CHAPTER 9

SPECIAL PAY - ENLISTMENT, REENLISTMENT, AND RETENTION BONUS - ENLISTED MEMBERS0901 ENLISTMENT BONUS

* 090101. Entitlement. An enlistment bonus is authorized for individuals enlisting in a Military Service for a specific period and, if applicable, for service in a military skill that is experiencing critical personnel shortages as designated by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

090102. Eligibility. The individual must:

A. Possess a high school diploma, a completion or attendance certificate instead of a high school diploma, or a General Educational Development program certificate;

B. Enlist for at least 2 years in the Regular or Reserve Component, performing Active Guard and Reserve duty (see Chapter 56), of a military service qualifying for award of an enlistment bonus;

C. Be an initial enlistee, a prior military service enlistee, or a reservist not on active duty who enlists in the Regular Component of the military service department concerned, as defined below:

1. Nonprior Service/Initial Enlistee. This term applies to a person who has never served or has served less than 180 days on active duty as a member of the Armed Forces. Enlistees who have received an enlistment bonus under the Selected Reserve Incentive Program (SRIP) retain eligibility for the Regular Component enlistment bonus under this section if other eligibility criteria are met.

2. Prior-Service Enlistee. This term applies to a person who has prior military experience but has not previously received an enlistment or reenlistment bonus or who currently is not entitled to a reenlistment bonus.

3. Reservist Not on Active Duty who Enlists in the Regular Component of the Military Service Department Concerned. This term applies to a person who previously has not received an enlistment or reenlistment bonus or currently is not entitled to a reenlistment bonus. A Reservist who has received an enlistment or reenlistment bonus under SRIP retains eligibility for the Regular Component enlistment bonus if he or she meets all other eligibility criteria.

D. Have neither previously received an enlistment bonus nor have previously received or be currently entitled to an Selective Reenlistment Bonus under section 0902 or a Critical Skill Retention Bonus under section 0903.

E. If receiving an enlistment bonus for military service in a designated skill, successfully complete training and become technically qualified in the designated critical skill.

F. Meet any additional military service specific eligibility criteria and quality standards established by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, as prescribed in:

1. Army: AR 601-210
2. Navy: OPNAVINST 1160.9
3. Air Force: AFI 36-2002
4. Marine Corps: MCO 1130.53P

090103. Limitations

A. An individual can receive only one enlistment bonus during a lifetime.

B. An individual may not be paid an enlistment and a reenlistment bonus for the same period of service.

C. Reservists currently obligated to a military service under the Delayed Enlistment Program are not eligible for an enlistment bonus from another military service.

090104. Amount. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned shall determine the amount of the enlistment bonus awarded for a designated military skill. The bonus payment for a designated military skill shall not exceed $40,000.

NOTE: When a member enlists in a Reserve Component under the Delayed Enlistment Program (DEP), with a concurrent commitment to serve in a Regular Component for a period of at least 2 years in a skill designated as critical, the award level of the enlistment bonus is fixed on the date of enlistment in the DEP, rather than on the date of entry on active duty.

090105. Method of Payment

A. The bonus may be paid in periodic installments, or in a single lump sum. The timing of the initial payment is at the discretion of the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, except that it shall not be paid before the member completes basic recruit training. For individuals enlisted for specialties requiring formal training, the Service concerned may withhold the initial payment until the individual completes the training and qualification in the military skill, so that the bonus serves as an incentive to complete the training needed to qualify in the skill.

B. Members with prior military service who do not require formal training to be technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus is being paid shall be paid the first installment no earlier than 30 days after arrival at the first permanent duty station following reentry on active duty.

C. If paid in installments, after the initial payment, the remainder of the bonus shall be paid in equal periodic installments.

090106. Repayment

A. General. A member who does not complete the term of enlistment, or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

B. Amount of Repayment. Divide the amount of the bonus paid by the number of months for which the bonus is payable. This is the bonus amount per month. Multiply this number by the number of months and fractions of months not served (including lost time, unless such lost time has been made up). This is the amount to be recouped.

