367), add the amount computed in Step 3 to the maximum rental allowance. |
| 3    | Locate the utility and recurring maintenance allowance from the locality table. Use the rules specified in paragraph 6.3 to determine the utility amount allowed based on the amount of utilities included in the rent, if any. Rent includes:
|      | a. all utilities (block 7b checked on DD 2367). The Service member receives no separate utility and recurring maintenance allowance; however, this allowance is added to the rental allowance determined in Step 2.
|      | b. no utilities (block 7a checked on DD 2367). A Service member with a dependent who is not a sharer receives the full utility and recurring maintenance allowance. A Service member without-dependent who is not a sharer receives 75% of the with-dependent utility and recurring maintenance allowance. A sharer, with or without a dependent, receives a prorated share of the utility and recurring maintenance allowance.
|      | c. some utilities (block 7c checked on DD 2367). Determine the “Climate Code” from the applicable OHA locality table. Use the “Climate Code” and “Utility Point Score” tables to determine the percentage of utility and recurring maintenance allowance payment. The amount the Service member does not receive is added to the maximum rental allowance determined in Step 2. |
| 4    | Compare the monthly rent computed in Step 1 with the rental allowance determined in steps 2 and 3. If the rent in Step 1 is:
|      | a. less than the rental allowance in steps 2 and 3, then rent in Step 1 is used to compute OHA.
|      | b. greater than the rental allowance calculated in steps 2 and 3, then the rental allowance calculated in steps 2 and 3 is used to compute OHA. |

CHAPTER 27

FAMILY SEPARATION ALLOWANCE (FSA)

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The chapter provides policy for FSA. FSA provides compensation for added expenses incurred because of an enforced family separation under one of the conditions in subparagraphs 2.3.1.1 through 2.3.1.3. FSA is payable to qualified members serving inside or outside the United States. It is not authorized when a member performs duty at any station under permissive orders (except when subparagraph 4.1.3 applies).

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code, section 427 (37 U.S.C. § 427). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 ENTITLEMENT PROVISIONS

2.1 Types Authorized

FSA is payable to members with dependents and a member married to another member of the uniformed services regardless of any other dependency status. FSA is payable in addition to any other allowance or per diem, to which a member may be entitled. The member, however, may not receive more than one payment of FSA for the same period, even though qualified for FSA-Restricted (FSA-R), FSA-Ship (FSA-S), and FSA-Temporary (FSA-T). Members must complete a DoD (DD) Form 1561 (Statement to Substantiate Payment of Family Separation Allowance) to substantiate entitlement to FSA.

2.2 Definitions

2.2.1 Dependents. The term “dependents” has the same meaning as defined in the Volume 7A, Definitions and is further defined in subparagraphs 2.2.1.1 through 2.2.1.4:

2.2.1.1 Child. A dependent child(ren) is an unmarried child(ren) of the member who is in the legal custody of the member. Legal custody includes a circumstance in which the member has been awarded joint physical, and legal custody of a dependent child(ren) as a result of a court ordered custody agreement or finalized divorce decree, which provides that the child(ren) physically reside with the member on an equal basis (no less than 14 days during a month) as compared to the time the child(ren) reside(s) with the former spouse, and the member’s actual physical custody of the child(ren) is precluded due to an enforced family separation described under paragraph 2.3. Such a custody arrangement must be stipulated in the signed court order or divorce decree, subject to the verification by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. See subparagraph 3.1.3.

2.2.1.2. Parents. The term “Parents” is defined in the Volume 7A, Definitions.

2.2.1.3. Spouse. An individual who is legally married to the Service member.

2.2.1.4. Ward. The term “Ward” is defined in the Volume 7A, Definitions.

2.2.2. Duty Station. The term “duty station” is defined in the Volume 7A, Definitions.

2.2.3. Permanent Duty Station (PDS). The term “PDS” is defined in the Volume 7A, Definitions.

2.2.4. Household. The term “household” means the same as “home” or “family.” It applies to a collection of persons living under one roof, having one head or manager who controls and supervises the affairs of the family. For FSA purposes, this applies only to secondary dependents.

2.3 FSA

2.3.1. When Payable. FSA is payable to a member serving in any grade as a member with dependents. The member must meet all general requirements and one of the following conditions:

2.3.1.1. FSA - R

2.3.1.1.1. The member’s dependents, including dependents acquired after the effective date of Permanent Change of Station (PCS) orders (see Table 27-1 (FSA Commencement Dates), rules 8 and 9), do not live in the vicinity of the member’s homeport/PDS, and their transportation to or near the PDS is not authorized at government expense (see paragraph 4.1).

2.3.1.1.2. Transportation of dependents is authorized at government expense, but member elects an unaccompanied tour of duty because a dependent cannot accompany the member to, or at that homeport/PDS due to certified medical reasons, regardless of the date on which the member first made the election to serve an unaccompanied tour.

2.3.1.2. FSA - S. The member is on duty aboard a ship:

2.3.1.2.1. and the ship is away from the homeport continuously for more than 30 days; or

2.3.1.2.2. under orders to remain on board a ship while at homeport and whose duty on board the ship is for a continuous period of more than 30 days. When a member is under orders to remain on board a ship while at homeport, the days on the ship while at homeport will count towards the more than 30 continuous days, except when a member is required to stay on board for disciplinary reasons.

NOTE: The dependents are not required to reside in the vicinity of the homeport.

2.3.1.3. FSA - T. The member is on Temporary Duty (TDY) or Temporary Assigned Duty (TAD) away from their PDS (PDS pertains to active component) or the home of residence (HOR) (HOR pertains to reserve component) continuously for more than 30 days, and the member’s dependents do not reside at or near the TDY or TAD station. This includes members who are required to perform a period of the TDY or TAD before reporting to their initial station of assignment. Members on an unaccompanied tour are entitled to FSA-T for TDY or TAD periods of over 30 continuous days if the member’s dependents do not reside at or near the TDY or TAD station and they do not reside near the PDS as defined in paragraph 3.3.

*NOTE: The DoD installation, base, or senior commanders must establish, in a written directive, the local area within which members are eligible for FSA, even if they come from different commands, units, installations, or Agencies. If the activity does not have a senior commander or is not located on a military installation, then the senior official determines the local area for that PDS location. The “local area” is defined as the area within the PDS limits and the metropolitan area around the PDS served by the local public transit systems; the local commuting area as determined by the AO or local Service or DoD Agency; and the separate cities, towns, or installations among which the public commutes on a daily basis. An arbitrary distance radius must not be defined for the local commuting area.

2.3.2. Amount Payable

Effective October 1, 2002, FSA is payable in a monthly amount of $250.

2.3.3. Conditions:

2.3.3.1. For specific commencement dates, see Table 27-1;

2.3.3.2. For overseas eligibility, see Table 27-2;

2.3.3.3. For specific dates to stop FSA, see Table 27-3; and

2.3.3.4. For specific conditions of entitlement, see Table 27-4.

2.3.4. Member Married to Member

2.3.4.1. FSA is payable to a member married to another member regardless of whether the member has any non-active duty dependents, when all other general conditions are met, and provided members were residing together immediately before being separated by reason of execution of military orders.
2.3.4.1.1. Except as provided in subparagraph 2.3.4.2, not more than one monthly FSA may be paid with respect to a married military couple for any month. Each member may be entitled to FSA within the same month, but both cannot simultaneously be entitled. Payment will be made to a member whose orders resulted in the separation. If both members receive orders requiring departure on the same day, then payment will go to the senior member.

2.3.4.1.2. If a member meets the requirements for credit of FSA, but entitlement is precluded by an existing entitlement status of the spouse, then the second member may, if still qualified, immediately become entitled to FSA upon termination of the spouse’s status. The couple may qualify for sequential entitlements to FSA, provided military orders keep them continuously separated.

2.3.4.1.3. In order to qualify for a subsequent entitlement to FSA, a married member couple, no longer separated by reason of military orders, must reestablish a joint household and reside together.

2.3.4.2. FSA is payable to both married members when they reside together with their dependents immediately before being separated from dependents, by competent orders to assignments prescribed in subparagraphs 2.3.1.1 through 2.3.1.3. Each member’s entitlement is determined individually based on assignment and separation from dependents. The dual allowance will continue until one of the members is no longer assigned to one of those duty assignments. The other member will continue to receive the allowance until no longer assigned to one of those duty assignments. This is true even when both members are assigned to the same duty location away from their dependents.

2.3.4.3. In the case of a member married to another member, and the couple has a child, one member may claim the child for entitlement to Basic Allowance for Housing and the other member, when otherwise entitled, may claim the child for entitlement to FSA. The FSA entitlement may alternate between members based on the same dependent. However, FSA may not be paid simultaneously to both members on behalf of the same dependent, except as provided in subparagraph 2.3.4.2. See subparagraph 4.1.4.

3.0 DEPENDENTS SEPARATION REQUIREMENTS

3.1 Dependents

A member is not considered “a member with dependents” for FSA entitlement when:

3.1.1. The sole dependent is placed in an institution for a known period of over 1-year or for an indefinite period, which may be expected to exceed 1-year;

3.1.2. The sole dependent is a spouse legally separated or child(ren) in the legal custody of another person. An exception occurs when the member has joint physical and legal custody of the child(ren) and the child(ren) otherwise would reside with the member at least 14 days each month, for the current assignment. In such assignment, the member will be considered as a “member with dependents” for FSA entitlement;
3.1.3. The member has been awarded joint legal and physical custody of the child(ren) as a result of a court ordered custody agreement or finalized divorce decree, which provides that the child(ren) physically reside with the member less than 14 days during the month;

3.1.4. The member’s dependent parent does not reside in the home, which the member controls, supervises, and maintains for mutual use when circumstances permit; or

3.1.5. A dependent is entitled to active duty basic pay. This does not negate an entitlement to FSA to a couple comprised of a member married to another member with no other dependents. Such a couple is entitled to FSA.

3.2 Temporary Social Visits by Dependents

3.2.1. FSA-R. Credit continues to accrue while the member’s dependents visit at or near the member’s PDS, but for no longer than 3 continuous months. Facts clearly must show that the dependents merely are visiting (not changing residence) and that the visit is temporary and not intended to exceed 3 months. If, for unforeseen reasons (due to illness or other emergency), a bona fide social visit extends beyond 3 months, then stop credit for FSA at the end of the 3-month period. If the visit initially is intended to exceed 3 months, then stop FSA credit the day before the dependents arrive at the member’s PDS. Credit is again authorized on and after the day that the dependents depart from the PDS. A member is entitled to FSA-R, even though one or more (but not all) dependents visit for longer than 3 months if the member is entitled on behalf of the dependents who are not visiting the member.

