CHAPTER 3

SPECIAL PAY – OFFICERS ONLY

0301 GENERAL

030101. Purpose

The Secretaries of the Military Departments may pay a bonus or special pay to persons or officers, as appropriate, to support accession and retention efforts for a designated military specialty, career field, unit, grade, or to meet some other condition or conditions of service imposed by the Secretary of the Military Department concerned. This chapter establishes policy pertaining to the payments of bonuses or special pay in support of accession and retention efforts.

*030102. Authoritative Guidance

The pay policies and requirements established by DoD in this chapter are derived primarily from, and prepared in accordance with the United States Code (U.S.C.). Due to the subject matter in this chapter, the list of authoritative sources is extensive. The specific statutes, regulations, and other applicable guidance that govern each individual section are listed in a reference section at the end of the chapter.

0302 GENERAL BONUS AUTHORITY FOR OFFICERS

030201. Authority

Title 37, U.S.C., section 332 and the DoD Instruction (DoDI) 1304.34, General Bonus Authority for Officers, dated July 11, 2016, provides the general bonus authority for bonuses referenced in sections 0303, 0304, 0305, and 0306. The Secretaries concerned may pay these bonuses to a person, member, or officer in the Military Services who:

G. Is not serving a service obligation, except as noted in paragraph 030208.

030203. Additional Guidelines

A. An officer is not eligible for a bonus, under DoDI 1304.34, if previously discharged or released from AD or military service in an active status based on a determination of misconduct, substandard duty performance, or moral or professional dereliction.

B. In accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 371, an officer may not receive a bonus or incentive pay under 37 U.S.C., Chapter 5, Subchapter I and Subchapter II, for the same activity, skill, or period of military service.

C. An officer may receive only one bonus pursuant to paragraph 030201 for the duration of the service obligation period, unless explicitly exempt in statute or DoDI 1304.34.

D. An officer may not receive more than $300,000 (or $150,000, in the case of a non-Active Guard Reserve officer in the RC) in combined bonus payments authorized under DoDI 1304.34 during the course of the officer's career. The Military Service may not exceed these payment caps unless specifically authorized by the Assistant Secretary of Defense for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (ASD (M&RA)).

E. An officer receiving pre-commissioning compensation in accordance with 10 U.S.C. §§ 2106, 2107, and 2107a, or financial assistance through a loan repayment program under 10 U.S.C. §§ 16201, 16301, 16302, or 16303, is not eligible for a bonus pursuant to DoDI 1304.34 until the military service obligation (MSO) is completed.

H. Existing bonus contracts under 37 U.S.C., Chapter 5, Subchapter I, will remain in effect through the preexisting termination dates.

030204. Payment Method

A. The Secretary concerned will establish the method of payment for the bonus (i.e., lump sum or periodic installments).

B. The Secretary concerned may make payment based on training milestones, proportional length of service, or lump sum. However, the Secretary will not pay an officer any portion of a skill bonus before awarding of the military skill specialty, if completion of such training and technical qualification forms the basis for which the bonus is paid.

C. Officers will receive their initial bonus payments based on the terms and conditions of their bonus agreements.

030205. Amount

The bonus amount paid by the Secretary concerned will be fixed on acceptance of the agreement by the Secretary, and may only be paid prospectively. The bonus paid may not exceed the following amounts, unless otherwise approved by the ASD (M&RA):

A. $60,000 for a minimum 4-year service obligation for an officer or person who accepts a commission or appointment as an officer in a Military Service, as described in subparagraph 030201.A;

030206. Specific Rule for Designated Military Skills or Career Fields

The following are specific procedures, requirements, and conditions related to an accession, affiliation, retention, or transfer bonus paid to an officer for a period of obligated service in a designated military skill or career field:

A. The period of obligated service will include normal skill progression, as defined by the Secretary concerned (e.g., attending courses in professional military education) and any other advanced training or education related to a designated military skill.

B. The Secretary concerned may pay a conversion bonus to an officer who agrees to convert to a designated military skill in which there is a shortage of trained and qualified officers. The bonus may be payable in a lump sum upon approval and completion of the conversion training by the Secretary concerned.

1. The officer must agree to serve for not less than 3 years on AD or in an active status in the Selective Reserve (SELRES) in that military skill or career field.

2. The officer must serve in the pay grade of O-3 or below with no more than 8 years of commissioned military service at the time the officer enters into the conversion contract, as computed in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 205.

3. The officer must have completed all service obligations previously incurred for receipt of an accession or retention bonus, in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 332, or critical skills retention bonus, in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 355, at the time the officer begins training for conversion to the new skill.

4. The bonus amount may not exceed the retention bonus amounts listed in paragraph 030504.

C. Officers receiving skill-based bonuses are expected to serve in an assignment for which the skill is required. For service obligations of at least 36 months, the Secretary concerned may curtail the assignment requirements to a period of 2 years based on the needs of the Military Service. The Secretary concerned will establish assignment criteria and procedures that limit the circumstances in which such a period of obligated military service may be curtailed and will specify such other appropriate conditions of military service, consistent with 37 U.S.C. § 332(b)(2) and paragraph 030202. Additionally, the Secretary will:

1. Ensure that military personnel centers identify, monitor, and review such obligated military service curtailments;

2. Approve any curtailment of the assignment criteria that involves more than one consecutive assignment in a military skill other than that which was designated for purposes of the bonus. This responsibility may be delegated no lower than the grade of major general or rear admiral (upper half); and

3. Ensure that any request for curtailment is:
 - a. Clearly justified based on the needs of the Military Department concerned; and
 - b. Not granted on a routine basis.

030207. Repayment

A person or officer who receives a bonus in accordance with 37 U.S.C. § 332, and fails to complete the period of obligated service or other conditions of service specified in the written agreement for which the bonus is paid, must repay any unearned portion of the bonus in accordance with the provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 373 and Chapter 2.

030208. Service Obligations

A. An officer who has a service obligation is not eligible for a bonus under DoDI 1304.34, except when the officer:

4. Incurs a service obligation as a result of transferring Post 9-11 GI Bill benefits.

B. For the situations described in subparagraphs 030208.A.1 through 030208.A.3, the service obligations may run concurrently for bonuses offered under DoDI 1304.34. For subparagraph 030208.A.4, the Secretary concerned will determine if the service obligation is concurrent or consecutive.

C. Excluding the situations described in subparagraph 030208.A:

1. The Military Department may offer a bonus under DoDI 1304.34 up to 1 year from completion of an officer’s service obligation.

2. The bonus may not be paid until completion of the previous service obligation.

3. The service obligation for a new bonus will begin on the date of the agreement or completion of a previous service obligation, whichever date is later.

030209. Non-Availability

A. Officers of the SELRES who incur a period of authorized absence approved by the Secretary concerned, or are transferred to the Standby Reserve in accordance with DoD Directive 1200.7, will have their bonuses suspended during this period and will not be entitled to bonus payments. The Secretary concerned will determine this period of time on a case-by-case basis.

B. The Secretary concerned may reinstate RC officers in the bonus program who are subsequently reassigned in the SELRES to a skill for which they had previously contracted, if they extend their MSO so they are able to serve the full original bonus agreement period.

C. Officers' entitlement to subsequent payments will resume on the adjusted anniversary date of satisfactory and creditable SELRES service, as appropriate. The Secretary concerned will adjust the anniversary date for periods of authorized absence. Failure to meet reinstatement criteria in a capacity that was previously agreed on will result in termination of the bonus and in repayment, as appropriate.