Example: A member enlists for 6 years (obligated service). Total bonus payable is $36,000. The bonus was paid for $6,000 per year ($36,000 divided by 6 years). Bonus amount per month is $6,000 divided by 12 = $500 per month. Of this 36-month period, the member serves 30 months (does not serve 6 of the 36 months). Recoup $500 x 6 = $3,000 if reason for separation requires repayment.

0902 SELECTIVE REENLISTMENT BONUS (SRB)

* 090201. Entitlement. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay a bonus to a member of a uniformed service who:

A. Has completed at least 17 months of continuous active duty (other than for training), but not more than 20 years of active duty;

B. Is qualified in a military skill designated as critical by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned; and

C. Reenlists or voluntarily extends enlistment for a period of at least 3 years:

1. In a Regular Component of the service concerned or

2. In a Reserve Component of the service concerned, if the member is performing active Guard or Reserve duty (see Chapter 56).

090202. General Eligibility. An enlisted member is eligible to receive a SRB if the individual meets the following conditions:

A. The enlisted member is qualified in a military skill designated for award of the SRB before the effective date on which the award of a bonus for a designated military skill is terminated.

B. The enlisted member attains eligibility before the effective date of termination of awards in any military skill designated for termination of the award. Members must attain eligibility before the effective date of a reduction of award level to be eligible for the higher award level. Eligibility attained through any modification of an existing service obligation, including any early discharge granted under Title 10, United States Code (U.S.C.), section 1171, must have been attained before the effective date of the termination or reduction of award in the military skill.

C. The enlisted member is serving in pay grade E-3 or higher.

D. The enlisted member reenlists or voluntarily extends enlistment in the Regular Component of the Military Service concerned for a period of at least 3 years.

E. The enlisted member must qualify under any additional eligibility criteria prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, as prescribed in:

1. Army: AR 601-280
2. Navy: OPNAVINST 1160.8A
3. Air Force: AFI 36-2002
4. Marine Corps: MCO 7220.24M

NOTE: The Secretary of Defense may waive the eligibility requirement in subparagraph 090202.A, in the case of a reenlistment or voluntary extension of enlistment by a member of the Armed Forces, that is entered into as described in this section, while the member is serving on active duty in Afghanistan, Iraq, or Kuwait in support of Operation Enduring Freedom or Operation New Dawn.

090203. Limitations

A. A reenlistment must occur no later than 3 months (or within a lesser period if so prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned) after the date of discharge or release from active duty (other than active duty for training in a Reserve Component).

B. Veterans with more than a 3-month but less than a 4-year break in active duty may qualify for a broken service, or prior service re-entry, SRB program in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. For SRB purposes, a member who reenlists in the Navy more than 24 hours but less than 4 years after discharge or release from active duty shall be considered as a Navy veteran with broken service.

The 24-hour period begins on the day following the date of discharge or separation. For reenlistees reentering active duty with a break in active duty greater than 24 hours, only the original DD Form 214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, (copy 1 or copy 4) or a reproduction of the DD Form 214, with a certified true-copy stamp and appropriate Federal Government authenticating seal imprinted thereon, are acceptable documentation and identification.

C. Members who reenlist in the same Military Service within 3 months after release from active duty as an officer are eligible for an SRB, provided they served as an enlisted member in that Military Service immediately before serving as an officer and meet all other eligibility criteria. For special rules for computation of an SRB in the case of a former officer with prior enlisted service, see subparagraph 090206.E.

D. Members may not use the period of any existing contractual service agreement to attain eligibility, except as provided for in subparagraph 090206.C.

E. Two or more extensions may not be combined to gain eligibility for an SRB. Additionally, eligibility gained through an extension may not be increased by future extensions.

F. Members who reenlist or extend to gain sufficient obligated service to participate in a program leading to commissioned or warrant officer status are not eligible for an SRB.