3.2.2. FSA-S. Credit continues to accrue to the member whose dependents are visiting at or near the duty station (or any port) continuously for 30 days or less. Facts must show that the dependents merely are visiting. If the visit exceeds 30 days, then entitlement to FSA-S ends on the day preceding the date of dependent arrival, unless the visit is extended because of illness or other emergency. Under such circumstances, payment of FSA-S is limited to 30 days. Entitlement to FSA-S exists if one or more (but not all) of the dependents visit for longer than 30 days if the member otherwise is entitled to FSA-S on behalf of the dependents who are not visiting the member.

3.2.3. FSA-T. Credit continues to accrue to a member whose dependents visit at or near the TDY or TAD continuously for 30 days or less. Facts must show that the dependents are merely visiting. If the visit exceeds 30 days, then the member is not entitled to FSA-T for any part of the period, unless the visit is extended because of illness or other emergency. Under such circumstances, payment of the allowance is limited to 30 days. Entitlement to FSA-T resumes on the day that the dependents depart the TDY or TAD, if the member’s TDY or TAD extends for more than 30 days from that date. Entitlement to FSA-T exists if one or more (but not all) of the dependents visit for longer than 30 days if the member otherwise is entitled on behalf of the dependents who are not visiting the member.
3.3 Dependents Reside Near Duty Station

3.3.1. FSA does not accrue to a member if all of the dependents reside at or near the duty station. If some (but not all) of the dependents voluntarily reside near the duty station, then FSA may accrue on behalf of those dependents who do not reside at or near the duty station. Consider dependents as residing near a duty station if the member actually commutes daily, regardless of distance. Also, consider dependents as residing near a duty station if they live within a reasonable commuting distance of that station, whether or not the member commutes daily. A distance of 50-miles, one way, is normally considered to be within a reasonable commuting distance of a PDS or Home of Residence (HOR pertains to reserve component), but the 50-mile rule is not inflexible.

3.3.2. Unusual conditions may permit a determination that dependents do not live within a reasonable commuting distance, even though the distance involved is less than 50 miles one way. In a situation where the distance is less than 50 miles, but the time required to commute one way by commonly used route and method of transportation would exceed one and a half hours, the dependents will be considered as not residing near the member’s duty station, unless the member actually commutes daily.

3.3.3. If dependents are authorized concurrent travel with the member to the duty station and are subsequently authorized to reside at a point over 50 miles from the member’s duty station for personal reasons, rather than as a result of military restriction on dependents’ travel, then FSA entitlement does not accrue.

3.3.4. In questionable cases, commanders may submit requests for determination through channels to the appropriate office listed:

4.0 CONDITIONS OF ENTITLEMENT

4.1 Entitlement Incident to PCS Reassignments

4.1.1. Continental United States (CONUS) Assignments. Conditions of FSA entitlement incident to regular CONUS PCS reassignments and permissive PCS reassignments are detailed in subparagraphs 4.1.1.1 through 4.1.1.3.

4.1.1.1. Entitlement to FSA upon regular PCS is authorized only when movement of a member’s dependents to the new PDS is not authorized at government expense.

4.1.1.2. A member who is otherwise entitled to transportation of dependents at government expense, but whose dependent cannot accompany the member to or at that homeport/PDS due to certified medical reasons, is entitled to FSA under this subparagraph.

4.1.1.3. A member who otherwise is authorized movement of dependents at government expense to PDS is not so authorized when he or she is voluntarily reassigned on PCS under permissive orders. Separation from dependents under these circumstances is not an enforced separation due to government requirements. The member, therefore, is not entitled to FSA under this subparagraph.

4.1.2. Waiver Provision. See subparagraph 4.1.4 for circumstances in which waivers may be granted.

4.1.3. Overseas Assignments. Dependents are permitted in some areas overseas and not permitted in others (dependent-restricted areas). A member selected for PCS overseas to an area where his or her dependents are permitted must elect to serve either an unaccompanied or an accompanied tour.

4.1.3.1. Except as waived by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, a member electing to serve an unaccompanied tour, in lieu of an accompanied tour at a PDS where his or her dependents are permitted, is not entitled to FSA-R for such a tour. A member who is in receipt of accompanied tour orders, and subsequently requests to serve an unaccompanied tour, to include a dependents-restricted tour, in lieu of an accompanied tour at a PDS where his or her dependents are permitted, is not entitled to FSA-R for such a tour. Secretarial waiver of this policy may be granted in situations where it would be inequitable to deny FSA-R to a member because of the unusual family or operational circumstances.

4.1.3.2. See applicable procedures for tour elections and secretarial waiver in the appropriate individual Military Service regulation.

4.1.3.3. Refer to Table 27-2 (FSA-R, Overseas Assignment) for FSA entitlement for otherwise eligible members assigned PCS overseas.

4.1.3.4. A member who voluntarily is reassigned PCS (overseas) under permissive orders from the station where he or she already is entitled to FSA-R remains entitled if reassigned to an area overseas where dependents are not permitted (dependent-restricted tour) or under circumstances authorized by secretarial waiver.

4.1.4. Unusual Family or Operational Circumstances Defined. Unusual family or operational circumstances are defined as those in which the Secretary of the Military Department concerned determines that it is in the best interest of the government to permit payment of FSA to members who, through no fault of their own, must relocate in an unaccompanied status under certain circumstances.

4.1.4.1. The Military Services may waive provisions of subparagraphs 4.1.1.1, 4.1.1.2, and 4.1.1.3 when it is in the best interest of the government to permit payment to members who, through no fault of their own, must relocate in an unaccompanied status for reasons of equity in the unusual family or operational circumstances. Waiver under these circumstances is effective upon the date granted. This approval authority is hereby granted to:

4.1.4.1.1. Service Secretaries or their designated representatives at the headquarters level which governs compensation policy; or 4.1.4.1.2. Combatant commands and Service major commands.

4.1.4.2. Waiver authority should be used prudently.

4.1.4.3. Waiver under these circumstances is effective upon the date granted:

4.1.4.3.1. When ordered to a new overseas duty station where terrorist activity would make it inappropriate for dependents to accompany the member; or 4.1.4.3.2. When ships in overhaul make temporary homeport changes.

4.1.4.4. Provided the requirements of subparagraph 2.3.1 are met, other than the requirement that the member’s dependents reside at the homeport or PDS, a waiver issued by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned will apply to the entire period of the deployment, an interim period, and redeployment.

4.1.5. Delays Caused by the Government (Table 27-2, Note 4). The following are examples of delays in transportation of dependents due to government reasons:

Example 1: On July 1, a member’s advance application for concurrent travel of dependents to the overseas station was disapproved by the CONUS commander due to lack of available government-owned transportation facilities. The commander’s disapproval contained a statement that the anticipated delay for movement of dependents is more than 60 days. The member departed the old station on July 6 and arrived at the overseas station on July 7 where government quarters were not available. Dependents joined the member on September 26 having performed travel under orders dated September 10. The member was entitled to FSA for the period July 6 through September 25.
Example 2: The member applied for a dependency determination for his or her dependent mother on June 3 and was transferred overseas on September 14. After arrival overseas, the member received approval of the dependency application for his or her dependent mother retroactive to May 1. The mother was not authorized concurrent travel to the member’s PDS because the determination of dependency had not been made on the effective date of those orders. Delay in processing the dependency application was caused by the government. Before the transfer overseas, the member had maintained quarters to be shared with his or her mother. An enforced separation resulted upon transfer overseas. Credit for FSA accrues from the date the member departed from the PDS or the first day of authorized travel time, whichever is later, through the day before the date that his or her dependent mother arrived at the overseas station.

4.1.7. Dependents Evacuated. A member is entitled to FSA if separated from dependents as a result of either an authorized evacuation or an ordered evacuation, provided that the requirements for FSA are otherwise met. Payment does not begin until the 31st day of an ordered evacuation. FSA is not payable when evacuation is due to member or dependent misconduct.

NOTE: Once the authorized evacuation is approved, FSA is paid retroactively to when dependents are evacuated.

4.1.8. Dependents’ Travel Prohibited Under Immigration Laws. No entitlement to FSA-R accrues if a dependent is authorized transportation at government expense but is not eligible under immigration laws for entry into the United States before a member reports to the new PDS. (Entitlement to FSA-T or FSA-S is not affected by this subparagraph.)

4.2 Unit Ordered on Exercise for More Than 30 Days

Otherwise qualified members of a unit are entitled to FSA-T when the unit is ordered on an exercise for more than 30 days.

4.3 FSA During a Missing Status

FSA-T continues to accrue to a qualified member while in a missing status unless there is a change in the status of the dependents, which would terminate entitlement. See Table 27-3 (Date to Stop FSA). A member may qualify for FSA-T while in a missing status if a continuous period of more than 30 days is completed after entry into the missing status. See paragraph 4.4.

Example: A member departed the PDS on TDY or TAD August 9, was downed by hostile fire while flying over enemy territory on September 2, remained in a missing status until November 4, and returned to PDS on November 10. The member qualified for FSA-T on September 8. If otherwise qualified, then entitlement exists for FSA-T for the period August 9 to November 9.
4.4 Computation of Single or Multiple Periods of More Than 30 Days

4.4.1. FSA-T for Single Periods. Credit for FSA-T may not be applied until the member has been on TDY or TAD away from his PDS continuously for more than 30 days. Compute this period as follows:

4.4.1.1. Count actual number of days in the month, including the day the member departs the PDS on TDY or TAD and the day of return to the PDS. Include the 31st day of the month in this computation, even though payment is made on a 30-day month basis, as prescribed in Chapter 1, section 2.0.

4.4.1.2. Include days of authorized travel time to and from the TDY or TAD station. When there is no delay en route chargeable as leave, count the day of departure from the PDS and the day of return to the PDS. When delay en route chargeable as leave is authorized, count the constructive day of departure and the constructive day of return. Compute these days as follows:

4.4.1.2.1. Constructive day of departure from the PDS is the actual date of detachment plus days of authorized leave, proceed time, and permissive travel days used or the first day of authorized travel, whichever is later.

4.4.1.2.2. Constructive day of return to the PDS is the actual date of return minus number of days leave authorized and used, minus the number of permissive travel days actually used.

Example 1: The member permanently stationed at site A is ordered TDY or TAD to site B for training of approximately 30 days. Training is to begin June 1. The member is authorized travel by privately owned conveyance (POC) as more advantageous to the government, and 5 days of leave en route. The member departs from site A on May 25 and uses 5 days of leave en route to site B. The member completes the training on June 27, departs from site B on June 28, and returns to duty at site A on June 30. Constructive day of departure is May 30. The period of absence is 32 days (May 30 - June 30). If a member qualifies under paragraph 2.3, then entitlement exists to FSA-T for 30 days (i.e., there is no entitlement for May 31 and June 30).

