0101 GENERAL

010101. Purpose

This chapter describes the establishment, roles, responsibilities, and authority of the Department of Defense (DoD) Chief Financial Officer (CFO) as established by the CFO Act of 1990. The DoD CFO is also the Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller) (USD(C). The USD(C)/CFO is charged with the responsibility of developing and implementing DoD-wide financial management systems and overseeing financial management activities relating to the CFO programs and operations of the DoD.

*010102. Authoritative Guidance

CFO establishment, roles, responsibilities, and authority prescribed by this chapter are in accordance with CFO Act of 1990 (Title 31, United States Code, sections 901, 902, 903, and 3515) (31 U.S.C. §§ 901, 902, 903, and 3515), DoD Directive (DoDD) 5118.03, “Under Secretary of Defense (Comptroller)/Chief Financial Officer, Department of Defense (USD(C)/CFO)” and DoDD 5118.05, "Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS)."

0102 CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER APPOINTMENT

The CFO Act designates DoD as an agency whose CFO is either appointed by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the U.S. Senate; or designated by the President, in consultation with the head of the agency, from among officials of the agency who are required by law to be so appointed. The USD(C), who is appointed by the President and confirmed by the U.S. Senate, is also the DoD CFO.

0103 ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

The USD(C)/CFO is the Principal Staff Assistant and advisor to the Secretary of Defense for budgetary and fiscal matters including financial management, accounting policy and systems, managers’ internal control systems, budget formulation and execution, contract audit administration and organization, and general management improvement programs. See Figure 1-1 for the DoD Chief Financial Officer Structure. Consistent with the CFO Act, the following roles and responsibilities are assigned USD(C)/CFO:
010301.  Financial Management

Direct, manage and provide policy guidance and oversight of DoD financial management activities, personnel, and operations, including:

A. Establish financial management policies for the DoD including its component parts. Ensure compliance throughout the DoD with applicable accounting policy and standards.

B. Establish, review and enforce internal control policies, standards and compliance guidelines involving financial management.

C. Provide oversight of financial management activities and operations including: (a) preparation and annual revision of the Financial Improvement and Audit Remediation plan and (b) development of financial management budgets.

D. The preparation and annual revision of a DoD plan to implement the 5-year financial management plan prepared by the Director of the Office of Management and Budget (OMB) and to comply with the audited financial statements provisions of the CFO Act.

E. The recruitment, selection and training of personnel to carry out DoD financial management functions.

*010302.  Financial Management Systems

Develop and maintain an integrated agency accounting and financial management system, including but not limited to financial reporting, internal controls, cash management, credit management, debt collection, property management, and inventory management. In coordination with the Chief Management Officer, provide for the design, development, and installation of financial systems and for management improvement programs throughout the DoD, especially those related to financial management. Ensure system:

A. Complies with applicable accounting principles, standards and requirements, and internal control standards.

B. Complies with such policies and requirements as may be prescribed by the Director of OMB.

C. Provides for:

1. Complete, reliable, consistent and timely information which is prepared on a uniform basis and which is responsive to the financial information needs of DoD management.

2. The development and reporting of cost information.

3. The integration of accounting and budgeting information.
4. Financial and/or program performance data used in budget development and financial statements preparation.

5. The adequate controls over real property, equipment and inventories.

6. The systematic measurement of performance.

*010303. Agency Financial Report

As required by OMB Circular A-136, DoD must prepare and transmit an Agency Financial Report (AFR) to the Secretary of Defense, OMB, U.S. Department of the Treasury (Treasury), the Government Accountability Office, and the Congress. The Department’s financial reporting requirements and related information on the preparation of the AFR are identified in Volume 6B, Chapter 3.

010304. Budget Execution

Monitor the financial execution of the DoD budget in relation to actual expenditures, and prepare and submit to the Secretary of Defense timely performance reports.

010305. Biennial Review

Review, on a biennial basis, the fees, royalties, rents, and other charges imposed by the Department for services and things of value it provides, and make recommendations on revising those charges to reflect costs incurred in providing those services and things of value.

*0104 CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER AUTHORITY

To enable the USD(C)/CFO, for carrying out the duties and responsibilities, the USD(C)/CFO, has authority to:

A. Access all records, reports, audits, reviews, documents, papers, recommendations, or other material which are the property of the DoD or which are available to the DoD, and which relate to programs and operations with respect to which DoD CFO has responsibilities.

B. Request such information or assistance as may be necessary for carrying out the duties and responsibilities of the DoD CFO from any Federal, State, or local governmental entity.

C. To the extent and in such amounts as may be provided in advance by appropriations Acts, the CFO may enter into contracts and other arrangements with public agencies and with private persons for the preparation of financial statements, studies, analyses, and other services; and make such payments as may be necessary.
0105 CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICERS COUNCIL

The DoD CFO is a member of the Chief Financial Officers Council (CFOC) consisting of the Deputy Director for Management of OMB, the Controller of the Office of Federal Financial Management of OMB, the Fiscal Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and agency CFOs. The CFOC meets periodically to advise and coordinate the activities of its agency members on such matters as consolidation and modernization of financial systems, improved quality of financial information, financial data and information standards, internal controls, legislation affecting financial operations and organizations, and other financial management matters.

0106 ESTABLISHMENT OF THE DEPUTY CHIEF FINANCIAL OFFICER

The CFO Act requires the establishment of DoD Deputy Chief Financial Officer (DCFO), who must report directly to the DoD CFO on financial management matters. The position of DCFO must be a career-reserved position in the Senior Executive Service. Consistent with qualification standards developed by, and in consultation with, the DoD CFO and the Director of OMB, the Secretary of Defense must appoint as DoD DCFO an individual with demonstrated ability and experience in accounting, budget execution, financial and management analysis, systems development, and not less than 6 years practical experience in financial management at large governmental entities.

