CHAPTER 19

FOREIGN LANGUAGE PROFICIENCY BONUS**1901 GENERAL

This chapter establishes policy pertaining to Foreign Language Proficiency Bonus (FLPB) for members of a regular or reserve component of the uniformed services.

1902 ENTITLEMENT**190201. General Provisions

A. FLPB will be paid to a member, of an Active or Reserve Component of the uniformed services, that has been certified by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, as proficient in one or more foreign languages or dialects identified on the Department of Defense (DoD) Strategic Language List (SLL) in the Immediate and Emerging category (see Table 19-1, Payment Category A).

B. FLPB may be paid to a member, of an Active or Reserve Component of the uniformed services, that has been certified by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned as proficient in one or more foreign languages or dialects:

1. Identified on the DoD or Service Secretary SLL in the Enduring category (Service Secretaries may choose to pay or not pay FLPB, see Table 19-1, Payment Category B); or

2. Not identified on the DoD SLL, but designated by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned as a foreign language or dialect for which proficient personnel are required to accomplish DoD Component specific missions (see Table 19-1, Payment Category B).

C. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may not vary the criteria or rates for the proficiency bonus paid for officers and enlisted members.

*190202. Active Component (AC) Eligibility

A. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned will pay a FLPB to a member of an AC of the uniformed services who meets at least one of the following conditions:

1. Is qualified in a military career specialty requiring proficiency in a foreign language or dialect and is certified proficient in that foreign language or dialect;

2. Has received training, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned, designed to develop proficiency in a foreign language or dialect;

3. Is assigned to military duties requiring a proficiency in a foreign language or dialect for which the DoD or the Secretary of the Military Department concerned has identified a need; or

4. Is certified proficient in a foreign language or dialect in accordance with paragraph 190204 for which the DoD or the Secretary of the Military Department concerned has identified a critical need.

* B. The member must execute a written agreement with the Secretary of the Military Department concerned that specifies the:

1. Amount of FLPB awarded;

2. Period for which the FLPB will be paid;

3. Initial certification or recertification necessary for the FLPB payment; and

4. Repayment provision of the unearned portion of any remaining FLPB if the member does not satisfy the eligibility and certification requirements for the length of the written agreement.

* C. The member must achieve a minimum of Interagency Language Roundtable (ILR) skill level 2/2 (ILR skill level 1/1 if authorized by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned) or higher in any two modalities of the Service's determination on a DoD or Service Secretary SLL or Service-approved foreign language or dialect in order to receive FLPB, except as outlined in paragraphs 190206 and 190207.

*190203. Reserve Component (RC) Eligibility

A. In order to receive FLPB in a similar fashion as a member of an AC of the uniformed services, a member of the RC must:

1. Meet the eligibility certification requirements outlined in paragraph 190202, 190204, 190206, and 190207; and

2. Fulfill minimum annual service requirements for retirement eligibility, as defined in Title 10, United States Code (U.S.C.), section 12732 unless waived by Secretary of the Military Department concerned;

B. RC members must earn a minimum of 50 retirement points, regardless of the RC source, in each full anniversary year to have that year creditable towards verification of the total years of qualifying service for non-regular retired pay and payment of FLPB.

1. A partial qualifying year is any period of less than 12 full months during which the RC member earns a prorated share of 50 retirement points and an identical prorated share (or smaller percentage of full FLPB annual payment) of FLPB.

2. RC members who perform a partial qualifying year of less than 12 full months and earn less than 50 retirement points in a year will have their FLPB prorated at a value of 2 percent for each retirement point less than 50 points.

C. The total of FLPB paid to RC members who are in good standing and who have not been adjudicated as unsatisfactory performers in the previous 12 months must equal the annual FLPB paid to an AC member with the same certified language proficiency.

D. For RC members, the requirement to attain 50 points during a separation year is waived for an RC FLPB calculation if the member separates before 12 months in the anniversary year. The RC member will be paid the standard FLPB monthly allotment for months in good standing, with the last month prorated if separation occurs before the last day of the month. RC members in a separation year, which are no longer in good standing, will have their FLPB terminated in the month in which they fall from good standing. The exception to the 50-point standard in a separation year is an RC member who serves the entire anniversary year. The individual must earn 50 points to collect the last month of FLPB prior to separation.

*190204. Certification

A. A member must be eligible and certified by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned as being proficient in a foreign language or dialect for which the bonus is offered.

* B. The certification of members' foreign language or dialect proficiency will expire at the end of the 1-year period beginning on the first day of the first month after the certification date. Members must test annually in each foreign language or dialect for which they are receiving FLPB in order to continue receiving FLPB, unless they are recertified under the conditions stipulated in paragraphs 190206 and 190207. Members may retest no earlier than 6-months from the last administration of a test in that foreign language or dialect unless the member has completed a significant language education or training event, (at least 150 hours of immersion training or 6 consecutive weeks of 5-hour-a-day classroom training, or other significant events as defined by the Secretaries of the Military Departments, Defense Agencies, and DoD Field Activities heads), in that foreign language or dialect.

C. A member must be certified as proficient in any combination of two of three modalities (reading, listening, and speaking) to receive FLPB, except as noted in Table 19-1, Note 2.

*190205. Amount and Method of Payment

A. The bonus rate of FLPB may not exceed $12,000 per 1-year certification period. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay a bonus in monthly installments or a lump sum during the certification period.