Example 2: Circumstances are the same as in Example 1, except that the member uses 5 days of leave after completion of training. The member departs from site A on May 30, completes training on June 27, departs from site B on June 28, and returns to duty at site A on July 5. The constructive day of return is June 30. The period of absence is 32 days, computed as in Example 1. If the member otherwise qualifies, then entitlement exists to FSA-T for 30 days.

4.4.1.3. When TDY or TAD is authorized in conjunction with PCS, include days of authorized travel time to the TDY or TAD station and from the TDY or TAD station to the new duty station. When there is no delay en route or proceed time involved, count the day of departure from the old duty station and the day of arrival at the new duty station. When delay en route and proceed time are authorized and used, the day of departure from the old station and the day of arrival at the new station will be constructed in the manner indicated in subparagraphs 4.4.1.2.1 and 4.4.1.2.2. Proceed time authorized and used will be included with the delay when making the computation. Consecutive assignments to TDY or TAD in conjunction with PCS may be combined in determining the 30-day period.

4.4.1.4. Under specific circumstances, when travel in connection with TDY or TAD is performed by POC for the convenience of the traveler, payment based on actual travel expenses may be more economical to the government than payment based on constructive travel time over a usually traveled route. In that case, the Joint Travel Regulations (JTR) authorizes travel payment based on the actual mode of transportation. In computing the more than 30 days required for entitlement to FSA-T under these circumstances, ensure that the computation is based on the mode of transportation, which governed payment of a particular member’s travel allowance. Computation for FSA-T entitlement under this subparagraph is not necessarily based on constructive travel time.

4.4.1.5. If a member’s TDY or TAD status is interrupted, then do not combine days before the interruption with those after the interruption to compute a continuous period of more than 30 days. Periods of leave, hospitalization, military confinement in a pay status, or short visits to the PDS do not interrupt the period unless the member is relieved from the attachment to the TDY or TAD station. A member who returns to the PDS to assume a duty status (such as participation in official flights) does interrupt a period of TDY or TAD. If leave en route is authorized after detachment from the TDY or TAD station, then add constructive travel time from the TDY or TAD station to the PDS to the period of TDY or TAD in determining the 30-day period.

4.4.2. FSA-T for Multiple Periods of Deployment. Provided the conditions of subparagraph 2.3.1.3 are met, the periods of FSA-T eligibility for multiple periods of TDY or TAD deployment, including the periods between such deployments, are calculated as follows:

4.4.2.1. Count. Although payment is made on a 30-day month basis, count the actual number of days in each applicable month, to include the 31st day of the month, as one of the actual days.

4.4.2.2. Computation. Calculate the FSA-T period of the initial TDY or TAD deployment to determine the initial deployment period as described in subparagraph 4.4.1.

4.4.2.3. Interim and Redeployment Period

4.4.2.3.1. The interim period begins on the day after the initial deployment through the day prior to redeployment. The interim period must be 30 days or less.

4.4.2.3.2. The redeployment period begins the day that the member departs the PDS and ends upon return to the PDS. The redeployment period must be more than 30 days and will be added to the interim period.
Example 1: The member permanently stationed at site A is ordered to perform TDY or TAD at site B for 45 days, with departure from PDS on January 2 and return to PDS on February 15. The member departs from PDS on March 18 for redeployment of 35 days. Since the member qualified for FSA-T for the initial deployment, he or she is eligible for continued FSA-T for the total 65 days of interim/redeployment period (actual interim period of 30 days and redeployment of 35 days).

Example 2: The member permanently stationed at site A is ordered to perform TDY or TAD at site B for 60 days, with departure from PDS on March 1 and return to PDS on April 29. The member departs from PDS on May 31 for redeployment of 40 days. Although the member qualified for the initial 60-day period deployment, he or she is ineligible for the interim period. The actual interim period is 31 days (April 30 - May 30). The member would be entitled to FSA-T for the actual redeployment period (40 days).

Example 3: The member permanently stationed at site A is ordered to perform TDY or TAD at site B for 31 days, with departure from PDS on June 1 and returns to the PDS on July 1. The member departs from PDS on July 2 for redeployment of 41 days. Since the member qualified for FSA-T for the initial deployment of 31 days, he or she is eligible for the continued FSA-T for the interim/redeployment period (actual interim period is 0 days, actual redeployment period is 41 days).

4.4.3. FSA-S for Single Periods. Credit for FSA-S may not be applied until the member has been on duty onboard a ship away from the homeport of the ship for a continuous period of more than 30 days. However, if a member is under orders to remain on board a ship while at homeport, the days on the ship while at homeport will count towards the more than 30 continuous days, except when a member is required to stay on board for disciplinary reasons. Periods of leave, TAD, hospitalization, military confinement in a pay status, or short visits by the member (not the ship) to the homeport of the ship do not interrupt the qualifying period unless the member is detached (PCS) from the ship. Consecutive assignments to duty onboard two or more ships away from the homeport may be combined to meet this requirement. See Example 5. In computing the continuous period of more than 30 days, count the actual number of calendar days (including the 31st day of the month) that the member was on duty onboard a ship while it was away from its homeport. Include in this computation the day of departure onboard a ship from its homeport (or the day the member joins or rejoins a ship away from its homeport, if applicable) and the day of return onboard a ship to its homeport. The following examples show how to compute the more-than-30-day period and the related amount of FSA-S payable.

Example 1: A member onboard a ship that departs its homeport on June 15 and returns on July 15 is entitled to FSA-S in the amount of $250 (actual period of 16 days in June and 15 days in July = 31 days; 16 days in June and 14 days in July = 30 days for payment).

Example 2: A member onboard a ship that departs its homeport on October 5 and returns on November 4 is entitled to FSA-S in the amount of $241.83 (actual period of 27 days in October and 4 days in November = 31 days; 26 days in October and 3 days in November = 29 days for payment).

Example 3: A member onboard a ship that departs from its homeport on February 25 (non-leap year) and returns on March 26 is not entitled to FSA-S since the absence is not more than 30 days (actual period of 4 days in February and 26 days in March).

Example 4: A member who reports onboard a ship on May 25 while it is away from the homeport and returns with the ship to the homeport on June 30 is entitled to FSA-S in the amount of $291.67 (actual period of 7 days in May and 30 days in June = 37 days; 6 days in May and 29 days in June = 35 days for payment).

Example 5: A member onboard a ship A that departed from its homeport on August 2 was transferred (PCS) to ship B on August 18 (detached and attached the same day) while ship B was away from its homeport. The member remains aboard ship B until it returns to the homeport on September 6. The member is entitled to FSA-S in the amount of $283.33 (actual period of 30 days in August and 6 days in September = 36 days; 29 days in August and 5 days in September = 34 days for payment).

Example 6: A member onboard a ship departs its homeport on June 15 and returns to homeport on June 19 and the member is under orders to remain on board the ship for 14 days while at homeport beginning June 19. The ship departs homeport on July 3 and returns on July 15. Member is entitled to FSA-S in the amount of $250 (actual period of 16 days in June and 15 days in July = 31 days; 16 days in June and 14 days in July = 30 days for payment).

4.4.4. FSA-S for Multiple Periods of Deployment. Provided the conditions of subparagraph 2.3.1.2 are met, the periods of FSA-S eligibility for multiple periods of TDY or TAD deployment aboard a ship, including the period between such deployments, are calculated as follows:

4.4.4.1. Count. Although payment is made on a 30-day month basis, count the actual number of days in each applicable month by including the 31st day of the month as one of the actual days.

4.4.4.2. Computation. Calculate the FSA-S period of the initial deployment aboard a ship as described in subparagraph 4.4.3.

4.4.4.3. Interim and Redeployment Period

4.4.4.3.1. The interim period begins on the day after the initial deployment through the day prior to redeployment. The interim period must be 30 days or less.
4.4.4.3.2. The redeployment period begins on the day that the member departs the ship’s homeport and ends upon returning to the homeport. The redeployment period must be more than 30 days and will be added to the interim period.

Example 1: A member is onboard a ship that departed from the homeport on January 2 and returned to the homeport on February 15. The same member is onboard a ship that departed from the homeport on March 18 for a redeployment of 35 days. Since the member qualified for FSA-S for the initial deployment, the member is eligible for continued FSA-S for the total 65 days of interim/redeployment period (actual interim period of 30 days and redeployment of 35 days).

Example 2: A member is onboard a ship that departed from the homeport on March 1 and returned to the homeport on April 29. The member also was onboard a ship that departed the homeport on May 31 for a redeployment of 40 days. Although the member qualified for the initial 60-day deployment, the member is ineligible for the interim period. Consequently, the actual interim period is 31 days (April 30 through May 30). The member would be entitled to FSA-S for the actual redeployment (40 days).

Example 3: A member is onboard a ship that departed from the homeport on June 1 and returned to the homeport on July 1. The same member was onboard a ship that departed the homeport July 2 for a redeployment of 41 days. Since the member qualified for FSA-S for the initial deployment of 31 days, the member is eligible for the continued FSA-S for the interim/redeployment period (actual interim period is 0 days, actual redeployment period is 41 days).

4.4.5. Restrictions. The following restrictions apply to subparagraphs 4.4.1 and 4.4.2:

4.4.5.1. There are separate 30-day requirements to qualify for FSA-T or FSA-S, and periods of TDY or TAD and duty aboard ship while away from homeport may not be combined for the purpose of FSA entitlement.

4.4.5.2. Periods of hospitalization or TDY or TAD for more than 30 days by the member at a place residing with his or her dependents may not be included when calculating whether the 30-day requirement was met.

4.5 Ship Moves from Homeport

4.5.1. When a ship moves from its homeport to another port within 50 miles of the homeport (or one and a half hours travel time as prescribed in paragraph 3.3), those members attached to the ship, whose dependents do not reside at or near such homeport under the criteria of paragraph 3.3, do not become entitled to FSA-S.

Example 1: A member, upon reassignment to a ship, moves the family to a location outside the current 50-mile (or one and a half hours travel time) limit from the homeport of the ship. When the movement of the ship is less than 50 miles (or one and a half hours travel time) from the homeport, FSA-S is not payable to those members. If, however, the ship moves more than 50 miles (or one and a half hours travel time) from the homeport, then FSA-S is payable if members otherwise are entitled.

Example 2: A member, upon reassignment to a ship, moves the family to a location outside the current 50-mile (or one and a half hours) limit of the ship’s homeport of the ship. Subsequently, the ship moves from the homeport and, on the 29th day, docks at a port inside the 50-mile (or one and a half hours travel time) limit of the homeport for 5 days. The ship then returns to the homeport. The docking of the ship within the 50-mile limit would, for purposes of this example, have the same consequence as if the ship had returned to its homeport since (a) the member’s dependents do not reside at or near the homeport, and (b) the ship did not move to a location more than 50 miles (or one and a half hours travel time) from the port. Therefore, entitlement to FSA-S does not accrue.