090204. Reenlistment Zones Eligibility. There are 5 zones of consideration.

A. Zone A Eligibility. The enlisted member must:

1. Have completed at least 17 months of continuous active duty (other than active duty for training as a member of a Reserve Component), but no more than 6 years of active duty, on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment.

2. Have a total period of obligated active duty of at least 6 years, because of the reenlistment or extension, when coupled with existing active service.

3. Not have received a Zone A SRB in the past.

B. Zone B Eligibility. The enlisted member must:

1. Have completed at least 6 years of active duty service, at least 17 months of which was continuous active duty (other than for active duty for training as a member of a Reserve Component), but no more than 10 years of active duty on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment.

2. Have a total period of obligated active duty of at least 10 years, because of the reenlistment or extension, when coupled with existing active service.

3. Not have received a Zone B SRB in the past.

C. Zone C Eligibility. The enlisted member must:

1. Have completed at least 10 years of active duty service, at least 17 months of which was continuous active duty (other than for active duty for training as a member of a Reserve Component), but no more than 14 years of active duty on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment.

2. Have a total period of obligated active duty of at least 14 years, because of the reenlistment or extension, when coupled with existing active service.

3. Not have received a Zone C SRB in the past.

D. Zone D Eligibility. The enlisted member must:

1. Have completed at least 14 years of active duty service, at least 17 months of which was continuous active duty (other than for active duty for training as a member of a Reserve Component), but no more than 18 years of active duty on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment.

2. Have a total period of obligated active duty of at least 18 years, because of the reenlistment or extension, when coupled with existing active service.

3. Not have received a Zone D SRB in the past.

E. Zone E Eligibility. The enlisted member must:

1. Have completed at least 18 years of active duty service, at least 17 months of which was continuous active duty (other than for active duty for training as a member of a Reserve Component), but no more than 20 years of active duty on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment.

2. Have a total period of obligated active duty of at least 20 years, because of the reenlistment or extension, when coupled with existing active service.

3. Not have received a Zone E SRB in the past.

F. Special Conditions

1. Members with exactly 6 years of active duty on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment may be paid a Zone A bonus, if otherwise eligible, and if they have not previously received a Zone A bonus. If they have received a Zone A bonus or no Zone A bonus is designated, then they may be paid a Zone B bonus if otherwise eligible.

2. Members with exactly 10 years of active duty on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment may be paid a Zone B bonus if otherwise eligible and they have not received a Zone B bonus. If they have received a Zone B bonus or no Zone B bonus is designated, then they may be paid a Zone C bonus if otherwise eligible.

3. Members with exactly 14 years of active duty on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment may be paid a Zone C bonus if otherwise eligible and they have not received a Zone C bonus. If they have received a Zone C bonus or no Zone C bonus is designated, then they may be paid a Zone D bonus if otherwise eligible.

4. Members with exactly 18 years of active duty on the date of reenlistment or beginning of an extension of enlistment may be paid a Zone D bonus if otherwise eligible and they have not received a Zone D bonus. If they have received a Zone D bonus or no Zone D bonus is designated, then they may be paid a Zone E bonus if otherwise eligible.

5. Members who have elected to exercise their entitlement to readjustment pay, severance pay, or separation pay are not eligible to receive an SRB.

090205. Amount. The maximum amount payable is the lesser of:

A. The product of the member's monthly basic pay (at the time of discharge, release from active duty, or the day prior to the beginning of extension), times the number of years (or monthly fraction thereof) of the reenlistment or extension period (not to exceed 6 years), times a multiple (not to exceed 15) set by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. (The multiple shall be based on the criticality of the military skill); or

B. $90,000; or

C. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may establish a flat-rate annual payment for the SRB, provided the flat-rate amount paid to any member over the term of the reenlistment or extension is less than the maximum amount prescribed in subparagraph 090205.B and the amount calculated applying the format in subparagraph 090205.A.

NOTE: The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may also provide a multiple for the location or projected location to which the enlisted Service member agrees to reenlist to serve provided manning shortages are being experienced in that skill at that location.

