2. Has received training under regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned designed to develop proficiency in a foreign language;
3. Is assigned to military duties requiring a proficiency in a foreign language; or
4. Is proficient in a foreign language for which the Secretary of the Military Department concerned has identified a critical need.

B. Reserve Component members must meet the requirements:

3. Must fulfill minimum annual service requirements for retirement eligibility under Title 10, United States Code \(U.S.C.\), section 12732, unless waived by Secretary of the Military Department concerned.

190102. Certification

A. A member must be eligible and certified by the Secretary of the Military department concerned as being proficient in the foreign language for which the bonus is offered.

B. The certification of members' language proficiency will expire at the end of the 1-year period beginning on the first day of the first month after the certification date. Members must test annually in each language for which they are receiving FLPB in order to continue receiving FLPB unless they are recertified under the conditions stipulated in subparagraph 190102.D. Members may retest no earlier than 6-months from the last administration of a test in that foreign language or upon completion of a significant language education or training event in that foreign language.

C. A member must be certified as proficient in any combination of 2 of 3 modalities (reading, listening, and speaking) to receive FLPB.

D. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may elect to recertify members' foreign language proficiency using their last recorded score when:

1. Members are assigned to duty in connection with a contingency operation or assigned outside the continental United States to a location where web-delivered testing facilities are not available and/or accessible. In such cases, members will complete the certification requirements provided in paragraph 190102 in the foreign language for which they receive FLPB not later than the end of the 180-day period beginning on the date they are released from the duty assignment; and

2. Members whose certification in the foreign language for which they receive FLPB expires while attending a significant education or training event in which Defense Language Proficiency Testing is required for course completion. In such cases, members' next 1-year certification period shall begin when they test and/or immediately upon completion of the significant education or training event.

190103. Amount and Method of Payment

A. The bonus rate of FLPB may not exceed $12,000 per 1-year certification period. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay the bonus in monthly installments, or in a lump sum during the certification period.

B. The monthly rate shall not exceed $500 per month for a single language, or $1,000 per month for any combination of languages. The bonus is in addition to any other pay or allowance payable to a member under any other provision of law.

C. To receive the maximum monthly bonus installment allowed in any payment category (A, B, or C), Service members must acquire 3/3/3 proficiency in all three modalities or attain an Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) skill level 4 or above in any two modalities. See Table 19-1.

D. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned:

1. Shall submit a waiver request to Deputy Under Secretary of Defense (Plans) for approval to pay Service members a bonus for foreign languages that are not identified on the Strategic Language List (SLL) or other Department of Defense \(DoD\)-approved language list;

2. May authorize FLPB at either Payment A, B or C rates (see Table 19-1) for DoD-approved languages not on the SLL and where there is a need to ensure sufficient number of proficient personnel to accomplish DoD Component-specific missions;

3. May, in the case of foreign languages considered dominant in the force, limit the payment of FLPB to those Service members whose duties require proficiency in such languages or as determined by the Military Secretary concerned; and