Example 3: A member, upon reassignment to a ship, moves the family to a location outside the current 50-mile (or one and a half hours) limit of the homeport of the ship, but actually commutes. The movement of the ship from the homeport results in the member being unable to commute. In this example, the member’s dependents would be considered as being in the area of the homeport. Since, after movement of the ship to a new location, the member is unable to commute, the member would meet the requirement for FSA-S, provided the dependents resided more than 50 miles (or one and a half hours travel time) from the new location.

Example 4: A member, upon reassignment to a ship, moves the family to a location within the 50-mile (or one and a half hours travel time) limit, the movement of the ship resulting in the residence being located outside the 50-mile (or one and a half hours travel time) limit for some of the members, but not all. Those members whose dependents reside more than 50 miles (or one and a half hours travel time) from the ship’s new location and who do not commute, would fulfill the vicinity requirement for entitlement to FSA-S. Those members whose dependents reside within 50 miles (or one and a half hours travel time) of the ship’s new location of the ship would not become entitled to FSA-S by virtue of the ship’s movement.

4.5.2. Members are entitled to FSA-S when performing duty onboard a ship if the ship is away from the homeport for more than 30 continuous days. If, however, the ship arrives and remains at a port other than the homeport for a period of more than 30 days at a location where the member’s dependents reside, then payment of the FSA-S is precluded if the member resides with the dependents. A member is entitled to FSA-S for redeployment if the member returned to the homeport after the original deployment for a period of 30 days or less and redeployed for a period of more than 30 continuous days.

NOTES:
1. Do not pay FSA-T or FSA-S until the member has been on TDY or TAD or on duty aboard ship away from homeport continuously for more than 30 days (or, if applicable, for more than 30 days after the date that a dependent is acquired). In computing the amount payable, the 31st day of any month should be excluded from the computation and February should be treated as if it actually had 30 days. (See paragraph 4.4.)
2. If the ship returns to homeport and a member is under orders to remain on board a ship while at homeport the days on the ship while at homeport will count towards the more than 30 continuous days, except when a member is required to stay on board for disciplinary reasons.
3. Does not apply if the ship is in a port (other than its homeport) located within commuting distance of the residence of the member’s dependents continuously for more than 30 days. Also, see paragraph 4.5.
4. The effective date of PCS orders is the date a member is required to begin travel from the old PDS or the last TDY or TAD, in order to arrive at the new PDS on the date authorized by the mode of transportation authorized. (JTR, Appendix A, Effective Date of PCS Order)
5. A member who acquired an initial dependent after the date of departure from old station en route PCS to CONUS from overseas or en route PCS within CONUS, but no later than the effective date of the PCS order, is entitled to travel for dependent at government expense based on JTR, Chapter 5. Therefore, the member is not entitled to FSA-R. (In this case, no tour election provision exists to overcome the travel provision.)

6. If already started under paragraph 3.2, the entitlement continues upon departure of dependents from the duty station.

7. FSA-R does not accrue if the member was onboard a ship when the change in homeport was declared, except under paragraph 4.1.

NOTES:
1. In all cases, entitlement exists only if dependents do not live at or near the duty station. (See paragraph 3.3.) In areas where dependents are not permitted, member does not have to apply for transportation of dependents or to elect type of tour.
2. These tours include dependent restricted tours and situations where the member is not authorized to serve an accompanied-with-dependents tour in those locations where such tours are authorized.
3. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may waive the provision in this rule to authorize FSA-R in cases where unusual family or operational circumstances exist for the member. See subparagraph 4.1.4 for conditions subject to waiver and individual Military Service regulations for procedures for requesting a waiver from the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.
4. Where dependents’ travel delay is not due to government reasons, but member is required to perform TDY or TAD en route, family separation for period of TDY or TAD is considered to be due to military requirements and member is entitled to FSA-R under Table 27-4, rule 11.
5. Delays due to government reasons include:
   a. lack of transportation facilities,
   b. disapproval by CONUS commanders,
   c. disapproval for reasons of health (i.e., pregnancy of wife), and
   d. insufficient service retainability or time remaining in the overseas tour.
6. FSA-R continues if member acted timely to apply for transportation of the dependents and the application was disapproved because of the lack of service retainability or time remaining in the overseas tour.

NOTES:
1. See paragraph 3.2 for temporary social visits.
2. If a delay en route and/or proceed time is authorized and used, then use a constructive date of arrival. Constructive date will be computed by deducting the number of days' leave and/or proceed time authorized and used from the actual date of arrival.
3. If delay en route and/or proceed time is authorized, then use the constructive date. (See subparagraph 4.4.1.)
4. See Table 27-4, rule 20 and subparagraph 4.4.2.3 for interim and redeployment periods.

CHAPTER 29

CLOTHING MONETARY ALLOWANCES

1.0  GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

The Secretary of Defense (SecDef) may, on an annual basis by law and under Presidential Executive Order, prescribe the quantity and kind of clothing to be furnished to an enlisted member of the Military Services and may prescribe the amount of cash allowance to be paid if the clothing is not furnished. It is DoD policy that the quantities and kinds of items of individual clothing to be furnished will be prescribed by the Service Secretary or the Commandant of the Marine Corps, under the parameters set by the Deputy Under Secretary of Defense – Military Personnel Policy (DUSD MPP).

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The clothing monetary allowances policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code, section 418 (37 U.S.C. § 418). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 ALLOWANCES

2.1 Initial Clothing Allowance

Enlisted members receive the initial clothing allowance upon initial enlistment or upon other special qualification for entitlement to a prescribed outfitting of uniforms. The initial issue may be an in-kind issue or a combination of in-kind issue and cash payment.

2.2 Cash Clothing Replacement Allowance

Enlisted members receive the cash clothing replacement allowance, upon the anniversary month, each successive year following the provision of an initial clothing allowance. Cash clothing replacement allowances are for replacement of required uniform items based on a normal wear rate.

2.3 Extra Clothing Allowances

Extra clothing allowances are additional to initial and replacement allowances and do not reduce, replace, or otherwise affect them. Extra clothing allowances provide for unusual circumstances when:

2.3.1. An enlisted member may require additional uniform items; or 2.3.2. An officer (with a permanent duty station outside the United States) or enlisted member may require civilian clothes to perform their assigned duties.

3.0 INITIAL CLOTHING ALLOWANCES

3.1 Standard Initial Clothing Allowance – General Provisions

The standard initial clothing allowance is an in-kind issue, although a cash payment may be made for items not furnished in-kind. Each Service, as approved by the DUSD MPP, may prescribe cash payments for items specifically designated to be purchased by the member, rather than to be furnished in-kind. Additionally, if any of the items of clothing normally prescribed to be furnished in-kind are not available for issuance, then the initial allowance may be completed by paying the member the cash value of the balance remaining. The standard initial clothing allowance rates, including prescribed cash payments for personal purchase of specified items, are in Tables 29-1A, 29-1B, 29-1C and 29-1D. For the most current rates, see the Standard Initial Clothing Allowances table.

3.1.1. The total monetary value of items furnished in-kind, plus any cash payments, may not exceed the amounts for the total value of the applicable standard initial clothing allowance as established in Tables 29-1A, 29-1B, 29-1C and 29-1D. For the most current rates, see the Standard Initial Clothing Allowances table on DFAS.MIL.

3.1.2. If a Service member dies, is discharged, or is released from active-duty within 6 months of entitlement to an initial allowance, then the value of the initial allowance must be reduced to the items of clothing already supplied or amount credited up to that date.

3.1.3. Army and Marine Corps members, entitled to a standard initial clothing allowance, are furnished the allowance on an item or issue in-kind basis without establishing a monetary credit. Payment of the amount prescribed in the initial allowance as a cash allowance may be made immediately. Shortages of items being furnished on an in-kind basis must be recorded and issued when available to the Service member.

3.1.4. Navy, Air Force, and Space Force members, entitled to a standard initial clothing allowance, are credited with the amount of the allowance against which the authorized clothing is furnished. A member will receive the amount prescribed in the initial allowance as a cash payment for personal purchase of specified items. At the conclusion of the basic training period or within a period the Service considers appropriate, if any of the prescribed items of clothing to be furnished in-kind against the established credit are not available for issuance, then the initial allowance may be completed by paying the member the remaining balance in cash.

3.2 Standard Initial Clothing Allowance – Entitlement Criteria

Enlisted personnel (except those entitled to a special initial clothing allowance) must be furnished a standard initial clothing allowance under one or more of the following circumstances:
3.2.1. Upon first enlistment in the Service, or reenlistment in the same branch of the regular Military Service, if 3 months has expired from the date of last discharge or release from active-duty and the member is not reporting from a Reserve component that requires the member to maintain uniform clothing;

3.2.2. Upon enlistment or reenlistment in a Service, other than the one from which last discharged;

3.2.3. Upon reporting for or upon recall to active-duty for more than 6 months, after 3 months have expired from the date of last discharge or release from active-duty with the clothing required for service in a Reserve Component. In these cases, the initial allowance must be reduced to a partial standard initial clothing allowance under regulations of the appropriate Service, to account for clothing required to be in the person’s possession upon call or recall to active-duty;

3.2.4. Upon being restored to duty, after being sentenced to confinement and punitive discharge, to the extent needed to fill the individual’s clothing requirement;

3.2.5. Upon reenlisting within 3 months of last discharge or release from active-duty, when the Service member did not receive the complete initial allowance or was required to turn in issued clothing. The amount allowed, will be the difference between the current initial clothing allowance and the current value of issued clothing that remained in the member’s possession upon the date of last discharge or release from active-duty, further reduced by any prior cash clothing payments toward the initial clothing allowance. Replacement allowances, issues, or payments are not considered the last authorization of the initial allowance;

3.2.6. Upon recall to active-duty after 3 months from the date of the last release from active-duty or retired enlisted personnel (including Service members of the Fleet Reserve and the Fleet Marine Corps Reserve) recalled to active-duty after 3 months from the date of the last release from active-duty or retirement. Only one such allowance will be authorized during any period of four consecutive years;

3.2.7. Upon reversion to service on active-duty for commissioned officers, or warrant officers, under temporary appointments who enlisted or reenlisted, or who reverted to service on active-duty in an enlisted (other than Chief Petty Officer) status, except for purposes of retirement. Only one such allowance is authorized in any period of 4 consecutive years; or

3.2.8. Upon reversion to enlistment in or reenlistment in the regular Navy, Naval officer candidates, and Naval Reserve Chief Petty Officers, who revert to or are enlisted or reenlisted in the regular Navy in pay grade E-6 or below, except for purposes of retirement, provided they previously have not received a standard initial clothing allowance during their current period of continuous active-duty.