090206. Additional Obligated Service and Computations

A. Additional obligated service is defined as any active service commitment beyond an existing contractual service agreement. Existing contractual service agreements include enlistments, extensions of enlistment, and reenlistments.

B. Any portion of a term of reenlistment or extension of enlistment that, when added to the total years of service of the member at the time of discharge, or beginning of the extension, exceeds 24 years may not be used in computing a bonus under subparagraph 090205.A. Service members may not use the period of any existing contractual service agreement for bonus computation.

C. The following may be considered as part of an immediately subsequent term of reenlistment (or voluntary extension of an enlistment) for bonus computation:

1. Any period of enlistment, including extension of enlistment, that is incurred by a member for continuing to qualify for continuous submarine duty incentive pay under 37 U.S.C. 301c, and for which no bonus is otherwise payable.

2. Any unserved period of 2 years or less of an extension of an enlistment for which no bonus has been paid or for which no bonus is otherwise payable, provided the immediately subsequent term of reenlistment or voluntary extension of an enlistment is for a term of at least 2 years.

Example: A member with 13 years, 3 months, and 15 days active duty; 3 months, 5 days of active duty for training; and 2 months, 15 days of existing obligated service, who enlists for 4 years, can be paid an SRB (Zone C) based on 2 years, 2 months as follows:

	YR	MO	DAY
Active duty	13	3	15
Active duty for training		3	5
Existing obligated service	—	2	15
Total	13	8	35
or	13	9	5

3. Not to exceed a maximum amount of $90,000 per SRB. (See maximum SRB years in this example.)

	YR	MO	DAY
Less obligated active service (partial months count as a whole month)	13	10	0
Time for which SRB (Zone C) is payable	2	2	0

4. Not paid more than once within each zone of eligibility.

D. When a member extends an enlistment for an SRB, the SRB payment is based on the award level multiplier in effect on the date the extension agreement is executed rather than on the date the extension agreement becomes operative.

E. When computing the SRB in the case of a former officer with prior enlisted service who may be entitled to a bonus, if the bonus amount payable is other than a flat-rate reenlistment bonus, the bonus payable shall be computed using the monthly basic pay of the grade in which the member is enlisted, computed in accordance with the member's years of service computed under 37 U.S.C. 205, instead of the monthly basic pay to which the member was entitled at the time of release from active duty as an officer.

F. Computation Factors for Commissioning Program

Example 1: Assume that the member reenlisted on April 4, 2002, for 4 years. The SRB due: was $16,000. The member was paid the first installment of $8,000 (50 percent) on April 4, 2002, and the second installment of $2,666.66 on April 4, 2003. The total SRB paid to date $10,666.66.

The member entered officer training school (OTS) with a class start date of June 1, 2003. The member's third and fourth installments would be suspended pending completion of OTS and commissioning. Given successful completion, the member would forfeit the remaining installments. However, had the member washed out of the program and returned to enlisted status in the same bonus skill, the remaining installments would be payable, but at a rate reduced by the number of days spent in the OTS program. Computation is as follows:

Initial Bonus Information

SRB Entitlement	$16,000
No. Days Paid	1440
Daily Rate	$11.1111	($16,000 / 1440)
No. Days in OTS	96	(member washed out of OTS September 6, 2003 (30-day basis))
New No. Days Paid	1344	(1440 - 96)
New SRB Entitlement	$14,933.32	(1344 x $11.1111)

Balance to be paid over remaining two installments: $4,266.66 ($14,933.32 - $10,666.66 paid to date).

Due final two installments: $2,133.33 ($4,266.66 divided by 2).

Example 2: Assume that the member reenlisted on June 4, 2002, for 4 years. The SRB due: is $16,000. The member was paid the first installment of $8,000 (50 percent) on June 4, 2002, with the second installment due on June 4, 2003.