* B. The monthly rate will not exceed $500 per month for a single foreign language or dialect, or $1,000 per month for two or more foreign languages or dialects. The total annual FLPB amount may not exceed $12,000 for each 1-year period of certification.

C. To receive the maximum monthly bonus installment allowed in any payment category (A or B), members must acquire 3/3/3 proficiency in all three modalities or achieve an ILR skill level 4/4 or above in any two modalities (see Table 19-1).

D. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned:

1. May authorize FLPB at either Payment A or B rates (see Table 19-1) for DoD-approved languages not on the SLL and where there is a need to ensure sufficient number of proficient personnel to accomplish DoD Component specific missions;

2. May, in the case of foreign languages considered prevalent in the force, limit the payment of FLPB to those Service members whose duties require proficiency in such languages or as determined by the Military Secretary concerned; or

3. May authorize the payment of FLPB to Service members whose duties require an ILR skill below level 2 in the listening and reading or speaking modalities.

*190206. Waiver of Recertification of Proficiency

A. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may waive the certification requirement and pay FLPB to a member who:

1. Is assigned to duty in connection with a contingency operation;

2. Is unable to schedule or complete the test for certification because of that assignment; and

3. Except for the lack of such certification, satisfies the eligibility requirements cited in paragraphs 190202 or 190203.

B. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may treat the date the member was assigned to duty in connection with a contingency operation as equivalent to a certification date.

C. A member whose certification will expire during a contingency operation assignment or within 6 months following return to the continental United States or overseas permanent duty station, the Secretary of the Military Department will authorize the Service member those 6 months after returning a mandatory grace period to recertify for FLPB.

D. If a member fails to obtain the required certification by the end of the 6-month period, then the Secretary of the Military Department concerned may require the Service member to repay all or a portion of the FLPB received in accordance with paragraph 190303.

E. The Secretary of the Military Department concerned may waive the annual certification in subparagraph 190204.B and the duration of certification requirements in paragraphs 190206 and 190207, if the Service FLPB regulation addresses the specific circumstances under which the Service Secretary may waive either or both of these certification requirements.

*190207. Exceptions to Recertification

The Secretary of the Military Department may elect to recertify a member's foreign language or dialect proficiency using their last recorded DoD Language Proficiency Test (DLPT) scores when:

A. Members are assigned to duty outside the continental United States (excluding Alaska and Hawaii) at a location where web-delivered testing facilities are not available or accessible. In such cases, members may complete the recertification requirements provided in paragraph 190204, no later than 6 months after the date they are released from the duty assignment. The Secretary of the Military Department is responsible for determining which locations qualify for this recertification and the duration (not to exceed 6 months) of the Service recertification grace period.

B. Members' certification expires while they are attending a significant language education or training event, (at least 150 hours of immersion training or 6 consecutive weeks of 5-hour-a-day classroom training, or other significant events as defined by the Secretaries of the Military Departments, Defense Agencies, and DoD Field Activities heads). Their next 1-year certification period will begin when they retest after they complete the significant language education or training event. The member's FLPB will continue while they are in training up until they complete the course retest event. Further FLPB entitlement will be based on the results from that event.

C. Members who initially certify or recertify proficient through the DLPT system, at or above ILR skill levels 3/3 or 3/3/3 in a foreign language or dialect, must take an approved test within the DLPT system no less frequently than every 2 years for recertification, in which case recertification in the off year may be accomplished using a method selected by the Secretary of the Military Department.

1903 CONDITIONS OF ENTITLEMENT

190301. Requirements

1. All possible ILR skill level proficiency combinations are not depicted. In the case where a member's certified proficiency falls between two skill levels depicted, the member must be paid at the next lower skill level depicted (if at or above ILR skill level 2/2) where both proficiencies meet or exceed that lowest depicted payment threshold.
2. The member must be certified as proficient using the proficiency skill levels shown in any combination of two of the three modalities (Listening (L), Reading (R), and Speaking (S)) of the Service's determination in order to receive FLPB.
  - A. In the case of languages or dialects where there is only a single modality Office of the Under Secretary of Defense Personnel & Readiness (OUSD P&R)-approved test (L or R score), the Secretary of the Military Department concerned may:
    1. Require the member to also take a OUSD P&R-approved Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) to achieve the requirement of two modality scores for FLPB eligibility; or
    2. Use a corresponding modality from a different dialect of the same language to serve as the second modality for FLPB eligibility (i.e., combine the Modern Standard Arabic R DLPT modality score with an L score from a different dialect of Arabic).
  - B. In the case of foreign languages or dialects where a DLPT or another test approved by the OUSD P&R does not exist but an OUSD P&R-approved OPI is available, the Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay FLPB for the single S modality only.
3. Secretary of the Military Department concerned must pay Immediate and Emerging DoD SLL category languages (at ILR skill level 2/2 and above).
4. Secretary of the Military Department concerned may pay FLPB at the Category B scale to Service members who test proficient in an additional DoD or Service-approved dialect of a language for which they receive FLPB at the Category A rate.
5. Secretary of the Military Department concerned has discretion to pay FLPB at the ILR skill levels 1/1 and 1+/1+.
6. Secretary of the Military Department concerned has discretion to pay or not pay FLPB on the scale bounded by zero and the Category A rate and at any 25 dollar increment between those lower and upper FLPB pay limits.