3.3 Special Initial Clothing Allowance – General Provisions

Enlisted members assigned to a tour of duty, or who attain a status, requiring the wear of uniform clothing (other than special dress uniforms), may be authorized a special initial clothing allowance. Special initial clothing allowance is authorized only once during any period of continuous active-duty. The special initial clothing allowance rates are in Tables 29-2A, 29-2B, and 29-2C and Tables 29-3A and 29-3B. For the most current rates, see the Special Initial Clothing Allowances – Navy and AirForce and Space Force tables.

NOTE: Special Initial Clothing Allowance does not apply to the Army or Marine Corps.

3.3.1. The special initial clothing allowance is provided in lieu of the standard initial clothing allowance when it is the first initial allowance qualified for and issued. The special initial clothing allowance supersedes and replaces the standard initial clothing allowance and is considered the last authorization of an initial clothing allowance for a member who previously received a standard initial clothing allowance and subsequently qualifies for and is provided a special initial clothing allowance. The special initial clothing allowance may be issued in-kind, paid as a monetary payment, or provided as a combination, as established by the Service concerned.

3.3.2. Examples of uses for special initial clothing allowance are when members in an enlisted status enter an officer training program, are advanced to Chief Petty Officer in the Navy, or are assigned to a military band with uniform styles different than those for others in their pay grade.

3.4 Special Initial Clothing Allowance Navy – Eligibility Criteria

The Navy will furnish enlisted members with a special initial clothing allowance under one or more of the following circumstances:

3.4.1. Upon selection and acceptance for specified officer-training programs;

3.4.2. In pay grade E-6 or below, upon assignment to either the U.S. Naval Academy Band, U.S. Navy Band, Washington, DC, or selection for appointment as a Limited Duty Officer or Warrant Officer 1 in the Navy;

3.4.3. Upon first advancement to or first enlistment as a Chief Petty Officer in the Navy, while serving on active-duty, unless special initial clothing allowance was previously paid. Effective October 1, 2009, Chief Petty Officers of the Naval Reserve assigned to Selected Reserve and Voluntary Training Units are entitled to a full special initial clothing allowance upon first advancement to Chief Petty Officer;

3.4.4. For Chief Petty Officers in the Naval Reserve who were advanced before October 1, 2009, upon first reporting for active-duty for a period of 6 months or greater as a Chief Petty Officer of the Naval Reserve, provided no special initial clothing allowance was previously paid either on active or inactive-duty. If a special initial clothing allowance has been previously paid on inactive-duty, then the Chief Petty Officer is entitled to a partial special initial clothing allowance in accordance with the Note at Tables 29-2A, 29-2B and 29-2C. See the Special Initial Clothing Allowances – Navy table on DFAS.MIL; or 3.4.5. Upon active-duty reenlistment or receipt of orders to active-duty as a Chief Petty Officer in the Navy, provided all of the following requirements are met:

3.4.5.1. Over 3 months have expired from the date of last discharge, release from active-duty or retirement;

3.4.5.2. The enlistment or reenlistment period is for a period of more than 6 months;

3.4.5.3. Appointment to temporary officer status is not coincident with the enlistment or reenlistment; and

3.4.5.4. The member has not received a special initial clothing allowance within the last 4 years while on inactive-duty.

*3.5  Special Initial Clothing Allowance Air Force and Space Force – Eligibility Criteria

The special initial clothing allowance is provided to Air Force and Space Force members upon selection and acceptance for specified officer-training programs and those assigned to a tour of duty, or status, requiring the wear of uniform clothing (other than special dress uniforms) of a style different from uniforms customary for most enlisted members of the Air Force and Space Force. Only one Special Initial Allowance is authorized during any period of continuous active-duty. See Tables 29-3A and 29-3B.

3.6  Partial Initial Clothing Allowances

Enlisted members will be paid a reduced or partial initial clothing allowance when payment of a full standard initial clothing allowance or full special initial clothing allowance is not warranted, due to an enlisted member reporting for or being recalled to active-duty for more than 6 months, after 3 months have expired from the date of last discharge or release from active-duty with the clothing required for service in a Reserve component.

4.0  CASH CLOTHING REPLACEMENT ALLOWANCES

4.1  General

Enlisted members receive cash clothing replacement allowances for uniform items for the replacement of military unique items required for wear. Enlisted members engaged in officer training programs or who are attending academy preparatory schools are not eligible for cash clothing replacement allowances. See Table 29-4 for specific entitlement rules. See Tables 29-5A, 29-5B, 29-5C and 29-5D for the cash clothing replacement allowance rates. For the most current rates, see the Cash Clothing Replacement Allowances.
4.2 Basic Cash Clothing Replacement Allowance

Basic cash clothing replacement allowance is a preliminary replacement allowance for uniform items. It is used during the first 3 years of active service subsequent to receipt of a standard initial clothing allowance or a reduced or partial standard initial clothing allowance.

4.2.1. Basic cash clothing replacement allowance accrues to each enlisted member, beginning the first day of the month following the date of completion of 6 months of active-duty without regard to time lost. At the end of the member’s anniversary month completing 1-year of uninterrupted active military service, the first payment is equal to one-half the applicable fiscal year rate then in effect.

4.2.2. When authorized under regulations of the Service concerned, enlisted members of a Reserve Component who received a reduced or partial standard initial clothing allowance may be authorized to accrue the basic cash clothing replacement allowance, beginning with the first day of the month following the date of call or recall to active-duty in a pay status.

4.2.3. The basic cash clothing replacement allowance continues for the first 3 years of continuous active-duty. It is payable for the second and third years at the end of the member’s anniversary month, using the applicable rate then in effect.

4.3 Standard Cash Clothing Replacement Allowance

Standard cash clothing replacement allowance provides for replacement of uniform items after completion of 3 years of active service subsequent to receipt of a standard initial clothing allowance or a reduced or partial standard initial clothing allowance. It is the preliminary replacement allowance during the first 3 years of active service, subsequent to receipt of a reduced or partial or special initial clothing allowance.

4.3.1. When used as the follow-on to the basic cash clothing replacement allowance, the standard cash clothing replacement allowance accrues beginning with the first day of the month following the date the member completes 36 months active-duty, without regard to time lost. It continues during the remaining period of continuous active-duty and is payable annually at the end of the Service member’s anniversary month, using the applicable rate then in effect.

4.3.2. When used as the preliminary replacement allowance for the special initial clothing allowance, the standard cash clothing replacement allowance accrues, beginning with the first day of the month following the date the special initial clothing allowance or a reduced or partial special initial clothing allowance was authorized without regard to time lost. It is payable annually, for the first 3 years of continuous active-duty, at the end of the Service member’s anniversary month, using the applicable rate then in effect.

4.4 Special Cash Clothing Replacement Allowance

Special cash clothing replacement allowance provides for replacement of uniform items, after completion of 3 years of active service, subsequent to receipt of a special initial clothing allowance. It accrues beginning with the first day of the month following the date the member completes 36 months active-duty, subsequent to receiving a special initial clothing allowance or a reduced or partial special initial clothing allowance, without regard to time lost, and continues during the remaining period of continuous active-duty. It is payable annually at the end of the Service member’s anniversary month, using the applicable fiscal year rate then in effect. During the period for which the special cash clothing replacement allowance is payable, the Service member is not entitled to any other cash clothing replacement allowance.

5.0 EXTRA CLOTHING ALLOWANCES

5.1 General

Members may receive extra clothing allowances, in addition to any other entitled clothing allowance. Entitlement to or payment of an extra clothing allowance does not replace or reduce any other clothing allowance.

5.2 Supplementary Clothing Allowances

In addition to any other clothing allowance authorized, an enlisted member may become entitled to a supplementary clothing allowance. Supplementary clothing allowances may be authorized only for an enlisted member, assigned to duty in a special organization or detail, where the nature of the duty necessitates that he or she have, as a military requirement, additional quantities or special items of individual uniform clothing normally not required for most enlisted members in the same Service. Except for maternity uniforms, supplementary clothing allowances may not exceed 30 percent of the current value of the standard initial clothing allowance.

5.2.1 Entitlement

5.2.1.1 A supplementary clothing allowance may be issued in-kind, as a cash payment, or as a combination of issued in-kind and a cash payment. Generally, supplementary clothing allowances are cash payments to Navy, Air Force and Space Force members, while Army and Marine Corps members receive in-kind issues.

5.2.1.2 A member scheduled to serve in a qualifying assignment for at least 6 additional months, may receive a subsequent supplementary clothing allowance, on the anniversary of the initial supplementary clothing allowance. A Service member who has received a supplementary clothing allowance may not be authorized a subsequent supplementary allowance for the same items upon reassignment to duty if less than 12 months have elapsed since the last payment. Under circumstances deemed appropriate, the Service Secretary or the Commandant of the Marine Corps may waive this restriction.

5.2.1.3 As an exception to subparagraph 5.2.1.2., an otherwise qualified member may not receive the supplementary clothing allowance for maternity uniforms more often than once every 3 years.
5.2.2. Rates Payable

5.2.2.1. The Army provides supplementary clothing allowances as in-kind issues as described in Army Regulation 700-84.

5.2.2.2. See Tables 29-6A and 29-6B for the Navy supplementary clothing allowance rates. For the most current rates, see the Supplementary Clothing Allowances – Navy tables.

5.2.2.3. See Tables 29-7A and 29-7B for the Air Force and Space Force supplementary clothing allowance rates. For the most current rates, see the Supplementary Clothing Allowances – Air Force and Space Force tables.

5.2.2.4. The Marine Corps provides supplementary clothing allowances as a combination of in-kind issues and cash payments. See Tables 29-8A and 29-8B for the Marine Corps supplementary clothing allowance cash payments. For the most current rates, see the Marine Corps Supplementary Clothing Allowances tables.

5.3 Civilian Clothing Allowances for Officers and Enlisted Personnel

In addition to any other clothing allowance authorized, Service members (officer or enlisted) directed by competent authority to dress in civilian clothing more than half the time when performing official duty, as a military requirement, may be authorized a civilian clothing allowance. In accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 419, an officer is authorized a civilian clothing allowance only if his or her permanent duty station is outside the United States. During any period in which an enlisted member is on an assignment requiring the wear of civilian clothing, the applicable replacement allowance for uniform items continues to accrue. The Service Secretary or the Commandant of the Marine Corps may prescribe reduced civilian clothing allowances, as appropriate for their respective Service, for personnel serving under conditions where the full authorized civilian clothing allowances in Tables 29-9A and 29B are not required. For the most current rates, see the Civilian Clothing Allowances for Officer and Enlisted tables.