The member entered OTS with class start date of June 10, 2003. The member's acceptance in OTS was granted on March 10, 2003. Under this set of circumstances, the member would be due the second SRB installment as it fell due before the class start date. The member should be paid the second SRB installment, but the third and fourth installments would be suspended pending completion of the commissioning program.

Example 3: Assume that the member reenlisted on June 4, 2002, for 4 years. The SRB due: is $16,000. The member was paid the first installment of $8,000 (50 percent) on June 4, 2002, with the second installment due on June 4, 2003.

The member entered ECP with a class start date of June 2, 2003. The member's acceptance in ECP was granted on March 10, 2003. Under this set of circumstances, the member would not be due the second SRB installment as it fell due after the class start date. The member's second, third, and fourth SRB installments would be suspended pending the completion of the commissioning program.

Example 4: Assume that the member enlisted on January 1, 2003, for 4 years. The member completed training on March 31, 2003, and was awarded a military specialty, for which an enlistment bonus (EB) of $6,000 was authorized. The member was paid the first installment of $5,000 on April 1, 2003.

The member entered OTS with a class start date of June 1, 2003. The member washed out of the commissioning program on November 30, 2003. The computation is as follows:

Initial Bonus Information

EB Entitlement	$6,000
No. Days Paid	1440
Daily Rate	$4.166 ($6,000 / 1440)
No. Days in OTS	180 (member washed out of OTS November 30, 2003 (use 30-day basis))
New No. Days Paid	1260 (1440 - 180)
New EB Entitlement	$5,249.92 (1260 x 4.1666)
Balance to be Paid	$249.92 ($5,249.92 - $5,000 paid to date)

090207. Method of Payment. The bonus may be paid in installments, or in a single lump sum. If the Secretary of the Military Department concerned elects to pay SRBs in installments:

A. The initial payment shall be not less than 50 percent of the total bonus, paid at the time of reenlistment, or when the Service member begins serving in the extension. The remainder is paid in equal annual installments. If necessary, the Military Service concerned shall make appropriate adjustments to the amounts so that all payments are made before the Service member completes 24 years of active service.

B. The initial payment to a Service member who reenlists with a break in active duty greater than 24 hours is to be made no earlier than 30 days after arrival at the first permanent duty station following reenlistment, although the bonus is computed from the actual date of reenlistment.

C. Where there is lost time, the subsequent installment payments will be delayed by the number of days of lost time.

D. Discharge for the purpose of immediate reenlistment does not affect a member's entitlement to subsequent SRB installment payments.

090208. Reduction and Termination of Awards

A. When a military specialty is designated for reduction or termination of award, an effective date for reduction or termination of award shall be established and promulgated to the field at least 30 days in advance. Except as provided in subparagraphs 090208.B and 090206.E, all awards on and after the effective date of the military specialty designated for reduction of award will be at the reduced level, and no new awards will be made on or after the effective date in a military specialty designated for termination of award.

B. A member who agrees to train and reenlist for military service in a skill, which at the time of that agreement is designated for award of the SRB, may be paid the bonus for that skill at the award level in effect at the time of agreement or at the award level in effect at the time of reenlistment, whichever is higher, on completion of qualification training and reenlistment in that skill, if the member is otherwise qualified for the bonus, even if that skill is no longer designated for award of the SRB at the time the member becomes eligible for payment of the bonus.

090209. Repayment

A. General. A member who does not complete the term of enlistment, or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

B. Amount of Repayment. Repayment is required on a percentage basis for the time remaining to be served. Divide the amount of the bonus paid by the number of months for which the bonus is payable. This is the bonus amount per month. Multiply this number by the number of months and fractions of months not served (including lost time, unless such lost time has been made up). This is the amount to be recouped.

Example: A member reenlists for 6 years (obligated service). Total bonus payable is $36,000. The bonus was paid for $6,000 per year ($36,000 divided by 6 years). Bonus amount per month is $6,000 divided by 12 = $500 per month. Of this 36-month period, the member serves 30 months (does not serve 6 of the 36 months). Recoup  $$500 \times 6 = $3,000$  if reason for separation requires repayment.