0107 DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE STAFF ORGANIZATIONS

010701. Deputy Comptroller (Program/Budget)

The Deputy Comptroller (Program/Budget) is responsible for overseeing and implementing budgetary functions within the DoD on a day-to-day basis. The Office of the Deputy Comptroller (Program/Budget) is organized into four directorates:

A. The Directorate for Investment is responsible for advising the Deputy Comptroller (Program/Budget) on all matters pertaining to: Procurement; Research, Development, Test, and Evaluation; the National Foreign Intelligence Program; and for the Defense Acquisition Board program.

B. The Directorate for Military Personnel and Construction is responsible for advising the Deputy Comptroller (Program/Budget) on all matters pertaining to operating and maintaining the U.S. military force structure to include active, reserve, and retired military; Defense Health Program; military construction; family housing; homeowners assistance; North Atlantic Treaty Organization infrastructure; Base Realignment and Closure; and Real Property Maintenance.

C. The Directorate for Operations is responsible for advising the Deputy Comptroller (Program/Budget) on all matters pertaining to operating and maintaining the U.S. military force structure to include active and reserve military personnel and civilian personnel. This directorate is also responsible for advising on all matters pertaining to Defense-wide Working Capital Funds, the Pentagon Reservation Maintenance Revolving Fund, the Building Maintenance
The Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History is located in Washington, D.C., and houses a diverse collection of scientific specimens and cultural artifacts. It is one of the largest museums of natural history in the world, with over 134 million objects on display. The museum is open to the public and offers a variety of educational programs and exhibits. In addition to its permanent exhibits, the museum frequently hosts special exhibitions and events. The Smithsonian National Museum of Natural History is a major research institution and provides a valuable resource for scientists and the public alike. Its collection includes fossils, minerals, plants, animals, and cultural artifacts from around the world. The museum is a popular destination for tourists and serves as a hub for scientific research and education.
C. The Directorate for Financial Improvement and Audit Remediation (FIAR) is responsible for oversight, management, performing liaison functions and helping DoD Components be audit ready; remediating findings, achieving post-audit sustainment, and developing and issuing a detailed Financial Improvement and Audit Remediation Plan that identifies financial process, system, and statement deficiencies and provides detailed corrective actions to address those deficiencies. Additional FIAR responsibilities include managing the Defense-wide Statement of Assurance process by monitoring and reporting the status of auditor and manager identified material weaknesses and corrective action plans; implementing the Federal Manager’s Financial Integrity Act program for DoD to include OMB Circular A-123, Appendix A, “Management of Reporting and Data Integrity Risk;” managing the Improving Financial Performance Initiative of the President’s Management Agenda; advocating for the USD(C)/CFO on various interagency forums and internal DoD councils, boards, committees, and external organizations as required, pertaining to audit readiness.

D. The Directorate for Financial Management Policy and Reporting (FMPR) is responsible for developing, promulgating, implementing, and interpreting DoD-wide accounting and finance policies; providing direct support to the USD(C)/CFO and Deputy CFO on various interagency forums; advocating for the USD(C)/CFO on various interagency organizations, and representing the USD(C)/CFO on various internal DoD councils, boards and committees pertaining to financial management policy. In addition, FMPR is responsible for providing oversight of, and performing liaison functions with, the DoD Components with respect to financial management operations, systems, responses to audit reports, policy clarifications, and other matters related to financial management; and administering this Regulation. The FMPR Directorate is also responsible for developing and issuing the DoD AFR (see paragraph 010303), oversight of the DoD-wide consolidated financial statements and notes, management of the DoD Improper Payments Program, and other external financial management reporting.

010703. Director, Defense Financial and Accounting Service

The Director of Defense Finance and Accounting Service (DFAS) is the principal DoD executive for finance and accounting requirements, systems, and functions under the authority and direction of the USD(C). In accordance with DoDD 5118.03 and DoDD 5118.05, DFAS must:

A. Direct and oversee finance and accounting requirements, systems, and functions for all appropriated, nonappropriated, working capital, revolving, and trust fund activities, including security assistance.

B. Establish and enforce requirements, principles, standards, systems, procedures, processes, and practices necessary to comply with finance and accounting statutory and regulatory requirements applicable to the DoD.

C. Provide professional finance and accounting services for DoD Components and other Federal agencies, as designated by the USD(C)/CFO.
D. Direct the consolidation, standardization, and integration of finance and accounting requirements, functions, procedures, operations, and systems and ensure their proper relationship with other DoD functional areas (e.g., budget, personnel, logistics, acquisition, and civil engineering).

E. Execute statutory and regulatory financial reporting requirements and provide financial statements, pursuant to 31 U.S.C. § 3515, to include supporting customers’ audit assertions and audit execution.

F. Provide advice and recommendations to the USD(C)/CFO on finance and accounting matters and provide documentation that discloses the internal controls within DFAS-assigned systems that may impact customers’ control environment in supporting auditability.

*  G. Coordinate on the establishment of all DoD finance and accounting activities independent of the DFAS and support the development and implementation of a compliant business solution with common business processes and data standards for horizontal end-to-end processes in the Business Enterprise Architecture.

0108 DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE COMPONENTS

The Heads of the DoD Components must direct and manage financial management activities within their respective Components, consistent with the policies, requirements, principles, standards, procedures, and practices prescribed by the USD(C)/CFO and DFAS, and other policies as prescribed by the Heads of the other DoD Components.