5.3.1. Permanent Duty Civilian Clothing Allowances. The permanent duty civilian clothing allowance has two parts: the initial civilian clothing allowance; and the replacement civilian clothing allowance. The initial civilian clothing allowance is payable upon assignment to qualifying permanent duty when authorized by the Service concerned. When entitled, the replacement civilian clothing allowance is payable annually at the end of the service member’s anniversary month using the applicable rate then in effect. The rates payable for the permanent duty civilian clothing allowances are in Tables 29-9A and 29B. For the most current rates, see the Civilian Clothing Allowances for Officer and Enlisted table on DFAS.MIL.

5.3.1.1. Initial Civilian Clothing Allowance. An initial civilian clothing allowance is paid only once in any 3-year period. It is not paid if the member has been out of a qualifying assignment for less than 12 months. If the member receives a follow-on permanent assignment requiring the wear of civilian clothing within 3 years of receiving an initial civilian clothing allowance, or within 12 months of occupying a qualifying assignment, then he or she will receive the replacement civilian clothing allowance at the end of the original anniversary month.

5.3.1.2. Replacement Civilian Clothing Allowance. At the end of the anniversary month of the member commencing the qualifying assignment, a replacement civilian clothing allowance is payable if it is projected that he or she will serve at least 6 additional months in a qualifying assignment. The member becomes entitled, upon authorization of the Service concerned. A replacement civilian clothing allowance is not payable if it is projected the member will remain in the assignment less than 6 months beyond the anniversary month. A replacement civilian clothing allowance is payable, if the member actually serves 6 or more months in the assignment past the anniversary month.

5.3.1.3. Lump-Sum Payments. A member who will continue to meet the eligibility criteria for a civilian clothing allowance, on a career basis, may receive the initial civilian clothing allowance, and up to two replacement civilian clothing allowance payments, in an up-front lump-sum payment. The member may receive payment at the time of eligibility and only once in their career. During the member’s first or second anniversaries after a lump-sum initial payment, if it is determined the member will not be remaining in a qualifying position for at least the next 6 months, the annual unearned portion for the year(s) not served will be recouped from the member. At the end of the anniversary months for the third and subsequent years of eligibility, the member will receive their replacement civilian clothing allowance payment.

5.3.1.4. Prior Civilian Clothing Payments. A member, authorized to receive permanent duty civilian clothing allowance, will have that allowance reduced by the prevailing value of any temporary duty civilian clothing allowance received within the preceding 12 months.

5.3.2. Temporary Duty Civilian Clothing Allowances. Generally, the temporary duty civilian clothing allowance is used when the permanent duty civilian clothing allowance is not applicable. The total amount of all temporary duty civilian clothing allowances payable in any 36-month period will not exceed the maximum allowed for temporary duty of at least 30 days. The amounts authorized by the Service concerned will be within the rates established in Tables 29-9A and 29B. For the most current rates, see the Civilian Clothing Allowances for Officer and Enlisted table on DFAS.MIL. The temporary duty civilian clothing allowance has two maximum rates based on the number of days the member is on temporary duty.

5.3.2.1. 15 Days. When competent authority determines the member will be on temporary duty at least 15 consecutive or accumulative days within a 30-day period, the maximum amount payable is found in Tables 29-9A and 29B. For the most current rates, see the Civilian Clothing Allowances for Officer and Enlisted table on DFAS.MIL. The 15-day threshold requirement does not apply to Explosive Ordnance Disposal and Explosive Detector Dog Personnel on U.S. Secret Service Support Duty, Defense Courier Service couriers, or Defense Threat Reduction Agency military personnel. These personnel may receive the maximum payment for temporary duty of at least 30 days, upon their initial temporary duty assignment, regardless of the length of their temporary duty.
5.3.2.2. 30 Days. When competent authority determines that a member will be on temporary duty at least 30 consecutive or accumulative days within a 36-month period, the maximum amount payable will be found in Table 29-9, less any amount paid within the past 36-month period. For the most current rates, see the Civilian Clothing Allowances for Officer and Enlisted table on DFAS.MIL.

5.3.3. Additional Temporary Duty Payments. In exceptional circumstances, the appropriate official, or the designated official, may make an exception to the maximum allowance permitted in a 36-month period and may authorize an additional payment of a 15-day or 30-day allowance or some lesser amount. The Assistant Secretaries of the Army, Navy and Air Force for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (M&RA), or the Deputy Chief of Staff for M&RA in the Marine Corps, may approve the additional allowance. They cannot delegate their authority.

6.0 MISCELLANEOUS CLOTHING PROVISIONS

6.1 Reserve Component Allowances

Reserve Component personnel on active-duty for periods of less than 6 months, or while on inactive-duty, are generally furnished the required individual clothing items as in-kind issues. Reserve Component personnel may receive the standard initial clothing allowance cash portion for items designated to be personally procured and not issued in-kind. Members of Reserve Components on active-duty for periods of less than 6 months or on inactive-duty are not entitled to any civilian clothing allowances. Further guidance for payment of clothing allowances for Reserve members is set forth in Chapters 57 and 58.

6.2 Lost or Damaged Clothing

The Service concerned will compensate an enlisted member for clothing items destroyed, damaged, lost, abandoned, captured, or otherwise rendered unusable, by an incident to military training or service, not caused by any fault or negligence of the member.

6.3 Clothing Price Adjustments

Enlisted members of the Navy, Air Force, and Space Force, entitled to an initial or partial initial clothing monetary allowance upon entering the Service, may require an adjustment to their pay records. A member’s pay record is adjusted to reflect the difference between the old and the new fiscal year prices for items not issued, if the entitlement date is on or before September 30, for all clothing items not issued prior to October 1.

6.4 Settlement of Cash Clothing Allowances

A member will receive the cash clothing replacement allowance on the last day of their anniversary month. A member will receive a prorated cash clothing replacement allowance when discharged before the end of their anniversary month. The authorizing official approves payment for supplementary clothing allowances. See Table 29-10 for settlement of other cash clothing allowances.

NOTES:

1. The time period is computed without regard to lost time.
2. The term “approved sentence” means the date the sentence was approved by the convening authority.
3. If a member serves on this active-duty less than 12 months or less than 12 months after the last annual payment, then a prorated amount will be paid, calculated at one-twelfth of the annual rate for each whole month or fractional month served. Example: A member on a 3-year enlistment leaves service after serving 2 years, 6 months, and 10 days. The final payment would be an amount equal to 7/12 of the annual amount.

NOTES:

1. The supplementary clothing allowances listed are, unless otherwise noted, payable upon initial assignment to a normal tour of the duties described at the frequency specified in this table. Annual allowances will be paid upon assignment and upon each subsequent anniversary date of the initial assignment or entitlement, provided the member is projected to remain in the assignment for at least 6 additional months. Allowances to be paid as once in 3-year allowances, will be paid after 36 months from the date of any prior payment, provided the individual’s condition/duties continue to require the supplementary allowance, and they are projected to remain in the assignment for at least 6 additional months. Members will be paid allowances only when first assigned to specified duty. A supplementary allowance may not be paid more frequently than once per year for similar duty, even if at different locations or commands or for subsequent recalls to active-duty within 1-year, except by special authority of the Service Secretary or designee.

2. Eligibility requires completion of Recruit Company Commander or Recruit Drill Instructor School.

3. Recruiting or recruiting support duty means active-duty assignment to: Navy recruiting areas, Navy recruiting districts, Navy recruiting “A” stations, Navy recruiting stations, Military Entrance Processing Stations, or to Naval Reserve activities. It also includes naval aviation cadet procurement teams at Naval Air Reserve activities. It is payable to recruiters after reporting to the enlisted Navy Recruiter Orientation Course or upon completion of the Veteran Recruiter Orientation. It is payable to recruiting support personnel upon receipt of orders to such duty. It is payable to members assigned to the Bureau of Naval Personnel controlled recruiting billets or a recruit support billet upon initial assignment when specialized training is not required prior to the recruiting assignment.

NOTES:

1. By law, an officer is authorized a civilian clothing allowance only if the officer’s permanent duty station is outside the United States.
2. Unless exception is given, the maximum amount payable, for all temporary duty performed in any 36-month period, will not exceed the maximum prescribed for duty of at least 30 days.
3. The 15-day qualification requirement does not apply to Explosive Ordnance Disposal and Explosive Detector Dog personnel on U.S. Secret Service support duty, Defense Courier Service couriers, or Defense Threat Reduction Agency military personnel. These personnel may be authorized up to the maximum temporary duty civilian clothing allowance for 30 days upon their initial temporary duty travel requirement.

CHAPTER 30

OFFICERS’ UNIFORM AND EQUIPMENT ALLOWANCE

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

In accordance with guidance contained in this chapter, officers of the Armed Forces of the United States may be entitled to an initial uniform allowance and/or an additional active-duty uniform allowance as reimbursement for the purchase of required uniforms and equipment.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with Title 37, United States Code, sections 415, 416, and 417 (37 U.S.C. §§ 415, 416, and 417). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 INITIAL UNIFORM ALLOWANCE

2.1 General

Officers of the Armed Forces of the United States are entitled to an initial uniform allowance as provided in this section.

2.2 When Payable

2.2.1. Except as provided in subparagraph 2.2.2, the initial uniform allowance is payable only once to an officer upon:

2.2.1.1. First reporting for active duty (other than for training) for a period of more than 90 days. A member entering active duty as an officer in a Regular Component or upon Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) graduation is considered to have entered into active duty for more than 90 days;

2.2.1.2. Completing at least 14 days of active duty or active duty for training as a member of a Reserve Component;

2.2.1.3. Completing 14 periods of inactive-duty training as a member of the Ready Reserve. Each period of inactive-duty training must be of at least 2 hours duration; or

2.2.1.4. Reporting for the first period of active duty required of a member of the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program.
2.2.2. In the case where a Reserve officer transfers to another Reserve Component that requires a different uniform, that Reserve officer may receive another initial uniform allowance.

2.3 Amount Payable

All officer personnel, commissioned or appointed in the Regular or Reserve Components of the Army, Navy, Air Force, and Marine Corps, are authorized $400 as reimbursement for the purchase of uniforms and equipment, regardless the source of commission or previous enlisted status.

2.4 Restrictions

2.4.1. If a member has received an initial uniform allowance in any amount as an officer, under conditions other than those listed in subparagraph 2.2.1, then the member cannot be entitled to the initial uniform allowance again.

2.4.2. Regular officers may not receive this allowance when transferring to another Military Service.

2.4.3. Only periods of duty that require wearing of the uniform are counted for entitlement to the initial uniform allowance.