090210. Termination of Authority. No agreement under this section may be entered into after December 31, 2010, unless this bonus authority is extended by the Congress.

0903 CRITICAL SKILL RETENTION BONUS (CSRB)

* 090301. Eligibility. An enlisted member of the Armed Forces who is serving on active duty in a Regular Component or in an active status in a Reserve Component (see Chapter 56), and who is qualified in a critical military skill designated by the Secretary of Defense, may be paid a retention bonus as provided in this section if:

A. In the case of an enlisted member other than a member serving on an indefinite enlistment, the member reenlists or voluntarily extends the enlistment for at least 1 year; or

B. In the case of an enlisted member serving on an indefinite enlistment, the member executes a written agreement to remain on active duty for at least 1 year or to remain in an active status in a Reserve Component for at least 1 year.

NOTE: The member may not be paid a retention bonus if the member received a bonus or incentive pay under both subchapter I and subchapter II of chapter 5 of title 37 United States Code for the same activity, skill, or period of service.

090302. Limitations

A. A retention bonus may not be provided under paragraph 090301 to a member of the Armed Forces who has completed more than 25 years of active duty or service in an active status in a Reserve Component or who shall complete the 25th year before the end of the period of active duty or active status for which the bonus is offered. This limitation does not apply with respect to:

1. A member who, during the period of active duty or service in an active status in a Reserve Component for which the bonus is offered, is an officer assigned duties as a health care professional;

2. A member who is qualified in a skill related to special operations forces; or

3. A member who is qualified for duty in connection with supervision, operation, and maintenance of navel propulsion plants.

B. The Principal Director Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (PDUSD (P&R)) may waive the 25-year service limitation on eligibility with respect to a member who, during a period of active duty or service in an active status in a Reserve Component for which the bonus is being offered, is assigned duties in a skill designated as critical.

C. Unless specifically authorized by the PDUSD (P&R), no CSRB payment may be made before the start of the active duty service period for which the CSRB is being awarded.

NOTE: The enlisted member must reenlist or voluntarily extend their enlistment or execute an active duty service obligation agreement (when applicable) for a period of at least 1 year.

090303. Amount

A. A member may enter into an agreement, or reenlist or voluntarily extend the member's enlistment, more than once to receive a bonus under this section. However, a member may not receive a total of more than $200,000 (or $100,000 in the case of a Reserve Component member) in payments under this section.

B. The amount payable in a CSRB shall be established by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, but it shall neither result in payment inconsistent with the maximum amounts prescribed in 37 U.S.C. 355, nor may it exceed an annual payment of $30,000 to any member unless the PDUUSD(P&R) has granted an exception to that annual $30,000 maximum.

090304. Method of Payment. A bonus under this section may be paid in a single lump sum or in periodic installments.

090305. Repayment

A. General. A member who does not complete the term of enlistment or extension of enlistment or who is not technically qualified in the skill for which the bonus was paid, will be subject to the repayment provisions of Chapter 2.

B. Amount of Repayment. Repayment is required on a percentage basis for the time remaining to be served. Divide the amount of the bonus paid by the number of months for which the bonus is payable. This is the bonus amount per month. Multiply this number by the number of months and fractions of months not served (including lost time, unless such lost time has been made up). This is the amount to be recouped.

Example: A member reenlists for 6 years (obligated service). Total bonus payable is $36,000. The bonus was paid for $6,000 per year ($36,000 divided by 6 years). Bonus amount per month is $6,000 divided by 12 = $500 per month. Of this 36-month period, the member serves 30 months (does not serve 6 of the 36 months). Recoup  $$500 \times 6 = $3,000$  if reason for separation requires repayment.

090306. Termination of Authority. No bonus may be paid under this section with respect to any reenlistment, or voluntary extension of an enlistment, in the Armed Forces entered into after December 31, 2010, and no agreement under this section may be entered into after that date, unless this bonus authority is extended by the Congress.
