CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER OF THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE

0101 GENERAL

★ 010101. Purpose. This chapter describes the responsibilities of the Chief Financial Officer of the Department of Defense (CFO, DoD) as established by the Chief Financial Officers Act of 1990.

★ 010102. Overview. The Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) / Chief Financial Officer (CFO) (hereinafter referred to as USD(C)) is the Principal Staff Assistant and advisor to the Secretary of Defense for budgetary and fiscal matters (including financial management, accounting policy and systems, managers’ internal control systems, budget formulation and execution, and contract audit administration and organization) and general management improvement programs. The USD(C) shall manage all functions and responsibilities prescribed in Title 31 United States Code, Sections 902 and 3515.

0102 AUTHORITIES AND FUNCTIONS

The CFO, DoD is charged with the responsibility of developing and implementing DoD-wide financial management systems and overseeing financial management activities relating to the CFO programs and operations of the DoD. In that capacity, and consistent with the Chief Financial Officers Act of 1990, the following authorities and functions are assigned to the CFO, DoD:

010202. Oversight. Oversee all financial management activities relating to the programs and operations of the DoD. To carry out this responsibility, the CFO, DoD has the authority to:

A. Establish financial management policies for the DoD including its component parts.

B. Ensure compliance throughout the DoD with applicable accounting policy, standards and principles, as well as financial information and systems functional standards.

C. Establish, review and enforce internal control policies, standards and compliance guidelines involving financial management.
D. Provide oversight of financial management activities and operations including (a) preparation and annual revision of 5-year financial management plans, and (b) development of financial management budgets.

E. Ensure adequate controls over real property, equipment and inventories.

F. Ensure timely and accurate information on disbursements is available in financial management systems.

010203. Financial Management Systems. Develop and maintain an integrated agency accounting and financial management system, including financial reporting and internal controls, and inform the Business Transformation Agency as to the adequacy of their actions where applicable on systems transformation. Refer to Chapter 3 of this volume for Financial Management Systems requirements.

A. Complies with applicable accounting principles, standards and requirements, and internal control standards;

B. Complies with such policies and requirements as may be prescribed by the Director of OMB;

C. Complies with any other requirements applicable to such systems; and

D. Provides for:

1. Complete, reliable, consistent and timely information which is prepared on a uniform basis and which is responsive to the financial information needs of DoD management;

2. The development and reporting of cost information;

3. The integration of accounting and budgeting information; and

4. The systematic measurement or performance.

010204. Recommendations. Make recommendations to the Secretary of Defense regarding the selection of the Deputy CFO, DoD;

010205. Management. Direct, manage and provide policy guidance and oversight of DoD financial management activities, and operations, including:

A. The preparation and annual revision of a DoD plan to implement the 5-year financial management plan prepared by the Director of OMB, and to comply with the audited financial statements provisions of the CFO Act of 1990.
B. The development of DoD financial management budgets.

C. The recruitment, selection and training of personnel to carry out DoD financial management functions.

D. The approval and management of DoD financial management systems design or enhancement projects.

E. The implementation of DoD asset management systems, including systems for cash management, credit management, debt collection and property inventory management and control.

F. To direct, manage and provide policy guidance and oversight, the CFO, DoD, has authority:

1. To manage directly, and/or monitor, evaluate and approve, the design, budget, development, implementation, operation and enhancement of DoD-wide accounting, financial and asset management systems.

2. To coordinate on the design for other information systems that provide, at least in part, financial and/or program performance data used in budget development and financial statements, to ensure that CFO needs are met.

3. To ensure that program information systems provide financial and programmatic data (including program performance measures) on a reliable, consistent and timely basis to DoD financial management systems.

4. To evaluate, where appropriate, the installation and operation of such systems.

010206. Performance and Accountability Report (PAR). As required by OMB Circular A-136, activities are must prepare and transmit an annual report to the Secretary of Defense and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, which shall include: (a) a description and analysis of the status of financial management within the Department, (b) annual financial statements, (c) audit reports submitted to the Secretary of Defense addressing financial statements, (d) a summary of reports on the internal accounting and administrative control systems submitted under the Federal Managers' Financial Integrity Act, and (e) other information the Secretary of Defense considers appropriate to fully inform the President and the Congress concerning the financial management of the DoD. The OMB established a pilot in FY 2007 in which agencies may choose to produce an alternative to the consolidated PAR. For information on the preparation requirements of this report see Volume 6B of this regulation.
010207. Budget Execution. Monitor the financial execution of the DoD budget in relation to actual expenditures, and prepare and submit to the Secretary of Defense timely performance reports. To enable the CFO, DoD, to prepare and submit timely performance reports, the CFO, DoD, has authority:

A. To mandate DoD-wide data and reporting format requirements.

B. To review and approve financial reports and statements prepared by DoD components for transmittal to the Secretary of Defense, OMB, the President, the Congress or external groups.

C. To prepare consolidated and/or combined financial statements and work with the Inspector General, DoD and other auditors to improve the statements' independent review and auditability.

D. To develop, in coordination with program managers, financial and programmatic performance indicators for inclusion in financial systems and financial reports and statements.

E. To ensure that data included in financial reporting (including program performance measures) is auditable.

F. To advise program managers on financial management matters when requested.

010208. Biennial Review. Review, on a biennial basis, the fees, royalties, rents and other charges imposed by the Department for services and things of value it provides, and make recommendations on revising those charges to reflect costs incurred in providing those services and things of value.

0103 CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICERS COUNCIL

The CFO, DoD, is a member of the Chief Financial Officers Council consisting of the Deputy Director for Management of OMB, the Controller of the Office of Federal Financial Management of OMB, the Fiscal Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and Agency CFOs. The CFO Council meets periodically to advise and coordinate the activities of the agencies of its members on such matters as consolidation and modernization of financial systems, improved quality of financial information, financial data and information standards, internal controls, legislation affecting financial operations and organizations, and other financial management matter.
In accordance with the CFO Act, specified agencies will have a CFO who is appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the senate; or is designated by the President, in consultation with the head of the agency, from among officials of the agency who are required by law to be so appointed. The Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller), who is appointed by the President and confirmed by the U.S. Senate, is the CFO of DoD.