2.4.4. An officer must be determined physically qualified for active duty before entitlement to an initial uniform allowance accrues.

3.0 ADDITIONAL ACTIVE-DUTY UNIFORM ALLOWANCE

3.1 General

Officers of Reserve Components, officers of the Army or Air Force of the United States without specification of component, and ROTC graduates appointed in the Regular Components are entitled to an additional active-duty uniform allowance as provided in this section.

3.2 When Payable

3.2.1. The additional active-duty uniform allowance is payable for each instance of entry or reentry into active duty, or active duty for training (including authorized travel time) for more than 90 days. The period served may be under orders specifying active duty for more than 90 days, or under two or more orders requiring a continuous period of more than 90 days active duty.

3.2.2. An officer commissioned in a Regular Component, upon ROTC graduation, accrues entitlement to the allowance on commencement of duty as a Regular officer. The officer is considered to have entered on active duty for more than 90 days.
3.3 Amount Payable

The additional active-duty uniform allowance is payable to qualified officers in the amount of $200, as reimbursement for the purchase of required uniforms and equipment.

3.4 Restrictions

3.4.1. The additional active-duty uniform allowance is not payable if the officer has received an initial uniform allowance of more than $400 during the current tour of active duty, or within 2 years prior to entering the current tour.

3.4.2. The additional active-duty uniform allowance is not payable when the tour of duty for which payment is being considered began within 2 years after the end of a previous period of active duty, or active duty for training, of more than 90 days. This applies whether or not a uniform allowance was paid for the previous tour of duty. It applies only if the prior service was performed as a Reserve officer, as an officer of the Army or Air Force of the United States without specification of component, or as a Regular officer commissioned upon ROTC.

3.4.3. An officer of a Reserve Component or of the Army or Air Force of the United States, without specification of component, is not due this allowance solely because of appointment in or transfer to the Army, Air Force, or another Reserve Component.

3.4.4. A Reserve officer ordered to an indefinite tour of active duty, or active duty for training, is not entitled to this allowance until the member completes more than 90 days of that tour.

3.4.5. Only periods of duty requiring the wearing of the uniform are counted for entitlement to the allowance prescribed in this paragraph.

3.4.6. To be entitled under this paragraph, an officer must be determined physically qualified for active duty.

3.5 Computation of 2-Year Period

Compute the 2-year period during which no active duty or active duty for training was performed as follows:

3.5.1. When an officer is ordered to active duty, or active duty for training, for a period of more than 90 days, the 2-year period begins on the day following the day of release from active duty or active duty for training.

Example 1: A Reserve officer was ordered to active duty for training under orders specifying a 92-day tour of duty to begin March 1, 2016, and to end May 31, 2016. The officer was released from active duty for training May 31, 2016. The 2-year period began on June 1, 2016. Entitlement to the next additional active duty uniform allowance accrues if the officer is called to active duty, or active duty for training, for a period of more than 90 days on or after June 1, 2018.

Example 2: If the officer in Example 1 served 35 days of a tour of active duty under orders specifying duty of more than 90 days and was released from active duty for training April 4, 2016, then the 2-year period started April 5, 2016. Entitlement to the next additional active-duty uniform allowance accrues if the officer is called to active duty, or active duty for training for a period of more than 90 days, on or after April 5, 2018. Refund of allowance or any portion thereof is not required since entitlement was based on reporting for active duty for a period of more than 90 days.

3.5.2. When an officer is ordered to active duty for training for an indefinite period, and serves more than 90 days, the 2-year period begins on the day following the day of release from active duty.

Example 1: A Reserve officer was ordered to active duty for training for an indefinite period to begin March 1, 2016. The officer was released from active duty July 1, 2016. On the 91st day of duty (May 30, 2016), the officer was entitled to the allowance as of the first day of duty (March 1, 2016) if other conditions of entitlement were met. The 2-year period starts July 2, 2016. Entitlement to the next additional active-duty uniform allowance accrues if the officer is called to active duty, or active duty for training, for a period of more than 90 days on or after July 2, 2018.

Example 2: If the Reserve officer in Example 1 (subparagraph 3.5.2) was released from active duty on April 4, 2016, after serving only 35 days, then the officer would not be entitled to the additional active-duty uniform allowance for that period of active duty for training.

3.5.3. When an officer is separated from a Regular Component and is later appointed as an officer in a Reserve Component and ordered to active duty, or active duty for training, for more than 90 days, the 2-year period restriction in subparagraph 3.4.2 does not apply. Exception: Regular officers appointed upon completion of ROTC training after October 12, 1994, are subject to the 2-year restriction.

Example: An officer was separated from a Regular Component on June 30, 2016, and was appointed an officer in a Reserve Component on July 1, 2016. The member reported for active duty for more than 90 days on May 1, 2018. The member was entitled to the additional active-duty uniform allowance when reporting on the present tour of active duty, since the previous tour was as a Regular officer.
4.0 DETERMINATIONS

4.1 First Time Reporting for Active Duty and Allowances

An officer reporting for active duty for the first time, who meets the requirements for entitlement to the initial uniform allowance and the additional active-duty uniform allowance, is entitled to receive both allowances subject to the restrictions of paragraphs 2.4 and 3.4.

4.2 Received Initial Uniform Allowance

An officer who receives, or has previously received, an initial uniform allowance as an officer, under any conditions other than those listed in subparagraph 2.2.1, is not eligible to receive the initial uniform allowance upon transfer to, or appointment in, another Reserve Component or the Army or Air Force of the United States, without specification of component.

4.3 Reserve Officers’ Uniform Allowance Entitlements

A Reserve officer who receives, or has previously received, an initial uniform allowance, under the conditions listed in subparagraph 2.2.1, and again qualifies for the initial uniform allowance and/or the additional active-duty uniform allowance by meeting the basic requirements, is eligible to receive the initial and/or the additional allowance upon transfer to, or appointment in, another Reserve Component or the Army or Air Force of the United States, without specification of component, if the wearing of a different uniform is required.

4.4 Reserve Officers’ Additional Allowance Entitlement

If otherwise eligible, a Reserve officer is entitled to be paid the additional active-duty uniform allowance, even if the member has not received an initial uniform allowance.

5.0 CIVILIAN CLOTHING MONETARY ALLOWANCE

5.1 Officers’ Civilian Clothing Allowance

Officers assigned to a permanent duty station outside the United States, who are required to wear civilian clothing all or a substantial portion of the time in the performance of official duty, may be authorized an allowance for civilian clothing.

5.2 Entitlement and Rate for Civilian Clothing Allowance

Entitlement criteria for civilian clothing allowances are specified in Chapter 29, paragraph 5.3 and allowance rates are at DFAS.MIL.
6.0 ONE-TIME UNIFORM ALLOWANCE FOR OFFICERS WHO TRANSFER TO THE SPACE FORCE.

6.1 General

The Secretary of the Air Force may provide an officer who transfers from the Army, Navy, Air Force, or Marine Corps to the Space Force an allowance of not more than $400 as reimbursement for the purchase of required uniforms and equipment.

6.2 Relationship to Other Allowances

The allowance under this section is in addition to any allowance available under any other provision of law.

*6.3 When Payable

The authority for an allowance under this section shall apply with respect to any officer described in paragraph 6.1 who transfers to the Space Force:

6.3.1 During the period beginning on December 20, 2019, and ending on September 30, 2025; and 6.3.2 On or after the date the Secretary of the Air Force prescribes the official uniform for the Space Force.

CHAPTER 31

PERSONAL MONEY ALLOWANCE

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter establishes policy pertaining to Personal Money Allowance.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), including Title 37. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 ENTITLEMENT

2.1 Officers

Officers, in the capacities listed in Table 31-1 (Personal Money Allowance - Amounts Payable), who are entitled to receive basic pay are also entitled to receive a Personal Money Allowance. This allowance is in addition to any other pay or allowance authorized.

2.2 Enlisted Members

An enlisted member, serving as the Senior Enlisted member of his or her Military Service, is also entitled to receive a Personal Money Allowance. This allowance is in addition to any other pay or allowance authorized.

3.0 MONTHLY AMOUNTS PAYABLE

See Table 31-1.

4.0 TAXABILITY AND WITHHOLDING TAX

Personal Money Allowance is subject to federal and state income tax withholding.

CHAPTER 32

ADVANCE, LOCAL, PARTIAL, AND EMERGENCY PARTIAL PAY

1.0 GENERAL

1.1 Purpose

This chapter establishes policy pertaining to advance, local, partial, and emergency partial pay for members of the active and reserve components.

1.2 Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by the DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.), including Title 37. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

2.0 ADVANCE PAYMENTS

2.1 Advance Pay for Permanent Change of Station (PCS)

2.1.1 Commander’s Responsibility. The member’s commander has a responsibility to ensure that the advance of pay is used only to help with the financial burden of a PCS.

2.1.1.1 This financial burden can be complicated when a member files for bankruptcy. Commanders should be aware that if a member has filed for bankruptcy and then makes a request for an advance pay, some bankruptcy court jurisdictions hold that a creditor does not have the authority to recoup any post-petition debt, including advance pay, without permission from the bankruptcy court. This is true in cases when a member has filed a Chapter 13 bankruptcy.

2.1.1.2 In such instances, the government may not be able to collect any amount of the advance pay unless the Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) receives approval from the court or after the bankruptcy is discharged or terminated. Additionally, in situations when DFAS has withheld funds for repayment of the advanced pay, DFAS may have to return the funds to the member. Accordingly, commanders should approach such advance pay requests fully aware that the government may not be able to collect the advance pay from the member, even though the advanced pay may have been issued after the member filed for bankruptcy.

2.1.2 Entitlement. The eligibility and amounts payable are contained in Table 32-1.

2.1.3 Repayment. Advances are repaid per Table 32-2.

2.1.4 Effect on Allotments. Do not pay an advance of pay in an amount that will require the stoppage of allotments for insurance or support of dependents. No allotment may be started after the advance is made if that allotment would prevent repayment of the advance of pay within the allowed period. If the separation of a member from the Service is imminent, then stop all allotments necessary to collect the advance.

2.2 Advance of Pay and Allowances

An advance of pay is to ease hardships imposed by the lack of regular payments when a member is mobilized, ordered to duty at a distant station, or deployed aboard ship for more than 30 days.

2.2.1. Entitlement. The eligibility and amounts payable are contained in Table 32-1.

2.2.2. Repayment. These advances are repaid per Table 32-2.

2.3 Advance Pay for Assignment of 1 Year or More to Hazardous Duty Pay Area

2.3.1. Entitlement. A member may be paid an advance of basic pay not to exceed 3 months less deductions. The conditions and amounts payable are contained in Table 32-1, rule 3.

2.3.2. Repayment. This advance is repaid based on Table 32-2, rule 11. However, advance pays not fully collected prior to the death of a member will not be collected against the estate of a deceased member.

2.4 Advance Pay When Ordered to Indoctrination Center

2.4.1. Entitlement. A member may be paid an advance of basic pay not to exceed 15 days. The conditions and amounts payable are contained in Table 32-1, rule 4.

2.4.2. Repayment. Collect the advance in full from the member’s next available payday.

2.5 Advance of Basic Allowance for Subsistence (BAS)

2.5.1. Entitlement. An enlisted member may be paid an advance of BAS not to exceed 3 months if the member is entitled to BAS and the Commanding Officer (CO) authorizes the payment following a determination that it is necessary. Individual Military Service regulations may limit BAS advances to less than 3 months.

2.5.2. Repayment. This advance is repaid based on Table 32-2, rule 12.

2.6 Advance Pay Upon Evacuation of Members or Dependents

The purpose of this advance is to give funds to evacuated members or dependents to cover costs of travel, food, and other needs.

2.6.1. Entitlement. The eligibility and amounts payable are contained in Table 32-1, rule 5.
2.6.2. Repayment. The advances are repaid per Table 32-2, rule 13.

2.7 Advance of Allotment(s) to Dependents

The purpose of this advance payment is to allow a member to be paid the amount of an allotment(s) to dependent(s) if the member is assigned or scheduled for assignment to sea duty or other duty with a unit or command deployed or to be deployed outside the United States and the allotment(s) is made by the member not more than 60 days before the scheduled date of the assignment of the member to this duty.

2.7.1. Entitlement. The eligibility and amounts payable are contained in Table 32-1, rule 6.

2.7.2. Repayment. This advance is repaid per Table 32-2, rule 14.

2.8 Advance Pay for Members of the Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program (AFHPSP) on Active Duty

2.8.1. Entitlement. An advance of pay, not to exceed basic pay for 1 month, may be paid to a member of the AFHPSP when reporting for the annual 45-day active-duty tour.

2.8.2. Repayment. Collect the advance in full by the end of the 45-day active-duty tour.

2.9 Advance of Housing Allowances

An advance of Basic Allowances for Housing and overseas housing allowance may be authorized under the terms and conditions in Chapter 26.

2.10 Advance Pay for Senior Reserve Officer Training Corps (SROTC) Cadets and Midshipmen Ordered to Field Training or Practice Cruises

2.10.1. Entitlement. An advance of pay, not to exceed the entitlement for 1 month, or the amount the SROTC member will accrue for the training, whichever is less, may be paid to an SROTC member who is ordered to perform field training or a practice cruise.

2.10.2. Repayment. Collect the advance in full from the member’s field training or practice cruise entitlement.

2.11 Military Paydays

2.11.1. Payday is the first calendar day of the month after the month in which the entitlement was earned.

2.11.2. Except for payrolls otherwise payable on October 1, if the payday falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal legal holiday, payment is authorized on the preceding workday, but not more than 3 days before the scheduled payday. This exception applies to foreign holidays.
recognized abroad by U.S. Forces. It also applies to payments made to members upon separation from the Military Service through retirement or discharge when the last day of active duty falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or federal legal holiday.

2.11.3. For payrolls otherwise payable on October 1, the DoD Comptroller will determine if the payroll may be dated in September.

3.0 LOCAL, PARTIAL, AND EMERGENCY PARTIAL PAYMENTS

3.1 Local and Partial Payments

Local and partial payments are authorized only for overseas areas where on-base military banking facilities are not readily available. Exceptions may be granted for members assigned to classified or contingency operations where the exigencies of their assignments may require local cash or partial payments. In this circumstance, the member’s commander may authorize immediate cash payments up to the amount of accrued entitlement to date, when deemed appropriate to the mission (see Table 32-3).

3.2 Emergency Partial Payment

3.2.1. For members residing or assigned within the United States (including Alaska and Hawaii), this is a payment deemed time sensitive and required within 24 hours due to an unforeseen set of circumstances or the resulting state that calls for immediate action (see Table 32-3). Payment will be made in an expeditious manner, e.g., Direct Deposit or check payment. The supporting DFAS site may be able to affect overnight Electronic Funds Transfer (EFT) payment if circumstances warrant.

3.2.2. The member’s commander, in coordination with the supporting finance office, may authorize emergency payments, up to the amount of accrued entitlement to date in the following circumstances:

3.2.2.1. Emergency pay and allowances earned to date as reflected on the member’s pay account, when no pay was received on a regular payday or when there is a major medical emergency or death in the member’s immediate family and payment is needed within 24 hours;

3.2.2.2. Emergency travel advance, when a traveler does not have a government travel charge card;

3.2.2.3. Discharge gratuity (as required by Chapter 35, Table 35-6), when payment is needed within 24 hours;

3.2.2.4. Payment of military death gratuity benefit to a beneficiary, when payment is needed within 24 hours;
3.2.2.5. Payment to military member of advance pay and allowances and/or evacuation allowance, when dependents must be evacuated as a result of a natural disaster or life-threatening situations; or 3.2.2.6. Payment to dependents, when forfeiture of pay and allowances is waived under conditions defined in Chapter 48, subparagraph 4.7.3.

NOTES:

1. For emergency payment exceptions, see paragraph 3.2.
2. Temporary duty enroute does not preclude payment. An advance payment for a PCS move in the same geographical area of the member’s prior duty station or home port, or place from which ordered to active duty, is authorized only when movement of the member’s household at government expense is authorized per JTR, Chapter 5, Part C.

NOTES (Continued):

3. Deductions:
   a. For advance pay computation (rules 1 and 2), the following deductions will be made:
      1. Forfeitures;
      2. Montgomery G.I. Bill;
      3. Federal/state income tax;
      4. Federal Insurance Contribution Act;
      5. Servicemembers Group Life Insurance;
      6. Armed Forces Retirement Home;
      7. Dependent Dental Plan;
      8. TRICARE;
      9. Monthly repayment of a prior advance;
      10. Indebtedness to the United States or its instrumentalities, whether scheduled (monthly debt installment) or unscheduled (one-time collection);
      11. Garnishments;
      12. Statutorily required support allotments in force;
      13. Court-ordered bankruptcy payments; and
      14. Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) (basic pay designation only).
   b. For advance of pay and allowances computation (rules 6, 7, 8, 9), include total of all allotments in force and TSP designations, i.e., special pays, incentive pays, and bonuses (if paid monthly).

4. The “30-day window” may be expanded to not exceed 90 days prior, and the “60-day window” may be expanded to not exceed 180 days after, when justified for extenuating circumstances and approved by the member’s commander (including enlisted commandant of the NCO academy). The member must provide written justification indicating the specific circumstances requiring the early or late advance payment.

5. The request for an advance of pay must be made not later than 60 days after effective date of change or 60 days after vessel arrives at new home port/home yard, whichever is later.

6. The member must provide written justification clearly showing that accrual or anticipated out-of-pocket PCS expenses equal or exceed the amount of advance requested; requires written approval of the member’s commander. The advance payment may be made in 1, 2, or 3 installments.

7. Upon request, the member will be granted an advance payment equaling 1 month of basic pay. The Secretary concerned, at his discretion, may grant a request for up to 2 or 3 months of advanced basic pay if member can justify financial hardship.

8. The member may request the advance at any time during the period of assignment. The earliest that the member may apply and receive the advance is the effective or start date of the assignment, as specified in the member’s orders. This is generally when the member is authorized to begin travel to comply with the assignment order.

9. This advance is collected in full when the member receives their first regular pay.

10. For Army members only. Advances will be paid using Service’s Stored Value Cards. An exception to the 15-day limit is authorized and an Army member may be advanced up to 21 days of basic pay for the purpose of paying the cost of round-trip travel to the member’s home during annual holiday leave period (mid-December through early January). Collection of the advance will be made in the January processing cycle.

11. This advance is not payable for evacuation of individual dependents.

12. The advance payment may not be made more than 60 days before the scheduled date of the duty assignment.

13. Establish an allotment(s) for dependents in the member’s pay record simultaneous to paying the advance.

NOTES:

1. In unusual circumstances, the initiation of collection action may be delayed if the delay is approved by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, or designee. The repayment period will, in all cases, be scheduled to repay the advance before the member’s expected date of separation.
2. Upon the member’s request, repayment may be made in lump-sum or increased monthly amounts.
3. The repayment period will be scheduled to repay the advance before the member’s expected date of separation. Repayment should be scheduled for completion before the start of a subsequent PCS move.
4. When executing PCS orders of less than 12 months, Reserve Component recipients of advance pay must accept a repayment schedule that provides for repayment by termination date of orders.
5. The member must provide written justification clearly showing that a 12-month repayment schedule would create severe financial hardship. The request must be approved in writing by the member’s commander (including enlisted commandant of the NCO academy).
6. When request is disapproved, collection will be at the rate specified in rule 1.
7. When the repayment period is extended after the repayment schedule of less than 24 months is operating, repayment will be prorated per Military Service regulations, not to exceed the 24 months from the initial collection month.
8. If the member immediately reenlists, then repayment of the advance pay may be continued into the new enlistment. To extend repayment of an advance into retired pay, projected SERB retirees must submit a written request to extend repayment into retired pay that clearly demonstrates the circumstances of their hardship. The requests will be submitted via the member’s chain of command to the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, or designee for a decision. If the request is approved, this approval document will be forwarded by the Service, as a part of the member packet, to DFAS Retired and Annuitant Pay to ensure the collection of the Advance pay.
9. Uncollected advances are treated as accounts receivable in the accounts of the disbursing officer. Such amounts remain a debt owed the United States by the member.

10. Uncollected advances are treated as accounts receivable in the accounts of the disbursing officer. Such amounts remain a debt owed the United States by the member.

11. If a member is entitled to separation payment under 10 U.S.C. §§ 1174, 1174a, 1175, or 1175a and has a separation payment pending equal to or greater than the outstanding advance pay balance at separation, then the member may request that the repayment rate not be accelerated, and the existing rate continue. That portion of the advance not collected prior to separation will be deducted from the separation payment.

12. The repayment period will, in all cases, be scheduled to repay the advance before the member’s expected date of separation.

13. The estate of a deceased member will not be required to repay any portion of the advanced pay paid to the member that is not repaid before the death of the member.

14. The Secretary of the Military Service concerned is authorized to waive recovery of an advance of not more than basic pay for 1 month when such recovery would be against equity and good conscience or against the public interest.

15. The Secretary of the Military Service concerned is authorized to extend repayment period up to a 24-month schedule.
